 19 do the Jews of the villages, that dwell in the unwall'd towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

And Mordecai wrote these things, 20 and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far, to enjoin
 21 them that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly, as the 22

days wherein the Jews had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to gladness, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the 23 poor. And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had 24 written unto them; because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume
 25 them, and to destroy them; but when the matter came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he had devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head; and that he and his sons should be
 26 hanged on the gallows. Wherefore they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur. Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come unto them, 27 the Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to the writing thereof, and according to the appointed 28 time thereof, every year; and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them 'perish from their seed. Then 29 Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all ²authority to confirm this second letter of Purim. And he sent letters un- 30 to all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, to confirm these days of Purim 31 in their appointed times, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had ordained for themselves and for their seed, in the matter of the fastings and their cry. And the commandment of 32 Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

10 AND the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea. And all the acts of 2 his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai, wherunto the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? For Mordecai the Jew was next 3 unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren; seeking the good of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

THE BOOK OF JOB

1 THERE was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was ³Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one
 2 that feared God, and eschewed evil. And there were born unto him seven sons
 3 and three daughters. His ⁴substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the children of the east. And his sons went and held a feast 4 in the house of each one upon his day; and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. And it was so, when the days of their 5 feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and ¹renounced God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

- 6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and ²Satan came also 7 among them. And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and 8 from walking up and down in it. And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job? ³for there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth
9 God, and escheweth evil. Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job
10 fear God for nought? Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath, on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his ⁴substance is in-11 creased in the land. But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will renounce thee to thy face.
12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy ⁵power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.
13 And it fell on a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking
14 wine in their eldest brother's house, that there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them: and ⁶the
15 Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the ⁷servants with the edge of the sword; and I only 16 am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the ⁷servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to 17 tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made three bands, and ⁸fell upon the camels, and have taken them away, yea, and slain the ⁷servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was 18 yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house: and, behold, 19

there came a great wind ⁹from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am 20 escaped alone to tell thee. Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped; and he said, Naked 21 came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD. In all 22
this Job sinned not, nor charged God with foolishness.

2 AGAIN there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD. And the LORD said unto 2
Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. And 3
the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job? ³for there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil: and he still holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, ¹⁰to destroy him without cause. And Satan answered 4 the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life. But put forth thine hand now, and 5 touch his bone and his flesh, and he will renounce thee to thy face. And the 6 LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; only spare his life. So Satan 7 went forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown. And he took him a potsherd to scrape 8

 Dost thou still hold fast thine integrity?
 10 renounce God, and die. But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the 'foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips,

11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him,
 they came every one from his own place;
 Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite:
 and they made an appointment together
 to come to bemoan him and to comfort 12 him. And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent
 every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust 13 upon their heads toward heaven. So they sat down with him upon the ground
 seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his ²grief was very great.

3 AFTER this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day. And Job answered and said:

3 Let the day perish wherein I was born,
 And the night which said, There is a man child conceived.
 4 Let that day be darkness;
 Let not God ³regard it from above,
 Neither let the light shine upon it.
 5 Let darkness and ⁴the shadow of death
 claim it for their own;
 Let a cloud dwell upon it;
 Let all that maketh black the day
 terrify it.
 6 As for that night, let thick darkness
 seize upon it:
 Let it not ⁵rejoice among the days of the year;
 Let it not come into the number of the months.
 7 Lo, let that night be ⁶barren;
 Let no joyful voice come therein.

Let them curse it that curse the day, 8
 Who are ⁷ready to rouse up leviathan.
 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be 9
 dark:
 Let it look for light, but have none;
 Neither let it behold the eyelids of the morning:
 Because it shut not up the doors of my 10
mother's womb,
 Nor hid trouble from mine eyes.
 Why died I not from the womb? 11
 Why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?
 Why did the knees receive me? 12
 Or why the breasts, that I should suck?
 For now should I have lain down and 13
 been quiet;
 I should have slept; then had I been
 at rest:
 With kings and counsellors of the 14
 earth,
 Which ⁸built up waste places for themselves;
 Or with princes that had gold, 15
 Who filled their houses with silver:
 Or as an hidden untimely birth I had 16
 not been;
 As infants which never saw light.
 There the wicked cease from ⁹troub- 17
 ling;
 And there the weary be at rest.
 There the prisoners are at ease to- 18
 gether;
 They hear not the voice of the task-
 master.
 The small and great are there; 19
 And the servant is free from his master.
 Wherefore is light given to him that 20
 is in misery,
 And life unto the bitter in soul;
 Which ¹⁰long for death, but it cometh 21
 not;
 And dig for it more than for hid treasures;
 Which rejoice ¹¹exceedingly, 22
 And are glad, when they can find the grave?

- 25 *For ²the thing which I fear cometh upon me,
And that which I am afraid of cometh unto me.*
- 26 *³I am not at ease, neither am I quiet,
neither have I rest;
But trouble cometh.*

4 THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

- 2 *If one assay to commune with thee,
wilt thou be grieved?
But who can withhold himself from speaking?*
- 3 *Behold, thou hast instructed many,
And thou hast strengthened the weak hands.*
- 4 *Thy words have upholden him that was falling,
And thou hast confirmed the ⁴feeble knees.*
- 5 *But now it is come unto thee, and thou ⁵faintest;
It toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.*
- 6 *Is not thy fear of God thy confidence,
And thy hope the integrity of thy ways?*
- 7 *Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent?
Or where were the upright cut off?*
- 8 *According as I have seen, they that plow iniquity,
And sow ⁶trouble, reap the same.*
- 9 *By the breath of God they perish,
And by the blast of his anger are they consumed.*
- 10 *The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion,
And the teeth of the young lions, are broken.*
- 11 The old lion perisheth for lack of prey,

And the whelps of the lioness are scattered abroad.
Now a thing was ⁷secretly brought to 12 me,
And mine ear received a whisper thereof.
In thoughts from the visions of the 13 night,
When deep sleep falleth on men,
Fear came upon me, and trembling, 14
Which made all my bones to shake.
Then ⁸a spirit passed before my face; 15
The hair of my flesh stood up.
It stood still, but I could not discern 16
the appearance thereof;
A form was before mine eyes:
⁹*There was* silence, and I heard a voice, saying,
Shall mortal man ¹⁰be more just than 17 God?
Shall a man ¹¹be more pure than his Maker?
Behold, he putteth no trust in his 18 servants;
And his angels he chargeth with folly:
How much more them that dwell in 19
houses of clay,
Whose foundation is in the dust,
Which are crushed ¹²before the moth!
¹³Between morning and evening they 20
are ¹⁴destroyed:
They perish for ever without any regarding it.
¹⁵Is not their tent-cord plucked up 21
within them?
They die, and that without wisdom.

5 Call now; is there any that will 1
answer thee?
And to which of the holy ones wilt thou turn?
For vexation killeth the foolish man, 2
And ¹⁶jealousy slayeth the silly one.
I have seen the foolish taking root: 3
But suddenly I cursed his habitation.
His children are far from safety, 4
And they are crushed in the gate,
Neither is there any to deliver them.

- And taketh it even out of the thorns,
And ¹the snare gapeth for their substance.
- 6 For ²affliction cometh not forth of the dust,
Neither doth trouble spring out of the ground;
- 7 But man is born unto trouble,
As ³the sparks fly upward.
- 8 But as for me, I would seek unto God,
And unto God would I commit my cause:
- 9 Which doeth great things and unsearchable;
Marvellous things without number:
- 10 Who giveth rain upon the earth,
And sendeth waters upon the fields:
- 11 So that he setteth up on high those that be low;
And those which mourn are exalted to safety.
- 12 He frustrateth the devices of the crafty,
So that their hands ⁴cannot perform their enterprise.
- 13 He taketh the wise in their own craftiness:
And the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.
- 14 They meet with darkness in the day-time,
And grope at noonday as in the night.
- 15 But he saveth from the sword ⁵of their mouth,
Even the needy from the hand of the mighty.
- 16 So the poor hath hope,
And iniquity stoppeth her mouth.
- 17 Behold, happy is the man whom God ⁶correcteth:
Therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty.
- 18 For he maketh sore, and bindeth up;
He woundeth, and his hands make whole.
- 19 He shall deliver thee in six troubles;
Yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee.
- 20 In famine he shall redeem thee from death;

And in war from the power of the sword.
Thou shalt be hid from the scourge ¹21 of the tongue;
Neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.
At destruction and dearth thou shalt ²22 laugh;
Neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.
For thou shalt be in league with the ³23 stones of the field;
And the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.
And thou shalt know that thy tent is ⁴24 in peace;
And thou shalt visit thy ⁵fold, and ⁶shalt miss nothing.
Thou shalt know also that thy seed ⁷25 shall be great,
And thine offspring as the grass of the earth.
Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full ⁸26 age,
Like as a shock of corn cometh in in its season.
Lo this, we have searched it, so it is; ⁹27 Hear it, and know thou it ¹⁰for thy good.

6 THEN Job answered and said,
Oh that my vexation were but ¹2 weighed,
And my calamity laid in the balances together!
For now it would be heavier than the ²3 sand of the seas:
Therefore have my words been rash.
For the arrows of the Almighty are ³4 within me,
The poison whereof my spirit drinketh up:
The terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.
Doth the wild ass bray when he hath ⁴5 grass?
Or loweth the ox over his fodder?
Can that which hath no savour be ⁵6 eaten without salt?

- 8 Oh that I might have my request;
And that God would grant me the thing that I long for!
- 9 Even that it would please God to crush me;
That he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!
- 10 Then should I yet have comfort;
³Yea, I would ⁴exult in pain ⁵that spareth not:
⁶For I have not ⁷denied the words of the Holy One.
- 11 What is my strength, that I should wait?
And what is mine end, that I should be patient?
- 12 Is my strength the strength of stones?
Or is my flesh of brass?
- 13 Is it not that I have no help in me,
And that ⁸effectual working is driven quite from me?
- 14 To him that is ready to faint kindness should be shewed from his friend;
⁹Even to him that forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.
- 15 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook,
As the channel of brooks that pass away;
- 16 Which are black by reason of the ice,
And wherein the snow hideth itself:
- 17 What time they ¹⁰wax warm, they vanish:
When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.
- 18 ¹¹The caravans that travel by the way of them turn aside;
They go up into the waste, and perish.
- 19 The caravans of Tema looked,
The companies of Sheba waited for them.
- 20 They were ashamed because they had hoped;

- They came thither, and were confounded.
- For now ye ¹²are nothing; 21
Ye see a terror, and are afraid.
Did I say, Give unto me? 22
Or, Offer a present for me of your substance?
Or, Deliver me from the adversary's 23 hand?
Or, Redeem me from the hand of the oppressors?
Teach me, and I will hold my peace: 24
And cause me to understand wherein I have erred.
How forcible are words of upright- 25 ness!
But what doth your arguing reprove?
Do ye imagine to reprove words? 26
Seeing that the speeches of one that is desperate are ¹³as wind.
Yea, ye would cast lots upon the 27 fatherless,
And make merchandise of your friend.
Now therefore be pleased to look 28 upon me;
¹⁴For surely I shall not lie to your face.
Return, I pray you, let there be no 29 injustice;
Yea, return again, ¹⁵my cause is righteous.
Is there injustice on my tongue? 30
Cannot my taste discern mischievous things?
- 7 Is there not a ¹⁶warfare to man upon 1 earth?
And are not his days like the days of an hireling?
As a servant that earnestly desireth 2 the shadow,
And as an hireling that looketh for his wages:
So am I made to possess months of 3 vanity,
And wearisome nights are appointed to me.
When I lie down, I say, 4

- 1 When shall I arise? but the night is long;
 And I am full of tossings to and fro
 unto the dawning of the day.
 5 My flesh is clothed with worms and
 clods of dust;
 My skin ²closeth up and breaketh out afresh.
 6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle,
 And are spent without hope.
 7 Oh remember that my life is wind:
 Mine eye shall no more see good.
 8 The eye of him that seeth me shall behold me no more:
 Thine eyes shall be upon me, but I shall not be.
 9 As the cloud is consumed and vanish-
 eth away,
 So he that goeth down to ³Sheol shall come up no more.
 10 He shall return no more to his house, Neither shall his place know him any more.
 11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth;
 I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
 I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
 12 Am I a sea, or a sea-monster,
 That thou settest a watch over me?
 13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me,
 My couch shall ease my complaint;
 14 Then thou scarest me with dreams,
 And terrifiest me through visions:
 15 So that my soul chooseth strangling,
 And death rather than these my bones.
 16 ⁴I loathe my life; I ⁵would not live
 alway:
 Let me alone; for my days are ⁶vanity.
 17 What is man, that thou shouldest
 magnify him,
 And that thou shouldest set thine
 heart upon him,
 18 And that thou shouldest visit him
 every morning,
 And try him every moment?
 19 How long wilt thou not look away
 from me,

1 Or, When shall I arise, and the night be gone?
 the grave 4 Or, I waste away 5 Or, shall 8 Or, preserver 9 Or, If thy children sinned.
 11 Or, reed-grass

Nor let me alone till I swallow down
 my spittle?
 If I have sinned, what ⁷do I unto 20
 thee, O thou ⁸watcher of men?
 Why hast thou set me as a mark for
 thee,
 So that I am a burden to myself?
 And why dost thou not pardon my 21
 transgression, and take away mine
 iniquity?
 For now shall I lie down in the dust;
 And thou shalt seek me diligently, but I shall not be.

8 THEN answered Bildad the Shu-
 hite, and said,
 How long wilt thou speak these 2
 things?
 And how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a mighty wind?
 Doth God pervert judgement? 3
 Or doth the Almighty pervert justice?
⁹If thy children have sinned against 4
 him,
 And he have delivered them into the hand of their transgression:
 If thou wouldest seek diligently unto 5
 God,
 And make thy supplication to the Almighty;
 If thou wert pure and upright; 6
 Surely now he would awake for thee,
 And make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.
 And though thy beginning was small, 7
 Yet thy latter end should greatly increase.
 For inquire, I pray thee, of the 8
 former age,
 And apply thyself to that which their fathers have searched out:
 (For we are but of yesterday, and 9
 know nothing,
 Because our days upon earth are a shadow:)
 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, 10
 And utter words out of their heart?
 Can the ¹⁰rush grow up without mire? 11
 Can the ¹¹flag grow without water?

2 Or, is broken and become loathsome 3 Or,

- 12 Whilst it is yet in its greenness, and

It withereth before any other herb.
- 13 So are the paths of all that forget God;
And the hope of the godless man shall perish:
- 14 Whose confidence shall 'break in
sunder,
And whose trust is a spider's ²web.
- 15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand:
He shall hold fast thereby, but it shall not endure.
- 16 He is green before the sun,
And his shoots go forth over his garden.
- 17 His roots are wrapped 'about the heap,
He beholdeth the place of stones.
- 18 If he be destroyed from his place,
Then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.
- 19 Behold, this is the joy of his way,
And out of the ⁴earth shall others spring.
- 20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man,
Neither will he uphold the evil-doers.
- 21 ⁵He will yet fill thy mouth with laughter,
And thy lips with shouting.
- 22 They that hate thee shall be clothed
with shame;
And the tent of the wicked shall be no more.

9 THEN Job answered and said,
Of a truth I know that it is so:
⁶But how can man be just ⁷with God?
3 ⁸If he be pleased to contend with him,
He cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength:
Who hath hardened himself against him, and prospered?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know it not,
When he overturneth them in his anger.

Which shaketh the earth out of her 6
place,
And the pillars thereof tremble.
Which commandeth the sun, and it 7
riseth not;
And scaleth up the stars.
Which alone stretcheth out the hea- 8
vens,
And treadeth upon the ⁹waves of the sea.
Which maketh the Bear, Orion, and 9
the Pleiades,
And the chambers of the south.
Which doeth great things past finding 10
out;
Yea, marvellous things without number.
Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him 11
not:
He passeth on also, but I perceive him not.
Behold, he seizeth the prey, who can 12
¹⁰hinder him?
Who will say unto him, What doest
thou?
God will not withdraw his anger; 13
The helpers of ¹¹Rahab ¹²do stoop under him.
How much less shall I answer him, 14
And choose out my words to reason
with him?
Whom, though I were righteous, yet 15
would I not answer;
I would make supplication to ¹¹mine
adversary.
If I had called, and he had answered 16
me;
Yet would I not believe that he
hearkened unto my voice.
¹⁴For he breaketh me with a tempest, 17
And multiplieth my wounds without cause.
He will not suffer me to take my breath, 18
But fillet me with bitterness.

- 22 It is all one; therefore I say,
He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.
- 23 If the scourge slay suddenly,
He will mock at the ³trial of the innocent.
- 24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked:
He covereth the faces of the judges thereof;
If it be not he, who then is it?
- 25 Now my days are swifter than a ⁴post:
They flee away, they see no good.
- 26 They are passed away as the ⁵swift ships:
As the eagle that swoopeth on the prey.
- 27 If I say, I will forget my complaint,
I will put off my sad countenance, and ⁶be of good cheer:
- 28 I am afraid of all my sorrows,
I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.
- 29 I shall be condemned;
Why then do I labour in vain?
- 30 If I wash myself ⁷with snow water,
And ⁸make my hands never so clean;
- 31 Yet wilt thou plunge me in the ditch,
And mine own clothes shall abhor me.
- 32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him,
That we should come together in judgement.
- 33 There is no ⁹daysman betwixt us,
That might lay his hand upon us both.
- 34 Let him take his rod away from me,
And let not his terror make me afraid:
- 35 Then would I speak, and not fear him;
For I am not so in myself.

10 My soul is weary of my life;
I will give free course to my complaint;
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

I will say unto God, Do not condemn 2
me;
Shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.
Is it good unto thee that thou should- 3
est oppress,
That thou shouldest despise the ¹⁰work of thine hands,
And shine upon the counsel of the wicked?
Hast thou eyes of flesh, 4
Or seest thou as man seeth?
Are thy days as the days of man, 5
Or thy years as man's days,
That thou inquierest after mine 6
iniquity,
And searchest after my sin,
Although thou knowest that I am not 7
wicked;
And there is none that can deliver out of thine hand?
Thine hands have framed me and 8 fashioned me
Together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.
Remember, I beseech thee, that thou 9
hast fashioned me as clay;
And wilt thou bring me into dust again?
Hast thou not poured me out as milk, 10
And curdled me like cheese?
Thou hast clothed me with skin and 11
flesh,
And knit me together with bones and sinews.
Thou hast granted me life and favour, 12
And thy ¹¹visitation hath preserved my spirit.
Yet these things thou didst hide in 13
thine heart;
I know that this is with thee:
If I sin, then thou markest me, 14
And thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.
If I be wicked, woe unto me; 15
And if I be righteous, yet shall I not lift up my head;
¹²Being filled with ignominy
And looking upon mine affliction.

¹ Or, he ² Or, Though I be perfect, I will not regard &c. ³ Or, calamity ⁴ Or, runner
⁵ Heb. ships of reed. ⁶ Heb. brighten up. ⁷ Another reading is, with snow. ⁸ Heb. cleanse
my hands with lye. ⁹ Or, umpire ¹⁰ Heb. labour. ¹¹ Or, care ¹² Or, I am filled with ignominy, but look thou . . . for it increaseth: thou &c.

- 16 And if my head exalt itself, thou
huntest me as a lion:
And again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.
- 17 Thou renewest thy witnesses against
me,
And increasest thine indignation upon
me;
¹Changes and warfare are with me.
- 18 Wherefore then hast thou brought me
forth out of the womb?
I had given up the ghost, and no eye
had seen me.
- 19 I should have been as though I had
not been;
I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.
- 20 Are not my days few? ²cease then,
And let me alone, that I may ³take comfort a little,
- 21 Before I go whence I shall not return, Even to the land of darkness and of
the shadow of death;
- 22 A land of thick darkness, as darkness
itself;
A land of the shadow of death, without any order,
And where the light is as darkness.

11 THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

- 2 Should not the multitude of words be answered?
And should a man full of talk be justified?
- 3 Should thy boastings make men hold their peace?
And when thou mockest, shall no man
make thee ashamed?
- 4 For thou sayest, My doctrine is pure,
And I am clean in thine eyes.
- 5 But Oh that God would speak,
And open his lips against thee;
- 6 And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom, ⁴That it is manifold in effectual working!

Know therefore that God ⁵exacteth
of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.

⁶Canst thou by searching find out 7
God?

Canst thou find out the Almighty
unto perfection?

⁷It is high as heaven; what canst thou 8
do?

Deeper than ⁸Sheol; what canst thou know?

The measure thereof is longer than 9
the earth,

And broader than the sea.

If he pass through, and shut up, 10
And ⁹call unto judgement, then who can hinder him?

For he knoweth vain men: 11

He seeth iniquity also, ¹⁰even though he consider it not.

¹¹But vain man is void of understand- 12
ing,

Yea, man is born as a wild ass's colt.

If thou set thine heart aright, 13

And stretch out thine hands toward
him;

If iniquity be in thine hand, put it 14
far away,

And let not unrighteousness dwell in thy tents;

Surely then shalt thou lift up thy face 15
without spot;

Yea, thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt
not fear:

For thou shalt forget thy misery; 16

Thou shalt remember it as waters
that are passed away:

And thy life shall ¹²be clearer than the 17
noonday;

Though there be darkness, it shall be
as the morning.

And thou shalt be secure, because 18
there is hope;

Yea, thou shalt search about thee, and shalt take thy rest in safety.

Also thou shalt lie down, and none 19
shall make thee afraid;

¹ Or, Host after host is against me ² Another reading is, let him cease, and leave me alone.
³ Heb. brighten up. ⁴ Or, For sound wisdom is manifold ⁵ Or, remitteth (Heb. causeth to be forgotten) unto thee of thine iniquity ⁶ Or, Canst thou find out the deep things of God? ⁷ Heb.
The heights of heaven. ⁸ Or, the grave ⁹ Heb. call an assembly. ¹⁰ Or, and him that considereth not ¹¹ Or, But an empty man will get understanding, when a wild ass's colt is born a man ¹² Or, arise above

Yea, many shall make suit unto thee.
20 But the eyes of the wicked shall fail,
And 'they shall have no way to flee,
And their hope shall be the giving up of the ghost.

12 THEN Job answered and said,
No doubt but ye are the people,
And wisdom shall die with you.

3 But I have understanding as well as you;

I am not inferior to you:
Yea, who knoweth not such things
as these?

4 I am as one that is a laughing-stock
to his neighbour,
A man that called upon God, and he answered him:

The just, the perfect man is a laughing-stock.

5 In the thought of him that is at ease
there is contempt for misfortune;
It is ready for them whose foot slippeth.

6 The tents of robbers prosper,
And they that provoke God are secure;
2Into whose hand God bringeth abun- dantly.

7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall
teach thee;
And the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:

8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall
teach thee;
And the fishes of the sea shall declare
unto thee.

9 Who knoweth not 3in all these,
That the hand of the LORD hath wrought this?

10 In whose hand is the soul of every living thing,
And the 4breath of all mankind.

11 Doth not the ear try words,
Even as the palate tasteth its meat?

12 5With aged men is wisdom,
And in length of days understanding.

13 With him is wisdom and might;
He hath counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again;

He shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

Behold, he withholdeth the waters, 15
and they dry up;

Again, he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

With him is strength and 6effectual 16
working;

The deceived and the deceiver are his.

He leadeth counsellors away spoiled, 17
And judges maketh he fools.

He looseth the bond of kings, 18

And bindeth their loins with a girdle.

He leadeth priests away spoiled, 19

And overthroweth the mighty.

He removeth the speech of the trusty, 20

And taketh away the understanding of the elders.

He poureth contempt upon princes, 21

And looseth the belt of the strong.

He discovereth deep things out of 22
darkness,

And bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

He increaseth the nations, and de- 23
stroyeth them:

He spreadeth the nations abroad, and 7bringeth them in.

He taketh away the heart of the chiefs 24
of the people of the 8earth,

And causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

They grope in the dark without light, 25
And he maketh them to 9stagger like a drunken man.

13 Lo, mine eye hath seen all this,
Mine ear hath heard and understood it.

What ye know, the same do I know 2
also:

I am not inferior unto you.

Surely I would speak to the Almighty, 3

And I desire to reason with God.

But ye are forgers of lies, 4

Ye are all physicians of no value.

Oh that ye would altogether hold your 5
peace!

And it should be your wisdom.

Hear now my reasoning, 6

1 Heb. refuge is perished from them.
4 Or, spirit

2 Or, That bring their god in their hand
5 Or, With aged men, ye say, is wisdom
8 Or, land

6 Or, sound wisdom

3 Or, by 7 Or, leadeth

- And hearken to the pleadings of my lips.
- 7 Will ye speak unrighteously for God,
And talk deceitfully for him?
- 8 Will ye 'respect his person?
Will ye contend for God?
- 9 Is it good that he should search you
out?
Or as one ²deceiveth a man, will ye ³deceive him?
- 10 He will surely reprove you,
If ye do secretly ⁴respect persons.
- 11 Shall not his excellency make you
afraid,
And his dread fall upon you?
- 12 Your memorable sayings are proverbs
of ashes,
Your defences are defences of clay.
- 13 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak,
And let come on me what will.
- 14 ⁵Wherefore should I take my flesh in my teeth,
And put my life in mine hand?
- 15 ⁶Though he slay me, yet will I wait
for him:
Nevertheless I will ⁷maintain my ways
before him.
- 16 ⁸This also shall be my salvation;
⁹For a godless man shall not come
before him.
- 17 Hear diligently my speech,
And let my declaration be in your ears.
- 18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause;
I know that I ¹⁰am righteous.
- 19 Who is he that will contend with me?
¹¹For now shall I hold my peace and give up the ghost.
- 20 Only do not two things unto me,
Then will I not hide myself from thy face:
- 21 Withdraw thine hand far from me;
And let not thy terror make me afraid.
- 22 Then call thou, and I will answer;
Or let me speak, and answer thou me.
- 23 How many are mine iniquities and sins?

- Make me to know my transgression
and my sin.
- Wherefore hidest thou thy face, 24
And holdest me for thine enemy?
Wilt thou harass a driven leaf? 25
And wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?
For thou writest bitter things against 26
me,
And makest me to inherit the ini-quities of my youth:
Thou putt'st my feet also in the 27
stocks, and markest all my paths;
Thou drawest thee a line about the soles of my feet:
¹²Though I am like a rotten thing that 28
consumeth,
Like a garment that is moth-eaten.
- 14 Man that is born of a woman
Is of few days, and full of trouble.
He cometh forth like a flower, and ¹³is 2
cut down:
He fleeth also as a shadow, and con-tinueth not.
And dost thou open thine eyes upon 3
such an one,
And bringest me into judgement with
thee?
- ¹⁴Who can bring a clean thing out of 4
an unclean? not one.
Seeing his days are determined, the 5
number of his months is with thee,
And thou hast appointed his bounds
that he cannot pass;
Look away from him, that he may ¹⁵rest, 6
Till he shall ¹⁶accomplish, as an hireling, his day.
For there is hope of a tree, if it be 7
cut down, that it will sprout again,
And that the tender branch thereof
will not cease.
Though the root thereof wax old in 8
the earth,
And the stock thereof die in the ground;
Yet through the scent of water it will 9
bud,
And put forth boughs like a plant.
But man dieth, and ¹⁷wasteth away: 10

¹ Or, shew him favour ² Or, mocketh ³ Or, mock ⁴ Or, shew favour ⁵ Or, At another reading, I will not wait or, I have no hope ⁷ Heb. argue. ⁸ Or, He ⁹ Or, That ¹⁰ Or, shall be justified ¹¹ Or, if I hold my peace, I shall give up &c. ¹² Heb. And he is like.

¹³ Or, whithereth ¹⁴ Or, Oh that a clean thing could come out of an unclean! not one can ¹⁵ Heb.
cease. ¹⁶ Or, have pleasure in ¹⁷ Or, lieth low

- Yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?
- 11 As the waters ¹fail from the sea,
And the river decayeth and drieth up;
- 12 So man lieth down and riseth not:
Till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake,
Nor be roused out of their sleep.
- 13 Oh that thou wouldest hide me in ²Sheol,
That thou wouldest keep me secret,
until thy wrath be past,
That thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!
- 14 If a man die, shall he live again?
All the days of my warfare ³would I wait,
Till my ⁴release should come.
- 15 ⁵Thou shouldest call, and I would answer thee:
Thou wouldest have a desire to the work of thine hands.
But now thou numberest my steps:
Dost thou not watch over my sin?
- 17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag,
And thou fastenest up mine iniquity.
- 18 And surely the mountain falling ⁶cometh to nought,
And the rock is removed out of its place;
- 19 The waters wear the stones;
The overflowings thereof wash away the dust of the earth:
And thou destroyest the hope of man.
- 20 Thou prevailest for ever against him,
and he passeth;
Thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.
- 21 His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not;
And they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.
- 22 ⁷But his flesh upon him hath pain,
And his soul within him mourneth.

15 THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

- 2 Should a wise man make answer with ⁸vain knowledge,

And fill his belly with the cast wind?
Should he reason with unprofitable ³talk,
Or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

Yea, thou doest away with fear, ⁴
And ⁹restrainest ¹⁰devotion before God.

For ¹¹thine iniquity teacheth thy ⁵mouth,
And thou choosest the tongue of the crafty.
Thine own mouth condemneth thee, ⁶
and not I;

Yea, thine own lips testify against thee.
Art thou the first man that was born? ⁷
Or wast thou brought forth before the hills?

¹²Hast thou heard the secret counsel of ⁸God?
And dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?
What knowest thou, that we know ⁹not?

What understandest thou, which is not in us?
With us are both the grayheaded and ¹⁰the very aged men,
Much elder than thy father.
Are the consolations of God too small ¹¹for thee,

¹³And the word that dealeth gently with thee?
Why doth thine heart carry thee ¹²away?
And why do thine eyes wink?

That thou turnest thy spirit against ¹³God,
And lettest such words go out of thy mouth.
What is man, that he should be clean? ¹⁴
And he which is born of a woman,
that he should be righteous?

Behold, he putteth no trust in his ¹⁵holy ones;
Yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.

¹ Heb. are gone. ² Or, the grave ³ Or, will . . . shall come ⁴ Or, change ⁵ Or, Thou shalt call, and I will &c. ⁶ Heb. fadeth away. ⁷ Or, Only for himself his flesh hath pain, and for himself his soul mourneth ⁸ Heb. knowledge of wind. ⁹ Heb. diminisheth. ¹⁰ Or, meditation ¹¹ Or, thy mouth teacheth thine iniquity ¹² Or, Dost thou hearken in the council ¹³ Or, Or is there any secret thing with thee?

- 16 How much less ¹one that is abominable and corrupt,
A man that drinketh iniquity like water!
- 17 I will shew thee, hear thou me;
And that which I have seen I will declare:
- 18 (Which wise men have told
From their fathers, and have not hid it;
- 19 Unto whom alone the land was given,
And no stranger passed among them:)
- 20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, ²Even the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor.
- 21 A sound of terrors is in his cars;
In prosperity the spoiler shall come upon him:
- 22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness,
And he is waited for of the sword:
- 23 He wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it?
He knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand:
- 24 Distress and anguish make him afraid;
They prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle:
- 25 Because he hath stretched out his hand against God,
And ³behaveth himself proudly against the Almighty;
- 26 He runneth upon him with a stiff neck,
⁴With the thick bosses of his bucklers:
- 27 Because he hath covered his face with his fatness,
And made collops of fat on his flanks;
And he hath dwelt in ⁵desolate cities,
In houses which no man ⁶inhabited,
Which were ready to become heaps.
- 29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue,
Neither shall ⁷their produce bend to the earth.
- 30 He shall not depart out of darkness;
The flame shall dry up his branches,
And by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

Let him not trust in vanity, deceiving 31 himself:
For vanity shall be his recompence.
It shall be ⁸accomplished before his 32 time,
And his branch shall not be green.
He shall shake off his unripe grape as 33 the vine,
And shall cast off his flower as the olive.
For the company of the godless shall 34 be barren,
And fire shall consume the tents of bribery.
They conceive mischief, and bring 35 forth iniquity,
And their belly prepareth deceit.

16 THEN Job answered and said,
I have heard many such things: 2
⁹Miserable comforters are ye all.
Shall ¹⁰vain words have an end? 3
Or what provoketh thee that thou answerest?
I also could speak as ye do; 4
If your soul were in my soul's stead,
I could join words together against you,
And shake mine head at you.
But I would strengthen you with my 5 mouth,
And the solace of my lips should assuage your grief.
Though I speak, my grief is not 6 assuaged:
And though I forbear, ¹¹what am I eased?
But now he hath made me weary: 7
Thou hast made desolate all my company.
And thou hast ¹²laid fast hold on me, 8 which is a witness against me:
And my leanness riseth up against me, it testifieth to my face.
He hath torn me in his wrath, and 9 ¹³persecuted me;
He hath gnashed upon me with his teeth:
Mine adversary sharpeneth his eyes upon me.

¹ Or, that which is defiance in ² Or, And years that are numbered are laid up &c. ³ Or, biddeth

¹¹ Heb. what departeth from me? ¹² Or, shrivelled me up ¹³ Or, hated

- 10 They have gaped upon me with their mouth;
They have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully:
They gather themselves together against me.
- 11 God delivereth me to the ungodly,
And casteth me into the hands of the wicked.
- 12 I was at ease, and he brake me asunder;
Yea, he hath taken me by the neck, and dashed me to pieces:
He hath also set me up for his mark.
- 13 His archers compass me round about,
He cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare;
He poureth out my gall upon the ground.
- 14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach;
He runneth upon me like a giant.
- 15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin,
And have laid my horn in the dust.
- 16 My face is foul with weeping,
And on my eyelids is the shadow of death;
- 17 Although there is no violence in mine hands,
And my prayer is pure.
- 18 O earth, cover not thou my blood,
And let my cry have no resting place.
- 19 Even now, behold, my witness is in heaven,
And he that voucheth for me is on high.
- 20 My friends scorn me:
But mine eye poureth out tears unto God;
- 21 That he would maintain the right of a man with God,
And of a son of man with his neighbour!
- 22 For when a few years are come,
I shall go the way whence I shall not return.

17 My spirit is consumed, my days are extinct,

The grave is ready for me.

- 2 Surely there are mockers with me,

And mine eye abideth in their provocation.

Give now a pledge, be surety for me with thyself;

Who is there that will strike hands with me?

For thou hast hid their heart from understanding:

Therefore shalt thou not exalt them.

He that denounceth his friends for a prey,

Even the eyes of his children shall fail.

He hath made me also a byword of the people;

And I am become an open abhorring.

Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow,

And all my members are as a shadow.

Upright men shall be astonished at this,

And the innocent shall stir up himself against the godless.

Yet shall the righteous hold on his way,

And he that hath clean hands shall wax stronger and stronger.

But return ye, all of you, and come now:

And I shall not find a wise man among you.

My days are past, my purposes are broken off,

Even the thoughts of my heart.

They change the night into day:

The light, say they, is near unto the darkness.

If I look for Sheol as mine house;

If I have spread my couch in the darkness;

If I have said to corruption, Thou art my father;

To the worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister;

Where then is my hope?

And as for my hope, who shall see it?

It shall go down to the bars of Sheol,
When once there is rest in the dust.

18 THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

How long will ye lay snares for words?

1 Or, arrows Or, mighty ones 2 Or, mighty man 3 Or, defiled 4 Or, red 5 Or, have no more place

- Consider, and afterwards we will speak.
 3 Wherefore are we counted as beasts,
 And are become unclean in your sight?
 4 Thou that tearest thyself in thine anger,
 Shall the earth be forsaken for thee?
 Or shall the rock be removed out of its place?
 5 Yea, the light of the wicked shall be put out,
 And the ¹spark of his fire shall not shine.
 6 The light shall be dark in his tent,
 And his lamp ²above him shall be put out.
 7 The steps of his strength shall be straitened,
 And his own counsel shall cast him down.
 8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet,
 And he walketh upon the toils.
 9 A gin shall take him by the heel,
 And a snare shall lay hold on him.
 10 A noose is hid for him in the ground,
 And a trap for him in the way.
 11 Terrors shall make him afraid on every side,
 And shall chase him at his heels.
 12 His strength shall be hungerbitten,
 And calamity shall be ready ³for his halting.
 13 It shall devour the ⁴members of his body,
 Yea, the firstborn of death shall devour his members.
 14 He shall be rooted out of his tent wherein he trusteth;
 And ⁵he shall be brought to the king of terrors.
 15 ⁶There shall dwell in his tent that which is none of his:
 Brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.
 16 His roots shall be dried up beneath,
 And above shall his branch ⁷be cut off.

His remembrance shall perish from ¹⁷the earth,
 And he shall have no name in the street.
 He shall be driven from light into ¹⁸darkness,
 And chased out of the world.
 He shall have neither son nor son's ¹⁹son among his people,
 Nor any remaining where he so-journed.
⁸They that come after shall be ²⁰astonied at his day,
 As they that went before ⁹were affrighted.
 Surely such are the dwellings of the ²¹unrighteous,
 And this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

19 THEN Job answered and said,
 How long will ye vex my soul, ²
 And break me in pieces with words?
 These ten times have ye reproached ³
 me:
 Ye are not ashamed that ye deal
 hardly with me.
 And be it indeed that I have erred, ⁴
 Mine error remaineth with myself.
¹⁰If indeed ye will magnify yourselves ⁵
 against me,
 And plead against me my reproach:
 Know now that God hath ¹¹subverted ⁶
 me in my cause,
 And hath compassed me with his net.
 Behold, I ¹²cry out of wrong, but I am ⁷
 not heard:
 I cry for help, but there is no judgement.
 He hath fenced up my way that I can- ⁸
 not pass,
 And hath set darkness in my paths.
 He hath stripped me of my glory, ⁹
 And taken the crown from my head.
 He hath broken me down on every ¹⁰
 side, and I am gone:
 And mine hope hath he plucked up
 like a tree.

¹² Or, cry out, Violence!

- 11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me,
And he counteth me unto him as one of his adversaries.
- 12 His troops come on together, and cast up their way against me,
And encamp round about my tent.
- 13 He hath put my brethren far from me,
And mine acquaintance are wholly estranged from me.
- 14 My kinsfolk have failed,
And my familiar friends have forgotten me.
- 15 They that dwell in mine house, and
my maids, count me for a stranger:
I am an alien in their sight.
- 16 I call unto my servant, and he giveth
me no answer,
Though I intreat him with my mouth.
- 17 My breath is strange to my wife,
And ²my supplication to the children
³of my mother's womb.
- 18 Even young children despise me;
If I arise, they speak against me.
- 19 All ⁴my inward friends abhor me:
And they whom I loved are turned
against me.
- 20 My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh,
And I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.
- 21 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends;
For the hand of God hath touched
me.
- 22 Why do ye persecute me as God,
And are not satisfied with my flesh?
- 23 Oh that my words were now written!
Oh that they were inscribed in a book!
- 24 That with an iron pen and lead
They were graven in the rock for ever!
- 25 ⁵But I know that my ⁶redeemer liveth,
And that he shall stand up at the last
upon the ⁷earth:
- 26 ⁸And after my skin hath been thus destroyed,

Yet ⁹from my flesh shall I see God:
Whom I shall see ¹⁰for myself, 27
And mine eyes shall behold, and not ¹¹another.

My reins are consumed within me.
If ye say, How we will persecute him! 28 ¹²Seeing that the root of the matter is found in ¹³me;

Be ye afraid of the sword: 29
For ¹⁴wrath bringeth the punishments
of the sword,
That ye may know there is a judge-
ment.

20 THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,
Therefore do my thoughts give an- 2
swer to me,
¹⁵Even by reason of my haste that is in me.
I have heard the reproof which put- 3
teth me to shame,
¹⁶And the spirit of my understanding
answereth me.

Knowest thou not this of old time, 4
Since man was placed upon earth,
That the triumphing of the wicked is 5
short,
And the joy of the godless but for a moment?

Though his excellency mount up to 6
the heavens,
And his head reach unto the clouds;
Yet he shall perish for ever like his 7
own dung:

They which have seen him shall say,
Where is he?

He shall fly away as a dream, and shall 8
not be found:

Yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

The eye which saw him shall see him 9
no more;

Neither shall his place any more behold him.

 11 His bones are full of his youth,
 But it shall lie down with him in the dust.
 12 Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth,
 Though he hide it under his tongue;
 13 Though he spare it, and will not let it go,
 But keep it still within his mouth;
 14 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned,
 It is the gall of asps within him.
 15 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again:
 God shall cast them out of his belly.
 16 He shall suck the poison of asps:
 The viper's tongue shall slay him.
 17 He shall not look upon the rivers,
 The flowing streams of honey and butter.
 18 That which he laboured for shall he restore, and shall not swallow it down;
 According to the substance ¹that he hath gotten, he shall not rejoice.
 19 For he hath oppressed and forsaken the poor;
 He hath violently taken away an house, ²and he shall not build it up.
 20 Because he knew no quietness ³within him,
 He shall not save aught of that wherein he delighteth.
 21 There was nothing left that he devoured not;
 Therefore his prosperity shall not endure.
 22 In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits:
 The hand of every one that is in misery shall come upon him.
 23 ⁴When he is about to fill his belly,
 God shall cast the fierceness of his wrath upon him,
 And shall rain it upon him ⁵while he is eating.
 24 He shall flee from the iron weapon,
 And the bow of brass shall strike him through

He draweth it forth, and it cometh out ²⁵of his body:
 Yea, the glittering point cometh out of his gall;
 Terrors are upon him.
 All darkness is laid up for his treasures:
 A fire not blown by man shall devour him;
⁶It shall consume that which is left in his tent.
 The heavens shall reveal his iniquity, ²⁷
 And the earth shall rise up against him.
 The increase of his house shall depart, ²⁸
His goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.
 This is the portion of a wicked man ²⁹
 from God,
 And the heritage appointed unto him by God.

21 THEN Job answered and said,
 Hear diligently my speech; ²
 And let this be your consolations.
 Suffer me, and I also will speak; ³
 And after that I have spoken, ⁷mock on.
 As for me, is my complaint ⁸to man? ⁴
 And why should I not be impatient?
⁹Mark me, and be astonished, ⁵
 And lay your hand upon your mouth.
 Even when I remember I am troubled, ⁶
 And horror taketh hold on my flesh.
 Wherefore do the wicked live, ⁷
 Become old, yea, wax mighty in power?
 Their seed is established with them in ⁸
 their sight,
 And their offspring before their eyes.
 Their houses are ¹⁰safe from fear, ⁹
 Neither is the rod of God upon them.
 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; ¹⁰
 Their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.
 They send forth their little ones like ¹¹

 13 They spend their days in prosperity,
 And in a moment they go down to 14 Yet they said unto God, Depart from us;

 For we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.
 15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him?
 And what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?
 16 ²Lo, their prosperity is not in their
 hand:
 The counsel of the wicked is far from
 me.
 17 ³How oft is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out?
 That their calamity cometh upon
 them?
 That God distributeth sorrows in his anger?
 18 That they are as stubble before the wind,
 And as chaff that the storm carrieth
 away?
 19 ⁴Ye say, God layeth up his iniquity
 for his children.
 Let him recompense it unto himself,
 that he may know it.
 20 Let his own eyes see his destruction,
 And let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
 21 For what pleasure hath he in his house
 after him,
 When the number of his months is cut off in the midst?
 22 Shall any teach God knowledge?
 Seeing he judgeth those that are high.
 23 One dieth in his full strength,
 Being wholly at ease and quiet:
 24 His ⁵breasts are full of milk,
 And the marrow of his bones is moistened.
 25 And another dieth in bitterness of soul,
 And never tasteth of good.
 26 They lie down alike in the dust,

And the worm covereth them.
 Behold, I know your thoughts, 27
 And the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.
 For ye say, Where is the house of the 28
 prince?
 And where is the tent wherein the wicked dwelt?
 Have ye not asked them that go by 29
 the way?
 And do ye not know their tokens?
 That the evil man is ⁶reserved to the 30
 day of calamity?
 That they are ⁷led forth to the day of
 wrath?
 Who shall declare his way to his face? 31
 And who shall repay him what he hath done?
⁸Yet shall he be borne to the grave, 32
 And ⁹shall keep watch over the tomb.
 The clods of the valley shall be sweet 33
 unto him,
 And all men shall draw after him,
 As there were innumerable before
 him.
 How then comfort ye me ¹⁰in vain, 34
 Seeing in your answers there remaineth only ¹¹falsehood?

22 THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,
 Can a man be profitable unto God? 2
 Surely he that is wise is profitable unto himself.
 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, 3
 that thou art righteous?
 Or is it gain to him, that thou makest
 thy ways perfect?
 Is it ¹²for thy fear of him that he re- 4
 proveth thee,
 That he entereth with thee into judge-
 ment?
 Is not thy wickedness great? 5
 Neither is there any end to thine iniquities.
 For thou hast taken pledges of thy 6
 brother for nought,

And ³the honourable man, he dwelt in it.
- 9 Thou hast sent widows away empty,
And the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

And sudden fear troubleth thee,

And abundance of waters cover thee.
- 12 Is not God in the height of heaven?
And behold the ⁵height of the stars,
how high they are!
- 13 And thou sayest, What doth God know?
Can he judge through the thick darkness?
- 14 Thick clouds are a covering to him,
that he seeth not;
And he walketh ⁶in the circuit of heaven.
- 15 ⁷Wilt thou keep the old way
Which wicked men have trodden?
- 16 Who were snatched away before their time,
Whose foundation was poured out as a stream:
- 17 Who said unto God, Depart from us;
And, What can the Almighty do ⁸for ⁹us?
- 18 Yet he filled their houses with good things:
But the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
- 19 The righteous see it, and are glad;
And the innocent laugh them to scorn:
- 20 Saying, Surely they that did rise up against us are cut off,

And ¹⁰the remnant of them the fire hath consumed.

Acquaint now thyself with him, and ¹¹be at peace:

¹²Thereby good shall come unto thee.
Receive, I pray thee, ¹³the law from ¹⁴his mouth,
And lay up his words in thine heart.
If thou return to the Almighty, thou ¹⁵shalt be built up;
¹⁶If thou put away unrighteousness far from thy tents.
And lay thou thy ¹⁷treasure ¹⁸in the ¹⁹dust,
And the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks;
And the Almighty shall be thy ²⁰treasure,
And ²¹precious silver unto thee.
For then shalt thou delight thyself in ²²the Almighty,
And shalt lift up thy face unto God.
Thou shalt make thy prayer unto ²³him, and he shall hear thee;
And thou shalt pay thy vows.
Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it ²⁴shall be established unto thee;
And light shall shine upon thy ways.
When they ²⁵cast thee down, thou shalt ²⁶say, There is lifting up;
And ²⁷the humble person he shall save.
He shall deliver ²⁸even him that is not ²⁹innocent:
Yea, he shall be delivered through the cleanness of thine hands.

23 THEN Job answered and said,
Even to-day is my complaint ²

That I might come even to his seat!

Nay; ¹but he would give heed unto me.

- 7 There the upright might reason with him;
So should I be delivered for ever from my judge.

- 8 Behold, I go forward, but he is not there;
And backward, but I cannot perceive him:

- 9 On the left hand, when he doth work, but I cannot behold him:
He ²hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him.

- 10 ³But he knoweth ⁴the way that I take;
When he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

- 11 My foot hath held fast to his steps;
His way have I kept, and turned not aside.

- 12 I have not gone back from the commandment of his lips;
I have treasured up the words of his mouth ⁵more than my ⁶necessary food.

- 13 But ⁷he is in one mind, and who can turn him?
And what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

- 14 For he performeth that which is appointed for me:
And many such things are with him.

- 15 Therefore am I troubled at his presence;

When I consider, I am afraid of him.

- 16 For God hath made my heart faint,
And the Almighty hath troubled me:

- 17 ⁸Because I was not cut off before the darkness,

Neither did he cover the thick darkness from my face.

24 ⁹Why are times not laid up by the Almighty?

And why do not they which know him see his days?

There are that remove the landmarks; 2
They violently take away flocks, and feed them.

They drive away the ass of the father- 3
less,

They take the widow's ox for a pledge.
They turn the needy out of the 4
way:

The ¹⁰poor of the earth hide themselves together.

Behold, as wild asses in the desert 5
They go forth to their work, seeking diligently for ¹¹meat;

The wilderness yieldeth them food for their children.

They cut ¹²their provender in the field; 6
And they glean the vintage of the wicked.

They lie all night naked without 7
clothing,

And have no covering in the cold.
They are wet with the showers of the 8
mountains,

And embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

There are that pluck the fatherless 9
from the breast,

And ¹³take a pledge of the poor:

So that they go about naked without 10
clothing,

And being an-hungred they carry the sheaves;

They make oil within the walls of 11
these men;

They tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.

From out of the ¹⁴populous city men 12
groan,

And the soul of the wounded crieth out:

me a liar,
And make my speech nothing worth?

25 THEN answered Bildad the Shu-
hite, and said,
Dominion and fear are with him; ²
He maketh peace in his high places.
Is there any number of his armies? ³
And upon whom doth not his light arise?
How then can man be just ¹¹with God? ⁴
Or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?
Behold, even the moon hath no ⁵

And the stars are not pure in his sight:
How much less man, that is a worm! ⁶

That which is with the Almighty will
I not conceal.
Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; 12
Why then are ye become altogether vain?
This is the portion of a wicked man 13
with God,
And the heritage of oppressors, which they receive from the Almighty.
If his children be multiplied, it is for 14
the sword;
And his offspring shall not be satisfied
with bread.
Those that remain of him shall be 15
buried in death,
And his widows shall make no lamentation.
Though he heap up silver as the dust, 16
And prepare raiment as the clay;
He may prepare it, but the just shall 17
put it on,
And the innocent shall divide the silver
He buildeth his house as the ¹³moth, 18
And as a booth which the keeper
maketh.
He lieth down rich, but he ¹⁴shall not 19
be gathered;
He openeth his eyes, and he is not.
Terrors overtake him like waters; 20
A tempest stealeth him away in the night.
The east wind carrieth him away, and 21
he departeth;
And it sweepeth him out of his place.
For God shall hurl at him, and not 22
spare:
He would fain flee out of his hand.
Men shall clap their hands at him, 23
And shall hiss him out of his place.

28 ¹⁵SURELY there is a mine for
silver,
And a place for gold which they refine.

- 2 Iron is taken out of the ¹earth,
And brass is molten out of the stone.

bread:
And underneath it is turned up as it were by fire.
- 6 The stones thereof are the place of sapphires, ⁴And it hath dust of gold.

by.

He overturneth the mountains by the rocks;

And his eye seeth every precious thing.

trickle not;
And the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.
- 12 But where shall wisdom be found?
And where is the place of understand-
ing?
- 13 Man knoweth not the price thereof;
Neither is it found in the land of the living.
- 14 The deep saith, It is not in me:
And the sea saith, It is not with me.
- 15 It cannot be gotten for ⁸gold, Neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

It cannot be valued with the gold of 16
Ophir,
With the precious ⁹onyx, or the sapphire.
Gold and glass cannot equal it: 17
Neither shall the exchange thereof be ¹⁰jewels of fine gold.
No mention shall be made of coral or 18
of crystal:
Yea, the price of wisdom is above ¹¹rubies.
The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal 19
it,
Neither shall it be valued with pure
gold.
Whence then cometh wisdom? 20
And where is the place of understanding?
Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all 21
living,
And kept close from the fowls of the air.
¹²Destruction and Death say, 22
We have heard a rumour thereof with our ears.
God understandeth the way thereof, 23
And he knoweth the place thereof.
For he looketh to the ends of the 24
earth,
And seeth under the whole heaven;
¹³To make a weight for the wind; 25
Yea, he meteth out the waters by measure.
When he made a decree for the rain, 26
And a way for the lightning of the thunder:
Then did he see it, and ¹⁴declare it; 27
He established it, yea, and searched
it out.
And unto man he said, 28
Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is

 4 As I was in ²the ripeness of my days,
 When the ³secret of God was upon my tent;
 5 When the Almighty was yet with me,
 And my children were about me;
 6 When my steps were washed with butter,
 And the rock poured me out rivers of oil!
 7 When I went forth to the gate unto the city,
 When I prepared my seat in the ⁴street,
 8 The young men saw me and hid themselves,
 And the aged rose up and stood;
 9 The princes refrained talking,
 And laid their hand on their mouth;
 10 The voice of the nobles was ⁵hushed,
 And their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.
 11 For when the ear heard me, then it blessed me;
 And when the eye saw me, it gave witness unto me:
 12 Because I delivered the poor that cried,
 The fatherless also, ⁶that had none to help him.
 13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me:
 And I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
 14 I put on righteousness, and it ⁷clothed me:
 My justice was as a robe and a ⁸diadem.
 15 I was eyes to the blind,
 And feet was I to the lame.
 16 I was a father to the needy:
 And ⁹the cause of him that I knew not I searched out.

And I brake the ¹⁰jaws of the un- righteous,
 And plucked the prey out of his teeth.
 Then I said, I shall die ¹¹in my nest, 18
 And I shall multiply my days as ¹²the sand:
 My root is ¹³spread out ¹⁴to the waters, 19
 And the dew lieth all night upon my branch:
 My glory is fresh in me, 20
 And my bow is renewed in my hand.
 Unto me men gave ear, and waited, 21
 And kept silence for my counsel.
 After my words they spake not again; 22
 And my speech dropped upon them.
 And they waited for me as for the 23
 rain;
 And they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.
¹⁵If I laughed on them, they ¹⁶believed 24
 it not;
 And the light of my countenance they cast not down.
 I chose out their way, and sat as chief, 25
 And dwelt as a king in the army,
 As one that comforteth the mourners.

30 BUT now they that are younger than I have me in derision,
 Whose fathers I disdained to set with the dogs of my flock.
 Yea, the strength of their hands, 2
 whereto should it profit me?
 Men in whom ¹⁷ripe age is perished.
 They are gaunt with want and famine; 3
¹⁸They gnaw the dry ground, ¹⁹in the gloom of wasteness and desolation.
 They pluck salt-wort by the bushes; 4
 And the roots of the broom are ²⁰their meat.
 They are driven forth from the midst 5
 of men;
 They cry after them as after a thief.
²¹In the clefts of the valleys must they 6 dwell,
 In holes of the earth and of the rocks.
 Among the bushes they bray; 7

9 And now I am become their song, Yea, I am a byword unto them.

10 They abhor me, they stand aloof from me,

And spare not to spit ⁵in my face.

11 For he hath loosed ⁶his cord, and afflicted me,

And they have cast off the bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand rise the ⁷rabble; They thrust aside my feet,

And they cast up against me their ways of destruction.

13 They ⁸mar my path, They set forward my calamity,

Even men that have no helper.

14 ⁹As through a wide breach they come: In the midst of the ruin they roll themselves upon me.

15 Terrors are turned upon me,

¹⁰They chase ¹¹mine honour as the wind;

And my welfare is passed away as a cloud.

16 And now my soul is poured out ¹²within me;

Days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 In the night season my bones are ¹³pierced ¹⁴in me,

And ¹⁵the pains that gnaw me take no rest.

18 ¹⁶By the great force of my disease is my garment disfigured:

It bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

19 He hath cast me into the mire,

And I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not answer me:

I stand up, and thou lookest at me.

Thou art turned to be cruel to me: 21 With the might of thy hand thou persecutest me.

Thou liftest me up to the wind, thou 22 caustest me to ride upon it;

And thou dissolvest me in the storm.

For I know that thou wilt bring me 23 to death,

And to ¹⁷the house appointed for all living.

¹⁸Surely against a ruinous heap he 24 will not put forth his hand;

Though it be in his destruction, one may utter a cry because of these things.

Did not I weep for him that was in 25 trouble?

Was not my soul grieved for the needy?

When I looked for good, then evil 26 came;

And when I waited for light, there came darkness.

My bowels boil, and rest not; 27

Days of affliction are come upon me.

I go ¹⁹mourning without the sun: 28

I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help.

I am a brother to jackals, 29

And a companion to ostriches.

My skin is black, and falleth from me, 30

And my bones are burned with heat.

Therefore is my harp turned to 31 mourning,

And my pipe into the voice of them that weep.

31 I MADE a covenant with mine eyes;

How then should I look upon a maid?

- 4 Doth not he see my ways,
And number all my steps?
5 If I have walked with vanity,
And my foot hath hastened to deceit;
6 (Let me be weighed in an even balance,
That God may know mine integrity);
7 If my step hath turned out of the way,
And mine heart walked after mine
eyes,
And if any spot hath cleaved to mine
hands:
8 Then let me sow, and let another eat;
Yea, let ¹the produce of my field be rooted out.
9 If mine heart have been enticed unto
a woman,
And I have laid wait at my neighbour's door:
10 Then let my wife grind unto another,
And let others bow down upon her.
11 For that were an heinous crime;
Yea, it were an iniquity to be punished
by the judges:
12 For it is a fire that consumeth unto ²Destruction,
And would root out all mine increase.
13 If I did despise the cause of my man-
servant or of my maidservant,
When they contended with me:
14 What then shall I do when God riseth up?
And when he visiteth, what shall I
answer him?
15 Did not he that made me in the womb
make him?
And did not one fashion us in the womb?

17 Or have eaten my morsel alone,
And the fatherless hath not eaten

And I have been her guide from my mother's womb;)

If I have seen any perish for want of 19
clothing,
Or that the needy had no covering;
If his loins have not blessed me, 20
And if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
If I have lifted up my hand against 21
the fatherless,
Because I saw my help in the gate:
Then let my shoulder fall from the 22

And mine arm be broken from the

For calamity from God was a terror 23

And by reason of his excellency I could do nothing.

The words of Job are ended.

- 32 SO these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was 2 righteous in his own eyes. Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than 3 God. Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job. Now Elihu had ⁷waited to speak unto Job, because they were elder 5 than he. And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.
- 6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said,
I am young, and ye are very old;
Wherefore I held back, and durst
not shew you mine opinion.
- 7 I said, Days should speak,

And multitude of years should teach wisdom.
But there is a spirit in man, 8
And the breath of the Almighty
giveth them understanding.
It is not the great that are wise, 9
Nor the aged that understand judgement.
Therefore I ⁸said, Harken to me; 10
I also will shew mine opinion.
Behold, I waited for your words, 11
I listened for your reasons,
Whilst ye searched out what to say.
Yea, I attended unto you, 12
And, behold, there was none that convinced Job,
Or that answered his words, among
you.
⁹Beware lest ye say, We have found 13
wisdom;
God may vanquish him, not man:
For he hath not directed his words 14
against me;
Neither will I answer him with your speeches.
They are amazed, they answer no 15
more:
They have not a word to say.
And shall I wait, because they speak 16
not,
Because they stand still, and answer
no more?
I also will answer my part, 17
I also will shew mine opinion.
For I am full of words; 18
The spirit ¹⁰within me constraineth
me.
Behold, my belly is as wine which 19
hath no vent;
Like new ¹¹bottles ¹²it is ready to burst.
I will speak, that I may ¹³be refreshed; 20
I will open my lips and answer.
Let me not, I pray you, respect any 21
man's person;
Neither will I give flattering titles
unto any man.
For I know not to give flattering titles; 22
Else would my Maker soon take me
away.

33 Howbeit, Job, I pray thee, hear

And hearken to all my words.

2 Behold now, I have opened my mouth,
My tongue hath spoken in my 'mouth.

3 My words shall utter the uprightness
of my heart:

And that which my lips know they shall speak sincerely.

4 The spirit of God hath made me,
And the breath of the Almighty
giveth me life.

5 If thou canst, answer thou me;
Set thy words in order before me,
stand forth.

6 Behold, ²I am toward God even as
thou art:

I also am formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terror shall not make thee
afraid,

Neither shall my pressure be heavy
upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing,

And I have heard the voice of thy
words, saying,

9 I am clean, without transgression;
I am innocent neither is there iniquity in me:

10 Behold, he findeth ³occasions against
me,

He counteth me for his enemy;

11 He putteth my feet in the stocks,

He marketh all my paths.

12 ⁴Behold, I will answer thee, in this thou art not just;

For God is greater than man.

13 ⁵Why dost thou strive against him?
For he giveth not account of any of his matters.

14 For God speaketh ⁶once,
Yea twice, though man regardeth it
not.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night,
When deep sleep falleth upon men,
In slumberings upon the bed;

Then he ⁷openeth the ears of men, 16
And sealeth their instruction,

⁸That he may withdraw man from his 17
purpose,

And hide pride from man;

⁹He keepeth back his soul from the 18
pit,

And his life from perishing by the ¹⁰sword.

He is chastened also with pain upon 19
his bed,

¹¹And with continual strife in his bones:

So that his life abhorreth bread, 20
And his soul dainty meat.

His flesh is consumed away, that it 21
cannot be seen;

And his bones that were not seen stick out.

Yea, his soul draweth near unto the 22
pit,

And his life to the destroyers.

If there be with him ¹²an angel, 23
An interpreter, one ¹³among a thousand,

To shew unto man ¹⁴what is right for
him;

¹⁵Then he is gracious unto him, and 24
saith,

Deliver him from going down to the
pit,

I have found a ransom.

His flesh shall be fresher than a 25
child's;

He returneth to the days of his youth:

He prayeth unto God, and he is 26
favourable unto him;

So that he seeth his face with joy:

And he restoreth unto man his righteousness.

¹⁶He singeth before men, and saith, 27
I have sinned, and perverted that which was right,

And ¹⁷it profited me not:

He hath redeemed my soul from going 28
into the pit,

And my life shall behold the light.

Twice, yea thrice, with a man,
30 To bring back his soul from the pit,
That he may be enlightened with the light of ¹the living.
31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me:
Hold thy peace, and I will speak.
32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer
me:
Speak, for I desire to justify thee.
33 If not, hearken thou unto me:
Hold thy peace, and I will teach thee
wisdom.

34 MOREOVER Elihu answered and said,

- 2 Hear my words, ye wise men;
And give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.
3 For the ear trieth words,
As the palate tasteth meat.
4 Let us choose for us that which is right:
Let us know among ourselves what is
good.
5 For Job hath said, I am righteous,
And God hath taken away my right:
6 ²Notwithstanding my right I am
accounted a liar;
³My wound is incurable, though I am
without transgression.
7 What man is like Job,
Who drinketh up scorning like water?
8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity,
And walketh with wicked men.
9 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing
That he should ⁴delight himself with God.
10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye men
of understanding:
Far be it from God, that he should do wickedness;
And from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.
11 For the work of a man shall he render
unto him,

And cause every man to find according to his ways.
Yea, of a surety, God will not do ¹²
wickedly,
Neither will the Almighty pervert
judgement.
Who gave him a charge over the earth? ¹³
Or who hath ⁵disposed the whole world?
⁶If he set his heart ⁷upon ⁸man. ¹⁴
If he gather unto himself his spirit
and his breath;
All flesh shall perish together, ¹⁵
And man shall turn again unto dust.
⁹If now thou hast understanding, hear ¹⁶
this:
Hearken to the voice of my words.
Shall even one that hateth right govern? ¹⁷
And wilt thou condemn him that is just and mighty?
¹⁰Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art vile? ¹⁸
Or to nobles, Ye are wicked?
How much less to him that respecteth ¹⁹
not the persons of princes, Nor regardeth the rich more than the poor?
For they all are the work of his hands.
In a moment they die, ¹¹even at mid- ²⁰
night;
The people are shaken and pass away,
And the mighty are taken away without hand.
For his eyes are upon the ways of a ²¹
man,
And he seeth all his goings.
There is no darkness, nor shadow of ²²
death,
Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
For he needeth not further to con- ²³
sider a man,
That he should go before God in
judgement.
He breaketh in pieces mighty men ²⁴
¹²*in ways* past finding out,
And setteth others in their stead.
Therefore he taketh knowledge of ²⁵
their works;

- And he overturneth them in the night,
so that they are ¹destroyed.
- 26 He striketh them as wicked men
²In the open sight of others;
27 Because they turned aside from following him,
And would not have regard to any of his ways:
28 ³So that they caused the cry of the poor to come unto him,
And he heard the cry of the afflicted.
29 When he giveth quietness, who then can condemn?
And when he hideth his face, who then can behold him?
Whether it be done unto a nation, or unto a man, alike:
30 That the godless man reign not,
That there be none to ensnare the people.
31 For hath any said unto God,
I have borne chastisement, ⁴I will not offend any more;
32 That which I see not teach thou me:
If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more?
33 Shall his recompence be as thou wilt,
that thou refusest it?
For thou must choose, and not I:
Therefore speak what thou knowest.
34 Men of understanding will say unto me,
Yea, every wise man that heareth me:
35 Job speaketh without knowledge,
And his words are without wisdom.
36 Would that Job were tried unto the end,
Because of his answering like wicked men.
37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin,
He clappeth his hands among us,
And multiplieth his words against God.

35 MOREOVER Elihu answered and said,

Thinkest thou this to be thy right,
Or sayest thou, My righteousness is more than God's,

That thou sayest, What advantage 3
will it be unto thee?
And, What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?
I will answer thee, 4
And thy companions with thee.
Look unto the heavens, and see; 5
And behold the skies, which are higher than thou.
If thou hast sinned, what doest thou 6
against him?
And if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?
If thou be righteous, what givest thou 7
him?
Or what receiveth he of thine hand?
Thy wickedness may hurt a man as 8
thou art;
And thy righteousness may profit a son of man.
By reason of the multitude of oppress- 9
sions they cry out;
They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty.
But none saith, Where is God my 10 Maker,
Who giveth songs in the night;
Who teacheth us more than the beasts 11
of the earth,
And maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?
There they cry, ⁵but none giveth 12
answer,
Because of the pride of evil men.
Surely God will not hear vanity, 13
Neither will the Almighty regard it.
How much less when thou sayest 14
⁶thou beholdest him not,
The cause is before him, and thou waitest for him!
But now, because he hath not visited 15
in his anger,
⁷Neither doth he greatly regard arrogance;
Therefore doth Job open his mouth 16
in vanity;
He multiplieth words without knowledge.

36 ELIHU also proceeded, and | said,

- 2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee;
For ²I have yet somewhat to say on God's behalf.
- 3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, And will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
- 4 For truly my words are not false: One that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.
- 5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any:
He is mighty in strength of ³understanding.
- 6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked:
But giveth to the afflicted their right.
- 7 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous:
But with kings upon the throne He setteth them for ever, and they are exalted.
- 8 And if they be bound in fetters,
And be taken in the cords of affliction;
- 9 Then he sheweth them their work,
And their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly.
- 10 He openeth also their ear to instruction,
And commandeth that they return from iniquity.
- 11 If they hearken and serve him,
They shall spend their days in prosperity,
And their years in ⁴pleasures.
- 12 But if they hearken not, they shall perish by ⁵the sword,
And they shall die without knowledge.
- 13 But they that are godless in heart lay up anger:
They cry not for help when he bindeth them.
- 14 ⁶They die in youth,
And their life perisheth ⁷among the ⁸unclean.

He delivereth the afflicted ⁹by his 15 affliction,
And openeth their ear ¹⁰in oppression.
Yea, he would have ¹¹led thee away 16 ¹²out of distress
Into a broad place, where there is no straitness;
And that which is set on thy table should be full of fatness.
But thou ¹³art full of the judgement of 17 the wicked:
Judgement and justice take hold on thee.
¹⁴Because there is wrath, beware lest 18 thou be ¹⁵led away by thy sufficiency;
Neither let the greatness of the ransom turn thee aside.
¹⁶Will thy riches suffice, ¹⁷*that thou be* 19 not in distress,
Or all the forces of thy strength?
Desire not the night, 20
When peoples ¹⁸are cut off in their place.
Take heed, regard not iniquity: 21
For this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.
Behold, God doeth loftily in his 22 power:
Who is a teacher like unto him?
Who hath enjoined him his way? 23
Or who can say, Thou hast wrought unrighteousness?
Remember that thou magnify his work, 24
Whereof men have sung.
All men have looked thereon; 25
Man beholdeth it afar off.
Behold, God is great, and we know 26 him not;
The number of his years is unsearchable.
For he draweth up the drops of water, 27
Which distil in rain ¹⁹from ²⁰his vapour:
Which the skies pour down 28
And drop upon man abundantly.
Yea, can any understand the spread- 29 ings of the clouds,
The thunderings of his pavilion?

- 30 Behold, he spreadeth his light ¹around him;
And he ²covereth the bottom of the sea.
- 31 For by these he judgeth the peoples;
He giveth meat in abundance.
- 32 He covereth his hands with the ³lightning;
And giveth it a charge ⁴that it strike the mark.
- 33 The noise thereof telleth concerning ⁵him,
The cattle also concerning ⁶the storm that cometh up.

37 At this also my heart trembleth,
And is moved out of its place.

- 2 Harken ye unto the noise of his voice,
And the ⁷sound that goeth out of his mouth.
- 3 He sendeth it forth under the whole heaven,
And his ⁸lightning unto the ⁸ends of the earth.
- 4 After it a voice roareth;
He thundereth with the voice of his majesty:
And he stayeth them not when his voice is heard.
- 5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice;
Great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.
- 6 For he saith to the snow, Fall thou on the earth;
Likewise to the shower of rain,
And to the showers of his mighty rain.
- 7 He sealeth up the hand of every man;
That all men whom he hath made may know it.
- 8 Then the beasts go into coverts,
And remain in their dens.
- 9 Out of the chamber of the south cometh the storm:
And cold out of the ⁹north.
- 10 By the breath of God ice is given:
And the breadth of the waters is ¹⁰straitened.

Yea, he ladeth the thick cloud with ¹¹moisture;
He spreadeth abroad the cloud of his ¹²lightning:
And it is turned round about by his ¹²guidance,
That they may do whatsoever he commandeth them
Upon the face of the habitable world:
Whether it be for correction, or for ¹³his ¹³land,
Or for mercy, that he cause it to come.
Hearken unto this, O Job: 14
Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.
Dost thou know how God layeth his ¹⁵charge upon them,
And causeth the ¹⁵lightning of his cloud to shine?
Dost thou know the balancings of the ¹⁶clouds,
The wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?
¹⁷How thy garments are warm; 17
¹⁷When the earth is still by reason of the south wind?
Canst thou with him spread out the ¹⁸sky,
Which is strong as a molten mirror?
Teach us what we shall say unto ¹⁹him;
For we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.
Shall it be told him that I would ²⁰speak?
²¹Or should a man wish that he were swallowed up?
And now men ²¹see not the light which ²¹is bright in the skies:
But the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.
Out of the north cometh ²²golden ²²splendour:
God hath upon him terrible majesty.
Touching the Almighty, we cannot ²³
find him out; he is excellent in power:

And ¹in judgement and plenteous justice he will not afflict.

24 Men do therefore fear him:

He regardeth not any that are wise of heart.

38 THEN the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel By words without knowledge?

3 Gird up now thy loins like a man; For I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

4 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth?

9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof,

And thick darkness a swaddlingband for it,

10 And ⁷prescribed for it my ⁸decree,

And set bars and doors,

11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further;

And here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

12 Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days began,

And caused the dayspring to know its place;

13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth,

And the wicked be shaken out of it?

14 It is changed as clay under the seal; And all things stand forth ⁹as a garment:

And from the wicked their light is ¹⁵withholden,

And the high arm is broken.

Hast thou entered into the springs of ¹⁶the sea?

Or hast thou walked in the ¹⁰recesses of the deep?

Have the gates of death been revealed ¹⁷unto thee?

Or hast thou seen the gates of the shadow of death?

Hast thou comprehended the breadth ¹⁸of the earth?

Where is the way to the dwelling of ¹⁹light,

And as for darkness, where is the place thereof;

That thou shouldest take it to the ²⁰bound thereof,

And that thou shouldest discern the paths to the house thereof?

Doubtless, thou knowest, for thou wast ²¹then born,

And the number of thy days is great!

Hast thou entered the treasures of ²²the snow,

Which I have reserved against the ²³time of trouble,

Against the day of battle and war?

¹¹By what way is the light parted, ²⁴

Who hath cleft a channel for the ²⁵waterflood,

40 MOREOVER the LORD answered Job, and said,
Shall he that cavilleth contend with the Almighty?

He that argueth with God, let him answer it.

Then Job answered the LORD, and 3
said,
Behold, I am of small account; what 4
shall I answer thee?
I lay mine hand upon my mouth.
Once have I spoken, and I will not 5
answer;
Yea twice, but I will proceed no further.

Then the LORD answered Job out of 6
the whirlwind, and said,
Gird up thy loins now like a man: 7
I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
Wilt thou even disannul my judge- 8
ment?
Wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be justified?
Or hast thou an arm like God? 9
And canst thou thunder with a voice like him?
Deck thyself now with excellency and 10
dignity;
And array thyself with honour and majesty.
Pour forth the overflowings of thine 11
anger:
And look upon every one that is proud, and abase him.
Look on every one that is proud, and 12
bring him low;
And tread down the wicked where they stand.
Hide them in the dust together; 13
Bind their faces in the hidden place.
Then will I also confess of thee 14
That thine own right hand can save thee.
Behold now ⁸behemoth, which I 15
made with thee;
He eateth grass as an ox.
Lo now, his strength is in his loins, 16
And his force is in the muscles of his belly.
He moveth his tail like a cedar: 17

 19 He is the chief of the ways of God:
²He only that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.
 20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food;
 Where all the beasts of the field do play.
 21 He lieth under the lotus trees,
 In the covert of the reed, and the fen.
 22 The lotus trees cover him with their shadow;
 The willows of the brook compass him about.
 23 Behold, if a river ³overflow, he trembleth not:
 He is confident, though Jordan swell even to his mouth.
 24 Shall any take him when he is on the watch,
 Or pierce through his nose with a snare?
41 Canst thou draw out ⁴leviathan with a fish hook?
 Or press down his tongue with a cord?
 2 Canst thou put ⁵a rope into his nose?
 Or pierce his jaw through with a ⁶hook?
 3 Will he make many supplications unto thee?
 Or will he speak soft words unto thee?
 4 Will he make a covenant with thee,
 That thou shouldest take him for a servant for ever?
 5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird?
 Or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?
 6 Shall the bands of fishermen make traffic of him?
 Shall they part him among the merchants?
 7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons,
 Or his head with fish spears?
 8 Lay thine hand upon him;

- Remember the battle, and do so no more.
 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: 9
 Shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?
 None is so fierce that he dare stir him 10 up:
 Who then is he that can stand before me?
 Who hath first given unto me, that I 11 should repay him?
Whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.
 I will not keep silence concerning his 12 limbs,
 Nor his mighty strength, nor his comely proportion.
 Who can ⁷strip off his outer garment? 13
 Who shall come within his double bridle?
 Who can open the doors of his face? 14
⁸Round about his teeth is terror.
His ⁹strong scales are his pride, 15
 Shut up together as with a close seal.
 One is so near to another, 16
 That no air can come between them.
 They are joined one to another; 17
 They stick together, that they cannot be sundered.
 His needings flash forth light, 18
 And his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
 Out of his mouth go burning torches, 19
 And sparks of fire leap forth.
 Out of his nostrils a smoke goeth, 20
 As of a seething pot and burning rushes.
 His breath kindleth coals, 21
 And a flame goeth forth from his mouth.
 In his neck abideth strength, 22
 And terror danceth before him.
 The flakes of his flesh are joined to- 23 gether:
 They are firm upon him; they cannot be moved.
 His heart is as firm as a stone; 24
 Yea, firm as the nether millstone.

- By reason of consternation they are beside themselves.
- 26 If one lay at him with the sword, it cannot avail;
Nor the spear, the dart, nor the ¹pointed shaft.
- 27 He counteth iron as straw,
And brass as rotten wood.
- 28 The ²arrow cannot make him flee:
Slingstones are turned with him into stubble.
- 29 Clubs are counted as stubble:
He laugheth at the rushing of the javelin.
- 30 His underparts are like sharp potsherds:
He spreadeth as it were a threshing wain upon the mire.
- 31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot:
He maketh the sea like ointment.
- 32 He maketh a path to shine after him;
One would think the deep to be hoary.
- 33 Upon earth there is not his like,
That is made without fear.
- 34 He beholdeth every thing that is high:
He is king over all the sons of pride.

42 THEN Job answered the LORD, and said,

- 2 I know that thou canst do all things,
And that no purpose of thine can be restrained.
- 3 Who is this that hideth counsel without knowledge?
Therefore have I uttered that which I understood not,
Things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.
- 4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak;
I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
- 5 I had heard of thee by the hearing of the ear;
But now mine eye seeth thee,
- 6 Wherefore I ³abhor myself, and repent
In dust and ashes.

2 Heb. son of the bow.

And it was so, that after the LORD had ⁷spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath. Now therefore, take unto you ⁸seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you; for him will I accept, that I deal not with you after your folly; for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath. So Eliphaz the Temanite ⁹and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: and the LORD accepted Job. And the LORD ¹⁰turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then came there unto him all his brethren, ¹¹and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him concerning all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a ¹²piece of money, and every one a ring of gold. So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: and he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses. He had also seven sons and ¹³three daughters. And he called the name of the first, Jemimah; and the name of the second, Keziah; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch. And in all the ¹⁵land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren. And after this Job lived an hundred and ¹⁶forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations. So ¹⁷Job died, being old and full of days.

THE PSALMS

BOOK I

- 1 ¹BLESSED is the man that walketh
not in the counsel of the wicked,
Nor standeth in the way of sinners,
Nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD;
And in his law doth he meditate day and
night.
3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water,
That bringeth forth its fruit in its season,
Whose leaf also doth not wither;
And ²whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.
4 The wicked are not so;
But are like the chaff which the wind
driveth away.
5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgement,
Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
6 For the LORD knoweth the way of the
righteous:
But the way of the wicked shall perish.

- 2 WHY do the nations ¹rage,
And the peoples ²imagine a vain
thing?
2 The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the rulers take counsel together, Against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,
3 Let us break their bands asunder,
And cast away their cords from us.
4 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh:
The Lord shall have them in derision.
5 Then shall he speak unto them in his
wrath,
And ⁵vex them in his sore displeasure:
6 Yet I have set my king
Upon my holy hill of Zion.

Be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

Thou hast set me at large when I was in distress:

O LORD, heal me; for my bones are vexed.

My soul also is sore vexed: 3

- 1 O LORD my God, in thee do I 'put my trust:

Save me from all them that pursue me, and deliver me:

Rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

If there be iniquity in my hands;

(Yea, I have delivered him that without cause was mine adversary:)

- 5 Let the enemy pursue my soul, and overtake it;

Yea, let him tread my life down to the earth,

And lay my glory in the dust. [Selah]

- 6 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger,
Lift up thyself against the rage of mine adversaries:

And awake for me; thou hast commanded judgement.

- 7 ²And let the congregation of the peoples compass thee about:

And over them return thou on high.

The LORD ministereth judgement to the 8 peoples:

Judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and to mine integrity ³that is in me.

Oh let the wickedness of the wicked 9 come to an end, but establish thou the righteous:

For the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

My shield is with God, 10

Which saveth the upright in heart.

God is a righteous judge, 11

Yea, a God that hath indignation every day.

⁴If a man turn not, he will whet his 12 sword;

He hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

He hath also prepared for him the in- 13 struments of death;

He maketh his arrows fiery shafts.

Behold, he travaileth with iniquity; 14

Yea, he hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

He hath made a pit, and digged it, 15

And is fallen into the ditch which he made.

His mischief shall return upon his own 16 head,

And his violence shall come down upon his own pate.

I will give thanks unto the LORD accord- 17 ing to his righteousness:

And will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

I have kept me from the ways of the violent.

My steps have held fast to thy paths, 5
My feet have not slipped.

I have called upon thee, for thou wilt 6
answer me, O God:

Incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

Shew thy marvellous lovingkindness, O 7 thou that savest them which put their trust in thee

18 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: and he said,

- 1 I LOVE thee, O LORD, my strength.
 2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress,
 and my deliverer;
 My God, my strong rock, in him will I trust;
 My shield, and the horn of my salvation,
 my high tower.
 3 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy
 to be praised:
 So shall I be saved from mine enemies.
 4 The cords of death compassed me,
 And the floods of ⁷ungodliness made me
 afraid.
 5 The cords of Sheol were round about me:
 The snares of death came upon me.
 6 In my distress I called upon the LORD,
 And cried unto my God:
 He heard my voice out of his temple,
 And my cry before him came into his ears.
 7 Then the earth shook and trembled,
 The foundations also of the mountains
 moved
 And were shaken, because he was wroth.
 8 There went up a smoke ⁸out of his nostrils,
 And fire out of his mouth devoured:

Coals were kindled by it.
 He bowed the heavens also, and came 9
 down;
 And thick darkness was under his feet.
 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: 10
 Yea, he flew swiftly upon the wings of the wind.
 He made darkness his hiding place, his 11
 pavilion round about him;
 Darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.
 At the brightness before him his thick 12
 clouds passed,
 Hailstones and coals of fire.
 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, 13
 And the Most High uttered his voice;
 Hailstones and coals of fire.
 And he sent out his arrows, and scat- 14
 tered them;
⁹Yea, lightnings manifold, and discom-fitted them.
 Then the channels of waters appeared, 15
 And the foundations of the world were laid bare,
 At thy rebuke, O LORD,
 At the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.
 He sent from on high, he took me; 16
 He drew me out of ¹⁰many waters.
 He delivered me from my strong enemy, 17
 And from them that hated me, for they were too mighty for me.
 They came upon me in the day of my 18
 calamity:
 But the LORD was my stay.
 He brought me forth also into a large 19
 place;
 He delivered me, because he delighted
 in me.
 The LORD rewarded me according to my 20
 righteousness;
 According to the cleanness of my hands
 hath he recompensed me.
 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, 21
 And have not wickedly departed from my God.
 For all his judgements were before me, 22
 And I put not away his statutes from me.
 I was also perfect with him, 23
 And I kept myself from mine iniquity.

take them:

I was cast upon thee from the womb: 10

Thou art my God from my mother's belly.

Be not far from me; for trouble is near; 11
For there is none to help.

Many bulls have compassed me: 12

Strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

They gaped upon me with their mouth, 13

As a ravening and a roaring lion.

I am poured out like water, 14

And all my bones are out of joint:

My heart is like wax;

It is melted in the midst of my bowels.

My strength is dried up like a potsherd; 15

And my tongue cleaveth to my jaws;

And thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

For dogs have compassed me: 16

The assembly of evil-doers have inclosed me;

⁷They pierced my hands and my feet.

I may tell all my bones; 17

They look and stare upon me:

They part my garments among them, 18

And upon my vesture do they cast lots.

But be not thou far off, O LORD: 19

A Psalm of David.

- 1 UNTO thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.
2 O my God, in thee have I trusted,
Let me not be ashamed;
Let not mine enemies triumph over me.
3 Yea, none that wait on thee shall be ashamed:
They shall be ashamed that deal
treacherously without cause.
4 Shew me thy ways, O LORD;
Teach me thy paths.
5 Guide me in thy truth, and teach me;
For thou art the God of my salvation;
On thee do I wait all the day.
6 Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies
and thy lovingkindnesses;
For they have been ever of old.
7 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor
my transgressions:
According to thy lovingkindness remember thou me,
For thy goodness' sake, O LORD.
8 Good and upright is the LORD:
Therefore will he instruct sinners in the
way.
9 The meek will he guide in judgement:
And the meek will he teach his way.
10 All the paths of the LORD are loving-kindness and truth
Unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.
11 For thy name's sake, O LORD,
Pardon mine iniquity, for it is great.
12 What man is he that feareth the LORD?
Him shall he instruct in the way that he shall choose.
13 His soul shall dwell at ease;
And his seed shall inherit the land.
14 The ¹secret of the LORD is with them
that fear him;
²And he will shew them his covenant.
15 Mine eyes are ever toward the LORD;
For he shall pluck my feet out of the net.
16 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy
upon me;

For I am desolate and afflicted.

The troubles of my heart ³are enlarged: 17
O bring thou me out of my distresses.
Consider mine affliction and my travail; 18
And forgive all my sins.
Consider mine enemies, for they are 19
many;
And they hate me with cruel hatred.
O keep my soul, and deliver me: 20
Let me not be ashamed, for I put my
trust in thee.
Let integrity and uprightness preserve 21
me,
For I wait on thee.
Redeem Israel, O God, 22
Out of all his troubles.

A Psalm of David.

JUDGE me, O LORD, for I have walked 1

I have trusted also in the LORD ⁴without waving.
Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; 2
Try my reins and my heart.
For thy lovingkindness is before mine 3
eyes;
And I have walked in thy truth.
I have not sat with vain persons; 4
Neither will I go in with dissemblers.
I hate the congregation of evil-doers, 5
And will not sit with the wicked.
I will wash mine hands in innocency; 6
So will I compass thine altar, O LORD:
That I may ⁵make the voice of thanks- 7
giving to be heard,
And tell of all thy wondrous works.
LORD, I love the habitation of thy house, 8
And the place ⁶where thy glory dwelleth.
⁷Gather not my soul with sinners, 9
Nor my life with men of blood:
In whose hands is mischief, 10
And their right hand is full of bribes.

O LORD my God,
I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed
me.

O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul ³

But joy cometh in the morning.

As for me, I said in my prosperity, ⁶
I shall never be moved.

Thou, LORD, of thy favour hadst made ⁷
my mountain to stand strong:

Thou didst hide thy face; I was troubled.
I cried to thee, O LORD; ⁸

And unto the LORD I made supplica-
tion:

What profit is there in my blood, when ⁹
I go down to the pit?

Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?

Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon ¹⁰

¹¹THE transgression of the wicked 1
¹²saith within ¹³my heart,
There is no fear of God before his eyes.
For ¹⁴he flattereth himself in his own eyes, 2 ¹⁵That his iniquity shall not be found out and be hated.
The words of his mouth are iniquity and 3
deceit:
He hath left off to be wise and to do
good.
He deviseth iniquity upon his bed; 4
He setteth himself in a way that is not
good;
He abhorreth not evil.

Thy lovingkindness, O LORD, is in the 5
heavens;
Thy faithfulness reacheth unto the skies.
Thy righteousness is like the mountains 6
of God;
Thy judgements are a great deep:
O LORD, thou preservest man and beast.
How precious is thy lovingkindness, O 7
God!
And the children of men take refuge
under the shadow of thy wings.

A Psalm of David.

- 1 FRET not thyself because of evil-doers,
 Neither be thou envious against them that work unrighteousness.
- 2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass,
 And wither as the green herb.
- 3 Trust in the LORD, and do good;

- 4 ⁴Delight thyself also in the LORD;
 And he shall give thee the ⁵desires of thine heart.
- 5 ⁶Commit thy way unto the LORD;
 Trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass.
- 6 And he shall make thy righteousness to go forth as the light,
 And thy judgement as the noonday.
- 7 ⁷Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him:
 Fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way,
 Because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.
- 8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath:
 Fret not thyself, it tendeth only to evil-doing.
- 9 For evil-doers shall be cut off:
 But those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit ⁸the land.

 And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.
- The wicked plotteth against the just, 12
 And gnasheth upon him with his teeth.
 The Lord shall laugh at him: 13
 For he seeth that his day is coming.
- The wicked have drawn out the sword, 14
 and have bent their bow;
 To cast down the poor and needy,
 To slay such as be upright in the way:
 Their sword shall enter into their own 15

 And their bows shall be broken.
- Better is a little that the righteous hath 16
 Than the abundance of many wicked.
 For the arms of the wicked shall be 17

 But the LORD upholdeth the righteous.
 The LORD knoweth the days of the 18

 And their inheritance shall be for ever.
- They shall not be ashamed in the time 19
 of evil:
 And in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

 And the enemies of the LORD shall be as ¹⁰the excellency of the pastures:
 They shall consume; ¹¹in smoke shall they consume away.

 But the righteous dealeth graciously, and giveth.
- For such as be blessed of him shall 22
 inherit the land;
 And they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.
- A man's goings are established of the 23
 LORD;
 And he delighteth in his way.
- Though he fall, he shall not be utterly 24
 cast down:

- For the LORD ¹upholdeth him with his hand.
 25 I have been young, and now am old;
 Yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken,
 Nor his seed begging their bread.
 26 All the day long he dealeth graciously,
 and lendeth;
 And his seed is blessed.
 27 Depart from evil, and do good;
 And dwell for evermore.
 28 For the LORD loveth judgement,
 And forsaketh not his saints;
 They are preserved for ever:
 But the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.
 29 The righteous shall inherit the land,
 And dwell therein for ever.
 30 The mouth of the righteous talketh of wisdom,
 And his tongue speaketh judgement.
 31 The law of his God is in his heart;
 None of his steps shall slide.
 32 The wicked watcheth the righteous,
 And seeketh to slay him.
 33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand,
 Nor condemn him when he is judged.
 34 Wait on the LORD, and keep his way,
 And he shall exalt thee to inherit the land:
 When the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.
 35 I have seen the wicked in great power,
 And spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil.
 36 ²But ³one passed by, and, lo, he was not:
 Yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.
 37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright:
 For ⁴the latter end of that man is peace.
 38 As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together:
 The latter end of the wicked shall be cut off.
 39 But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD:
 He is their strong hold in the time of trouble.

And the LORD helpeth them, and ⁴⁰rescueth them:
 He rescueth them from the wicked, and saveth them,
 Because they have taken refuge in him.

38 A Psalm of David, ⁵to bring to remembrance.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath: 1
 Neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.
 For thine arrows ⁶stick fast in me, 2
 And thy hand ⁶presseth me sore.
 There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine indignation;
 Neither is there any ⁷health in my bones because of my sin.
 For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: 4
 As an heavy burden they are too heavy for me.
 My wounds stink and are corrupt, 5
 Because of my foolishness.
 I am ⁸pained and bowed down greatly; 6
 I go mourning all the day long.
 For my loins are filled with burning; 7
 And there is no soundness in my flesh.
 I am faint and sore bruised: 8
 I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.
 Lord, all my desire is before thee; 9
 And my groaning is not hid from thee.
 My heart throbbereth, my strength faileth 10
 me:
 As for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.
 My lovers and my friends stand aloof 11
 from my plague;
 And my kinsmen stand afar off.
 They also that seek after my life lay 12
 snares for me;
 And they that seek my hurt speak mischiefous things,
 And imagine deceits all the day long.
 But I, as a deaf man, hear not; 13

42 For the Chief Musician: Maschil of the sons of Korah.

1 AS the hart panteth after the water brooks,

So panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God:

And the Hermons, from the hill Mizar.

All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

8 Yet the LORD will command his loving-kindness in the day-time,

And in the night his song shall be with me,

Even a prayer unto the God of my life.

44 For the Chief Musician; a Psalm of the sons of Korah. Maschil.

WE have heard with our ears, O God, 1 our fathers have told us,

What work thou didst in their days, in the days of old.

Thou didst drive out the nations with 2 thy hand, and plantedst them in;

Thou didst afflict the peoples, and didst spread them abroad.

For they gat not the land in possession 3 by their own sword,

Neither did their own arm save them:

But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance,

Because thou hadst a favour unto them.

- 4 Thou art my King, O God:
Command 'deliverance for Jacob.
- 5 Through thee will we push down our
adversaries:
Through thy name will we tread them
under that rise up against us.
- 6 For I will not trust in my bow,
Neither shall my sword save me.

versaries,
And hast put them to shame that hate us.
- 8 In God have we made our boast all the
day long,
And we will give thanks unto thy name
for ever. [Selah]
- 9 But now thou hast cast us off, and
brought us to dishonour;
And goest not forth with our hosts.
- 10 Thou makest us to turn back from the
adversary:
And they which hate us spoil for themselves.
- 11 Thou hast given us like sheep appointed
for meat;
And hast scattered us among the
nations.
- 12 Thou sellest thy people for nought,
And hast not increased thy wealth by their price.
- 13 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours,
A scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.
- 14 Thou makest us a byword among the
nations,
A shaking of the head among the peoples.
- 15 All the day long is my dishonour before
me,
And the shame of my face hath covered
me,
- 16 For the voice of him that reproacheth
and blasphemeth;
By reason of the enemy and the avenger.
- 17 All this is come upon us; yet have we
not forgotten thee, Neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.
- 18 Our heart is not turned back,

Neither have our steps declined from
thy way;
²That thou hast sore broken us in the ¹⁹
place of jackals,
And covered us with the shadow of death.

Or spread forth our hands to a strange
god;
Shall not God search this out? 21
For he knoweth the secrets of the heart.
Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the 22
day long;
We are counted as sheep for the slaughter.
Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? 23
Arise, cast us not off for ever.
Wherefore hidest thou thy face, 24
And forgettest our affliction and our oppression?

of understanding.
I will incline mine ear to a parable: ⁴
I will open my dark saying upon the harp.
Wherefore should I fear in the days of ⁵
evil,
When ⁹iniquity at my heels compasseth
me about?
They that trust in their wealth, ⁶
And boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;
None of them can by any means redeem ⁷
his brother,
Nor give to God a ransom for him:
(For the redemption of their soul is ⁸ costly,
And must be let alone for ever:)
That he should still live away, ⁹
That he should not see ¹⁰corruption.
¹¹For he seeth that wise men die,
The fool and the brutish together perish,
And leave their wealth to others.
¹²Their inward thought is, that their ¹¹
houses shall continue for ever,
And their dwelling places to all generations;
They call their lands after their own names.

¹ Or, in a skilful psalm Heb. Maschil. ² Or, Unto the people ³ Or, high tower ⁴ Or, passed away are their houses for ever.

- 12 But ¹man abideth not in honour:
He is like the beasts that perish.
- 13 ²This their way is ³their folly:
Yet after them men approve their sayings. [Selah]
- 14 They are appointed as a flock for Sheol;
Death shall be their shepherd:
And the upright shall have dominion
over them in the morning;
And their ⁴beauty shall be for Sheol to consume, that there be no habitation
for it.
- 15 But God will redeem my soul from the ⁵power of Sheol:
For he shall receive me. [Selah]
- 16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich,
When the ⁶glory of his house is increased:
17 For when he dieth he shall carry nothing
away;
His glory shall not descend after him.
- 18 Though while he lived he blessed his
soul,
And men praise thee, when thou doest
well to thyself,
- 19 ⁷He shall go to the generation of his fathers;
⁸They shall never see the light.
- 20 Man that is in honour, and under-standeth not,
Is like the beasts that perish.

A Psalm of Asaph.

- 1 ⁹GOD, even God, the LORD, hath spoken,
And called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.
- 2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God hath shined forth.
- 3 Our God ¹⁰shall come, and shall not keep silence:
A fire shall devour before him,
And it shall be very tempestuous round
about him.
- 4 He shall call to the heavens above,

- And to the earth, that he may judge his
people:
Gather my saints together unto me; 5
Those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.
And the heavens ¹¹shall declare his 6
righteousness;
For God is judge himself. [Selah]
Hear, O my people, and I will speak; 7
O Israel, and I will testify ¹²unto thee:
I am God, even thy God.
I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices; 8
¹³And thy burnt offerings are continually before me.
I will take no bullock out of thy house, 9
Nor he-goats out of thy folds.
For every beast of the forest is mine, 10
And the cattle ¹⁴upon a thousand hills.
I know all the fowls of the mountains: 11
And the wild beasts of the field are ¹⁵mine.
If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: 12
For the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.
Will I eat the flesh of bulls, 13
Or drink the blood of goats?
Offer unto God the sacrifice of thanks- 14
giving;
And pay thy vows unto the Most High:
And call upon me in the day of trouble; 15
I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify
me.

- But unto the wicked God saith, 16
What hast thou to do to declare my statutes,
And that thou hast taken my covenant
in thy mouth?
Seeing thou hatest ¹⁶instruction, 17
And castest my words behind thee.
When thou sawest a thief, thou con- 18
sentedst with him,
And ¹⁷hast been partaker with adulterers.
Thou givest thy mouth to evil, 19
And thy tongue frameth deceit.
Thou sittest and speakest against thy 20
brother;

- 21 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence;

Thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself:

But I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

- 22 Now consider this, ye that forget God, Lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver:

- 23 Whoso offereth the sacrifice of thanksgiving glorifieth me;

²And to him that ordereth his ³conversation aright

Will I shew the salvation of God.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David: when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba.

- 1 HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness:

According to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

- 2 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, And cleanse me from my sin.

- 3 For I 'acknowledge my transgressions: And my sin is ever before me.

- 4 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, And done that which is evil in thy sight: That thou mayest be justified when thou speakest,

And be clear when thou judgest.

- 5 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity;

And in sin did my mother conceive me.

- 6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts:

And in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

- 7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean:

Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

- 8 Make me to hear joy and gladness;

That the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

- 9 Hide thy face from my sins,

And blot out all mine iniquities.

- 10 Create ⁵in me a clean heart, O God;

And renew a ⁶right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence; 11

And take not thy holy spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation: 12

And uphold me with a ⁷free spirit.

Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; 13

And sinners shall ⁸be converted unto thee.

Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O 14

God, thou God of my salvation;

And my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

O Lord, open thou my lips; 15

And my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

For thou delightest not in sacrifice; ⁹else 16 would I give it:

Thou hast no pleasure in burnt offering.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: 17

A broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Do good in thy good pleasure unto 18 Zion;

Build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Then shalt thou delight in the sacrifices 19 of righteousness, in burnt offering and whole burnt offering:

Then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

For the Chief Musician. Maschil of David: when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.

WHY boastest thou thyself in mischief, 1 O mighty man?

The mercy of God endureth continually.

Thy tongue deviseth very wickedness; 2

Like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

Thou lovest evil more than good; 3

And lying rather than to speak righteousness. [Selah]

Thou lovest all devouring words, 4

¹⁰O thou deceitful tongue.

He shall take thee up, and pluck thee out of thy tent,

And root thee out of the land of the living. [Selah]

And shall laugh at him, saying,
7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his ¹strength;
But trusted in the abundance of his riches,
And strengthened himself in his wickedness.
8 But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in the house of God:
I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.
9 I will give thee thanks for ever, because thou hast done it:
And I will wait on thy name, for it is good, in the presence of thy saints.

53 For the Chief Musician; set to Mahalath. Maschil of David.

- 1 THE fool hath said in his heart, There is no God.
Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity;
There is none that doeth good.
2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there were any that did ²understand,
That did seek after God.
3 Every one of them is gone back; they are together become filthy;
There is none that doeth good, no, not one.
4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge?
Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And call not upon God.
5 There were they in great fear, where no fear was:
For God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee;
Thou hast put them to shame, because God hath rejected them.
6 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion!
When God ³bringeth back the captivity of his people,
Then shall Jacob rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

² Or, deal wisely

³ Another reading is, The evil shall return.

54 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. Maschil of David: when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, Doth not David hide himself with us?

SAVE me, O God, by thy name,
And judge me in thy might.
Hear my prayer, O God;
Give ear to the words of my mouth.
For strangers are risen up against me,
And violent men have sought after my soul:
They have not set God before them.

[Selah]

Behold, God is mine helper:
The Lord is ⁴of them that uphold my soul.

⁵He shall requite the evil unto ⁶mine 5 enemies:

Destroy thou them in thy truth.
With a freewill offering will I sacrifice 6 unto thee:

I will give thanks unto thy name, O LORD, for it is good.

For he hath delivered me out of all 7 trouble;

And mine eye hath seen my desire upon mine enemies.

55 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. Maschil of David.

GIVE ear to my prayer, O God; 1
And hide not thyself from my supplication,

Attend unto me, and answer me: 2
I am restless in my complaint, and moan;

Because of the voice of the enemy, 3
Because of the oppression of the wicked;

For they cast iniquity upon me,
And in anger they persecute me.

My heart is sore pained within me: 4
And the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

Fearfulness and trembling are come 5 upon me,

And horror hath overwhelmed me.

And I said, Oh that I had wings like a 6 dove!

Then would I fly away, and be at rest.

Lo, then would I wander far off, 7
I would lodge in the wilderness. [Selah]

For I have seen violence and strife in the city.
- 10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof:
Iniquity also and mischief are in the midst of it.
- 11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof:
³Oppression and guile depart not from her streets.
- 12 For it was not an enemy that reproached
me;
Then I could have borne it:
Neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me;
Then I would have hid myself from
him:
- 13 But it was thou, a man mine equal,
My companion, and my familiar friend.
- 14 We took sweet counsel together,
We walked in the house of God with the throne.
- 15 ⁴Let death come suddenly upon them,
Let them go down alive into ⁵the pit:
For wickedness is in their dwelling, in ⁶the midst of them.
- 16 As for me, I will call upon God;
And the LORD shall save me.
- 17 Evening, and morning, and at noonday,
will I complain, and moan:
And he shall hear my voice.
- 18 He hath redeemed my soul in peace
⁷from the battle that was against me:
For they were many that strove with
me.
- 19 God shall hear, and ⁸answer them,
Even he that abideth of old, [Selah]
The men who have no changes,
And who fear not God.
- 20 He hath put forth his hands against such
as were at peace with him:
He hath profaned his covenant.
- 21 His mouth was smooth as butter,
But his heart was war:
His words were softer than oil,

Yet were they drawn swords.
Cast ⁹thy burden upon the LORD, and ²²
he shall sustain thee:
He shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.
But thou, O God, shalt bring them down ²³
into the pit of destruction:
Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days;
But I will trust in thee.

58 For the Chief Musician; set to Al-tashbeth. A Psalm of David: Michtam.

¹DO ye indeed ²in silence speak righteousness?

Do ye ³judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?

Yea, in heart ye work wickedness; 2
Ye weigh out the violence of your hands in the earth.

The wicked are estranged from the 3
womb:

They go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies.

Their poison is like the poison of a 4 serpent:

They are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear;

Which hearkeneth not to the voice of 5 ⁶charmers,

Charming never so wisely.

Break their teeth, O God, in their 6
mouth:

Break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD.

runneth apace:

seeth the vengeance:

He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

Verily there is a God that judgeth in the earth.

59 For the Chief Musician; set to Al-tashheth. A Psalm of David: Michtam: when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

Thou hast been angry; O restore us again.
Thou hast made the land to tremble; ² thou hast rent it:
Heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

Thou hast shewed thy people hard ³ things:

They commune of laying snares privily;

They say, Who shall see them?

They search out iniquities; ⁷We have ⁶accomplished, say they, a diligent search:

And the inward thought of every one, and the heart, is deep.

But God shall shoot at them; ⁷

With an arrow suddenly shall they be wounded.

⁸So they shall be made to stumble, their ⁸own tongue being against them:

All that see them shall ⁹wag the head.

And all men shall fear; ⁹

And they shall declare the work of God,

And shall wisely consider of his doing.

The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, ¹⁰and shall trust in him;

And all the upright in heart shall glory.

65 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm. A Song of David.

- ¹⁰PRAISE waiteth for thee, O God, in ¹Zion:

And unto thee shall the vow be performed.

O thou that hearest prayer, ²

Unto thee shall all flesh come.

¹¹Iniquities prevail against me: ³

As for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, ⁴and causest to approach unto thee,

That he may dwell in thy courts:

We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house,

The holy place of thy temple.

By terrible things thou wilt answer us ⁵in righteousness,

O God of our salvation;

Thou that art the confidence of all the ends of the earth,

¹²And of them that are afar off upon the sea:

Which by his strength setteth fast the ⁶mountains;

Being girded about with might:

- 7 Which stilleth the roaring of the seas,
the roaring of their waves,
And the tumult of the peoples.

- 8 They also that dwell in the uttermost
parts are afraid at thy tokens:

Thou makest the outgoing of the morning and evening to rejoice.

- 9 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it,
Thou greatly enrichest it;
The river of God is full of water:

Thou providest them corn, ¹when thou hast so prepared ²the earth.

- 10 Thou waterest her furrows abundantly;
Thou ³settlest the ridges thereof:
Thou makest it soft with showers;
Thou blessest the springing thereof.

- 11 Thou crownest ⁴the year with thy goodness;

And thy paths drop fatness.

- 12 ⁵They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness:

And the hills are girded with joy.

The valleys also are covered over with corn;

They shout for joy, they also sing.

66 For the Chief Musician. A Song, a Psalm.

- 1 MAKE a joyful noise unto God, all the
earth:

- 2 Sing forth the glory of his name:
Make his praise glorious.

- 3 Say unto God, How terrible are thy works!

Through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies ⁶submit themselves unto thee.

And shall sing unto thee;
They shall sing to thy name. [Selah]

68 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, a Song.

- 1 LET God arise, let his enemies be scattered;
 Let them also that hate him flee before him.
 2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away:
 As wax melteth before the fire,
 So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
 3 But let the righteous be glad; let them exult before God:
 Yea, let them rejoice with gladness.
 4 Sing unto God, sing praises to his name:
 Cast up a high way for him that rideth through the deserts;
 His name is JAH; and exult ye before him.
 5 A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows,
 Is God in his holy habitation.
 6 God ²setteth the solitary in families:
 He bringeth out the prisoners into prosperity:
 But the rebellious dwell in a parched land.
 7 O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people,
 When thou didst march through the wilderness; [Selah]
 8 The earth trembled,
 The heavens also dropped at the presence of God:

Even yon Sinai trembled at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
 Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful ⁹rain,
 Thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.
 Thy ³congregation dwelt therein: ¹⁰
 Thou, O God, didst prepare of thy goodness for the poor.
 The Lord giveth the word: ¹¹
 The women that publish the tidings are a great host.
 Kings of armies flee, they flee: ¹²
 And she that tarrieth at home divideth the spoil.
⁴Will ye lie among the sheepfolds, ¹³
 As the wings of a dove covered with silver,
 And her pinions with yellow gold?
 When the Almighty scattered kings ¹⁴therein,

⁶An high mountain is the mountain of Bashan.
 Why look ye askance, ye high mount- ¹⁶ains,
 At the mountain which God hath desired for his abode?
 Yea, the LORD will dwell in it for ever.
 The chariots of God are twenty thou- ¹⁷sand, even thousands upon thousands:
 The Lord is among them, ⁷*as in* Sinai, in the sanctuary.
 Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast ¹⁸led thy captivity captive;
 Thou hast received gifts among men,

I will bring them again from the depths
of the sea:

That the tongue of thy dogs may have
its portion from thine enemies.

For the waters are come in unto my soul.
I sink in deep mire, where there is no 2

I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.
I am weary with my crying; my throat 3
is dried:
Mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.
They that hate me without a cause are 4
more than the hairs of mine head:
They that would cut me off, being mine
enemies ¹⁰wrongfully, are mighty:
Then I ¹¹restored that which I took not
away.
O God, thou knowest my foolishness; 5
And my ¹²sins are not hid from thee.
Let not them that wait on thee be 6 ashamed through me, O Lord God of hosts:
Let not those that seek thee be brought to dishonour through me, O God of Israel.
Because for thy sake I have borne re- 7
proach;
Shame hath covered my face.
I am become a stranger unto my breth- 8
ren,
And an alien unto my mother's children.
For the zeal of thine house hath eaten 9
me up;
And the reproaches of them that reproach thee are fallen upon me.

with fasting,
That was to my reproach.

 O God, in the multitude of thy mercy,
 Answer me in the truth of thy salvation.
 14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me
 not sink:
 Let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.
 15 Let not the waterflood overwhelm me,

Thou art my help and my deliverer;
O LORD, make no tarrying.

71 IN thee, O LORD, do I put my trust:

Let me never be ashamed.

2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and rescue me:

Bow down thine ear unto me, and save me.

3 Be thou to me ¹a rock of habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: Thou hast given commandment to save me;

For thou art my rock and my fortress.

4 Rescue me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked,

Out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

5 For thou art my hope, O Lord God:

Thou art my trust from my youth.

6 By thee have I been holden up from the womb:

²Thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels:

My praise shall be continually of thee.

7 I am as a wonder unto many;

But thou art my strong refuge.

8 My mouth shall be filled with thy praise, And with thy honour all the day.

9 Cast me not off in the time of old age; Forsake me not when my strength faileth.

10 For mine enemies speak concerning me; And they that watch for my soul take counsel together,

11 Saying, God hath forsaken him: Pursue and take him; for there is none to deliver.

12 O God, be not far from me: O my God, make haste to help me.

13 Let them be ashamed and consumed that are adversaries to my soul;

Let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt.

14 But I will hope continually, And will praise thee yet more and more.

15 My mouth shall tell of thy righteousness,

| And of thy salvation all the day;
For I know not the numbers thereof.
I will come ³with the mighty acts of the 16 Lord God:

I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.

O God, thou hast taught me from my 17 youth;

And hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

Yea, even ⁴when I am old and gray-headed, O God, forsake me not;

Until I have declared ⁵thy strength unto the next generation,

Thy might to every one that is to come.

Thy righteousness also, O God, is very 19 high;

Thou who hast done great things,

O God, who is like unto thee?

Thou, which hast shewed ⁶us many and 20 sore troubles,

Shalt quicken ⁶us again,

And shalt bring ⁶us up again from the depths of the earth.

Increase thou my greatness, 21

And turn again and comfort me.

I will also praise thee with the psaltery, 22 Even thy truth, O my God:

Unto thee will I sing praises with the harp,

O thou Holy One of Israel.

My lips shall greatly rejoice when I 23 sing praises unto thee;

And my soul, which thou hast redeemed.

Maschil of Asaph.

O GOD, why hast thou cast us off for ever?

Why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old,

Which thou hast redeemed to be the tribe of thine inheritance;

And mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual ruins, ³

Thine adversaries have roared in the midst of thine assembly;

They have set up their ensigns for signs.

They ¹²seemed as men that lifted up ⁵
Axes upon a thicket of trees.

And now all the carved work thereof ⁶ together

They break down with hatchet and hammers.

They have set thy sanctuary on fire; ⁷
They have profaned the dwelling place of thy name even to the ground.

They said in their heart, Let us make ⁸
havoc of them altogether:

They have burned up all the ¹³synagogues of God in the land.

We see not our signs: ⁹

There is no more any prophet;
Neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

76 For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph, a Song.

- IN Judah is God known: 1
His name is great in Israel.
- In Salem also is his ¹⁹tabernacle, 2
And his ²⁰dwelling place in Zion.
- There he brake the ²¹arrows of the bow; 3
The shield, and the sword, and the battle. [Selah]
- Glorious art thou and excellent, ²²from 4
the mountains of prey.
- The stouthearted are spoiled, they have 5
slept their sleep;
And none of the men of might have found their hands.
- At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, 6
Both chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.
- Thou, even thou, art to be feared: 7
And who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry?
- Thou didst cause sentence to be heard 8
from heaven;
The earth feared, and was still,
When God arose to judgement, 9

To save all the meek of the earth. [Selah]
 10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee:

The residue of wrath shalt thou ¹gird upon thee.

11 Vow, and pay unto the LORD your God: Let all that be round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.

12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes: He is terrible to the kings of the earth.

77 For the Chief Musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

1 I WILL cry unto God with my voice; Even unto God with my voice, and he will give ear unto me.

2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord:

My hand was stretched out in the night, and slackened not;

My soul refused to be comforted.

3 I remember God, and am disquieted: I complain, and my spirit ²is overwhelmed. [Selah]

4 Thou holdest mine eyes watching:

I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

5 I have considered the days of old, The years of ancient times.

6 I call to remembrance my song in the night:

I commune with mine own heart; And my spirit made diligent search.

7 Will the Lord cast off for ever?

And will he be favourable no more?

8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? Doth his promise fail for evermore?

9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious?

Hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? [Selah]

10 And I said, This is my infirmity;

³But I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High.

11 I will make mention of the deeds of ⁴the LORD;

For I will remember thy wonders of old.

12 I will meditate also upon all thy work, And muse on thy doings.

13 Thy way, O God, is ⁵in the sanctuary: Who is a great god like unto God?

Thou art the God that doest wonders: 14
 Thou hast made known thy strength among the peoples.

Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy 15
 people,

The sons of Jacob and Joseph. [Selah]
 The waters saw thee, O God; 16

The waters saw thee, they ⁶were afraid: The depths also trembled.

The clouds poured out water; 17

The skies sent out a sound:

Thine arrows also went abroad.

The voice of thy thunder was in the 18 whirlwind;

The lightnings lightened the world:

The earth trembled and shook.

Thy way was in the sea, 19

And thy paths in the great waters,

And thy footsteps were not known.

Thou leddest thy people like a flock, 20
 By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

78

Maschil of Asaph.

GIVE ear, O my people, to my ⁷law: 1

Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

I will open my mouth in a parable; 2

I will utter dark sayings of old:

Which we have heard and known, 3

And our fathers have told us.

We will not hide them from their chil- 4
 dren,

Telling to the generation to come the praises of the LORD,

And his strength, and his wondrous works that he hath done.

For he established a testimony in Jacob, 5

And appointed a law in Israel,

Which he commanded our fathers,

That they should make them known to their children:

That the generation to come might know 6
⁸them, even the children which should be born;

Who should arise and tell ⁹them to their children:

That they might set their hope in God, 7
 And not forget the works of God,

But keep his commandments:

- 8 And might not be as their fathers,
A stubborn and rebellious generation;
A generation ¹that set not their heart
aright,
And whose spirit was not stedfast with God.
- 9 The children of Ephraim, being armed
and carrying bows,
Turned back in the day of battle.
- 10 They kept not the covenant of God,
And refused to walk in his law;
11 And they forgot his doings,
And his wondrous works that he had shewed them.
- 12 Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers,
In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
- 13 He clave the sea, and caused them to pass through;
And he made the waters to stand as an heap.
- 14 In the day-time also he led them with a
cloud,
And all the night with a light of fire.
- 15 He clave rocks in the wilderness,
And gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.
- 16 He brought streams also out of the rock,
And caused waters to run down like rivers.
- 17 Yet went they on still to sin against him,
To rebel against the Most High in ²the desert.
- 18 And they tempted God in their heart
By asking meat for their lust.
- 19 Yea, they spake against God;
They said, Can God prepare a table in
the wilderness?
- 20 Behold, he smote the rock, that waters
gushed out,
And streams overflowed;
Can he give bread also?
Will he provide flesh for his people?
- 21 Therefore the LORD heard, and was wroth:
And a fire was kindled against Jacob,
And anger also went up against Israel;
- 22 Because they believed not in God,
And trusted not in his salvation.
- 23 Yet he commanded the skies above,

And opened the doors of heaven;
And he rained down manna upon them 24
to eat,
And gave them of the corn of heaven.
³Man did eat the bread of the mighty: 25
He sent them meat to the full.
He ⁴caused the east wind to blow in the 26
heaven:
And by his power he guided the south
wind.
He rained flesh also upon them as the 27
dust,
And winged fowl as the sand of the seas:
And he let it fall in the midst of their 28
camp,
Round about their habitations.
So they did eat, and were well filled; 29
And he gave them that they lusted after.
They were not estranged from their lust, 30
Their meat was yet in their mouths,
When the anger of God went up against 31
them,
And slew of the fattest of them,
And smote down the young men of Israel.
For all this they sinned still, 32
And believed not in his wondrous
works.
Therefore their days did he consume in 33
vanity,
And their years in terror.
When he slew them, then they inquired 34
after him:
And they returned and sought God ⁵early.
And they remembered that God was 35
their rock,
And the Most High God their redeemer.
But they flattered him with their mouth, 36
And lied unto him with their tongue.
For their heart was not ⁶right with him, 37
Neither were they faithful in his covenant.
But he, being full of compassion, forgave 38
their iniquity, and destroyed them not:
Yea, many a time turned he his anger
away,
And did not stir up all his wrath.
And he remembered that they were but 39
flesh;

- A wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.
 40 How oft did they rebel against him in the wilderness,
 And grieve him in the desert!
 41 And they turned again and tempted God,
 And 'provoked the Holy One of Israel.
 42 They remembered not his hand,
 Nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary.
 43 How he set his signs in Egypt,
 And his wonders in the field of Zoan;
 44 And turned their rivers into blood,
 And their streams, that they could not drink.
 45 He sent among them swarms of flies,
 which devoured them;
 And frogs, which destroyed them.
 46 He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar,
 And their labour unto the locust.
 47 He ²destroyed their vines with hail,
 And their sycamore trees with ³frost.
 48 He gave over their cattle also to the hail,
 And their flocks to hot thunderbolts.
 49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger,
 Wrath, and indignation, and trouble,
 'A band of angels of evil.
 50 He ⁴made a path for his anger;
 He spared not their soul from death,
 But gave ⁵their life over to the pestilence;
 51 And smote all the firstborn in Egypt,
 The ⁶chief of their strength in the tents of Ham:
 52 But he led forth his own people like sheep,
 And guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
 53 And he led them safely, so that they feared not:
 But the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
 54 And he brought them to ⁷the border of his sanctuary,
 To this ⁸mountain, which his right hand had purchased.
 55 He drove out the nations also before them,

And allotted them for an inheritance by line,
 And made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.
 Yet they tempted and rebelled against ⁵⁶the Most High God,
 And kept not his testimonies;
 But turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers:
 They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.
 For they provoked him to anger with ⁵⁸their high places,
 And moved him to jealousy with their graven images.
 When God heard this, he was wroth, ⁵⁹
 And greatly abhorred Israel:
 So that he forsook the tabernacle of ⁶⁰Shiloh,
 The tent which he placed among men;
 And delivered his strength into captivity, ⁶¹
 And his glory into the adversary's hand.
 He gave his people over also unto the ⁶²sword;
 And was wroth with his inheritance.
 Fire devoured their young men; ⁶³
 And their maidens had no marriage-song.
 Their priests fell by the sword; ⁶⁴
 And their widows made no lamentation.
 Then the Lord awaked as one out of ⁶⁵sleep,
 Like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.
 And he smote his adversaries backward: ⁶⁶
 He put them to a perpetual reproach.
 Moreover he refused the tent of Joseph, ⁶⁷
 And chose not the tribe of Ephraim;
 But chose the tribe of Judah, ⁶⁸
 The mount Zion which he loved.
 And he built his sanctuary like the ⁶⁹heights,
 Like the earth which he hath established for ever.
 He chose David also his servant, ⁷⁰
 And took him from the sheepfolds:
 From following the ewes that give suck ⁷¹
 he brought him,
 To feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

A Psalm of Asaph.

- 1 O GOD, the ¹heathen are come into thine inheritance;
Thy holy temple have they defiled;
They have laid Jerusalem on heaps.
2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven,
The flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.
3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem;
And there was none to bury them.
4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours,
A scorn and derision to them that are round about us.
5 How long, O LORD, wilt thou be angry for ever?
Shall thy jealousy burn like fire?
6 Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that know thee not,
And upon the kingdoms that call not upon thy name.
7 For they have devoured Jacob,
And laid waste his ²habitation.
8 Remember not against us the iniquities of our forefathers:
Let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us:
For we are brought very low.
9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name:
And deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake.
10 Wherefore should the heathen say,
Where is their God?
Let the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed
Be known among the heathen in our sight.
11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee;

According to the greatness of ³thy power preserve thou ⁴those that are appointed to death;
And render unto our neighbours seven- 12 fold into their bosom
Their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord.
So we thy people and sheep of thy 13 pasture
Will give thee thanks for ever:
We will shew forth thy praise to all generations.

Thou that leadest Joseph like a flock;
Thou that ⁶sittest upon the cherubim, shine forth.
Before Ephraim and Benjamin and 2
Manasseh, stir up thy might,
And come to save us.
⁷Turn us again, O God; 3
And cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.
O LORD God of hosts, 4
How long ⁸wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?
Thou hast fed them with the bread of 5
tears,
And given them tears to drink in large measure.
Thou makest us a strife unto our neigh- 6

And our enemies laugh among themselves.

me!

There shall no strange god be in thee; 9
Neither shalt thou worship any strange

I am the LORD thy God, 10
Which brought thee up out of the land

Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

But my people hearkened not to my voice; 11

That they might walk in their own

 And consult together against thy hidden ones.
 4 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation;
 That the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

 Against thee do they make a covenant:

 LORD of hosts!
 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for 2
 the courts of the LORD;
 My heart and my flesh ⁷cry out unto the living God.
 Yea, the sparrow hath found her an 3
 house,
 And the swallow a nest for herself,
 where she may lay her young,
 Even thine altars, O LORD of hosts,
 My King, and my God.
 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: 4
 They will be still praising thee. [Selah]
 Blessed is the man whose strength is in 5
 thee;
 In whose heart are the high ways to Zion.
 Passing through the valley of ⁸Weeping 6
 they make it a place of springs;
 Yea, the early rain covereth it with blessings.
 They go from strength to strength, 7
 Every one of them appeareth before God in Zion.
 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer: 8
 Give ear, O God of Jacob. [Selah]
⁹Behold, O God our shield, 9

And look upon the face of thine anointed.

- 10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.

I had rather ¹be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,

Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

- 11 For the LORD God is a sun and a shield:
The LORD will give grace and glory:
No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

- 12 O LORD of hosts,
Blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

85 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

- 1 LORD, thou hast been favourable unto thy land:

Thou hast ²brought back the captivity of Jacob.

- 2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people,

Thou hast covered all their sin. [Selah]

- 3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath:
Thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

- 4 ³Turn us, O God of our salvation,
And cause thine indignation toward us to cease.

- 5 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever?
Wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

- 6 Wilt thou not quicken us again:
That thy people may rejoice in thee?

- 7 Shew us thy mercy, O LORD,
And grant us thy salvation.

- 8 I will hear what God the LORD will speak:
For he will speak peace unto his people,
and to his saints:

But let them not turn again to folly.

- 9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him;
That glory may dwell in our land.

- 10 Mercy and truth are met together;
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

- 11 Truth springeth out of the earth;
And righteousness hath looked down from heaven.

And our land shall yield her increase.

Righteousness shall go before him; 13
And shall ⁴make his footsteps a way to walk in.

A Prayer of David.

BOW down thine ear, O LORD, and answer me;

For I am poor and needy.

Preserve my soul; for I am godly: 2
O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

Be merciful unto me, O Lord; 3

For unto thee do I cry all the day long.

Rejoice the soul of thy servant; 4
For unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to 5
forgive,

And plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; 6
And hearken unto the voice of my supplications.

In the day of my trouble I will call upon 7
thee;

For thou wilt answer me.

There is none like unto thee among the 8
gods, O Lord;

Neither are there any works like unto thy works.

All nations whom thou hast made shall 9
come and worship before thee, O Lord;

And they shall glorify thy name.

For thou art great, and doest wondrous 10
things:

Thou art God alone.

Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk 11
in thy truth:

Unite my heart to fear thy name.

I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with 12

8 Or, Cast away

10 Heb. Abaddon. See Job 26. 6.

11 Or, are darkness

- For my soul is full of troubles, 3
And my life draweth nigh unto ⁷Sheol.
I am counted with them that go down 4
into the pit;
I am as a man that hath no help:
⁸Cast off among the dead, 5
Like the slain that lie in the grave,
Whom thou rememberest no more;
And they are cut off from thy hand.
Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, 6
In dark places, in the deeps.
Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, 7
And thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. [Selah]
- Thou hast put mine acquaintance far 8
from me;
Thou hast made me an abomination
unto them:
I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.
Mine eye wasteth away by reason of 9
affliction:
I have called daily upon thee, O LORD,
I have spread forth my hands unto
thee.
- Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead? 10
Shall ⁹they that are deceased arise and praise thee? [Selah]
- Shall thy lovingkindness be declared in 11
the grave?
Or thy faithfulness in ¹⁰Destruction?
Shall thy wonders be known in the dark? 12
And thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
But unto thee, O LORD, have I cried, 13
And in the morning shall my prayer
come before thee.
- LORD, why casteth thou off my soul? 14
Why hidest thou thy face from me?
I am afflicted and ready to die from my 15
youth up:
While I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.
Thy fierce wrath is gone over me; 16
Thy terrors have cut me off.
They came round about me like water 17
all the day long;
They compassed me about together.
Lover and friend hast thou put far from 18
me,
And mine acquaintance ¹¹into darkness.

Maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

- 1 I WILL sing of the mercies of the LORD
for ever:
With my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.
- 2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up
for ever;
Thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.
- 3 I have made a covenant with my chosen,
I have sworn unto David my servant;
- 4 Thy seed will I establish for ever,
And build up thy throne to all generations. [Selah]
- 5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD;
Thy faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.
- 6 For who in the skies can be compared
unto the LORD?
Who among the ¹sons of the ²mighty is like unto the LORD,
- 7 A God very terrible in the council of the holy ones,
And to be feared above all them that are
round about him?
- 8 O LORD God of hosts,
Who is a mighty one, like unto thee, O
JAH?
And thy faithfulness is round about thee.
- 9 Thou rulest the pride of the sea:
When the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.
- 10 Thou hast broken ³Rahab in pieces, as
one that is slain; Thou hast scattered thine enemies with
the arm of thy strength.
- 11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine:
The world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.
- 12 The north and the south, thou hast
created them:
Tabor and Hermon rejoice in thy name.
- 13 Thou hast ⁴a mighty arm:
Strong is thy hand, and high is thy right
hand.

¹ Or, sons of God
⁵ Or, trumpet sound
One of Israel our King
have the singular.

² Or, gods See Ps. 29, 1.

⁶ Another reading is, thou shalt exalt our horn.

⁸ Many MSS. and ancient versions read the plural. Other authorities
⁹ Or, do him violence

Righteousness and judgement are the ¹⁴
foundation of thy throne:

Mercy and truth go before thy face.

Blessed is the people that know the ¹⁵
⁵joyful sound:

They walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.

In thy name do they rejoice all the day: ¹⁶
And in thy righteousness are they exalted.

For thou art the glory of their strength: ¹⁷
And in thy favour ⁶our horn shall be exalted.

For our shield belongeth unto the LORD; ¹⁸
⁷And our king to the Holy One of Israel.

Then thou spakest in vision to thy ¹⁹
⁸saints,

And saidst, I have laid help upon one
that is mighty;

I have exalted one chosen out of the
people.

I have found David my servant; ²⁰
With my holy oil have I anointed him:

With whom my hand shall be estab- ²¹
lished;

Mine arm also shall strengthen him.
The enemy shall not ⁹exact upon him; ²²
Nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

And I will beat down his adversaries ²³
before him,

And smite them that hate him.

But my faithfulness and my mercy shall ²⁴
be with him;

And in my name shall his horn be
exalted.

I will set his hand also on the sea, ²⁵
And his right hand on the rivers.

He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father, ²⁶
My God, and the rock of my salvation.

I also will make him my firstborn, ²⁷
The highest of the kings of the earth.

My mercy will I keep for him for ever- ²⁸
more,

And my covenant shall ¹⁰stand fast with
him.

His seed also will I make to endure for ²⁹
ever,

And his throne as the days of heaven.

³ Or, Egypt

⁴ Heb. an arm with might.

⁷ Or, Even to the Holy

¹⁰ Or, be faithful

- 30 If his children forsake my law,
And walk not in my judgements;
31 If they ¹break my statutes,
And keep not my commandments;
32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod,
And their iniquity with stripes.
33 But my mercy will I not utterly take from him,
Nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.
34 My covenant will I not ¹break, Nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.
35 ²Once have I sworn by my holiness;
I will not lie unto David;
36 His seed shall endure for ever,
And his throne as the sun before me.
37 ³It shall be established for ever as the moon,
⁴And as the faithful witness in the sky.
[Selah]
38 But thou hast cast off and rejected,
Thou hast been wroth with thine
anointed.
39 Thou hast abhorred the covenant of thy servant:
Thou hast profaned his crown even to the ground.
40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges;
Thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.
41 All that pass by the way spoil him:
He is become a reproach to his neighbours.
42 Thou hast exalted the right hand of his
adversaries;
- Thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.
Yea, thou turnest back the edge of his 43
sword,
And hast not made him to stand in the battle.
Thou hast made his brightness to cease, 44
And cast his throne down to the ground.
The days of his youth hast thou 45
shortened:
Thou hast covered him with shame.
[Selah]
How long, O LORD, wilt thou hide thy- 46
self for ever?
How long shall thy wrath burn like fire?
O remember how short my time is: 47
For what vanity hast thou created all the children of men!
What man is he that shall live and not 48
see death,
That shall deliver his soul from the ⁵power of ⁶Sheol? [Selah]
Lord, where are thy former mercies, 49
Which thou swarest unto David in thy faithfulness?
Remember, Lord, the reproach of thy 50
servants;
How I do bear in my bosom the reproach
of all the ⁷mighty peoples;
Wherewith thine enemies have re- 51
proached, O LORD,
Wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed.
Blessed be the LORD for evermore. 52
Amen, and Amen.

BOOK IV

90

A Prayer of Moses the man of God.

LORD, thou hast been our dwelling place
In all generations.

Before the mountains were brought forth,
Or ever thou ⁸hadst formed the earth
and the world,

Even from everlasting to everlasting,
thou art God.

Thou turnest man to ⁹destruction;

And sayest, Return, ye children of men.

For a thousand years in thy sight 4

Are but as yesterday ¹⁰when it is past,

And as a watch in the night.

Thou carriest them away as with a 5

flood; they are as a sleep:

In the morning they are like grass which
groweth up.

In the morning it flourisheth, and 6
groweth up;

¹ Heb. profane. ² Or, One thing ³ Or, As the moon which is established for ever, and as the faithful witness &c. or, and is a faithful witness &c. ⁴ Or, And the witness in the sky is faithful ⁵ Heb. hand. ⁶ Or, the grave ⁷ Or, many ⁸ Heb. gavest birth to.
⁹ Or, dust Heb. crushing. ¹⁰ Or, when it passeth

In the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7 For we are consumed in thine anger,
And in thy wrath are we troubled.

8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee,
Our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days are passed away in thy
wrath:

We bring our years to an end as ¹a tale
that is told.

10 The days of our years are threescore
years and ten,

Or even by reason of strength fourscore
years;

Yet is their pride but labour and sorrow;
For it is soon gone, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger,
And thy wrath according to the fear that is due unto thee?

12 So teach us to number our days,
That we may get us an heart of wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD; how long?
And let it repent thee concerning thy
servants.

14 O satisfy us in the morning with thy mercy;

That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days
wherein thou hast afflicted us,

And the years wherein we have seen evil.

16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants,
And thy glory upon their children.

17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God
be upon us:

And establish thou the work of our hands upon us;

Yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

91 HE that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High

²Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge
and my fortress;

My God, in whom I trust.

3 For he shall deliver thee from the snare
of the fowler,

And from the noisome pestilence.

He shall cover thee with his pinions, 4

And under his wings shalt thou take refuge:

His truth is a shield and a buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror 5
by night,

Nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

For the pestilence that walketh in dark- 6
ness,

Nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side, 7

And ten thousand at thy right hand;

But it shall not come nigh thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold, 8

And see the reward of the wicked.

³For thou, O LORD, art my refuge! 9

Thou hast made the Most High thy habitation;

There shall no evil befall thee, 10

Neither shall any plague come nigh thy tent.

For he shall give his angels charge over 11
thee,

To keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands, 12

Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: 13

The young lion and the serpent shalt thou trample under feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, 14
therefore will I deliver him:

I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will 15
answer him;

I will be with him in trouble:

I will deliver him, and honour him.

With long life will I satisfy him, 16
And shew him my salvation.

92 A Psalm, a Song for the sabbath day.

IT is a good thing to give thanks unto 1
the LORD,

And to sing praises unto thy name, O
Most High:

To shew forth thy lovingkindness in the 2
morning,

1 Or, a sound or sigh

2 Or, That abideth . . . Almighty; even I &c.

3 Or, Because thou hast said, The LORD is my refuge;

- And thy faithfulness every night,
 3 With an instrument of ten strings, and with the psaltery;
 With a solemn sound upon the harp.
 4 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work:
 I will triumph in the works of thy hands
 5 How great are thy works, O LORD!
 Thy thoughts are very deep.
 6 A brutish man knoweth not;
 Neither doth a fool understand this:
 7 When the wicked spring as the grass,
 And when all the workers of iniquity do flourish;
 It is that they shall be destroyed for
 ever:
 8 But thou, O LORD, art on high for ever-
 more.
 9 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD,
 For, lo, thine enemies shall perish;
 All the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.
 10 But my horn hast thou exalted like the
horn of the wild-ox:
 I am anointed with fresh oil.
 11 Mine eye also hath seen my desire on mine enemies,
 Mine ears have heard my desire of the evil-doers that rise up against me.
 12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree:
 He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
 13 They that are planted in the house of the
 LORD
 Shall flourish in the courts of our God.
 14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age;
 They shall be full of sap and green:
 15 To shew that the LORD is upright;
 He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

93 THE LORD reigneth; he is ap-
 parcelled with majesty;
 The LORD is apparelled, he hath girded
 himself with strength:
 The world also is established, that it cannot be moved.
 2 Thy throne is established of old:
 Thou art from everlasting.

The floods have lifted up, O LORD, 3
 The floods have lifted up their voice;
 The floods lift up their ²waves.
 Above the voices of many waters, 4
 The mighty breakers of the sea,
 The LORD on high is mighty.
 Thy testimonies are very sure: 5
 Holiness becometh thine house,
 O LORD, for evermore.

94 O LORD thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, Thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, shine forth.
 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth: 2
 Render to the proud their desert.
 LORD, how long shall the wicked, 3
 How long shall the wicked triumph?
 They prate, they speak arrogantly: 4
 All the workers of iniquity boast themselves.
 They break in pieces thy people, O 5
 LORD,
 And afflict thine heritage.
 They slay the widow and the stranger, 6
 And murder the fatherless.
 And they say, ³The LORD shall not see, 7
 Neither shall the God of Jacob consider.
 Consider, ye brutish among the people: 8
 And ye fools, when will ye be wise?
 He that planted the ear, shall he not 9
 hear?
 He that formed the eye, shall he not see?
 He that ⁴chastiseth the nations, shall not 10
 he correct,
 Even he that teacheth man knowledge?
 The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, 11
⁵That they are ⁶vanity.
 Blessed is the man whom thou chas- 12
 tenest, ³O LORD,
 And teachest out of thy law;
 That thou mayest give him rest from 13
 the days of adversity,
 Until the pit be digged for the wicked.
 For the LORD will not cast off his people, 14
 Neither will he forsake his inheritance.
 For judgement shall return unto right- 15
 eousness:
 And all the upright in heart shall follow
 it.

1 Or, them that lie in wait for me

5 Or, for

2 Or, roaring

6 Heb. a breath.

3 Heb. Jah.

4 Or, instructeth

16 Who will rise up for me against the evil-doers?

Who will stand up for me against the
workers of iniquity?

17 Unless the LORD had been my help,
My soul had soon dwelt in silence.

18 When I said, My foot slippeth;
Thy mercy, O LORD, held me up.

19 In the multitude of my ¹thoughts within
me

Thy comforts delight my soul.

20 Shall the ²throne of wickedness have fellowship with thee,

Which frameth mischief by statute?

21 They gather themselves together against
the soul of the righteous,

And condemn the innocent blood.

22 But the LORD hath been my high tower;
And my God the rock of my refuge.

23 And he hath brought upon them their own iniquity,
And shall cut them off in their own evil;
The LORD our God shall cut them off.

95 O COME, let us sing unto the
LORD:

Let us make a joyful noise to the rock
of our salvation.

2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving,

Let us make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

3 For the LORD is a great God,
And a great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are the deep places of the
earth;

The ³heights of the mountains are his
also.

5 The sea is his, and he made it;
And his hands formed the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship and bow down;
Let us kneel before the LORD our Maker:

7 For he is our God,
And we are the people of his pasture,
and the sheep of his hand.

⁴To-day, Oh that ye would hear his voice!

8 Harden not your heart, as at ⁵Meribah,
As in the day of ⁶Massah in the wilderness:

¹ Or, doubts ² Or, seat ³ Or, strength
⁵ That is, strife. ⁶ That is, temptation.

When your fathers tempted me, 9
Proved me, and saw my work.

Forty years long was I grieved with that ¹⁰ generation,

And said, It is a people that do err in
their heart,

And they have not known my ways:

Wherefore I swear in my wrath, 11
That they should not enter into my rest.

96 O SING unto the LORD a new

Sing unto the LORD, all the earth.

Sing unto the LORD, bless his name; 2 Shew forth his salvation from day to day.

Declare his glory among the nations, 3
His marvellous works among all the peoples.

For great is the LORD, and highly to be ⁴
praised:

He is to be feared above all gods.
For all the gods of the peoples are ⁵idols: 5
But the LORD made the heavens.

Honour and majesty are before him: 6
Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the ⁷
peoples,

Give unto the LORD glory and strength.
Give unto the LORD the glory due unto ⁸
his name:

Bring an offering, and come into his courts.

O worship the LORD ⁹in the beauty of ⁹
holiness:

Tremble before him, all the earth.
Say among the nations, The LORD ¹⁰
reigneth:

The world also is stablished that it cannot be moved:

He shall judge the peoples with equity.
Let the heavens be glad, and let the ¹¹
earth rejoice;

Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;
Let the field exult, and all that is therein; ¹²
Then shall all the trees of the wood sing
for joy;

Before the LORD, for he cometh; 13
For he cometh to judge the earth:

⁴ Or, To-day, if ye will hear his voice, harden &c.
⁷ Or, things of nought ⁸ Or, in holy array

He shall judge the world with righteousness,
And the peoples ¹with his truth.

97 THE LORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice;

Let the multitude of isles be glad.

2 Clouds and darkness are round about him:

Righteousness and judgement are the foundation of his throne.

3 A fire goeth before him,
And burneth up his adversaries round about.

4 His lightnings lightened the world:
The earth saw, and trembled.

5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD,
At the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6 The heavens declare his righteousness,
And all the peoples have seen his glory.

7 Ashamed be all they that serve graven images,

That boast themselves of idols:

Worship him, all ye gods.

8 Zion heard and was glad,
And the daughters of Judah rejoiced;
Because of thy judgements, O LORD.

9 For thou, LORD, art most high above all the earth:

Thou art exalted far above all gods.

10 O ye that love the LORD, hate evil:
He preserveth the souls of his saints;
He delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

11 Light is sown for the righteous,
And gladness for the upright in heart.

12 Be glad in the LORD, ye righteous;
And give thanks to his holy ²name.

98

A Psalm.

1 O SING unto the LORD a new song;
For he hath done marvellous things:
His right hand, and his holy arm, hath wrought salvation for him.

2 The LORD hath made known his salvation:

His righteousness hath he openly shewed
in the sight of the nations.

1 Or, in his faithfulness

2 Heb. memorial.

3 Or, dwelleth between

He hath remembered his mercy and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel:

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all 4
the earth:

Break forth and sing for joy, yea, sing
praises.

Sing praises unto the LORD with the 5
harp;

With the harp and the voice of melody.

With trumpets and sound of cornet 6

Make a joyful noise before the King, the
LORD.

Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; 7

The world, and they that dwell therein;

Let the floods clap their hands; 8

Let the hills sing for joy together;

Before the LORD, for he cometh to judge 9
the earth:

He shall judge the world with righteousness,

And the peoples with equity.

99 THE LORD reigneth; let the peoples tremble:

He ³sitteth upon the cherubim; let the earth be moved.

The LORD is great in Zion; 2

And he is high above all the peoples.

Let them praise thy great and terrible 3
name:

Holy is he.

The king's strength also loveth judge- 4
ment;

Thou dost establish equity,

Thou executest judgement and righteousness in Jacob.

Exalt ye the LORD our God, 5

And worship at his footstool:

Holy is he.

Moses and Aaron among his priests, 6

And Samuel among them that call upon
his name;

They called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

He spake unto them in the pillar of 7
cloud:

They kept his testimonies, and the statute that he gave them.

8 Thou answeredst them, O LORD our God:

Thou wast a God that forgavest them, Though thou tookest vengeance of their doings.

9 Exalt ye the LORD our God, And worship at his holy hill; For the LORD our God is holy.

100

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

1 MAKE a joyful noise unto the LORD, ²all ye lands.

2 Serve the LORD with gladness: Come before his presence with singing.

3 Know ye that the LORD he is God: It is he that hath made us, ³and we are his; We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

4 Enter into his gates with ⁴thanksgiving, And into his courts with praise: Give thanks unto him, and bless his name.

5 For the LORD is good; his mercy endureth for ever; And his faithfulness unto all generations.

101

A Psalm of David.

1 I WILL sing of mercy and judgement: Unto thee, O LORD, will I sing praises.

2 I will ⁵behave myself wisely in a perfect way:

Oh when wilt thou come unto me?

I will walk within my house ⁶with a perfect heart.

3 I will set no base thing before mine eyes:

I hate ⁷the work of them that turn aside; It shall not cleave unto me.

4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will know no ⁸evil thing.

5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I destroy:

Him that hath an high look and a proud heart will I not suffer.

1 Or, for the thank offering

2 Heb. all the earth.

3 Another reading is, and not us ourselves.

4 Or, a thank offering

5 Or, give heed unto the perfect way

6 Or, in the integrity of my heart

7 Or, the doing of unfaithfulness

8 Or, evil person

9 Or, fainteth

10 Or, in smoke

11 Or, as an hearth

12 Or, is stretched out

13 Or, sitteth as king

Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of 6 the land, that they may dwell with me: He that walketh in a perfect way, he shall minister unto me.

He that worketh deceit shall not dwell 7 within my house:

He that speaketh falsehood shall not be established before mine eyes.

Morning by morning will I destroy all 8 the wicked of the land;

To cut off all the workers of iniquity from the city of the LORD.

102

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, 1 And let my cry come unto thee.

Hide not thy face from me in the day of 2 my distress:

Incline thine ear unto me;

In the day when I call answer me speedily.

For my days consume away ¹⁰like smoke, 3

And my bones are burned ¹¹as a firebrand.

My heart is smitten like grass, and 4 withered;

For I forget to eat my bread.

By reason of the voice of my groaning 5

My bones cleave to my flesh.

I am like a pelican of the wilderness; 6

I am become as an owl of the waste places.

I watch, and am become 7

Like a sparrow that is alone upon the housetop.

Mine enemies reproach me all the day; 8

They that are mad against me do curse by me.

For I have eaten ashes like bread, 9

And mingled my drink with weeping.

Because of thine indignation and thy 10 wrath:

For thou hast taken me up, and cast me away.

My days are like a shadow that ¹²de- 11 clineth;

And I am withered like grass.

But thou, O LORD, ¹³shalt abide for ever; 12

And thy memorial unto all generations.

- 13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion:
For it is time to have pity upon her, yea,
the set time is come.
- 14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones,
And have pity upon her dust.
- 15 So the nations shall fear the name of the LORD,
And all the kings of the earth thy glory:
- 16 For the LORD hath built up Zion,
He hath appeared in his glory;
- 17 He hath regarded the prayer of the destitute,
And hath not despised their prayer.
- 18 This shall be written for the generation to come:
And a people which shall be created shall praise ¹the LORD.
- 19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary;
From heaven did the LORD behold the earth;
- 20 To hear the sighing of the prisoner;
To loose ²those that are appointed to death;
- 21 That men may declare the name of the LORD in Zion,
And his praise in Jerusalem;
- 22 When the peoples are gathered together,
And the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.
- 23 ³He weakened my strength in the way;
He shortened my days.
- 24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days:
Thy years are throughout all generations.
- 25 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth;
And the heavens are the work of thy hands.
- 26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure:
Yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment;
As a vesture shalt thou change them,
and they shall be changed:
- 27 But thou art the same,
And thy years shall have no end.

The children of thy servants shall continue,
And their seed shall be established before thee.

103

A Psalm of David.

- BLESS the LORD, O my soul; 1
And all that is within me, bless his holy name.
- Bless the LORD, O my soul, 2
And forget not all his benefits:
Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; 3
Who healeth all thy diseases;
Who redeemeth thy life from ⁴destruction;
Who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies:
Who satisfieth ⁵thy mouth with good things;
So that thy youth is renewed like the eagle.
- The LORD executeth righteous acts, 6
And judgements for all that are oppressed.
He made known his ways unto Moses, 7
His doings unto the children of Israel.
The LORD is full of compassion and gracious, 8
Slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.
He will not always chide; 9
Neither will he keep his anger for ever.
He hath not dealt with us after our sins, 10
Nor rewarded us after our iniquities.
For as the heaven is high above the earth, 11
So great is his mercy toward them that fear him.
- As far as the east is from the west, 12
So far hath he removed our transgressions from us.
Like as a father pitieth his children, 13
So the LORD pitieth them that fear him.
For he knoweth our frame; 14
He remembereth that we are dust.
As for man, his days are as grass; 15
As a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.
For the wind passeth over it, and it is like gone;
And the place thereof shall know it no more.

- 17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him,
And his righteousness unto children's children;
18 To such as keep his covenant,
And to those that remember his precepts to do them.
19 The LORD hath established his throne in the heavens;
And his kingdom ruleth over all.
20 Bless the LORD, ye angels of his:
Ye mighty in strength, that fulfil his word,
Hearkening unto the voice of his word.
21 Bless the LORD, all ye his hosts;
Ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.
22 Bless the LORD, all ye his works,
In all places of his dominion:
Bless the LORD, O my soul.

104 BLESS the LORD, O my soul.
O LORD my God, thou art very great;

- Thou art clothed with honour and majesty.
2 Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment;
Who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:
3 Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters;
Who maketh the clouds his chariot;
Who walketh upon the wings of the wind:
4 Who maketh ¹winds his messengers;
His ministers a flaming fire:
5 ²Who laid the foundations of the earth,
That it should not be moved for ever.
6 Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a vesture;
The waters stood above the mountains.
7 At thy rebuke they fled;
At the voice of thy thunder they hasted away;
8 ³They went up by the mountains, they went down by the valleys,
Unto the place which thou hadst founded for them.

Thou hast set a bound that they may ⁹not pass over;
That they turn not again to cover the earth.
He sendeth forth springs into the valleys; ¹⁰
They run among the mountains:
They give drink to every beast of the ¹¹field;
The wild asses quench their thirst.
By them the fowl of the heaven have ¹²their habitation,
They ⁴sing among the branches.
He watereth the mountains from his ¹³chambers:
The earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.
He causeth the grass to grow for the ¹⁴cattle,
And herb for the ⁵service of man;
That he may bring forth ⁶food out of the earth:
And wine that maketh glad the heart of ¹⁵man,
⁷And oil to make his face to shine,
And bread that strengtheneth man's heart.
The trees of the LORD are ⁸satisfied; ¹⁶
The cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted;
Where the birds make their nests: ¹⁷
As for the stork, the fir trees are her house.
The high mountains are for the wild ¹⁸goats;
The rocks are a refuge for the conies.
He appointed the moon for seasons: ¹⁹
The sun knoweth his going down.
Thou makest darkness, and it is night; ²⁰
Wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.
The young lions roar after their prey, ²¹
And seek their meat from God.
The sun ariseth, they get them away, ²²
And lay them down in their dens.
Man goeth forth unto his work ²³
And to his labour until the evening.
O LORD, how manifold are thy works! ²⁴
In wisdom hast thou made them all:
The earth is full of thy ⁹riches.

- 25 Yonder is the sea, great and wide,
Wherein are things creeping innumerable,
Both small and great beasts.
- 26 There go the ships;
There is leviathan, whom thou hast formed to take his pastime therein.
- 27 These wait all upon thee,
That thou mayest give them their meat
in due season.
- 28 That thou givest unto them they gather;
Thou openest thine hand, they are satisfied with good.
- 29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled;
Thou takest away their breath, they die,
And return to their dust.
- 30 Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created;
And thou renewest the face of the ground.
- 31 Let the glory of the LORD endure for ever;
Let the LORD rejoice in his works:
- 32 Who looketh on the earth, and it trembleth;
He toucheth the mountains, and they smoke.
- 33 I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live:
I will sing praise to my God while I have any being.
- 34 Let my meditation be sweet unto him:
I will rejoice in the LORD.
- 35 Let sinners be consumed out of the earth,
And let the wicked be no more.
Bless the LORD, O my soul.
³Praise ye the LORD.

105 O GIVE thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name;
Make known his doings among the peoples.

- 2 Sing unto him, sing praises unto him;
⁴Talk ye of all his marvellous works.
- 3 Glory ye in his holy name:
Let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.
- 4 Seek ye the LORD and his strength;
Seek his face evermore.

- Remember his marvellous works that he hath done;
His wonders, and the judgements of his mouth;
- O ye seed of Abraham his servant, 6
Ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones. 7
He is the LORD our God:
His judgements are in all the earth.
He hath remembered his covenant for ever,
- The word which he commanded to a thousand generations;
The covenant which he made with 9
Abraham,
And his oath unto Isaac;
And confirmed the same unto Jacob for 10
a statute,
To Israel for an everlasting covenant:
Saying, Unto thee will I give the land 11
of Canaan,
The ⁵lot of your inheritance:
When they were but a few men in 12
number;
Yea, very few, and sojourners in it;
And they went about from nation to 13
nation,
From one kingdom to another people.
He suffered no man to do them wrong; 14
Yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes;
Saying, Touch not mine anointed ones, 15
And do my prophets no harm.
And he called for a famine upon the land; 16
He brake the whole staff of bread.
He sent a man before them; 17
Joseph was sold for a servant:
His feet they hurt with fetters; 18
⁶He was laid in chains of iron:
Until the time that his word came to 19
pass;
The word of the LORD tried him.
The king sent and loosed him; 20
Even the ruler of peoples, and let him go free.
He made him lord of his house, 21
And ruler of all his substance:
To bind his princes at his pleasure, 22
And teach his ⁷senators wisdom.
Israel also came into Egypt; 23
And Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.

adversaries.
- 25 He turned their heart to hate his people,
To deal subtilly with his servants.
- 26 He sent Moses his servant,
And Aaron whom he had chosen.
- 27 'They set among them ²his signs,
And wonders in the land of Ham.
- 28 He sent darkness, and made it dark;
And they rebelled not against his words.
- 29 He turned their waters into blood,
And slew their fish.
- 30 Their land swarmed with frogs,
In the chambers of their kings.
- 31 He spake, and there came swarms of flies,
And lice in all their borders.
- 32 He gave them hail for rain,
And flaming fire in their land.
- 33 He smote their vines also and their fig
trees;
And brake the trees of their borders.
- 34 He spake, and the locust came,
And the cankerworm, and that without
number,
- 35 And did eat up every herb in their
land,
And did eat up the fruit of their ground.
- 36 He smote also all the firstborn in their
land,
The ³chief of all their strength.
- 37 And he brought them forth with silver
and gold:
And there was ⁴not one feeble person
among his tribes.
- 38 Egypt was glad when they departed;
For the fear of them had fallen upon
them.
- 39 He spread a cloud for a covering;
And fire to give light in the night.
- 40 They asked, and he brought quails,
And satisfied them with the bread of heaven.
- 41 He opened the rock, and waters gushed
out;
They ran in the dry places like a river.
- 42 For he remembered his holy word,
And Abraham his servant.

And he brought forth his people with joy, 43
And his chosen with singing.
And he gave them the lands of the 44
nations;
And they took the labour of the peoples
in possession:
That they might keep his statutes, 45
And observe his laws.
⁵Praise ye the LORD.

106 ⁵PRAISE ye the LORD.
O give thanks unto the LORD;
for he is good:
For his mercy endureth for ever.
Who can utter the mighty acts of the 2
LORD,
Or shew forth all his praise?
Blessed are they that keep judgement, 3
And he that doeth righteousness at all times.
Remember me, O LORD, with the favour 4
that thou bearest unto thy people;
O visit me with thy salvation:
That I may see the prosperity of thy 5
chosen,
That I may rejoice in the gladness of thy
nation,
That I may glory with thine inheritance.

We have sinned with our fathers, 6
We have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.
Our fathers understood not thy wonders 7
in Egypt;
They remembered not the multitude of
thy mercies;
But were rebellious at the sea, even at
the Red Sea.
Nevertheless he saved them for his 8
name's sake,
That he might make his mighty power
to be known.
He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it 9
was dried up:
So he led them through the depths, as through a ⁶wilderness.
And he saved them from the hand of him 10
that hated them,
And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

- 11 And the waters covered their adversaries:
 There was not one of them left.
 12 Then believed they his words;
 They sang his praise.
 13 They soon forgot his works;
 They waited not for his counsel:
 14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness,
 And tempted God in the desert.
 15 And he gave them their request;
 But sent leanness into their soul.
 16 They envied Moses also in the camp,
And Aaron the 'saint of the LORD.
 17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan,
 And covered the company of Abiram.
 18 And a fire was kindled in their company;
 The flame burned up the wicked.
 19 They made a calf in Horeb,
 And worshipped a molten image.
 20 Thus they changed their glory
 For the likeness of an ox that eateth grass.
 21 They forgot God their saviour,
 Which had done great things in Egypt;
 22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham,
And terrible things by the Red Sea.
 23 Therefore he said that he would destroy
 them,
 Had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach,
 To turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.
 24 Yea, they despised the pleasant land,
 They believed not his word;
 25 But murmured in their tents,
 And hearkened not unto the voice of the
 LORD.
 26 Therefore he lifted up his hand unto
 them,
 That he would ²overthrow them in the
 wilderness:
 27 And that he would overthrow their seed
 among the nations,
 And scatter them in the lands.
 28 They joined themselves also unto Baal-
 peor,
 And ate the sacrifices of the dead.
 29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their doings;

1 Or, *holy one*Heb. make them fall.3 Or, strife

- And the plague brake in upon them.
 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed 30
 judgement:
 And so the plague was stayed.
 And that was counted unto him for 31
 righteousness,
 Unto all generations for evermore.
 They angered him also at the waters of 32
³Meribah,
 So that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:
 Because they were rebellious against his 33
 spirit,
 And he spake unadvisedly with his
 lips.
 They did not destroy the peoples, 34
 As the LORD commanded them;
 But mingled themselves with the na- 35
 tions,
 And learned their works:
 And they served their idols; 36
 Which became a snare unto them:
 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their 37
 daughters unto demons,
 And shed innocent blood, even the 38
 blood of their sons and of their daughters,
 Whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan;
 And the land was polluted with blood.
 Thus were they defiled with their works, 39
 And went a whoring in their doings
 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD 40
 kindled against his people,
 And he abhorred his inheritance.
 And he gave them into the hand of the 41
 nations;
 And they that hated them ruled over
 them.
 Their enemies also oppressed them, 42
 And they were brought into subjection
 under their hand.
 Many times did he deliver them; 43
 But they were rebellious in their counsel,
 And were brought low in their iniquity.
 Nevertheless he regarded their distress, 44
 When he heard their cry:
 And he remembered for them his 45
 covenant,
 And repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

46 He made them also to be pitied
Of all those that carried them captives.

47 Save us, O LORD our God,
And gather us from among the nations,
To give thanks unto thy holy name,

And to triumph in thy praise.

Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, 48
From everlasting even to everlasting.
And let all the people say, Amen.
'Praise ye the LORD.

BOOK V

107 O GIVE thanks unto the
LORD; for he is good:

For his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
Whom he hath redeemed from the hand
of the adversary;

3 And gathered them out of the lands,
From the east and from the west,
From the north and ²from the south.

4 They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way;
They found no city of habitation.

5 Hungry and thirsty,
Their soul fainted in them.

6 Then they cried unto the LORD in their
trouble,
And he delivered them out of their dis-
tresses.

7 He led them also by a straight way,
That they might go to a city of habita-
tion.

8 Oh that men would praise the LORD for
his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the
children of men!

9 For he satisfieth the longing soul,
And the hungry soul he filleth with
good.

10 Such as sat in darkness and the shadow of death,
Being bound in affliction and iron;

11 Because they rebelled against the words
of God,
And contemned the counsel of the Most High:

12 Therefore he brought down their heart
with labour;
They fell down, and there was none to help.

13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their
trouble,

And he saved them out of their dis-
tresses.

He brought them out of darkness and 14
the shadow of death,
And brake their bands in sunder.

Oh that men would praise the LORD for 15
his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the
children of men!

For he hath broken the gates of brass, 16
And cut the bars of iron in sunder.

Fools because of ³their transgression, 17
And because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

Their soul abhorreth all manner of 18
meat;
And they draw near unto the gates of
death.

Then they cry unto the LORD in their 19
trouble,
And he saveth them out of their dis-
tresses.

He sendeth his word, and healeth them, 20
And delivereth them from their ⁴destructions.

Oh that men would praise the LORD for 21
his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the
children of men!

And let them offer the sacrifices of 22
thanksgiving,
And declare his works with singing.

They that go down to the sea in ships, 23
That do business in great waters;
These see the works of the LORD, 24
And his wonders in the deep.

For he commandeth, and raiseth the 25
stormy wind,
Which lifteth up the waves thereof.

They mount up to the heaven, they go 26
down again to the depths:

1 Heb. Hallelujah.

2 Heb. from the sea.

3 Heb. the way of their transgression.

4 Heb. pits.

- Their soul melteth away because of trouble.
 27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man,
 And 'are at their wits' end.
 28 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble,
 And he bringeth them out of their distresses.
 29 He maketh the storm a calm,
 So that the waves thereof are still.
 30 Then are they glad because they be quiet;
 So he bringeth them unto ²the haven where they would be.
 31 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness,
 And for his wonderful works to the children of men!
 32 Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the people,
 And praise him in the seat of the elders.
 33 He turneth rivers into a wilderness,
 And watersprings into a thirsty ground;
 34 A fruitful land into a salt desert,
 For the wickedness of them that dwell therein.
 35 He turneth a wilderness into a pool of water,
 And a dry land into watersprings.
 36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell,
 That they may prepare a city of habitation;
 37 And sow fields, and plant vineyards,
 And get them fruits of increase.
 38 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly;
 And he suffereth not their cattle to decrease.
 39 Again, they are minished and bowed down
 Through oppression, trouble, and sorrow.
 40 He poureth contempt upon princes,
 And causeth them to wander in the waste, where there is no way.
 41 Yet setteth he the needy on high from affliction,

A Song, a Psalm of David.

MY heart is fixed, O God; 1
 I will sing, yea, I will sing praises, even with my glory.
 Awake, psaltery and harp: 2
³I myself will awake right early.
 I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, 3
 among the peoples:
 And I will sing praises unto thee among
 the nations.
 For thy mercy is great above the heavens, 4
 And thy truth reacheth unto the skies.
 Be thou exalted, O God, above the 5
 heavens:
 And thy glory above all the earth.
 That thy beloved may be delivered, 6
 Save with thy right hand, and answer ⁴us.
 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will 7
 exult:
 I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.
 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; 8
 Ephraim also is the defence of mine
 head;
 Judah is my ⁵sceptre.
 Moab is my washpot; 9
⁶Upon Edom will I cast my shoe:
 Over Philistia will I shout.
 Who will bring me into the fenced 10
 city?
⁷Who hath led me unto Edom?
⁸Hast not thou cast us off, O God? 11
 And thou goest not forth, O God, with our hosts.
 Give us help against the adversary: 12
 For vain is the ⁹help of man.
 Through God we shall do valiantly: 13
 For he it is that shall tread down our adversaries.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- 1 HOLD not thy peace, O God of my praise;
 2 For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of deceit have they opened against me:
 They have spoken ¹unto me with a lying tongue.
 3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred,
 And fought against me without a cause.
 4 For my love they are my adversaries:
 But I give myself unto prayer.
 5 And they have ²rewarded me evil for good,
 And hatred for my love.
 6 Set thou a wicked man over him:
 And let ³an adversary stand at his right hand.
 7 When he is judged, let him come forth guilty;
 And let his prayer ⁴be turned into sin.
 8 Let his days be few;
 And let another take his office.
 9 Let his children be fatherless,
 And his wife a widow.
 10 Let his children be vagabonds, and beg;
 And let them seek their bread ⁵out of their desolate places.
 11 Let the extortioner ⁶catch all that he hath;
 And let strangers make spoil of his labour.
 12 Let there be none to ⁷extend mercy unto him;
 Neither let there be any to have pity on his fatherless children.
 13 Let his posterity be cut off;
 In the generation following let their name be blotted out.
 14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD;
 And let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.
 15 Let them be before the LORD continually,
 That he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.
 16 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy,

But persecuted the poor and needy man,
 And the broken in heart, to slay them.
 Yea, he loved cursing, and it came unto ¹⁷him;
 And he delighted not in blessing, and it was far from him.
 He clothed himself also with cursing as ¹⁸with his garment,
 And it came into his inward parts like water,
 And like oil into his bones.
 Let it be unto him as the raiment where- ¹⁹with he covereth himself,
 And for the girdle wherewith he is girded continually.
 This is the reward of mine adversaries ²⁰from the LORD,
 And of them that speak evil against my soul.
 But deal thou with me, O God the ²¹LORD, for thy name's sake:
 Because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me,
 For I am poor and needy, ²²
 And my heart is wounded within me.
 I am gone like the shadow when it ²³declineth:
 I am tossed up and down as the locust.
 My knees ²⁴are weak through fasting;
 And my flesh faileth of fatness.
 I am become also a reproach unto them: ²⁵
 When they see me, they shake their head.
 Help me, O LORD my God; ²⁶
 O save me according to thy mercy:
 That they may know that this is thy ²⁷hand;
 That thou, LORD, hast done it.
 Let them curse, but bless thou: ²⁸
 When they arise, they shall be ashamed,
 but thy servant shall rejoice.
²⁹Let mine adversaries be clothed with dishonour,
 And let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a mantle.

A Psalm of David.

- 1 THE LORD saith unto my lord, Sit thou at my right hand,
Until I make thine enemies thy footstool.
2 The LORD shall ¹send forth the rod of thy strength out of Zion:
Rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

2 The works of the LORD are great,
Sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.
3 His work is honour and majesty:
And his righteousness endureth for ever.
4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered:

5 He hath given ¹³meat unto them that fear him:

WHEN Israel went forth out of Egypt,

- The house of Jacob from a people of strange language;
2 Judah became his sanctuary,
Israel his dominion.
3 The sea saw it, and fled;
Jordan was driven back.
4 The mountains skipped like rams,
The little hills like young sheep.
5 What aileth thee, O thou sea, that thou fleest?
Thou Jordan, that thou turnest back?
6 Ye mountains, that ye skip like rams;
Ye little hills, like young sheep?

¹ Heb. Hallelujah.² Or, to regard the heavens and the earth.³ Heb. Jah.

Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord,
At the presence of the God of Jacob;
Which turned the rock into a pool of 8 water,
The flint into a fountain of waters.

115

NOT unto us, O LORD, not unto us,

But unto thy name give glory,
For thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.
Wherefore should the nations say, 2
Where is now their God?
But our God is in the heavens: 3
He hath done whatsoever he pleased.
Their idols are silver and gold, 4
The work of men's hands.
They have mouths, but they speak not; 5
Eyes have they, but they see not;
They have ears, but they hear not; 6
Noses have they, but they smell not;
They have hands, but they handle not; 7
Feet have they, but they walk not;
Neither speak they through their throat.
They that make them shall be like unto 8 them;
Yea, every one that trusteth in them.
O Israel, trust thou in the LORD: 9
He is their help and their shield.
O house of Aaron, trust ye in the LORD: 10
He is their help and their shield.
Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD: 11
He is their help and their shield.
The LORD hath been mindful of us; he 12
will bless us:

He will bless the house of Israel;
He will bless the house of Aaron.
He will bless them that fear the LORD, 13
Both small and great.
The LORD increase you more and more, 14
You and your children.
Blessed are ye of the LORD, 15
Which made heaven and earth.
The heavens are the heavens of the LORD; 16
But the earth hath he given to the children of men.
The dead praise not ³the LORD, 17
Neither any that go down into silence;
But we will bless ³the LORD 18
From this time forth and for evermore.
¹Praise ye the LORD.

116 I LOVE the LORD, because he hath heard

My voice and my supplications.

2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto
me,

Therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

3 The cords of death compassed me,
And the pains of ¹Sheol ²gat hold upon
me:

I found trouble and sorrow.

4 Then called I upon the name of the
LORD;

O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

5 Gracious is the LORD, and righteous;
Yea, our God is merciful.

6 The LORD preserveth the simple:
I was brought low, and he saved me.

7 Return unto thy rest, O my soul;
For the LORD hath dealt bountifully
with thee.

8 For thou hast delivered my soul from
death,

Mine eyes from tears,
And my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before the LORD
In the ³land of the living.

10 ⁴I believe, for I will speak:
I was greatly afflicted:

11 I said in my ⁵haste,
All men are ⁶a lie.

12 What shall I render unto the LORD
For all his benefits toward me?

13 I will take the cup of salvation,
And call upon the name of the LORD.

14 I will pay my vows unto the LORD,
Yea, in the presence of all his people.

15 Precious in the sight of the LORD
Is the death of his saints.

16 O LORD, truly I am thy servant:
I am thy servant, the son of thine hand-
maid;

Thou hast loosed my bonds.

17 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving,

And will call upon the name of the
LORD.

18 I will pay my vows unto the LORD,
Yea, in the presence of all his people;

19 In the courts of the LORD's house,

In the midst of thee, O Jerusalem.

⁷Praise ye the LORD.

117 O PRAISE the LORD, all ye
nations;

Laud him, all ye peoples.

For his mercy is great toward us; 2
And the truth of the LORD endureth for ever.

⁷Praise ye the LORD.

118 O GIVE thanks unto the
LORD; for he is good:

For his mercy endureth for ever.

Let Israel now say, 2
That his mercy endureth for ever.

Let the house of Aaron now say, 3
That his mercy endureth for ever.

Let them now that fear the LORD say, 4
That his mercy endureth for ever.

Out of my distress I called upon ⁸the 5
LORD:

⁸The LORD answered me and set me in a large place.

The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: 6
What can man do unto me?

The LORD is on my side among them 7
that help me:

Therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.

It is better to trust in the LORD 8
Than to put confidence in man.

It is better to trust in the LORD 9
Than to put confidence in princes.

All nations compassed me about: 10
In the name of the LORD I will cut them
off.

They compassed me about; yea, they 11
compassed me about:

In the name of the LORD I will cut them
off.

They compassed me about like bees; they 12
are quenched as the fire of thorns:

In the name of the LORD I will cut them
off.

Thou didst thrust sore at me that I 13
might fall:

But the LORD helped me.

⁸The LORD is my strength and song; 14
And he is become my salvation.

N ALEPH.

- 1 BLESSED are they that are perfect in the way,
Who walk in the law of the LORD.

1 Heb. Jah.2 Heb. This is from the LORD.

- Blessed are they that keep his testimonies,
That seek him with the whole heart.
Yea, they do no unrighteousness; 3
They walk in his ways.
Thou hast commanded us thy precepts, 4
That we should observe them diligently.
Oh that my ways were established 5
To observe thy statutes!
Then shall I not be ashamed, 6
When I have respect unto all thy commandments.
I will give thanks unto thee with uprightness of heart, 7
When I learn thy righteous judgements.
I will observe thy statutes: 8
O forsake me not utterly.

B BETH.

- Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? 9
By taking heed thereto according to thy word.
With my whole heart have I sought thee: 10
O let me not wander from thy commandments.
Thy word have I laid up in mine heart, 11
That I might not sin against thee.
Blessed art thou, O LORD: 12
Teach me thy statutes.
With my lips have I declared 13
All the judgements of thy mouth.
I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, 14
As much as in all riches.
I will meditate in thy precepts, 15
And have respect unto thy ways.
I will delight myself in thy statutes: 16
I will not forget thy word.

G GIMEL.

- Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live; 17
So will I observe thy word.
Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold 18
Wondrous things out of thy law.

Hide not thy commandments from me.

That it hath unto thy judgements at all times.

23 Princes also sat and talked against me:
But thy servant did meditate in thy
statutes.
24 Thy testimonies also are my delight
And ²my counsellors.

7 DALETH.

- 25 My soul cleaveth unto the dust:
Quicken thou me according to thy word.
26 I declared my ways, and thou answeredst
me:
Teach me thy statutes.
27 Make me to understand the way of thy
precepts:
So shall I meditate of thy wondrous
works.
28 My soul ³melteth for heaviness:
Strengthen thou me according unto thy word.
29 Remove from me the way of falsehood:
And grant me thy law graciously.
30 I have chosen the way of faithfulness:
Thy judgements have I set before me.
31 I cleave unto thy testimonies;
O LORD, put me not to shame.
32 I will run the way of thy commandments.
When thou shalt enlarge my heart.

Quicken me in thy righteousness.

7 VAU.

Let thy mercies also come unto me, O 41
LORD,
Even thy salvation, according to thy
word.
So shall I have an answer for him that 42
reproacheth me;
For I trust in thy word.
And take not the word of truth utterly 43
out of my mouth;
For I have hoped in thy judgements.
So shall I observe thy law continually 44
For ever and ever.
And I will walk at liberty 45
For I have sought thy precepts.
I will also speak of thy testimonies 46
before kings,
And will not be ashamed.
And I will delight myself in thy com- 47
mandments,
Which I have loved.
I will lift up my hands also unto thy 48
commandments, which I have loved;
And I will meditate in thy statutes.

7 ZAIN.

Remember the word unto thy servant, 49
⁵Because thou hast made me to hope.
This is my comfort in my affliction: 50
⁶For thy word hath quickened me.
The proud have had me greatly in 51
derision:
Yet have I not swerved from thy law.
I have remembered thy judgements of 52
old, O LORD,
And have comforted myself.
Hot indignation hath taken hold upon 53
me,
Because of the wicked that forsake thy law.
Thy statutes have been my songs 54

In the house of my pilgrimage.

55 I have remembered thy name, O LORD,
in the night,

And have observed thy law.

56 This I have had,

¹Because I kept thy precepts.

¶ CHETH.

57 ²The LORD is my portion:

I have said that I would observe thy words.

58 I intreated thy favour with my whole
heart:

Be merciful unto me according to thy
word.

59 I thought on my ways,

And turned my feet unto thy testimonies.

60 I made haste, and delayed not,

To observe thy commandments.

61 The cords of the wicked have wrapped
me round;

But I have not forgotten thy law.

62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks
unto thee

Because of thy righteous judgements.

63 I am a companion of all them that fear
thee,

And of them that observe thy precepts.

64 The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy:
Teach me thy statutes.

¶ TETH.

65 Thou hast dealt well with thy servant,
O LORD, according unto thy word.

66 Teach me good judgement and knowledge;

For I have believed in thy commandments.

67 Before I was afflicted I went astray;
But now I observe thy word.

68 Thou art good, and doest good;
Teach me thy statutes.

69 The proud have forged a lie against me:
With my whole heart will I keep thy
precepts.

70 Their heart is as fat as grease;
But I delight in thy law.

71 It is good for me that I have been
afflicted;

That I might learn thy statutes.

The law of thy mouth is better unto me ⁷²
Than thousands of gold and silver.

¶ JOD.

Thy hands have made me and ³fashioned ⁷³
me:

Give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

They that fear thee shall see me and be ⁷⁴ glad;

Because I have hoped in thy word.

I know, O LORD, that thy judgements ⁷⁵
are righteous,

And that in faithfulness thou hast
afflicted me.

Lo, I pray thee, thy lovingkindness be ⁷⁶
for my comfort,

According to thy word unto thy servant.

Let thy tender mercies come unto me, ⁷⁷
that I may live:

For thy law is my delight.

Let the proud be ashamed; for they ⁷⁸
have overthrown me ⁴wrongfully:

But I will meditate in thy precepts.

Let those that fear thee turn unto me, ⁷⁹

⁵And they shall know thy testimonies.

Let my heart be perfect in thy statutes; ⁸⁰
That I be not ashamed.

¶ CAPH.

My soul fainteth for thy salvation: ⁸¹
But I hope in thy word.

Mine eyes fail for thy word, ⁸²

While I say, When wilt thou comfort
me?

For I am become like a ⁶bottle in the ⁸³
smoke;

Yet do I not forget thy statutes.

How many are the days of thy servant? ⁸⁴

When wilt thou execute judgement on them that persecute me?

The proud have digged pits for me, ⁸⁵
Who are not after thy law.

All thy commandments are faithful: ⁸⁶
They persecute me ⁴wrongfully; help thou me.

ל LAMED.

- 89 For ever, O LORD,
Thy word is settled in heaven.
90 Thy faithfulness is unto all generations:
Thou hast established the earth, and it abideth.
91 'They abide this day according to thine
ordinances;
For all things are thy servants.
92 Unless thy law had been my delight,
I should then have perished in mine
affliction.
93 I will never forget thy precepts;
For with them thou hast quickened me.
94 I am thine, save me;
For I have sought thy precepts.
95 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me;
But I will consider thy testimonies.
96 I have seen an end of all perfection;
But thy commandment is exceeding broad.

מ MEM.

- 97 Oh how love I thy law!
It is my meditation all the day.
98 'Thy commandments make me wiser than mine enemies;
For they are ever with me.
99 I have more understanding than all my teachers;
For thy testimonies are my meditation.
100 I understand more than the aged,
Because I have kept thy precepts.
101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way,
That I might observe thy word.
102 I have not turned aside from thy judge-
ments;
For thou hast taught me.
103 How sweet are thy words unto my ³taste!
Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Therefore I hate every false way.

Quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word.
Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill 108
offerings of my mouth, O LORD,
And teach me thy judgements.
My soul is continually in my hand; 109
Yet do I not forget thy law.
The wicked have laid a snare for me; 110
Yet went I not astray from thy precepts.
Thy testimonies have I taken as an 111

For they are the rejoicing of my heart.
I have inclined mine heart to perform 112

my God.
Uphold me according unto thy word, 116
that I may live;
And let me not be ashamed of my hope.
Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe, 117 continually.

Thou hast set at nought all them that 118
err from thy statutes;
For their deceit is 'falsehood.

A Song of Ascents.

IN my distress I cried unto the LORD, 1
 And he answered me.
 Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying 2
 lips,
 And from a deceitful tongue.
 What shall be given unto thee, and what 3
 shall be done more unto thee, Thou deceitful tongue?
 'Sharp arrows of the mighty, 4
 With coals of ³juniiper.
 Woe is me, that I sojourn in Meshech, 5
 'That I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
 My soul hath long had her dwelling 6
 With him that hateth peace.
 I am for peace: 7
 But when I speak, they are for war.

121

A Song of Ascents.

I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the 1
 mountains:
 From whence shall my help come?
 My help cometh from the LORD, 2
 Which made heaven and earth.
 'He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: 3
 He that keepeth thee will not slumber.
 Behold, he that keepeth Israel 4
 Shall neither slumber nor sleep.
 The LORD is thy keeper: 5
 The LORD is thy shade upon thy right
 hand.
 The sun shall not smite thee by day, 6
 Nor the moon by night.
 The LORD shall keep thee from all evil; 7
 He shall keep thy soul.
 The LORD shall keep thy going out and 8
 thy coming in,
 From this time forth and for evermore.

A Song of Ascents; of David.

I WAS glad when they said unto me, 1
 Let us go unto the house of the LORD.

- 2 Our feet ¹are standing Within thy gates, O Jerusalem;
3 Jerusalem, that art builded
As a city that is compact together;
4 Whither the tribes go up, even the tribes
of ²the LORD,
For a testimony unto Israel,
To give thanks unto the name of the
LORD.
5 For there ³are set thrones for judgement,
The thrones of the house of David.
6 ⁴Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
⁵They shall prosper that love thee.
7 Peace be within thy walls,
And prosperity within thy palaces.
8 For my brethren and companions' sakes,
I will now ⁶say, Peace be within thee.
9 For the sake of the house of the LORD
our God
I will seek thy good.

123

A Song of Ascents.

- 1 UNTO thee do I lift up mine eyes,
O thou that sittest in the heavens.
2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto
the hand of their master,
As the eyes of a maiden unto the hand
of her mistress;
So our eyes look unto the LORD our God,
Until he have mercy upon us.
3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us:
For we are exceedingly filled with contempt.
4 Our soul is exceedingly filled With the scorning of those that are at ease,
And with the contempt of the proud.

124

A Song of Ascents; of David.

- 1 IF it had not been the LORD who was
on our side,
Let Israel now say;
2 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
When men rose up against us:
3 Then they had swallowed us up alive,
When their wrath was kindled against us:

1 Or, have stood 2 Heb. Jah. 3 Or, were

Then the waters had overwhelmed us, 4
The stream had gone over our soul:
Then the proud waters had gone over 5
our soul.
Blessed be the LORD, 6
Who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.
Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the 7
snare of the fowlers:
The snare is broken, and we are escaped.
Our help is in the name of the LORD, 8
Who made heaven and earth.

A Song of Ascents.

THEY that trust in the LORD 1
Are as mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abideth for ever.
As the mountains are round about Jeru- 2
salem,
So the LORD is round about his people,
From this time forth and for evermore.
For the sceptre of wickedness shall not 3
rest upon the lot of the righteous;
That the righteous put not forth their hands unto iniquity.
Do good, O LORD, unto those that be 4
good,
And to them that are upright in their hearts.
But as for such as turn aside unto their 5
crooked ways,
The LORD shall lead them forth with the
workers of iniquity.
Peace be upon Israel.

126

A Song of Ascents.

WHEN the LORD ⁷turned again the 1
captivity of Zion,
We were like unto them that dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laugh- 2
ter,
And our tongue with singing:
Then said they among the nations,
The LORD hath done great things for
them.
The LORD hath done great things for us; 3
Whereof we are glad.
Turn again our captivity, O LORD, 4

4 Or, Salute ye Jerusalem 5 Or, May they
7 Or, brought back those that returned to Zion

As the streams in the South.

- 5 They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.
 6 Though he goeth on his way weeping,
 ¹bearing forth the seed;
 He shall come again with joy, bringing his sheaves with him.

127 A Song of Ascents; of Solomon.

- 1 EXCEPT the LORD build the house,
 They labour in vain that build it:
 Except the LORD keep the city,
 The watchman waketh but in vain.
 2 It is vain for you that ye rise up early,
 and so late take rest,
 And eat the bread of toil:
 For so he giveth unto his beloved ²sleep.
 3 Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD:
 And the fruit of the womb is his reward.
 4 As arrows in the hand of a mighty man,
 So are the children of youth.
 5 Happy is the man that hath his quiver
 full of them:
 They shall not be ashamed,
 When they speak with their enemies in the gate.

128 A Song of Ascents.

- 1 BLESSED is every one that feareth the
 LORD,
 That walketh in his ways.
 2 For thou shalt eat the labour of thine
 hands:
 Happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well
 with thee.
 3 Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine, in
 the innermost parts of thine house:
 Thy children like olive plants, round
 about thy table.
 4 Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed
 That feareth the LORD.
 5 The LORD ³shall bless thee out of Zion:
 And ⁴thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.
 6 Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children.
 ⁵Peace be upon Israel.

A Song of Ascents.

- ⁶MANY a time have they afflicted me ¹
 from my youth up,
 Let Israel now say;
⁶Many a time have they afflicted me ²
 from my youth up:
 Yet they have not prevailed against me.
 The plowers plowed upon my back; ³
 They made long their furrows.
 The LORD is righteous: ⁴
 He hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.
 Let them be ashamed and turned back- ⁵
 ward,
 All they that hate Zion.
 Let them be as the grass upon the house- ⁶
 tops,
 Which withereth afore it ⁷groweth up:
 Wherewith the reaper filleth not his ⁷
 hand,
 Nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom.
 Neither do they which go by say, ⁸
 The blessing of the LORD be upon you;
 We bless you in the name of the LORD.

130 A Song of Ascents.

- OUT of the depths have I cried unto ¹
 thee, O LORD.
 Lord, hear my voice: ²
 Let thine ears be attentive
 To the voice of my supplications.
 If thou, ⁸LORD, shouldest mark ini- ³
 quities,
 O Lord, who shall stand?
 But there is forgiveness with thee, ⁴
 That thou mayest be feared.
 I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait, ⁵
 And in his word do I hope.
 My soul looketh for the Lord, ⁶
 More than watchmen look for the morning;
 Yea, more than watchmen for the morning.
 O Israel, hope in the LORD; ⁷
 For with the LORD there is mercy,
 And with him is plenteous redemption.
 And he shall redeem Israel ⁸
 From all his iniquities.

131

A Song of Ascents; of David.

- 1 LORD, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty;
Neither do I ¹exercise myself in great matters,
Or in things too wonderful for me.
2 Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul;
Like a weaned child with his mother,
My soul is with me like a weaned child.
3 O Israel, hope in the LORD
From this time forth and for evermore.

132

A Song of Ascents.

- 1 LORD, remember for David
All his affliction;
2 How he swore unto the LORD,
And vowed unto the Mighty One of Jacob:
3 Surely I will not come into the ²tabernacle of my house,
Nor go up into ³my bed;
4 I will not give sleep to mine eyes,
Or slumber to mine eyelids;
5 Until I find out a place for the LORD,
⁴A tabernacle for the Mighty One of Jacob.
6 Lo, we heard of it in ⁵Ephrathah:
We found it in the field of ⁶the wood.
7 We will go into his tabernacles;
We will worship at his footstool.
8 Arise, O LORD, into thy resting place;
Thou, and the ark of thy strength.
9 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness;
And let thy saints shout for joy.
10 For thy servant David's sake
Turn not away the face of thine anointed.
11 The LORD hath sworn unto David in truth;
He will not turn from it:
Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.
12 If thy children will keep my covenant
And my testimony that I shall teach
them,
Their children also shall sit upon thy throne for evermore.

For the LORD hath chosen Zion; 13
He hath desired it for his habitation.
This is my resting place for ever: 14
Here will I dwell; for I have desired it.
I will ⁷abundantly bless her provision: 15
I will satisfy her poor with bread.
Her priests also will I clothe with salva- 16
tion:
And her saints shall shout aloud for joy.
There will I make ⁸the horn of David to 17
bud:
I have ⁹ordained a lamp for mine anointed.
His enemies will I clothe with shame: 18
But upon himself shall his crown flourish.

133

A Song of Ascents; of David.

BEHOLD, how good and how pleasant 1
it is
For brethren to dwell together in unity!
It is like the precious oil upon the head, 2
That ran down upon the beard,
Even Aaron's beard;
That came down upon the ¹⁰skirt of his garments;
Like the dew of Hermon, 3
That cometh down upon the mountains
of Zion:
For there the LORD commanded the blessing,
Even life for evermore.

134

A Song of Ascents.

BEHOLD, bless ye the LORD, all ye 1
servants of the LORD,
Which by night stand in the house of
the LORD.
Lift up your hands ¹¹to the sanctuary, 2
And bless ye the LORD.
The LORD bless thee out of Zion; 3
Even he that made heaven and earth.

 3 Praise ye the LORD; for the LORD is good:
 Sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.
 4 For 'the LORD hath chosen Jacob unto himself,
 And Israel for his peculiar treasure.
 5 For I know that the LORD is great,
 And that our Lord is above all gods.
 6 Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that hath he done,
 In heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps.
 7 He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth;
 He maketh lightnings for the rain;
 He bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.
 8 Who smote the firstborn of Egypt,
 Both of man and beast.
 9 He sent signs and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt,
 Upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants.
 10 Who smote ²many nations,
 And slew mighty kings;
 11 Sihon king of the Amorites,
 And Og king of Bashan,
 And all the kingdoms of Canaan:
 12 And gave their land for an heritage,
 An heritage unto Israel his people.
 13 Thy name, O LORD, endureth for ever;
 Thy memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations.
 14 For the LORD shall judge his people,
 And repent himself concerning his servants.
 15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
 The work of men's hands.
 16 They have mouths, but they speak not;
 Eyes have they, but they see not;
 17 They have ears, but they hear not;
 Neither is there any breath in their mouths.
 18 They that make them shall be like unto them;
 Yea, every one that trusteth in them.

136 ^O GIVE thanks unto the LORD; for he is good:

For his mercy endureth for ever.
 O give thanks unto the God of gods: 2
 For his mercy endureth for ever.
 O give thanks unto the Lord of lords: 3
 For his mercy endureth for ever.
 To him who alone doeth great wonders: 4
 For his mercy endureth for ever.
 To him that by understanding made the 5
 heavens:
 For his mercy endureth for ever.
 To him that spread forth the earth above 6
 the waters:
 For his mercy endureth for ever.
 To him that made great lights: 7
 For his mercy endureth for ever:
 The sun to rule by day: 8
 For his mercy endureth for ever:
 The moon and stars to rule by night: 9
 For his mercy endureth for ever.
 To him that smote Egypt in their first- 10
 born:
 For his mercy endureth for ever:
 And brought out Israel from among 11
 them:
 For his mercy endureth for ever:
 With a strong hand, and with a stretched 12
 out arm:
 For his mercy endureth for ever.
 To him which divided the Red Sea in 13
 sunder:
 For his mercy endureth for ever:
 And made Israel to pass through the 14
 midst of it:
 For his mercy endureth for ever:
 But ⁴overthrew Pharaoh and his host in 15
 the Red Sea:
 For his mercy endureth for ever.
 To him which led his people through 16
 the wilderness:
 For his mercy endureth for ever.
 To him which smote great kings: 17
 For his mercy endureth for ever:
 And slew famous kings: 18

- For his mercy endureth for ever:
 19 Sihon king of the Amorites:
 For his mercy endureth for ever:
 20 And Og king of Bashan:
 For his mercy endureth for ever:
 21 And gave their land for an heritage:
 For his mercy endureth for ever:
 22 Even an heritage unto Israel his servant:
 For his mercy endureth for ever.
 23 Who remembered us in our low estate:
 For his mercy endureth for ever:
 24 And hath delivered us from our adversaries:
 For his mercy endureth for ever.
 25 He giveth food to all flesh:
 For his mercy endureth for ever.
 26 O give thanks unto the God of heaven:
 For his mercy endureth for ever.

137 BY the rivers of Babylon,
 There we sat down, yea, we wept,

- When we remembered Zion.
 2 Upon the willows in the midst thereof
 We hanged up our harps.
 3 For there they that led us captive required of us ¹songs,
 And ²they that wasted us required of us mirth, saying,
 Sing us one of the songs of Zion.
 4 How shall we sing the LORD's song
 In a strange land?
 5 If I forget thee, O Jerusalem,
 Let my right hand forget her cunning.
 6 Let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth,
 If I remember thee not;
 If I prefer not Jerusalem
 Above my chief joy.
 7 Remember, O LORD, against the children of Edom
 The day of Jerusalem;
 Who said, Rase it, rase it,
 Even to the foundation thereof.
 8 O daughter of Babylon, ³that art to be destroyed;
 Happy shall he be, that rewardeth thee
 As thou hast served us.
 9 Happy shall he be, that taketh and dasheth thy little ones Against the rock.

138

A Psalm of David.

I WILL give thee thanks with my whole heart:
 Before the gods will I sing praises unto thee.
 I will worship toward thy holy temple, 2
 And give thanks unto thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth:
 For thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.
 In the day that I called thou answeredst 3
 me,
 Thou didst encourage me with strength in my soul.
 All the kings of the earth shall give thee 4
 thanks, O LORD,
 For they have heard the words of thy mouth.
 Yea, they shall sing of the ways of the 5
 LORD;
 For great is the glory of the LORD.
 For though the LORD be high, yet hath 6
 he respect unto the lowly:
 But the haughty he knoweth from afar.
 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, 7
 thou wilt revive me;
 Thou shalt stretch forth thine hand
 against the wrath of mine enemies,
 And thy right hand shall save me.
 The LORD will perfect that which con- 8
 cerneth me:
 Thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever;
 Forsake not the works of thine own hands.

139

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

O LORD, thou hast searched me, and I known me.
 Thou knowest my downsitting and mine 2
 uprising,
 Thou understandest my thought afar off.
 Thou ⁴searchest out my path and my 3
 lying down,
 And art acquainted with all my ways.
 For there is not a word in my tongue, 4
 But, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.
 Thou hast beset me behind and before, 5
 And laid thine hand upon me.

³ Or, that art laid waste

⁴ Or, winnowest

- 6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
It is high, I cannot attain unto it.
- 7 Whither shall I go from thy spirit?
Or whither shall I flee from thy presence?
- 8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there:
If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, thou art there.
- 9 If I take the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
- 10 Even there shall thy hand lead me,
And thy right hand shall hold me.
- 11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall ¹overwhelm me, ²And the light about me shall be night;
- 12 Even the darkness hideth not from thee,
But the night shineth as the day:
The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.
- 13 For thou hast ³possessed my reins:
Thou hast ⁴covered me in my mother's womb.
- 14 I will give thanks unto thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made:
Wonderful are thy works;
And that my soul knoweth right well.
- 15 My frame was not hidden from thee,
When I was made in secret,
And curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.
- 16 Thine eyes did see mine unperfect substance,
And in thy book ⁵were all my members written,
Which day by day were fashioned,
When as yet there was none of them.
- 17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God!
How great is the sum of them!
- 18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand:
When I awake, I am still with thee.
- 19 ⁶Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God:
Depart from me therefore, ye blood-thirsty men.
- 20 For they ⁷speak against thee wickedly,

And thine enemies ⁸take thy name in vain.
Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate ²¹thee?
And ⁹am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?
I hate them with perfect hatred: 22
I count them mine enemies.
Search me, O God, and know my heart: 23
Try me, and know my thoughts:
And see if there be any way of ¹⁰wickedness in me,
And lead me in the way everlasting.

140 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

DELIVER me, O LORD, from the evil 1 man;

Preserve me from the violent man:
Which imagine mischiefs in their heart; 2
Continually do they ¹¹gather themselves together for war.

They have sharpened their tongue like 3 a serpent;
Adders' poison is under their lips.

Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of 4 the wicked;
[Selah]

Preserve me from the violent man:
Who have purposed to thrust aside my steps.

The proud have hid a snare for me, and 5 cords;

They have spread a net by the way side;
They have set gins for me. [Selah]

I said unto the LORD, Thou art my God: 6
Give ear unto the voice of my supplications, O LORD.

O GOD the Lord, the strength of my 7 salvation,

Thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the 8 wicked;

Further not his evil device; lest they exalt themselves. [Selah]

As for the head of those that compass 9 me about,

Let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

- 10 Let burning coals fall upon them:
Let them be cast into the fire;
Into ¹deep pits, that they rise not up again.
- 11 ²An evil speaker shall not be established in the earth:
Evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.
- 12 I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted,
And the right of the needy.
- 13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks
unto thy name:
The upright shall dwell in thy presence.

141

A Psalm of David.

- 1 LORD, I have called upon thee; make haste unto me:
Give ear unto my voice, when I call
unto thee.
- 2 Let my prayer be set forth as incense
before thee;
The lifting up of my hands as the evening ³sacrifice.
- 3 Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth;
Keep the door of my lips.
- 4 Incline not my heart to any evil thing,
To be occupied in deeds of wickedness
With men that work iniquity:
And let me not eat of their dainties.
- 5 Let the righteous smite me, it shall be a kindness;
And let him reprove me, it shall be as
oil upon the head;
Let not my head refuse it:
⁴For even in their ⁵wickedness shall my prayer continue.
- 6 Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock;
And they shall hear my words; for they are sweet.
- 7 As when one ploweth and cleaveth the
earth,
⁶Our bones are scattered at ⁷the grave's
mouth.

Maschil of David, when he was in the cave; a Prayer.

I CRY with my voice unto the LORD; ¹
With my voice unto the LORD do I make supplication.
I pour out my complaint before him; ²
I shew before him my trouble.
When my spirit ¹⁰was overwhelmed with- ³
in me, thou knewest my path.
In the way wherein I walk have they hidden a snare for me.
¹¹Look on my right hand, and see; for ⁴
there is no man that knoweth me:
Refuge hath failed me; no man careth
for my soul.
I cried unto thee, O LORD; ⁵
I said, Thou art my refuge,
My portion in the land of the living.
Attend unto my cry; for I am brought ⁶
very low:
Deliver me from my persecutors; for
they are stronger than I.
Bring my soul out of prison, that I may ⁷
give thanks unto thy name:
The righteous shall ¹²compass me about;
For thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

143

A Psalm of David.

My heart within me is desolate.

5 I remember the days of old;

I meditate on all thy doings:

I muse on the work of thy hands.

6 I spread forth my hands unto thee:

land. [Selah]

7 Make haste to answer me, O LORD; my spirit faileth:

Hide not thy face from me;

Lest I become like them that go down
into the pit.

8 Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness in the morning;

For in thee do I trust:

Cause me to know the way wherein I should walk;

For I lift up my soul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine ene-

144

A Psalm of David.

1 BLESSED be the LORD my rock,
Which teacheth my hands to war,
And my fingers to fight:

2 My lovingkindness, and my fortress,
My high tower, and my deliverer;
My shield, and he in whom I trust;
Who subdueth my people under me.

LORD, what is man, that thou takest ³
knowledge of him?

Or the son of man, that thou makest
account of him?

Man is like to ⁵vanity:

4

His days are as a shadow that passeth
away.

Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come ⁵
down:

Touch the mountains, and they shall
smoke.

Cast forth lightning, and scatter them; ⁶

Send out thine arrows, and discomfit
them.

Stretch forth thine hand from above; ⁷

Rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters,

Out of the hand of strangers;

Whose mouth speaketh vanity, ⁸

And their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

I will sing a new song unto thee, O ⁹
God:

Upon a psaltery of ten strings will I sing
praises unto thee.

It is he that giveth salvation unto kings: ¹⁰

Who rescueth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

Rescue me, and deliver me out of the ¹¹

hand of strangers,

Whose mouth speaketh vanity,

And their right hand is a right hand of
falsehood.

When our oxen are well laden; ¹⁴

A Psalm of praise; of David.

- 1 I WILL extol thee, my God, O King;
And I will bless thy name for ever and
ever.
- 2 Every day will I bless thee;
And I will praise thy name for ever and
ever.
- 3 Great is the LORD, and highly to be
praised;
And his greatness is unsearchable.
- 4 One generation shall laud thy works to
another,
And shall declare thy mighty acts.
- 5 Of the glorious majesty of thine honour,
And of thy wondrous works, will I meditate.
- 6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts;
And I will declare thy greatness.
- 7 They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness,
And shall sing of thy righteousness.
- 8 The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion;
Slow to anger, and of great mercy.
- 9 The LORD is good to all;
And his tender mercies are over all his works.
- 10 All thy works shall give thanks unto
thee, O LORD;
And thy saints shall bless thee.
- 11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom,
And talk of thy power;
- 12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts,
And the glory of the majesty of his
kingdom.
- 13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And thy dominion endureth throughout
all generations.
- 14 The LORD upholdeth all that fall,
And raiseth up all those that be bowed
down.
- 15 The eyes of all wait upon thee;
And thou givest them their meat in due season.
- 16 Thou openest thine hand,

And 'satisfiest the desire of every living
thing.

The LORD is righteous in all his ways, 17
And gracious in all his works.
The LORD is high unto all them that call 18
upon him,
To all that call upon him in truth.
He will fulfil the desire of them that fear 19
him;
He also will hear their cry, and will save
them.
The LORD preserveth all them that love 20
him;
But all the wicked will he destroy.
My mouth shall speak the praise of the 21
LORD;
And let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

146 ²PRAISE ye the LORD.

Praise the LORD, O my soul.
While I live will I praise the LORD: 2
I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.
Put not your trust in princes, 3
Nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.
His breath goeth forth, he returneth to 4
his earth;
In that very day his ³thoughts perish.
Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob 5
for his help,
Whose hope is in the LORD his God:
Which made heaven and earth, 6
The sea, and all that in them is;
Which keepeth truth for ever:
Which executeth judgement for the op- 7
pressed;
Which giveth food to the hungry:
The LORD looseth the prisoners;
The LORD openeth the eyes of the 8
blind;
The LORD raiseth up them that are
bowed down;
The LORD loveth the righteous;
The LORD preserveth the strangers; 9
He upholdeth the fatherless and widow;
But the way of the wicked he ⁴turneth
upside down.
The LORD shall reign for ever, 10

1 Or, *satisfiest every living thing with favour*2 Heb. *Hallelujah.*3 Or, *purposes*4 Or, maketh crooked

Thy God, O Zion, unto all generations.
 'Praise ye the LORD.

147 ¹PRAISE ye the LORD;
²For it is good to sing praises
 unto our God;

For it is pleasant, and praise is comely.

2 The LORD doth build up Jerusalem;
 He gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

3 He healeth the broken in heart,
 And bindeth up their ³wounds.

4 He telleth the number of the stars;
 He giveth them all their names.

5 Great is our Lord, and mighty in power;
 His understanding is infinite.

6 The LORD upholdeth the meek:
 He bringeth the wicked down to the ground.

7 Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving;
 Sing praises upon the harp unto our
 God:

8 Who covereth the heaven with clouds,
 Who prepareth rain for the earth,
 Who maketh grass to grow upon the
 mountains.

9 He giveth to the beast his food,
And to the young ravens which cry.

10 He delighteth not in the strength of the horse:
 He taketh no pleasure in the legs of a
 man.

11 The LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him,
 In those that hope in his mercy.

12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem;
 Praise thy God, O Zion.

13 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates;
 He hath blessed thy children within
 thee.

14 ⁴He maketh peace in thy borders;
 He filleth thee with the ⁵finest of the wheat.

15 He sendeth out his commandment upon
 earth;
 His word runneth very swiftly.

16 He giveth snow like wool;
 He scattereth the hoar frost like ashes.

He casteth forth his ice like morsels: 17
 Who can stand before his cold?
 He sendeth out his word, and melteth 18
 them:

He causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

He sheweth his word unto Jacob, 19
 His statutes and his judgements unto Israel.

He hath not dealt so with any nation: 20
 And as for his judgements, they have not known them.

'Praise ye the LORD.

148 ¹PRAISE ye the LORD.
 Praise ye the LORD from the
 heavens:

Praise him in the heights.

Praise ye him, all his angels: 2

Praise ye him, all his host.

Praise ye him, sun and moon. 3

Praise him, all ye stars of light.

Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, 4

And ye waters that be above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of the LORD: 5

For he commanded, and they were created.

He hath also stablished them for ever 6
 and ever:

He hath made a decree ⁶which shall not pass away.

Praise the LORD from the earth, 7

Ye ⁷dragons, and all deeps:

Fire and hail, snow and vapour; 8

Stormy wind, fulfilling his word:

Mountains and all hills; 9

Fruitful trees and all cedars:

Beasts and all cattle; 10

Creeping things and flying fowl:

Kings of the earth and all peoples; 11

Princes and all judges of the earth:

Both young men and maidens; 12

Old men and children:

Let them praise the name of the LORD; 13

For his name alone is exalted:

His glory is above the earth and heaven.

And he hath lifted up ⁸the horn of his 14
 people,

The praise of all his saints;

Even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him.

'Praise ye the LORD.

149

'PRAISE ye the LORD.

Sing unto the LORD a new
song,

And his praise in the assembly of the saints.

2 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him:
Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

3 Let them praise his name in the dance:
Let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

4 For the LORD taketh pleasure in his
people:

He will beautify the meek with 'salvation.

5 Let the saints exult in glory:
Let them sing for joy upon their beds.

6 Let the high praises of God be in their
mouth,

And a two-edged sword in their hand;

7 To execute vengeance upon the nations,
And punishments upon the peoples;

To bind their kings with chains, 8
And their nobles with fetters of iron;
To execute upon them the judgement 9
written:

*This honour have all his saints.

'Praise ye the LORD.

150

'PRAISE ye the LORD.

Praise God in his sanctuary:

Praise him in the firmament of his power.

Praise him for his mighty acts: 2

Praise him according to his excellent greatness.

Praise him with the sound of the trum- 3
pet:

Praise him with the psaltery and harp.

Praise him with the timbrel and dance: 4

Praise him with stringed instruments

and the pipe.

Praise him upon the loud cymbals: 5

Praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.

Let every thing that hath breath praise 6

*the LORD.

'Praise ye the LORD.

THE PROVERBS

1 THE proverbs of Solomon the son
of David, king of Israel:

2 To know wisdom and instruction;

To discern the words of understanding;

3 To receive instruction in wise dealing,
In righteousness and judgement and equity;

4 To give *subtily to the simple,
To the young man knowledge and discretion:

5 That the wise man may hear, and increase in learning;

And that the man of understanding may attain unto sound counsels:

6 To understand a proverb, and ⁷a figure;
The words of the wise, and their ⁸dark sayings.

The fear of the LORD is the ⁹beginning 7
of knowledge:

But the foolish despise wisdom and instruction.

My son, hear the instruction of thy father, 8

And forsake not the ¹⁰law of thy mother:

For they shall be a chaplet of grace unto 9
thy head,

And chains about thy neck.

My son, if sinners entice thee, 10

Consent thou not.

If they say, Come with us, 11

Let us lay wait for blood,

Let us lurk privily for the innocent
without cause;

Let us swallow them up alive as ¹¹Sheol, 12

¹²And whole, as those that go down into the pit;

1 Heb. Hallelujah.

2 Or, victory

3 Heb. throat.

4 Or, He is the honour of all his saints

5 Heb. Jah.

- 13 We shall find all precious substance,
We shall fill our houses with spoil;
- 14 'Thou shalt cast thy lot among us;
We will all have one purse:
- 15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them;
Refrain thy foot from their path:
- 16 For their feet run to evil,
And they make haste to shed blood.
- 17 For in vain ²is the net spread,
In the eyes of any bird:
- 18 And these lay wait for their own blood,
They lurk privily for their own lives.
- 19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain;
It taketh away the life of the owners thereof.
- 20 Wisdom crieth aloud in the street;
She uttereth her voice in the broad places;
- 21 She crieth ³in the chief place of concourse;
At the entering in of the gates,
In the city, she uttereth her words:
- 22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity?
And scorners delight them in scorning,
And fools hate knowledge?
- 23 Turn you at my reproof:
Behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you,
I will make known my words unto you.
- 24 Because I have called, and ye refused;
I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;
- 25 But ye have set at nought all my counsel,
And would none of my reproof:
- 26 I also will laugh in the day of your calamity;
I will mock when your fear cometh;
- 27 When your fear cometh as ⁴a storm,
And your calamity cometh on as a whirlwind;
When distress and anguish come upon you.
- 28 Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer;
They shall seek me ⁵diligently, but they shall not find me:
- For that they hated knowledge, 29
And did not choose the fear of the LORD:
They would none of my counsel; 30
They despised all my reproof:
Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of 31
their own way,
And be filled with their own devices.
For the backsliding of the simple shall 32
slay them,
And the 'prosperity of fools shall destroy them.
But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall 33
dwell securely,
And shall be quiet without fear of evil.
- 2 MY son, if thou wilt receive my words,
And lay up my commandments with thee;
So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom,
And apply thine heart to understanding;
Yea, if thou cry after discernment, 3
And lift up thy voice for understanding;
If thou seek her as silver, 4
And search for her as for hid treasures;
Then shalt thou understand the fear of 5
the LORD,
And find the knowledge of God.
For the LORD giveth wisdom; 6
Out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding:
He layeth up sound wisdom for the up- 7
right,
⁷He is a shield to them that walk in integrity;
⁸That he may guard the paths of judge- 8
ment,
⁹And preserve the way of his saints.
Then shalt thou understand righteous- 9
ness and judgement,
And equity, yea, every good path.
For wisdom shall enter into thine heart, 10
And knowledge shall be pleasant unto thy soul;
Discretion shall watch over thee, 11
Understanding shall keep thee:

To walk in the ways of darkness;
14 Who rejoice to do evil,
And delight in the frowardness of ¹evil;
15 Who are crooked in their ways,
And perverse in their paths:
16 To deliver thee from the strange woman,
Even from the stranger which ²flattereth
with her words;
17 Which forsaketh the ³friend of her youth,
And forgetteth the covenant of her God:
18 For ⁴her house inclineth unto death,
And her paths unto ⁵the dead:
19 None that go unto her return again, Neither do they attain unto the paths of
life:
20 That thou mayest walk in the way of good men,
And keep the paths of the righteous.
21 For the upright shall dwell in the ⁶land,
And the perfect shall remain in it.
22 But the wicked shall be cut off from the ⁷land,
And they that deal treacherously shall be rooted out of it.

3 MY son, forget not my ⁷law;
But let thine heart keep my commandments:

- 2 For length of days, and years of life,
And peace, shall they add to thee.
3 Let not ⁸mercy and truth forsake thee:
Bind them about thy neck;
Write them upon the table of thine
heart:
4 So shalt thou find favour and ⁹good
understanding
In the sight of God and man.
5 Trust in the LORD with all thine heart,
And lean not upon thine own understanding:
6 In all thy ways acknowledge him,
And he shall ¹⁰direct thy paths.
7 Be not wise in thine own eyes;
Fear the LORD, and depart from evil:
8 It shall be health to thy navel,
And ¹¹marrow to thy bones.
9 Honour the LORD with thy substance,

And with the firstfruits of all thine increase:
So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, 10
And thy fats shall overflow with new wine.

My son, despise not the ¹²chastening of 11
the LORD;

Neither be weary of his reproof:
For whom the LORD loveth he reproveth; 12
Even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, 13
And the man that ¹³getteth understanding.

For the merchandise of it is better than 14
the merchandise of silver,
And the gain thereof than fine gold.

She is more precious than rubies: 15
And none of the things thou canst desire are to be compared unto her.

Length of days is in her right hand; 16
In her left hand are riches and honour.
Her ways are ways of pleasantness, 17
And all her paths are peace.

She is a tree of life to them that lay hold 18
upon her:

And happy is every one that retaineth
her.

The LORD by wisdom founded the earth; 19
By understanding he established the
heavens.

By his knowledge the depths were 20
broken up,
And the skies drop down the dew.

My son, let not them depart from thine 21
eyes;

Keep sound wisdom and discretion;
So shall they be life unto thy soul, 22
And grace to thy neck.

Then shalt thou walk in thy way securely, 23
And ¹⁴thy foot shall not stumble.

When thou liest down, thou shalt not 24
be afraid:

Yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep
shall be sweet.

Be not afraid of sudden fear,

Neither of the ¹desolation of the wicked,
when it cometh:

26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence,
And shall keep thy foot from being taken.

27 Withhold not good from them to whom
it is due,

When it is in the power of thine hand
to do it.

28 Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again,

And to-morrow I will give;

When thou hast it by thee.

29 Devise not evil against thy neighbour,
Seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.

30 Strive not with a man without cause,
If he have done thee no harm.

31 Envy thou not the man of violence,
And choose none of his ways.

32 For the perverse is an abomination to
the LORD:

But his ²secret is with the upright.

33 The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked;

But he blesseth the habitation of the
righteous.

34 ³Surely he scorneth the scorners,
⁴But he giveth grace unto the lowly.

35 The wise shall inherit glory;
But ⁵shame shall be the promotion of fools.

4 HEAR, my sons, the instruction of
a father,

And attend to know understanding:

2 For I give you good doctrine;
Forsake ye not my ⁶law.

3 For I was a son unto my father, Tender and ⁷only beloved in the sight
of my mother.

4 And he taught me, and said unto me,
Let thine heart retain my words;
Keep my commandments, and live:

5 Get wisdom, get understanding;
Forget it not, neither decline from the words of my mouth:

6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve
thee;

Love her, and she shall keep thee.

⁸Wisdom is the principal thing; there- 7
fore get wisdom:

Yea, with all thou hast gotten get understanding.

Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: 8
She shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.

She shall give to thine head a chaplet of 9
grace:

A crown of ⁹beauty shall she deliver to
thee.

Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; 10

And the years of thy life shall be many.

I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; 11

I have led thee in paths of uprightness.

When thou goest, thy steps shall not be 12
straitened;

And if thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.

Take fast hold of instruction; let her not 13
go:

Keep her; for she is thy life.

Enter not into the path of the wicked, 14

And walk not in the way of evil men.

Avoid it, pass not by it; 15

Turn from it, and pass on.

For they sleep not, except they have 16
done mischief;

And their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

For they eat the bread of wickedness, 17

And drink the wine of violence.

But the path of the righteous is as ¹⁰the 18
shining light,

That shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

The way of the wicked is as darkness: 19

They know not at what they stumble.

My son, attend to my words; 20

Incline thine ear unto my sayings.

Let them not depart from thine eyes; 21

Keep them in the midst of thine heart.

For they are life unto those that find 22
them,

And health to all their flesh.

And rivers of water in the streets?
Let them be for thyself alone, ¹⁷
And not for strangers with thee.
- Let thy fountain be blessed; ¹⁸
And rejoice in the wife of thy youth.
- As a loving hind and a pleasant doe, ¹⁹
Let her breasts satisfy thee at all times;
And ²⁰be thou ravished always with her love.
- For why shouldst thou, my son, ²⁰be ravished with a strange woman,
And embrace the bosom of a stranger?
For the ways of man are before the eyes ²¹of the LORD,
And he ¹⁰maketh level all his paths.
- His own iniquities shall take the wicked, ²²
And he shall be holden with the cords of his sin.
- He shall die for lack of instruction; ²³
And in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

- 6 MY son, if thou art become surety

If thou hast stricken ¹¹thy hands for a stranger,
Thou art snared with the words of thy ²mouth,
Thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

Consider her ways, and be wise:

- 7 Which having no ¹chief,
Overseer, or ruler,
8 Provideth her meat in the summer,
And gathereth her food in the harvest.
9 How long wilt thou ²sleep, O sluggard?
When wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?
10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to ²sleep:
11 So shall thy poverty come as a ³robber,
And thy want as ⁴an armed man.
- 12 A worthless person, a man of iniquity;
He walketh with a froward mouth;
13 He winketh with his eyes, he ⁵speaketh
with his feet,
He ⁶maketh signs with his fingers;
14 Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth
evil continually;
He ⁷soweth discord.
15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly;
On a sudden shall he be broken, and that without remedy.
16 There be six things which the LORD
hateth;
Yea, seven which are an abomination
⁸unto him:
17 Haughty eyes, a lying tongue,
And hands that shed innocent blood;
18 An heart that deviseth wicked imagina-
tions,
Feet that be swift in running to mischief;
19 A false witness that ⁹uttereth lies,
And he that ⁷soweth discord among brethren.
- 20 My son, keep the commandment of thy father,
And forsake not the ¹⁰law of thy mother:
21 Bind them continually upon thine heart,
Tie them about thy neck.
22 When thou walkest, it shall lead thee;
When thou ¹¹ sleepest, it shall watch over
thee;
And when thou awakest, it shall talk
with thee.

4 Heb. a man with a shield.
9 Heb. breatheth out.
13 Or, their teaching

And reproofs of instruction are the way
of life:
To keep thee from the evil woman, 24
From the flattery of the stranger's tongue.
Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; 25
Neither let her take thee with her eyelids.
For on account of a whorish woman 26
a man is brought to a piece of bread:
And ¹⁴the adulteress hunteth for the precious life.
Can a man take fire in his bosom, 27
And his clothes not be burned?
Or can one walk upon hot coals, 28
And his feet not be scorched?
So he that goeth in to his neighbour's 29
wife;
Whosoever toucheth her shall not be ¹⁵unpunished.
Men do not despise a thief, if he steal 30
To satisfy his soul when he is hungry:
But if he be found, he shall restore 31
sevenfold;
He shall give all the substance of his house.
He that committeth adultery with a 32
woman is void of ¹⁶understanding;
He doeth it that would destroy his own
soul.
Wounds and dishonour shall he get; 33
And his reproach shall not be wiped
away.
For jealousy is the rage of a man; 34
And he will not spare in the day of vengeance.
He will not regard any ransom; 35
Neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

7 MY son, keep my words,
And lay up my commandments with
thee.
Keep my commandments and live; 2
And my ¹⁰law as the apple of thine eye.
Bind them upon thy fingers; 3
Write them upon the table of thine heart.
Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; 4
And call understanding thy ¹⁷kinswoman:

- 5 That they may keep thee from the strange woman,
From the stranger which ¹flattereth with her words.
- 6 For at the window of my house
I looked forth through my lattice;
- 7 And I beheld among the simple ones,
I discerned among the youths,
A young man void of understanding,
- 8 Passing through the street near her corner,
And he went the way to her house;
- 9 In the twilight, in the evening of the day,
In the ²blackness of night and the darkness.
- 10 And, behold, there met him a woman
With the attire of an harlot, and ³wily of heart.
- 11 She is ⁴clamorous and wilful;
Her feet abide not in her house:
- 12 Now she is in the streets, now in the broad places,
And lieth in wait at every corner.
- 13 So she caught him, and kissed him,
⁵And with an impudent face she said unto him:
- 14 Sacrifices of peace offerings ⁶are with me;
This day have I paid my vows.
- 15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee,
Diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.
- 16 I have spread my couch with ⁷carpets of tapestry,
With striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt.
- 17 I have ⁸perfumed my bed
With myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
- 18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning;
Let us solace ourselves with loves.
- 19 For the goodman is not at home,
He is gone a long journey:
- 20 He hath taken a bag of money with him;
He will come home at the full moon.
- 21 With her much fair speech she causeth him to yield,
With the flattering of her lips she forceth him away.
- 22 He goeth after her ⁹straightway,
- As an ox goeth to the slaughter,
Or as ¹⁰fetters to the correction of the fool;
Till an arrow strike through his liver; 23
As a bird hasteth to the snare,
And knoweth not that it is for his life.
Now therefore, my sons, hearken unto 24
me,
And attend to the words of my mouth.
Let not thine heart decline to her ways, 25
Go not astray in her paths.
For she hath cast down many wounded: 26
Yea, all her slain are a mighty host.
Her house is the way to ¹¹Sheol, 27
Going down to the chambers of death.
- 8 DOTH not wisdom cry,
And understanding put forth her voice?
In the top of high places by the way, 2
Where the paths meet, she standeth;
Beside the gates, at the entry of the city, 3
At the coming in at the doors, she crieth aloud:
Unto you, O men, I call; 4
And my voice is to the sons of men.
O ye simple, understand ¹²subtily; 5
And, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.
Hear, for I will speak excellent things; 6
And the opening of my lips shall be right things.
For my mouth shall utter truth; 7
And wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
All the words of my mouth ¹³are in 8
righteousness;
There is nothing crooked or perverse in them.
They are all plain to him that under- 9
standeth,
And right to them that find knowledge.
Receive my instruction, and not silver; 10
And knowledge rather than choice gold.
For wisdom is better than rubies; 11
And all the things that may be desired
are not to be compared unto her.

 13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil:
 Pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way,
 And the froward mouth, do I hate.
 14 Counsel is mine, and ²sound knowledge:
 I am understanding; I have might.
 15 By me kings reign,
 And princes decree justice.
 16 By me ³princes rule,
 And nobles, even all the judges ⁴of the
 earth.
 17 I love them that love me;
 And those that seek me ⁵diligently shall find me.
 18 Riches and honour are with me;
 Yea, ⁶durable riches and righteousness.
 19 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold;
 And my ⁷revenue than choice silver.
 20 I walk in the way of righteousness,
 In the midst of the paths of judgement:
 21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance,
 And that I may fill their treasures.
 22 The LORD ⁸possessed me ⁹in the beginning of his way,
¹⁰Before his works of old.
 23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning,
 Or ever the earth was.
 24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth;
 When there were no fountains abound-
 ing with water.
 25 Before the mountains were settled,
 Before the hills was I brought forth:
 26 While as yet he had not made the earth,
 nor the fields,
 Nor the ¹¹beginning of the dust of the world.
 27 When he ¹²established the heavens, I was there:
 When he set a circle upon the face of the deep:
 28 When he made firm the skies above:
 When the fountains of the deep became strong:
 29 When he gave to the sea ¹³its bound,

That the waters should not transgress
 his commandment:
 When he ¹⁴marked out the foundations
 of the earth:
 Then I was by him, as a master work- 30
 man:
 And I ¹⁵was daily his delight,
¹⁶Rejoicing always before him;
¹⁷Rejoicing in his habitable earth; 31
 And my delight was with the sons of men.
 Now therefore, my sons, hearken unto 32
 me:
 For blessed are they that keep my ways.
 Hear instruction, and be wise, 33
 And refuse it not.
 Blessed is the man that heareth me, 34
 Watching daily at my gates,
 Waiting at the posts of my doors.
 For whoso findeth me findeth life, 35
 And shall ¹⁷obtain favour of the LORD.
 But he that ¹⁸sinneth against me wrongeth 36
 his own soul:
 All they that hate me love death.

9 WISDOM hath builded her house,
 She hath hewn out her seven pillars:
 She hath killed her beasts; she hath 2
 mingled her wine;
 She hath also furnished her table.
 She hath sent forth her maidens, she 3 crieth
 Upon the highest places of the city,
 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: 4
 As for him that is void of understanding,
 she saith to him,
 Come, eat ye of my bread, 5
 And drink of the wine which I have mingled.
¹⁹Leave off, ye simple ones, and live; 6
 And walk in the way of understanding.

He that correcteth a scorner getteth to 7
 himself shame:
 And he that reproveth a wicked man
 getteth himself a blot.
 Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: 8
 Reprove a wise man, and he will love thee.

10 THE proverbs of Solomon.

A wise son maketh a glad father:
But a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

- 2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing:
But righteousness delivereth from death.
- 3 The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish:
But he thrusteth away the desire of the wicked.
- 4 He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand:
But the hand of the diligent maketh rich.
- 5 He that gathereth in summer is ⁴a wise son:
But he that sleepeth in harvest is a son ⁵that causeth shame.

Blessings are upon the head of the ⁶righteous:
But ⁶violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

The memory of the just is blessed: 7
But the name of the wicked shall rot.

The wise in heart will receive command- 8
ments:
But ⁷a prating fool ⁸shall fall.

He that walketh uprightly walketh 9
surely:
But he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

He that winketh with the eye causeth 10
sorrow:
⁹But ⁷a prating fool ⁸shall fall.

The mouth of the righteous is a fount- 11
ain of life:
But ⁶violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

Hatred stirreth up strifes: 12
But love covereth all transgressions.

In the lips of him that hath discernment 13
wisdom is found:
But a rod is for the back of him that is void of ¹⁰understanding.

Wise men lay up knowledge: 14
But the mouth of the foolish is a present destruction.

The rich man's wealth is his strong city: 15
The destruction of the poor is their poverty.

The labour of the righteous tendeth to 16
life;
The increase of the wicked to sin.

He ¹¹is in the way of life that heedeth 17 ¹²correction:
But he that forsaketh reproof ¹³ereth.

He that hideth hatred is of lying lips; 18
And he that uttereth a slander is a fool.

In the multitude of words there wanteth 19
not transgression:
But he that refraineth his lips ¹⁴doeth wisely.

The tongue of the righteous is as choice 20
silver:
The heart of the wicked is little worth.

The lips of the righteous feed many: 21

1 Or, Folly 2 Heb. simplicity. 3 Or, the shades Heb. Rephaim. 4 Or, a son that doeth wisely 5 Or, that doeth shamefully 6 Or, the mouth of the wicked covereth violence 7 Heb. the foolish of lips. 8 Or, shall be overthrown or laid low 9 The Sept. and Syr. read, But he that rebuketh openly maketh peace. 10 Heb. heart. 11 Or, is a way 12 Or, instruction 13 Or, causeth to err 14 Or, is wise

- But the foolish die for lack of ¹understanding.
- 22 The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, And ²he addeth no sorrow therewith.
- 23 It is as sport to a fool to do wickedness: ³And so is wisdom to a man of understanding.
- 24 The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: And the desire of the righteous shall be granted.
- 25 ⁴When the whirlwind passeth, the wicked is no more: But the righteous is an everlasting foundation.
- 26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, So is the sluggard to them that send him.
- 27 The fear of the LORD ⁵prolongeth days: But the years of the wicked shall be shortened.
- 28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: But the expectation of the wicked shall perish.
- 29 The way of the LORD is a strong hold to the upright; But ⁶it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.
- 30 The righteous shall never be removed: But the wicked shall not dwell in the ⁷land.
- 31 The mouth of the righteous ⁸bringeth forth wisdom: But the froward tongue shall be cut off.
- 32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: But the mouth of the wicked ⁹speaketh frowardness.
- 11 ¹⁰A false balance is an abomination to the LORD: But a just weight is his delight.
- 2 When pride cometh, then cometh shame: But with the lowly is wisdom.
- 3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them: But the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them.

Riches profit not in the day of wrath: ⁴ But righteousness delivereth from death. The righteousness of the perfect shall ⁵direct his way: But the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness. The righteousness of the upright shall ⁶deliver them: But they that deal treacherously shall be taken in their own mischief. When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: And the hope of ⁷iniquity perisheth. The righteous is delivered out of trouble, ⁸ And the wicked cometh in his stead. With his mouth the godless man ⁹destroyeth his neighbour: But through knowledge shall the righteous be delivered. When it goeth well with the righteous, ¹⁰ the city rejoiceth: And when the wicked perish, there is shouting. By the blessing of the upright the city is ¹¹exalted: But it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked. He that despiseth his neighbour is void ¹² of ¹wisdom: But a man of understanding holdeth his peace. He that goeth about as a talebearer ¹³re-veal-eth secrets: But he that is of a faithful spirit conceal-eth the matter. Where no wise guidance is, the people ¹⁴fall-eth: But in the multitude of counsellors there is safety. He that is surety for a stranger ¹⁵shall smart for it: But he that hateth ¹⁴suretiship is sure. A gracious woman retaineth honour: ¹⁶ And violent men retain riches. The merciful man doeth good to his ¹⁷own soul: But he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

shall come unto him.

A good man shall obtain favour of the 2
LORD:

rottenness in his bones.

The thoughts of the righteous are ⁹just: 5
But the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

The words of the wicked ¹⁰are of lying 6

to his wisdom:

By mercy and truth iniquity is ¹⁰purged: 6
And by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.

When a man's ways please the LORD, 7

- 14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death:
But a wise man will pacify it.
- 15 In the light of the king's countenance is life;
And his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.
- 16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold!
Yea, to get understanding is rather to be chosen than silver.
- 17 The high way of the upright is to depart from evil:
He that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.
- 18 Pride goeth before destruction,
And an haughty spirit before a fall.
- 19 Better it is to be of a lowly spirit with the ¹poor,
Than to divide the spoil with the proud.
- 20 He that ²giveth heed unto the word shall find good:
And whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.
- 21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent:
And the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.
- 22 Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him that hath it:
But the correction of fools is their folly.
- 23 The heart of the wise instructeth his mouth,
And addeth learning to his lips.
- 24 Pleasant words are as a honeycomb,
Sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.
- 25 There is a way which ³seemeth right unto a man,
But the end thereof are the ways of death.
- 26 The appetite of the labouring man laboureth for him;
For his mouth ⁴craveth it of him.
- 27 A worthless man ⁵deviseth mischief:
And in his lips there is as a scorching fire.
- 28 A froward man scattereth abroad strife:
And a whisperer ⁶separateth chief friends.

A man of violence enticeth his neighbour,
And leadeth him in a way that is not good.

⁷He that shutteth his eyes, it is to devise froward things:
He that compresseth his lips bringeth evil to pass.

The hoary head is a crown of ⁸glory, 31
⁹It shall be found in the way of righteousness.

He that is slow to anger is better than the 32
mighty;
And he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

The lot is cast into the lap; 33
But the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD.

17 Better is a dry morsel and quietness therewith,
Than an house full of ¹⁰feasting with strife.

A servant that dealeth wisely shall have 2
rule over a son that ¹¹causeth shame,
And shall have part in the inheritance among the brethren.

The fining pot is for silver, and the 3
furnace for gold:
But the LORD trieth the hearts.

An evil-doer giveth heed to wicked lips; 4
And ¹²a liar giveth ear to a mischievous tongue.

Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth 5

Both of them alike are an abomination to the LORD.

He that raiseth high his gate seeketh destruction.

And the father of a fool hath no joy.

- 22 A merry heart ⁶is a good medicine:
But a broken spirit drieth up the bones.

- 23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom,
To pervert the ways of judgement.

Wisdom is before the face of him that hath understanding:

But the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

A foolish son is a grief to his father,
And bitterness to her that bare him.

Also to ⁷punish the righteous is not good,

Nor to smite the noble for their uprightness.

⁸He that spareth his words hath knowledge:

And he that is of a cool spirit is a man of understanding.

Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, ⁸is counted wise:

⁹When he shutteth his lips, he is esteemed as prudent.

18 He that separateth himself seeketh his own desire,

And ¹⁰rageth against all sound wisdom.

A fool hath no delight in understanding, ²But only that his heart may reveal itself.

When the wicked cometh, there cometh ³also contempt,

And with ignominy cometh reproach.

The words of a man's mouth are as deep ⁴waters;

¹¹The wellspring of wisdom is as a flowing brook.

To accept the person of the wicked is ⁵not good,

A fool's lips ¹³enter into contention, ⁶And his mouth calleth for stripes.

A fool's mouth is his destruction, ⁷And his lips are the snare of his soul.

The words of a whisperer are as dainty ⁸morsels,

Through wisdom is an house builded; 3
And by understanding it is established:
And by knowledge are the chambers 4
filled

With all precious and pleasant riches.
A wise man ¹¹is strong; 5
Yea, a man of knowledge ¹²increaseth might.

For by wise guidance thou shalt make 6
thy war:
And in the multitude of counsellors
there is ¹³safety.

Wisdom is too high for a fool: 7
He openeth not his mouth in the gate.

He that deviseth to do evil, 8
Men shall call him a mischievous person.

The thought of ¹⁴the foolish is sin: 9
And the scorner is an abomination to
men.

If thou faint in the day of adversity, 10
Thy strength is small.

Deliver them that are carried away unto 11
death,

And those that are ¹⁵ready to be slain
¹⁶see that thou hold back.

If thou sayest, Behold, we knew not 12
¹⁷this:

Doth not he that weigheth the hearts
consider it?

And he that keepeth thy soul, doth not
he know it?

And shall not he render to every man
according to his work?

My son, eat thou honey, for it is good; 13

thy taste:

So shalt thou know wisdom to be unto 14
thy soul:

25 THESE also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: ²
But the glory of kings is to search out a matter.

The heaven for height, and the earth for ³depth,
And the heart of kings is unsearchable.

Take away the dross from the silver, ⁴
And there cometh forth a vessel for the finer:

Take away the wicked from before the ⁵king,

⁸Put not thyself forward in the presence ⁶of the king,
And stand not in the place of great men:

For better is it that it be said unto thee, ⁷
Come up hither;
Than that thou shouldest be put lower

Whom thine eyes have seen.

Strength and dignity are her clothing; 25
And she laugheth at the time to come.
She openeth her mouth with wisdom; 26
And the ⁸law of kindness is on her

She looketh well to the ways of her 27

And cateth not the bread of idleness.
Her children rise up, and call her 28

Her husband also, and he praiseth her,
saying:
Many daughters have done virtuously, 29
But thou excellest them all.
Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: 30
But a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised.
Give her of the fruit of her hands; 31
And let her works praise her in the gates.

OR, THE PREACHER

- 1 THE words of ⁹the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.
- 2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher;
- 3 vanity of vanities, all is vanity. What profit hath man of all his labour wherein
- 4 he laboureth under the sun? One generation goeth, and another generation com-5 eth; and the earth abideth for ever. The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down,
and hasteth to his place where he ariseth.

The wind goeth toward the south, and 6
turneth about unto the north; it turneth about continually in its course, and the wind returneth again to its circuits. All 7
the ¹⁰rivers run into the sea, yet the sea
is not full; unto the place whither the rivers go, thither they go again. ¹¹All 8
things are full of weariness; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 That which hath been is that which shall be; and that which hath been done is that which shall be done: and there is 10 no new thing under the sun. Is there a thing whereof men say, See, this is new? it hath been already, in the ages which 11 were before us. There is no remembrance of the former generations; neither shall there be any remembrance of the latter generations that are to come, among those that shall come after.

12 I the Preacher was king over Israel in 13 Jerusalem. And I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under heaven: it is a sore travail that God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised there-14 with. I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and ¹a striving after wind.
15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and ²that which is wanting can-
16 not be numbered. I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I have gotten me great wisdom ³above all that were before me ⁴in Jerusalem: yea, my heart ⁵hath had great experience of wis-
17 dom and knowledge. And I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this 18 also was a striving after wind. For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

2 I SAID in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth; ⁶therefore enjoy ⁷pleasure: and, behold, this
2 also was vanity. I said of laughter, It is 3 mad: and of mirth, What doeth it? I searched in mine heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, mine heart yet ⁸guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold on folly, till I might see what it was good for the sons of men that they should do 4 under the heaven ⁹all the days of their 4 life. I made me great works; I builded
5 me houses; I planted me vineyards; I made me gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit: I made me pools of water, to water 6 therefrom the forest where trees were reared: I bought menservants and maid- 7 ens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all that were before me in Jerusalem: I gathered me also silver and 8 gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men singers and women singers, and the de- lights of the sons of men, ¹⁰concubines very many. So I was great, and in- 9 creased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom ¹¹re- mained with me. And whatsoever mine 10 eyes desired I kept not from them: I withheld not my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my la- bour; and this was my portion from all my labour. Then I looked on all the 11 works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

And I turned myself to behold wis- 12 dom, and madness and folly: for what can the man do that cometh ¹²after the king? even that which hath been already done. Then I saw that wisdom excelleth 13 folly, as far as light excelleth darkness. The wise man's eyes are in his head, and ¹⁴the fool walketh in darkness: and yet I perceived that one event happeneth to them all. Then said I in my heart, As it 15 happeneth to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also was vanity. For of the wise man, 16 even as of the fool, there is no remem- brance for ever; seeing that in the days to come all will have been already for- gotten. And how doth the wise man die even as the fool! So I hated life; because 17 the work that is wrought under the sun whom they made king long ago? Or, after the king, in those things which have been already done?

was grievous unto me: for all is vanity and a striving after wind.

- 18 And I hated all my labour wherein I laboured under the sun; seeing that I must leave it unto the man that shall be after me. And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity. Therefore I turned about to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labour wherein I had laboured under the sun. For there is a man whose labour is with wisdom, and with knowledge, and with ¹skilfulness; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he ²leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil. For what hath a man of all his labour, and of the ³striving of his heart, wherein he laboureth under the sun? For all his days are but sorrows, and his travail is grief; yea, even in the night his heart taketh no rest. This also is vanity.
- 24 There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God. For who can eat, or who can ⁴have enjoyment, ⁵more than I? For to the man that pleaseth him God giveth wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that pleaseth God. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

- 3 TO every thing there is a season, and a time to every ⁶purpose under the heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace. What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth? I have seen the travail which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised therewith. He hath made every thing beautiful in its time: also he hath set ⁷the world in their heart, yet so that man cannot find out the work that God hath done from the beginning even to the end. I know that there is nothing better for ⁸12 them, than to rejoice, and ⁹to do good so long as they live. And also that every ¹⁰13 man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labour, is the gift of God. I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it ¹¹14 shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God hath done it, that men should fear before him. ¹²That which is hath been already; ¹³15 and that which is to be hath already been; and God seeketh again that which is ¹⁴passed away.

And moreover I saw under the sun, ¹⁵16 in the place of judgement, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there. I ¹⁶17 said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every ¹⁷purpose and for every work. ¹⁸11 I said in mine heart, It is ¹⁹18 because of the sons of men, that God may prove them, and that they may see that they themselves are but as beasts. For ²⁰12 that which befalleth the sons of men ²¹19 befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one ²²breath; and man hath no preeminence above the beasts: for all is vanity. All go unto one ²³20 place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again. Who knoweth the spirit ²⁴of ²⁵21 man ²⁶whether it goeth upward, and the

9 Or, That which hath been is now 10 Heb. driven away. 11 Or, I said in mine heart concerning the sons of men, It is that God &c. 12 Or, the sons of men are a chance, and the beasts are a chance, and one &c. 13 Or, spirit 14 Heb. of the sons of men. 15 Or, that goeth

spirit of the beast ¹whether it goeth 22 downward to the earth? Wherefore I saw that there is nothing better, than
that a man should rejoice in his works;
for that is his portion: for who shall bring him back to see what shall be
after him?

4 THEN I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power, but they had no 2 comforter. Wherefore I praised the dead whom are already dead more than the 3 living which are yet alive; yea, ²better than them both did I esteem him which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 Then I saw all labour and every ³skilful work, that ⁴for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This also is vanity and 5 a striving after wind. The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own 6 flesh. Better is an handful ⁵with quietness, than two handfuls ⁵with labour and striving after wind.

7 Then I returned and saw vanity under 8 the sun. There is one that is alone, and he hath not a second; yea, he hath neither son nor brother; yet is there no end of all his labour, neither are his eyes satisfied with riches. For whom then, saith he, do I labour, and deprive my soul of good? This also is vanity, yea, it is a 9 sore travail. Two are better than one;
because they have a good reward for 10 their labour. For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth, and hath 11 not another to lift him up. Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth: but 12 how can one be warm alone? And if a man prevail against him that is alone,
two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king, who knoweth

not how to receive admonition any more.
For out of prison he came forth to be ¹⁴a
king; ⁶yea, even in his kingdom he was born poor. I saw all the living which ¹⁵ walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the second, that stood up in his stead. ⁷There was no end of all the ¹⁶ people, even of all them over whom he was: yet they that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

5 KEEP thy foot when thou goest to the house of God; for to draw nigh
to hear is better than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they know not that they do evil. Be not rash with thy mouth, and ² let not thine heart be hasty to utter ⁸any thing before God; for God is in heaven,
and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few. For a dream cometh with ³
a multitude of ⁹business; and a fool's voice with a multitude of words. When ⁴ thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou vowest. Bet- ⁵
ter is it that thou shouldst not vow,
than that thou shouldst vow and not pay. Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy ⁶ flesh to sin; neither say thou before the ¹⁰angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands? ¹¹For ⁷
thus it cometh to pass through the multitude of dreams and vanities and many words: but fear thou God.

If thou seest the oppression of the ⁸
poor, and the violent taking away of judgement and justice in ¹²a province,
marvel not at the matter: for one higher than the high regardeth; and there be higher than they. ¹³Moreover the profit ⁹
of the earth is for all: the king himself
is served by the field.

He that loveth silver shall not be satis- ¹⁰
fied with silver; nor he that loveth
abundance with increase: this also is 11 vanity. When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what advantage is there to the owner thereof, saving the beholding of them with his eyes? The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the fulness of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept by the owner thereof to his hurt: and those riches perish by evil ¹adventure; and if he hath begotten a son, there is nothing in his hand. As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his labour, which he may carry away in his hand. And this also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit hath he that he laboureth for the wind? ²All his days also he catcheth in darkness, and he is sore vexed and hath sickness and wrath.

18 Behold, ³that which I have seen to be good and to be comely is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labour, wherein he laboureth under the sun, ⁴all the days of his life which God hath given him: for this is his portion. Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God. For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

6 THERE is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy upon men: a man to whom God giveth riches, wealth, and honour, so that he lacketh nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it; this is vanity, and it is an evil disease. If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, but his soul be not filled with good, and moreover he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he: for it cometh in vanity, and departeth in darkness, and the name thereof is covered with darkness; moreover it hath not seen the sun ⁵nor known it; ⁶this hath rest rather than the other: yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet enjoy no good: do not all go to one place? All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. For what advantage hath the wise more than the fool? ⁷or what hath the poor man, that knoweth to walk before the living? Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

⁸Whatsoever hath been, the name ¹⁰thereof was given long ago, and it is known that it is ⁹man: neither can he contend with him that is mightier than he. Seeing there be many ¹⁰things that increase vanity, what is man the better? For who knoweth what is good for man ¹²in his life, ¹¹all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

7 A GOOD name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth. It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart. Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made ¹¹glad. The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity. ¹²Surely extortion maketh a wise man

¹ Or, travail ² The Sept. has, All his days are in darkness and mourning, and much vexation and sickness and wrath. ³ Or, that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one &c. ⁴ Heb. the number of the days. ⁵ Or, neither had any knowledge ⁶ Or, it is better with this than with the other ⁷ Or, or the poor man that hath understanding, in walking before the living ⁸ Or, Whatsoever he be, his name was given him long ago, and it is known that he is man ⁹ Heb. foolish; and a gift destroyeth the under-8 standing. Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the pa-9 tient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. Be not hasty in thy spirit to be 10 ¹angry: for ²anger resteth in the bosom of fools. Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire ³wisely 11 concerning this. Wisdom ⁴is as good as an inheritance: yea, more excellent is it 12 for them that see the sun. For wisdom is a defence, even as money is a defence:
 but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom preserveth the life of him that 13 hath it. Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight, which he 14 hath made crooked? In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider: God hath even made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out any thing that shall be after him.

15 All this have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a righteous man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life 16 in his evil-doing. Be not righteous over much; neither make thyself over wise:
 17 why shouldest thou destroy thyself? Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die before 18 thy time? It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from that withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.
 19 Wisdom is a strength to the wise man
 more than ten rulers which are in a city.
 20 ⁵Surely there is not a righteous man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.
 21 Also ⁶take not heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant
 22 curse thee: for oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise
 hast cursed others.
 23 All this have I ⁷proved in wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. That which ⁸is is far off, and exceed-24 ing deep; who can find it out? I turned ⁹ about, and my heart was set to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the reason of things, and to know ¹⁰that wickedness is folly, and that foolishness

 is madness: and I find a thing more bit-26 ter than death, even the woman ¹⁰whose
 heart is snares and nets, and her hands
 as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her. Behold, this have I found, ²⁷ saith the Preacher, ¹¹laying one thing to another, to find out the account: which ²⁸
 my soul still seeketh, but I have not found: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found. Behold, this only have ²⁹
 I found, that God made man upright;
 but they have sought out many inventions.

8 WHO is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the ¹²hardness of his face is changed. I counsel thee, Keep the ² king's command, and that in regard of the oath of God. Be not hasty to go out ³ of his presence; persist not in an evil
 thing: for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth
 him. Because the king's word hath ⁴ power; and who may say unto him,
 What doest thou? Whoso keepeth the ⁵ commandment shall know no evil thing;
 and a wise man's heart discerneth time
 and judgement: for to every ¹³purpose ⁶
 there is a time and judgement; because the ¹⁴misery of man is great upon him:
 for he knoweth not that which shall be; ⁷ ¹⁵for who can tell him how it shall be?
 There is no man that hath power over ⁸
 the ¹⁶spirit to retain the ¹⁶spirit; neither hath he power over the day of death; and there is no discharge ¹⁷in that war: neither shall wickedness deliver him that is given to it. All this have I seen, and ⁹ applied my heart unto every work that

1 Or, vexed 2 Or, vexation 3 Heb. out of wisdom. 4 Or, is good together with an inheritance: and profitable unto them &c. 5 Or, For 6 Heb. give not thine heart. 7 Or, tried by 8 Or, hath been 9 Or, the wickedness of folly, and foolishness which is madness 10 Or, who is a snare, and her heart is as nets 11 Or, weighing one thing after another, to find out the reason 12 Heb. strength. 13 Or, matter 14 Or, evil 15 Or, for even when it cometh to pass, who shall declare it unto him? 16 Or, wind 17 Or, in battle is done under the sun: ¹there is a time wherein one man hath power over another ²to his hurt.

10 And withal I saw the wicked buried, ³and they came to the grave; and they that had done right went away from the holy place, and were forgotten in the city: this also is vanity. Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is ⁴fully set in them to do evil.

12 Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and prolong his days, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that

13 fear God, which fear before him: but it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before

14 God. There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be righteous men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous:

15 I said that this also is vanity. Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: ⁵for that shall abide with him in his labour all the days of his life which God hath given him under the sun.

16 When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the ⁶business that is done upon the earth: (⁷for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep

17 with his eyes:) then I beheld all the work of God, that man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because however much a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea moreover, though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find

9 it. For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this; that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: whether it be love or hatred, man knoweth it not; all is before them. All things come alike to 2 all: there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good ⁸and to the clean and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath. This is an evil in all that is done 3 under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. ⁹For to him that is joined with all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion. For the living know that they shall die: 5 but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. As well 6 their love, as their hatred and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, 7 and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God hath already accepted thy works. Let thy garments be always white; and 8 let not thy head lack ointment. ¹⁰Live 9 joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in life, and in thy labour wherein thou labourest under the sun. Whatso- 10 ever thy hand ¹¹findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in ¹²the grave, whither thou goest.

I returned, and saw under the sun, 11 that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all. For man also knoweth not 12 his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

- 13 I have also seen wisdom under the sun on this wise, and it seemed great unto me: there was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it: now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.
16 Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

- 17 The words of the wise ¹*spoken* in quiet are heard more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools. Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner 10 destroyeth much good. Dead flies cause the ointment of the perfumer ²*to send forth a stinking savour*: so doth a little folly ³*outweigh* wisdom and honour. A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart is at his left. Yea also, when the fool walketh by the way, his ⁴*understanding* faileth him, and he saith ⁵*to every one that* he is a fool. If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for ⁶*yielding* allayeth great offences. There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as it were an error which proceedeth from the ruler: folly is set in great ⁷*dignity*, and the rich sit in low place.
7 I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth. He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh through a fence, a serpent shall bite him. Whoso ⁸*heweth out stones* shall be hurt thereby; and he that cleaveth wood is endangered thereby. If the iron be blunt, and one do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct, ⁹*If the ser-* pent bite ¹⁰*before* it be charmed, then is there no advantage in ¹¹*the* charmer. The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself. The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of ¹²*his* talk is mischievous madness. A fool also multiplieth words; yet man knoweth not what shall be; and that which shall be after him, who can tell him? The labour of fools wearieth every one of them, for he knoweth not how to go to the city. Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a ¹³*child*, and thy princes eat in the morning! Happy art thou, O land, when thy king is ¹⁴*the son of nobles*, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness! By slothfulness the ¹⁵*roof* sinketh in; and through idleness of the hands the house leaketh. A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh glad the life: and money answereth all things. Curse not the king, no, not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

11 ¹⁶*CAST* thy bread ¹⁷*upon* the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days. ¹⁸*Give* a portion to seven, yea, even unto eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth. If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if a tree fall ¹⁹*toward* the south, or ²⁰*toward* the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there shall it be. He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap. As thou knowest not what is the way of the ²¹*wind*, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child; even so thou knowest not the work of God who doeth all. In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not which shall prosper, whether this or that, or whether

7 they both shall be alike good. Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun. ¹Yea, if a man live many years, let him rejoice in them all; ²but let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgement. Therefore remove ³sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for youth and the prime of life are vanity. Remember also thy

12 Creator in the days of thy youth, or ever the evil days come, and the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; or ever the sun, and the light, and the moon, and the stars, be darkened, and the clouds return after the rain: in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the ⁴grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened, and the doors shall be shut in the street; when the sound of the grinding is low, and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low; yea, they shall be afraid ⁵of that which is high, and terrors shall be in the way; and the almond tree shall blossom, and the grasshopper ⁶shall be a burden, and ⁷the caper-berry shall ⁸fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets: or ever the silver cord be ⁹loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern; and the dust return to the earth as it was, and the spirit return unto God who gave it. Vanity of vanities, ⁸saith the Preacher; all is vanity.

And further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he ¹⁰pondered, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs. The Preacher sought to find out ¹¹acceptable words, and that which was written uprightly, even words of truth.

The words of the wise are as goads, ¹¹and as nails well fastened are the words of the ¹²masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd. ¹³And furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

¹⁴This is the end of the matter; all hath been heard: fear God, and keep his commandments; for ¹⁵this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgement, ¹⁶with every hidden thing, whether it be good or whether it be evil.

THE SONG OF SONGS

1 THE Song of songs, which is Solomon's.

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth:

For thy love is better than wine.

3 Thine ointments have a goodly fragrance;

Thy name is as ointment poured forth;

Therefore do the ¹⁷virgins love thee.

Draw me; we will run after thee:

The king hath brought me into his chambers:

We will be glad and rejoice in thee,

1 Or, For 2 Or, and remember 3 Or, vexation Or, provocation 4 Or, grinding women

13 Or, And as for more than these, my son, be warned 14 Or, Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter 15 Or, this is the duty of all men 16 Or, concerning 17 Or, maidens

We will make mention of thy love more than of wine:

¹Rightly do they love thee.

5 I am black, but comely,
O ye daughters of Jerusalem,
As the tents of Kedar,
As the curtains of Solomon.

6 Look not upon me, because I am swarthy,
Because the sun hath ²scorched me.
My mother's sons were incensed against
me,

They made me keeper of the vineyards;
But mine own vineyard have I not kept.

7 Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, Where thou feedest thy flock, where thou makest it to rest at noon:

For why should I be as one that ³is veiled

Beside the flocks of thy companions?

8 If thou know not, O thou fairest among women,

Go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock,

And feed thy kids beside the shepherds'
tents.

9 I have compared thee, O ⁴my love,

⁵To a steed in Pharaoh's chariots.

10 Thy cheeks are comely with plaits of hair,
Thy neck with strings of jewels.

11 We will make thee plaits of gold
With studs of silver.

12 While the king sat at his table,
My spikenard sent forth its fragrance.

13 My beloved is unto me as a ⁶bundle of myrrh,
That lieth betwixt my breasts.

14 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of ⁷henna-flowers
In the vineyards of En-gedi.

thou art fair;

Until it please.

The voice of my beloved! behold, he ⁸
cometh,

Leaping upon the mountains, skipping
upon the hills.

My beloved is like a ¹⁹roe or a young hart: ⁹

Behold, he standeth behind our wall,

He looketh in at the windows,

He ²⁰sheweth himself through the lattice.

My beloved spake, and said unto me, ¹⁰

Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come
away.

For, lo, the winter is past, ¹¹

The rain is over and gone;

The flowers appear on the earth; ¹²

The time of the ²¹singing of birds is come,

And the voice of the turtle is heard in
our land;

13 The fig tree ripeneth her green figs,
And the vines are in blossom,
They give forth their fragrance.
Arise, my love, my fair one, and come
away.

14 O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the covert of the steep place,
Let me see thy countenance, let me
hear thy voice;
For sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

15 Take us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vineyards;
For our vineyards are in blossom.

16 My beloved is mine, and I am his:
He feedeth his flock among the lilies.

17 ¹Until the day ²be cool, and the shadows
flee away,

Turn, my beloved, and be thou like a ³roe or a young hart

Upon the ⁴mountains of ⁵Bether.

3 By night on my bed I sought him
whom my soul loveth:

I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I said, I will rise now, and go about the city,

In the streets and in the broad ways,
I will seek him whom my soul loveth:
I sought him, but I found him not.

3 The watchmen that go about the city
found me:

To whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

4 It was but a little that I passed from
them,

When I found him whom my soul loveth:
I held him, and would not let him go,
Until I had brought him into my mother's house,
And into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
By the roes, and by the hinds of the field,
That ye stir not up, nor awaken love,
Until it please.

6 Who is this that cometh up out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke,

Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
With all powders of the merchant?
Behold, it is the litter of Solomon; 7
Threescore mighty men are about it,
Of the mighty men of Israel.

They all handle the sword, and are 8
expert in war:

Every man hath his sword upon his thigh,

Because of fear in the night.

He made the pillars thereof of silver, 10
The bottom thereof of gold, the seat of
it of purple,

The midst thereof being ⁷paved with love,

Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and 11
behold king Solomon,

With the crown wherewith his mother
hath crowned him in the day of his espousals,

And in the day of the gladness of his heart.

4 BEHOLD, thou art fair, my love;
behold, thou art fair;

are newly shorn,

Which are come up from the washing;

And none is bereaved among them.

Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, 3

And there is no spot in thee.

- 8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride,
With me from Lebanon:

'Look from the top of Amana,
From the top of Senir and Hermon,
From the lions' dens,
From the mountains of the leopards.

- 9 Thou hast ²ravished my heart, my sister,

Thou hast ³ravished my heart with ⁴one

How much better is thy love than wine!
And the smell of thine ointments than all manner of spices!

honeycomb:

Honey and milk are under thy tongue;
And the smell of thy garments is like

A well of living waters,
And flowing streams from Lebanon.

- 16 Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south;

Blow upon my garden, that the spices
thereof may flow out.

Let my beloved come into his garden,
And eat his precious fruits.

5 I AM come into my garden, my sister, my bride:

I have gathered my myrrh with my ⁸'spice;

I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;

I have drunk my wine with my milk.

Eat, O friends;

Drink, yea, drink abundantly, ⁹O beloved.

¹⁰I was asleep, but my heart waked: 2

It is the voice of my beloved that
knocketh, saying,

Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my ¹¹'undefiled:

For my head is filled with dew,

My locks with the drops of the night.

I have put off my coat; how shall I put 3
it on?

I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

My beloved put in his hand by the hole 4
of the door,

And my ¹²'heart was moved ¹³'for him.

I rose up to open to my beloved; 5

And my hands dropped with myrrh,

And my fingers with liquid myrrh,

Upon the handles of the bolt.

I opened to my beloved; 6

But my beloved had ¹⁴'withdrawn himself,
and was gone.

My soul ¹⁵'had failed me when he spake:

I sought him, but I could not find him;

I called him, but he gave me no answer.

The watchmen that go about the city 7
found me,

They smote me, they wounded me;

The keepers of the walls took away my brooks;

 the cedars.

 altogether lovely.
 This is my beloved, and this is my friend,
 O daughters of Jerusalem.

6 WHITHER is thy beloved gone,
O thou fairest among women?
Whither hath thy beloved turned him,
That we may seek him with thee?

- 2 My beloved is gone down to his garden,
 to the beds of ⁴spices,
 To feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.
3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine:
 He feedeth his flock among the lilies.
4 Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah,
 Comely as Jerusalem,
 Terrible as ¹¹an army with banners.
5 Turn away thine eyes from me,

 score concubines,

 and they praised her.

 people.

Let us see whether the vine hath budded,

There will I give thee my love.

And ⁷at our doors are all manner of precious fruits, new and old,
Which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

Leaning upon her beloved?

Under the apple tree I awakned thee:
There thy mother was in travail with
thee,

There was she in travail ¹¹that brought thee forth.

Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a 6
seal upon thine arm:

For love is strong as death;

Jealousy is ¹²cruel as ¹³the grave:

The flashes thereof are flashes of fire,

¹⁴A very flame of ¹⁵the LORD.

Many waters cannot quench love, 7
Neither can the floods drown it:

If a man would give all the substance of his house for love,

¹⁶He would utterly be contemned.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISALAH

1 THE vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

- 2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth, for the LORD hath spoken: I have ⁴nourished and brought up children, and
3 they have rebelled against me. The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my 4 people doth not consider. Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that deal corruptly: they have forsaken the LORD, they have despised the Holy One of Israel, they are estranged and gone backward.
5 ⁵Why will ye be still stricken, that ye revolt more and more? ⁶the whole head
6 is sick, and ⁶the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and ⁷festered sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up,
7 neither mollified with oil. Your country is desolate; your cities are burned with fire; your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, ⁸as over-
8 thrown by strangers. And the daughter of Zion is left as a booth in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city. Except the LORD of hosts ⁹had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

Hear the word of the LORD, ye ¹⁰rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the ¹⁰law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah. To what ¹¹purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats. When ye come ¹¹to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to trample my courts? Bring no more ¹³¹²vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; new moon and sabbath, the calling of assemblies,—¹³I cannot away with iniquity and the solemn meeting. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a ¹⁴trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them. And when ye spread forth your ¹⁵hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood. Wash you, make you clean; put away ¹⁶the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil: learn to do well; ¹⁷seek judgement, ¹⁵relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

- 18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: but if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.
- 21 How is the faithful city become an harlot! she that was full of judgement! righteousness lodged in her, but now murderers. Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water. Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.
- 24 Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies: and I will turn my hand upon thee, and throughly purge away thy dross, and will take away all thy tin: and I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called The city of righteousness, the faithful city. Zion shall be redeemed with judgement, and her converts with righteousness. But the destruction of the transgressors and the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed. For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen. For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water. And the strong shall be as tow, and his work as a spark; and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

2 THE word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

- 2 And it shall come to pass in the latter days, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. And many peoples shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. And he shall judge between the nations, and shall reprove many peoples: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD. For thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be filled with customs from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they strike hands with the children of strangers. Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land also is full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots. Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made. And the mean man is bowed down, and the great man is brought low: therefore forgive them not. Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, from before the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty. The lofty looks of man shall be brought low, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day. For there shall be a day of the LORD of hosts upon all that is proud and haughty, and upon all that is lifted up; and it shall be brought low: and upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan; and upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up; and upon every lofty tower, and upon every fenced loftiness of man shall be bowed down,

 and the haughtiness of men shall be brought low: and the LORD alone shall 18 be exalted in that day. And the idols 19 shall utterly pass away. And men shall go into the caves of the rocks, and into the holes of the 'earth, from before the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake 20 mightily the earth. In that day a man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made for him to worship, to the moles and to the 21 bats; to go into the caverns of the rocks,
 and into the clefts of the ragged rocks,
 from before the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake mightily the earth.
 22 ³Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of?

3 FOR, behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah stay and staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay 2 of water; the mighty man, and the man of war; the judge, and the prophet, and 3 the diviner, and the 'ancient; the captain of fifty, and the honourable man,
 and the counsellor, and the cunning
 4 'artificer, and the skilful enchanter. And I will give children to be their princes, 5 and 'babes shall rule over them. And the people shall be oppressed, every one
 by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the 'ancient, and the 6 base against the honourable. When a man shall take hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying, 'Thou hast clothing, be thou our 'ruler, and let this 7 ruin be under thy hand: in that day shall he lift up his voice, saying, I will not be 'an healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: ye shall not make 8 me ruler of the people. For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory. ⁹The shew of their countenance 9

 doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not.
 Woe unto their soul! for they have ¹⁰re-warded evil unto themselves. Say ye of the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. Woe unto the wicked! it shall 11 be ill with him: for the ¹¹reward of his hands shall be ¹²given him. As for my 12 people, children are their oppressors,
 and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and ¹³destroy the way of thy paths.
 The LORD standeth up to plead, and 13
 standeth to judge the ¹⁴peoples. The 14
 LORD will enter into judgement with the elders of his people, and the princes thereof: It is ye that have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses: what mean ye that ye crush my 15
 people, and grind the face of the poor?
 saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

Moreover the LORD said, Because the 16
 daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go,
 and making a tinkling with their feet:
 therefore the Lord will smite with a scab 17
 the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will lay bare their secret parts. In that day the Lord will 18
 take away the bravery of their anklets,
 and the ¹⁵cauls, and the crescents; the 19
 pendants, and the ¹⁶bracelets, and the mufflers; the headtires, and the ankle 20
 chains, and the sashes, and the perfume
 boxes, and the amulets; the rings, and 21
 the nose jewels; the festival robes, and 22
 the mantles, and the shawls, and the satchels; the hand mirrors, and the fine 23
 linen, and the turbans, and the veils.
 And it shall come to pass, that instead 24
 of sweet spices there shall be rottenness;
 and instead of a girdle a rope; and instead of well set hair baldness; and instead of a stomacher a girding of sackcloth:

3 rael. And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written ⁶among

4 the living in Jerusalem: when the LORD shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof, by the ⁷spirit of judgement, and

5 by the ⁸spirit of burning. And the LORD will create over ⁹the whole habitation of mount Zion, and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for over all the 6 glory shall be spread a canopy. And there shall be a pavilion for a shadow in the day-time from the heat, and for a refuge and for a covert from storm and from rain.

5 LET me sing ¹⁰for my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved had a vine-

2 yard in ¹¹a very fruitful hill: and he ¹²made a trench about it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also hewed out a ¹³winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought

3 forth wild grapes. And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my 4 vineyard. What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes? And now go to; 5 I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be ¹⁴eatn up; I will break down the fence thereof, and it shall be trodden down: and I will lay it waste; 6 it shall not be pruned nor hoed; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. For the vineyard 7 of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah ¹⁵his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgement, but behold ¹⁶oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry.

Woe unto them that join house to 8 house, that lay field to field, till there be no room, and ye be made to dwell alone in the midst of the land! In mine ears 9 saith the LORD of hosts, Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant. For ten acres 10 of vineyard shall yield one bath, and a homer of seed shall yield but an ephah.

Woe unto them that rise up early in 11 the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that tarry late into the night, till wine inflame them! And the harp and 12 the lute, the tabret and the pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the LORD, neither have they considered the operation of his hands. Therefore my people are gone 13 into captivity, for lack of knowledge: and ¹⁴their honourable men are famished, and their multitude are parched with thirst. Therefore ¹⁵hell hath enlarged her 14 desire, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their ¹⁶pomp, and he that rejoiceth among them, descend into it. And the mean man is bowed down, and 15 the great man is humbled, and the eyes of the lofty are humbled: but the LORD 16 of hosts is exalted in judgement, and

God the Holy One is sanctified in righteousness. Then shall the lambs feed as in their pasture, and the waste places of the fat ones shall wanderers eat.

Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope: that say, Let him make speed, let him hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!

Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink: which justify the wicked for a reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

Therefore as the tongue of fire devoureth the stubble, and as the dry grass sinketh down in the flame, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them, and the hills did tremble, and their carcases were as refuse in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss for them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly: none shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken: whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent; their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind: their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions: yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and carry it away safe, and there shall be none to deliver. And they shall roar against them in that day like the roaring of the sea: and if one look unto the land, behold darkness and distress, and the light is darkened in the clouds thereof.

IN the year that king Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. Above him stood the seraphim: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. And the foundations of the thresholds were moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts. Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: and he touched my mouth with it, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged. And I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then I said, Here am I; send me. And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn again, and be healed. Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until cities be waste without inhabitant, and houses without man, and the land become ut-

7 AND it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it; but could
 2 not prevail against it. And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria ³is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and ⁴Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, in the high way of the fuller's field; and say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither let thine heart be faint, because of these two tails of smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria,
 5 and of the son of Remaliah. Because Syria hath counselled evil against thee, Ephraim also, and the son of Remaliah,
 6 saying, Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set up a king in the midst of 7 it, even the son of Tabeel: thus saith the Lord God, It shall not stand, neither
 8 shall it come to pass. For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin: and within three-score and five years shall Ephraim be broken in pieces, that it be not a people:
 9 and the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

10 And the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying, Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God; ²ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD. And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; is it a small thing for you to weary men, that ye will weary my God also? Therefore the Lord himself shall ³give you a sign; behold, ⁴a ⁵virgin ⁶shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name ⁷Immanuel. ⁸Butter and honey ⁹shall he eat, ¹⁰when he knoweth to refuse the evil, and choose the good. For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land whose two kings thou abhorrest shall be forsaken. The LORD shall bring upon ¹¹thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

And it shall come to pass in that day, ²18 that the LORD shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. And they shall come, and ³19 shall rest all of them in the ⁴desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all ⁵16 pastures.

In that day shall the Lord shave with ²20 a razor that is hired, which is in the parts beyond the River, even with the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

And it shall come to pass in that day, ²21 that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep; and it shall come to pass, ³22 for the abundance of milk that they shall give he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the midst of the land.

And it shall come to pass in that day, ²23 that every place, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, shall even be for briers and thorns. With ³24 arrows and with bow shall one come

8 AND the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great tablet, and write upon it ²with the pen of a man, For ³Maher-2 shalal-hash-baz; and I will take unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jebere-3 chiah. And I went unto the prophetess;

child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and, My mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be carried away before the king of Assyria.

5 And the LORD spake unto me yet
6 again, saying, Forasmuch as this people hath refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, ⁴and rejoice ⁵in Rezin and 7 Remaliah's son; now therefore, behold,
the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the River, strong and many,
even the king of Assyria and all his glory:
and he shall come up over all his chan-8 nels, and go over all his banks: and he shall sweep onward into Judah; he shall overflow and pass through; he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

9 ⁶Make an uproar, O ye peoples, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces;
gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken
10 in pieces. Take counsel together, and it shall be brought to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for ⁷God 11 is with us. For the LORD spake thus to me ⁸with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, Say ye not, A con- 12

spiracy, concerning all whereof this people shall say, A conspiracy; neither fear
ye their fear, nor be in dread thereof.
The LORD of hosts, him shall ye sanc- 13
tify; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare
to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And 15 ⁹many shall stumble thereon, and fall,
and be broken, and be snared, and be
taken.

Bind thou up the testimony, seal the 16
¹⁰law among my disciples. And I will 17 wait for the LORD, that hideth his face
from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. Behold, I and the children 18 whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

And when they shall say unto you, 19
Seek unto them that have familiar spirits and unto the wizards, that chirp and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? on behalf of the living should they seek unto the dead? To the ¹⁰law 20 and to the testimony! ¹¹If they speak not according to this word, surely there is no morning for them. And they shall 21
pass through it, hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass that, when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and ¹²curse by their king and by their God, and turn their faces upward: and they shall look unto the 22
earth, and behold, distress and darkness,
the gloom of anguish; ¹³and ¹⁴into thick darkness they shall be driven away.

9 ¹⁵But there shall be no gloom to her 1 that was in anguish. In the former

of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,

but in the latter time hath he made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond
 2 Jordan, ¹Galilee of the nations. The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwelt in the land of the ²shadow of death, upon them hath
 3 the light shined. Thou hast multiplied the nation, ³thou hast increased their joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when
 4 they divide the spoil. For the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, thou hast broken
 5 as in the day of Midian. For ⁴all the armour of the armed man in the tumult, and the garments rolled in blood, shall 6 even be for burning, for fuel of fire. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called ⁵Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, ⁶Everlasting Father, Prince of 7 Peace. Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with judgement and with righteousness from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts shall perform this.
 8 The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and 9 it hath lighted upon Israel. And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in pride
 10 and in stoutness of heart, The bricks are fallen, but we will build with hewn stone: the sycomores are cut down, but 11 we will change them into cedars. Therefore the LORD ⁷shall set up on high against him the adversaries of Rezin, and 12 ⁸shall ⁹stir up his enemies; the Syrians ¹⁰before, and the Philistines ¹¹behind; and they ¹²shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
 13 Yet the people hath not turned unto him that smote them, neither have they 14 sought the LORD of hosts. Therefore the LORD ¹³will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm-branch and rush, in one day. The ¹⁴ancient and the honourable man, ¹⁵he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail. For they that ¹⁶lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are ¹⁵destroyed. Therefore the Lord shall not rejoice ¹⁷over their young men, neither shall he have compassion on their fatherless and widows: for every one is profane and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

For wickedness burneth as the fire; it ¹⁸devoureth the briers and thorns: yea, it kindleth in the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward in thick clouds of smoke. Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts ¹⁹is the land ¹⁹burnt up: the people also are as the fuel of fire; no man spareth his brother. And one shall snatch on the ²⁰right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm: Manasseh, ²¹Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

10 WOE unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and to the writers that write perverseness: to turn ²aside the needy from judgement, and to take away the right of the poor of my people, that widows may be their spoil, and that they may make the fatherless their prey! And what will ye do in the ³day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory? ¹⁷They shall only bow ⁴down under the prisoners, and shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

the staff in whose hand is mine indignation! I will send him against a profane nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off nations not a few. For he saith, Are not my princes all of them kings? Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus? As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria; shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks. For he hath said, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the peoples, and have robbed their treasures, and I have brought down as a valiant man them that sit on thrones: and my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the peoples; and as one gathereth eggs that are forsaken, have I gathered all the earth: and there was none that moved the wing, or that opened the mouth, or chirped. Shall the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if a rod should shake them that lift it up, or as if a staff should lift up him that is not wood.

Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory there shall be kindled a burning like the burning of fire. And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day. And he shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and it shall be as when a standardbearer fainteth. And the remnant of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them.

And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and they that are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. A remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God. For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them shall return: a consumption is determined, overflowing with righteousness. For a consumption, and that determined, shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, make in the midst of all the earth.

Therefore thus saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: though he smite thee with the rod, and lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt. For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall be accomplished, and mine anger, in their destruction. And the Lord of hosts shall stir up against him a scourge, as in the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and his rod shall be over the sea, and he shall lift it up after the manner of Egypt. And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall depart from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.

 34 and the lofty shall be brought low. And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

- 11 AND there shall come forth a shoot out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots shall bear
 2 fruit: and the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of
 3 the fear of the LORD; and ⁴his ⁵delight shall be in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither ⁶reprove after the hearing of his
 4 ears: but with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the ⁷earth: and he shall smite the ⁸earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips
 5 shall he slay the wicked. And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and 6 faithfulness the girdle of his reins. And the wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall
 7 lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat
 8 straw like the ox. And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the 9 ⁸basilisk's den. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.
 10 And it shall come to pass in that day,

that the root of Jesse, which standeth for an ensign of the peoples, unto him shall the nations seek; and his resting place shall be ⁹glorious.

And it shall come to pass in that day, ¹¹that the Lord ¹⁰shall set his hand again the second time to ¹¹recover the remnant of his people, which shall remain, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the ¹²islands of the sea. And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. The envy also of Ephraim shall 13 depart, and they that vex ¹³Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim. And they shall fly down upon the shoulder of the Philistines on the west; together shall they spoil the children of the east: they shall put forth their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them. And the LORD ¹⁵shall ¹⁴utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his ¹⁵scorching wind shall he shake his hand over the River, and shall smite it into seven streams, and cause men to march over dryshod. And there shall be an high ¹⁶way for the remnant of his people, which shall remain, from Assyria; like as there was for Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

12 AND in that day thou shalt say, LORD; for though thou wast angry with me, ¹⁶thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortest me. Behold, God is my ²salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid: for ¹⁷the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength and song; and he is become my salvation. Therefore with joy shall ye ³draw water out of the wells of salvation. And in that day shall ye say, Give thanks ⁴ unto the LORD, 'call upon his name, declare his doings among the peoples, make mention that his name is exalted.

13 THE 5burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see.

- 2 Set ye up an ensign upon the bare mountain, lift up the voice unto them, wave the hand, that they may go into 3 the gates of the nobles. I have commanded my consecrated ones, yea, I have called my mighty men for mine
 anger, even 6my proudly exulting ones.
 4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people! the noise of a tumult of the kingdoms of the nations gathered together! the LORD of hosts mustereth the host for the battle.
 5 They come from a far country, from the uttermost part of heaven, even the LORD,
 and the weapons of his indignation, to 6 destroy the whole land. Howl ye; for the day of the LORD is at hand; as destruction from 7the Almighty shall 7 it come. Therefore shall all hands be feeble, and every heart of man shall 8 melt: and they shall be dismayed; 8pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman in travail:
 they shall be amazed one at another;
 9 their faces shall be faces of flame. Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger; to make the land a desolation, and to destroy the 10 sinners thereof out of it. For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.
 11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity;
 and I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will lay low the 12 haughtiness of the terrible. I will make a man more rare than fine gold, even a man than the pure gold of Ophir. There- 13

 fore I will make the heavens to tremble,
 and the earth shall be shaken out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger. And 14
 it shall come to pass, that as the chased 9roe, and as sheep that no man gathereth,
 they shall turn every man to his own people, and shall flee every man to his own land. Every one that is found shall 15 be thrust through; and every one that is 16taken shall fall by the sword. Their 16 infants also shall be dashed in pieces
 before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished. Be- 17 hold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver, and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.
 And their bows shall dash the young 18
 men in pieces; and they shall have no
 pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children. And Babylon, 19
 the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' pride, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. It 20 shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent
 there; neither shall shepherds make their flocks to lie down there. But wild beasts 21 of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures;
 and ostriches shall dwell there, and 11satyrs shall dance there. And 12wolves 22 shall 13cry in their castles, and jackals
 in the pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be

14 prolonged. For the LORD will 1 have compassion on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the stranger shall join himself with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob. And the 2 peoples shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and for handmaids:
 and they shall take them captive, whose

- 3 And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy trouble, and from the hard service wherein thou wast made to serve, that thou shalt take up this parable against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! 4 the ¹golden city ceased! The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, the sceptre of the rulers; ²that smote the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, that ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution that none restrained. The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth 8 into singing. Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us. ³Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up ⁴the dead for thee, even all the ⁵chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the 10 kings of the nations. All they shall answer and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become 11 like unto us? Thy pomp is brought down to ⁶hell, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and 12 worms cover thee. How art thou fallen from heaven, O day star, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst lay low the nations! 13 And thou saidst in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; and I will sit upon the mount of congregation, in 14 the uttermost parts of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; 15 I will be like the Most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to ⁷hell, to the 16 uttermost parts of the pit. They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, they shall consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, 17 that did shake kingdoms; that made the world as a wilderness, and overthrew the cities thereof; that let not loose his prisoners to their home? All the kings 18 of the nations, all of them, sleep in glory, every one in his own house. But thou 19 art cast forth away from thy sepulchre like an abominable branch, ⁶clothed with the slain, that are thrust through with the sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcase trodden under foot. Thou shalt not be joined with them in 20 burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, thou hast slain thy people; the seed of evil-doers shall not be named for ever. Prepare ye ⁷slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they rise not up, and possess the earth, and fill the face of the world with cities. And I will rise up against them, 22 saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon name and remnant, and son and son's son, saith the LORD. I will also 23 make it a possession for the porcupine, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, 24 Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand: that I will break the Assyrian 25 in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulder. This is 26 the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations. For 27 the LORD of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

In the year that king Ahaz died was 28 this ⁸burden.

Rejoice not, O Philistia, all of thee, 29 because the rod that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a ⁹basilisk, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent. And the first- 30 born of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will

What then shall one answer the messengers of the nation? That the LORD hath founded Zion, and in her shall the afflicted of his people take refuge.

15 THE ²burden of Moab. For ³in a night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nought; for ³in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nought. ⁴He is gone up to ⁵Bayith, and to Dibon, to the high places, to weep: Moab howleth ⁶over Nebo, and ⁶over Medeba: on all their heads is baldness, every beard is cut off. In their streets they gird themselves with sackcloth: on their housetops, and in their broad places, every one howleth, weeping abundantly. And Heshbon crieth out, and Elealeh; their voice is heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud; his soul trembleth within him. My heart crieth out for Moab; her ⁷nobles flee unto Zoar, ⁸to Eglath-shelishiyah: for by the ascent of Luhith with weeping they go up; for in the way of Horonaim they raise up a cry of destruction. For the waters of Nimrim shall be ⁹desolate: for the grass is withered away, the tender grass faileth, there is no green thing. Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away ¹⁰to the brook of the willows. For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beerselim. For the waters of Dimon are full of blood: for I will bring yet more upon Dimon, a lion upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

16 SEND ye the lambs for the ruler of the land from ¹¹Sela ¹²which is toward the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion. For it shall be that, as wandering birds, as a scattered nest, so shall the daughters of Moab be at the fords of Arnon. Give counsel, execute judgement; make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday: hide the outcasts; bewray not the wanderer. ¹³Let mine outcasts dwell with thee; as for Moab, be thou a covert to him from the face of the spoiler: for ¹⁴the extortioner is brought to nought, spoiling ceaseth, ¹⁵the oppressors are consumed out of the land. And a throne shall be established in mercy, and one shall sit thereon in truth, in the tent of David; judging, and seeking judgement, and swift to do righteousness.

We have heard of the pride of Moab, ⁶that he is very proud; even of his arrogancy, and his pride, and his wrath; his boastings are nought. Therefore shall ⁷Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the ¹⁶raisin-cakes of Kir-hareseth shall ye mourn, utterly stricken. For the fields of Heshbon languish, and ⁸the vine of Sibmah; ¹⁷the lords of the nations have broken down the choice plants thereof; they reached even unto Jazer, they wandered into the wilderness; her branches were spread abroad, they passed over the sea. Therefore I ⁹will weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for upon thy summer fruits and upon thy harvest the battle shout is fallen. And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the fruitful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither joyful noise: no treader shall tread out wine in the presses; I have made the vintage shout to cease. Wherefore my bowels ¹¹sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-heres. And it shall ¹²

17 THE ¹burden of Damascus.

- Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap. ²The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid. ³The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom ²from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria; they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.
⁴ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean. And it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the standing corn, and his arm reapeth the ears; yea, it shall be as when one gleaneth ears in the valley of Rephaim. Yet there shall be left therein gleanings, as the ³shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost branches of a fruitful tree, saith the LORD, the God of Israel.
⁷ In that day shall a man look unto his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel. And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall he have respect to that which his fingers have made, either ⁹the Asherim, or the sun-images. In that day shall his strong cities be as the forsaken places ⁴in the wood and on the mountain top, which were forsaken from before the children of Israel: and it shall be a desolation. For thou hast forgotten ¹⁰the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the rock of thy ⁵strength; therefore thou plantest ⁶pleasant plants, and settest it with ⁷strange slips: in the ¹¹day of thy planting thou hedgest it in, and in the morning thou makest thy seed to blossom: but the harvest ⁸fleeth away in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

Ah, the ⁹uproar of many peoples, ¹²which roar like the roaring of the seas; and the rushing of nations, that rush like the rushing of mighty waters! The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but he shall rebuke ¹⁰them, and ¹¹they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm. At eventide ¹⁴hold terror; and before the morning ¹²they are not. This is the portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

18 AH, the land ¹³of the rustling of wings, which is beyond the rivers of ¹⁴Ethiopia: that sendeth ambassadors ²by the sea, ¹⁵even in vessels of papyrus upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation ¹⁶tall and smooth, to a people terrible from their beginning onward; a nation ¹⁷that treadeth out and treadeth down, whose land the rivers ¹⁸divide! All ye inhabitants of the world, ³and ye dwellers on the earth, when an ensign is lifted up on the mountains, see ye; and when the trumpet is blown, hear ye. For thus hath the LORD said unto ⁴me, I will be still, and I will behold in my dwelling place; ¹⁹like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest. In that time shall a present be brought unto the LORD of hosts of a people tall and smooth, and from a people terrible from their beginning onward; a nation that meteth out and treadeth down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

19 THE ¹burden of Egypt.

Behold, the LORD rideth upon a swift cloud, and cometh unto Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall
 2 melt in the midst of it. And I will ²stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom a-
 3 gainst kingdom. And the spirit of Egypt shall be made void in the midst of it; and I will ³destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek unto the idols, and to the ⁴charm-ers, and to them that have 4 familiar spirits, and to the wizards. And I will ⁵give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the LORD, the 5 LORD of hosts. And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be 6 wasted and become dry. And the rivers shall stink; the ⁶streams of ⁷Egypt shall be minished and dried up: the reeds and 7 flags shall wither away. The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all that is sown by the Nile, shall become dry, be driven away, and be no
 8 more. The fishers also shall lament, and all they that cast angle into the Nile shall mourn, and they that spread nets upon 9 the waters shall languish. Moreover they that work in combed flax, and they that weave ⁸white cloth, shall be ashamed. And her ⁹pillars shall be broken in pieces, all they ¹⁰that work for hire shall be grieved in soul. The princes of 11 Zoan are utterly foolish; the counsel of the wisest counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings? Where then are thy wise 12 men? and let them tell thee now; and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed concerning Egypt. The 13 princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of ¹¹Noph are deceived; they have caused Egypt to go astray, that are the corner stone of her tribes. The LORD

 14 hath mingled a spirit of perverseness in the midst of her: and they have caused Egypt to go astray in every work thereof, as a drunken man ¹²staggereth in his vomit. Neither shall there be for Egypt
 15 any work, which head or tail, palm-branch or rush, may do.

In that day shall Egypt be like unto 16 women: and it shall tremble and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it. And the land of Judah shall become 17 a terror unto Egypt, ¹³every one to whom mention is made thereof shall be afraid, because of the purpose of the LORD of hosts, which he purposeth against it.

In that day there shall be five cities in 18 the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear to the LORD of hosts; one shall be called The city of 14 destruction.

In that day shall there be an altar to 19 the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the LORD. And it shall be for a sign
 20 and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and ¹⁵a defender, and he shall deliver them. And the LORD shall ¹⁶be known to 21

And the LORD shall smite Egypt, smiting and healing; and they shall return unto the LORD, and he shall be intreated of them, and shall heal them.
- 23 In that day shall there be a high way out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians shall worship with the Assyrians.
- 24 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth: for that the LORD of hosts hath blessed them, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

- 20 IN the year that ¹Tartan came unto Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it; at that time the LORD spake by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go, and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put thy shoe from off thy foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot. And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot ²three years for a sign and a wonder upon Egypt and upon ³Ethiopia; so shall the king of Assyria lead away the captives of Egypt, and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. And they shall be dismayed and ashamed, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.
- 6 And the inhabitant of this coastland shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and we, how shall we escape?

21 THE ⁴burden of the wilderness of the sea.

As whirlwinds in the South sweep through, it cometh from the wilderness, from a terrible land. A ⁵grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. Go up, O Elam; besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof ⁶have I made to cease. Therefore are ⁷my loins filled with anguish; pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman in travail: I am ⁸pained so that I cannot hear; I am dismayed so that I cannot see. My heart ⁹panteth, horror hath affrighted me: the twilight that I desired hath been turned into trembling unto me. They prepare the table, they ¹⁰set the watch, they eat, they drink: rise up, ye princes, anoint the shield. For thus ¹¹hath the Lord said unto me, Go, set a watchman; let him declare what he seeth: ¹²and when he seeth ¹³a troop, ¹⁴horsemen in pairs, ¹⁵a troop of asses, ¹⁶a troop of camels, he shall hearken diligently with much heed. And he cried as a lion: O ¹⁷Lord, I stand continually upon the watchtower in the day-time, and am set in my ward ¹⁸whole nights: and, behold, here ¹⁹cometh a troop of men, ²⁰horsemen in pairs. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods are broken unto the ground. O thou my threshing, ²¹and the ²²corn of my floor: that which I have heard from the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

 15 bread. For they fled away from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness
 16 of war. For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Within a year, according to the years of an hireling, and all the glory of 17 Kedar shall fail: and the residue of the number of the archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be few: for the LORD, the God of Israel, hath spoken it.

22 THE ³burden of the valley of vision.

What aileth thee now, that thou art
 2 wholly gone up to the housetops? O thou that art full of shoutings, a tumultuous city, a joyous town; thy slain are not slain with the sword, neither are they dead in
 3 battle. All thy rulers fled away together, they were bound ⁴by the archers: all that were found of thee were bound together,
 4 ⁵they fled afar off. Therefore said I, Look away from me, I will weep bitterly; ⁶labour not to comfort me, for the spoiling of the daughter of my people. For it is a day of discomfiture, and of treading down, and of perplexity, from the Lord, the LORD of hosts, in the valley of vision; a breaking down of the walls,
 6 and a crying to the ⁷mountains. And Elam bare the quiver, with ⁸chariots of men and horsemen; and Kir uncovered
 7 the shield. And it came to pass, that thy choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set themselves in array at 8 the gate. And he took away the covering of Judah; and thou didst look in that day to the armour in the house of the 9 forest. And ye saw the breaches of the city of David, that they were many: and ye gathered together the waters of the 10 lower pool. And ye numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and ye brake down the houses to fortify the wall. Ye made also ¹¹a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye looked not unto ⁹him that had done this, neither had ye respect unto him that fashioned it long ago. And in that day did the ¹²Lord, the LORD of hosts, call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth: and behold, joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we shall die. And the LORD of hosts ¹⁴revealed himself in mine ears, Surely this iniquity shall not be ¹⁰purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

Thus saith the Lord, the LORD of ¹⁵hosts, Go, get thee unto this ¹¹treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say, What doest thou here? ¹⁶and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out here a sepulchre? hewing him out a sepulchre on high, gravating an habitation for himself in the rock! Behold, the LORD will hurl thee away ¹⁷violently ¹²as a strong man; yea, he will ¹³wrap thee up closely. He will surely ¹⁸turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country; there shalt thou die, and there shall be the chariots of thy glory, thou shame of thy lord's house. And I will ¹⁹thrust thee from thine office, and from thy station shall he pull thee down. And ²⁰it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah: and I will clothe him with thy ²¹robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. And the key of the ²²house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; and he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. 23 THE ¹burden of Tyre.

- Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Kittim
- 2 it is revealed to them. Be still, ye inhabitants of the ²isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the
- 3 sea, have replenished. And on great waters the seed of Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue; and she
- 4 was the mart of nations. Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, the strong hold of the sea, saying, I have not travailed, nor brought forth, neither have I nourished young
- 5 men, nor brought up virgins. ³When the report cometh to Egypt, they shall be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.
- 6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the ²isle. Is this your joyous
- 7 city, whose antiquity is ⁴of ancient days, whose feet carried her afar off to sojourn?
- 8 Who hath purposed this against Tyre, ⁵the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth? The LORD of hosts
- 9 hath purposed it, to ⁶stain the pride of all glory, to bring into contempt all the
- 10 honourable of the earth. ⁷Pass through thy land as the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish; there is no girdle about thee any
- 11 more. He hath stretched out his hand over the sea, he hath shaken the kingdoms: the LORD hath given commandment concerning ⁸Canaan, to destroy the
- 12 strong holds thereof. And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Kittim; even there shalt thou have no rest. Behold, the land of the ¹³Chaldeans; this people ⁹is no more; the Assyrian ¹⁰hath appointed it for ¹¹the beasts of the wilderness: they set up ¹²their towers, they ¹³overthrew the palaces thereof; he made it a ruin. Howl, ¹⁴ye ships of Tarshish: for your strong hold is laid waste. And it shall come to pass ¹⁵in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years ¹⁶it shall be unto Tyre as in the song of the harlot. Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered. And it shall come to pass after the end ¹⁷of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall return to her hire, and shall play the harlot with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth. And her merchandise and ¹⁸her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for ¹⁵ durable clothing.

24 BEHOLD, the LORD maketh the ¹⁶earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof. And ²it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him. 5 languish. The earth also is polluted under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are found guilty: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left. The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merry-hearted do sigh. The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth. They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it. The city of ¹confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in. There is a crying in the streets because of the wine; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is ²gone. In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction. For thus shall it be in the midst of the earth among the peoples, as the ³shaking of an olive tree, as the grape gleanings when the vintage is done. These shall lift up their voice, they shall shout; for the majesty of the LORD they cry aloud from the sea. Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the ⁴east, even the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, in the ⁵isles of the sea.

16 From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, glory to the righteous. But I said, ⁶I pine away, I pine away, woe is me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very

17 treacherously. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth. And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth do shake. The earth is utterly broken, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly. The earth shall stagger like a drunken man, and shall be moved to and fro like a hut; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it, and it shall fall, and not rise again.

And it shall come to pass in that day, ⁷that the LORD shall ⁸punish the host of the ⁹high ones on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth. And they ¹⁰shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the ¹¹pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be ¹²visited. Then the ¹³moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and ¹⁴before his ¹⁵ancients gloriously.

25 O LORD, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things, even counsels of old, in faithfulness and truth. For thou hast made of ²a city an heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built. Therefore shall the ³strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee. For ⁴thou hast been a strong hold to the poor, a strong hold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall. As ⁵the heat in a dry place shalt thou bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shadow of a cloud, the song of the terrible ones shall be brought low. And ⁶in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined. And he will ⁷destroy in this mountain the face of the covering that is cast over all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all nations. He hath ⁸swallowed up death for ever; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the reproach of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation. For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be trodden down in his place, even as straw is trodden down ¹¹in the water of the dunghill. ness; in the land of uprightness will he deal wrongfully, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

LORD, thy hand is lifted up, yet they ¹¹see not: but they shall see ¹⁵thy zeal for the people, and be ashamed; yea, ¹⁶fire shall devour thine adversaries.  11 line; here a little, there a little. ²Nay,
 but by men of strange lips and with another tongue will he speak to this people:
 12 to whom he said, 'This is the rest, give ye rest to him that is weary; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.
 13 Therefore shall the word of the LORD be unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line
 upon line; here a little, there a little;
 that they may go, and fall backward, and
 be broken, and snared, and taken.
 14 Wherefore hear the word of the LORD,
 ye scornful men, that rule this people 15 which is in Jerusalem: Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with ³hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us; for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid 16 ourselves: therefore thus saith the Lord
 God, Behold, I ⁴lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone of sure foundation: he that 17 believeth shall not make haste. And I will make judgement the line, and right-cousness the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.
 18 And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with ³hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye 19 shall be trodden down by it. As often as it passeth through, it shall take you; for morning by morning shall it pass through,
 by day and by night: and it shall be nought but terror to understand the 20 ⁵message. For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it; and the covering narrower than that he can 21 wrap himself in it. For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his strange work,

and bring to pass his act, his strange act.
 Now therefore be ye not scorers, lest ²²
 your hands be made strong: for a consummation, and that determined, have I heard from the Lord, the LORD of hosts, upon the whole ⁶earth.

Give ye ear, and hear my voice; ²³
 hearken, and hear my speech. Doth the ²⁴
 plowman plow continually to sow? doth
 he continually open and break the clods of his ground? When he hath made ²⁵
 plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the ⁷fitches, and scatter the cum-min, and put in the wheat in rows and the barley in the appointed place and the spelt in the border thereof? ⁸For his ²⁶
 God doth instruct him aright, and doth teach him. For the fitches are not ²⁷ threshed with a sharp threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cum-min with a rod. ⁹Bread corn is ground; ²⁸
 for he will not ever be threshing it: and though the wheel of his cart and his horses scatter it, he doth not grind it.
 This also cometh forth from the LORD ²⁹
 of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel,
 and excellent in ¹⁰wisdom.

 lay siege against thee with a fort, and I will raise siege works against thee. And ⁴ thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust; and thy voice shall be as of one that hath a fami-

6 ¹She shall be visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with whirlwind and tempest, 7 and the flame of a devouring fire. And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her strong hold, and that distress her, shall be as a dream, a vision of 8 the night. And it shall be as when an hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion.

9 ²Tarry ye and wonder; ³take your pleasure and be blind: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed ⁴your eyes, the prophets; and your heads, the seers, hath 11 he covered. And all vision is become unto you as the words of a ⁵book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that ⁶is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot, for it is 12 sealed: and the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned. 13 And the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw nigh unto me, and with their mouth and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of men which hath been ⁷taught 14 them: therefore, behold, I will ⁸proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: and the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. 15 Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us? ⁹Ye 16 turn things upside down! Shall the potter be counted as clay; that the thing made should say of him that made it, He made me not; or the thing framed say of him that framed it, He hath no understanding? Is it not yet a very little 17 while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be counted for a forest? And in that day 18 shall the deaf hear the words of ¹⁰the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity and out of darkness. The meek also shall increase their joy in 19 the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. For 20 the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner ceaseth, and all they that watch for iniquity are cut off: that 21 ¹¹make a man an offender in a cause, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just with a thing of nought. Therefore thus saith the 22 LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale. ¹²But when he seeth 23 his children, the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name; yea, they shall sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall stand in awe of the God of Israel. They also that err in 24 spirit ¹³shall come to understanding, and they that murmur shall learn ¹⁴doctrine.

30 WOE to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me; and that ¹⁵cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin: that walk to go down 2 into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to ¹⁶strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt! Through the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a 7 people that shall not profit them. For Egypt helpeth in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I ²called her Rahab 8 that sitteth still. Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time to come 9 ³for ever and ever. For it is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will 10 not hear the ⁴law of the LORD: which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things,
speak unto us smooth things, prophesy 11 deceits: get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy
One of Israel to cease from before us.
12 Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, 13 and stay thereon; therefore this iniquity
shall be to you as a breach ready to fall,
swelling out in a high wall, whose break-14 ing cometh suddenly at an instant. And he shall break it as a potter's vessel is broken, breaking it in pieces without sparing; so that there shall not be found among the pieces thereof a sherd to take
fire from the hearth, or to take water 15 withal out of the cistern. For thus said
the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel,
In returning and rest shall ye be saved;
in quietness and in confidence shall be 16 your strength: and ye would not. But ye said, No, for we will flee upon horses;
therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride

upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift. One thousand shall 17
flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke
of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as ⁵a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill. And therefore 18 will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon
you: for the LORD is a God of judgement;
blessed are all they that wait for him.

For ⁶the people shall dwell in Zion at 19
Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more;
he will surely be gracious unto thee at
the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear,
he will answer thee. ⁷And though the 20
LORD give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy ⁸teachers ⁹be hidden any more, but thine
eyes shall see thy ¹⁰teachers: and thine 21
ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it; when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left. And ye shall defile the 22
overlaying of thy graven images of silver,
and the plating of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt ¹¹cast them away as an ¹²unclean thing; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence. And he shall give the 23 rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the ground, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures. The oxen likewise 24 and the young asses that till the ground shall eat ¹³savoury provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan. And there shall be upon every 25 lofty mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters, in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. Moreover the light of the 26
moon shall be as the light of the sun,
and the light of the sun shall be seven-fold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the hurt
of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

27 Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue is as a
 28 devouring fire: and his breath is as an overflowing stream, that reacheth even unto the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of ¹vanity: and a bridle that causeth to err shall be in the jaws of the
 29 peoples. Ye shall have a song as in the night ²when a holy feast is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain 30 of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel. And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and the flame of a devouring fire, with ³a blast, and tempest, and 31 hailstones. For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be broken
 32 in pieces, ⁴which smote with a rod. And every ⁵stroke of the ⁶appointed staff, which the LORD shall lay upon him, shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles
 33 of shaking will he fight with them. For a Topheth is prepared of old; yea, for the king it is made ready; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

31 WOE to them that go down to Egypt for help, and stay on horses; and trust in chariots, because they are many, and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither
 2 seek the LORD! Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evil-doers, and against the
 3 help of them that work iniquity. Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit: and when the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall stumble, and he that is holpen shall fall, and they
 4 all shall fail together. For thus saith the LORD unto me, Like as when the lion growleth and the young lion over his prey, if a multitude of shepherds be called forth against him, he will not be dismayed at their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight ⁷upon mount Zion, and ⁷upon the hill thereof. As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts

 5 protect Jerusalem; he will protect and deliver it, he will pass over and preserve it. Turn ye unto him ⁸from whom ⁹ye
 6 have deeply revolted, O children of Israel. For in that day they shall cast ⁷away every man his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin. Then
 8 shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of man; and the sword, not of men, shall devour him: and he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall become tributary. And his rock shall pass
 9 away by reason of terror, and his princes shall be dismayed at the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

32 BEHOLD, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgement. And a man shall be ²as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. And the
 3 eyes of them that see shall not be ¹⁰dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken. The heart also of the ¹¹rash
 4 shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly. The ¹²vile person shall ⁵be no more called ¹³liberal, nor the ¹⁴churl said to be bountiful. For the ¹²vile per-
 6 son will speak ¹⁵villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise profaneness, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and to cause the drink of the thirsty to fail. The instruments also of the churl gracious unto us; we have waited for thee: be thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble. At the noise of the tumult the peoples ³are fled; at the lifting up of thyself the nations are scattered. Behold, their valiant ones cry with- ⁷out: the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly. Now will I arise, ¹⁰saith the LORD; now will I lift up myself; now will I be exalted. Ye shall conceive ¹¹chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath is a fire that shall devour you. And the peoples shall be as the burnings ¹²of lime: as thorns cut down, that are burned in the fire.

Hear, ye that are far off, what I have ¹³done; and, ye that are near, acknowledge my might. The sinners in Zion ¹⁴are afraid; trembling hath surprised the godless ones. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings? He that walketh righteously, and speak- ¹⁵eth uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of ⁹oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from looking upon evil; he shall dwell on high: his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks: his bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure. 36 NOW it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that ⁹Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them. And the king of Assyria 2 sent ¹⁰Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the high way of the fuller's field. Then came forth unto him 3 Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the ¹¹scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the ¹²recorder. And Rabshakeh said unto 4 them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherewith thou 5 trustest? I say, thy counsel and strength 5 for the war are but vain words: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou hast rebelled against me? Behold, thou trust- 6 est upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust 7 on him. But if thou say unto me, We 7 trust in the LORD our God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall wor- 8 ship before this altar? Now therefore, I 8 pray thee, ¹³give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy 9 part to set riders upon them. How then 9 canst thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? And am I now come 10 up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it. 11 Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah 11 unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the ¹⁴Syrian lan- guage; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall. But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master 12 sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, to eat

their own dung, and to drink their own 13 water with you? Then Rabshakeh stood,
 and cried with a loud voice in the Jews'
 language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.
 14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for he shall not be able to 15 deliver you: neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us; this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of 16 Assyria. Harken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, 'Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern:
 17 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.
 18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of 19 Assyria? Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Sa-20 maria out of my hand? Who are they among all the gods of these countries,
 that have delivered their country out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver 21 Jerusalem out of my hand? But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment 22 was, saying, Answer him not. Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiash, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

37 AND it came to pass, when king
 Hezekiah heard it, that he rent
 his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the 2 LORD. And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the 3 prophet the son of Amoz. And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah,

 This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of contumely: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth. It may be the 4
 LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, 'whom the king of Assyria
 his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD thy God hath heard:
 wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left. So the servants of king 5 Hezekiah came to Isaiah. And Isaiah 6 said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.
 Behold, I will put a spirit in him, and 7
 he shall hear a rumour, and shall return unto his own land; and I will cause him
 to fall by the sword in his own land.

So Rabshakeh returned, and found 8
 the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. And he heard say 9 concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia,
 He is come out to fight against thee. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, Thus shall ye speak to 10
 Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. Be- 11 hold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by ³destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered? Have the gods of the nations 12 delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar? Where is the king of 13 Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena,
 and 'Ivvah? And Hezekiah received the 14
 letter from the hand of the messengers,
 and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto
 the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. And Hezekiah prayed 15 unto the LORD, saying, O LORD of hosts, 16

the God of Israel, that ¹sittest upon the cherubim, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; 17 thou hast made heaven and earth. Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath 18 sent to reproach the living God. Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the countries, and their 19 land, and have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them. Now 20 therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib 22 king of Assyria, this is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him: The virgin daughter of Zion hath despised thee and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken 23 her head ²at thee. Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against 24 the Holy One of Israel. By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, With the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice ³fir trees thereof: and I will enter into his farthest height, 25 the forest of his fruitful field. I have digged and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet will I dry up all the rivers 26 of ⁴Egypt. Hast thou not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste 27 fenced cities into ruinous heaps. Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as ⁵a field of corn before it be grown up. But I know thy 28 sitting down, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy raging against me. Because of thy raging against me, and 29 for that ⁶thine arrogancy is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest. And this shall be 30 the sign unto thee: ye shall eat this year that which groweth of itself, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof. And ⁷the remnant that is 31 escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. For out of Jerusalem shall go 32 forth a remnant, and out of mount Zion they that shall escape: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall perform this. There- 33 fore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come unto this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither shall he come before it with shield, nor cast a mount against it. By 34 the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and he shall not come unto this city, saith the LORD. For I will 35 defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

And the angel of the LORD went forth, 36 and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when men arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses. So Sennacherib king of Assyria 37 departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. And it came to pass, 38 as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

38 IN those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live. Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, and said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore,

Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying, Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years. And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city. And this shall be the sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken: behold, I will cause the shadow on the steps, which is gone down on the dial of Ahaz with the sun, to return backward ten steps. So the sun returned ten steps on the dial whereon it was gone down.

The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness.

I said, In the noon of my days I shall go into the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.

I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

Mine age is removed, and is carried away from me as a shepherd's tent: I have rolled up like a weaver my life; he will cut me off from the loom: From day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

I quieted myself until morning; as a lion, so he breaketh all my bones:

From day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

Like a swallow or a crane, so did I chatter;

I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward;

O LORD, I am oppressed, be thou my surety.

What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it:

I shall go softly all my years because of the bitterness of my soul.

O LORD, by these things men live, And wholly therein is the life of my spirit:

Wherefore recover thou me, and make me to live.

Behold, it was for my peace that I had great bitterness:

But thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption; For thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

For the grave cannot praise thee, death cannot celebrate thee:

They that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day:

The father to the children shall make known thy truth.

The LORD is ready to save me:

Therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments

All the days of our life in the house of the LORD.

Now Isaiah had said, Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover. Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

39 AT that time Merodach-baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he heard that he had been sick, and was recovered. And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the

Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon. Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them. ⁵Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the ⁶word of the LORD of hosts. Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the ⁷LORD. And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. ⁸Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

40 COMFORT ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye ³comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her ⁴warfare is accomplished, that her ⁵iniquity is pardoned; that she hath received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins. ³The voice of one ⁶that crieth, Prepare ye in the wilderness the way of the LORD, make ⁷straight in the desert a high way ⁴for our God. be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it. The voice of one saying, Cry. ⁶And ¹⁰one said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field: the grass ⁷withereth, the flower fadeth; because the breath of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass. The grass ⁸withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

With whom ¹⁴took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgement, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding? 41 KEEP silence before me, O islands; and let the peoples renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgement. Who hath raised ²up one from the east, ⁹whom he calleth in righteousness to his foot? he giveth nations before him, and maketh him rule over kings; ¹⁰he giveth them as the dust to his sword, as the driven stubble to his bow. his praise from the end of the earth; ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein, the isles, and the inhabitants thereof. Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit; let the inhabitants of Sela sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains. Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands. The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man; he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war; he shall cry, yea, he shall shout aloud; he shall do mightily against his enemies. I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry out like a travelling woman; I will gasp and pant together. I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and will dry up the pools. And I will bring the blind by a way that they know not; in paths that they know not will I lead them: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked places straight. These things will I do, and I will not forsake them. They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say unto molten images, Ye are our gods.

18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see. Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I send? who is blind as he that is at peace with me, and blind as the LORD's servant? Thou seest many things, but thou observest not; his ears are open, but he heareth not. It pleased the LORD, for his righteousness' sake, to magnify the law, and make it honourable. But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore. Who is there among you that will give ear to this? that will hearken and hear for the time to come? Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD? he against whom we have sinned, and in whose ways they would not walk, neither were they obedient unto his law. Therefore he poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle; and it set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

43 BUT now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel: Fear not, for I have redeemed thee; I have called thee by thy name, thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy saviour; I have given Egypt as thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee. Since thou hast been precious in my sight, and honourable, and I have loved thee; therefore will I give men for thee, and peoples for thy life. Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west; I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back; bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the end of the earth; every one that is called by my name, and whom I have created for my glory; I have formed him; yea, I have made him. Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears. Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the peoples be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth. - 14 Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and I will bring down ³all of them as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships of their rejoicing. I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King. Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;
- 17 ⁴which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they lie down together, they shall not rise; they are extinct, they are quenched as ⁵flax:
- 18 Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing; now shall it spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and
- 20 rivers in the desert. The beasts of the field shall honour me, the jackals and the ostriches: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen:
- 21 the people which I formed for myself, ⁶that they might set forth my praise.
- 22 Yet thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me,
- 23 O Israel. Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not made thee to serve with ⁷offerings, nor wearied thee with
- 24 frankincense. Thou hast bought me no ⁸sweet cane with money, neither hast thou ⁹filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with
- 25 ¹⁰line iniquities. I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake; and I will not remember thy sins. Put me in remembrance; let us ²⁶plead together: set thou forth thy cause, that thou mayest be justified. Thy first ²⁷father sinned, and thine ¹⁰interpreters have transgressed against me. There- ²⁸fore I ¹¹will profane the ¹²princes of the sanctuary, and I ¹³will make Jacob a 44 ¹⁴curse, and Israel a reviling. Yet ¹now hear, O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen: thus ²saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, who will help thee: Fear not, O Jacob my servant; and thou, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen. For I will pour water upon ¹⁵him that is ³thirsty, and streams upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring: and ⁴they shall spring up among the grass, as willows by the watercourses. One shall ⁵say, I am the LORD's; and another shall ¹⁶call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall ¹⁷subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and ¹⁸surname himself by the name of Israel.

Thus saith the LORD, the King of 6 Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts: I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God. ¹⁹And who, 7 as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and that shall come to pass, let them ²⁰declare. Fear ye not, neither be 8 afraid: have I not declared unto thee of old, and shewed it? and ye are my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no Rock; I know not any. They 9 that fashion a graven image are all of them ²¹vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit: and their own witnesses see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed. Who hath fashioned a god, or 10 molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing? Behold, ²²all his fellows 11 shall be ashamed; and the workmen,

- 12 The smith ¹maketh an axe, and worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with his strong arm: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth; he drinketh no water, and is faint. The carpenter stretcheth out a line; he marketh it out with ²a pencil; he shapeth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compasses, and shapeth it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man, to dwell in the house. He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the holm tree and the oak, and strengtheneth for himself one among the trees of the forest: he planteth ³a fir tree, and the rain doth nourish it. Then shall it be for a man to burn; and he taketh thereof, and warmeth himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread: yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto. He burneth ⁴part thereof in the fire; with ⁴part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire: and the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it and worshippeth, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god. They know not, neither do they consider: for he hath ⁵shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.
- 19 And none calleth to mind, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree? He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

Remember these things, O Jacob; 21 and Israel, for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, ⁶thou shalt not be forgotten of me. I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, 22 thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee. Sing, O ye heavens, for 23 the LORD hath done it; shout, ye lower parts of the earth; break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and will glorify himself in Israel.

Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, 24 and he that formed thee from the womb: I am the LORD, that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth; ⁷who is with me? that frustrateth the tokens 25 of the ⁸liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish: that 26 confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith of Jerusalem, She shall be inhabited; and of the cities of Judah, They shall be built, and I will raise up the waste places thereof: that saith to the 27 deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers: that saith of ⁹Cyrus, He is my 28 shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying of Jerusalem, She shall be built; ¹⁰and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

 11 what travailest thou? Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker: Ask me of the things that are to come; concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands, command
 12 ye me. I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all

 14 Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Egypt, and the merchandise of Ethiopia, and the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine; they shall go after thee; in chains they shall come over: and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is none else, there is no God. Verily thou art a God that 15 hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour. They shall be ashamed, yea, 16 confounded, all of them: they shall go into confusion together that are makers of idols. But Israel shall be saved by the 17

 LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

For thus saith the LORD that created 18

- 3 Hearken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which have been borne by me from the belly, which have been carried from the womb: and even to old age I am he, and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; yea, I will carry, and will deliver. To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like? Such as lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, they hire a goldsmith, and he maketh it a god; they fall down, yea, they worship. They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.
- 8 Remember this, and ¹shew yourselves men: bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors. Remember the former things of old: ²for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me; declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done; saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:
- 11 calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man of ³my counsel from a far country; yea, I have spoken, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed, I will also do it. Hearken unto me, ye stouthearted, ¹²that are far from righteousness: I bring near my righteousness, it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry; and I will ⁴place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

- 47 COME down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate. Take the millstones, and grind meal: remove thy veil, strip off the train, uncover the leg, pass through the rivers.
- 3 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and will ⁵accept no man. Our redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel. Sit thou ⁵silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called The lady of kingdoms. I was wroth with my people, ⁶I profaned mine inheritance, and gave them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; upon the aged hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke. And thou ⁷saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end thereof.

Now therefore hear this, thou that art ⁸given to pleasures, that ⁶dweldest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and there is none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children: but these two things ⁹shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: in their full measure shall they come upon thee, ⁷despite of the multitude of thy sorceries, and the great abundance of thine enchantments. For thou ¹⁰hast trusted in thy wickedness; thou hast said, None seeth me; thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee: and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and there is none else beside me. Therefore shall evil come upon thee; ¹¹thou shalt not know ⁸the dawning thereof: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it away: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou knowest not. Stand now with thine enchantments, ¹²and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest ⁹prevail. Thou ¹³art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels: let now the ¹⁰astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from the things that shall come upon thee. 48 HEAR ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah; which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness. For they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel; the LORD of hosts is his name. I have declared the former things from of old; yea, they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them: suddenly I did them, and they came to pass. Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass; therefore I have declared it to thee from of old; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them. Thou hast heard it; behold all this; and ye, will ye not declare it? ²I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, which thou hast not known. They are created now, and not from of old; and before this day thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them. Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from of old thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou didst deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb. For my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off. Behold, I have refined thee, but not as silver; I have ³chosen thee in the furnace of affliction. For mine own sake, for mine own sake, will I do it; for how should my name be profaned? and my glory will I not give to another.

Hearken unto me, O Jacob, and Israel ¹² my called: I am he; I am the first, I also am the last. Yea, mine hand hath laid ¹³ the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spread out the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together. Assemble yourselves, all ye, and hear; ¹⁴ which among them hath declared these things? ⁴The LORD hath loved him: he shall perform his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans. I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called ¹⁵ him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous. Come ye near ¹⁶ unto me, hear ye this; from the beginning I have not spoken in secret; from the time that it was, there am I: and now the LORD GOD hath sent me, and his spirit. Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am the LORD thy God, which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go. ⁵Oh that thou ¹⁸ hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea: thy seed also had been as the sand, ¹⁹ and the offspring of thy bowels like ⁶the grains thereof: his name should not be cut off nor destroyed from before me.

Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from ²⁰ the Chaldeans; with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth: say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his servant Jacob. And they ²¹ thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out. There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto ²² the wicked.

 he said unto me, Thou art my servant;
 4 Israel, in whom I will be glorified. But I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought and vanity:
 yet surely my judgement is with the LORD, and my recompence with my God.
 5 And now saith the LORD that formed me
 from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, ¹and that Israel be gathered unto him: (for I am honourable in the eyes of the LORD, and my 6 God is become my strength:) yea, he saith, It is too light a thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, ²that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the 7 earth. Thus saith the LORD, the redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers: Kings shall see and arise; princes, and they shall worship; because of the LORD that is faithful, even the Holy One 8 of Israel, who hath chosen thee. Thus saith the LORD, In an acceptable time have I answered thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to ³raise up the land,
 to make them inherit the desolate heri-9 tages; saying to them that are bound, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and on all bare heights shall be 10 their pasture. They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the ⁴heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs 11 of water shall he guide them. And I will make all my mountains a way, and my 12 high ways shall be exalted. Lo, these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these 13 from the land of Sinim. Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have compassion upon his afflicted.

But Zion said, Jehovah hath forsaken ¹⁴
 me, and the Lord hath forgotten me.
 Can a woman forget her sucking child, ¹⁵
 that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, these may forget, yet will not I forget thee. Behold, ¹⁶
 I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me. ¹⁷Thy children make haste; thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee. Lift up thine eyes ¹⁸ round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all as
 with an ornament, and gird thyself with them, like a bride. For, as for thy waste ¹⁹ and thy desolate places and thy land that hath been destroyed, surely now shalt thou be too strait for the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away. The children of thy bereave- ²⁰ ment shall yet say in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell. Then shalt thou ²¹ say in thine heart, Who hath ⁶begotten
 me these, seeing I have been bereaved of my children, and am ⁷solitary, an exile, and wandering to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where were they?

Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I ²²
 will lift up mine hand to the nations,
 and set up my ensign to the peoples: and
 they shall bring thy sons in their bosom,
 and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders. And kings shall be thy ²³ nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their faces to the earth, and lick the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and they that wait for me shall not be ashamed. Shall ²⁴

And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy saviour, and thy redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

50 THUS saith the LORD, Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement, wherewith I have put her away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities were ye sold, and for your transgressions was your mother put away.

2 Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

4 The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of 'them that are taught, that I should know how ²to sustain with words him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as 'they that are taught. The Lord GOD hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away backward. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. For the Lord GOD will help me; therefore have I not been confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed. He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand up together: who is mine adversary? let him come near to me. Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant? ³he that walketh in darkness, and hath no light, let him trust in the name of the LORD, and stay upon his God. For the LORD hath comforted Zion: he hath comforted all her waste places, and hath made her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

Attend unto me, O my people; and ⁴give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall go forth from me, and I will make my judgement to rest for a light of the peoples. My righteousness is near, ⁵my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the peoples; the isles shall wait for me, and on mine arm shall they trust. Lift up your eyes to the ⁶heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die ⁴in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

10 pierced the dragon? Art thou not it which dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep; that made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass

15 his bread fail. For I am the LORD thy God, which ³stirreth up the sea, that the waves thereof roar: the LORD of hosts is 16 his name. And I have put my words in thy mouth, and have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

- 17 Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the bowl of the cup of staggering, and drained it. There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the 19 sons that she hath brought up. These two things are befallen thee; who shall bemoan thee? desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword; how shall I comfort thee? Thy sons have ²⁰fainted, they lie at the top of all the streets, as an antelope in a net; they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God. Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine: thus saith thy Lord the LORD, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of staggering, even the bowl of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again: and I will ²³put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy back as the ground, and as the street, to them that go over.

52 AWAKE, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean. Shake thyself from the ²dust; arise, sit thee down, O Jerusalem: ⁴loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

For thus saith the LORD, Ye were sold ³for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money. For thus saith the Lord ⁴GOD, My people went down at the first into Egypt to sojourn there: and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause. Now therefore, what do I here, saith the ⁵LORD, seeing that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them do howl, saith the LORD, and my name continually all the day is blasphemed. Therefore my people shall ⁶know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak; behold, ⁵it is I.

How beautiful upon the mountains are ⁷the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace, that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth! The voice of thy watchmen! ⁸

they lift up the voice, together do they sing; for they shall see, eye to eye, 'when the LORD returneth to Zion. Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God. Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, ye that bear the vessels of the LORD. For ye shall not go out in haste, neither shall ye go by flight: for the LORD will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rearward. Behold, my servant shall deal wisely, he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high. Like as many were astonished at thee, (his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men,) so shall he sprinkle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they understand.

53 WHO hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the LORD been revealed? For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. He was despised, and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and as one from whom men hide their face he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

He was oppressed, yet he humbled himself and opened not his mouth; as a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before her shearers is dumb; yea, he opened not his mouth. By oppression and judgement he was taken away; and as for his generation, who among them considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living? for the transgression of my people was he stricken. And they made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; although he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many: and he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out his soul unto death, and was numbered with the transgressors: yet he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

54 SING, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD. 5 more. For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name: and the Holy One of Israel is thy redeemer; the God of the whole earth shall he be called.
6 For the LORD hath called thee as a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a wife of youth, when she is cast off, saith
7 thy God. For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies
8 will I gather thee. ¹In overflowing wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy re-
9 deemer. ²For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth, so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor re-
10 buke thee. For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall my covenant of peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.
11 O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will set thy stones in ³fair colours, and lay thy 12 foundations with sapphires. And I will make thy ⁴pinnacles of rubies, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy border 13 of pleasant stones. And all thy children shall be ⁵taught of the LORD; and great 14 shall be the peace of thy children. In righteousness shalt thou be established: ⁶thou shalt be far from oppression, for thou shalt not fear; and from terror, for 15 it shall not come near thee. Behold, they may ⁷gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall ⁸gather together against thee ⁹shall fall because of thee. Behold, 16 I have created the smith that bloweth the fire of coals, and bringeth forth a weapon for ¹⁰his work; and I have created the waster to destroy. No weapon that is 17 formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgement thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and ¹¹their righteousness which is of me, saith the LORD.

55 HO, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and cat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Where-
2 fore do ye ¹²spend money for that which is not bread? and your ¹³labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. Incline your ear, and come unto me; 3 hear, and your soul shall live: and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. Behold, 4
I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a ¹⁴leader and commander to the peoples. Behold, thou shalt call a nation 5 that thou knowest not, and a nation that knew not thee shall run unto thee, because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

Seek ye the LORD while he may be 6 found, call ye upon him while he is near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the 7 unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my 8 thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the 9 earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain cometh down 10

58 CRY ⁹aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and declare unto my people their transgression, and to the house of Jacob their sins. Yet they ²seek me daily, and delight to know my ways: as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ¹⁰ordinance of their God, they ask of me righteous ordinances, they delight to draw near unto God. Wherefore have we fasted, say ³they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find your own pleasure, and ¹¹exact all your labours. Behold, ye fast for strife and contention, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ¹²ye fast not this day so as to make your voice to be heard on high. Is such the fast that I have chosen? ⁵the day for a man to afflict his soul? Is it to bow down his head as a rush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD? Is not this the ⁶fast that I have chosen? to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the bands of the yoke, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? Is ⁷it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh? Then shall thy light break ⁸forth as the morning, and thy healing shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD shall be thy rearward. Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall ⁹answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, and the holy of the LORD honourable; and shalt honour ²it, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words: then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD; and I will make thee to ride upon the high places of the earth; and I will feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

- 59 BEHOLD, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: 2 but your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear. For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue uttereth wickedness. None ³saith in righteousness, and none pleadeth in truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. They hatch ⁴basilisks' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed braketh out into a viper. Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence 7 is in their hands. Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; desolation and destruction are 8 in their ⁵paths. The way of peace they know not; and there is no ⁶judgement in their goings: they have made them crooked paths; whosoever goeth therein doth not know peace. Therefore is 9 judgement far from us, neither doth righteousness overtake us: we look for light, but behold darkness; for brightness, but we walk in obscurity. We grope for the wall like the blind, yea, we grope as they that have no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the twilight; ⁷among them that are lusty we are as dead men. We roar all like bears, and 11 mourn sore like doves: we look for judgement, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us. For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know them: in transgressing 13 and denying the LORD, and turning away from following our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood. And judgement is turned away 14 backward, and righteousness standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and uprightness cannot enter. Yea, truth 15 is lacking; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgement. And he saw 16 that there was no man, and wondered that there was ⁸no intercessor: therefore his own arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it upheld him. And he put on righteousness as a ⁹breast- 17 plate, and ¹⁰an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke. According to their 18 ¹¹deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the ¹²islands he will repay recompence. 60 ARISE, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee. For, behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. And nations shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: they all gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be ¹carried in the arms.

 5 Then thou shalt see and be lightened, and thine heart shall tremble and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be turned unto thee, the wealth of the nations shall come unto thee. The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the ²dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; they all shall come from Sheba: they shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall ³proclaim the praises of the LORD.
 7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will ⁴glorify ⁵the house of my glory. Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he hath ⁶glorified thee.
 10 And strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee:

for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee. Thy gates also shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the wealth of the nations, and their kings led with them. For that nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted. The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine, and the box tree together; to beautify the place of my sanctuary, and I will make the place of my feet glorious. And the sons of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel. Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man passed through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations. Thou shalt also suck the milk of the nations, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy saviour, and thy redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and ⁷thine exactors righteousness. Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, desolation nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise. The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy ⁸glory. Thy sun shall no more go down, neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended. a thousand, and the small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in its time.

61 THE spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the 'meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and ²the opening of the ¹prison to them that are bound; to proclaim ³the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; ³to comfort all that mourn; to appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he ⁴might be glorified. And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many ⁵generations. And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and aliens shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers. ⁶But ye shall be named the priests of the LORD: men shall call you the ministers of our God: ye shall eat the wealth of the nations, and ⁴in their glory shall ye boast ⁷yourselves. For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess double: everlasting joy shall be unto them. For I the LORD love judgement, I hate robbery ⁵with iniquity; and I will give them their recompence in truth, and I will make ⁹an everlasting covenant with them. And their seed shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.

¹⁰ I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom

62 FOR Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her righteousness go forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burneth. And ²the nations shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name. Thou ³shalt also be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God. Thou shalt no ⁴more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called ⁷Hephzi-bah, and thy land ⁸Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married. For as a young man marieth ⁵a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and ⁹as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

I have set watchmen upon thy walls, ⁶O Jerusalem; they shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that are the LORD's remembrancers, ¹⁰take ye no rest, and give him no ¹¹rest, till he establish, ⁷and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth. The LORD hath sworn by ⁸his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and strangers shall not drink thy ¹²wine, for the which thou hast laboured: but they ⁹that have garnered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have gathered it shall drink it in the courts of my sanctuary.

And they shall call them The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called Sought out, A city not forsaken.

- 63 WHO is this that cometh from Edom, with ³dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, marching in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, 2 mighty to save. Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like 3 him that treadeth in the winefat? I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the peoples there was no man with me: yea, I ⁴trod them in mine anger, and trampled them in my fury; and their ⁵lifeblood ⁶is sprinkled upon my garments, and I ⁷have stained all my raiment. For the day of vengeance ⁸was in mine heart, and ⁹the year of my redeemed is come. And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me. And ¹⁰I trod down the peoples in mine anger, and ¹¹made them drunk in my fury, and I ¹²poured out their lifeblood on the earth.

- 7 I will make mention of the loving-kindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us; and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses. 8 For he said, Surely, they are my people, children that will not deal falsely: so he was their saviour. ¹³In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old. But they rebelled, and grieved his ¹⁰holy spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and himself fought against them. ¹⁴Then he remembered ¹¹the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the ¹⁵shepherds of his flock? where is he that put his holy spirit in the midst of them? that caused ¹²his glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses? that divided the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name? that led them through the depths, ¹³as an horse in the wilderness, that they stumbled not? As the cattle that go ¹⁴down into the valley, the spirit of the LORD caused them to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious name. Look down from heaven, and ¹⁵behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy mighty acts? the yearning of thy bowels and thy compassions are restrained toward me. For thou art our ¹⁶father, though Abraham knoweth us not, and Israel doth not acknowledge us: thou, O LORD, art our father; our redeemer from everlasting is thy name. O ¹⁷LORD, why dost thou make us to err from thy ways, and hardenest our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance. Thy holy ¹⁸people possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary. We are become as they ¹⁹over whom thou never barest rule; as they that were not called by thy name.

For from of old men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye ¹seen a God beside thee, which worketh for him that waiteth for him. Thou ²meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou wast wroth, and we sinned: ³in them have we been of long time, and shall we be saved? For we are all become as one that is unclean, and all our righteousnesses are as a polluted garment: and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and ⁴hast ⁵consumed us by means of our iniquities. But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand. Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, look, we beseech thee, we are all thy people. Thy holy cities are become a wilderness, Zion is become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation. Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned with fire; and all our pleasant things are laid waste. 12 Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD? wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

65 I ⁶AM inquired of by them that asked not for me; I ⁷am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation ⁸that was not called by my name. I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that is not good, after their own thoughts; a people that provoketh me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens, and 4 burning incense upon bricks; which ⁹sit among the graves, and lodge in the ¹⁰secret places; which eat swine's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels; which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me, for I am holier than thou: these are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day. Behold, 6 it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, yea, I will recompense into their bosom, your own ⁷iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, which have burned incense upon the mountains, and ¹¹blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I ¹²first measure their work into their bosom.

Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine 8 is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not, for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all. And I will 9 bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there. And Sharon 10 shall be a ¹³fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me. But 11 ye that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for ¹⁴Fortune, and that fill up mingled wine unto ¹⁵Destiny; I will destine you to the 12 sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but ye did that which was evil in mine eyes, and chose that wherein I delighted not.

Therefore thus saith the Lord God, 13 Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed: behold, my servants 14 shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for ¹⁶vexation of spirit. For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former things shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying. There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old, and the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed. And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree shall be the days of my people, and my chosen shall ³long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for ⁴calamity; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring ⁵with them. And it shall come to pass that, before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the ox: and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD.

66 THUS saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: what manner of house will ye build unto me? and what place shall be my rest? For all these things hath mine hand made, and so all these things came to be, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and that trembleth at my word. He that killeth an ox ³is as he that slayeth a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as he that breaketh a dog's neck; he that offereth ⁶an oblation, as he that offereth swine's blood; he that ⁷burneth frankincense, as he that blesseth an idol: yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations; I also will choose ⁴their ⁸delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did that which was evil in mine eyes, and chose that wherein I delighted not.

Hear the word of the LORD, ye that ⁵tremble at his word: Your brethren that hate you, that cast you out for my name's sake, have said, Let the LORD be glorified, that we may see your joy; but they shall be ashamed. And of them also 21 will I take for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD. For as the new heavens 22 and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain. And 24 they shall go forth, and look upon the carcases of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET

JEREMIAH

- 1 THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiab, of the priests that were in
 2 Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.
 3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah; unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.
 4 Now the word of the LORD came unto 5 me, saying, Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee, and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee; I have appointed thee a prophet unto the nations. Then said I, Ah, Lord 6 GOD! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child. But the LORD said unto me, Say 7 not, I am a child: for ⁷to whomsoever I shall send thee thou shalt go, and whatsoever I shall command thee thou shalt speak. Be not afraid because of them: 8 for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD. Then the LORD put forth his 9 hand, and touched my mouth; and the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put 10 my words in thy mouth: see, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down, and to destroy and to overthrow; to build, and to plant.

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of ¹an almond tree. Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I ²watch over my word to perform it. And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething caldron; and the face thereof is from the north. Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north evil ³shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land. For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah. And I will ⁴utter my judgements against them touching all their wickedness; in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands. Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at them, lest I dismay thee before them. 18 For, behold, I have made thee this day a defended city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls, against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land. 19 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

2 AND the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I remember ⁵for thee the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine

espousals; how thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. Israel was holiness unto the LORD, ³the firstfruits of his increase: all that devour him shall be held guilty; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

Hear ye the word of the LORD, O ⁴house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel: thus saith the LORD, ⁵What unrighteousness have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain? Neither said they, ⁶Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt; that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of ⁷the shadow of death, through a land that none passed through, and where no man dwelt? And I brought ⁷you into a plentiful land, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination. The priests said not, Where is the LORD? ⁸and they that handle the law knew me not: the ⁹rulers also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit. Wherefore I will yet plead with ⁹you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead. For pass ¹⁰over to the isles of Kittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently; and see if there hath been such a thing. Hath a nation changed ¹¹their gods, which yet are no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit. Be astonished, O ¹²ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD. For ¹³my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. Is Israel a servant? is he a home-born ¹⁴slave? why is he become a prey? The young lions have roared upon him, ¹⁵and ¹⁵yelled: and they have made his land and Talpanhes have ¹broken the crown 17 of thy head. Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by 18 the way? And now what hast thou to do in the way to Egypt, to drink the waters of ²Shihor? or what hast thou to do in the way to Assyria, to drink the waters 19 of ³the River? Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and a bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, 20 saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts. For of old time ⁴I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not ⁵serve; for upon every high hill and under every green tree thou didst bow 21 thyself, playing the harlot. Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me? For though thou wash thee with 22 lye, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the 23 Lord God. How canst thou say, I am not defiled, I have not gone after the Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift 24 ⁶dromedary traversing her ways; a wild ass used to the wilderness, that sniffeth

 up the wind in her desire; in her occasion
 who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in 25 her month they shall find her. Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved stran-26 gers, and after them will I go. As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, 27 and their prophets; which say to a stock,
 Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast ⁷brought ⁸me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us. But where ²⁸ are thy gods that thou hast made thee?

 let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye ²⁹
 all have transgressed against me, saith
 the LORD. In vain have I smitten you ³⁰ children; they received no ⁹correction:
 your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion. O ge- ³¹
 neration, see ye the word of the LORD.
 Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? or a land of ¹⁰thick darkness? wherefore say my people, We are broken loose; we will come no more unto thee? Can a maid ³² forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number. How trimmest ³³ thou thy way to seek love! therefore even the wicked women hast thou taught thy ways. Also in thy skirts is found the ³⁴ blood of the souls of the innocent poor:
¹¹I have not found it at the place of breaking in, but upon ¹²all these. Yet thou ³⁵ saidst, I am innocent; surely his anger is turned away from me. Behold, I will enter into judgement with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned. Why gad- ³⁶ dest thou about so much to change thy way? thou shalt be ashamed of Egypt
 also, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.
 From him also shalt thou go forth, with ³⁷
 thine hands upon thine head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences,
 and thou shalt not prosper in them.

3 ¹³THEY say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly

the ways hast thou sat for them, as an Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness. Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; yet thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed. Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth? Will he retain his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and hast done evil things, and hast had thy way. Moreover the LORD said unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot. And I said after she had done all these things, She will return unto me; but she returned not: and her treacherous sister Judah saw it. And I saw, when, for this very cause that backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorcement, yet treacherous Judah her sister feared not; but she also went and played the harlot. And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that the land was polluted, and she committed adultery with stones and with stocks. And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not returned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith the LORD. And the LORD said unto me, Backsliding Israel hath shewn herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; I will not look in anger upon you: for I am merciful, saith the LORD, I will not keep anger for ever. Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD. Return, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am a husband unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion: and I will give you shepherds according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD; neither shall it come to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall that be done any more. At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the stubbornness of their evil heart. In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave for an inheritance unto your fathers. But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of the nations? and I said, Ye shall call me My father; and shall not turn away from following me. Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD. A voice is heard upon the bare heights, the weeping and the supplications of the children of Israel; for that they have perverted their way, they have forgotten the LORD their God. Return, ye backsliding children, I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we are come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God. 4 IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, unto me shalt thou return: and ²if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt 2 thou not be removed; and thou shalt swear, As the LORD liveth, in truth, in judgement, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.

3 For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, Break up your fallowground, and sow not among thorns.

4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury go forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because

5 of the evil of your doings. Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry aloud and say, Assemble yourselves,

6 and let us go into the fenced cities. Set up a standard toward Zion: flee for safety, stay not: for I will bring evil from

7 the north, and a great destruction. A lion is gone up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations; he is on his way, he is gone forth from his place; to make thy land desolate, that thy cities be laid

8 waste, without inhabitant. For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not

9 turned back from us. And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets 10 shall wonder. Then said I, Ah, Lord

GOD! surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul. At that time 11 shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse; ^{3a} 12 full wind from these shall come for me: now will I also utter judgements against them. Behold, he shall come up as 13 clouds, and his chariots shall be as the whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled. O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from 14 wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thine evil thoughts lodge within thee? For ^{4a} a voice declareth from 15 Dan, and publisheth evil from the hills of Ephraim: make ye mention to the 16 nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah. As keepers of a field 17 are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD. Thy way and thy 18 doings have procured these things unto thee; this is thy wickedness; ^{5b} for it is bitter, ^{5b} for it reacheth unto thine heart.

My bowels, my bowels! ⁶I am pained 19 at ⁷my very heart; my heart is disquieted in me; I cannot hold my peace; because ⁸thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. De- 20 struction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment. How long shall I see the 21 standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet? For my people is foolish, they 22 know me not; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was waste 23 and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and, 24

 26 were fled. I beheld, and, lo, ²the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the pre-27 sence of the LORD, and before his fierce anger. For thus saith the LORD, The whole land shall be a desolation; yet will 28 I not make a full end. For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and I have not repented, 29 neither will I turn back from it. ³The whole city fleeth for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they go into the thickets, and climb up upon the rocks:
 every city is forsaken, and not a man 30 dwelleth therein. And thou, when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with scarlet, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou ⁴enlargest thine eyes with paint, in vain dost thou make thyself fair; thy lovers despise thee, they 31 seek thy life. For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, the anguish as
 of her that bringeth forth her first child,
 the voice of the daughter of Zion, that gaspeth for breath, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul fainteth before the murderers.

5 RUN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now,
 and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that doeth justly, that seeketh ⁵truth;
 2 and I will pardon her. And though they say, As the LORD liveth; surely they 3 swear falsely. O LORD, ⁶do not thine eyes look upon ⁷truth? thou hast stricken them, but they were not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive ⁸correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock;
 4 they have refused to return. Then I said, Surely these are poor: they are foolish; for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgement of their God:

I will get me unto the great men, and 5
 will speak unto them; for they know the way of the LORD, and the judgement of their God. But these with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the bands. Wherefore a lion out of the forest 6 shall slay them, a wolf of the ⁹evenings shall spoil them, a leopard shall watch
 over their cities, every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased. How 7 can I pardon thee? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had ¹⁰fed them to the full, they committed adultery, and assembled themselves in troops at the har-lots' houses. They were as fed horses 8 ¹¹in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbour's wife. Shall I not visit 9 for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; 10
 but make not a full end: take away her branches: for they are not the LORD's.
 For the house of Israel and the house of 11
 Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD. They have 12 denied the LORD, and said, It is not he;
 neither shall evil come upon us; neither
 shall we see sword nor famine: and the 13 prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them. Wherefore thus saith 14
 the LORD, the God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people
 wood, and it shall devour them. Lo, I 15 will bring a nation upon you from far, O
 house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is ¹⁶a
 mighty nation, it is an ancient nation,

But even in those days, saith the LORD, I will not make a full end with you. And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, Wherefore hath the LORD our God done all these things unto us? then shalt thou say unto them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.
- 20 Declare ye this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, I hear now this, O foolish people, and without ²understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not:
- 22 Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, ³by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it? and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they rear, yet can they not pass over it. But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone. Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in its season; that reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest. Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good from you. For among my people are found wicked men: they watch, as fowlers lie in wait; they set a trap, they catch men. As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich. They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass in deeds of wickedness: they plead not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they should prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?
- 30 ⁴A wonderful and horrible thing is come to pass in the land; the prophets ⁵prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule ⁶by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

6 FLEE for safety, ye children of Benjamin, out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and raise up a signal on Beth-haccherem: for evil looketh forth from the north, and a great destruction. The comely and delicate one, the daughter of Zion, will I cut off. Shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place. ⁷Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day declineth, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. Arise, and let us go up by night, and let us destroy her palaces. For thus hath the LORD of hosts ⁸said, Hew ye down ⁹trees, and cast up a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her. As a well ¹⁰casteth forth her waters, so she ¹¹casteth forth her wickedness: violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is sickness and wounds. Bethou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul be alienated from thee; lest I make thee a desolation, a land not inhabited.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn again thine hand as a grapegatherer ¹²into the baskets. To whom shall I speak and testify, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is become unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it. Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: pour it out upon the children in the street, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days. - 14 They have healed also the ¹'hurt of ²'my people lightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. ³'Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall ⁴'be cast down, saith the LORD.

- 17 they said, We will not walk therein. And I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet; but they

- 22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country; and a great nation shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. They
- 23 lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea, and they ride upon horses; every one set in array, as a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Zion. We have heard the fame thereof; our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pangs as of a woman in travail. Go not forth into the ²⁵field, nor walk by the way; for there is the sword of the enemy, and terror on every side. O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation; for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us. I have made thee a ²⁷'tower and a fortress among my people; that thou mayest know and try their way. They ²⁸are all grievous revolters, going about with slanders; they are brass and iron: they all of them deal corruptly. The ²⁹bellows ⁷blow fiercely; the lead is consumed of the fire: in vain do they go on refining; for the wicked are not plucked away. Refuse silver shall men call them, ³⁰because the LORD hath rejected them.

7 THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God ³of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. Trust ye not in lying words, ⁴saying, The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, are these. For if ye thoroughly ⁵amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgement between a man and his neighbour; if ye oppress ⁶not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your own hurt: then will I cause you ⁷to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, from of old even for evermore. falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye have not 10 known, and come and stand before me in this house, ¹which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered; that 11 ye may do all these abominations? Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it, saith the 12 LORD. But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I caused my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. And now, because ye have 13 done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called 14 you, but ye answered not: therefore will I do unto the house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your 15 fathers, as I have done to Shiloh. And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim.
 16 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me:
 17 for I will not hear thee. Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and 18 in the streets of Jerusalem? The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me 19 to anger. Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD; do they not provoke themselves, to the confusion of their 20 own faces? Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.
 21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Add your burnt offerings unto 22 your sacrifices, and eat ye flesh. For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices: but ²³this thing I commanded them, saying, Harken unto my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you. But they hearkened not, nor inclined ²⁴their ear, but walked in their own counsels and in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward and not forward. Since the day that your fathers ²⁵came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day, I have sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff: they did worse than their fathers.

And thou shalt speak all these words ²⁷unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee. And thou ²⁸shalt say unto them, This is the nation that hath not hearkened to the voice of the LORD their God, nor received ²⁹instruction: ³truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

Cut off ⁴thine hair, O Jerusalem, and ²⁹cast it away, and take up a lamentation on the bare heights; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath. For the children of Judah ³⁰have done that which is evil in my sight, saith the LORD: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. And they have ³¹built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded not, neither came it into my ³²mind. Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter: for they shall bury in Topheth, ³³till there be no place to bury. heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away. Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride: for the land shall become a waste.

8 AT that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves: and they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth. And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD: Shall men fall, and not rise up again? shall one turn away, and not return? Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return. I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repenteth him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turneth to his course, as a horse that rusheth headlong in the battle. Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the swallow and the crane observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the ordinance of the LORD. How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? But, behold, the false pen of the scribes hath wrought falsely. 9 The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and what manner of wisdom is in them? Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall possess them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. And they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people lightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD. I will utterly consume them, saith the LORD: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them. Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the fenced cities, and let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD. We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and behold dismay! The snorting of his horses is heard from Dan: at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones the whole land trembleth; for they are come, and have devoured the land and all that is in it; the city and those that dwell therein. For, behold, I will send serpents, ⁷basilisks, among you, which will not be charmed; and they shall bite you, saith the LORD.

Oh that I could comfort myself against sorrow! my heart is faint within me. Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people ⁸from a land that is very far off: Is not the LORD in Zion? is not her King in her? 9 OH that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! ⁴Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. And they bend their tongue as it were their bow for falsehood; and they are grown strong in the land, but not for ⁵truth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD.

4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will go about with slanders.

5 And they will ⁶deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies; they weary themselves to commit iniquity. Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how else should I do, because of the daughter of my people? Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in his heart he layeth wait for him. Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the pastures of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none passeth through; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled, they 11 are gone. And I will make Jerusalem heaps, a dwelling place of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant. Who is the 12 wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it? wherefore is the land perished and burned up like a wilderness, so that none passeth through?

And the LORD saith, Because they 13 have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein; but have walked 14 after the stubbornness of their own heart, and after the Baalim, which their fathers taught them: therefore thus saith the 15 LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. I will scatter them also 16 among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Con- 17 sider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for the cunning women, that they may come: and let them make haste, and take up a 18 wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters. For a voice of wailing 19 is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because ⁷they have cast down our dwellings. Yet hear 20 the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation. For death is come up into 21 our windows, it is entered into our palaces; to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.  3 nations are dismayed at them. For the ¹customs of the peoples are vanity: for ²one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman with 4 the axe. They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and
 5 with hammers, that it move not. They are like a ³palm tree, of turned work, and speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of

But the LORD is ⁸the true God; he is the living God, and an everlasting king: at his wrath the earth trembleth, and the nations are not able to abide his indignation.

⁹Thus shall ye say unto them, The ¹¹gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, ¹⁰these shall perish from the earth, and from under the heavens.

He hath made the earth by his power, ¹²he hath established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding hath he stretched out the heavens: ¹¹when he ¹³uttereth his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures. Every man ¹²is become brutish ¹⁴and is without knowledge; every goldsmith is put to shame by his graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. They ¹⁵are vanity, a work of ¹³delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. The portion of Jacob is not like these; ¹⁶for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name.

Gather up ¹⁴thy wares out of the land, ¹⁷¹⁵O thou that abidest in the siege. For ¹⁸thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and will distress them, that they may ¹⁶feel it. Woe is me for my hurt! my ¹⁹wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is my ¹⁷grief, and I must bear it. My ²⁰tent is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains. For the shepherds ²¹are become brutish, and have not inquired of the LORD: therefore they have

11 THE word that came to Jeremiah
from the LORD, saying, Hear ye
the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the in-3 habitants of Jerusalem; and say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: Cursed be the man that heareth not the words of this covenant, 4 which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace,
saying, Obey my voice, and do them,
according to all which I command you:
so shall ye be my people, and I will be 5 your God: that I may establish the oath which I sware unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as at this day. Then answered I,
and said, Amen, O LORD.

6 And the LORD said unto me, Proclaim
all these words in the cities of Judah,
and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying,
Hear ye the words of this covenant, and 7 do them. For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protest-8 ing, saying, Obey my voice. Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the stubbornness
of their evil heart: therefore I brought upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do,

but they did them not.

And the LORD said unto me, A con- 9
spiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. They are turned back to the 10 iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they are gone after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. Therefore thus saith 11
the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and they shall cry unto me, but I will not hearken unto them. Then 12 shall the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem go and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their ⁴trouble. For according to 13
the number of thy cities are thy gods,
O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to the ⁵shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal. There- 14 fore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me ⁶for their ⁴trouble.

⁷What hath my beloved to do in mine 15
house, seeing she hath wrought lewd-ness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? ⁸when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest. The LORD 16 called thy name, A green olive tree, fair with goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon
it, and the branches of it are broken.
For the LORD of hosts, that planted thee, 17 hath pronounced evil against thee, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have wrought for themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense unto Baal.

And the LORD gave me knowledge of 18
it, and I knew it: then thou shewedst

But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the ¹fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered. But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Thou shalt not prophesy in the name of the LORD, that thou die not

22 by our hand: therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will ²punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters

23 shall die by famine; and there shall be no remnant unto them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, ³even the year of their visitation.

12 RIGHTEOUS art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet would I ⁴reason the cause with thee: wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they at ease that deal

2 very treacherously? Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root; they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far from

3 their reins. But thou, O LORD, knowest me; thou seest me, and triest mine heart toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and ⁵prepare them for

4 the day of slaughter. How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of the whole country wither? for the wickedness of them that dwell therein, the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they

5 said, He shall not see our latter end. If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and though in a land of peace thou art secure, yet how wilt thou do in the ⁶pride of Jordan?

6 For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacher-

ously with thee; even they have cried aloud after thee: believe them not, though they speak ⁷fair words unto thee.

I have forsaken mine house, I have ⁸cast off mine heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies. Mine heritage is become

8 unto me as a lion in the forest: she hath uttered her voice against me; therefore I have hated her. Is mine heritage unto

9 me as a speckled bird of prey? are the birds of prey against her round about? go ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, bring them to devour. Many shepherds

10 have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. They have made it a

11 desolation; it mourneth unto me, being desolate; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to heart. Spoilers are come upon all the bare

12 heights in the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD devoureth from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh hath peace. They have

13 sown wheat, and have reaped thorns; they have put themselves to pain, and profit nothing: and ¹⁴ye shall be ashamed of your fruits, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD against all mine

14 evil neighbours, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: Behold, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from among them. And it shall come to pass, after that I

15 have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them; and I will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. And it

16 shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, As the LORD liveth; even as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built up in the midst of my people. But if they will

13 THUS said the LORD unto me, Go, and buy thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water. So I bought a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it upon my loins. And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, Take the girdle that thou hast bought, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock. So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me. And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there. Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing. Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and are gone after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is profitable for nothing. For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear. Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word: Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Every ¹bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not know that every ²bottle shall be filled with wine? Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit ³upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. And I will dash them ⁴one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have compassion, that I should not destroy them.

Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: ⁵for the LORD hath spoken. Give glory ⁶to the LORD your God, before ⁷he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the ⁸dark mountains; and, while ye look for light, he turn it into ⁹the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness. But if ye will not hear it, my ¹⁰soul shall weep in secret for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is taken captive. Say thou unto the ¹¹king and to the queen-mother, ¹²Humble yourselves, sit down: for your headtires are come down, even ¹³the crown of your glory. The cities of the South are shut up, and there is none to open them: Judah is carried away captive all of it; it is wholly carried away captive.

Lift up your eyes, and behold them ¹⁴that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock? ¹⁵What wilt thou say, when he ¹⁶shall set thy friends over thee as head, seeing thou thyself hast instructed them against thee? shall not sorrows take hold of thee, as of a woman in travail? And ¹⁷if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore are these things come upon me? for the ¹⁸greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels suffer violence. Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or ¹⁹the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are ²⁰accustomed to do evil. Therefore will I scatter them, as the ²¹stubble that passeth away, ²²by the wind of the wilderness. 14 THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought.

- 2 Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish, they sit in black upon the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up. And their nobles send their ²little ones ³to the waters: they come to the pits, and find no water; they return with their vessels empty: they are ashamed and confounded, and cover their heads.
- 4 Because of the ground which is ⁴chapt, for that no rain hath been in the land, the plowmen are ashamed, they cover their heads. Yea, the hind also in the field calveth, and forsaketh her young, because there is no grass. And the wild asses stand on the bare heights, they pant for air like ⁵jackals; their eyes fail, because there is no herbage.
- 7 Though our iniquities testify against us, work thou for thy name's sake, O LORD: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee. O thou hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in the time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a sojourner in the land, and as a way-faring man that ⁶turneth aside to tarry for a night? Why shouldest thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not.
- 10 Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Even so have they loved to wander; they have not refrained their feet: therefore the LORD doth not accept them; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins. And the LORD said unto me, Pray not for this people for their good. When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and ⁷oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence. Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you ⁸assured peace in this place. Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake I unto them: they prophesy unto you a lying vision, and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their own heart. Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land: By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed. And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them. And thou shalt say ⁹this word unto them, Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease; for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous wound. If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold ¹⁰them that are sick with famine! for both the prophet and the priest ¹¹go about ¹²in the land and have no knowledge.

of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us. Are there any among the vanities of the heathen that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee; for thou hast made all these things.

15 THEN said the LORD unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth. And it shall come to pass, when they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD: Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for captivity, to captivity.

3 And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and to destroy. And I will cause them to be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem. For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall turn aside to ask of thy welfare? Thou hast rejected me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward: therefore have I stretched out my hand against thee, and destroyed thee; I am weary with repenting. And I have fanned them with a fan in the gates of the land; I have bereaved them of children, I have destroyed my people; they have not returned from their ways.

8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noonday: I have caused anguish and terrors to fall upon her suddenly. She that hath borne seven languisheth; she hath given up the ghost; her sun is gone down while it was yet day; she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.

Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have not lent on usury, neither have men lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me. The LORD said, Verily I will strengthen thee for good; verily I will cause the enemy to make supplication unto thee in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.

Can one break iron, even iron from the north, and brass? Thy substance and thy treasures will I give for a spoil without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders. And I will make them to pass with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not: for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.

O LORD, thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and avenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy longsuffering: know that for thy sake I have suffered reproach. Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy words were unto me a joy and the rejoicing of mine heart: for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts. I sat not in the assembly of them that make merry, nor rejoiced: I sat alone because of thy hand; for thou hast filled me with indignation. Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou indeed be unto me as a deceitful brook, as waters that fail?

Therefore thus saith the LORD, If thou return, then will I bring thee again, that thou mayest stand before me; and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: they shall return unto thee, but thou shalt not return unto them. wall; and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the LORD. And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

16 THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying, Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place. For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land: They shall die ¹of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; they shall be as dung upon the face of the ground: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth. For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament, neither bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and tender mercies. Both great and small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them: neither shall men break bread for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother. And thou shalt not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and to drink. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride. And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God? then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law; and ye have done evil more than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart, so that ye hearken not unto me: therefore will I cast you forth out of this land into the land that ye have not known, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; ²for I will shew you no favour.

Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, As the LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; but, As the LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the countries whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers. Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity concealed from mine eyes. And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; ³because they have polluted my land with the carcases of their detestable things, and have filled mine inheritance with their abominations. O LORD, my strength, and my strong hold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, unto thee shall the nations come from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Our fathers have inherited nought but lies, even vanity and things wherein there is no profit. 17 THE sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars; whilst their children remember their altars and their Asherim by the green trees upon the high hills. O my mountain in the field, I will give thy substance and all thy treasures for a spoil, and thy high places, because of sin, throughout all thy borders. And thou, even of thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for ye have kindled a fire in mine anger which shall burn for ever.

5 Thus saith the LORD: Cursed is the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD. For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, a salt land and not inhabited. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out his roots by the river, and shall not fear when heat cometh, but his leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. The heart is deceitful above all things, and it is desperately sick: who can know it? I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings. As the partridge that gathereth young which she hath not brought forth, so is he that getteth riches, and not by right; in the midst of his days they shall leave him, and at his end he shall be a fool.

A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary. O LORD, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed; they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living waters. Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; I save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise. Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now. As for me, I have not hastened from being a shepherd after thee; neither have I desired the woeful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was before thy face. Be not a terror unto me: thou art my refuge in the day of evil. Let them be ashamed that persecute me, but let not me be ashamed; let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed; bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.

Thus said the LORD unto me: Go, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; and say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates; thus saith the LORD: Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work: but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers; but they hearkened not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, and might not receive instruction. And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but to hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein; then shall there enter in by the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: 26 and this city shall ¹remain for ever. And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places round about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the lowland, and from the mountains, and from the South, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and ²oblations, and frankincense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving, unto the 27 house of the LORD. But if ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden and enter in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

18 THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my 3 words. Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought his 4 work on the wheels. And when the vessel that he made of the clay was marred in the hand of the potter, he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. 5 Then the word of the LORD came to 6 me, saying, O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O 7 house of Israel. At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up and to break 8 down and to destroy it; if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil 9 that I thought to do unto them. And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to 10 build and to plant it; if it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them. Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD: Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and amend your ways and your doings. But they say, 12 There is no hope: for we will walk after our own devices, and we will do every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart.

Therefore thus saith the LORD: Ask 13 ye now among the nations, who hath heard such things; the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing. Shall 14 the snow of Lebanon fail from the rock of the field? or shall the cold waters ³that flow down from afar be ⁴dried up? For 15 my people hath forgotten me, they have burned incense to vanity; and they have caused them to stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in bypaths, in a way not cast up; to make their land 16 an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and shake his head. I will 17 scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will ⁵look upon their back, and not their face, in the day of their calamity.

Then said they, Come, and let us 18 devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken 19 to the voice of them that contend with me. Shall evil be recompensed for good? 20 for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember how I stood before thee to speak good for them, to turn away thy fury from them. Therefore deliver up 21 their children to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword; and let their wives become childless, and widows; and let their men be slain of death, and their young men smitten of

19 THUS said the LORD, Go, and buy a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the elders of the people, and of
2 the elders of the priests; and go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of ²the gate Harsith, and proclaim there the words that
3 I shall tell thee: and say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall
4 tingle. Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom they knew not, they and their fathers and the kings of Judah; and have filled this place with the blood of innocents; and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons in the fire for burnt offerings unto Baal; which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came
5 it into my ³mind: therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom,
6 but The valley of Slaughter. And I will ⁴make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of them that seek their life: and their carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.
7 And I will make this city an astonishment, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and

hiss because of all the plagues thereof. And I will cause them to eat the flesh ⁹of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend, in the siege and in the straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their life, shall straiten them. Then shalt thou break the bottle ¹⁰in the sight of the men that go with thee, and shalt say unto them, Thus saith the ¹¹LORD of hosts: Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and they shall bury in Topheth, ¹²till there be no place to bury. Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, even making this city as Topheth: and ¹³the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which are defiled, shall be as the place of Topheth, even all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink offerings unto other gods.

Then came Jeremiah from Topheth, ¹⁴whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the LORD's house, and said to all the people: Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God ¹⁵of Israel, Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it; because they have made their neck stiff, that they might not hear my words.

20 NOW Pashhur the son of Immer the priest, who was chief officer in the house of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things. Then ²Pashhur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper gate of Benjamin, which was in the house of the LORD. And it came ³to pass on the morrow, that Pashhur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashhur, but ⁴'Magor-missabib. For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive to Babylon, and shall 5 slay them with the sword. Moreover I will give all the riches of this city, and all the gains thereof, and all the precious things thereof, yea, all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to 6 Babylon. And thou, Pashhur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and there shalt thou be buried, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied falsely.

- 7 O LORD, thou hast ¹deceived me, and I was deceived: thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am become a laughingstock all the day, every one 8 mocketh me. For as often as I speak, I cry out; I cry, Violence and spoil: because the word of the LORD is made a reproach unto me, and a derision, all the 9 day. And if I say, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name, then there is in mine heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with forbearing, and I
 10 cannot contain. For I have heard the defaming of many, terror on every side. Denounce, and we will denounce him, say all my familiar friends, they that watch for my halting; peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.
 11 But the LORD is with me as a mighty one and a terrible: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed, because they have not ²dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonour which shall never be forgotten. But,
 12 O LORD of hosts, that triest the righteous, that seest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them; for unto thee have I revealed my cause.
 13 Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD:

for he hath delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evil-doers.

Cursed be the day wherein I was born: 14 let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed. Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, A man child is born unto thee; making him very glad. And let that man be as 15 the cities which the LORD overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear a cry in the morning, and ³shouting at noon-tide; because he slew me not from the womb; and so my mother should have been my grave, and her womb always great. Wherefore came I forth out of 16 the womb to see labour and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

21 THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him Pashhur the son of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying, Inquire, I ² pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us: peradventure the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus ³ shall ye say to Zedekiah: Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans which besiege you, without the walls, and I will gather them into the midst of this city. And I myself will ⁴ fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath. And I will smite the inhabitants of this ⁵ city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence. And afterward, ⁶ saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, even such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have 8 pity, nor have mercy. And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD: Behold, I set before you the way

9 of life and the way of death. He that abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth away to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall 10 be unto him for a prey. For I have set my face upon this city for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

11 And touching the house of the king of Judah, hear ye the word of the LORD:
12 O house of David, thus saith the LORD, Execute judgement in the morning, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, be-
13 cause of the evil of ¹your doings. Behold, I am against thee, O ²inhabitant of the valley, ³and of the rock of the plain, saith the LORD; ye which say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall 14 enter into our habitations? and I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it shall devour all that is round about her.

22 THUS said the LORD: Go down to the house of the king of Judah,
2 and speak there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people
3 that enter in by these gates. Thus saith the LORD: Execute ye judgement and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence, to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither 4 shed innocent blood in this place. For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall

there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting ⁴upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. But if ye ⁵will not hear these words, I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation. For thus ⁶saith the LORD ⁵concerning the house of the king of Judah: Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited. And I will ⁷⁶prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. And many nations shall ⁸pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city? Then they shall answer, Because ⁹they forsook the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

Weep ye not for the dead, neither ¹⁰bemoan him: but weep sore for him that goeth away; for he shall return no more, nor see his native country. For ¹¹thus saith the LORD touching ⁷Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, which went forth out of this place: He shall not return thither any more; but in ¹²the place whither they have led him captive, there shall he die, and he shall see this land no more.

Woe unto him that buildeth his house ¹³by unrighteousness, and his chambers by injustice; that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not his hire; that saith, I will build me ¹⁴a wide house and spacious chambers, and cutteth him out windows; and it is cieled with cedar, and painted with vermilion. Shalt thou reign, because thou ¹⁵⁸strivest to excel in cedar? did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgement and justice? then it was well with him. 20 Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan: and cry from Abarim; for all thy lovers are destroyed.

21 I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear. This hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice. The wind shall ²feed all thy shepherds, and thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded

23 for all thy wickedness. O ³inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, ⁴how greatly to be pitied shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the pain as of a woman in travail! As I live, saith the LORD, though ⁵Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I

25 pluck thee thence; and I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them of whom thou art afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the

26 hand of the Chaldeans. And I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not

27 born; and there shall ye die. But to the land whereunto ⁶their soul longeth to

28 return, thither shall they not return. Is this man Coniah a despised broken ⁷vessel? is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into the land which

29 they know not? O ⁸earth, earth, earth,

30 hear the word of the LORD. Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

23 WOE unto the shepherds that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD. Therefore ²thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds that feed my people: Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD. And ³I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and multiply. And I will set up shepherds ⁴over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be lacking, saith the LORD.

Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, ⁵that I will raise unto David a righteous ⁹Branch, and he shall reign as king and ¹⁰deal wisely, and shall execute judgement and justice in the land. In his days ⁶Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, ¹¹The LORD is our righteousness. Therefore, behold, the ⁷days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, As the LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; but, As the ⁸LORD liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

11 force is not right. For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the 12 LORD. Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery places in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, ¹even the year of their visitation, saith 13 the LORD. And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.
 14 In the prophets of Jerusalem also I have seen an horrible thing; they commit adultery, and walk in lies, and they strengthen the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them become unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.
 15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets: Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness
 16 gone forth into all the land. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you; they teach you vanity: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD. They say continually unto them ²that despise me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and unto every one that walketh in the stubbornness of his own heart they say, 18 No evil shall come upon you. For who hath stood in the council of the LORD, that he should perceive and hear his word? who hath marked ³my word, and 19 heard it? Behold, the tempest of the LORD, even his fury, is gone forth, yea, a whirling tempest: it shall burst upon 20 the head of the wicked. The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have ⁴executed, and till he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days
 21 ye shall ⁵understand it perfectly. I sent not these prophets, yet they ran: I spake
 22 not unto them, yet they prophesied. But if they had stood in my council, then had they caused my people to hear my words, and had turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings. Am I a God at hand, saith the 23 LORD, and not a God afar off? Can any 24 hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD. I have heard what the prophets have 25 said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. How long shall this be in the heart of 26 the prophets that prophesy lies; even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart? which think to cause my people 27 to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers forgot my name for Baal. The prophet that hath a dream, let him 28 tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the straw to the wheat? saith the LORD. Is not my word like as fire? saith the 29 LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

Therefore, behold, I am against the 30 prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour. Behold, I am against the prophets, saith 31 the LORD, that ⁶use their tongues, and say, He saith. Behold, I am against them 32 that prophesy lying dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting: yet I sent them not, nor commanded them; neither shall they profit this people at all, saith the LORD. And when this people, or the prophet, 33 or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? then shalt thou ⁷say unto them, ⁸What burden! I will cast you off, saith the LORD. And 34 as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house.  have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.
 37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet,
 What hath the LORD answered thee?
 38 and, What hath the LORD spoken? But if ye say, The burden of the LORD;
 therefore thus saith the LORD: Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying,
 Ye shall not say, The burden of the 39 LORD; therefore, behold, I will ²utterly forget you, and I will cast you off, and

24 THE LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs set before the temple of the LORD; after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes
 of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths,
 from Jerusalem, and had brought them
 2 to Babylon. One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.
 3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, that cannot be eaten, they are so 4 bad. And the word of the LORD came 5 unto me, saying, Thus saith the LORD,
 the God of Israel: Like these good figs,
 so will I regard the captives of Judah,
 whom I have sent out of this place into 6 the land of the Chaldeans, for good. For I will set mine eyes upon them for good,
 and I will bring them again to this land:
 and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not 7 pluck them up. And I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the LORD:
 and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart. And as the 8 bad figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so bad; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give up Zedekiah the king of Judah,

 and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt: I will 9
 even give them up to be ³tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth
 for evil; to be a reproach and a proverb,
 a taunt and a curse, in all places whither
 I shall drive them. And I will send the 10 sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

25 THE word that came to Jeremiah
 concerning all the people of Judah
 in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah; the same was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; the which Jeremiah the pro- 2
 phet spake unto all the people of Judah,
 and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem,
 saying: From the thirteenth year of 3
 Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even unto this day, these three and twenty years, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising up early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened. And the LORD 4 hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear; saying, Return 5
 ye now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell
 in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers, from of old and even for evermore: and go not 6
 after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the work of your hands; and I will do you no hurt. Yet ye have not 7 hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own hurt.
 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts: 8

Because ye have not heard my words,
 9 behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and I will send unto Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about; and I will ¹utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual 10 desolations. Moreover I will ²take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the 11 candle. And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of 12 Babylon seventy years. And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans; and I will make 13 it ³desolate for ever. And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.
 14 For many nations and great kings ⁴shall serve themselves of them, even of them: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their hands.
 15 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto me: 'Take the cup of the wine of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to 16 drink it. And they shall drink, and reel to and fro, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.
 17 Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto 18 whom the LORD had sent me: to wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; as it is 19 this day; Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people; and all the mingled people, and 20 all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod; Edom, and 21 Moab, and the children of Ammon; and 22 all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the ⁵isle which is beyond the sea; Dedan, and Tema, 23 and Buz, and all that have the corners of their hair polled; and all the kings of 24 Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the wilderness; and 25 all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; and all the kings of the north, far and 26 near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of ⁶She-shach shall drink after them. And thou 27 shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you. And it 28 shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Ye shall surely drink. For, lo, I begin 29 to work evil at the city which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts. Therefore prophesy thou 30 against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar against his ⁷fold; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth. A noise shall come 31 even to the end of the earth; for the LORD hath a controversy with the nations, he will plead with all flesh; as for the wicked, he will give them to the sword, saith the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, 32

evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great tempest shall be raised up from the uttermost parts of the earth.

33 And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the

34 face of the ground. Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in ashes, ye principal of the flock: for the days of your slaughter are fully come, and I will break you in pieces, and ye shall fall

35 like a pleasant vessel. And ²the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the 36 principal of the flock to escape. A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and the howling of the principal of the flock! for the LORD layeth waste their pasture.

38 LORD. He hath forsaken his covert, as the lion: for their land is become an astonishment because of ³the fierceness of the oppressing sword, and because of his fierce anger.

26 IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word from the LORD,

2 saying, Thus saith the LORD: Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command thee to speak

3 unto them; keep not back a word. It may be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way; that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their

4 doings. And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD: If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which

5 I have set before you, to hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send unto you, even rising up early and sending them, but ye have not

6 hearkened; then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth. And 7 the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. And it 8 came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold on him, saying, Thou shalt surely die. Why hast 9 thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant? And all the people were gathered unto Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

And when the princes of Judah 10 heard these things, they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD; and they sat in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house. Then 11 spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy of death; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears. Then 12 spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard. Therefore now amend 13 your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you. But as 14 for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as is good and right in your eyes. Only know ye for certain that, if 15 ye put me to death, ye shall bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears. Then said the princes and all the 16 people unto the priests and to the prophets: This man is not worthy of death; for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God. Then rose up cer- 17 tain of the elders of the land, and spake

to all the assembly of the people, saying,
 18 ¹Micaiah the Morashtite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest. Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear the LORD, and intreat the favour of the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus should we commit great evil against our own souls.
 20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath-jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah: and when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, and fled,
 22 and went into Egypt: and Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men
 23 with him, into Egypt: and they fetched forth Uriah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the ²common
 24 people. But the hand of Abikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

27 IN the beginning of the reign of ³Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word unto Jeremiah
 2 from the LORD, saying, Thus saith the LORD to me: Make thee bands and bars,
 3 and put them upon thy neck; and send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the children of Ammon, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

and give them a charge unto their mas- 4
 ters, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Thus shall ye say unto your masters; I have made the 5 earth, the man and the beast that are upon the face of the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm; and I give it unto whom it seemeth right unto me. And now have I given all these 6 lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field also have I given him to serve him. And all the nations shall 7 serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him. And it shall 8 come to pass, that the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. But as for you, 9
 hearken ye not to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreams, nor to your soothsayers, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you, to re- 10 move you far from your land; and that I should drive you out and ye should perish. But the nation that shall bring 11 their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, that nation will I let remain in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

And I spake to Zedekiah king of Judah 12
 according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. Why will ye die, thou 13 and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken concerning the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? And hearken not unto the words of the 14

³ Properly,

prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: 15 for they prophesy a lie unto you. For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, but they prophesy falsely in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you. Also I spake to the 16 priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD: Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: 17 for they prophesy a lie unto you. Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this 18 city become a desolation? But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon. For thus saith the LORD of hosts 19 concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels 20 that are left in this city, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the 21 nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem: They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be, until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

28 AND it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azzur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests 2 and of all the people, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. Within two full years 3 will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon: and I will bring again to this 4 place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went to Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. Then the prophet 5 Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD, even the 6 prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all them of the captivity, from Babylon unto this place. Nevertheless hear 7 thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people: The prophets that have been before me 8 and before thee of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. The prophet which prophesieth 9 of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, 'that the LORD hath truly sent him. Then Hananiah the prophet took 10 the bar from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it. And Hananiah 11 spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD: Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon within two full years from off the neck of all the nations. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way. Then the word of the LORD came unto 12 Jeremiah, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the bar from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus 13 saith the LORD: Thou hast broken the bars of wood; but thou shalt make in their stead bars of iron. For thus saith 14 the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given 15 him the beasts of the field also. Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; the LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

 16 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will send thee away from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast spoken rebellion against the LORD. So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

29 NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to
 2 Babylon: (after that Jeconiah the king, and the queen-mother, and the eunuchs, and the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen, and the smiths, were
 3 departed from Jerusalem;) by the hand of Elashah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,) saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all the captivity, whom I have caused to be carried away captive from Jerusalem unto Babylon:
 5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;
 6 take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; and multiply ye there, and be not diminished.
 7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have 8 peace. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Let not your prophets that be in the midst of you, and your diviners, deceive you, neither hearken ye to your dreams which ye ¹cause to be dreamed. For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD. For thus saith the LORD, 10 After seventy years be accomplished for Babylon, I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. For I know 11 the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you ²hope in your latter end. And ye shall call upon me, 12 and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. And ye shall 13 seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. And 14 I will be found of you, saith the LORD, and I will ³turn again your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again unto the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive. For ye have said, The LORD hath raised 15 us up prophets in Babylon. For thus 16 saith the LORD concerning the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and concerning all the people that dwell in this city, your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity; thus saith 17 the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so bad. And I will pursue after them 18 with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be ⁴tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an execration, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them: because they have not hearkened to my 19 words, saith the LORD, wherewith I sent unto them my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD. Hear 20 ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.

of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay

22 them before your eyes; and of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captives of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon
23 roasted in the fire: because they have wrought folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I commanded them not; and I am he that knoweth, and am witness, saith the LORD.

24 And ¹concerning Shemaiah the Nehel-
25 amite thou shalt speak, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thine own name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the 26 priest, and to all the priests, saying, The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is mad, and maketh him-
27 self a prophet, that thou shouldst put him in the stocks and in ²shackles. Now therefore, why hast thou not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh
28 himself a prophet to you, forasmuch as he hath sent unto us in Babylon, saying, The captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them? And Zeph-
29 aniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. Then came the word of the LORD unto Jere-
30 miah, saying, Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he 32 hath caused you to trust in a lie; therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed; he shall not have a man to dwell among this people, neither shall he behold the good that I will do unto my people, saith the LORD: because he hath spoken rebellion against the LORD.

30 THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Thus ² speaketh the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book. For, ³ 3 lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will ⁴ turn again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

And these are the words that the LORD ⁴ spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah. For thus saith the LORD: We ⁵ have heard a voice of trembling, ⁶ of fear, and not of peace. Ask ye now, and see ⁶ whether a man doth travail with child: wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness? Alas! for that day is great, so that none is ⁷ like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it. And it shall come to pass in that day, ⁸ saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bands; and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him: but they shall ⁹ serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them. Therefore fear thou not, O Jacob ¹⁰ my servant, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. For I ¹¹ am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have scattered thee, but I will not make a full end of thee; but I will correct thee with judgement, and will in no wise ⁵ leave thee unpunished.

For there shall be a day, that ⁶the watchmen upon the hills of Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God. For thus ⁷saith the LORD, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout ¹⁶for the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel. Behold, I will bring them ⁸from the north country, and gather them from the uttermost parts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall they return hither. 4 Or, lord over them their inward parts, and in their heart will I write it; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people: and they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin will I remember no more. Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which stirreth up the sea, that the waves thereof roar; the LORD of hosts is his name: If these ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever. Thus saith the LORD: If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then will I also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD. Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD from the tower of Hanamel unto the gate of the corner. And the measuring line shall yet go out straight onward unto the hill Gareb, and shall turn about unto Goah. And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook Kidron, unto the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy unto the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.

32 THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar. Now at that time the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the king of Judah's house. For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes; and he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper?

1 Or, stilleth the sea, when &c. See Is. 51. 15.

And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is thine to buy it. So Hanamel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the guard according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. And I bought the field that was in Anathoth of Hanamel mine uncle's son, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver. And I subscribed the deed, and sealed it, and called witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances. So I took the deed of the purchase, both that which was sealed, ²according to the law and custom, and that which was open: and I delivered the deed of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the deed of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the guard. And I charged Baruch before them, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, this deed of the purchase, both that which is sealed, and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel; that they may continue many days. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall yet again be bought in this land.

2 Or, containing the terms and conditions

16 Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,
 17 Ah Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and by thy stretched out arm;
 18 there is nothing too hard for thee: which shewest mercy unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the great, the mighty God, the
 19 LORD of hosts is his name: great in counsel, and mighty in work: whose eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men; to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of 20 his doings: which didst set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, both in Israel and among other men; and madest thee a name, as at this
 21 day; and didst bring forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out
 22 arm, and with great terror; and gavest them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land
 23 flowing with milk and honey; and they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil
 24 to come upon them: behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold,
 25 thou seest it. And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and call witnesses; whereas the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.
 26 Then came the word of the LORD unto
 27 Jeremiah, saying, Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?
 28 Therefore thus saith the LORD: Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it: and the Chaldeans, that 29 fight against this city, shall come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger. For the children

 30 of Israel and the children of Judah have only done that which was evil in my sight from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD. For this city hath been to me a 31 provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; that I should remove it from before my face: because of all the 32 evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And they have 33 turned unto me the back, and not the face: and though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction. But they set their abominations in 34 the house which is called by my name, to defile it. And they built the high 35 places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination; to cause Judah to sin.

And now therefore thus saith the 36 LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: Behold, I will gather them
 37 out of all the countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely: and they 38 shall be my people, and I will be their

39 God: and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me for ever; for the good of them, and of their children after them: and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away ¹from them, to do them good; and I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart
41 from me. Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land ²assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul. For thus saith the LORD: Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that 43 I have promised them. And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate, without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.
44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe the deeds, and seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the hill country, and in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South: for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

33 MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up
2 in the court of the guard, saying, Thus saith the LORD that doeth it, the LORD that formeth it to establish it; the LORD
3 is his name: Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and will shew thee great things, and ³difficult, which thou knowest not. For thus saith the LORD, the 4 God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to make a defence against the
5 mounts, and against the sword: They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. And I ⁸will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned against me, and whereby they have transgressed against me. And this city shall be to me ⁹for a name of joy, for a praise and for a glory, before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them, and shall fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I procure unto it. Thus saith the LORD: ¹⁰Yet again there shall be heard in this place, whereof ye say, It is waste, without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without beast, the voice of joy and the voice of ¹¹gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that say, Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that bring sacrifices of thanksgiving into the house of the LORD. For I will cause the captivity of the land to return as at the first, saith the LORD. Thus saith the ¹²LORD of hosts: Yet again shall there be in this place, which is waste, without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. In the ¹³cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks again pass under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.

Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, ¹⁴that I will perform that good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah. In those days, and at that time, ¹⁵will I cause a Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgement and righteousness in 16 the land. In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name whereby she shall be called, The LORD is our righteousness. For thus saith the LORD: ¹David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel; neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to burn ²oblations, and to do sacrifice continually. And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD: If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, so that there should not be day and night in their season; then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me. And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD did choose, he hath cast them off? thus do they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. Thus saith the LORD: If my covenant of day and night stand not, if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; then will I also cast away the seed of Jacob, and of David my servant, so that I will not take of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will ³cause their captivity to return, and will have mercy on them.

34 THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his dominion, and all the peoples, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying:
2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel,

Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: and thou shalt not escape ³ out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon. Yet hear the word of the LORD, ⁴ O Zedekiah king of Judah: thus saith the LORD concerning thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword; thou shalt die in peace; ⁵ and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they make a burning for thee; and they shall lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have spoken the word, saith the LORD. Then Jeremiah the prophet spake ⁶ all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, when the king of ⁷ Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these alone remained of the cities of Judah as fenced cities.

The word that came unto Jeremiah ⁸ from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them; that every man ⁹ should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother: and all the princes ¹⁰ and all the people obeyed, which had entered into the covenant, that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more; they obeyed, and let them go: but ¹¹ afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids: therefore the word of ¹² the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the ¹³

³ Or, return to their captivity

God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of ¹bondage, saying, At the end of seven years ye shall let go every man his brother that is an Hebrew, which ²hath been sold unto thee, and hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined ³their ear. And ye were now turned, and had done that which is right in mine eyes, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which ⁴is called by my name: but ye turned and profaned my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom ye had let go free at their pleasure, to return; and ye brought them into subjection, to be unto you for ⁵servants and for handmaids. Therefore thus saith the LORD: Ye have not hearkened unto me, to proclaim liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim unto you a liberty, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be ⁶tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth. And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, ⁷when they cut the calf in twain and passed between the parts thereof; the princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the ⁸parts of the calf; I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts ⁹of the earth. And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, ¹⁰which are gone up from you. Behold,

I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.

35 THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, Go unto the house of ¹the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink. Then I took ²Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; and I brought them into the ³house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaiah, the man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shalum, the keeper of the ⁴door: and I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine. But they said, We will drink no wine: ⁵for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons, for ever: neither shall ye build house, nor ⁶sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land wherein ye sojourn. And we have ⁷obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters; nor ⁸to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: but we have dwelt in tents, and have ⁹obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. But ¹⁰it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the

- 12 Then came the word of the LORD unto 13 Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Go, and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the 14 LORD. The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons,
 not to drink wine, are performed, and unto this day they drink none, for they obey their father's commandment: but I have spoken unto you, rising up early and speaking; and ye have not hearkened 15 unto me. I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto 16 me. Forasmuch as the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people hath 17 not hearkened unto me; therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but 18 they have not answered. And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father,
 and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he commanded 19 you; therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

36 AND it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Take thee a roll of a book, and write ²

 therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day. It may be ³ that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them;
 that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. Then Jeremiah ⁴ called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book. And Jeremiah commanded Ba- ⁵ ruch, saying, I am 'shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD: therefore go ⁶
 thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD's house upon ²the fast day:
 and also thou shalt read them in the ears
 of all Judah that come out of their cities.
 It may be ³they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people. And Baruch the son of Neriah did ac- ⁸ cording to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

Now it came to pass in the fifth year ⁹ of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before the LORD. Then read Baruch in the book ¹⁰
 the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah
 the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people. And when Micaiah the son of ¹¹ Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, he went down into the king's ¹²
 house, into the scribe's chamber: and,

lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. Then Micaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them. And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears. Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words. And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth? Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book. Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be. And they went in to the king into the court; but they had laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe; and they told all the words in the ears of the king. So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of the chamber of Elishama the scribe. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king. Now the king sat in the winter house in the ninth month: and there was a fire in the brasier burning before him. And it came to pass, when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, that the king cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was in the brasier, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was in the brasier. And they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words. Moreover Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them. And the king commanded Jerahmeel ²the king's son, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned. And concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD: Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast? Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they hearkened not. Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

37 AND Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah.

- 3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto 4 the LORD our God for us. Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison.
5 And Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they brake up from Jerusalem.
6 Then came the word of the LORD unto
7 the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent you unto me to inquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own
8 land. And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city; and they shall take it, and burn it with fire.
9 Thus saith the LORD: Deceive not ¹your-selves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not 10 depart. For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but ²wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

- 11 And it came to pass that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's
12 army, then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive his portion ³there, in 13 the midst of the people. And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he laid hold on Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away 14 to the Chaldeans. Then said Jeremiah, It is false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans; but he hearkened not to him: so Irijah laid hold on Jeremiah, and brought and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison. When Jeremiah was 16 come into the 'dungeon house, and into the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; then Zedekiah the 17 king sent, and fetched him: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is. He said also, Thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. Moreover Jeremiah 18 said unto king Zedekiah, Wherein have I sinned against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison? Where now are 19 your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? And now hear, I pray thee, O my 20 lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, ⁵be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. Then Zedekiah the king commanded, 21 and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard, and they gave him daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

38 AND Shephatiah the son of Mat-tan, and Gedaliah the son of Pash-hur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchijah, heard the words that Jeremiah spake unto all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, He 2 that abideth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey, and he shall live. Thus saith the LORD, This city shall 3 surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it. Then the princes said unto the king, 4 Let this man, we pray thee, be put to death; forasmuch as he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt. And Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you. Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the ¹dungeon of Malchijah ²the king's son, that was in the court of the guard: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: ⁷and Jeremiah sank in the mire. Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, an eunuch, which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting in the ⁸gate of Benjamin; Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake ⁹to the king, saying, My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and ³he is like to die in the place where he is because of the famine: for there ¹⁰is no more bread in the city. Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he ¹¹die. So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon ¹²to Jeremiah. And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And ¹³Jeremiah did so. So they drew up Jeremiah with the cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard. ¹⁴Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me. Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, ¹⁵If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, thou wilt not hearken unto me. So Zedekiah the king sware secretly ¹⁶unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life. Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, ¹⁷Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: If thou wilt go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house: but if thou wilt not go ¹⁸forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand. And Zedekiah ¹⁹the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen away to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me. But Jeremiah ²⁰said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, in that which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well with thee, and thy soul shall live. But if thou refuse to go forth, this ²¹is the word that the LORD hath shewed me: Behold, all the women that are left ²²in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, ⁴Thy familiar friends have ⁵set thee on, and have prevailed over thee: now that thy feet are sunk in the mire, they are turned away back. And they shall bring ²³out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and ⁶thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire. Then said Zedekiah unto ²⁴Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die. But if the ²⁵princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king; hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death: also what the king said unto thee: then ²⁶

thou shalt say unto them, I ¹presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there. Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not ²perceived.

28 So Jeremiah abode in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

And it came to pass when Jerusalem was taken, (in the ninth year of 39 Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and besieged it; in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city:) that all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, ³Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, ⁴Rab-mag, with all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon. And it came to pass that when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the Arabah. But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he ⁵gave judgement upon him. Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon

the residue of the people that remained in the city, the deserters also, that fell away to him, and the residue of the people that remained. But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time. Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying, Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee. So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushazban, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon; they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the guard, saying, Go, and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they ⁶shall be accomplished before thee in that day. But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid. For I will surely save thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

40 THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon. And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD thy God pronounced this evil

3 upon this place: and the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he spake; because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which are upon thine hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will look well unto thee; but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee; whither it seemeth good and ¹convenient unto thee to go, thither go. Now while he was not yet gone back, Go back then, said he, to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth ²convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him ³victuals and a present, and let him

6 go. Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

7 Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, ³and of the poorest of the land, of them that were not carried away

8 captive to Babylon; then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they

9 and their men. And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and

10 it shall be well with you. As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans, which shall come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken. Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the children of Ammon, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; then all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, ¹³ and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, and said unto him, Dost thou ¹⁴ know that Baalis the king of the children of Ammon hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take thy life? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not. Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake ¹⁵ to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he take thy life, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish? But ¹⁶ Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

41 NOW it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and one of the chief officers of the king, and ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah. Then arose ² Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. Ishmael also ³ slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the

Chaldeans that were found there, even 4 the men of war. And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, 5 and no man knew it, that there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven and their clothes
 rent, and having cut themselves, with 6 oblations and frankincense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD. And Ishmael the son of Netha-niah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son 7 of Ahikam. And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them,
 and cast them into the midst of the pit,
 he, and the men that were with him.
 8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them 9 not among their brethren. Now the pit wherein Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had slain, by the side of Gedaliah, (the same was that which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel,) Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that 10 were slain. Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah
 the son of Ahikam: Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive,
 and departed to go over to the children
 of Ammon.
 11 But when Johanan the son of Kareah,
 and all the captains of the forces that
 were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 12 then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah,
 and found him by the great waters that 13 are in Gibeon. Now it came to pass that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah,

 and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad. So 14 all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan
 the son of Kareah. But Ishmael the son 15 of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon. Then took Johanan the son of 16 Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah
 the son of Ahikam, even the men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon: and they departed, 17 and dwelt in ²Geruth Chimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go to enter into Egypt, because of the Chaldeans: for 18 they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.

42 THEN all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and ³Jezaniah the son of Ho-shaiah, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came near, and 2 said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we pray thee, our supplication ⁴be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many,
 as thine eyes do behold us: that the LORD
 3 thy God may shew us the way wherein we should walk, and the thing that we should do. Then Jeremiah the prophet 4 said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass that whatsoever thing
 the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will keep nothing back from you. Then they said to Jeremiah,

¹amongst us, if we do not even according to all the word wherewith the LORD thy God shall send thee to us. Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

7 And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto 8 Jeremiah. Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the 9 greatest, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to ²present your supplication 10 before him: If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I repent me of the evil 11 that I have done unto you. Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for I am with you to save you, 12 and to deliver you from his hand. And I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return 13 to your own land. But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land; so that ye obey not the voice of the LORD your God; 14 saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we 15 dwell: now therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah: thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn 16 there; then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye fear, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye are afraid, ³shall follow hard after you there in Egypt; and 17 there ye shall die. So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more. The LORD hath spoken concerning you, O remnant of Judah, Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have testified unto you this day. For 20 ye have dealt deceitfully ⁴against your own souls; for ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it: and I 21 have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God in any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you. Now therefore 22 know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go to sojourn there.

43 AND it came to pass that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, wherewith the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words, then spake 2 Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Ye shall not go into Egypt to sojourn there: but Baruch the 3 son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death, and carry us away captives to Babylon. So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all 4 the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah. But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all the nations whither they had been driven to

6 sojourn in the land of Judah; the men, and the women, and the children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah; and they came into the land of Egypt; for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: and they came even to 7 Tahpanhes. Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, Take great stones in thine hand, and 8 hide them in mortar in the brickwork, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of 9 Judah; and say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his 10 royal pavilion over them. And he shall come, and shall smite the land of Egypt; such as are for death shall be given to death, and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword 11 to the sword. And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth 12 from thence in peace. He shall also break the pillars of Beth-shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt shall he burn with fire.

44 THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwelt in the land of Egypt, which dwelt at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, 2 saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, 3 and no man dwelleth therein; because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, nor ye, nor your fathers. Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate. But they 5 hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods. Wherefore my 6 fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is this day. Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the 7 God of hosts, the God of Israel: Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your own souls, to cut off from you man and woman, infant and suckling, out of the midst of Judah, to leave you none remaining; in that ye provoke me unto 8 anger with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to sojourn; that ye may be cut off, and that ye may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? Have ye 9 forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? They are not hum- 10 bled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers. Therefore thus saith 11 the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, even to cut off all Judah. And 12 I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed; in the land of Egypt shall they fall; they shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine; they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: so that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return save such as shall escape.

15 Then all the men which knew that their wives burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great assembly, even all the people that dwell in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not 16 hearken unto thee. But we will certainly perform every word that is gone forth out of our mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of ²victuals, and were well, and 18 saw no evil. But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the 19 famine. And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to ³worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our 20 husbands? Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, even to all the people which had 21 given him that answer, saying, The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came 22 it not into his mind? so that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day. Because ye have burned incense, and 23 because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as it is this day.

Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the 24 people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt: thus saith the LORD 25 of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have fulfilled it, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: establish then your vows, and perform your vows. Therefore hear ye the word 26 of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, As the Lord God liveth. Behold, I watch over them for 27 evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them. And they that escape the sword 28 shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose word shall stand, mine, or theirs. And this shall be the 29 sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil: thus saith the LORD: 30 Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life.

45 THE word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, ¹unto thee, 3 O Baruch: Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the LORD hath added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, 4 and I find no rest. Thus shalt thou say unto him, Thus saith the LORD: Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up; and this in the whole 5 land. And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

46 THE word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations.

2 Of Egypt: concerning the army of Pharaoh-neco king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah. 3 Order ye the buckler and shield, and 4 draw near to battle. Harness the horses, and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, 5 put on the coats of mail. Wherefore have I seen it? they are dismayed and are turned backward; and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: terror is on every side, 6 saith the LORD. Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; in the north by the river Euphrates have they 7 stumbled and fallen. ²Who is this that riseth up like the Nile, whose waters toss themselves like the rivers? Egypt riseth 8 up like the Nile, and his waters toss themselves like the rivers: and he saith, I will rise up, I will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof. Go up, ye horses; and rage, ye 9 chariots; and let the mighty men go forth: Cush and Put, that handle the shield; and the Ludim, that handle and bend the bow. For that day is a day 10 of the Lord, the LORD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour and be satiate, and shall drink its fill of their blood: for the Lord, the LORD of hosts, hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates. Go up into Gilead, and take balm, 11 O virgin daughter of Egypt: in vain dost thou use many medicines; there is no healing for thee. The nations have heard 12 of thy shame, and the earth is full of thy cry: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, they are fallen both of them together.

The word that the LORD spake to 13 Jeremiah the prophet, how that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt.

Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in 14 Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand forth, and prepare thee; for the sword hath devoured round about thee. ³Why are thy 15 strong ones swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did ⁴drive them. He 16 made many to stumble, yea, they fell one upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword. They cried there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath let the appointed time pass by. As I live, 18 saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts, surely like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea, so shall he come. ⁵O thou daughter that 19 dwellest in Egypt, ⁶furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall become a heifer; but ¹destruction out of the north 21 is come, ²it is come. Also her hired men in the midst of her are like calves of the stall; for they also are turned back, they are fled away together, they did not stand: for the day of their calamity is come upon them, the time of their visita-22 tion. ³The sound thereof shall go like the serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with 23 axes, as hewers of wood. They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD, ⁴though

 it cannot be searched; because they are more than the locusts, and are innumera-24 ble. The daughter of Egypt shall be put to shame; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north. The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith:
 Behold, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods, and her kings; even Pharaoh, and them that 26 trust in him: and I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, 27 saith the LORD. But fear not thou, O
 Jacob my servant, neither be dismayed,
 O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and none shall 28 make him afraid. Fear not thou, O
 Jacob my servant, saith the LORD; for I am with thee: for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee, but I will not make a full end of thee; but I will correct thee with judgement, and will in no wise ⁵leave thee unpunished.

47 THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza.

2 Thus saith the LORD: Behold, waters

rise up out of the north, and shall become an overflowing stream, and shall overflow the land and all that is therein,
 the city and them that dwell therein:
 and the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl. At the ³ noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong ones, at the rushing of his chariots,
 at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers
 look not back to their children for feebleness of hands; because of the day that ⁴ cometh to spoil all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the LORD will spoil
 the Philistines, the remnant of the ⁵isle of Caphtor. Baldness is come upon ⁵ Gaza; Ashkelon is brought to nought,
 the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou cut thyself? O thou sword of ⁶
 the LORD, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? put up thyself into thy scabbard;
 rest, and be still. How canst thou be ⁷ quiet, seeing the LORD hath given ⁷thee
 a charge? against Ashkelon, and against the sea shore, there hath he appointed it.

48 OF Moab. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Woe
 unto Nebo! for it is laid waste; Kiriathaim is put to shame, it is taken: ⁸Mis-gab is put to shame and ⁹broken down.
 The praise of Moab is no more; in Hesh- ²
 bon they have devised evil against her,
 Come, and let us cut her off from being a nation. Thou also, O Madmen, shalt be brought to silence; the sword shall pursue thee. The sound of a cry from ³ Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction! Moab is destroyed; her little ones ⁴ have caused a cry to be heard. For by ⁵
 the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping shall they go up; for in the going down of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction. Flee, save your lives, and be like ⁶

Give wings unto Moab, ¹that she may fly and get her away: and her cities shall become a desolation, without any to dwell therein. Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD ²negligently, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

11 Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remaineth in him, and his scent is not changed. Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him them that ³pour off, and they shall ³pour him off; and they shall empty his vessels, and break their ⁴bottles in pieces. And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Beth-el their confidence. How say ye, We are mighty men, and valiant men for the war? Moab is laid waste, and ⁵they are gone up into her cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts. The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast. All ye that are round about him, bemoan him, and all ye that know his name; say, How is the strong ⁶staff broken, the beautiful rod! O thou daughter that ⁷dwestest in Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab is come up against thee, he hath destroyed thy strong holds. O ⁸inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and espy: ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth; say, What hath been done? Moab is put to shame; for it is ⁹broken down: howl and cry; tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is laid waste. And judgement is come upon the plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahzah, and upon Mephaath; and upon

Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim; and upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon; and upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, ²⁴and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. The horn of Moab ²⁵is cut off, and his arm is broken, saith the LORD. Make ye him drunken; for ²⁶he magnified himself against the LORD: and Moab shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision. For was not ²⁷Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for as often as thou speakest of him, thou waggest the head. O ye inhabitants of Moab, leave the ²⁸cities, and dwell in the rock; and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth. We have ²⁹heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud; his loftiness, and his pride, and his arrogancy, and the haughtiness of his heart. I know his wrath, saith the ³⁰LORD, that it is nought; his boastings have wrought nothing. Therefore will ³¹I howl for Moab; yea, I will cry out for all Moab: for the men of Kir-heres shall they mourn. With more than the weeping of Jazer will I weep for thee, O vine of Sibmah: thy branches passed over the sea, they reached even to the sea of Jazer: upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage the spoiler is fallen. And ³²gladness and joy is taken away, from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to cease from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; the shouting shall be no shouting. From the cry of Heshbon even unto ³⁴Elcaleh, even unto Jahaz have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto Horonaim, ³⁵to Eglath-shelishiyah: for the waters of Nimrim also shall become ³⁶desolate. Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in the high place, and him that burneth incense to his gods. Therefore mine heart soundeth for Moab like pipes, and mine heart soundeth like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: therefore the abun-

On all the housetops of Moab and in the streets thereof there is lamentation every where: for I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD. 39 How is it broken down! how do they howl! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab become a derision and a dismaying to all that are round about him. For thus saith the LORD: Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread out his wings against 41 Moab. ²Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the heart of the mighty men of Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. 42 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD. He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon her, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD. ³They that fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon: ⁴for a fire is gone forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and hath devoured the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous 46 ones. Woe unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh is undone: for thy sons are taken away captive, and thy daughters into captivity. Yet will I ⁵bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgement of Moab.

49 OF the children of Ammon. Thus saith the LORD: Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth ⁶Malcam ⁷possess Gad, and his people ²dwell in the cities thereof? Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon; and it shall become a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel ³possess them that did ²possess him, saith the LORD. Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled; cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth: lament, and run to and fro among the fences; for ⁴Malcam shall go into captivity, his priests and his princes together. ⁸Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me? Behold, I will bring a fear upon ⁵thee, saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, from all that are round about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth, and there shall be none to gather up him that wandereth. But afterward ⁶I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

Of Edom. Thus saith the LORD of ⁷hosts: Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished? Flee ye, turn ⁸back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I shall visit him. If grapegatherers came to thee, ⁹would they not leave some gleanings? if thieves by night, would they not destroy till they had enough? But ¹⁰I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and he is not. Leave thy fatherless children, ¹¹I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.  14 perpetual wastes. I have heard tidings from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, Gather yourselves together, and come against 15 her, and rise up to the battle. For, behold, I have made thee small among the 16 nations, and despised among men. As for thy terribleness, the pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of ¹the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldest make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from 17 thence, saith the LORD. And Edom shall become an astonishment: every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and 18 shall hiss at all the plagues thereof. As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man sojourn 19 therein. Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the ²pride of Jordan ³against the strong habitation: ⁴but I will suddenly make him run away from her; and whoso is chosen, him will I appoint over her: for who is like me? and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd that will stand before me? There-
 20 fore hear ye the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely 21 ⁵they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their ⁶habitation ⁷desolate with 22 them. The earth trembleth at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise
 23 whereof is heard in the Red Sea. Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out his wings against Bozrah: and the heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

Of Damascus. Hamath is ashamed, 23 and Arpad; for they have heard evil tidings, they are melted away: there is ⁸sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet. Damascus is waxed feeble, she turneth 24 herself to flee, and trembling hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail. How is the city of praise not forsaken, 25 the city of my joy? Therefore her young 26 men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be brought to silence in that day, saith the LORD of hosts. And 27 I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

Of Kedar, and of the kingdoms of 28 Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote.

Thus saith the LORD: Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the children of the east. Their tents and their flocks shall 29 they take; they shall carry away for themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels: and they shall cry unto them, Terror on every side. Flee ye, wander far off, dwell deep, O ye 30 inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you. Arise, get 31 you up unto a nation that is at ease, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD; which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone. And their camels shall be 32 a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will scatter unto all winds them that have the corners of their hair polled; and I will bring their calamity from every side of them, saith the LORD. And Hazor shall be a dwelling place of 33 jackals, a desolation for ever: no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man sojourn therein.

50 THE word that the LORD spake concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 Declare ye among the nations and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is put to shame, Merodach is ²dismayed; her images are put to shame, her
 3 idols are ²dismayed. For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they are fled,
 4 they are gone, both man and beast. In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together; they shall go on their way weeping, and
 5 shall seek the LORD their God. They shall inquire concerning Zion with their faces ³thitherward, saying, Come ye, and ⁴join yourselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that shall not be forgotten.
 6 My people hath been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their resting place. All that found them have ⁷devoured them: and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers. Flee out of the midst of ⁸Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats before the flocks. For, lo, I will stir up ⁹and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of ⁵an expert mighty man; ⁶none shall return in vain. And Chaldea shall be a spoil: ¹⁰all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD. Because ye are glad, because ¹¹ye rejoice, O ye that plunder mine heritage, because ye are wanton as an heifer ⁷that treadeth out the corn, and neigh as strong horses; your mother shall be sore ¹²ashamed; she that bare you shall be confounded: behold, she shall be the hindermost of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. Because of the wrath ¹³of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. Set yourselves in array against Babylon ¹⁴round about, all ye that bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD. Shout ¹⁵against her round about; she hath ⁸submitted herself; her bulwarks are fallen, her walls are thrown down: for it is the vengeance of the LORD; take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her. Cut off the sower from Babylon, and ¹⁶him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath 18 broken his bones. Therefore thus saith
 the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:
 Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished
 19 the king of Assyria. And I will bring Israel again to his ¹pasture, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul
 shall be satisfied upon the hills of E-20 phraim and in Gilead. In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for,
 and there shall be none; and the sins
 of Judah, and they shall not be found:
 for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant.

21 Go up against the land of ²Merathaim,
 even against it, and against the inhabitants of ³Pekod: slay and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded 22 thee. A sound of battle is in the land, 23 and of great destruction. How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a 24 desolation among the nations! I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the 25 LORD. The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for the Lord,
 the LORD of hosts, hath a work to do in 26 the land of the Chaldeans. Come against her ⁵from the utmost border, open her ⁶storehouses: cast her up as heaps, and ⁷destroy her utterly: let nothing of her 27 be left. Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of 28 their visitation. The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance

 29 his temple. Call together ⁸the archers against Babylon, all them that bend the bow; camp against her round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her

according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel. There- 30
 fore shall her young men fall in her streets, and all her men of war shall be brought to silence in that day, saith the LORD. Behold, I am against thee, ⁹O 31 thou proud one, saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee. And ¹⁰the 32 proud one shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle
 a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all that are round about him.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts: The 33
 children of Israel and the children of Judah are oppressed together: and all that took them captives hold them fast;
 they refuse to let them go. Their re- 34
 deemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth,
 and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.
 A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the 35
 LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men. A sword is upon the 36 ¹¹boasters, and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men, and they shall be dismayed. A sword is upon their 37 horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in

 as women: a sword is upon her treasures,
 and they shall be robbed. A drought is 38
 upon her waters, and they shall be dried up: for it is a land of graven images,

 the ¹³wolves shall dwell there, and the ostriches shall dwell therein: and it shall

a people cometh from the north; and a great nation, and many kings shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea, and they ride upon horses; every one set in array, as a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon. The king of Babylon hath heard the fame of them, and his hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail. Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the pride of Jordan against the strong habitation: but I will suddenly make them run away from her; and who-so is chosen, him will I appoint over her: for who is like me? and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd that will stand before me? Therefore hear ye the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them. At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembleth, and the cry is heard among the nations.

51 THUS saith the LORD: Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in ¹Leb-kamai, a destroying wind. And I will send unto Babylon ²strangers, that shall fan her; and they shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about. ³Let not the archer bend his bow, and let him not lift himself up in his coat of mail: and spare ye not her young men; ⁴destroy ye utterly all her host. And they shall fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and thrust through in her streets. For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah, of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel. Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and save every man his life; be not cut off in her iniquity: for it is the time of the LORD's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompence. Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunk of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgement reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies. The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God. Make ⁵sharp the arrows; ⁶hold firm the shields: the LORD hath stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes; because his device is against Babylon, to destroy it: for it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple. Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake concerning the inhabitants of Babylon. O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, the measure of thy ⁷covetousness. The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with the cankerworm; and they shall lift up a shout against thee.

He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding hath he stretched out the heavens: when he uttereth his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.  26 a burnt mountain. And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD. Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, ³prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz: appoint a marshal against her; cause the horses to come up as the 28 rough cankerworm. ³Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, the governors thereof, and all the deputies thereof, and all the land of his 29 dominion. And the land trembleth and is in pain: for the purposes of the LORD against Babylon do stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant. The mighty men of Babylon 30 have forborne to fight, they remain in their strong holds; their might hath failed; they are become as women: her dwelling places are set on fire; her bars are broken. One post shall run to meet 31 another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every quarter: and the 32 ⁴passages are surprised, and the ⁵reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.

For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the 33 God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing-floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while, and the time of harvest shall come for her. Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon 34 hath devoured ⁶me, he hath crushed ⁶me, he hath made ⁶me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed ⁶me up like a dragon, he hath filled his maw with my delicates; he hath cast ⁶me out. ⁷The violence 35 done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the ⁸inhabitant of Zion say; and, My blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say. Therefore thus saith the LORD: Behold, 36 I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her fountain dry. And 37 Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling place for jackals, an astonishment, and an hissing, without inhabitant. They 38 shall roar together like young lions; they shall growl as lions' whelps. When they 39 are heated, I will make their feast, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD. I will 40 bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats. How 41 is Sheshach taken! and the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become ⁹a desolation among the nations! The sea is come up upon Babylon: she 42

The word which Jeremiah the prophet 59
 commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah,
 the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon
 in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was ⁸chief chamberlain. And 60
 Jeremiah wrote in ⁹a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written concerning Babylon. And Jeremiah said to 61
 Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, ¹⁰then see that thou read all these words,
 and say, O LORD, thou hast spoken con- 62
 cerning this place, to cut it off, that none shall dwell therein, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever. And it shall be, when thou hast 63 made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates: and thou 64 shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise again because of the evil that I will bring ¹¹upon her: and they shall be weary.

Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

52 ZEDEKIAH was one and twenty years old when he began to reign;
 and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem:

1 Or, tumult 2 Or, an astonishment 3 Heb. visit upon. 4 Or, Both Babylon is to fall, and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

 2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all
 3 that Jehoiakim had done. For through the anger of the LORD did it come to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence: and Zedekiah rebelled against the king of 4 Babylon. And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about.
 5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh
 6 year of king Zedekiah. In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people
 7 of the land. Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were against the city round about:) and they went by the way
 8 of the Arabah. But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from 9 him. Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he
 10 gave judgement upon him. And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the 11 princes of Judah in Riblah. And he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.
 12 Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, which stood before 13 the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem: and he burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even ²every great house, burned he with fire. And all the army 14 of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about. Then 15 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest sort of the people, and the residue of the people that were left in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the ³multitude. But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen. And

 17 the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases and the brasen sea that were in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldeans break in pieces, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon. The pots also, and the shovels, 18 and the snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away. And the cups, and the firepans, and
 19 the basons, and the pots, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the bowls; that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away. The two pillars,
 20 the one sea, and the twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made for the house of the LORD: the brass of all these vessels was without weight. And as for the pillars,
 21 the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a line of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow. And
 22 a chapter of brass was upon it; and the height of the one chapter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all of brass: and the second pillar also had like unto these, and pomegranates. And 23 there were ninety and six pomegranates ⁴on the sides; all the pomegranates were an hundred upon the network round about. And the captain of the guard 24 took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three 25 keepers of the ¹door: and out of the city

 he took an ²officer that was set over the men of war; and seven men of them that saw the king's face, which were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the 26 midst of the city. And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to 27 Riblah. And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land.
 28 This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand Jews and 29 three and twenty: in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty 30 and two persons: in the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

And it came to pass in the seven and 31
 thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiaachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison; and he spake kindly to him, and 32 set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon.
 And he changed his prison garments, 33
 and did eat bread before him continually all the days of his life. And for his 34 allowance, there was a continual allowance given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

THE LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH

1 HOW doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people!
How is she become as a widow!
 She that was great among the nations,
 and princess among the provinces,
How is she become tributary!
 2 She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks;
 Among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her:
 All her friends have dealt treacherously
 with her,
 They are become her enemies.
 3 Judah is gone into ³captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude;
 She dwelleth among the heathen, she
 findeth no rest:
 All her persecutors overtook her within
 the straits.

The ways of Zion do mourn, because 4
 none come to the ⁴solemn assembly;
 All her gates are desolate, her priests do
 sigh:
 Her virgins are afflicted, and she herself
 is in bitterness.
 Her adversaries are become the head, 5
 her enemies prosper;
 For the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions:
 Her young children are gone into captivity before the adversary.
 And from the daughter of Zion all her 6
⁵majesty is departed:
 Her princes are become like harts that
 find no pasture,
 And they are gone without strength before the pursuer.
 Jerusalem remembereth in the days of 7
 her affliction and of her ⁶miseries

the days of old:

8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she ²is become as an unclean
thing:

All that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness:
Yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness was in her skirts; she remembered not her latter end;

Therefore is she come down wonderfully; she hath no comforter:

Behold, O LORD, my affliction; for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand
upon all her pleasant things:

For she hath seen that the heathen are entered into her sanctuary,

Concerning whom thou didst command
that they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek bread;

They have given their pleasant things
for meat to refresh the soul:

See, O LORD, and behold; for I am
become vile.

12 Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?
Behold, and see if there be any sorrow
like unto my sorrow, which is done
unto me,

³Wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me
in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From on high hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them:

He hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back;

He hath made me desolate and faint all
the day.

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound
by his hand;

They are knit together, they are come up upon my neck; he hath made my strength to ⁴fail:

The Lord hath delivered me into their hands, ⁵against whom I am not able to stand.

The Lord hath set at nought all my ¹⁵
mighty men in the midst of me;

He hath called a solemn assembly
against me to crush my young men:

The Lord hath trodden as in a winepress the virgin daughter of Judah.

For these things I weep; mine eye, mine ¹⁶
eye runneth down with water;

Because the comforter that should refresh my soul is far from me:

My children are desolate, because the enemy hath prevailed.

Zion spreadeth forth her hands; there ¹⁷
is none to comfort her;

The LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that they that are round about him should be his adversaries:

Jerusalem is among them as an unclean
thing.

The LORD is righteous; for I have re- ¹⁸
belled against his commandment:

Hear, I pray you, all ye peoples, and
behold my sorrow:

My virgins and my young men are gone
into captivity.

I called for my lovers, but they deceived ¹⁹
me:

My priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city,

While they sought them meat to refresh
their souls.

Behold, O LORD; for I am in distress; ²⁰
my bowels are troubled;

Mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled:

Abroad the sword bereaveth, at home
there is as death.

They have heard that I sigh; there is ²¹
none to comfort me;

All mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast
done it:

Thou wilt bring the day that thou hast proclaimed, and they shall be like
unto me.

Let all their wickedness come before ²²
thee;

And do unto them, as thou hast done
unto me for all my transgressions:

He hath cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel,
And hath not remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

2 The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied;

He hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah;
He hath brought them down to the ground:

He hath profaned the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in fierce anger ¹all the horn of Israel;

He hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy:

And he hath burned up Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy, he hath stood with his right hand as an adversary,

And hath slain all that were pleasant to the eye:

²In the tent of the daughter of Zion he hath poured out his fury like fire.

5 The Lord is become as an enemy, he hath swallowed up Israel;

He hath swallowed up all her palaces, he hath destroyed his strong holds:

And he hath multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently taken away his ³tabernacle, as if it were of a garden;

He hath destroyed his place of assembly: The Lord hath caused ⁴solemn assembly and sabbath to be forgotten in Zion,

And hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

7 The Lord hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary,

He hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces:

They have made a noise in the house of the Lord, as in the day of a solemn assembly.

The Lord hath purposed to destroy the 8 wall of the daughter of Zion;

He hath stretched out the line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from ⁵destroying:

But he hath made the rampart and wall to lament; they languish together.

Her gates are sunk into the ground; 9 he hath destroyed and broken her bars:

Her king and her princes are among the nations where the law is not;

Yea, her prophets find no vision from the Lord.

The elders of the daughter of Zion sit 10 upon the ground, they keep silence;

They have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth:

The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels 11 are troubled,

My liver is poured upon the earth, for the ⁶destruction of the daughter of my people;

Because the young children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

They say to their mothers, Where is 12 corn and wine?

When they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city,

When their soul is poured out into their mothers' bosom.

What shall I ⁷testify unto thee? what 13 shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem?

What shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion?

For thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

And they have not discovered thine iniquity, to bring again thy captivity:

Shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

My virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword:

He hath led me and caused me to walk 2 in darkness 'and not in light.

Surely against me he turneth his hand 3 again and again all the day.

My flesh and my skin hath he 'made old; 4 he hath broken my bones.

He hath builded against me, and com- 5 passed me with gall and travail.

Till the LORD look down, and behold 50 from heaven.

Mine eye affecteth my soul, because of 51 all the daughters of my city.

They have chased me sore like a bird, 52 that are mine enemies without cause.

They have cut off my life in the dun- 53 geon, and have cast a stone upon me.

Waters flowed over mine head; I said, 54 I am cut off.

I called upon thy name, O LORD, out 55 of the lowest dungeon.

4 HOW is the gold become dim! how
is the most pure gold changed!

The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, ²comparable
to fine gold,

How are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the jackals draw out the breast,
they give suck to their young ones:

The daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth
to the roof of his mouth for thirst:

The young children ask bread, and no
man breaketh it unto them.

They that did feed delicately are desolate ⁵
in the streets:

They that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.

For ³the iniquity of the daughter of my ⁶ people is greater than ⁴the sin of Sodom,

That was overthrown as in a moment,
and no hands ⁵were laid upon her.

Her ⁶nobles were purer than snow, they ⁷
were whiter than milk,

They were more ruddy in body than ⁷rubies, their polishing was as of sapphire:

Their visage is ⁸blacker than a coal; they ⁸
are not known in the streets:

Their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

They that be slain with the sword are ⁹ better than they that be slain with hunger;

For these ⁹pine away, stricken through,
for want of the fruits of the field.

The hands of the pitiful women have ¹⁰
sodden their own children;

They were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

The LORD hath accomplished his fury, ¹¹
he hath poured out his fierce anger;

And he hath kindled a fire in Zion, which hath devoured the foundations thereof.

- 19 Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the heaven:
They chased us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

Of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the nations.

Behold, and see our reproach.

We are weary, and have no rest.
We have given the hand to the Egyptians,

Our fathers have sinned, and are not; 7
And we have borne their iniquities.
Servants rule over us: 8
There is none to deliver us out of their hand.
We get our bread with the peril of our 9

Because of the sword of the wilderness.
Our skin is black like an oven 10
Because of the burning heat of famine.
They ravished the women in Zion, 11
The maidens in the cities of Judah.
Princes were hanged up by their hand: 12
The faces of elders were not honoured.
The young men bare the mill, 13
And the children stumbled under the wood.
The elders have ceased from the gate, 14
The young men from their music.
The joy of our heart is ceased; 15
Our dance is turned into mourning.
The crown is fallen from our head: 16
Woe unto us! for we have sinned.
For this our heart is faint; 17
For these things our eyes are dim;
For the mountain of Zion, which is 18
desolate;
The foxes walk upon it.
Thou, O LORD, ⁶abidest for ever; 19
Thy throne is from generation to generation.
Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, 20
And forsake us so long time?
Turn thou us unto thee, O LORD, and 21

Renew our days as of old.

Thou art very wroth against us.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL

1 NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the ¹captives by the river Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions 2 of God. In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, the word of the LORD came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand 4 of the LORD was there upon him. And I looked, and, behold, a stormy wind came out of the north, a great cloud, with a fire ²infoling itself, and a brightness round about it, and out of the midst thereof ³as the colour of ⁴amber, out of 5 the midst of the fire. And out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man. 6 And every one had four faces, and every 7 one of them had four wings. And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour 8 of burnished brass. And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides: and they four had their 9 faces and their wings thus; their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every 10 one straight forward. As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man; and they four had the face of a lion on the right side; and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they 11 four had also the face of an eagle. ⁵And their faces and their wings were separate above; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered 12 their bodies. And they went every one straight forward: whither the spirit was to go, they went; they turned not when they went. ⁶As for the likeness of the 13 living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches; it went up and down among the living creatures: and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. And the living creatures ran 14 and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning. Now as I beheld the living 15 creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces thereof. The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel ⁷within a wheel. When they 17 went, they went upon their four sides: they turned not when they went. As 18 for their ⁸rings, they were high and dreadful; and they four had their rings full of eyes round about. And when the 19 living creatures went, the wheels went beside them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. Whithersoever 20 the spirit was to go, they went; thither was the spirit to go: and the wheels were lifted up ⁹beside them; for the spirit ¹⁰of the living creature was in the wheels. When those went, these went; and when 21 those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up ⁹beside them: for the spirit ¹⁰of the living creature was in the wheels. And over the head of the living 22 creature there was the likeness of a firmament, like the colour of the terrible ¹¹crystal, stretched forth over their heads above. And under the firmament were 23 their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side, their bodies. 24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a noise of tumult like the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down 25 their wings. And there was a voice above the firmament that was over their heads: when they stood, they let down 26 their wings. And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man upon it above. And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire within it round about, from the appearance of his loins and upward; and from the appearance of his loins and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness round about him. As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

2 AND he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak with thee. And the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet; and I heard him that 3 spake unto me. And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to nations that are rebellious, which have rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed 4 against me, even unto this very day. And the children are impudent and stiff-hearted; ⁵ I do send thee unto them: and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD. And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet 6 among them. And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most rebellious. But 8 thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee. And when I looked, 9 behold, an hand was put forth unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein; and he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourn-

3 ing, and woe. And he said unto me, 1 Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this roll, and go, speak unto the house of Israel. So I opened my mouth, and 2 he caused me to eat the roll. And he said 3 unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

And he said unto me, Son of man, go, 4 get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them. For 5 thou art not sent to a people ⁶ of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel; not to many peoples 6 of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, if I sent thee to them, they would hearken unto thee. But the 7 house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are of an hard forehead and of a stiff heart. Behold, I 8 have made thy face hard against their faces, and thy forehead hard against their foreheads. As an adamant harder 9 than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. Moreover he said unto me, Son 10 of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears. And go, get thee 11

- 12 Then the spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place. And I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels ¹beside them, 14 even the noise of a great rushing. So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away: and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit, and the hand of the LORD was strong upon me. Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that ²dwelt by the river Chebar, ³and to where they ²dwelt; and I sat there astonished among them seven days.

- 16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. 18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul. Again, when a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning; and thou hast delivered thy soul.

And the hand of the LORD was there ²²upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the ⁴plain, and I will there talk with thee. Then I arose, and went ²³forth into the ⁴plain: and, behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river Chebar: and I fell on my face. Then the spirit ²⁴entered into me, and set me upon my feet; and he spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house. But thou, son of man, behold, ²⁵they shall lay bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them: and I will make thy ²⁶tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house. But when I speak with ²⁷thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD: He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbear, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

4 THOU also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it a city, even Jerusalem: and lay siege against it, and build forts ²against it, and cast up a mount against it; set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it round about. And take thou unto thee an iron ⁵pan, ³and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face toward it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

Moreover lie thou upon thy left side, ⁴and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it, thou shalt bear their iniquity. For I have ap- ⁵pointed the years of their iniquity to be unto thee a number of days, even three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. And again, when thou hast accomplished ⁶these, thou shalt lie on thy right side, and shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah: forty days, each day for a

7 year, have I appointed it unto thee. And thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with thine arm uncovered; 8 and thou shalt prophesy against it. And, behold, I lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast accomplished the 9 days of thy siege. Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof; according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, even three hundred and ninety days, 10 shalt thou eat thereof. And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time 11 shalt thou eat it. And thou shalt drink water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink. 12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it in their sight with 13 dung that cometh out of man. And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations whither I will drive them. 14 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn of beasts; neither came there a- 15 bominable flesh into my mouth. Then he said unto me, See, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou 16 shalt prepare thy bread thereon. Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with carefulness; and they shall drink water by measure, and with 17 astonishment: that they may want bread and water, and be astonished one with another, and pine away in their iniquity.

5 AND thou, son of man, take thee a sharp sword, as a barber's razor shalt thou take it unto thee, and shalt cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, 2 and ¹divide the hair. A third part shalt thou burn in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and thou shalt take a third part, and smite with the sword round about it; and a third part thou shalt scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. And thou shalt take ²thereof 3 a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts. And of these again shalt thou 4 take, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; therefrom shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

Thus saith the Lord GOD: This is 5 Jerusalem: I have set her in the midst of the nations, and countries are round about her. And she hath ³rebelled against 6 my judgements in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have rejected my judgements, and as for my statutes, they have not walked in them. There- 7 fore thus saith the Lord GOD: Because ye are turbulent more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgements, neither have done after the ⁴ordinances of the nations that are round about you; therefore thus saith 8 the Lord GOD: Behold, I, even I, am against thee; and I will execute judgements in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations. And I will do in thee that 9 which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations. Therefore the 10 fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgements in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter unto all the winds. Wherefore, 11 as I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also ⁵diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, and I also will have no pity. A third part of thee shall die with the 12 pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee; and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and a third part I will scatter unto all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them. Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will ¹satisfy my fury ²upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the LORD have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury upon them. Moreover I will make thee a desolation and a reproach, among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by. So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgements in thee in anger and in fury, and in furious rebukes: I the LORD have spoken it: when I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you; and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread; and I will send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee: I the LORD have spoken it.

6 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy ³unto them, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God: Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains and to the hills, to the ⁴water-courses and to the valleys: Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places. And your altars shall become desolate, and your sun-images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. And I will lay the carcases of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars. In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and ⁵made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your sun-images may be hewn down, and your works may be ⁶abolished. And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Yet will I leave a remnant, in that ye shall have some that escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries. And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, how that ⁷I have been broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. And they shall know that I am the LORD: I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

Thus saith the Lord God: Smite with ⁸thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas! because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel: for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is ⁹besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them. And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick ¹⁰oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols. And I will stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate and waste, ¹¹from the wilderness toward Diblah, throughout all their habitations: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

8 AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there
2 upon me. Then I beheld, and, lo, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his loins and downward, fire: and from his loins and upward, as the appearance of brightness,
3 'as the colour of amber. And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh
4 to jealousy. And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain.
5 Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward of the gate of the altar this image of 6 jealousy in the entry. And he said unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel do commit here, 'that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but 'thou shalt again see yet other great 7 abominations. And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I
8 looked, behold a hole in the wall. Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the 9 wall, behold a door. And he said unto me, Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here. So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about.
11 And there stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and the odour of the cloud of incense went up. Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his chambers of imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth. He said also unto me, 13 Thou shalt again see yet other great abominations which they do. Then he 14 brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and behold, there sat the women weeping for Tammuz. Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? thou shalt again see yet greater abominations than these. And he brought 16 me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east. Then he said unto me, 17 Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose. Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

9 THEN he cried in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, 'Cause ye them that have charge over the city to draw near, every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. And behold, six 2 men came from the way of the upper gate, which lieth toward the north, every man with his 'slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man in the midst of them clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn

³stood beside the brasen altar. And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house: and he called ⁴to the man clothed in linen, which had the writer's inkhorn ¹by his side. And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the fore-heads of the men that sigh and that cry
for all the abominations that be done in ⁵the midst thereof. And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye through the city after him, and smite: let not your ⁶eye spare, neither have ye pity: slay ²utterly the old man, the young man and the maiden, and little children and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ³ancient men which were before the ⁷house. And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, ⁸and smote in the city. And it came to pass, while they were smiting, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried,
and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?
⁹Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood,
and the city full of ⁴wresting of judgement: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the ⁵earth, and the LORD seeth ¹⁰not. And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way upon their head.
¹¹And behold, the man clothed in linen,
which had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done
as thou hast commanded me.

10 THEN I looked, and behold, in the firmament that was over the head of the cherubim, there appeared above them as it were a sapphire stone,
as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. And he spake unto the man ² clothed in linen, and said, Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the cherub, and fill both thine hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and ⁶scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight. Now ³

the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. And the ⁴ glory of the LORD mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory. And the ⁵ sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of ⁷God Almighty when he speaketh.
And it came to pass, when he command-⁶ed the man clothed in linen, saying,
Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim, that he went in, and stood beside a wheel.
And the cherub stretched forth his hand ⁷
from between the cherubim unto the fire that was between the cherubim, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed in linen, who took it and went out. And there appeared in ⁸
the cherubim the form of a man's hand
under their wings. And I looked, and ⁹ behold, four wheels beside the cheru-bim, one wheel beside one cherub, and another wheel beside another cherub:
and the appearance of the wheels was
as the colour of a ⁸beryl stone. And as ¹⁰ for their appearance, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been ⁹within
a wheel. When they went, they went ¹¹ ¹⁰upon their four sides: they turned not as they went, but to the place whither
the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went. And their ¹² whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels,
were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had. As for the ¹³ wheels, they were called in my hearing,
the whirling wheels. And every one had ¹⁴

four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. And the cherubim mounted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar. And when the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them: and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also turned not from beside them. When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them: for the spirit of the living creature was in them. And the glory of the LORD went forth from over the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim. And the cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went forth, and the wheels beside them: and they stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim. Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. And as for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves; they went every one straight forward.

11 MOREOVER the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and behold, at the door of the gate five and twenty men; and I saw in the midst of them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. And he said unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise iniquity, and that give wicked counsel in this city: which say, ³The time is not near to build houses: this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh. Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man. And the spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and he said unto me, Speak, Thus saith the LORD: Thus have ye said, O house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind. Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but ye shall be brought forth out of the midst of it. Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword upon you, saith the Lord GOD. And I will bring you forth out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgements among you. Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither have ye executed my judgements, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are round about you. And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel, all of them, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD; unto us is this land given for a possession: therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they are come. will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence. And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh: that they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord GOD. Then did the cherubim lift up their wings, and the wheels were ¹beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city. And the spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

12 THE word of the LORD also came unto me, saying, Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of the rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not, which have ears to hear, and hear not; for they are a rebellious house. Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for ²removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will ³consider, though they be a rebellious house. And thou shalt bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for ²removing: and thou shalt go forth thyself at even in their sight, as when men go forth into exile. Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby. In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulder, and carry it forth in the dark; thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel. And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for removing, and in the even I digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the dark, and bare it upon my shoulder in their sight. And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying, Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, What doest thou? Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD: This ⁴burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel ⁵among whom they are. Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: they shall go into exile, into captivity. And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the dark, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, because he shall not see the ⁶ground with his eyes. My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. And I will scatter toward every wind all that are round about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall disperse them among the nations, and scatter them through the countries. But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the nations whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness; and say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be desolate from ¹all that is therein, because of the violence 20 of all them that dwell therein. And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be a desolation; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

 21 And the word of the LORD came unto
 22 me, saying, Son of man, what is this proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged,
 23 and every vision faileth? Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord GOD: I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the ²effect of every vision.
 24 For there shall be no more any vain vision nor flattering divination within 25 the house of Israel. For I am the LORD; I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall be performed; it shall be no more deferred: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I speak the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord GOD.
 26 Again the word of the LORD came to 27 me, saying, Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is for many days to come, and he prophesieth of times that are far off.
 28 Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD: There shall none of my words be deferred any more, but the word which I shall speak shall be performed, saith the Lord GOD.

13 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto them that prophesy out of their own heart, Hear
 3 ye the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD: Woe unto the foolish prophets, that follow their own spirit, ³and
 4 have seen nothing! O Israel, thy prophets have been like foxes in the waste
 5 places. Ye have not gone up into the ⁴gaps, neither made up the fence for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD. They have seen 6 vanity and lying divination, that say, The LORD saith; and the LORD hath not sent them: and they ⁵have made men to hope that the word should be confirmed. Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have 7 ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The LORD saith; albeit I have not spoken?

Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: 8 Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord GOD. And mine hand 9 shall be against the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the ⁶council of my people, neither shall they be written in the ⁷writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD. Because, even because they have 10 seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there is no peace; and when one buildeth up ⁸a wall, behold, they daub it with untempered mortar: say unto them which 11 daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it. Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not 12 be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it? There- 13 fore thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in fury to consume it. So will I break down 14 the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered: and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Thus will I accomplish my fury 15 upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar; and I will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it; to wit, the 16 prophets of Israel which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions

- 17 And thou, son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; 18 and prophesy thou against them, and say, Thus saith the Lord God: Woe to the women that sew pillows upon all ¹elbows, and make kerchiefs for the head ²of persons of every stature to hunt souls! ³Will ye hunt the souls of my people, 19 and save souls alive ⁴for yourselves? And ye have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people 20 that hearken unto lies. Wherefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against your pillows, ⁵wherewith ye there hunt the souls ⁶to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls go, even the souls that 21 ye hunt ⁷to make them fly. Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. 22 Because with lies ye have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, ⁸and be saved 23 alive: therefore ye shall no more see vanity, nor divine divinations: and I will deliver my people out of your hand; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

14 THEN came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before 2 me. And the word of the LORD came 3 unto me, saying, Son of man, these men have ⁹taken their idols into their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should I be in- 4 quired of at all by them? Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Every man of the house of Israel that taketh his idols into his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him ¹⁰therein according to the multitude of his idols; that I 5 may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols. Therefore 6 say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God: Return ye, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. For every one of the house of 7 Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, which separateth himself from me, and taketh his idols into his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet to inquire ¹¹for himself of me; I the LORD will answer him by myself: and I will set my face against that 8 man, and will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. And if the prophet be ¹²deceived 9 and speaketh a word, I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. And they shall bear ¹³their iniquity: the 10 iniquity of the prophet shall be even as the iniquity of him that seeketh unto him; that the house of Israel may go no more 11 astray from me, neither defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord God.

And the word of the LORD came unto 12 me, saying, Son of man, when a land 13 sinneth against me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out mine hand upon it, and break the staff of the bread there- 14 of, and send famine upon it, and cut off from it man and beast; though these 15 three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord God. Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, ²Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off from it man 18 and beast; though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered them- 19 selves. Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and 20 beast: though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls 21 by their righteousness. For thus saith the Lord GOD: How much more when I send my four sore judgements upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beasts, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast? 22 Yet, behold, therein shall be left ³a remnant that shall be carried forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it. 23 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their way and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done ⁴without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord GOD.

15 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, what is the vine tree more than any tree, the vine branch which ⁵is among the 3 trees of the forest? Shall wood be taken thereof to make any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel there- 4 on? Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel: the fire hath devoured both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned; is it profitable for any work? Behold, 5 when it was whole, it was ⁶meet for no work: how much less, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned, shall it yet be ⁶meet for any work? Therefore thus 6 saith the Lord GOD: As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so ⁷will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And 7 I will set my face against them; they ⁸shall go forth from the fire, but the fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them. And I will make the land 8 desolate, because they have committed a trespass, saith the Lord GOD.

16 AGAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of 2 man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations, and say, Thus saith the Lord 3 GOD unto Jerusalem: ⁹Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of the Canaanite; the Amorite was thy father, and thy mother was an Hittite. And as 4 for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to cleanse thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all. None eye pitied thee, to do any 5 of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, for that thy person was abhorred, in the day that thou wast born. And when I passed by thee, and saw 6 thee weltering in thy blood, I said unto thee, Though thou art in thy blood, live; yea, I said unto thee, Though thou art in thy blood, live. I ¹⁰caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou didst increase and wax great, and thou attainedst to ¹¹excellent ornament; thy breasts were fashioned, and thine hair was grown; yet thou wast naked and bare. Now when I 8 passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith

the Lord GOD, and thou becamest mine.

- 9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil. I clothed thee also with brodered work, and shod thee with ¹sealskin, and I ²girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk. I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck. 12 And I put a ring upon thy nose, and earrings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head. Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work; thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper unto royal estate. And thy renown went forth among the nations for thy beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord GOD.

- 15 But thou didst trust in thy beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy whoredoms on every one that passed by; his it was. 16 And thou didst take of thy garments, and madest for thee high places decked with divers colours, and playedst the harlot upon them: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so. Thou didst also take thy ³fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest for thee ⁴images of men, and didst play the harlot with them; and thou tookest thy brodered garments, and coveredst them, and didst set mine oil and mine incense before them. My bread also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou didst even set it before them for a sweet savour, and thus it was; saith the Lord GOD. Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Were thy whoredoms a small matter, that thou hast slain my children, and delivered them up, in ⁵causing them to pass through the fire unto them? And 22 in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast weltering in thy blood. And it is come to pass after all 23 thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord GOD,) that thou hast built 24 unto thee ⁶an eminent place, and hast made thee a lofty place in every street. Thou hast built thy lofty place at every 25 head of the way, and hast made thy beauty an abomination, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredom. Thou hast 26 also committed fornication with the Egyptians, thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast multiplied thy whoredom, to provoke me to anger. Behold therefore, 27 I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ⁷ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way. Thou hast played the harlot 28 also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet thou wast not satisfied. Thou hast moreover multiplied thy whoredom ⁸in the land of Canaan, unto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith. How weak 30 is thine heart, saith the Lord GOD, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman; in that 31 thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thy lofty place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, ⁹in that thou scornest hire. A wife that committeth adultery! that 32 taketh strangers instead of her husband! They give gifts to all harlots: but thou 33 givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and bribest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredoms. And the contrary is in thee from other 34 women in thy whoredoms, in that none followeth thee to commit whoredom:

and whereas thou givest hire, and no hire is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary.

- 35 Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of 36 the LORD: Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers; and because of all the idols of thy abominations, and for the blood of thy children, which 37 thou didst give unto them; therefore behold, I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them against thee on every side, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that
 38 they may see all thy nakedness. And I will judge thee, as women that break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring upon thee the blood of fury
 39 and jealousy. I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thine eminent place, and break down thy lofty places; and they shall strip thee of thy clothes, and take thy fair jewels; and they shall leave thee naked and bare.
 40 They shall also bring up an assembly against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through 41 with their swords. And they shall burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women; and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou shalt 42 also give no hire any more. So will I ²satisfy my fury ³upon thee, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.
 43 Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; therefore behold, I also will bring thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord GOD: and ⁴thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.
 44 Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.
 45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that loatheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite. And thine 46 elder sister is Samaria, that dwelleth at thy left hand, she and her daughters: and thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters. Yet hast thou not walked in their 47 ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were a very little thing, thou wast more corrupt than they in all thy ways. As I live, saith the Lord GOD, 48 Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters. Behold, this was the 49 iniquity of thy sister Sodom; pride, fullness of bread, and prosperous case was in her and in her daughters; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore

 50 I took them away ⁵as I saw good. Neither 51 hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters by all thine abominations which thou hast done. Thou also, bear 52 thine own shame, in that thou hast given judgement for thy ⁶sisters; through thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou also confounded, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters. And I 53 will ⁷turn again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them: that thou mayest bear 54 thine own shame, and mayest be ashamed because of all that thou hast done, in that thou art a comfort unto them. And 55 thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, and thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate. For thy sister Sodom was not 56

 lewdness and thine abominations, saith

 I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the oath in 60 breaking the covenant. Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant.
 61 Then shalt thou remember thy ways,
 and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder sisters and thy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the hast done, saith the Lord God.

17 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto 3 the house of Israel; and say, Thus saith the Lord God: A great eagle with great wings and long pinions, full of feathers,
 which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar:
 4 he cropped off the topmost of the young twigs thereof, and carried it into ¹a land
 of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants.
 5 He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in ²a fruitful soil; he placed it beside ³many waters; he set it as a willow 6 tree. And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth 7 sprigs. There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend its roots toward him, and shot forth its branches toward him, from the beds of its plantation, that he might water it. It 8 was planted in a good ⁴soil by ⁵many waters, that it might bring forth branches,

 and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine. Say thou, Thus saith 9
 the Lord God: Shall it prosper? shall
 he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it may wither;
 that all its fresh springing leaves may wither; even without great power or much ⁶people to pluck it up by the roots thereof? Yea, behold, being planted, 10 shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it?
 it shall wither in the beds where it grew.

Moreover the word of the LORD came 11
 unto me, saying, Say now to the rebel- 12
 lious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took
 the king thereof, and the princes thereof,
 and brought them to him to Babylon;
 and he took of the seed royal, and made 13
 a covenant with him; he also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land: that the kingdom 14
 might be ⁷base, that it might not lift itself
 up, but that by keeping of his covenant
 it might stand. But he rebelled against 15 him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper?
 shall he escape that doeth such things?
 shall he break the covenant, and yet escape? As I live, saith the Lord God, 16
 surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake,
 even with him in the midst of Babylon
 he shall die. Neither shall Pharaoh with 17
 his mighty army and great company
 make for him in the war, when they cast
 up mounts and build forts, to cut off
 many persons. For he hath despised the 18 oath by breaking the covenant; and behold, he had given his hand, and yet hath done all these things; he shall not escape. Therefore thus saith the Lord 19 God: As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, I will even bring it upon his own head. And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me. And all his fugitives in all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered toward every wind: and ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it.

Thus saith the Lord GOD: I will also take of the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the topmost of his young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it upon an high mountain and eminent: in the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it: and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell. And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the LORD have spoken and have done it.

18 THE word of the LORD came unto me again, saying, What mean ye, that ye use this proverb ¹concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel. Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die. But if a man be just, and do ²that which is lawful and right, and hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near ³to a woman in her separation; and hath not wronged any, but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment; he that hath not given forth ⁴upon usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath executed true judgement between man and man, hath walked ⁵in my statutes, and hath kept my judgements, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord GOD. If he beget a son that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and ⁶that doeth any one of these things, and that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife, hath wronged the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath committed abomination, hath given forth upon ⁷usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations: he shall surely ⁸die; his blood shall be upon him. Now, ⁹lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins, which he hath done, and ¹⁰feareth, and doeth not such like, that ¹¹hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife, neither ¹²hath wronged any, hath not taken ought to pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment, that hath withdrawn his ¹³hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgements, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live. As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, he shall die ¹⁴in his iniquity. Yet say ye, Wherefore doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live. The ¹⁵soul that sinneth, it shall die: the son

¹ Or, in² Heb. judgement and righteousness.³ Or, that doeth to a brother any of these⁴ Heb. be put to death.⁵ Another reading is, seeth, or, considereth.⁶ Or, for

shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him. But if the wicked turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. None of his transgressions that he hath committed shall be remembered against him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live. Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked? saith the Lord God: and not rather that he should return from his way, and live? But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? None of his righteous deeds that he hath done shall be remembered: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die. Yet ye say, 'The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel: Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal? When the righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth therein; in his iniquity that he hath done shall he die. Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal? Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. Return ye, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. Cast away from you all your transgressions, wherein ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live.

19 MOREOVER, take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, and say, What was thy mother? A lioness: she couched among lions, in the midst of the young lions she nourished her whelps. And she brought up one of her whelps; he became a young lion: and he learned to catch the prey, he devoured men. The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit: and they brought him with hooks unto the land of Egypt. Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion. And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion: and he learned to catch the prey, he devoured men. And he knew their palaces, and laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, because of the noise of his roaring. Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces: and they spread their net over him; he was taken in their pit. And they put him in a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into strong holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

Thy mother was like a vine, in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. And she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and their stature was exalted among the thick boughs, and they were seen in their height with the multitude of their branches. But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken off and withered; the fire consumed them.

20 AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me. And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Are ye come to inquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you. Wilt thou judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? cause them to know the abominations of their fathers; and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD: In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the LORD your God; in that day I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands: and I said unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am the LORD your God. But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me; they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt. So I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. And I gave them my statutes, and shewed them my judgements, which if a man do, he shall live in them. Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them. But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they rejected my judgements, which if a man do, he shall live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly profaned: then I said I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them. But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out. Moreover also I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; because they rejected my judgements, and walked not in my statutes, and profaned my sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols. Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make a full end of them in the wilderness. And I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgements, nor defile yourselves with their idols: I am the LORD your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgements, and do them: and hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God. But the children rebelled against me; they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgements to do them, which if a man do, he shall live in them; they profaned my sabbaths: then I said I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought

Moreover I lifted up mine hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; because they had not executed my judgements, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and judgements
 24 'wherein they should not live; and I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they ²caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD.
 27 Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, 'Thus saith the Lord GOD: In this moreover have your fathers blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. For when I had brought them into the land, which I lifted up mine hand to give unto them, then they ³saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering, there also they made their sweet savour, and they poured 28 out there their drink offerings. Then I said unto them, What meaneth the high place ⁴whereunto ye go? So the name thereof is called 'Bamah unto this day.
 30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Do ye pollute yourselves after the manner of your fathers? and go ye a whoring after their abominations? and when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, do ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, unto this day? and shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, 32 I will not be inquired of by you: and that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all; in that ye say, We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone. As 33 I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I be king over you: and I will bring you out 34 from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out: and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there will I plead with you face to face. Like as I pleaded

 35 with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD. And I will cause
 36 you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant; and I will purge out from among you the 37 rebels, and them that transgress against me; I will bring them forth out of the land where they sojourn, but they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. As for 38 you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD: Go ye, serve every one his idols, ⁶and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but my holy name shall ye no more profane with your gifts, and with your idols. For in mine holy
 39 mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them, serve me in the land: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the ⁷firstfruits of your ⁸oblations, with all your holy things. ⁹As a sweet
 40 savour will I accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations. And 41 ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country which I lifted up mine hand to give unto your fathers. And

For there is 13 a trial; and ⁴what if even the rod that contemneth shall be no more? saith the Lord GOD. Thou therefore, son of man, 14 prophesy, and smite thine hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the deadly wounded: it is the sword of the great one that is deadly wounded, which ⁵entereth into their chambers. I have set the 15 ⁶point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied: ah! it is made as lightning, it is pointed for slaughter. ⁷Gather thee together, go to the right; 16 set thyself in array, go to the left; ⁸whithersoever thy face is set. I will also smite mine hands together, and I will ⁹satisfy my fury: I the LORD have spoken it.

The word of the LORD came unto me 18 again, saying, Also, thou son of man, 19 appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come; they twain shall come forth out of one land: and mark out a ¹⁰place, mark it out at the head of the way to the city. Thou shalt 20 appoint a way, for the sword to come to Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced. For 21 the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he shook the arrows to and fro, he consulted the teraphim, he 22 looked in the liver. In his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth ¹in

 the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, to build 23 forts. And it shall be unto them as a vain divination in their sight, which have sworn oaths unto them: but he bringeth iniquity to remembrance, that they may be taken.
 24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God:
 Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be 25 taken with the hand. And thou, O deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day is come, in the time of 26 the ²iniquity of the end; thus saith the Lord God: ³Remove the mitre, and take off the crown: this shall be ⁴no more the same: exalt that which is low, and abase 27 that which is high. ⁵I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: this also shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.
 28 And thou, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord God concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach; and say thou, A sword, a sword is drawn, for the slaughter it is furnished, ⁶to cause it to devour, 29 that it may be as lightning: whiles they see vanity unto thee, whiles they divine lies unto thee, to lay thee upon the necks
 of the wicked that are deadly wounded, whose day is come, in the time of the 30 ²iniquity of the end. Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where thou wast created, in the land of ⁷thy birth, 31 will I judge thee. And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee; I will blow upon thee with the fire of my wrath: and I will deliver thee into the hand of brut-32 ish men, skilful to destroy. Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the LORD

 have spoken it.

22 MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, And 2
 thou, son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bloody city? ⁸then cause
 her to know all her abominations. And 3
 thou shalt say, Thus saith the Lord God:
 A city that sheddeth blood in the midst of her, that her time may come, and that maketh idols against herself to defile her!
 Thou art become guilty in thy blood 4
 that thou hast shed, and art defiled in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near,
 and art come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the nations, and a mocking to all the countries. Those that be near, and those 5
 that be far from thee, shall mock thee,
 thou ⁹infamous one and full of tumult.
 Behold, the princes of Israel, every one 6
 according to his ¹⁰power, have been in thee to shed blood. In thee have they 7 set light by father and mother; in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they wronged the fatherless and the widow.
 Thou hast despised mine holy things, 8
 and hast profaned my sabbaths. Slanderous men have been in thee to shed 9
 blood: and in thee they have eaten upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they have committed lewdness. In thee have 10
 they discovered their fathers' nakedness:
 in thee have they humbled her that was unclean in her separation. And one hath 11 committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly
 defiled his daughter in law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter. In thee have they taken 12 bribes to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by oppression, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord God. Behold, therefore, I have 13
 smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain

which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

- 14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I the LORD have spoken 15 it, and will do it. And I will scatter thee among the nations, and disperse thee through the countries; and I will consume thy filthiness out of thee. And thou shalt be profaned in thyself, in the sight of the nations; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

- 17 And the word of the LORD came unto
18 me, saying, Son of man, the house of Israel is become dross unto me: all of them are brass and tin and iron and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are the 19 dross of silver. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: Because ye are all become dross, therefore behold, I will gather 20 you into the midst of Jerusalem. As they gather silver and brass and iron and lead and tin into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will lay you there, and 21 melt you. Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you with the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.
22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you.

- 23 And the word of the LORD came unto
24 me, saying, Son of man, say unto her, Thou art a land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.
25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they take treasure and precious things; they have made her widows many 26 in the midst thereof. Her priests have done violence to my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. Her princes in the midst thereof 27 are like wolves ravening the prey; to shed blood, and to destroy souls, that they may get dishonest gain. And her 28 prophets have daubed for them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the LORD hath not spoken. The people of the land have 29 used oppression, and exercised robbery; yea, they have vexed the poor and needy, and have oppressed the stranger wrongfully. And I sought for a man among 30 them, that should make up the fence, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none. Therefore have I poured 31 out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I brought upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD.

23 THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of 2 man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother: and they committed 3 whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity. And 4 the names of them were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister: and they became mine, and they bare sons and daughters. And as for their names, Samaria is ¹Oholah, and Jerusalem ²Oholibah. And Oholah played the harlot 5 when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbours, which were clothed with blue, 6 governors and ³rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses. And she bestowed her whoredoms upon them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them: and on whomsoever she doted, with all their idols she defiled herself. Neither hath she left her whore- 8 doms ⁴since the days of Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the teats of her virginity: and they poured out their whoredom upon her.

1 That is, Her tent.

2 That is, My tent is in her.

4 Or, brought from Egypt

9 Wherefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted. These discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and her they slew with the sword: and she became a byword among women; for they executed judgements upon her. And her sister Oholibah saw this, yet was she more corrupt in her doting than she, and in her whoredoms which were more than the whoredoms of her sister. She doted upon the Assyrians, governors and rulers, her neighbours, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men. And I saw that she was defiled; they both took one way. And she increased her whoredoms; for she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion, girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look upon, after the likeness of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their nativity. And as soon as she saw them she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea. And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her soul was alienated from them. So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my soul was alienated from her, like as my soul was alienated from her sister. Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, remembering the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt. And she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in the bruising of thy teats by the Egyptians for the breasts of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O Oholibah, thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy soul is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side; the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: desirable young men, governors and rulers all of them, princes and men of renown, all of them riding upon horses. And they shall come against thee with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with an assembly of peoples; they shall set themselves against thee with buckler and shield and helmet round about: and I will commit the judgement unto them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgements. And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal with thee in fury; they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy residue shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire. They shall also strip thee of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels. Thus will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more. For thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy soul is alienated: and they shall deal with thee in hatred, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare: and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms. These things shall be done unto thee, for that thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols. Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her cup into thine hand. Thus saith the Lord God: Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup, which is deep and large: thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much. Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and 34 Samaria. Thou shalt even drink it and drain it out, and thou shalt gnaw the sherds thereof, and shalt tear thy breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

 35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Because thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.
 36 The LORD said moreover unto me: Son of man, wilt thou judge Oholah and Oholibah? then declare unto them their 37 abominations. For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery; and they have also caused their sons, whom they bare unto me, to pass through the fire unto them to be de-38 voured. Moreover this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my 39 sabbaths. For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to pro-
 40 fane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of mine house. And furthermore ye have sent for men ¹that come from far: unto whom a messenger was sent, and, lo, they came; for whom thou didst wash thyself, paintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments;
 41 and satest upon a stately bed, with a table prepared before it, whereupon thou didst set mine incense and mine oil. And the voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with men of the common sort were brought drunkards from the wilderness; and they put bracelets upon the hands of them twain, and beautiful crowns upon their heads. Then said I ²of her that was old in adulteries, Now will they commit ³whoredoms with her,
 44 ⁴and she with them. And they went in unto her, as they go in unto an harlot: so went they in unto Oholah and unto 45 Oholibah, the lewd women. And righteous men, they shall judge them with the judgement of adulteresses, and with the judgement of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands. For thus saith the Lord God: I will bring up an assembly against them, and will give them to be tossed to and fro and spoiled. And the assembly shall stone them with stones, and despatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire. Thus will I cause lewdness 48 to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols: and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

24 AGAIN, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, write thee
 2 the name of the day, even of this selfsame day: the king of Babylon ³drew close unto Jerusalem this selfsame day. And utter a parable unto the rebellious
 3 house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Set on the caldron, set it on, and also pour water into it: gather
 4 the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. Take the 5 choice of the flock, and pile also the bones under it: make it boil well; yea, let the bones thereof be seethed in the midst of it.

Wherefore thus saith the Lord God: 6
 Woe to the bloody city, to the caldron whose ⁶rust is therein, and whose ⁶rust is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; no lot is fallen upon it. For her
 7 blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the bare rock; she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust; that it might cause fury to come up to 8 take vengeance, I have set her blood upon the bare rock, that it should not be covered. Therefore thus saith the 9 Lord God: Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pile great. Heap on 10
 the wood, make the fire hot, boil well the 11 the bones be burned. Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that it may be hot, and the brass thereof may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in

 it, that the rust of it may be consumed.
 12 She hath wearied ¹herself with toil: yet
 her great rust goeth not forth out of her; 13 her rust ²goeth not forth by fire. ³In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee and thou wast not purged,
 thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have ⁴satisfied my 14 fury ⁵upon thee. I the LORD have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to thy ways, and according to thy doings,
 shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.
 15 Also the word of the LORD came unto 16 me, saying, Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes
 with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears 17 run down. Sigh, ⁶but not aloud; make no mourning for the dead, bind thy headtire upon thee, and put thy shoes
 upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, 18 and eat not the bread of men. So I spake unto the people in the morning; and at even my wife died: and I did in the 19 morning as I was commanded. And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou 20 doest so? Then I said unto them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 21 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and ⁷that
 which your soul pitieth; and your sons
 and your daughters whom ye have left 22 behind shall fall by the sword. And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.
 23 And your tires shall be upon your heads,
 and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away in your iniquities, and moan one toward another. Thus shall Ezekiel be ²⁴ unto you a sign; according to all that he hath done shall ye do: when this cometh,

 then shall ye know that I am the Lord
 God.

And thou, son of man, shall it not be ²⁵
 in the day when I take from them their ⁸strength, the joy of their ⁹glory, the desire of their eyes, and ¹⁰that whereupon they set their heart, their sons and their daughters, that in that day he that es- ²⁶
 capeth shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears? In that ²⁷ day shall thy mouth be opened ¹¹to him
 which is escaped, and thou shalt speak,
 and be no more dumb: so shalt thou be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

25 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, set ²
 thy face toward the children of Ammon,
 and prophesy ¹²against them: and say ³ unto the children of Ammon, Hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God: Because thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was pro-
 faned; and against the land of Israel,
 when it was made desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity: therefore behold, I will deliver ⁴ thee to the children of the east for a possession, and they shall set their encampments in thee, and make their dwellings in thee; they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk. And ⁵
 I will make Rabbah a stable for camels,
 and the children of Ammon a couching
 place for flocks: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. For thus saith the Lord ⁶
 God: Because thou hast clapped thine hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with all the despite of thy soul
 against the land of Israel; therefore be- ⁷

- 12 Thus saith the Lord GOD: Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them; therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, I will stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it: and I will make it desolate from Teman; even unto Dedan shall they fall by the sword. And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury: and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord GOD.

- 15 Thus saith the Lord GOD: Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with despite of soul to destroy it with perpetual enmity; therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

26 AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, because that Tyre hath said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken that was the gate of the peoples; she is turned unto me: I shall be replenished, now that she is laid waste: therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against thee, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up. And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock. She shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea; for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD: and she shall become a spoil to the nations. And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain with the sword; and they shall know that I am the LORD. For thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, I will bring upon Tyre Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and a company, and much people. He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall make forts against thee, and cast up a mount against thee, and raise up the buckler against thee. And he shall set his battering engines against thy walls, and with his ³axes he shall break down thy towers. By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the ⁴wagons, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach. With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people with the sword, and the ⁵pillars of thy strength shall go down to the ground. And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy merchandise: and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and thy dust in the midst of the waters. And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard. And I will make thee a bare rock: 14

- 15 Thus saith the Lord GOD to Tyre: Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee? Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their broidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with ¹trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble every moment, and be astonished at thee.
- 17 And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited ²of seafaring men, the renowned city, which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which caused their terror to be on all that ³haunt it! Now shall the isles tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be dismayed at thy departure. For thus saith the Lord GOD: When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and the great waters shall cover thee; then will I bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make thee to dwell in the nether parts of the earth, ⁴in the places that are desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; ⁵and I will set glory in the land of the living:
- 21 I will make thee ⁶a terror, and thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord GOD.

27 THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, And thou, son of man, take up a lamentation for 3 Tyre; and say unto Tyre, O thou that dwellest at the ⁷entry of the sea, which art the merchant of the peoples unto many isles, thus saith the Lord GOD: Thou, O Tyre, hast said, I am perfect in beauty. Thy borders are in the heart 4 of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty. They have ⁸made all thy 5 planks of fir trees from Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make a mast for thee. Of the oaks of Bashan 6 have they made thine oars; they have made thy ⁹benches of ivory inlaid in boxwood, from the isles of Kittim. Of 7 fine linen with broidered work from Egypt was thy sail, that it might be to thee for an ensign; blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was thine awning. The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad 8 were thy rowers: thy wise men, O Tyre, were in thee, they were thy pilots. The 9 ¹⁰ancients of Gebal and the wise men thereof were in thee thy calkers: all the ships of the sea with thy mariners were in thee to ¹¹occupy thy merchandise. Persia and Lud and Put were in thine 10 army, thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness. The men of Arvad with 11 thine army were upon thy walls round about, and ¹²the Gammadim were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have perfected thy beauty. Tarshish was thy 12 merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded for thy wares. Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were 13 thy traffickers: they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass for thy merchandise. They of the house of Togarmah traded for thy wares with horses and war-horses and mules. The men of 15 Dedan were thy traffickers: many isles were the mart of thine hand: they brought thee ¹³in exchange horns of ivory and ebony. Syria was thy merchant by 16 reason of the multitude of thy handiworks: they traded for thy wares with ¹⁴emeralds, purple, and broidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies. Judah, and the land of Israel, they were 17 thy traffickers: they traded for thy merchandise wheat of Minnith, and ¹⁵pannag, 20 among thy merchandisc. Dedan was thy trafficker in precious cloths for riding.

 21 Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they were the merchants of thy hand; in lambs, and rams, and goats, in these 22 were they thy merchants. The traffickers of Sheba and Raamah, they were thy traffickers: they traded for thy wares with chief of all spices, and with all 23 precious stones, and gold. Haran and Canneh and Eden, the traffickers of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad, were thy 24 traffickers. These were thy traffickers in choice wares, in ³wrappings of blue and brodered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords and made of 25 cedar, among thy merchandise. The ships of Tarshish were thy caravans for thy merchandise: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the heart of the seas. Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the east wind hath broken thee in the heart of 26 the seas. Thy riches, and thy wares, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the ⁴occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, ⁵with all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the heart of the seas in the day
 28 of thy ruin. At the sound of the cry of 29 thy pilots the ⁶suburbs shall shake. And all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon
 30 the land, and shall cause their voice to be heard over thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes:
 31 and they shall make themselves bald for thee, and gird thee with sackcloth, and they shall weep for thee in bitterness of soul with bitter mourning. And in their 22 wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, Who is there like Tyre, like her that is brought to silence in the midst of the sea? When thy wares went forth out of 33 the seas, thou filledst many peoples; thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise. ⁷In the time that thou 34 wast broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, thy merchandise and all thy company did fall in the midst of thee. All the inhabitants of the isles are astonished at thee, and their kings are horribly afraid, they are troubled in their countenance. The merchants among the peoples hiss at thee; thou art become ⁸a terror, and thou shalt never be any more.

28 THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of 2 man, say unto the prince of Tyre, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the ⁹midst of the seas; yet thou art man, and not God, though thou didst set thine heart as the heart of God: behold, thou art 3 wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee: by thy wisdom 4 and by thine understanding thou hast gotten thee ¹⁰riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures: by thy 5 great wisdom and by thy traffic hast thou increased thy ¹⁰riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy ¹⁰riches: there- 6 fore thus saith the Lord GOD: Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God; therefore behold, I will bring 7 strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall ¹¹defile thy brightness. They 8 shall bring thee down to the pit; and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain, in the heart of the seas. ¹¹ Moreover the word of the LORD came ¹²unto me, saying, Son of man, take up a lamentation for the king of Tyre, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Thou sealest up the ²sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. Thou wast

¹³in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the ³sardius, the topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the ⁴emerald, and the ⁵carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was in thee; in the day that thou wast created they were pre-

¹⁴pared. Thou wast the anointed cherub that covereth: and I set thee, so that thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the ¹⁵midst of the stones of fire. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till unrighteousness ¹⁶was found in thee. By the multitude of thy traffic they filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore have I cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God; and I have destroyed thee, O covering cherub, from

¹⁷the midst of the stones of fire. Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I have cast thee to the ground, I have laid thee before ¹⁸kings, that they may behold thee. By the multitude of thine iniquities, in the unrighteousness of thy traffic, thou hast profaned thy sanctuaries; therefore have I brought forth a fire from the midst of thee, it hath devoured thee, and I have turned thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

¹⁹All they that know thee among the peoples shall be astonished at thee: thou art become ⁶a terror, and thou shalt never be any more.

²⁰ And the word of the LORD came unto ²¹me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward Zidon, and prophesy against it, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executed judgements in her, and shall be sanctified in her. For ²³I will send into her pestilence and blood in her streets; and the wounded shall ²⁴fall in the midst of her, with the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the LORD. And there shall be no more a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor a grieving thorn of any that are round about them, that did despite unto them; and they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Thus saith the Lord GOD: When I ²⁵shall have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then shall they dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob. And they ²⁶shall dwell securely therein; yea, they shall build houses, and plant vineyards, and shall dwell securely; when I have executed judgements upon all those that do them despite round about them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

29 IN the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face ²against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt: speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord ³GOD: Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself. And I will put ⁴hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales; and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, with all the fish of thy rivers which stick unto thy scales. thou shalt fall upon the ¹open field; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the earth and to the fowls of the heaven. And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. When they took hold of thee ²by thy hand, thou didst break, and didst rend all their shoulders: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to ³be at a stand. Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and will cut off from thee man and beast. And the land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it. Therefore behold, I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, ⁴from the tower of Seveneh even unto the border of Ethiopia. No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. And I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be a desolation forty years: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. For thus saith the Lord God: At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the peoples whither they were scattered: and I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their ⁵birth; and they shall be there a ⁶base kingdom. It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it any more lift itself up above the nations: and I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to remembrance, when they turn to look after them: and they shall know that I am the Lord God.

And it came to pass in the seven and 17 twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, 18 Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it: therefore thus saith the Lord God: Be- 19 hold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall carry off her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. I have given 20 him the land of Egypt ⁷as his recompence for which he served, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord God.

In that day will I cause an horn to bud forth unto the house of Israel, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

30 THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of 2 man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord God: Howl ye, Woe worth the day! For the day is near, even the day 3 of the LORD is near, a day of clouds; it shall be the time of the heathen. And 4 a sword shall come upon Egypt, and anguish shall be in ⁸Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt; and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down. ⁸Ethiopia, 5 and Put, and Lud, and all the mingled people, and Cub, and the children of ⁹the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

Thus saith the LORD: They also that 6 uphold Egypt shall fall, and the pride of her power shall come down: ¹⁰from the tower of Seveneh shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord God. And 7 they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are 9 and all her helpers are ¹destroyed. In that day shall messengers go forth from before me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid; and there shall be anguish upon them, as in the day of Egypt; for, lo, it cometh.

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD: I will also
make the multitude of Egypt to cease,
by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of 11 Babylon. He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, 12 and fill the land with the slain. And I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men; and I will make the land desolate, and ²all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I
the LORD have spoken it.

13 Thus saith the Lord GOD: I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the ³images to cease from Noph; and there shall be no more a prince out of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the 14 land of Egypt. And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and 15 will execute judgements in No. And I will pour my fury upon Sin, the strong hold of Egypt; and I will cut off the 16 multitude of No. And I will set a fire in Egypt; Sin shall be in great anguish,
and No shall be broken up: and Noph
shall have adversaries ⁴in the day-time.
17 The young men of Aven and of Pi-beseth shall fall by the sword: and these 18 cities shall go into captivity. At Tehaph-nehes also the day shall ⁵withdraw itself,
when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt, and the pride of her power shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go 19 into captivity. Thus will I execute judgements in Egypt: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

20 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, ²¹

I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it hath not been bound up to apply healing medicines, to put a roller to bind it, that it be strong to hold the sword. Therefore thus saith the ²²
Lord GOD: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. And I will scatter ²³
the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.
And I will strengthen the arms of the ²⁴
king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he shall groan before him
with the groanings of a deadly wounded man. And I will hold up the arms of the ²⁵
king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt. And I will scatter the ²⁶ Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

31 AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month,
in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
Son of man, say unto Pharaoh king of ²
Egypt, and to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatness? Behold, the ³ Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the ⁴'thick boughs. The waters nourished him, the deep made him to grow: her rivers ran round about her plantation; and she sent out her channels unto all the trees of the field.
Therefore his stature was exalted above ⁵
all the trees of the field; and his boughs
were multiplied, and his branches became long by reason of ⁶many waters,
when he shot them forth. All the fowls ⁶
of heaven made their nests in his boughs,
and under his branches did all the beasts

of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was 8 by many waters. The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the plane trees were not as his branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like 9 unto him in his beauty. I made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 Therefore thus ²said the Lord GOD: Because thou art exalted in stature, and he hath set his top among the ³thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his 11 height; I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations; he shall surely deal with him: I have 12 driven him out for his wickedness. And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth are gone down from his 13 shadow, and have left him. Upon his ruin all the fowls of the heaven shall dwell, and all the beasts of the field shall 14 be upon his branches: to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, neither set their top among the thick boughs, nor that their mighty ones stand up in their height, even all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD: In the day when he went down to ⁴hell I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the rivers thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon ⁵to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. 16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to ⁶hell

with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the nether parts of the earth. They also went down into ⁷hell with him 17 unto them that be slain by the sword; yea, they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the nations.

To whom art thou thus like in glory 18 and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

32 AND it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of 2 man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou wast likened unto a young lion of the nations: yet art thou as a dragon in the seas; and thou brakest forth ⁶with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers. Thus 3 saith the Lord GOD: I will spread out my net over thee with a company of many peoples; and they shall bring thee up in my net. And I will leave thee upon the 4 land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to settle upon thee, and I will satisfy the beasts of the whole earth with thee. And I will lay thy flesh upon the 5 mountains, and fill the valleys with thy ⁷height. I will also water with thy blood 6 the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the watercourses shall be full of thee. And when I shall 7 extinguish thee, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof ⁸dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light. All the bright 8 lights of heaven will I make ⁸dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord GOD. I will also vex the 9 hearts of many peoples, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations,

 into the countries which thou hast not 10 known. Yea, I will make many peoples amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment,
 every man for his own life, in the day
 11 of thy fall. For thus saith the Lord GOD:
 The sword of the king of Babylon shall 12 come upon thee. By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall; the terrible of the nations are they all: and they shall spoil the pride of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof 13 shall be destroyed. I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside many waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of 14 beasts trouble them. Then will I ²make their waters clear, and cause their rivers
 to run like oil, saith the Lord GOD.
 15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate and waste, a land destitute of ³that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the LORD.
 16 This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament; the daughters of the nations shall lament therewith: for Egypt,
 and for all her multitude, shall they lament therewith, saith the Lord GOD.
 17 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month,
 that the word of the LORD came unto me, 18 saying, Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the 19 pit. Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, and be thou laid with the uncir-20 cumcised. They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: ⁴she
 is delivered to the sword: draw her away 21 and all her multitudes. The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of ⁵hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie still,

even the uncircumcised, slain by the sword. Asshur is there and all her 22 company; his graves are round about him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword: whose graves are set in the utter- 23
 most parts of the pit, and her company
 is round about her grave: all of them
 slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living. There 24 is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen
 by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with them that go down to the pit. They have set her a bed in the 25
 midst of the slain with all her multitude;
 her graves are round about her: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword;
 for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain. There is Meshech, Tubal, and 26
 all her multitude; her graves are round
 about her: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for they caused their terror in the land of the living. ⁶And 27
 they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to ⁵hell with their weapons of war, and have laid their swords
 under their heads, and their iniquities are upon their bones; for they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. But thou shalt be broken in the 28 midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain by the sword.
 There is Edom, her kings and all her 29
 princes, which ⁷in their might are laid with them that are slain by the sword:
 they shall lie with the uncircumcised,
 and with them that go down to the pit.
 There be the princes of the north, all of 30
 them, and all the Zidonians, which are gone down with the slain; ⁸in the terror which they caused by their might they are ashamed; and they lie uncircumcised

 32 For I have put ²his terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised, with them that are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

33 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man from among them, and set
 3 him for their watchman: if, when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the peo-
 4 ple; then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning, if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.
 5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him: whereas if he had taken warning he should have delivered his
 6 soul. But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned, and the sword come, and take any person from among them; he is taken away ³in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at the watch-
 7 man's hand. So thou, son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.
 8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die, and thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man shall die ³in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at 9 thine hand. Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he turn not from his way; he shall die ³in his iniquity, but thou hast delivered thy soul.

And thou, son of man, say unto the 10 house of Israel: Thus ye speak, saying, 'Our transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we pine away ³in them; how then should we live? Say unto them, 11 As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel? And thou, son of man, say unto 12 the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness: neither shall he that is righteous be able to live thereby in the day that he sinneth. When I say to the righteous, that he 13 shall surely live; if he trust to his righteousness, and commit iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but ³in his iniquity that he hath committed, ⁵therein shall he die. Again, 14 when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do ⁶that which is lawful and right; if the 15 wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. None of his sins that he hath com- 16 mitted shall be remembered against him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live. Yet the chil- 17 dren of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal. When the righteous 18 turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die ⁷therein. And when the wicked turneth from 19 his wickedness, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not 20 equal. O house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes unto your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

And I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment, and the pride of her power shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through. Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed. And as for thee, son of man, the children of thy people talk of thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that
- 31 cometh forth from the LORD. And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but do them not: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after
- 32 their gain. And, lo, thou art unto them as 'a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not. And when this cometh to pass, (behold, it cometh,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

34 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, 2 prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, even to the shepherds, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Woe unto the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the sheep? Ye eat the fat, 3 and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill the fatlings; but ye feed not the sheep. The diseased have ye not strengthened, 4 neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with rigour have ye ruled over them. And they were 5 scattered, because there was no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, and were scattered. My sheep wandered through all the 6 mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my sheep were scattered upon all the face of the earth; and there was none that did search or seek after them. There- 7 fore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: As I live, saith the Lord GOD, 8 surely forasmuch as my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became meat to all the beasts of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my sheep; therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word 9 of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; and I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them. For 11 thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, 12 and will seek them out. As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places

 whither they have been scattered in ¹the 13 cloudy and dark day. And I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them upon the mountains of Israel,
 by the watercourses, and in all the inhabit-14 ed places of the country. I will feed them with good pasture, and upon the mountains of the height of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie down in a good fold, and on fat pasture shall they 15 feed upon the mountains of Israel. I myself will feed my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord 16 God. I will seek that which was lost, and will bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: and the fat and the strong I will destroy; I will feed them 17 in judgement. And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God: Behold,
 I judge between cattle and cattle, as well 18 the rams as the he-goats. Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have fed upon the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? and to have drunk of the clear waters, but ye must foul the residue 19 with your feet? And as for my sheep, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.
 20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God
 unto them: Behold, I, even I, will judge
 between the fat cattle and the lean cattle.
 21 Because ye thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them 22 abroad; therefore will I save my flock,
 and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle.
 23 And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. And I the 24

 LORD will be their God, and my servant
 David prince among them; I the LORD
 have spoken it. And I will make with 25 them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. And I 26 will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause
 the shower to come down in its season;
 there shall be showers of blessing. And 27
 the tree of the field shall yield its fruit,
 and the earth shall yield her increase,
 and they shall be secure in their land;
 and they shall know that I am the LORD,
 when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those that ²served themselves of them. And they shall no more be a 28 prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the earth devour them; but they shall dwell securely, and none shall make them afraid. And I will raise up unto 29 them a ³plantation for renown, and they shall be no more ⁴consumed with famine
 in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more. And they shall 30 know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord
 God. And ye my sheep, the sheep of 31 my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God.

35 MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son 2
 of man, set thy face against mount Seir,
 and prophesy against it, and say unto it, 3
 Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against thee, O mount Seir, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee a desolation and an astonishment. I will lay thy cities waste, 4 and thou shalt be desolate; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD. Because 5 thou hast had a perpetual enmity, and hast given over the children of Israel to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the 'ini-6 quity of the end: therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will prepare thee

 unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee:
 7 sith thou hast not hated blood, therefore blood shall pursue thee. Thus will I make mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation; and I will cut off from it
 him that passeth through and him that 8 returneth. And I will fill his mountains with his slain: in thy hills and in thy valleys and in all thy watercourses shall they fall that are slain with the sword.
 9 I will make thee perpetual desolations,
 and thy cities shall not ²be inhabited:
 and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
 10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; ³whereas 11 the LORD was there: therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast shewed out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, ⁴when I 12 shall judge thee. And thou shalt know ⁵that I the LORD have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken
 against the mountains of Israel, saying, ⁶'They are laid desolate, they are given 13 us to devour. And ye have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth,
 and have multiplied your words against 14 me: I have heard it. Thus saith the Lord GOD: When the whole earth re-15 joiceth, I will make thee desolate. As thou didst rejoice over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it: and they shall know
 that I am the LORD.

36 AND thou, son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the 2 word of the LORD. Thus saith the Lord GOD: Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha! and, The ancient high places are ours in possession: therefore 3

 prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the nations, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people:
 therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear 4
 the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which are become a prey and derision to the residue
 of the nations that are round about:
 therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: 5
 Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the nations,
 and against all Edom, which have appointed my land unto themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart,
 with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey: therefore prophesy concerning the 6
 land of Israel, and say unto the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses
 and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen: there- 7
 fore thus saith the Lord GOD: I have lifted up mine hand, saying, Surely the heathen that are round about you, they shall bear their shame. But ye, O 8 mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come. For, behold, I am for you, and I 9 will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled
 and sown: and I will multiply men upon 10
 you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be builded: and I 11
 will multiply upon you man and beast;
 and they shall increase and be fruitful:
 and I will cause you to be inhabited after your former estate, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Yea, I 12 will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth be-13 reave them of children. Thus saith the Lord GOD: Because they say unto you, Thou land art a devourer of men, and hast been a bereaver of thy 'nation;

 14 therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither 'bereave thy 'nation any 15 more, saith the Lord GOD; neither will I 'let thee hear any more the shame of the heathen, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the peoples any more, neither shalt thou cause thy 'nation to stumble any more, saith the Lord GOD.
 16 Moreover the word of the LORD came
 17 unto me, saying, Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their doings: their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her separa-
 18 tion. Wherefore I poured out my fury upon them for the blood which they had poured out upon the land, and because 19 they had defiled it with their idols: and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and accord-
 20 ing to their doings I judged them. And when they came unto the nations, whither they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth
 21 out of his land. But I had pity for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, whither
 22 they went. Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD: 'I do not this for your sake, O house of Israel, but for mine holy name, which ye have profaned among the nations, 23 whither ye went. And I will sanctify my great name, which hath been profaned among the nations, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when I shall be 24 sanctified in you before 'their eyes. For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. And I will sprinkle clean water upon 25 you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. A new heart also will I give 26 you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. And I will put my spirit 27 within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judge-ments, and do them. And ye shall dwell 28 in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. And I will save you from all 29 your uncleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and will multiply it, and lay no famine upon you. And I will multiply 30 the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations. Then shall ye remember your 31 evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. Not for your sake 'do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, O house of Is- 32 rael. Thus saith the Lord GOD: In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be 33 inhabited, and the waste places shall be builded. And the land that was desolate 34 shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all that passed by. And they shall say, This land that was 35 desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fenced and inhabited. Then the nations that are left round 36 about you shall know that I the LORD have builded the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.

Thus saith the Lord GOD: For this 37 moreover will I be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; I will

37 THE hand of the LORD was upon me, and he carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones; and he caused me to pass by them round about: and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and lo, they were very dry. And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, thou knowest. Again he said unto me, Prophecy over these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live. And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold an earthquake, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. And I beheld, and lo, there were sinews upon them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them. Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off. Therefore prophecy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, O my people; and I will bring you into the land of Israel. And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, O my people. And I will put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I will place you in your own land: and ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, And thou, son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions: and join them for thee one to another into one stick, that they may become one in thine hand. And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these? say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his companions; and I will put them with it, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand. And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes. And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: and I will make them one nation in the land, upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all: neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of 38 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the ⁴prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him,

 3 and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, ⁴prince
 4 of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: and I will turn thee about, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armour, a great
 5 company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords: Persia, Cush, and Put with them; all of them with 6 shield and helmet: Gomer, and all his hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes: even many peoples with thee.
 7 Be thou prepared, yea, prepare thyself, thou, and all thy companies that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a 8 ⁵guard unto them. After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is ⁶brought back from the sword, that is gathered out of many peoples, upon the mountains of Israel, which have been a continual waste: but it is brought forth out of the peoples, and they shall dwell securely, all of them. And thou shalt ⁹ascend, thou shalt come like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy hordes, and many peoples with thee. Thus saith the Lord ¹⁰GOD: It shall come to pass in that day, that things shall come into thy mind, and thou shalt devise an evil device: and ¹¹thou shalt say, I will go up to ⁷the land of unwallled villages; I will go to them that are at quiet, that dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates: to take the ¹²spoil and to take the prey; to turn thine hand against the waste places that are ^{now} inhabited, and against the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the ⁸middle of the earth. Sheba, ¹³and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take the spoil? hast thou assembled thy company to take the prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take great spoil?

Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and ¹⁴say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD: In that day when my people Israel dwell-eth securely, shalt thou not know it? And thou shalt come from thy place out of the uttermost parts of the north, thou, and many peoples with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company and a mighty army: and thou shalt come up ¹⁵against my people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring thee against my land, that the nations may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes. whom I spake in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days for many years that I would bring thee against them?

- 18 And it shall come to pass in that day, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come up into my nostrils.
 19 For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land
 20 of Israel; so that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every 21 wall shall fall to the ground. And I will call for a sword against him unto all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother.
 22 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his hordes, and upon the many peoples that are with him, an overflowing shower, and great 23 hailstones, fire, and brimstone. And I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

- 39 AND thou, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, ¹prince of Rosh, Meshech,
 2 and Tubal: and I will turn thee about, and will lead thee on, and will cause thee to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring thee upon the
 3 mountains of Israel: and I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.
 4 Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy hordes, and the peoples that are with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. Thou shalt fall upon the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. And I will send a fire on Magog, 6 and on them that dwell securely in the ²isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD. And my holy name will I make 7 known in the midst of my people Israel; neither will I suffer my holy name to be profaned any more: and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. Behold, it cometh, and it shall 8 be done, saith the Lord GOD; this is the day whereof I have spoken. And they 9 that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall make fires of them seven years: so that they shall take no wood 10 out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall make fires of the weapons: and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD.

And it shall come to pass in that day, 11 that I will give unto Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of them that pass through ³on the east of the sea: and it shall stop them that pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of ⁴Hamon-gog. And seven months 12 shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land. Yea, all the people of the land shall bury 13 them; and it shall be to them a renown, in the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD. And they shall sever out 14 men of continual employment, that shall pass through the land to bury ⁵them ⁶that pass through, that remain upon the face of the land, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. And they that pass through the 15 land shall pass through; and when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he ⁷set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.

- 17 And thou, son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD: Speak unto the birds of every sort, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh and drink blood.
- 18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan. And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. And ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD. And I will set my glory among the nations, and all the nations shall see my judgement that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them. So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God, from that day and forward. And the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of them by the sword. According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions did I unto them; and I hid my face from them.
- 25 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name. And they shall bear their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they shall dwell securely in their land, and none shall make them afraid; when I have brought them again from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations.

And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them unto their own land; and I will leave none of them any more there; neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

40 IN the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day, the hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me thither. In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me down upon a very high mountain, whereon was as it were the frame of a city on the south. And he brought me thither, and behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

And behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long, of a cubit and an handbreadth each: so he measured the thickness of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the steps thereof; and he measured the threshold of the gate, one reed broad: and the other threshold, one reed broad. And every lodge was one reed long, and one reed broad; and the space between the lodges was five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed. He measured also the porch 8 of the gate toward the house, one reed.

 9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the ¹posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was 10 toward the house. And the lodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.
 11 And he measured the breadth of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the 12 length of the gate, thirteen cubits; and a border before the lodges, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this
 13 side, and six cubits on that side. And he measured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a breadth of five and twenty cubits; door 14 against door. He made also posts, three-score cubits; and the court reached unto the post, the gate being round about.
 15 And from the forefront of the gate at the entrance unto the forefront of the ²inner
 16 porch of the gate were fifty cubits. And there were closed windows to the lodges, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the ³arches: and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm trees.
 17 Then brought he me into the outer court, and, lo, there were chambers and a pavement, made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the 18 pavement. And the pavement was by the ⁴side of the gates, answerable unto the length of the gates, even the lower pavement.
 19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, an hundred cubits, both on the east and
 20 on the north. And the gate of the outer court whose prospect is toward the north, he measured the length thereof and the 21 breadth thereof. And the lodges thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. And the windows there- 22 of, and the arches thereof, and the palm trees thereof, were after the measure of the gate whose prospect is toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them. And there was a gate to the inner 23 court over against the other gate, both on the north and on the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits. And he led me toward the south, 24 and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures. And there were windows in it and 25 in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. And there were seven steps to 26 go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof. And there was 27 a gate to the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

Then he brought me to the inner court 28
 by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures; and the lodges thereof, and the posts 29
 thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. And 30
 there were arches round about, five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad. And the arches thereof were toward the 31 outer court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps. And he brought me 32 into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures; and the lodges thereof, and 33
 the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. And the arches thereof were toward the 34

outer court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had 35 eight steps. And he brought me to the north gate: and he measured it according to these measures; the lodges thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof; and there were windows therein round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.
 37 And the posts thereof were toward the outer court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.
 38 And a chamber with the door thereof was by the posts at the gates; there they
 39 washed the burnt offering. And 'in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering and the sin
 40 offering and the guilt offering. And on the one side without, ²as one goeth up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate,
 41 were two tables. Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables,
 42 whereupon they slew the sacrifices. And there were four tables for the burnt offering, of hewn stone, a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice.
 43 And the ³hooks, an handbreadth long, were fastened ⁴within round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the 44 oblation. ⁵And without the inner gate were chambers for the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the 45 north. And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house. And the chamber ⁴⁶whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok, which from among the sons of Levi come near to the LORD to minister unto him. And he measured the court, ⁴⁷an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar was before the house.

Then he brought me to the porch of ⁴⁸the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. The ⁴⁹length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; ⁶even by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

41 AND he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the ⁷tabernacle. And ²the breadth of the entrance was ten cubits; and the ⁸sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits. Then ³went he inward, and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits: and the entrance, six cubits; and the breadth of the entrance, seven cubits. And he ⁴measured the length thereof, twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place. Then he ⁵measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side-chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side. And the side-⁶chambers were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold therein, and not have hold in the wall of the house. And ⁷the side-chambers were broader as they encompassed the house higher and higher; for the encompassing of the house went higher and higher round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house continued upward; and so one went up from the lowest chamber to the highest by the middle ⁸*chamber*. I saw also ²that the house had ³a raised basement round about: the foundations of the side-chambers were ⁹a full reed ⁴of six great cubits. The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chambers, on the outside, was five cubits: ⁵and that which was left was the place of the side-chambers that belonged ¹⁰to the house. And between the chambers was a breadth of twenty cubits round about the house on every side. ¹¹And the doors of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits ¹²round about. And the building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length ¹³thereof ninety cubits. So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long; also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits. ¹⁵And he measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at the back thereof, and the galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the porches of the court; ¹⁶the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the threshold, cicled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows; now the windows were covered; to the space ¹⁷above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, ⁶by measure. And it was made with cherubim and palm trees; and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces; so that there was ¹⁹the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: thus was it made through all the house round about. From the ground ²⁰unto above the door were cherubim and palm trees made: ⁷thus was the wall of the temple. As for the temple, the door ²¹posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance thereof was ⁸as the appearance of the temple. The altar was of wood, three cubits high, ²²and the length thereof two cubits; and ⁹the corners thereof, and the ¹⁰length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before the LORD. And the ²³temple and the sanctuary had two doors. And the doors had two leaves apiece, ²⁴two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other. And there were made on them, on the ²⁵doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick beams of wood ¹¹upon the face of the porch without. And there were closed windows and ²⁶palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side-chambers of the house, and the thick beams.

the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. Over against the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and over against the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery ¹in the third story. And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of ²one cubit; and their doors were toward the north. Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middlemost, in the building. For they were in three stories, and they had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the uppermost was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground. And the ³wall that was without by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court before the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits. For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits. And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the outer court. In the thickness of the ³wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were chambers. And the way before them was like the appearance of the way of the chambers which were toward the north; ⁴according to their length so was their breadth: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the ³wall toward the east, as one entereth into them. Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be the holy chambers, where the priests that are near unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the guilt offering; for the place is holy. When the priests enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which pertaineth to the people.

Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about. He measured on the east ⁵side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. He measured on the north ⁶side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. He measured on the south ⁵side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed. He turned about to the west ⁵side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. He measured it ⁶on the four sides: it had a wall round about, the length five hundred, and the breadth five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.

43 AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east: and behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like the sound of many waters: and the earth shined with his glory. And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar: and I fell upon my face. And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east. And the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house. And I heard one speaking unto me out of the house; and a man stood

And he said unto me, Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever: and the house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, and by the carcases of their 8 kings ¹*in* their high places; in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their door post beside my door post, and there was but the wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed: wherefore I have
 9 consumed them in mine anger. Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 Thou, son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them
 11 measure the ²pattern. And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, make known unto them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof, and write it in their sight: that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the 12 ordinances thereof, and do them. 'This is the law of the house: upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 And these are the measures of the altar by cubits: (the cubit is a cubit and an handbreadth:) the ³bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about a span: and this shall be the ⁴base
 14 of the altar. And from the bottom ⁵upon the ground to the lower ⁶settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth a cubit. And the ⁷upper altar 15 shall be four cubits; and from the ⁸altar hearth and upward there shall be four horns. And the altar hearth shall be 16 twelve cubits long by twelve broad, square in the four sides thereof. And 17 the settle shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen broad in the four sides thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and the steps thereof shall look toward the east.

And he said unto me, Son of man, 18 thus saith the Lord God: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon. 'Thou shalt give to the priests 19 the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which are near unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, a young bullock for a sin offering. And thou shalt 20 take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse it and make atonement for it. Thou shalt 21 also take the bullock of the sin offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, without the sanctuary. And on the second day thou shalt 22 offer a he-goat without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock. When thou hast made an end of cleans- 23 ing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish. And thou shalt 24 bring them near before the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the LORD. Seven days 25 shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. Seven days 26 shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they ⁹consecrate it. And when they have accomplished 27

the days, it shall be that upon the eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, saith the Lord GOD.

44 THEN he brought me back the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looketh toward the east; and it was shut. And the LORD said unto me, This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, neither shall any man enter in by it, for the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it; therefore it shall be shut. As for the prince, he shall sit therein as prince to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same. Then he brought me the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell upon my face. And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary. And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD: O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, in that ye have brought in aliens, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, ¹to add unto all your abominations. And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves. Thus saith the Lord GOD, No alien, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any alien that is among the children of Israel. But the Levites that went far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray from me after their idols; they shall bear their iniquity. Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them. Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and became a stumbling-block of iniquity unto the house of Israel; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity. And they shall not come near unto me, to execute the office of priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, unto the things that are most holy: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. Yet will I make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me; and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord GOD: they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge. And it shall be that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whiles they minister in the gates of the inner court, and ²within. They shall have linen tires up- on their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat. And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they minister, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments, that they sanctify not the people with their gar-

 26 may defile themselves. And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him
 27 seven days. And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord
 28 God. And they shall have an inheritance; I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Israel;
 29 I am their possession. They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the guilt offering; and every devoted 30 thing in Israel shall be theirs. And the first of all the firstfruits of every thing, and every ¹oblation of every thing, of all your oblations, shall be for the priests: ye shall also give unto the priest the first

45 MOREOVER, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the LORD, ³an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ⁴ten thousand: it shall be holy in all the border thereof round about. Of this there shall be for the holy place ²five hundred in length by five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits for the ⁵suburbs thereof round about. And of this measure shalt thou ³measure, a length of five and twenty thousand, and a breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy. It is an holy portion ⁴of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, which come near to minister unto the LORD; and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary. And five ⁵and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth, shall be unto the Levites, the ministers of the house, for a possession unto themselves, for ⁶twenty chambers. And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, side by side with the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel. And whatsoever is for the prince shall be on the one side and on the other side of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city, in front of the holy oblation and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward: and in length answerable unto one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border. ⁷In the land it shall be to ⁸him for a possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; but they shall give the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

 daily for a sin offering. And he shall 24 prepare a meal offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an hin of oil to an ephah. In the seventh 25 month, in the fifteenth day of the month,
in the feast, shall he do the like the seven days; according to the sin offering,
according to the burnt offering, and according to the meal offering, and according to the oil.

46 THUS saith the Lord God: The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath day
 it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened. And 2
 the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate; then he shall go forth: but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. And the peo- 3 ple of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before the LORD in the sabbaths and in the new moons. And 4
 the burnt offering that the prince shall offer unto the LORD shall be in the sabbath day six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish; and the meal 5
 offering shall be an ephah for the ram,
 and the meal offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah. And in the day of the new moon 6
 it shall be a young bullock without blemish; and six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish: and he shall 7 prepare a meal offering, an ephah for the bullock, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as ⁵he is able,
 and an hin of oil to an ephah. And when 8
 the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof. But 9

he that entereth by the way of the north gate to worship shall go forth by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth
 10 straight before him. And the prince, when they go in, shall go in in the midst of them; and when they go forth, ¹they
 11 shall go forth together. And in the feasts and in the ²solemnities the meal offering shall be an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an
 12 ephah. And when the prince shall prepare a freewill offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a freewill offering unto the LORD, one shall open for him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he doth on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the 13 gate. And thou shalt prepare a lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering unto the LORD daily: morning
 14 by morning shalt thou prepare it. And thou shalt prepare a meal offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to ³moisten the fine flour; a meal offering unto the LORD continually by 15 a perpetual ordinance. Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering.
 16 Thus saith the Lord God: If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, it is his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance. But if he give of his inheritance a gift to one of his servants, it shall be his to the year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as for his inheritance, it shall be for his sons.
 17 Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance, to ⁴thrust them out of their possession; he shall give inheritance to his sons out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

Then he brought me through the 19 entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the priests, which looked toward the north: and behold, there was a place on the hinder part westward. And he said unto me, 20 This is the place where the priests shall boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, where they shall bake the meal offering; that they bring them not forth into the outer court, to sanctify the people. Then he brought me forth into the 21 outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. In the four corners of the 22 court there were courts ⁵inclosed, forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four in the corners were of one measure. And there was a row of building round 23 about in them, round about the four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about. Then said 24 he unto me, These are the boiling houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

47 AND he brought me back unto the door of the house; and behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward, for the forefront of the house was toward the east: and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar. Then brought 2 he me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me round by the way without unto the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looketh toward the east; and behold, there ⁶ran out waters on the right side. When the man went forth 3 eastward with the line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits, and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. Again 4 he measured a thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to 5 the loins. Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that 6 could not be passed through. And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the 7 river. Now when I had returned, behold, upon the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on 8 the other. Then said he unto me, These waters issue forth toward the eastern region, and shall go down into the Arabah: and they shall go toward the sea; into the sea shall the waters go which were made to issue forth; and the waters 9 shall be healed. And it shall come to pass, that every living creature which swarmeth, in every place whither the ¹rivers come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish: for these waters are come thither, ²and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and every thing shall live whithersoever 10 the river cometh. And it shall come to pass, that fishers shall stand by it: from En-gedi even unto En-eglaim shall be a place for the spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish 11 of the great sea, exceeding many. But the miry places thereof, and the marishes thereof, shall not be healed; they shall 12 be ³given up to salt. And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow every tree for meat, whose leaf shall not wither, neither shall the fruit thereof fail: it shall bring forth ⁴new fruit every month, because the waters thereof issue out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for healing.

 13 Thus saith the Lord God: This shall be the border, whereby ye shall divide
 the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have 14 ⁵portions. And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another; ⁶concerning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance. And this shall be the 15 border of the land: on the north side,

 from the great sea, by the way of Heth-
 lon, unto the entering in of Zedad;
 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is 16 between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; ⁷Hazer-hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran. And 17 the border from the sea shall be Hazarenon at the border of Damascus, and on the north northward is the border of Hamath. This is the north side. And 18 the east side, between Hauran and Damascus and Gilead, and the land of Israel, shall be Jordan; from the north border unto the east sea shall ye measure.
 This is the east side. And the south side 19 southward shall be from Tamar as far as the waters of Meriboth-kadesh, to the brook of Egypt, unto the great sea. This is the south side southward. And the 20 west side shall be the great sea, from the south border as far as over against the entering in of Hamath. This is the west side. So shall ye divide this land unto 21 you according to the tribes of Israel.
 And it shall come to pass, that ye shall 22 divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children
 among you; and they shall be unto you as the homeborn among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. And it 23 shall come to pass, that in what tribe
 the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord
 God.

48 NOW these are the names of the tribes: from the north end, beside the way of Hethlon to the entering in of Hamath, Hazar-enan at the border of Damascus, northward beside Hamath;
 and they shall have their sides east and

9 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the LORD shall be five and twenty thousand reeks in length, and ten thousand in 10 breadth. And for these, even for the priests, shall be the holy oblation; toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length; and the sanctuary of the LORD

And answerable unto the border of the priests, the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ²ten thousand.

14 And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange it, nor shall the firstfruits of the land be alienated: for it is holy unto 15 the LORD. And the five thousand that are left in the breadth, in front of the five and twenty thousand, shall be for common use, for the city, for dwelling and for suburbs: and the city shall be in the midst thereof. And these shall be 16 the measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. And the 17 city shall have suburbs; toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty. And they 19 that labour in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall till it. All the 20 oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city.

And the residue shall be for the 21 prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city, in front of the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward in front of the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, answerable unto the portions, it shall be for the prince: and the holy oblation and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof. Moreover from the possession of the 22 Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

1 IN the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jeru-2 salem, and besieged it. And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god: and he brought the vessels into the 3 treasure house of his god. And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in certain of the children of Israel, even of the seed 4 royal and of the nobles; youths in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science,
 and such as had ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the tongue of the 5 Chaldeans. And the king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's ²meat,
 and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years;
 that at the end thereof they might stand 6 before the king. Now among these were,

of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hana-niah, Mishael, and Azariah. And the 7 prince of the eunuchs gave names unto them: unto Daniel he gave the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego. But Daniel 8 purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. Now 9 God made Daniel to find favour and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. And the prince of the eu- 10
 nuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord
 the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the youths
 which are of your own age? so should ye endanger my head with the king. Then 11 said Daniel to ³the steward, whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Aza-riah: Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, 12
 ten days; and let them give us ⁴pulse to

- 13 eat, and water to drink. Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the youths that eat of the king's meat; and as thou seest, 14 deal with thy servants. So he hearkened unto them in this matter, and proved 15 them ten days. And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths which did eat of the king's meat. 16 So 'the steward took away their meat, and the wine that they should drink, and 17 gave them pulse. Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions 18 and dreams. And at the end of the days which the king had ²appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. 19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king. 20 And in every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters that were in all his realm. 21 And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

2 AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

- 2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to tell the king his dreams. So they came in 3 and stood before the king. And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the 4 dream. Then spake the Chaldeans to the king ³in the Syrian language, ⁴O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation. 5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, ⁵The thing is gone from me: if ye make not known unto me the dream and the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. But if ye shew the dream 6 and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream and the interpretation thereof. They 7 answered the second time and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation. The 8 king answered and said, I know of a certainty that ye would ⁶gain time, because ye see ⁷the thing is gone from me. But if ye make not known unto me the 9 dream, there is but one law for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof. The Chal- 10 deans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: forasmuch as no king, ¹⁰lord, nor ruler, hath asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean. And it is a rare 11 thing that the king requirith, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. For this cause the king 12 was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. So the decree went forth, and 13 the wise men were to be slain; and they sought Daniel and his companions to be slain. Then Daniel returned answer with 14 counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon; he answered and said to Arioch the king's 15 captain, Wherefore is the decree so urgent from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. And Daniel went 16 in, and desired of the king that he would ⁹appoint him a time, ¹⁰and he would shew the king the interpretation.

Then Daniel went to his house, and 17 made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: and he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding: he revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him. I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast now made known unto me what we desired of thee: for thou hast made known unto us the king's matter. Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof? Daniel answered before the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded can neither wise men, enchanter, magicians, nor soothsayers, shew unto the king; but there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and he hath made known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these: as for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets hath made known to thee what shall come to pass. But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that thou mayest know the thoughts of thy heart. Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the aspect thereof was terrible. As for this image, his head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, his legs of iron, his feet part of iron, and part of clay. Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them in pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king. Thou, O king, art king of kings, unto whom the God of heaven hath given the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory; and wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee to rule over them all: thou art the head of gold. And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee; and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that crusheth all these, shall it break in pieces and crush. And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with ¹miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly ²broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest the iron mixed with ¹miry clay, they shall mingle themselves ³with the seed of men; but they shall not cleave one to another, even as

44 iron doth not mingle with clay. And in the days of those kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed, nor shall the sovereignty thereof be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume

45 ever. Forasmuch as thou sawest that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou hast been

48 able to reveal this secret. Then the king made Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him to rule over the whole province of Babylon, and to be chief governor over all the wise men

49 of Babylon. And Daniel requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel was ⁴in the gate of the king.

3 NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the ⁵judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the ⁶sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. Then the satraps, the deputies, and ³the governors, the ⁵judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the ⁶sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. Then the ⁴herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, that at what time ye hear the ⁵sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, ⁷dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up: and whoso falleth not ⁶down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. Therefore at that time, ⁷when all the peoples heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. Wherefore at that time certain Chal- ⁸deans came near, and brought accusation against the Jews. They answered ⁹and said to Nebuchadnezzar the king, O king, live for ever. Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image: and whoso falleth ¹¹not down and worshippeth, shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. There are certain Jews whom thou hast ¹²appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. Then Nebuchadnezzar ¹³his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the 14 king. Nebuchadnezzar answered and said unto them, Is it of purpose, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, that ye serve not my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands? Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, ¹we have no need to answer thee in this matter. ²If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded certain mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their hosen, their ³tunics, and their mantles, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste: he spake and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?

They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. He answered and said, 25 Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the gods. Then Nebuchadnezzar 26 came near to the ⁴mouth of the burning fiery furnace: he spake and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the Most High God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth out of the midst of the fire. And the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power upon their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their hosen changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them. Nebuchadnezzar 28 spake and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. Therefore I make a 29 decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dung-hill: because there is no other god that is able to deliver after this sort. Then 30 the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

4 NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king, unto all the peoples, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; peace be multiplied unto you. It hath 2 seemed good unto me to shew the signs and wonders that the Most High God hath wrought toward me. How great 3 are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

 5 I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts upon my bed and the 6 visions of my head troubled me. Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the 7 interpretation of the dream. Then came in the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the inter-
 8 pretation thereof. But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and I told the dream before 9 him, saying, O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the 10 interpretation thereof. Thus were the visions of my head upon my bed: I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.
 11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the 12 earth. The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the branches thereof,
 13 and all flesh was fed of it. I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came 14 down from heaven. He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his 15 branches. Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with 16 the beasts in the grass of the earth: let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him;
 17 and let seven times pass over him. The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the lowest of men. This dream I king 18 Nebuchadnezzar have seen: and thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation; but thou art able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine adversaries. The tree that thou 20 sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth; whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation: it is 22 thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth. And whereas the 23 king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him; this is the interpretation, O king, and it 24 is the decree of the Most High, which is come upon my lord the king: that thou 25 shalt be driven from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and thou shalt be made to eat grass as oxen, and shalt be with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee; till thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth 26 it to whomsoever he will. And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have 27 known that the heavens do rule. Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and ¹break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if there may 28 be ²a lengthening of thy tranquillity. All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

 29 At the end of twelve months he was walking ³in the royal palace of Babylon.
 30 The king spake and said, Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the royal dwelling place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?
 31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken: the kingdom is departed from 32 thee. And thou shalt be driven from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field; thou shalt be made to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee; until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he
 33 will. The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hair was grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds'
 34 claws. And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever; for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom 35 from generation to generation: and all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can ⁴stay his hand, or say unto him, What

doest thou? At the same time mine understanding returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added unto me. Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise ³⁷ and extol and honour the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways judgement: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

5 BELSHAZZAR the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. Belshazzar, whiles he tasted the wine, ² commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink therein. Then they brought ³ the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank in them. They drank wine, and ⁴ praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone. In the same hour came forth the fingers ⁵ of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace; and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. Then ⁶ the king's countenance was changed in him, and his thoughts troubled him; and the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another. The ⁷ king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spake and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall ⁶be the third ruler in the kingdom. Then came in all the king's wise men: ⁸ but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation. Then was king Belshazzar greatly ⁹ troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were perplexed. Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever; let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed: there is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him: and the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, ¹the king, I say, thy father, made him master of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and sooth-sayers; forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

Then was Daniel brought in before the king. The king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah? I have heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee. And now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing. But I have heard of thee, that thou canst give interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt ²be the third ruler in the kingdom. Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation. O thou king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty: and because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down. But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: and he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses; he was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven: until he knew that the Most High God ruleth in the kingdom of men, and that he setteth up over it whomsoever he will. And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this; but hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified: then was the part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed. And this is the writing that was inscribed, ³MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and brought it to an end. TEKEL; thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting. ⁴PERES; thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians. Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should ²be the third

30 ruler in the kingdom. In that night Belshazzar the Chaldean king was slain.

31 And Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

6 IT pleased Darius to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty satraps, which should be throughout the whole kingdom; and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel was one; that these satraps might give account unto them, and that the king should have no damage. Then this Daniel was distinguished above the presidents and the satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. Then the presidents and the satraps sought to find occasion against Daniel as touching the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God. Then these presidents and satraps ¹assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever. All the presidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counsellors and the governors, have consulted together ²to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong interdict, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. Now, O king, establish the interdict, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which ³altereth not. Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the interdict. And when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; (now his windows were open in his chamber toward Jerusalem;) and he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime. Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. Then they came near, ¹² and spake before the king concerning the king's interdict; Hast thou not signed an interdict, that every man that shall make petition unto any god or man within thirty days, save unto thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which ³altereth not. Then ¹³ answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the interdict that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day. Then the king, when ¹⁴ he heard these words, was sore displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to rescue him. Then these men assembled together ¹⁵ unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no interdict nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed. Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee. And a stone was ¹⁷ brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; ⁴that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. Then the king went ¹⁸ to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were ⁵instruments of music brought before him: and his sleep fled from him. Then the king arose very ¹⁹ early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions. And when he ²⁰ came near unto the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice: the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to

My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt. Then was the king exceeding glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he had trusted in his God. And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces, or ever they came at the bottom of the den.
- 25 Then king Darius wrote unto all the peoples, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you. I make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end: he delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth; who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions. So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

7 IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters. Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven brake forth upon the great sea. And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand upon two feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it. And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in his mouth between his teeth: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh. After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it. After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, terrible and powerful, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things. I beheld till thrones were placed, and one that was ancient of days did sit: his raiment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and the wheels thereof burning fire. A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgement was set, and the books were opened. I beheld at that time because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake; I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and he was given to be burned with fire. And as for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. I saw in the night visions, and, behold, there came with the clouds of heaven one like unto a son of man, and he came even to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

- 15 As for me Daniel, my spirit was grieved in the midst of ¹my body, and the visions 16 of my head troubled me. I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made me know the in-17 terpretation of the things. These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, 18 which shall arise out of the earth. But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom
19 for ever, even for ever and ever. Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth beast, which was diverse from all of them, exceeding terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and 20 stamped the residue with his feet; and concerning the ten horns that were on his head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell; even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake great things, whose look was 21 more stout than his fellows. I beheld, and the same horn made war with the 22 saints, and prevailed against them; until the ancient of days came, and judgement was given ²to the saints of the Most High; and the time came that the saints
23 possessed the kingdom. Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall ³tread it down,
24 and break it in pieces. And as for the ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former, and he shall put down three 25 kings. And he shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High: and he shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time.
26 But the judgement shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end. And the kingdom and the dominion, and ²⁷the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High: his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him. ²⁸Here is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my thoughts much troubled me, and my ⁵countenance was changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

8 IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first. And I saw in the vision; now it was so, ²that when I saw, I was in Shushan the ⁶palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai. Then I lifted up mine eyes, ³and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. I saw the ram pushing ⁴westward, and northward, and southward; and no beasts could stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself. And as I was considering, behold, ⁵an he-goat came from the west over the face of the whole earth, and ⁷touching not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. And he ⁶came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran upon him in the fury of his power. And I saw him come close unto ⁷the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him: but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled upon him; and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. And the he-goat magnified him- ⁸self exceedingly: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable horns

9 toward the four winds of heaven. And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and
 10 toward the glorious land. And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and some of the host and of the stars it cast down to the ground, and trampled upon
 11 them. Yea, it magnified itself, even to the prince of the host; and it ¹took away from him the continual burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast
 12 down. And ²the host was given over to it together with the continual burnt offering through transgression; and it cast down truth to the ground, and it did its 13 pleasure and prospered. Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said unto that certain one which spake, How long shall be the vision con- cerning the continual burnt offering, and the transgression that maketh desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the host 14 to be trodden under foot? And he said ³unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be ⁴cleansed.
 15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought ⁵to understand it; and, behold, there stood before me as the appearance
 16 of a man. And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to under-17 stand the vision. So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was affrighted, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of 18 man; for the vision belongeth to the time of the end. Now as he was speak-
 19 ing with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me ⁶upright. And he said, Behold, I will make thee know 20 what shall be in the latter time of the indignation: for it belongeth to the ap-20 pointed time of the end. The ram which thou sawest that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. And ⁷the rough he-goat is the king of ⁸Greece: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. And as for that which ⁹was broken, in the place whereof four stood up, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with his power. And in the latter time of their kingdom, ¹⁰when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. And his power shall be mighty, but ¹¹not ¹²by his own power; and he shall ¹³de-14 stroy wonderfully, and shall prosper and do his pleasure: and he shall ¹⁵destroy the mighty ones and ¹⁶the holy people. And ¹⁷through his policy he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall mag-

 18 nify himself in his heart, and in their security shall he ¹⁹destroy many: he shall also stand up against the prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. And the vision of the evenings and morn-
 19 ings which hath been told is true: but shut thou up the vision; for it belongeth to many days to come. And I Daniel ²⁰27
 21 fainted, and was sick certain days; then I rose up, and did the king's business: and I was astonished at the vision, ²²but none understood it.

9 IN the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans; in the first year ²2 of his reign I Daniel understood by the books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem, even seventy years. And I set my face unto the LORD ³3
 God, ⁴to seek by prayer and supplica-
 5 tions, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes. And I prayed unto the LORD my ⁶4
 God, and made confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his command-

perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning aside from thy precepts and from thy judgements: 6 neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the 7 land. O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of face, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against 8 thee. O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned 9 against thee. To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses; ¹for we 10 have rebelled against him; neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. 11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even turning aside, that they should not obey thy voice: therefore hath the curse been poured out upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God; for we have sinned 12 against him. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as 13 hath been done upon Jerusalem. As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet have we not intreated the favour of the LORD our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and ²have discernment in thy 14 truth. Therefore hath the LORD watched over the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth, and we have 15 not obeyed his voice. And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. O Lord, according to all thy ³righteousness, let thine anger and thy fury, I pray thee, be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are round about us. Now 17 therefore, O our God, hearken unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. O my God, incline thine 18 ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not ⁴present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies. O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; 19 O Lord, hearken and do; defer not; for thine own sake, O my God, because thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God; yea, 21 whiles I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, ⁵being caused to fly swiftly, ⁶touched me about the time of the evening oblation. And he ⁷instructed 22 me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to make thee skilful of understanding. At the 23 beginning of thy supplications the commandment went forth, and I am come to tell thee; for thou art ⁸greatly beloved: therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision. Seventy weeks are decreed upon thy people and upon thy holy city, ⁹to finish ¹⁰transgression, and ¹¹to make an end of sins, and to ¹²make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and ¹³prophecy, and to anoint ¹⁴the most holy. discern, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto ¹the anointed one, the prince, shall be ²seven weeks: and threescore and two weeks, it shall be built again, with street and moat, even ²⁶in troublous times. And after the threescore and two weeks shall the anointed one be cut off, and ⁴shall have nothing: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and ⁴his end shall be with a flood, and even unto the end shall be war; ²⁷desolations are determined. And he shall make a firm covenant with many for one week: and ⁵for the half of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the ⁶oblation to cease; and ⁷upon the wing of abominations shall come one that maketh desolate; and even unto the consummation, and that determined, shall wrath be poured out upon the ⁶desolator.

10 IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, even a great warfare: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. ²In those days I Daniel was mourning ³three whole weeks. I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled. And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is ⁴Hiddekel, I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with pure gold of ⁶Uphaz: his body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to burnished brass, and the voice of his ⁷words like the voice of a multitude. And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, ⁸and they fled to hide themselves. So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. Yet heard I the voice of his words: and ⁹when I heard the voice of his words, then was I fallen into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground. And, behold, a hand touched me, which ¹⁰set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands. And he said unto ¹¹me, O Daniel, thou man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright; for unto thee am I now sent: and when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling. Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel; ¹²for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to humble thyself before thy God, thy words were heard: and I am come for thy words' sake. But the prince of the ¹³kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days; but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me: and I ¹⁴remained there with the kings of Persia. Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for the vision is yet for many days. And when he had spoken unto ¹⁵me according to these words, I set my face toward the ground, and was dumb. And, behold, one like the similitude of ¹⁶the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by reason of the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I retain no strength. For how can the servant of ¹⁷this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither was there breath left in me. Then there touched me again ¹⁸one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me. And he said, O man ¹⁹greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he spake unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for

Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I am come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I go forth, lo, the prince of ¹Greece shall come. But I will tell thee that which is inscribed in the writing of truth: and there is none that ²holdeth with me ³against these, but Michael your prince.

11 And as for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him.

- 2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and when he is waxed strong through his riches, ⁴he shall stir up all against the realm of ¹Greece. And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion wherewith he ruled; for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside these. And the king of the south ⁵shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. 6 And at the end of years they shall join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to make ⁶an agreement: but she shall not retain the strength of her arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in those 7 times. But out of a shoot from her roots shall one stand up in his ⁷place, which shall come ⁸unto the army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and 8 shall prevail: and also their gods, with their ⁹molten images, and with their goodly vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive into Egypt; and he shall ¹⁰refrain some years from the king of the north. And he shall come into the realm 9 of the king of the south, but he shall return into his own land. And his sons 10 shall war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, ¹¹which shall come on, and overflow, and pass through: and ¹²they shall return and war, even to his fortress. And the king of the south shall be moved 11 with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude, and the multitude shall be given into his hand. And the multitude 12 shall ¹³be lifted up, and his heart shall be exalted: and he shall cast down tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail. And 13 the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former; and he shall come on at the end of the times, even ¹⁴of years, with a great army and with much substance. And in those times there shall many stand 14 up against the king of the south: also the children of the violent among thy people shall lift themselves up to establish the vision; but they shall fail. So the king 15 of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take ¹⁵a well fenced city: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand. But 16 he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, and in his hand shall be destruction. And he shall set his face 17 to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, ¹⁶and ⁶upright ones with him; and he shall do his pleasure: and he shall give him the daughter of women, ¹⁷to corrupt her; but ¹⁸she shall not stand, neither be for him.  19 turn upon him. Then he shall turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and 20 shall not be found. Then shall stand up in his ¹place one that shall cause an exactor to pass through the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be ²destroyed, neither in anger, nor in 21 battle. And in his ¹place shall stand up a contemptible person, to whom they had not given the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in time of security, and shall obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

 24 strong, with a small people. In time of security shall he come even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them prey, and spoil, and substance: yea, he shall devise his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.
 25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall war in battle with an exceeding great and mighty army: but he shall not stand, for they shall devise devices
 26 against him. Yea, they that eat of his ⁴meat shall ⁵destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down
 27 slain. And as for both these kings, their hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table: but it shall not prosper; for yet the end shall be at 28 the time appointed. Then shall he return into his land with great substance; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do his pleasure, 29 and return to his own land. At the time appointed he shall return, and come into the south; but it shall not be in the latter

time as it was in the former. For ships 30 of Kittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and shall return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and shall do his pleasure: he shall even return, and have regard unto them that forsake the holy covenant. And arms shall stand on his part, and 31 they shall profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and shall take away the continual burnt offering and they shall set up the abomination that maketh desolate. And such as do wickedly against 32 the covenant shall he ⁶pervert by flatteries: but the people that know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. And ⁷they that be wise among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by spoil, many days. Now 34 when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall join themselves unto them with flatteries. And some of ⁸them that be wise shall fall, 35 to refine them, and to purify, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for the time appointed. And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods: and he shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished; for that which is determined shall be done. Neither shall he regard 37 the gods of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. But in his 38 ¹place shall he honour the god of fortresses: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. And he shall deal with the strong- 39 est fortresses by the help of a strange god; ⁹whosoever acknowledgeth him he will increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for a price. Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, 5 there stood other two, the one on the brink of the river on this side, and the other on the brink of the river on that side. And one said to the man clothed 6 in linen, which was above the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? And I heard the man 7 clothed in linen, which was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when they have made an end of breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. And I heard, but I understood 8 not: then said I, O my lord, what shall be the ⁶issue of these things? And he 9 said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are shut up and sealed till the time of the end. Many shall purify themselves, 10 and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand: but ⁵they that be wise shall understand. HOSEA

1 THE word of the LORD that came unto Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

- 2 When the LORD spake at the first 'by Hosea, the LORD said unto Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredom and children of whoredom: for the land doth commit great whoredom, departing from the LORD. So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and bare him a son. And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will ²avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel. And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And the LORD said unto him, Call her name ³Lo-ruhamah: for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel, that I should in any wise 7 pardon them. But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen. 8 Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, 9 she conceived, and bare a son. And the LORD said, Call his name ⁴Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be ⁵your God. 10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass that, ⁶in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living 11 God. And the children of Judah and the children of Israel shall be gathered together, and they shall appoint themselves one head, and shall go up from the land: for great shall be the day of 2 Jezreel. Say ye unto your brethren, ⁷Ammi; and to your sisters, ⁸Ruhamah.

Plead with your mother, plead; for 2 she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: and let her put away her whoredoms from her face, and her adulteries from between her breasts; lest I strip 3 her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst; yea, upon her children 4 will I have no mercy; for they be children of whoredom. For their mother 5 hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my ⁹drink. Therefore, behold, I will hedge 6 up thy way with thorns, and I will make a fence against her, that she shall not find her paths. And she shall follow 7 after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now. For she did not know that I gave her the 8 corn, and the wine, and the oil, and multiplied unto her silver and gold, which they ¹⁰used for Baal. Therefore 9 will I ¹¹take back my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered her nakedness. And now will I discover her 10 ¹²lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand. I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her 11 feasts, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her ¹³solemn assemblies.

- 13 And I will visit upon her the days of the Baalim, ¹unto which she burned incense; when she decked herself with her ²car-rings and her jewels, and went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith the LORD.
- 14 Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak
- 15 ³comfortably unto her. And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of ⁴Achor for a door of hope: and she shall ⁵make answer there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of
- 16 Egypt. And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me ⁶Ishi; and shalt call me no more ⁷Baali. For I will take away the names of the Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be ⁸mentioned by their name.
- 18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the land, and will make
- 19 them to lie down safely. And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgement, and in loving-kindness, and in mercies. I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness:
- 21 and thou shalt know the LORD. And it shall come to pass in that day, I will answer, saith the LORD, I will answer the heavens, and they shall answer the

3 AND the LORD said unto me, Go yet, love a woman beloved ¹³of her friend and an adulteress, even as the LORD loveth the children of Israel, though they turn unto other gods, and ¹⁴love cakes of raisins. So I bought her ²to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and an homer of barley, and an ¹⁵half homer of barley: and I said unto her, Thou shalt ³abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be any man's wife: so will I also be toward thee. For the children of Israel shall ⁴abide many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without ¹⁶pillar, and without ephod or teraphim: afterward shall the chil- ⁵dren of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall come with fear unto the LORD and to his goodness in the latter days.

4 HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land. There is nought but swearing and ²breaking faith, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery; they break out, and blood toucheth blood. There- ³fore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field and the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away. Yet let no man ⁴strive, neither let any man reprove; for thy people are as they that strive with the priest. And thou shalt stumble in ⁵the day, and the prophet also shall stumble with thee in the night; and I will destroy thy mother. My people are ⁶destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, ¹⁷I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I also will forget thy children.  18 let him alone. ⁴Their drink is become sour: they commit whoredom continu-19 ally; ⁵her ⁶rulers dearly love shame. The wind hath wrapped her up in its ⁷wings;
 and ⁸they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

5 HEAR this, O ye priests, and hearken, ye house of Israel, and give ear, O house of the king, for ⁹unto
 you pertaineth the judgement; for ye

have been a snare at Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor. And the revolvers ² are gone deep ¹⁰in making slaughter; but I am ¹¹a rebuker of them all. I know ³
 Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me:
 for now, O Ephraim, thou hast committed whoredom, Israel is defiled.
¹²Their doings will not suffer them to ⁴ turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredom is ¹³within them, and they know not the LORD. And the ¹⁴pride of ⁵ Israel doth testify to his face: therefore Israel and Ephraim shall stumble in their iniquity; Judah also shall stumble with them. They shall go with their ⁶ flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him: he hath withdrawn himself from them.
 They have dealt treacherously against ⁷
 the LORD; for they have ¹⁵borne strange children: now shall ¹⁶the new moon devour them with their ¹⁷fields.

Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the ⁸ trumpet in Ramah: sound an alarm at Beth-aven; ¹⁸behind thee, O Benjamin.
 Ephraim shall become a desolation in ⁹
 the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be. The princes of Judah are like ¹⁰ them that remove the landmark: I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.
 Ephraim is oppressed, he is crushed in ¹¹ judgement; because he was content to walk after ¹⁹the command. ²⁰Therefore ¹² am I unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness. When ¹³ Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to Assyria, and sent to ²¹king Jareb: but he is not able to heal you, neither shall he cure you of your wound. For I will be ¹⁴ unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I,
 will tear and go away; I will carry off,
 and there shall be none to deliver. I will ¹⁵ go and return to my place, till they

- 6 COME, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. After two days will he revive us: on the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live before him. And let us know, let us follow on to know the LORD; his going forth is sure as the morning: and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter rain that watereth the earth.
- 4 O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the dew that goeth early away.
- 5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgements are as the light that goeth forth. For I desire mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.
- 7 But they like Adam have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me. Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity, it is stained with blood. And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way toward Shechem: yea, they have committed lewdness. In the house of Israel I have seen an horrible thing: there whoredom is found in Ephraim, Israel is defiled.
- 11 Also, O Judah, there is an harvest appointed for thee, when I bring again the captivity of my people.

- 7 WHEN I would heal Israel, then is the iniquity of Ephraim discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria; for they commit falsehood: and the thief entereth in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without. And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now have their own doings beset them about; they are before my face.
- 3 They make the king glad with their

wickedness, and the princes with their lies. They are all adulterers; they are as an oven heated by the baker; he ceaseth to stir the fire, from the kneading of the dough until it be leavened. On the day 5 of our king the princes made themselves sick with the heat of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners. For they have made ready their heart 6 like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire. They are all hot as an oven, and devour 7 their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth unto me. Ephraim, he mixeth himself 8 among the peoples; Ephraim is a cake not turned. Strangers have devoured 9 his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, and he knoweth it not. And the pride 10 of Israel doth testify to his face: yet they have not returned unto the LORD their God, nor sought him, for all this. And 11 Ephraim is like a silly dove, without understanding: they call unto Egypt, they go to Assyria. When they shall go, 12 I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven: I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard. Woe unto 13 them! for they have wandered from me; destruction unto them! for they have trespassed against me: though I would redeem them, yet they have spoken lies against me. And they have not cried 14 unto me with their heart, but they howl upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, they rebel against me. Though I have taught and 15 strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me. They return, but not to him that is on high; they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

8 ¹SET the trumpet to thy mouth. As an eagle he cometh against the house of the LORD: because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law. They shall cry unto me, ²My God, we Israel know thee. Israel hath cast off that which is good: the ³enemy shall pursue him. They have set up kings, but not by me; ⁴they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made ⁵them idols, that they may be cut off. He hath cast off thy calf, O Samaria; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocency? ⁶For from Israel is even this; the workman made it, and it is no God: yea, the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces. ⁷For they sow the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: ⁸he hath no standing corn; the blade shall yield no meal; if so be it yield, strangers shall swallow ⁹it up. Israel is swallowed up: now are they among the nations as a vessel wherein is no pleasure. For they are gone up to Assyria, like a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired ¹⁰lovers. Yea, though they hire among the nations, now will I gather them; and they ¹¹begin to be diminished by reason of the burden of the ¹²king of princes. Because Ephraim hath multiplied altars to sin, altars have ¹³been unto him to sin. ¹⁴Though I write for him my law in ten thousand precepts, they are counted as a strange thing. As for the sacrifices of mine offerings, they sacrifice flesh and eat it; but the LORD accepteth them not: now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins; they shall return to Egypt. For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and builded ¹⁵palaces; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the ¹⁶castles thereof.

9 REJOICE not, O Israel, ¹⁰for joy, like the peoples; ¹¹for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved hire upon every cornfloor. The ²threshing-floor and the winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail her. They shall not dwell in the ³LORD's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean food in Assyria. They shall not pour out ⁴wine offerings to the LORD, ⁵neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread shall be for their appetite; it shall not come into the house of the LORD. What will ye do in ⁶the day of solemn assembly, and in the day of the feast of the LORD? For, lo, ⁷they are gone away from destruction, yet Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: their pleasant things of silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tents. The days of ⁸visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the man that hath the spirit is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and because the enmity is great. Ephraim ⁹was a watchman with my God: ¹⁰as for the prophet, a fowler's snare is in all his ways, and enmity in the house of his God. They have deeply corrupted ¹¹themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins. I found Israel like grapes in ¹²the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstripe in the fig tree at her first season: but they came to Baal-peor, and ¹³consecrated themselves unto the ¹⁴shameful thing, and became abominable like that which they loved. As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird: there shall be no birth, and none with child, and no conception. Though ¹⁵they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there be not a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them! Ephraim, ¹⁶like as I have ¹⁷seen Tyre, is planted in a pleasant place:

1 Or, The trumpet to thy mouth! As an eagle against the house of the LORD! 2 Or, they have removed them 3 Or, it hath no stalk 4 Heb. loves 5 Or, as otherwise read, shall sorrow a little 6 Or, for a little while 7 See Is. 10. 8. Many ancient authorities have, king and princes. 8 Or, temples 9 Or, palaces 10 Or, unto exultation 11 Or, that 12 Or, neither shall their sacrifices be pleasing unto him: their bread shall be unto them &c. 13 Or, watcheth against 14 Or, separated 15 Heb. shame. 16 Or, as I have seen, is like Tyre, that is planted &c.

but Ephraim shall bring out his children 14 to the slayer. Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying 15 womb and dry breasts. All their wickedness is in Gilgal; for there I hated them:
 because of the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house:
 I will love them no more; all their 16 princes are revolvers. Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear
 no fruit: yea, though they bring forth,
 yet will I slay the beloved fruit of their 17 womb. My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him:
 and they shall be wanderers among the
 nations.

10 ISRAEL is a luxuriant vine,
 which putteth forth his fruit:
 according to the multitude of his fruit
 he hath multiplied his altars; according to the 'goodness of his land they have 2 made goodly 'pillars. 'Their heart is 'divided; now shall they be found guilty:
 he shall smite their altars, he shall spoil
 3 their 'pillars. Surely now shall they say,
 We have no king: for we fear not the LORD; and the king, what can he do for 4 us? They speak vain words, 'swearing falsely in making covenants: therefore judgement 'springeth up as 'hemlock in 5 the furrows of the field. The inhabitants of Samaria shall be in terror for the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and 'the priests
 thereof that rejoiced over it, for the glory
 thereof, because it is departed from it.
 6 It also shall be carried unto Assyria for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be 7 ashamed of his own counsel. 'As for Samaria, her king is cut off, as 'foam
 8 upon the water. The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to 9 the hills, Fall on us. O Israel, thou hast sinned 'from the days of Gibeah: 'there they stood; 'that the battle against the children of iniquity should not overtake them in Gibeah. When it is my desire, 10

 I will chastise them; and the peoples shall be gathered against them, when they are 'bound 'to their two transgressions. And Ephraim is an heifer that is taught, that loveth to tread out the corn;
 but I have passed over upon her fair
 neck: I will set a rider on Ephraim; Judah shall plow, Jacob shall break his clods. Sow to yourselves in righteous- 12
 ness, reap according to mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and 'rain righteousness upon you. Ye have plowed 13 wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of 'lies: for thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men. Therefore shall a 14 tumult arise 'among thy 'people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces with her children. 20 So shall Beth- 15 el do unto you because of your great wickedness: at daybreak shall the king of Israel be utterly cut off.

11 WHEN Israel was a child, then
 I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt. As they called them, so 2
 they went from them: they sacrificed unto the Baalim, and burned incense to graven images. Yet I taught Ephraim to 3 go; 21 I took them on my arms; but they knew not that I healed them. I drew 4 them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat before them. He shall not 5 return into the land of Egypt; but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return. And the sword shall 6 22 fall upon his cities, and shall consume his bars, and devour them, because of their own counsels. And my people are 7

How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zebonim? mine heart is turned within me, my compassions are kindled together. I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not ²enter into the city. They shall walk after the LORD, who shall roar like a lion: for he shall roar, and the children shall come trembling from the west. They shall come trembling as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will make them to dwell in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 Ephraim compasseth me about with falsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit: ³but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the Holy One.

12 Ephraim feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he continually multiplieth lies and desolation; and they make a covenant with Assyria, and oil is carried into Egypt.

2 The LORD hath also a controversy with Judah, and will ⁴punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him. In the womb he took his brother by the heel; and in his ⁵manhood he ⁶had power with God: yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him at Beth-el, and there he spake with us; ⁷even the LORD, the God of hosts; the LORD is his memorial. Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgement, and wait on thy God continually.

7 ⁸He is ⁹a trafficker, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to ¹⁰oppress. And Ephraim said, Surely I am become rich, I have found me wealth:

in all my labours they shall find in me none iniquity that were sin. But I am ⁹the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt; I will yet again make thee to dwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feast. I have also spoken unto ¹⁰the prophets, and I have multiplied visions; and ¹¹by the ministry of the prophets have I used similitudes. Is Gilead ¹¹iniquity? they are altogether vanity; in Gilgal they sacrifice bullocks: yea, their altars ¹²are as heaps in the furrows of the field. And Jacob fled into the field of ¹²Aram, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep. And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he ¹³preserved. Ephraim hath provoked to anger most bitterly: therefore shall his blood be left upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

13 WHEN Ephraim ¹⁴spake, there was trembling; he exalted himself in Israel: but when he ¹⁵offended in Baal, he died. And now they sin more ²and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, even idols according to their own understanding, all of them the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let ¹⁶the men that sacrifice kiss the calves. Therefore they shall be ³as the morning cloud, and as the dew that passeth early away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing-floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney. Yet I am the LORD thy ⁴God from the land of Egypt; and thou ⁵shalt know no god but me, and beside me there is no saviour. I did know thee ⁵in the wilderness, in the land of great drought. According to their pasture, so ⁶were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted: therefore have they forgotten me. Therefore am I unto ⁷them as a lion: as a leopard will I watch by the way: I will meet them as a bear ⁸that is bereaved of her whelps, and will

 11 saidst, Give me a king and princes? I have given thee a king in mine anger, and have taken him away in my wrath.
 12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is laid up in store. The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; ³for it is time he should not tarry in the place of the 14 breaking forth of children. I will ransom them from the ⁴power of ⁵the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, ⁶where are thy plagues? O ⁷grave, ⁸where is thy destruction? repentance shall be hid from mine eyes. Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the ⁹breath of the LORD coming up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: ¹⁰he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels. Samaria shall ¹¹bear her guilt; for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword; their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

14 O ISRAEL, return unto the LORD thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity. Take with you words, ²and return unto the LORD: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and ³accept that which is good: so will we render ⁴as bullocks the offering of our lips. Asshur ⁵shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy. I will heal their backsliding, I will love ⁶them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him. I will be as the dew unto ⁷Israel: he shall blossom as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon. His ⁸branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon. They that dwell under his ⁹shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and blossom as the vine: ¹⁰the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon. ¹¹Ephraim shall say, What ¹²have I to do any more with idols? I have answered, and will regard him: I am like a green fir tree; from me is thy fruit found. Who is wise, and he shall ¹³understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them; but transgressors shall fall therein.

Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth. The meal offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn. The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted, the new wine is ³dried up, the oil languisheth. ⁴Be ashamed, O ye husbandmen, howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; for the harvest of the field is perished. The vine is ⁵withered, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field are withered: for joy is ⁶withered away from the sons of men. Gird yourselves with sackcloth, and lament, ye priests; howl, ye ministers of the altar; come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meal offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God. Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the ⁷old men and all the inhabitants of the land unto the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD. Alas for the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as destruction from ⁸the Almighty shall it come. Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God? 2 BLOW ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand; a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, as the dawn spread upon the mountains; a great people and a strong, there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after them, even to the years of many generations. A fire devoureth before them; ³ and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and none hath escaped them. The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as ⁴horsemen, so do they run. Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains do they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. At their presence ⁵ the peoples are in anguish: all faces are waxed pale. They run like mighty men; ⁶ they climb the wall like men of war; and they march every one on his ways, and they break not their ranks. Neither doth ⁷ one thrust another; they march every one in his path: and ⁸ they burst through the weapons, and ⁹ break not off their course. They leap upon the city; they ¹⁰ run upon the wall; they climb up into the houses; they enter in at the windows like a thief. The earth quaketh before them; the heavens tremble: the sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining: and the LORD ¹¹ uttereth his voice before his army; for his camp is very great; for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? Yet even now, saith ¹² the LORD, turn ye unto me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: and rend your ¹³ heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy, and re-14 penteth him of the evil. Who knoweth whether he will not turn and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meal offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?

 people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the ¹old men, gather the children, bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and

 priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD,
 and give not thine heritage to reproach,
 that the nations should ²rule over them:
 wherefore should they say among the peoples, Where is their God?

18 Then was the LORD jealous for his 19 land, and had pity on his people. And the LORD answered and said unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn,
 and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make

21 Fear not, O land, be glad and rejoice;
 22 for the LORD hath done great things. Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field; for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree 23 and the vine do yield their strength. Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he giveth you the former rain ⁵in just measure, and he causeth to come down for you the rain, the former rain and the latter rain, 24 ⁶in the first month. And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall over-25 flow with wine and oil. And I will restore to you the years that the locust

hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.
 And ye shall eat in plenty and be satis- 26
 fied, and shall praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed. And ye shall know 27
 that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and there is none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

And it shall come to pass afterward, 28
 that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters
 shall prophesy, your old men shall dream
 dreams, your young men shall see visions:
 and also upon the servants and upon the 29
 handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. And I will shew wonders in 30
 the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. The sun shall 31
 be turned into darkness, and the moon
 into blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD come. And it shall 32
 come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those that escape,
 as the LORD hath said, and ⁷among the remnant those whom the LORD doth call.

3 For, behold, in those days, and in 1
 that time, when I shall bring again
 the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, 2
 I will gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehosh-aphat; and I will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land. 3
 And they have cast lots for my people: and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold
 a girl for wine, that they might drink.
 Yea, and what are ye to me, O Tyre, and 4
 Zidon, and all the regions of Philistia?
⁸Will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your ⁹recompence upon your own head. Forasmuch as ye have 5

taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things; the children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the sons of the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border: behold, I will stir them up out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head; and I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the men of Sheba, to a nation far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 Proclaim ye this among the nations; ²prepare war: stir up the mighty men; let all the men of war draw near, let them come up. Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning-hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. ³Haste ye, and come, all ye nations round about, and gather yourselves together: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD. Let the nations bestir themselves, and come up to the valley of ⁴Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the nations round about.

ness is great. Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision. The sun and the moon are darkened, ¹⁵ and the stars withdraw their shining. And the LORD shall roar from Zion, and ¹⁶ utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be a refuge unto his people, and a strong hold to the children of Israel. So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God, dwelling in Zion my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more. And it shall ¹⁸ come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down sweet wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the brooks of Judah shall flow with waters; and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water ¹⁹ the valley of Shittim. Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence done to the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land. But ²⁰ Judah shall ⁸abide for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation. And I will ⁹cleanse their blood that I ²¹ have not cleansed: for the LORD dwelleth in Zion.

AMOS

1 THE words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

2 And he said, The LORD shall roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the ¹⁰pastures of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of Damascus, yea, for four, I will not ¹¹turn away ¹²the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gilcad with threshing instruments of iron: but I will send a fire into the house of ⁴ Hazael, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad. And I will break the bar of Damascus, and cut off ¹³the inhabitant from the valley of ¹⁴Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from ¹⁵the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.

The Sept. reads, On. 15 Or, Beth-eden

6 Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of Gaza, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive ¹the whole people, to deliver them up to 7 Edom: but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, and it shall devour the palaces
8 thereof: and I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon; and I will turn mine hand against Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord God.

9 Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of Tyre, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up ¹the whole people to Edom, and remembered not 10 ²the brotherly covenant: but I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of Edom, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and ³did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he 12 kept his wrath for ever: but I will send a fire upon Teman, and it shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

13 Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that 14 they might enlarge their border: but I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:
15 and their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD.

2 THUS saith the LORD: For three transgressions of Moab, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the bones
2 of the king of Edom into lime: but I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kerioth; and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet: and I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of Judah, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have rejected the law of the LORD, and have not kept his statutes, and their lies have caused them to err, after the which their fathers did walk: but I will send a fire upon Judah, and 5 it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

Thus saith the LORD: For three transgressions of Israel, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have sold the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes: that pant after the dust of the earth on 7 the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek: and a man and his father will go unto the same ⁴maid, to profane my holy name: and they lay
8 themselves down beside every altar upon clothes taken in pledge, and in the house of their God they drink the wine of such as have been fined. Yet destroyed I the 9 Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. Also I brought you up out of 10 the land of Egypt, and led you forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite. And I raised up
11 of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazirites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD. But ye gave the Nazirites wine
12 to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophesy not. Behold, ⁵I will press you in your place, as a cart presseth that is full of sheaves. And ⁶flight shall 14 perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver ⁷himself: neither shall he stand that handleth

shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself: and he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

3 HEAR this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saying, You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will visit upon you all your iniquities. Shall two walk together, except they have ²agreed? Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing? Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is set for him? shall a snare spring up from the ground, and have taken nothing at all? Shall the trumpet be blown in a city, and the people not be afraid? shall evil befall a city, and the LORD hath not done it? Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy? Publish ye ³in the palaces at Ashdod, and ³in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold what great tumults are therein, and what oppressions in the midst thereof. For they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: An adversary there shall be, even round about the land: and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled. Thus saith the LORD: As the shepherd rescueth out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be rescued that sit in Samaria in the corner of a couch, and ⁴on the silken cushions of a bed. Hear ye, and testify against the house of Jacob, saith the Lord

GOD, the God of hosts. For in the day ¹⁴that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit the altars of Beth-el, and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground. And I will smite the winter house with ¹⁵the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and ⁵the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

4 HEAR this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say unto their lords, Bring, and let us drink. The Lord GOD hath ²sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that they shall take you away with hooks, and your residue with fish hooks. And ye shall go out at ³the breaches, every one straight before her; ⁶and ye shall cast yourselves into Harmon, saith the LORD.

Come to Beth-el, and transgress; to Gilgal, and multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes every three days; and ⁷offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim freewill offerings and publish them: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD. And I also have given you ⁶cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. And I also have withholden ⁷rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered. So two or three ⁸cities wandered unto one city to drink water, and were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. I ⁹have smitten you with blasting and mildew: the multitude of your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees hath the palmerworm devoured: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. I have sent among you the ¹⁰ pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, ¹and have carried away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camp to come up even into your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith 11 the LORD. I have overthrown some among you, as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a brand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. 12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel. 13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth; the LORD, the God of hosts, is his name.

5 HEAR ye this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, O house 2 of Israel. The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she ²is cast down upon her land; there is none to raise her up. 3 For thus saith the Lord GOD: The city that went forth a thousand shall have an hundred left, and that which went forth an hundred shall have ten left, to 4 the house of Israel. For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, Seek ye 5 me, and ye shall live: but seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall ³come 6 to nought. Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour and there 7 be none to quench it in Beth-el: ye who turn judgement to wormwood, and cast 8 down righteousness to the earth; seek him that maketh the Pleiades and Orion, and turneth ⁴the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night; that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; the LORD is his name; 9 that ⁵bringeth sudden destruction upon the strong, so that destruction cometh upon the fortress. They hate him that 10 reproveth in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly. Forasmuch 11 therefore as ye trample upon the poor, and take exactions from him of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink the wine thereof. For I know 12 how manifold are your transgressions and how mighty are your sins; ye that afflict the just, that take a bribe, and that turn aside the needy in the gate from their right. Therefore he that is prudent shall 13 keep silence in such a time; for it is an evil time. Seek good, and not evil, that 14 ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye say. Hate the evil, and love the good, and 15 establish judgement in the gate: it may be that the LORD, the God of hosts, will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph. Therefore thus saith the LORD, the God 16 of hosts, the Lord: Wailing shall be in all the broad ways; and they shall say in all the streets, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, ⁶and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing. And in all vineyards shall be wailing: 17 for I will pass through the midst of thee, saith the LORD. Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! wherefore would ye have the day of the LORD? it is darkness, and not light. As if a man did flee 19 from a lion, and a bear met him; ⁷or went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him. Shall 20 not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it? I hate, I despise your feasts, 21 and I ⁸will take no delight in your solemn assemblies. Yea, though ye offer me 22 ⁹your burnt offerings and meal offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the ¹⁰peace offerings of your fat beasts. Take thou away from me the 23 noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols. But let judgement 24 roll down as waters, and righteousness

Yea, ye 'have borne 'Siccuth your king and 'Chiun your images, the star of your god, 27 which ye made to yourselves. Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts.

6 WOE to them that are at ease in Zion, and to them that are secure in the mountain of Samaria, the notable men of the chief of the nations, to whom 2 the house of Israel come! Pass ye unto Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to Hamath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they better than these kingdoms? or is their border 3 greater than your border? Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the 'seat 4 of violence to come near; that lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall; that sing idle songs to the sound of the viol; that devise for themselves instruments of music, 'like 6 David; that drink 'wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments; but they are not grieved for the 7 affliction of Joseph. Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the revelry of them that stretched themselves shall pass away. 8 The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD, the God of hosts: I abhor the 'excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the 9 city with all that is therein. And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men 10 in one house, that they shall die. And when a man's 'uncle shall take him up, even he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is in the innermost parts of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No; then shall he say, Hold thy peace; for we may not make 11 mention of the name of the LORD. For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and 'the great house shall be smitten with breaches, and the little house with clefts. Shall 12 horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? that ye have turned judgement into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood: ye which 13 rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength? For, behold, I will raise 14 up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD, the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hamath unto the brook of the Arabah.

7 THUS the Lord GOD shewed me: and, behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings. And it came 2 to pass that when they made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee: how shall Jacob stand? for he is small. The LORD repented concerning this: It 3 shall not be, saith the LORD.

Thus the Lord GOD shewed me: and, 4 behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire; and it devoured the great deep, and would have eaten up the 'land. Then 5 said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee: how shall Jacob stand? for he is small. The LORD repented concerning 6 this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the 7 Lord stood 'beside a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand. And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what 8 seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel; I will not again pass by them any more: and the high places of Isaac shall 9 be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

 11 not able to bear all his words. For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away
 12 captive out of his land. Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and 13 there eat bread, and prophesy there: but prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is 14 a royal house. Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I 'was no prophet, neither 'was I 'a prophet's son; but I 'was an herdman, and a dresser of syco-
 15 more trees: and the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people
 16 Israel. Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not thy word
 17 against the house of Isaac; therefore thus saith the LORD: Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou thyself shalt die in a land that is unclean, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.

8 THUS the Lord GOD shewed me: and behold, a basket of summer fruit.
 2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, The end is come upon my people Israel; I will
 3 not again pass by them any more. And the songs of the 'temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: the dead bodies shall be many; in every place 'shall they cast them forth with 4 silence. Hear this, O ye that would swallow up the needy, and cause the poor of 5 the land to fail, saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may 'set forth wheat? making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and dealing falsely
 6 with balances of deceit; that we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes, and sell the refuse of the wheat. The LORD hath sworn by the 7 excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works. Shall not the 8 land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? yea, it shall rise up wholly like the River; and it shall be troubled and sink again, like the River of Egypt. And it shall come to pass in 9 that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day. And I will turn your feasts into mourn-

 10 ing, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning for an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day. Behold, the days come, saith the 11
 Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD. And they shall wander 12 from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it. In that day shall the fair virgins 13 and the young men faint for thirst. They 14 that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, As thy God, O Dan, liveth; and, As the 'way of Beer-sheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

9 I SAW the Lord standing 'beside the altar: and he said, Smite the chapiters, that the thresholds may shake: and break them in pieces on the head of all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: 'there shall not one of them flee away, and there shall not one of them escape. Though they dig into 2
 'hell, thence shall mine hand take them; and though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down. And 3
 though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall

For the Lord, the God of hosts, is he that toucheth the land and it melteth, and all that dwell therein shall mourn; and it shall rise up wholly like the River; and shall sink 6 again, like the River of Egypt; it is he that buildeth his chambers in the heaven, and hath founded his vault upon the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; the LORD is his name. 7 Are ye not as the children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from 8 Kir? Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the 9 house of Jacob, saith the LORD. For, lo, I will command, and I will ¹sift the house of Israel among all the nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth. All ¹⁰the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old; that they may possess the 12 remnant of Edom, and all the nations, which ²are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this. Behold, the days 13 come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt. And I will bring 14 again the captivity of my people Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them. And I will plant them upon 15 their land, and they shall no more be plucked up out of their land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

OBADIAH

1 THE vision of Obadiah.

Thus saith the Lord God concerning Edom: We have heard tidings from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, Arise ye, and let us 2 rise up against her in battle. Behold, I have made thee small among the nations: 3 thou art greatly despised. The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of ³the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to 4 the ground? Though thou mount on high as the eagle, and though thy nest be set among the stars, I will bring thee 5 down from thence, saith the LORD. If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not steal till they had enough? if grape-gatherers came to thee, would they not leave some gleanings? How are 6 ⁴the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden treasures sought up! All the 7 men of thy confederacy have ⁵brought thee on thy way, even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; ⁶they that eat thy bread lay a ⁷snare under thee: there is none understanding ⁸in him. Shall I not in that day, saith the 8 LORD, destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau? And thy mighty men, O Teman, 9 shall be dismayed, to the end that every one may be cut off from the mount of Esau by slaughter. For the violence done 10

tions drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and ⁵swallow down, and shall be as though they had not been. But in 17 the mount Zion there shall be those that escape, and it shall be holy; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions. And the house of Jacob shall 18 be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall burn among them, and devour them: and there shall not be any remaining to the house of Esau; for the LORD hath spoken it. And they of the South 19 shall possess the mount of Esau; and they of the lowland the Philistines: and they shall possess the field of Ephraim, and the field of Samaria: and Benjamin shall possess Gilead. And the captivity 20 of this ⁶host of the children of Israel, ⁷which are among the Canaanites, shall possess even unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the South. And saviours shall come up on 21 mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

JONAH

1 NOW the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness

3 is come up before me. But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD; and he went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the

4 LORD. But the LORD ⁸sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was

5 like to be broken. Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god; and they cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it unto them. But Jonah was gone down into the innermost parts of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep. So the shipmaster came to him, and said 6 unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not. And they said every one to his 7 fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. Then said they unto 8 him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; what is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou? And he said unto them, I am 9 an Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the exceedingly afraid, and said unto him,

 What is this that thou hast done? For the men knew that he fled from the pre-11 sence of the LORD, because he had told them. Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea grew more 12 and more tempestuous. And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth
 into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake 13 this great tempest is upon you. Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they could not: for the sea grew more and more tempestuous 14 against them. Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O 15 LORD, hast done as it pleased thee. So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from her 16 raging. Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice 17 unto the LORD, and made vows. And the LORD prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the belly of the

2 fish three days and three nights. Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God

- 2 out of the fish's belly. And he said,
 I called ¹by reason of mine affliction
 unto the LORD,
 And he answered me;
 Out of the belly of ²hell cried I,
 And thou heardest my voice.
 3 For thou didst cast me into the depth,
 in the heart of the seas,
 And the flood was round about me;
 All thy waves and thy billows passed over me.
 4 And I said, I am cast out from before thine eyes;
 Yet I will look again toward thy holy temple.
 5 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul;
 The deep was round about me;

The weeds were wrapp'd about my
 head.
 I went down to the bottoms of the 6
 mountains;
 The earth with her bars closed upon
 me for ever:
 Yet hast thou brought up my life from ⁴the pit, O LORD my God.
 When my soul fainted within me, I 7
 remembered the LORD:
 And my prayer came in unto thee,
 into thine holy temple.
 They that regard lying vanities 8
 Forsake their own mercy.
 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the 9
 voice of thanksgiving;
 I will pay that which I have vowed.
 Salvation is of the LORD.

And the LORD spake unto the fish, and 10
 it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

3 AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying, Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, 2
 and ⁴preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. So Jonah arose, and went 3 unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was ²an exceeding great city, of three days' journey.
 And Jonah began to enter into the city 4
 a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown. And the people of Nine- 5
 veh believed God; and they proclaimed
 a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.
⁶And the tidings reached the king of 6
 Nineveh, and he arose from his throne,
 and laid his robe from him, and covered
 him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.
 And he made proclamation and ⁷published through Nineveh by the decree 7 of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water: but let them be covered 8
 with sackcloth, both man and beast, and let them cry mightily unto God: yea,
 let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. Who knoweth whether God 9

And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, which he said he would do unto them; and he did it 4 not. But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry. And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I ¹hasted to flee unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and full of compassion, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy, and repentest thee 3 of the evil. Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live. 4 And the LORD said, ²Doest thou well to 5 be angry? Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see 6 what would become of the city. And the LORD God prepared a ³gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his evil case. So Jonah was exceeding glad because of the gourd. But God prepared a worm when the 7 morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd, that it withered. And it came 8 to pass, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live. And God said 9 to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry even unto death. And the 10 LORD said, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night: and should not I have pity on 11 Nineveh, that great city; wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

MICAH

1 THE word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, ye peoples, all of you; hearken, O earth, and ⁴all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witness ⁵against you, 3 the Lord from his holy temple. For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread 4 upon the high places of the earth. And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, as waters that are poured 5 down a steep place. For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem? Therefore I will 6 make Samaria as an heap of the field, and as the plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof. And all her graven images 7 shall be beaten to pieces, and all her hires shall be burned with fire, and all her idols will I lay desolate: for of the hire of an harlot hath she gathered them, and unto the hire of an harlot shall they return. For this will I wail and howl, I will 8 go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the jackals, and a mourning like the ostriches. For her wounds are 9 incurable: for it is come even unto Judah; it reacheth unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem. Tell it not 10

For the ³inhabitant of Maroth ⁵waiteth anxiously for good: because evil is come down from the LORD unto the ¹³gate of Jerusalem. Bind the chariot to the swift steed, O ³inhabitant of Lachish: she was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion; for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee. ¹⁴Therefore shalt thou give a parting gift to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be ⁶a deceitful thing unto the ¹⁵kings of Israel. I will yet bring unto thee, O ³inhabitant of Mareshah, him that shall possess thee: the glory of Israel ¹⁶shall come even unto Adullam. Therefore thus saith the LORD: Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks, neither shall ye walk haughtily; for it is an evil time. ⁴ In that day shall they take up a parable against you, and lament ⁸with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he changeth the portion of my people: how doth he ⁹remove it from me! to the rebellious he divideth our ⁵fields. Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast the line by lot in the congregation of the LORD. ¹⁰Prophecy ye not, thus they prophesy. They shall not prophesy ¹¹to these: reproaches shall not depart. ¹²Shall it be said, O house of Jacob, 7 Is the spirit of the LORD ¹³straitened? are these his doings? Do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly? But ⁸¹⁴of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye strip the robe from off the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.  12 evil shall come upon us. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

4 BUT in the latter days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established ³in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and peoples shall
 2 flow unto it. And many nations shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth ⁴the law, and the word of the LORD
 3 from Jerusalem. And he shall judge ⁵between ⁶many peoples, and shall ⁷reprove strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, 4 neither shall they learn war any more. But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it. For all the 5 peoples ⁸will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven away, and her that I have afflicted; and I will make her that 7 halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth even for ever. And 8 thou, O tower of ⁹the flock, ¹⁰the hill of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come; yea, the former dominion shall come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem. Now why dost thou cry out
 9 aloud? Is there no king in thee, is thy counsellor perished, that pangs have taken hold of thee as of a woman in travail? Be in pain, and labour to bring 10 forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and shalt dwell in the field, and shalt come even unto Babylon; there shalt thou be rescued; there shall the LORD redeem thee from the hand of 11 thine enemies. And now many nations are assembled against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye ¹¹see its desire upon Zion. But they know not

6 HEAR ye now what the LORD saith: Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice. Hear, O ye mountains, the LORD's controversy, and ye enduring foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel. O my people, what have ³I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me. NAHUM

1 THE ¹burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.
 2 The LORD is a jealous God and avengeth; the LORD avengeth and is full of wrath; the LORD taketh vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies. The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means clear the guilty: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth. The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt; and the earth is upheaved at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein. Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken asunder by him. The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that put their trust in him. But with an overrunning flood he will make a full end of the place thereof, and will pursue his enemies into darkness. What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make a full end: affliction shall not rise up the second time. For though they be like tangled thorns, and be drenched as it were in their drink, they shall be devoured utterly as dry stubble. There is one gone forth out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, ³that counsellet ⁴wickedness. Thus saith the LORD: Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so shall they be cut down, and he shall pass away. ⁵Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more. And now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder. And the LORD hath given commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image; I will make thy grave; for thou art vile. Behold, upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! Keep thy feasts, O Judah, perform thy vows: for ⁶the wicked one shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

2 HE that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily. For the LORD bringeth again the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches. The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots ⁷flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the ⁸spears are shaken terribly. The chariots rage in the streets, they jostle one against another in the broad ways: the appearance of them is like torches, they run like the lightnings. He remembereth his worthies: they stumble in their march; they make haste to the wall thereof, and the mantelet is prepared. The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved. ⁹And Huz-zab is uncovered, she is carried away, and her handmaids ¹⁰mourn as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their ¹¹breasts. But Nineveh hath been ¹²from of old like a pool of water: yet they flee away; Stand, stand, they cry; but none ¹³looketh back. HABAKKUK

1 THE ¹burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear? I cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save. Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and ²look upon perverseness? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there is strife, and 4 contention riseth up. Therefore the law is slackened, and judgement ³doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore judgement goeth 5 forth perverted. Behold ye among the nations, and regard, and wonder marvelously: for ⁴I work a work in your days, which ye will not believe though it be told you. For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation; which march through the breadth of the earth, to possess dwelling places that are not 7 theirs. ⁵They are terrible and dreadful: their judgement and their dignity proceed from themselves. Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves; and their horsemen ⁶spread themselves: yea, their horsemen come from far; they fly as an 9 eagle that hasteth to devour. They come all of them for violence; ⁷their faces are set eagerly ⁸as the east wind; and they 10 gather captives as the sand. ⁹Yea, he scoffeth at kings, and princes are a derision unto him: he derideth every strong hold; for he heapeth up dust, and taketh 11 it. ¹⁰Then shall he sweep by as a wind, and shall ¹¹pass over, and be guilty: even 12 he whose might is his god. Art not thou from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? ¹²we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained him for judgement; and thou, O Rock, hast established him 13 for correction. Thou that art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and that canst not look on perverseness, wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy peace when the wicked swalloweth up the man that is more righteous than he; and 14 makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? He taketh up all of them 15 with the angle, he catcheth them in his net, and gathereth them in his drag: therefore he rejoiceth and is glad. Therefore he sacrificeth unto his net, and burneth incense unto his drag; because by them his portion is fat, and his meat ¹¹plenteous. Shall he therefore empty 17 his net, and not spare to slay the nations continually?

2 I WILL stand upon my watch, and set me upon the ¹⁴tower, and will look forth to see what he will speak ¹⁵with me, and what I shall answer concerning my complaint. And the LORD answered me, 2 and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for the 3 appointed time, and it ¹⁶hasteth toward the end, and shall not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not delay. Behold, his soul is 4 puffed up, it is not ¹⁷upright in him: but the just shall live ¹⁸by his faith. ¹⁹Yea, 5 moreover, wine is a treacherous dealer, a haughty man, and ²⁰that keepeth not at home; who enlargeth his desire as ²¹hell, and he is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all peoples. Shall 6 not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting ²²proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and that such as are clothed with foreign apparel.

9 And in that day I will 'punish all those wasteness and desolation, a day of dark-

HAGGAI

1 IN the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet unto Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, 'It is not the time for us to come, the time for the LORD's house to be built. Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying, Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your cieled houses, while this house lieth waste? Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts: ²Consider your ways. Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes. Thus saith the LORD of hosts: ²Consider your ways. Go up to the ³mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD. Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did 'blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that lieth waste, while ye run every man to his own house. Therefore ⁵for your sake the heaven is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit. And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him; and the people did fear before the LORD. Then spake Haggai the LORD's messenger in the LORD's message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD. And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, in the four and twentieth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

2 IN the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying, Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, Who is left among you that saw this house in its former glory? and how do ye see it now? is it not in your eyes as nothing? Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high

 5 with you, saith the LORD of hosts, ¹*according to* the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, and my spirit ²abode among you: fear ye
 6 not. For thus saith the LORD of hosts: Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the 7 sea, and the dry land; and I will shake all nations, and ³the desirable things of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.
 8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,
 9 saith the LORD of hosts. The latter glory of this house shall be greater than the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

10 In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai
 11 the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Ask now the priests concerning 12 the law, saying, If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it become holy? And the priests answered and said, No.
 13 Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered
 14 and said, It shall be unclean. Then answered Haggai and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean. And now, I pray you, con- 15 sider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD: ⁴through all that 16 time, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten; when one came to the winefat for to draw out fifty vessels, there were but twenty. I smote 17 you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the work of your hands; yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD. Consider, I pray you, from this day and 18 upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider it. Is the seed yet in the 19 barn? yea, the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree hath not brought forth; from this day will I bless you.

And the word of the LORD came the 20 second time unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying, Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, 21 saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth: and I will overthrow the throne of 22 kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother. In that day, saith 23 the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet: for I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

ZECHARIAH

1 IN the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers. Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Return unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Return ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD. Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever? But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? and they turned and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, I saw in the night, and behold a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the ¹bottom; and behind him there were horses, red, sorrel, and white. Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be. And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth. And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest. Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years? And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words, even comfortable words. So the angel that talked with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. And I am very sore displeased with the nations that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they ²helped forward the affliction. Therefore thus saith the LORD: I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies; my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth over Jerusalem. Cry yet again, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: My cities ³through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.

And I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns. And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem. And the LORD ²⁰shewed me four smiths. Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it.

2 AND I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand. Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof. And, behold, the angel that ³

talked with me went forth, and another 4 angel went out to meet him, and said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall ¹be inhabited as villages without walls, by reason of the 5 multitude of men and cattle therein. For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and I will be the 6 glory in the midst of her. Ho, ho, flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the 7 LORD. Ho Zion, escape, thou that dwell-8 est with the daughter of Babylon. For thus saith the LORD of hosts: ²After glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you 9 toucheth the apple of his eye. For, behold, I will shake mine hand over them,
 and they shall be a spoil to those that served them: and ye shall know that the 10 LORD of hosts hath sent me. Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of 11 thee, saith the LORD. And many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent 12 me unto thee. And the LORD shall inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.
 13 Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD: for he is waked up out of his holy habitation.

3 AND he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and ³Satan standing at his 2 right hand to be his adversary. And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; yea, the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this 3 a brand plucked out of the fire? Now
 Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, 4 and stood before the angel. And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take the filthy garments from off him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with rich apparel. And ⁴I said, Let ⁵5 them set a fair ⁶mitre upon his head.

 So they set a fair ⁷mitre upon his head,
 and clothed him with garments; and the angel of the LORD stood by. And the ⁸6 angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: If ⁹7
 thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou also shalt judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee ¹⁰8
 access among these that stand by. Hear ⁹8 now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee; for they are men which are a ¹⁰9 sign: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant the ¹¹Branch.
 For behold, the stone that I have set ¹²9
 before Joshua; upon one stone are seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine and under the fig tree.

4 AND the angel that talked with me
 came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep. And he ²2 said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have seen, and behold, a candlestick
 all of gold, with its bowl upon the top of it,
 and its seven lamps thereon; ³there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are upon the top thereof: and two olive trees ⁴3
 by it, one upon the right side of the bowl,
 and the other upon the left side thereof.
 And I answered and spake to the angel that ⁵4 talked with me, saying, What are these,
 my lord? Then the angel that talked ⁶5
 with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord. Then he answered ⁷6 and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by ⁸10 might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel, even these seven, which are the eyes of the LORD; they run to and fro through the whole 11 earth. Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and up- 12 on the left side thereof? And I answered the second time, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that empty 13 the golden oil out of themselves? And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my 14 lord. Then said he, These are the two sons of oil, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

5 THEN again I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, a flying roll. 2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the 3 breadth thereof ten cubits. Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole land: for every one that stealeth shall be purged out ³on the one side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be purged out ³on the other side according to it. 4 I will cause it to go forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall abide in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

5 Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth. And I said, What is it? And 6 he said, This is the ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their ⁴resemblance in all the land: (and behold, there was lifted up a ⁵talent of lead:) and this is a woman sitting in the midst of the ephah. And he said, This 8 is Wickedness; and he cast her down into the midst of the ephah: and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof. Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, 9 and behold, there came forth two women, and the wind was in their wings; now they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven. Then 10 said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah? And 11 he said unto me, To build her an house in the land of Shinar: and when it is ⁶prepared, she shall be set there ⁷in her own place.

6 AND again I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, there came four chariots out from between ⁸two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass. In the first chariot were red 2 horses; and in the second chariot black horses; and in the third chariot white 3 horses; and in the fourth chariot grised ⁹bay horses. Then I answered and said 4 unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord? And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four ¹⁰winds of heaven, which go forth from ¹¹standing before the Lord of all the earth. The chariot wherein are the black 6 horses goeth forth toward the north country; and the white went forth after them; and the grised went forth toward the south country. And the ¹²bay went 7 forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth. Then cried 8 he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, they that go toward the north

11 Babylon; yea, take of them silver and gold, and make ¹crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest; and speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold, the man ²whose name is the ³Branch; and he shall ⁴grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD: even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and ⁵he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.
14 And the ⁶crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and ⁷to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the LORD. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

- 7 AND it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in
2 Chisleu. ⁸Now they of Beth-el had sent Sharezer and Regem-melech, and their men, to intreat the favour of the LORD,
3 and to speak unto the priests of the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these 4 so many years? Then came the word of 5 the LORD of hosts unto me, saying, Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month, even these seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me? And 6 when ye eat, and when ye drink, ⁹do not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? Should ye not hear the words 7 which the LORD hath cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited?

And the word of the LORD came unto 8 Zechariah, saying, Thus hath the LORD 9 of hosts spoken, saying, Execute true judgement, and shew mercy and compassion every man to his brother: and 10 oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart. But they refused to 11 hearken, ¹⁰and pulled away the shoulder, and ¹¹stopped their ears, that they should not hear. Yea, they made their hearts as 12 an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by his spirit by the hand of the former prophets: therefore came there great wrath from the LORD of hosts. And it came to pass that, as 13 he cried, and they would not hear; so they shall cry, and I will not hear, said the LORD of hosts; but I will scatter 14 them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the ¹²pleasant land desolate.

8 AND the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great fury. Thus saith the 3 LORD: I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called The city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts The holy mountain. Thus saith the LORD of hosts: If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of ⁷hosts. Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country: ⁸and I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be my people, and I will be their ⁹God, in truth and in righteousness. Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, even the temple, that it might ¹⁰be built. For before those days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the adversary: for I set all men every one ¹¹against his neighbour. But now I will not be unto the remnant of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD ¹²of hosts. For there shall be the seed of peace; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people ¹³to inherit all these things. And it shall come to pass that, as ye were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but ¹⁴let your hands be strong. For thus saith the LORD of hosts: As I thought to do evil unto you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of ¹⁵hosts, and I repented not; so again have I thought in these days to do good unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: ¹⁶fear ye not. These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth with his neighbour; ³execute the judgement of truth and peace in your gates: and let none of you imagine evil in your ¹⁷hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

And the word of the LORD of hosts ¹⁸came unto me, saying, Thus saith the ¹⁹LORD of hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love truth and peace. Thus saith ²⁰the LORD of hosts: It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come peoples, and the inhabitants of ²¹many cities: and the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to intreat the favour of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also. Yea, ²²many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to intreat the favour of the LORD. Thus saith the LORD of ²³hosts: In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, shall even take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.

 shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold,
 thy king cometh unto thee: he is just, and of the blood of thy covenant I have sent

 and I will stir up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O ⁸Greece, and will make thee as the sword of a mighty man.
 14 And the LORD shall be seen over them,
 and his arrow shall go forth as the light-defend them; and they shall devour, and shall tread down the sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as

 like bowls, like the corners of the altar.

 in that day as the flock of his people:
 for they shall be as the stones of a

 they shall smite the land, and out of their 7 hand I will not deliver them. So I fed the flock of slaughter, verily ⁶the poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called ⁷Beauty, and the other I called ⁸Bands; and I fed the flock.
 8 And I cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, 9 and their soul also loathed me. Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth,
 let it die; and ⁹that that is to be cut off,
 let it be cut off; and let them which are left eat every one the flesh of another.
 10 And I took my staff Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant
 which I had made with all the peoples.
 11 And it was broken in that day: and ¹⁰thus
 the poor of the flock that gave heed unto me knew that it was the word of the LORD. And I said unto them, If ye think 12

 good, give me my hire; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my hire thirty pieces of silver. And the LORD said unto 13
 me, Cast it ¹¹unto the potter, the goodly price that I was prized at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them ¹¹unto the potter, in the house of the LORD. Then I cut asunder mine other 14
 staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

And the LORD said unto me, Take un- 15
 to thee yet again the instruments of a foolish shepherd. For, lo, I will raise up 16
 a shepherd in the land, which shall not ¹²visit those that be ¹³cut off, neither shall seek ¹⁴those that be scattered, nor heal
 that that is broken; neither shall he feed that which ¹⁵is sound, but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and shall tear their hoofs
 in pieces. Woe to the worthless shep- 17
 herd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

12 THE ¹⁶burden of the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

Thus saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him: Behold, I will make 2 Jerusalem a cup of reeling unto all the peoples round about, and ¹⁷upon Judah
 also ¹⁸shall it be in the siege against Jerusalem. And it shall come to pass in that 3
 day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples; all that burden themselves with it shall be sore
 wounded; and all the nations of the earth shall be gathered together against it. In 4
 that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the peoples with blindness. And the chieftains of Judah 5

 7 place, even in Jerusalem. The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem be
 8 not magnified above Judah. In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he 'that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as 9 the angel of the LORD before them. And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that 10 come against Jerusalem. And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they shall look unto 'me whom they have pierced: and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in 11 bitterness for his firstborn. In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives
 13 apart; the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives
 14 apart; all the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

13 IN that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for 2 sin and for uncleanness. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land. And it shall come 3 to pass that, when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth. And it 4 shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he prophesieth; neither shall they wear a hairy mantle to deceive: but he shall say, I am no prophet, I am 5 a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a bondman from my youth. And 6 one shall say unto him, What are these wounds between thine 'arms? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my 'friends.

Awake, O sword, against my shep- 7 herd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones. And it shall come to pass, 8 that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein. And I will 9 bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

14 BEHOLD, a day of the LORD cometh, when thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee. For I will 2 gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished: and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight 3 against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. And his feet shall 4 stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south. And ye shall flee by the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azel: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the holy ones with thee. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be with brightness and with gloom: but it shall be one day which is known unto the LORD; not day, and not night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time there shall be light. And it shall come to pass in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea: in summer and in winter shall it be. And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall the LORD be one, and his name one. All the land shall be turned as the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; and she shall be lifted up, and shall dwell in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananel unto the king's winepresses. And men shall dwell therein, and there shall be no more curse; but Jerusalem shall dwell safely. And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the peoples that have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their sockets, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth. And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour. And Judah also shall fight against Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the nations round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance. And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in those camps, as this plague. And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles. And it shall be, that whoso of all the families of the earth goeth not up unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, upon them there shall be no rain. And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, neither shall it be upon them; there shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the nations that go not up to keep the feast of tabernacles. This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that go not up to keep the feast of tabernacles. In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLY UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar. Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holy unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein; and in that day there shall be no more a Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

MALACHI

1 THE ¹burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by ²Malachi.

2 I have loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? ³Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the LORD: yet I loved Jacob; but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness. ⁴Whereas Edom saith, We are ⁵beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down: and men shall call them The border of wickedness, and The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever. And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD ⁶be magnified ⁷beyond the border of Israel.

6 A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name? Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar, And ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible. And when ye offer the blind for sacrifice, it is no evil! and when ye offer the lame and sick, it is no evil! Present it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee? or will he accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, intreat the favour of God, that he may be gracious unto us: this hath been ⁸by your means: will he ⁹accept any of your persons? saith the LORD of hosts. Oh that there were one among you that would shut the doors, that ye might not kindle fire on mine altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand. For ¹¹from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name ¹⁰is great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense is offered unto my ¹¹name, and a pure offering: for my name ¹⁰is great among the Gentiles, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye profane it, in that ye ¹²say, The table of the LORD is polluted, and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible. Ye say also, Behold, what ¹³a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye have brought that which was taken by violence, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye bring the offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD. But cursed be ¹⁴the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a blemished thing: for I am a great king, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is terrible among the Gentiles.

2 AND now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you. If ye will not ²hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, then will I send the curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart. Behold, ³I will rebuke ¹²the seed for your sake, and will spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your ¹³sacrifices; and ye shall be taken away ¹⁴with it. And ye shall ⁴know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts. My covenant was with him of life and ⁵peace; and I gave them to him that he might fear, and he feared me, and stood in awe of my name. The law of truth ⁶

 9 of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts. Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have had respect of persons in the law.

- 10 Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers?
 11 Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loveth, and hath married the daughter of a strange god. The LORD will cut off to the man that doeth this him that waketh and him that answereth, out of the tents of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts. And this
 12 again ye do: ye cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, neither receiveth
 14 it with good will at your hand. Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously, though she is thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. ³And did he not make one, although he had the residue of the spirit? And wherefore one? He sought a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against 16 the wife of his youth. For ⁴I hate putting away, saith the LORD, the God of Israel, and him that covereth his garment with violence, saith the LORD of hosts:

therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

Ye have wearied the LORD with your 17 words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? In that ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or where is the God of judgement?
 3 Behold, I send my messenger, and ¹he shall prepare the way before me; and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple; ⁵and the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in, behold, he cometh, saith the LORD of hosts. But who may abide the ²day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: and ³he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver; and they shall offer unto the LORD offerings in righteousness. Then shall ⁴the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years. And I ⁵will come near to you to judgement; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers; and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts. For I the LORD change ⁶not; therefore ye, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.

From the days of your fathers ye have ⁷turned aside from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye say, Wherein shall we return? Will a man rob God? ⁸yet ye rob me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and ⁹offerings. Ye are cursed with the curse; ⁹for ye rob me, even this whole nation. Bring ye the whole tithe into the store- ¹⁰house, that there may be meat in mine

 13 Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Where-14 in have we spoken against thee? Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his charge, and that we have walked 'mourn-

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

S. MATTHEW

1 ¹THE book of the ²generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judah and his brethren; and Judah begat Perez and Zerah; and Perez begat Hezron; and Hezron begat ³Ram; and ³Ram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Nahshon; and Nahshon begat Salmon; and Salmon begat Boaz of Rahab; and Boaz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse; and Jesse begat David the king.

And David begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Uriah; and Solomon begat Rehoboam; and Rehoboam begat Abijah; and Abijah begat ⁴Asa; and ⁴Asa begat Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Uzziah; and Uzziah begat Jotham; and Jotham begat Ahaz; and Ahaz begat Hezekiah; and Hezekiah begat Manasseh; and Manasseh begat ⁵Amon; and ⁵Amon begat Josiah; and Josiah begat Jechoniah and his brethren, at the time of the ⁶carrying away to Babylon.

12 And after the ⁶carrying away to Babylon, Jechoniah begat ⁷Shealtiel; and ⁷Shealtiel begat Zerubbabel; and Zerubbabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor; and Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; and Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham unto David are fourteen generations; and from David unto the ⁶carrying away to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the ⁶carrying away to Babylon unto the Christ fourteen generations.

Now the ⁸birth ⁹of Jesus Christ was 18 on this wise: When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found with child of the ¹⁰Holy Ghost. And Joseph 19 her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily. But 20 when he thought on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is ¹¹conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. And she shall 21 bring forth a son; and thou shalt call his name JESUS; for it is he that shall save his people from their sins. Now all this 22 is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,

Behold, the virgin shall be with child, 23 and shall bring forth a son, which is, being interpreted, God with us. And Joseph arose from his sleep, 24 and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took unto him his wife; and knew her not till she had 25 brought forth a son: and he called his name JESUS.

And they shall call his name ¹²Immanuel;

2 NOW when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, ¹³wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, ¹⁴Where 2 is he that is born King of the Jews? for we saw his star in the east, and are come to worship him. And when Herod the 3 king heard it, he was troubled, and all

 5 the Christ should be born. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written ¹by the prophet,
 6 And thou Bethlehem, land of Judah, Art in no wise least among the princes of Judah:
 For out of thee shall come forth a governor,
 Which shall be shepherd of my people Israel.
 7 Then Herod privily called the ²wise men, and learned of them carefully ³what time
 8 the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search out carefully concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may come and worship
 9 him. And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the 10 young child was. And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding 11 great joy. And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, gold
 12 and frankincense and myrrh. And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.
 13 Now when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I tell thee: for Herod will seek the young 14 child to destroy him. And he arose and took the young child and his mother by 15 night, and departed into Egypt; and was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,
 16 Out of Egypt did I call my son. Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the ²wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had carefully learned of the ²wise men. Then was fulfilled that which ¹⁷ was spoken ¹by Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

A voice was heard in Ramah, 18
 Weeping and great mourning,
 Rachel weeping for her children;
 And she would not be comforted, because they are not.

But when Herod was dead, behold, ¹⁹ an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, Arise ²⁰ and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead that sought the young child's life. And he arose and took the young ²¹ child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that ²² Archelaus was reigning over Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into the parts of Galilee, and came and dwelt in ²³ a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken ¹by the prophets, that he should be called a Nazarene.

3 AND in those days cometh John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judæa, saying, Repent ye; for the ² kingdom of heaven is at hand. For this ³ is he that was spoken of ¹by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
 Make ye ready the way of the Lord,
 Make his paths straight.

Now John himself had his raiment of ⁴ camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then went out unto him ⁵ Jerusalem, and all Judæa, and all the region round about Jordan; and they ⁶ were baptized of him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. But when he saw ⁷

many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said unto them, Ye offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

- 8 Bring forth therefore fruit worthy of ¹repentance: and think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children
10 unto Abraham. And even now is the axe laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into 11 the fire. I indeed baptize you ²with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not ³worthy to bear: he shall baptize you ²with the Holy Ghost and with fire:
12 whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing-floor; and he will gather his wheat into the garner, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire.

- 13 Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to the Jordan unto John, to be baptized of 14 him. But John would have hindered him, saying, I have need to be baptized
15 of thee, and comest thou to me? But Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer ⁴it now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffereth 16 him. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway from the water: and lo, the heavens were opened ⁵unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming upon 17 him; and lo, a voice out of the heavens, saying, ⁶This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

- 4 THEN was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of 2 the devil. And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he afterward hun-
3 gered. And the tempter came and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, command that these stones become 4 ⁷bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Then ⁵the devil taketh him into the holy city; and he set him on the ⁸pinnacle of the temple, and saith unto him, If thou art 6 the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written,

He shall give his angels charge concerning thee:

And on their hands they shall bear thee up,

Lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Jesus said unto him, Again it is written, ⁷Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. Again, the devil taketh him unto an ⁸exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; and he said unto him, ⁹All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then ¹⁰saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth ¹¹him; and behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

Now when he heard that John was ¹²delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee; and leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt ¹³in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali: that it might be fulfilled which was spo- ¹⁴ken ⁹by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

The land of Zebulun and the land of ¹⁵Naphtali,

¹⁰Toward the sea, beyond Jordan,

Galilee of the ¹¹Gentiles,

The people which sat in darkness ¹⁶

Saw a great light,

And to them which sat in the region and shadow of death,

To them did light spring up.

From that time began Jesus to preach, ¹⁷and to say, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

And walking by the sea of Galilee, he ¹⁸saw two brethren, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishers.

 22 And they straightway left the boat and their father, and followed him.
 23 And ²Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the ³gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner
 24 of sickness among the people. And the report of him went forth into all Syria: and they brought unto him all that were sick, holden with divers diseases and torments, ⁴possessed with devils, and epileptic, and palsied; and he healed them.
 25 And there followed him great multitudes from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judæa and from beyond Jordan.

5 AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into the mountain: and when he

- had sat down, his disciples came unto
 2 him: and he opened his mouth and taught them, saying,
 3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
 4 ⁵Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
 5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.
 6 Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
 7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.
 8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.
 9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God.
 10 Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs 11 is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great ¹²is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the ¹³salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under foot of men. Ye are the light of ¹⁴the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a lamp, ¹⁵and put it under the bushel, but on the stand; and it shineth unto all that are in the house. Even so let your light shine ¹⁶before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

Think not that I came to destroy the ¹⁷law or the prophets: I came not to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto ¹⁸you, Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the law, till all things be accomplished. Whosoever therefore shall ¹⁹break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I say unto you, that except your ²⁰righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Ye have heard that it was said to them ²¹of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgement: but I say unto you, that ²²every one who is angry with his brother ⁶shall be in danger of the judgement; and whosoever shall say to his brother, ⁷Raca, shall be in danger of the council; and whosoever shall say, ⁸Thou fool, shall be in danger ⁹of the ¹⁰hell of fire. - 26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the last farthing.
- 27 Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt not commit adultery: but I say unto you, that every one that looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. And if thy right eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body be cast into ²hell. And if thy right hand causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body go into ³hell. It was said also, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement: but I say unto you, that every one that putteth away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, maketh her an adulteress: and whosoever shall marry her when she is put away committeth adultery.
- 33 Again, ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: but I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by the heaven, for it is the throne of God; nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; nor ³by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, for thou canst not make one hair white or black. ⁴But let your speech be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: and whatsoever is more than these is of ⁵the evil one.
- 38 Ye have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth: but I say unto you, Resist not ⁶him that is evil: but whosoever smiteth thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if any man would go to law with thee, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also. And whosoever ⁴1 shall ⁷compel thee to go one mile, go with him twain. Give to him that asketh thee, ²and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy: but I say unto you, Love your enemies, and pray for them that persecute you; that ye may be sons of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust. For if ye love them that love you, ⁶what reward have ye? do not even the ⁸publicans the same? And if ye salute ⁷your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the Gentiles the same? Ye therefore shall be perfect, ⁴as your heavenly Father is perfect.

6 TAKE heed that ye do not your righteousness before men, to be seen of them: else ye have no reward with your Father which is in heaven.

When therefore thou doest alms, ²sound not a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. But when thou ³doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: that thine ⁴alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret shall recompense thee.

And when ye pray, ye shall not be as ⁵the hypocrites: for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men.  7 secret shall recompense thee. And in praying use not vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.
 8 Be not therefore like unto them: for 'your Father knoweth what things ye 9 have need of, before ye ask him. After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed 10 be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth.
 11 Give us this day ²our daily bread. And 12 forgive us our debts, as we also have for-13 given our debtors. And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from ³the 14 evil one.⁴ For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will 15 also forgive you. But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.
 16 Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen of men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward.
 17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy 18 head, and wash thy face; that thou be not seen of men to fast, but of thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall recom-

 19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust
 doth consume, and where thieves ⁵break 20 through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not ⁵break through nor steal:
 21 for where thy treasure is, there will thy 22 heart be also. The lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single,
 thy whole body shall be full of light.
 23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how 24 great is the darkness! No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. There-25 fore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment?

 Behold the birds of the heaven, that they ²⁶
 sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they? And which of you by ²⁷ being anxious can add one cubit unto his ⁶stature? And why are ye anxious 28 concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil
 not, neither do they spin: yet I say unto ²⁹
 you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But ³⁰
 if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Be ³¹ not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or,
 Wherewithal shall we be clothed? For ³²
 after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth
 that ye have need of all these things.
 But seek ye first his kingdom, and his 33 righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Be not therefore ³⁴ anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

7 JUDGE not, that ye be not judged.
 For with what judgement ye judge, ²
 ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured unto
 you. And why beholdest thou the mote ³ that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy ⁴ brother, Let me cast out the mote out of thine eye; and lo, the beam is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first ⁵
 the beam out of thine own eye; and
 then shalt thou see clearly to cast out
 the mote out of thy brother's eye.

- 7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: for every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Or what man is there of you, who, if his son shall ask him for a loaf, will give him a stone; or if he shall ask for a fish, will give him a serpent?
- 11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them: for this is the law and the prophets.
- 13 Enter ye in by the narrow gate: for wide ¹is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many be they that enter in thereby. ²For narrow is the gate, and straitened the way, that leadeth unto life, and few be they that find it.

Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Therefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by thy name, and by thy name cast out ³devils, and by thy name do many ⁴mighty works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. 10 And it came to pass, as he ²sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with 11 Jesus and his disciples. And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why cateth your ³Master with 12 the publicans and sinners? But when he heard it, he said, They that are ⁴whole have no need of a physician, but they 13 that are sick. But go ye and learn what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice: for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

14 Then come to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast ⁵oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the sons of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then 16 will they fast. And no man putteth a piece of undressed cloth upon an old garment; for that which should fill it up taketh from the garment, and a worse 17 rent is made. Neither do men put new wine into old ⁶wine-skins: else the skins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the skins perish: but they put new wine into fresh wine-skins, and both are preserved.

18 While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came ⁷a ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy 19 hand upon her, and she shall live. And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so 20 did his disciples. And behold, a woman, who had an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: for she said within 21 herself, If I do but touch his garment, I shall be ⁸made whole. But Jesus turning and seeing her said, Daughter, be of good cheer; thy faith hath ⁹made thee whole. And the woman was ¹⁰made whole from that hour. And when Jesus came 23 into the ruler's house, and saw the flute-players, and the crowd making a tumult, he said, Give place: for the damsel is not 24 dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. But when the crowd was 25 put forth, he entered in, and took her by the hand; and the damsel arose. And 26 ¹⁰the fame hereof went forth into all that land.

And as Jesus passed by from thence, 27 two blind men followed him, crying out, and saying, Have mercy on us, thou son of David. And when he was come into 28 the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They say unto him, Yea, Lord. Then touched he their 29 eyes, saying, According to your faith be it done unto you. And their eyes were 30 opened. And Jesus ¹¹strictly charged them, saying, See that no man know it. And Jesus went about all the cities 35 and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness. 2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddæus; Simon the Cananean, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent forth, and charged them, saying,

Go not into any way of the Gentiles, and enter not into any city of the Samaritans: but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out devils: freely ye received, freely give. Get you no gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses; no wallet for your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff: for the labourer is worthy of his food. And into whatsoever city or village ye shall enter, search out who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go forth. And as ye enter into the house, salute it. And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you. And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, as ye go forth out of that house or that city, shake off the dust of your feet. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgement, than for that city.

16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to councils, and in their synagogues they will scourge you; yea and before governors and kings shall ye be brought for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. But when they deliver you up, be not anxious how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that hour what ye shall speak. For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father that speaketh in you. And brother shall deliver up brother to death, and the father his child: and children shall rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved. But when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone through the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

A disciple is not above his master, nor a servant above his lord. It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household! Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. What I tell you in the darkness, speak ye in the light: and what ye hear in the ear, proclaim upon the housetops. And be not afraid of them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and not one of them shall fall on the ground without your Father: but the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore; ye are of more value than many sparrows. Every one therefore who shall confess me before men, I also will confess before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

And as these went their way, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken

Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,

Who shall prepare thy way before thee. Verily I say unto you, Among them that ¹¹are born of women there hath not arisen a greater than John the Baptist: yet he that is ⁶but little in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. And from the ¹²days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and men of violence take it by force. For ¹³all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. It is like unto children sitting in the marketplaces, which call unto their fellows, and say, We piped unto you, ¹⁷and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not ⁹mourn. 25 At that season Jesus answered and said, I ¹thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto 26 babes: yea, Father, ²for so it was well-pleasing in thy sight. All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth the Son, save the Father; neither doth any know the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willet to reveal him. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall 30 find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

12 AT that season Jesus went on the sabbath day through the cornfields; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck ears of corn, and to 2 eat. But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which it is not lawful to do upon 3 the sabbath. But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were 4 with him; how he entered into the house of God, and ³did eat the shewbread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them that were with him, but 5 only for the priests? Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath day the priests in the temple profane the 6 sabbath, and are guiltless? But I say unto you, that ⁴one greater than the 7 temple is here. But if ye had known what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless. For the Son of 8 man is lord of the sabbath.

9 And he departed thence, and went 10 into their synagogue: and behold, a man having a withered hand. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? that they might accuse him. And he said unto them, What man 11 shall there be of you, that shall have one sheep, and if this fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? How much then is a man 12 of more value than a sheep! Wherefore it is lawful to do good on the sabbath day. Then saith he to the man, Stretch 13 forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, as the other. But the Pharisees went out, and 14 took counsel against him, how they might destroy him. And Jesus perceiving it 15 withdrew from thence: and many followed him; and he healed them all, and 16 charged them that they should not make him known: that it might be fulfilled 17 which was spoken ⁵by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

Behold, my servant whom I have 18 chosen;

My beloved in whom my soul is well pleased:

I will put my Spirit upon him, And he shall declare judgement to the Gentiles.

He shall not strive, nor cry aloud; 19 Neither shall any one hear his voice in the streets.

A bruised reed shall he not break, 20 And smoking flax shall he not quench, Till he send forth judgement unto victory.

And in his name shall the Gentiles 21 hope.

Then was brought unto him ⁶one 22 possessed with a devil, blind and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the dumb man spake and saw. And all the 23 multitudes were amazed, and said, Is this the son of David? But when the 24 Pharisees heard it, they said, This man doth not cast out ⁷devils, but ⁸by Beelzebub the prince of the ⁷devils.  29 Or how can one enter into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and 30 then he will spoil his house. He that is not with me is against me; and he that 31 gathereth not with me scattereth. Therefore I say unto you, Every sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven ³unto men; but the blasphemy against the Spirit shall 32 not be forgiven. And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him; but whosoever shall speak against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this ⁴world, nor in that which is to come.
 33 Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by its 34 fruit. Ye offspring of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth
 35 speaketh. The good man out of his good treasure bringeth forth good things: and the evil man out of his evil treasure 36 bringeth forth evil things. And I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgement. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.
 38 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, ⁵Master, we would see a sign from thee. But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah the prophet:
 40 for as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the ⁶whale; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, ⁷a greater than Jonah is here. The queen ⁸of the south shall rise up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, ⁹a greater than Solomon is here. But the unclean spirit, when ⁸he ⁹is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest, and findeth it not. Then ⁸he saith, I will return ¹⁰into my house whence I came out; and when ⁸he is come, ⁸he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth ⁸he, ¹¹and taketh with ⁹himself seven other spirits more evil than ⁹himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man cometh worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this evil generation.

While he was yet speaking to the ¹²multitudes, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, seeking to speak to him. ¹³And one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, seeking to speak to thee. But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth ¹⁴his hand towards his disciples, and said, Behold, my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of my ¹⁵Father which is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

13 ON that day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea side. And there were gathered unto him great ²multitudes, so that he entered into a boat, and sat; and all the multitude stood on the beach. And he spake to them ³many things in parables, saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sow; and as he ⁴sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them: and others fell upon the rocky places, ⁵where they had not much earth: and straightway they sprang up, because 6 they had no deepness of earth: and when the sun was risen, they were scorched; and because they had no root, 7 they withered away. And others fell upon the thorns; and the thorns grew 8 up, and choked them: and others fell upon the good ground, and yielded fruit,

 some a hundredfold, some sixty, some 9 thirty. He that hath ears¹, let him hear.
 10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in 11 parables? And he answered and said unto them, Unto you it is given to know
 the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, 12 but to them it is not given. For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away 13 even that which he hath. Therefore speak I to them in parables; because seeing they see not, and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.
 14 And unto them is fulfilled the prophecy
 of Isaiah, which saith,

By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in
 no wise understand;

And seeing ye shall see, and shall in
 no wise perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross,
 And their ears are dull of hearing,
 And their eyes they have closed;
 Lest haply they should perceive with
 their eyes,
 And hear with their ears,
 And understand with their heart,
 And should turn again,
 And I should heal them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see;
 17 and your ears, for they hear. For verily
 I say unto you, that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard 18 them not. Hear then ye the parable of 19 the sower. When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth
 it not, then cometh the evil one, and snatcheth away that which hath been sown in his heart. This is he that was sown by the way side. And he that was 20 sown upon the rocky places, this is he that heareth the word, and straightway

 with joy receiveth it; yet hath he not 21
 root in himself, but endureth for a while;
 and when tribulation or persecution a-riseth because of the word, straightway
 he stumbleth. And he that was sown 22
 among the thorns, this is he that heareth
 the word; and the care of the ²world,
 and the deceitfulness of riches, choke
 the word, and he becometh unfruitful.
 And he that was sown upon the good 23
 ground, this is he that heareth the word,
 and understandeth it; who verily beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

Another parable set he before them, 24
 saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man that sowed good seed in his field: but while men slept, his enemy 25 came and sowed ³tares also among the wheat, and went away. But when the 26 blade sprang up, and brought forth fruit,
 then appeared the tares also. And the 27 ⁴servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it tares? And he said unto them, ⁵An 28 enemy hath done this. And the ⁴servants say unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he saith, 29 Nay; lest haply while ye gather up the
 tares, ye root up the wheat with them.
 Let both grow together until the harvest: 30
 and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the tares,
 and bind them in bundles to burn them:
 but gather the wheat into my barn.

Another parable set he before them, 31
 saying, The kingdom of heaven is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: which 32
 indeed is less than all seeds; but when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs,
 and becometh a tree, so that the birds
 of the heaven come and lodge in the branches thereof.

Another parable spake he unto them; 33
 The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three ¹measures of meal, till it was all leavened.

- 34 All these things spake Jesus in parables unto the multitudes; and without a parable spake he nothing unto them: 35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken ²by the prophet, saying,

I will open my mouth in parables;

I will utter things hidden from the foundation ³of the world.

- 36 Then he left the multitudes, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Explain unto us the 37 parable of the tares of the field. And he answered and said, He that soweth 38 the good seed is the Son of man; and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and 39 the tares are the sons of the evil one; and the enemy that sowed them is the devil: and the harvest is ⁴the end of the world; 40 and the reapers are angels. As therefore the tares are gathered up and burned with fire; so shall it be in ⁴the end of the 41 world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and them that do iniquity, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of 42 teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He that hath ears, let him hear. 44 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a treasure hidden in the field; which a man found, and hid; and ⁵in his joy he goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. 45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a merchant seeking 46 goodly pearls: and having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it. 47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a ⁶net, that was cast into the sea, 48 and gathered of every kind: which, when it was filled, they drew up on the beach; and they sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but the bad they cast away. So shall it be in ⁴the end of the 49 world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the righteous, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Have ye understood all these things? 51 They say unto him, Yea. And he said 52 unto them, Therefore every scribe who hath been made a disciple to the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

And it came to pass, when Jesus had 53 finished these parables, he departed thence. And coming into his own country 54 he taught them in their synagogue, inasmuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these ⁷mighty works? Is not this 55 the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joseph, and Simon, and Judas? And 56 his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things? And they were ⁸offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house. And 58 he did not many ⁷mighty works there because of their unbelief.

14 AT that season Herod the tetrarch heard the report concerning Jesus, and said unto his servants, This is John 2 the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore do these powers work in him. For Herod had laid hold on John, 3 and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. For John said unto him, 4 It is not lawful for thee to have her. And 5 when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet. But when 6 Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst, and pleased Herod. Whereupon he promised 7 with an oath to give her whatsoever she

 9 And the king was grieved; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them which sat at meat with him, he commanded it to 10 be given; and he sent, and beheaded
 11 John in the prison. And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.
 12 And his disciples came, and took up the corpse, and buried him; and they went and told Jesus.
 13 Now when Jesus heard it, he withdrew from thence in a boat, to a desert place apart: and when the multitudes heard thereof, they followed him ¹on foot from 14 the cities. And he came forth, and saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, and healed their sick. And when even was come, the disciples came to him, saying, The place is desert, and the time is already past; send the multitudes away, that they may go into the 16 villages, and buy themselves food. But Jesus said unto them, They have no need 17 to go away; give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, We have here but 18 five loaves, and two fishes. And he said,
 19 Bring them hither to me. And he commanded the multitudes to ²sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. And they did
 20 all eat, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over of the broken
 21 pieces, twelve baskets full. And they that did eat were about five thousand men, beside women and children.
 22 And straightway he constrained the disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side, till he should send the multitudes away.
 23 And after he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into the mountain apart to pray: and when even was come,
 24 he was there alone. But the boat ³was

now in the midst of the sea, distressed by the waves; for the wind was contrary. And in the fourth watch of the night he ⁴came unto them, walking upon the sea. And when the disciples saw him walking ⁵on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is an apparition; and they cried out for fear. But straightway Jesus spake ⁶unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid. And Peter answered ⁷him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee upon the waters. And ⁸he said, Come. And Peter went down from the boat, and walked upon the waters, ⁹to come to Jesus. But when ¹⁰he saw the wind⁵, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, Lord, save me. And immediately Jesus ¹¹stretched forth his hand, and took hold of him, and saith unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? And when they were gone up into the ¹²boat, the wind ceased. And they that ¹³were in the boat worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

And when they had crossed over, they ¹⁴came to the land, unto Gennesaret. And the disciples say unto him, 33 Whence should we have so many loaves in a desert place, as to fill so great a multitude? And Jesus saith unto them, 34 How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few small fishes. And 35 he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground; and he took the seven loaves and the fishes; and he gave thanks and brake, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. And 37 they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over of the broken pieces, seven baskets full. And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children. 38 And he sent away the multitudes, and 39 entered into the boat, and came into the borders of Magadan.

16 AND the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and tempting him asked him to shew them a sign from heaven.

1 Some ancient authorities read law.

4 Gr. demon.

2 Gr. caused to stumble.

5 Or, loaf.

3 Gr. planting.

2 But he answered and said unto them,
 1 When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair
 3 weather: for the heaven is red. And in the morning, It will be foul weather today: for the heaven is red and lowring.
 Ye know how to discern the face of the heaven; but ye cannot discern the signs 4 of the times. An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of Jonah. And he left them, and departed.
 5 And the disciples came to the other
 6 side and forgot to take ²bread. And Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware
 of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sad-7 ducees. And they reasoned among them-
 8 selves, saying, ³We took no ²bread. And Jesus perceiving it said, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, 9 because ye have no ²bread? Do ye not yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how 10 many ⁴baskets ye took up? Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and 11 how many ⁴baskets ye took up? How is it that ye do not perceive that I spake not to you concerning ²bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and 12 Sadducees. Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of ²bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.
 13 Now when Jesus came into the parts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say ⁵that the 14 Son of man is? And they said, Some say John the Baptist; some, Elijah: and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.
 15 He saith unto them, But who say ye that 16 I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the 17 living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jonah: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father 18 which is in heaven. And I also say unto thee, that thou art ⁶Peter, and upon this

⁷rock I will build my church; and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against
 it. I will give unto thee the keys of the 19 kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever
 thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.
 Then charged he the disciples that they 20
 should tell no man that he was the Christ.

From that time began ⁸Jesus to shew 21
 unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things
 of the elders and chief priests and scribes,
 and be killed, and the third day be raised
 up. And Peter took him, and began to 22
 rebuke him, saying, ⁹Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall never be unto thee. But 23
 he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee
 behind me, Satan: thou art a stumbling-block unto me: for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men.
 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If 24
 any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever would save 25 his ¹⁰life shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his ¹⁰life for my sake shall find it.
 For what shall a man be profited, if he 26
 shall gain the whole world, and forfeit his ¹⁰life? or what shall a man give in exchange for his ¹⁰life? For the Son of 27 man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then shall he render unto every man according to his ¹¹deeds. Verily I say unto you, There 28 be some of them that stand here, which shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

17 AND after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart: and he was 2
 transfigured before them: and his face
 did shine as the sun, and his garments became white as the light. And behold, 3 there appeared unto them Moses and Elijah talking with him. And Peter 4 answered, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, I will make here three ¹tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for 5 Elijah. While he was yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched them and

8 said, Arise, and be not afraid. And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, save Jesus only.

9 And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until

10 the Son of man be risen from the dead. And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elijah

11 must first come? And he answered and said, Elijah indeed cometh, and shall

12 restore all things: but I say unto you, that Elijah is come already, and they knew him not, but did unto him whatsoever they listed. Even so shall the Son

13 of man also suffer of them. Then understood the disciples that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a man,

15 kneeling to him, and saying, Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is epileptic, and suffereth grievously: for oft-times he falleth into the fire, and oft-times into

16 the water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 And Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked him; and the ²devil went out from him: and the boy was

19 cured from that hour. Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why

20 could not we cast it out? And he saith unto them, Because of your little faith: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith

as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.³

And while they ⁴abode in Galilee, 22 Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be delivered up into the hands of men; and they shall kill him, and the 23 third day he shall be raised up. And they were exceeding sorry.

And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received the ⁵half-shekel came to Peter, and said, Doth not your ⁶master pay the ⁵half-shekel? He saith, 25 Yea. And when he came into the house, Jesus spake first to him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? the kings of the earth, from whom do they receive toll or tribute? from their sons, or from strangers? And when he said, From 26 strangers, Jesus said unto him, Therefore the sons are free. But, lest we cause 27 them to stumble, go thou to the sea, and cast a hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a ⁷shekel: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

18 IN that hour came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who then is ⁸greatest in the kingdom of heaven? And 2 he called to him a little child, and set him in the midst of them, and said, 3 Verily I say unto you, Except ye turn, and become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the ⁸greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little 5 child in my name receiveth me: but 6 whoso shall cause one of these little ones which believe on me to stumble, it is profitable for him that ⁹a great millstone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depth of the sea. Woe unto the world because of 7 occasions of stumbling! for it must needs be that the occasions come; but woe to that man through whom the occasion

8 cometh! And if thy hand or thy foot causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed or halt, rather than having two hands or two feet to be 9 cast into the eternal fire. And if thine eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out,
and cast it from thee: it is good for thee
to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the 10 ¹hell of fire. See that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you,
that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is 12 in heaven.² How think ye? if any man
have a hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and go unto the mountains, and seek that which goeth astray?
13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth over it more than over the ninety and nine which have 14 not gone astray. Even so it is not ³the will of ⁴your Father which is in heaven,
that one of these little ones should
perish.
15 And if thy brother sin ⁵against thee,
go, shew him his fault between thee and
him alone: if he hear thee, thou hast 16 gained thy brother. But if he hear thee not, take with thee one or two more, that at the mouth of two witnesses or three 17 every word may be established. And if he refuse to hear them, tell it unto the ⁶church: and if he refuse to hear the ⁶church also, let him be unto thee as the 18 Gentile and the publican. Verily I say unto you, What things soever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven:
and what things soever ye shall loose on 19 earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again
I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them 20 of my Father which is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

Then came Peter, and said to him, 21
Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? until seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not 22 unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until ⁷seventy times seven. Therefore is the ⁸23 kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would make a reckoning with his ⁸servants. And when he ⁹24 had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand ⁹talents. But forasmuch as he had not ¹⁰25 wherewith to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The ¹⁰servant therefore fell ¹¹26 down and worshipped him, saying, Lord,
have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And the lord of that ¹⁰servant, ¹²27 being moved with compassion, released
him, and forgave him the ¹¹debt. But ¹³28 that ¹⁰servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him
a hundred ¹²pence: and he laid hold on him, and took him by the throat, saying,
Pay what thou owest. So his fellow-¹⁴29
servant fell down and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee. And he would not: but ¹⁵30 went and cast him into prison, till he should pay that which was due. So ¹⁶31 when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were exceeding sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. Then his lord called him unto him, ¹⁷32
and saith to him, Thou wicked ¹⁰servant,
I forgave thee all that debt, because thou besoughtest me: shouldest not thou also ¹⁸33
have had mercy on thy fellow-servant,
even as I had mercy on thee? And his ¹⁹34 lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was
due. So shall also my heavenly Father ²⁰35 do unto you, if ye forgive not every one
his brother from your hearts.

19 AND it came to pass when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judæa beyond Jordan; and great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

2 And there came unto him ¹Pharisees, tempting him, and saying, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And he answered and said, Have ye not read, that he which ²made them from the beginning made them male and female, and said, For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the twain shall become one flesh? So that they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. They say unto him, Why then did Moses command to give a bill of divorcement, and to put ³her away? He saith unto them, Moses for your hardness of heart suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it hath not been so. And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, ⁴except for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: ⁵and he that marrieth her when she is put away committeth adultery. The disciples say unto him, If the case of the man is so with his wife, it is not expedient to marry. But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, but they to whom it is given. For there are eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are eunuchs, which were made eunuchs by men: and there are eunuchs, which made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should lay his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer the little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

And behold, one came to him and said, ⁶Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? And he said unto him, ⁷Why askest thou me concerning that which is good? One there is who is good: but if thou wouldst enter into life, keep the commandments. He saith unto him, Which? And Jesus said, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. The young man saith unto him, All these things have I observed: what lack I yet? Jesus said unto him, If thou wouldst be perfect, go, sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sorrowful: for he was one that had great possessions.

And Jesus said unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, It is hard for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of heaven. And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And when the disciples heard it, they were astonished exceedingly, saying, Who then can be saved? And Jesus looking upon ⁸them said to them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. Then answered Peter and said unto him, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee; what then shall we have? And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit on the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one that hath left 20 that are last. For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. And when he had agreed with the labourers for a ³penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing in the marketplace idle; and to them he said, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing; and he saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard. And when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and pay them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a ³penny. And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received every man a ³penny. And when they received it, they murmured against the householder, saying, These last have spent but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden of the day and the ⁴scorching heat. But he answered and said to one of them, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a ³penny? Take up that which is thine, and go thy way; it is my will to give unto this last, even as unto thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? or is thine eye evil, because I am good? So the last shall be first, and the first last.

And as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples apart, and in the way he said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him unto the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify: and the third day he shall be raised up.

Then came to him the mother of the two sons of Zebedee with her sons, worshipping him, and asking a certain thing of him. And he said unto her, What wouldest thou? She saith unto him, Command that these my two sons may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, in thy kingdom. But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink the cup that I am about to drink? They say unto him, We are able. He saith unto them, My cup indeed ye shall drink: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand, is not mine to give, but it is for them for whom it hath been prepared of my Father. And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation concerning the two brethren. But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. Not so shall it be among you: but whosoever would become great among you shall be your ⁵minister; and whosoever would be first among you shall be your ⁶servant: even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

And as they went out from Jericho, a great multitude followed him. And behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou son of David. And the multitude rebuked them, that they should hold their peace: but they cried out the more, saying, Lord, have mercy

 33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes

21 AND when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and came unto Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then
 2 Jesus sent two disciples, saying unto them, Go into the village that is over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.
 3 And if any one say aught unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them;
 4 and straightway he will send them. Now this is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken ¹by the prophet, saying,
 5 Tell ye the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, Meek, and riding upon an ass, And upon a colt the foal of an ass.
 6 And the disciples went, and did even as 7 Jesus appointed them, and brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their
 8 garments; and he sat thereon. And the most part of the multitude spread their garments in the way; and others cut branches from the trees, and spread 9 them in the way. And the multitudes that went before him, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the the blind and the lame came to him in the temple: and he healed them. But 15 when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children that were crying in the temple and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were moved with indignation, and said unto him, Hearest 16 thou what these are saying? And seeing ³a 19 fig tree by the way side, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only; and he saith unto it, Let there be no fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And immediately the fig tree withered away. And when the disciples 20 saw it, they marvelled, saying, How did the fig tree immediately wither away? And Jesus answered and said unto them, 21 Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do what is done to the fig tree, but even if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou taken up and cast into the sea, it shall be done.  said, I will not: but afterward he re-30 pent himself, and went. And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went 31 not. Whether of the twain did the will

 Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto go into the kingdom of God before you.

 33 Hear another parable: There was a man that was a householder, which planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a winepress in it,
 and built a tower, and let it out to hus-
 bandmen, and went into another coun-34 try. And when the season of the fruits drew near, he sent his ²servants to the 35 husbandmen, to receive ³his fruits. And the husbandmen took his ²servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned 36 another. Again, he sent other ²servants more than the first: and they did unto 37 them in like manner. But afterward he sent unto them his son, saying, They 38 will reverence my son. But the hus-bandmen, when they saw the son, said
 among themselves, This is the heir;
 come, let us kill him, and take his in-39 heritance. And they took him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed 40 him. When therefore the lord of the vineyard shall come, what will he do 41 unto those husbandmen? They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and will let out the vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their sea-killed them. But the king was wroth; 7

 and he sent his armies, and destroyed
 those murderers, and burned their city.
 Then saith he to his ²servants, The wed- 8
 ding is ready, but they that were bidden were not worthy. Go ye therefore unto 9
 the partings of the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage feast. And those ²servants went 10 out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was filled with guests. But when the king 11 came in to behold the guests, he saw
 there a man which had not on a wedding-

14 For many are called, but few chosen.
15 Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might ensnare him in 16 his talk. And they send to him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, ²Master,
we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, and carest not for any one: for thou regardest 17 not the person of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to 18 give tribute unto Cæsar, or not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?
19 Shew me the tribute money. And they 20 brought unto him a ³penny. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image
21 and superscription? They say unto him, Cæsar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's; and unto God the things 22 that are God's. And when they heard it, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.
23 On that day there came to him Sadducees, ⁴which say that there is no resurrection: and they asked him, saying, 24 ²Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother ⁵shall marry
his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first married and deceased, and having no seed left his wife 26 unto his brother; in like manner the second also, and the third, unto the 27 ⁶seventh. And after them all the woman died. In the resurrection therefore whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they 29 all had her. But Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the 30 scriptures, nor the power of God. For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as angels⁷ in heaven. But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, I am the God of Abraham, 32

and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. And when the multi- 33
tudes heard it, they were astonished at his teaching.

But the Pharisees, when they heard 34
that he had put the Sadducees to silence, gathered themselves together. And one 35
of them, a lawyer, asked him a question,
tempting him, ²Master, which is the 36
great commandment in the law? And 37
he said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.
This is the great and first commandment. 38
⁸And a second like unto it is this, Thou 39 shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On 40 these two commandments hangeth the whole law, and the prophets.

Now while the Pharisees were gathered 41
together, Jesus asked them a question, saying, What think ye of the Christ? 42
whose son is he? They say unto him,
The son of David. He saith unto them, 43
How then doth David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying,

The Lord said unto my Lord, 44
Sit thou on my right hand,
Till I put thine enemies underneath
thy feet?

If David then calleth him Lord, how is 45
he his son? And no one was able to 46 answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

23 THEN spake Jesus to the multitudes and to his disciples, saying, 2
The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat: all things therefore whatso- 3
ever they bid you, these do and observe:
but do not ye after their works; for they say, and do not. Yea, they bind heavy 4

But all their works they do for to be seen of men: for they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments, and love the chief place at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called of men, Rabbi. But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your teacher, and all ye are brethren. And call no man your father on the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven. Neither be ye called masters: for one is your master even the Christ. But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant. And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be humbled; and whosoever shall humble himself shall be exalted.
- 13 But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye shut the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye enter not in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering in to enter.⁵
- 15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is become so, ye make him twofold more a son of hell than yourselves.
- 16 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor. Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that hath sanctified the gold? And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gift that is upon it, he is a debtor. Ye blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift? He therefore that sweareth by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.
- 21 And he that sweareth by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein. And he that sweareth by the heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.
- 23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye tithe mint and anise and cummin, and have left undone the weightier matters of the law, judgement, and mercy, and faith: but these ye ought to have done, and not to have left the other undone. Ye blind guides, which strain out the gnat, and swallow the camel.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full from extortion and excess. Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first the inside of the cup and of the platter, that the outside thereof may become clean also.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but inwardly ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and garnish the tombs of the righteous, and say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we should not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. Wherefore ye witness to yourselves, that ye are sons of them that slew the prophets. Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. Ye serpents, ye offspring of vipers, how shall ye escape the judgement of hell? Therefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: some of them shall ye kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city: that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous unto the blood of Zachariah son of Barachiah, whom ye slew between the sanctuary and the altar. Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

24 AND Jesus went out from the temple, and was going on his way; and his disciples came to him to shew him the buildings of the temple. But he answered and said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat on the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy ²coming, and of ³the end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man lead you astray.

5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am the Christ; and shall lead many astray. And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for these things must needs come to pass; but the end is not yet.

7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines and earthquakes in divers places. But all these things are the beginning of travail. Then shall they deliver you up unto tribulation, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all the nations for my name's sake. And then shall many stumble, and shall deliver up one another, and shall hate one another. And many false prophets shall arise, and shall lead many astray. And because iniquity shall be multiplied, the love of the many shall wax cold. But he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved. And ⁴this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole ⁵world for a testimony unto all the nations; and then shall the end come.

When therefore ye see the abomination ¹⁵tion of desolation, which was spoken of ¹⁶by Daniel the prophet, standing in ¹⁷the holy place (let him that readeth understand), then let them that are in Judæa ¹⁸flee unto the mountains: let him that is on the housetop not go down to take out the things that are in his house: and let ¹⁹him that is in the field not return back to take his cloke. But woe unto them ²⁰that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on a sabbath: for then shall be great ²¹tribulation, such as hath not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever shall be. And except those ²²days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. Then if ²³any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ, or, Here; believe ²⁴it not. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. Behold, I have told you ²⁵beforehand. If therefore they shall say ²⁶unto you, Behold, he is in the wilderness; go not forth: Behold, he is in the inner chambers; believe ²⁷it not. For as the lightning cometh forth from the east, and is seen even unto the west; so shall be the ²⁸coming of the Son of man. But immediately, after the tribulation ²⁹of those days, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: and then shall appear the sign of the Son ³⁰of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. 48 But if that evil ⁶servant shall say in his heart, My lord tarrieth; and shall begin

And he also that received the two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: lo, I have gained other two talents. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful 'servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. And he also that had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I know thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou didst not sow, and gathering where thou didst not scatter: and I was afraid, and went away and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, thou hast thine own. But his lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful 'servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I did not scatter: thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back mine own with interest. Take ye away therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him that hath the ten talents. But when the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him, then shall he sit on the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all the nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as the shepherd separateth the sheep from the ²goats: and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the ²goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: for I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in; naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or athirst, and gave thee drink? And when saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? And when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? 26 AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these words, he said unto his disciples, Ye know that ²after two days the passover cometh, and the Son of man is delivered up to be crucified. Then were gathered together ³the chief priests, and the elders of the people, unto the court of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas; and they took ⁴counsel together that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him. 6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in 7 the house of Simon the leper, there came unto him a woman having ¹an alabaster

 cruse of exceeding precious ointment,
 and she poured it upon his head, as he 8 sat at meat. But when the disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what 9 purpose is this waste? For this ointment might have been sold for much, and 10 given to the poor. But Jesus perceiving it said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good 11 work upon me. For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not 12 always. For in that she ²poured this ointment upon my body, she did it to 13 prepare me for burial. Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever ³this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, that also which this woman hath done shall be

 14 Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief 15 priests, and said, What are ye willing to give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they weighed unto him thirty

them.
 17 Now on the first day of unleavened say unto him, The ⁴Master saith, My time is at hand; I keep the passover at 19 thy house with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus appointed them; 20 and they made ready the passover. Now when even was come, he was sitting at 21 meat with the twelve ⁵disciples; and as they were eating, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray 22 me. And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began to say unto him every 23 one, Is it I, Lord? And he answered and said, He that dipped his hand with shall be ²⁰offended in thee, I will never be

 Peter saith unto him, Even if I must die ²³35

sleeping, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

- 41 'Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing,
42 but the flesh is weak. Again a second time he went away, and prayed, saying,
43 O my Father, if this cannot pass away, except I drink it, thy will be done. And he came again and found them sleeping,
44 for their eyes were heavy. And he left them again, and went away, and prayed a third time, saying again the same words.
45 Then cometh he to the disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the 46 hands of sinners. Arise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that betrayeth me.
47 And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the 48 people. Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall 49 kiss, that is he: take him. And straightway he came to Jesus, and said, Hail,
50 Rabbi; and ²kissed him. And Jesus said unto him, Friend, do that for which thou art come. Then they came and laid 51 hands on Jesus, and took him. And behold, one of them that were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and smote the ³servant of the 52 high priest, and struck off his ear. Then saith Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into its place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the 53 sword. Or thinkest thou that I cannot beseech my Father, and he shall even now send me more than twelve legions 54 of angels? How then should the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?
55 In that hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a robber with swords and staves to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and ye took 56 me not. But all this is come to pass, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples left him, and fled.

And they that had taken Jesus led 57 him away to the house of Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. But Peter 58 followed him afar off, unto the court of the high priest, and entered in, and sat with the officers, to see the end. Now 59 the chief priests and the whole council sought false witness against Jesus, that they might put him to death; and they 60 found it not, though many false witnesses came. But afterward came two, and said, This man said, I am able to 61 destroy the ⁴temple of God, and to build it in three days. And the high priest 62 stood up, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? But Jesus held his 63 peace. And the high priest said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God. Jesus saith unto 64 him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Henceforth ye shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming on the clouds of 65 heaven. Then the high priest rent his garments, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy: what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? They 66 answered and said, He is ⁵worthy of death. Then did they spit in his face 67 and buffet him: and some smote him ⁶with the palms of their hands, saying, 68 Prophecy unto us, thou Christ: who is he that struck thee?

Now Peter was sitting without in the 69 court: and a maid came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus the Galilaean. But he denied before them 70 all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. And when he was gone out into the 71 porch, another maid saw him, and saith unto them that were there, This man also was with Jesus the Nazarene. And 72 again he denied with an oath, I know not the man. And after a little while they that stood by came and said to Peter, Of a truth thou also art one of them;

75 crew. And Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

27 NOW when morning was come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus
2 to put him to death: and they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him up to Pilate the governor.
3 Then Judas, which betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests
4 and elders, saying, I have sinned in that I betrayed 'innocent blood. But they said, What is that to us? see thou to it.
5 And he cast down the pieces of silver into the sanctuary, and departed; and 6 he went away and hanged himself. And the chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, It is not lawful to put them into the ²treasury, since it is the price of 7 blood. And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to 8 bury strangers in. Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this 9 day. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken ³by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And ⁴they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was priced, ⁵whom certain of the children of Israel 10 did price; and ⁶they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 Now Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus 12 said unto him, Thou sayest. And when he was accused by the chief priests and 13 elders, he answered nothing. Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?
14 And he gave him no answer, not even to one word: insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly. Now at ⁷the feast the 15 governor was wont to release unto the multitude one prisoner, whom they would. And they had then a notable 16 prisoner, called Barabbas. When there- 17 fore they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? For he knew 18 that for envy they had delivered him up. And while he was sitting on the judge- 19 ment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that righteous man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. Now the chief priests and the 20 elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. But the governor answered 21 and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? And they said, Barabbas. Pilate saith 22 unto them, What then shall I do unto Jesus which is called Christ? They all say, Let him be crucified. And he said, 23 Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out exceedingly, saying, Let him be crucified. So when Pilate saw that 24 he prevailed nothing, but rather that a tumult was arising, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent ⁸of the blood of this righteous man: see ye to it. And all 25 the people answered and said, His blood be on us, and on our children. Then re- 26 leased he unto them Barabbas: but Jesus he scourged and delivered to be crucified.

Then the soldiers of the governor took 27 Jesus into the ⁹palace, and gathered unto him the whole ¹⁰band. And they ¹¹stripped 28 him, and put on him a scarlet robe. And they plaited a crown of thorns and 29 put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! And they spat upon 30 him, and took the reed and smote him on the head. And when they had 31 mocked him, they took off from him the robe, and put on him his garments, and led him away to crucify him.

- 32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they ¹compelled to go with them, that he 33 might bear his cross. And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, 34 that is to say, The place of a skull, they gave him wine to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted it, he would 35 not drink. And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments among 36 them, casting lots: and they sat and 37 watched him there. And they set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.
38 Then are there crucified with him two robbers, one on the right hand, and one 39 on the left. And when they that passed by 40 railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Thou that destroyest the ²temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself: if thou art the Son of God, come down from the cross. In like manner also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, He saved others; ³himself he cannot save. He is the King of Israel; let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe 43 on him. He trusteth on God; let him deliver him now, if he desireth him: for 44 he said, I am the Son of God. And the robbers also that were crucified with him cast upon him the same reproach.
45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the ⁴land until the 46 ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is, My God, my God, ⁵why hast thou forsaken 47 me? And some of them that stood there, when they heard it, said, This man calleth Elijah.
48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave 49 him to drink. And the rest said, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to save
50 him.⁶ And Jesus cried again with a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit. And ⁷behold, the veil of the ⁸temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake; and the rocks were rent; and the tombs were opened; and ⁹many bodies of the saints that had fallen asleep were raised; and coming forth out of the tombs after his resurrection they entered into the holy city and appeared unto many. Now the centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, Truly this was ¹⁰the Son of God. And many women were there beholding from afar, which had followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Josès, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

And when even was come, there came ¹¹a rich man from Arimathæa, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded it to be given up. And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

Now on the morrow, which is the day ¹²after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together unto Pilate, saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I rise again. Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest haply his disciples come and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: and the last error will be worse than the first. Pilate said unto them, ¹³Ye have a guard: go your way, ¹⁴make it as sure as ye can. So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, the guard being with them.

28 NOW late on the sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.
 2 And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it.
 3 His appearance was as lightning, and
 4 his raiment white as snow: and for fear of him the watchers did quake, and became as dead men. And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which hath been crucified. He is not here; for he is risen, even as he said. Come, see the place ¹where the Lord
 7 lay. And go quickly, and tell his disciples, He is risen from the dead; and lo, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told 8 you. And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and 9 ran to bring his disciples word. And behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and took hold of his 10 feet, and worshipped him. Then saith Jesus unto them, Fear not: go tell my brethren that they depart into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

Now while they were going, behold, 11 some of the guard came into the city, and told unto the chief priests all the things that were come to pass. And 12 when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, saying, 13 Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. And if 14 this ²come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and rid you of care. So they took the money, and did as they 15 were taught: and this saying was spread abroad among the Jews, and continueth until this day.

But the eleven disciples went into 16 Galilee, unto the mountain where Jesus had appointed them. And when they 17 saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came to them and 18 spake unto them, saying, All authority hath been given unto me in heaven and on earth. Go ye therefore, and make 19 disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost: teach- 20 ing them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and lo, I am with you ³alway, even unto ⁴the end of the world.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. MARK

1 THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, ⁵the Son of God.
 2 Even as it is written ⁶in Isaiah the prophet,
 Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,
 Who shall prepare thy way;
 3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
 Make ye ready the way of the Lord,
 Make his paths straight;
 4 John came, who baptized in the wilderness and preached the baptism of repentance unto remission of sins. And 5 there went out unto him all the country of Judæa, and all they of Jerusalem; and they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. And John 6 was clothed with camel's hair, and had a leathern girdle about his loins, and did eat locusts and wild honey. And he 7 preached, saying, There cometh after me he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not ⁷worthy to 9 And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John ³in the Jordan.

10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens rent asunder, and the Spirit as a dove descending upon him: and a voice came out of the heavens, Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am well pleased.

12 And straightway the Spirit driveth him forth into the wilderness. And he was in the wilderness forty days tempted of Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

14 Now after that John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe in the gospel.

16 And passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net in the sea:

17 for they were fishers. And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway they left the nets, and followed him. And going on a little further, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending the nets. And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 And they go into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue and taught.

22 And they were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as having authority,

23 and not as the scribes. And straightway there was in their synagogue a man with

24 an unclean spirit; and he cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God. And Jesus rebuked ⁴him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And the unclean ²⁶spirit, ⁵tearing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. And they ²⁷were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What is this? a new teaching! with authority he commandeth even the unclean spirits, and they obey him. And ²⁸the report of him went out straightway everywhere into all the region of Galilee round about.

And straightway, ⁶when they were ²⁹come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's ³⁰wife's mother lay sick of a fever; and straightway they tell him of her: and he ³¹came and took her by the hand, and raised her up; and the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

And at even, when the sun did set, ³²they brought unto him all that were sick, and them that were ⁷possessed with devils. And all the city was gathered ³³together at the door. And he healed ³⁴many that were sick with divers diseases, and cast out many ⁸devils; and he suffered not the ⁸devils to speak, because they knew him⁹.

And in the morning, a great while ³⁵before day, he rose up and went out, and departed into a desert place, and there prayed. And Simon and they that were ³⁶with him followed after him; and they ³⁷found him, and say unto him, All are seeking thee. And he saith unto them, ³⁸Let us go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also; for to this end came I forth. And he went into ³⁹their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out ⁸devils.

And there cometh to him a leper, be- ⁴⁰seeching him, ¹⁰and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And being ⁴¹moved with compassion, he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou made

 44 straightway sent him out, and saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testi-
 45 mony unto them. But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to spread abroad the ²matter, insomuch that ³Jesus could no more openly enter into ⁴a city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

2 AND when he entered again into Capernaum after some days, it was 2 noised that he was ⁵in the house. And many were gathered together, so that there was no longer room for them, no, not even about the door: and he spake
 3 the word unto them. And they come, bringing unto him a man sick of the 4 palsy, borne of four. And when they could not ⁶come nigh unto him for the crowd, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed whereon the 5 sick of the palsy lay. And Jesus seeing their faith saith unto the sick of the 6 palsy, ⁷Son, thy sins are forgiven. But there were certain of the scribes sitting
 7 there, and reasoning in their hearts, Why doth this man thus speak? he blasphemeth: who can forgive sins but one, even
 8 God? And straightway Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, saith unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?
 9 Whether is easier, to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins are forgiven; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and 10 walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath ⁸power on earth to forgive sins (he saith to the sick of the 11 palsy), I say unto thee, Arise, take up 12 thy bed, and go unto thy house. And he arose, and straightway took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

And he went forth again by the sea ¹³side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. And as he ¹⁴passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the place of toll, and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him. And it came ¹⁵to pass, that he was sitting at meat in his house, and many ⁹publicans and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. And the scribes ¹⁰of the Pharisees, ¹⁶when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and publicans, said unto his disciples, ¹¹He eateth ¹²and drinketh with publicans and sinners. And when Jesus ¹⁷heard it, he saith unto them, They that are ¹³whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

And John's disciples and the Phari- ¹⁸sees were fasting: and they come and say unto him, Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? And Jesus said ¹⁹unto them, Can the sons of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. But the days will come, when the bride- ²⁰groom shall be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day. No ²¹man seweth a piece of undressed cloth on an old garment: else that which should fill it up taketh from it, the new from the old, and a worse rent is made.  26 they that were with him? How he entered into the house of God ¹when Abiathar was high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which it is not lawful to eat save for the priests, and gave also to 27 them that were with him? And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for 28 man, and not man for the sabbath: so that the Son of man is lord even of the sabbath.

3 AND he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there
 2 which had his hand withered. And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might
 3 accuse him. And he saith unto the man that had his hand withered, ²Stand forth.
 4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful on the sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to kill? But they
 5 held their peace. And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their heart, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it
 6 forth: and his hand was restored. And the Pharisees went out, and straightway with the Herodians took counsel against him, how they might destroy him.
 7 And Jesus with his disciples withdrew to the sea: and a great multitude from 8 Galilee followed: and from Judæa, and from Jerusalem, and from Idumæa, and beyond Jordan, and about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, hearing ³what
 9 great things he did, came unto him. And he spake to his disciples, that a little boat should wait on him because of the crowd, 10 lest they should throng him: for he had healed many; insomuch that as many as had ⁴plagues ⁵pressed upon him that 11 they might touch him. And the unclean spirits, whensoever they beheld him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God. And he ¹²charged them much that they should not make him known.

And he goeth up into the mountain, and ¹³calleth unto him whom he himself would: and they went unto him. And he appointed twelve, ⁶that they might be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach, and to have authority to cast ¹⁵out ⁷devils: ⁸and Simon he surnamed ¹⁶Peter; and James the son of Zebedee, and ¹⁷John the brother of James; and them he surnamed Boanerges, which is, Sons of thunder: and Andrew, and Philip, ¹⁸and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphæus, and Thaddæus, and Simon the ⁹Cananæan, and Judas Iscariot, which also ¹⁹betrayed him.

And he cometh ¹⁰into a house. And ²⁰the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. And when his friends heard it, they went ²¹out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself. And the scribes which ²²came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and, ¹¹By the prince of the ⁷devils casteth he out the ⁷devils. And ²³he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan? And if a kingdom be divided ²⁴against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house be divided against itself, ²⁵that house will not be able to stand. And ²⁶if Satan hath risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. But no one can enter into the ²⁷house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house. 31 And there come his mother and his brethren; and, standing without, they sent unto him, calling him. And a multitude was sitting about him; and they say unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

33 And he answereth them, and saith, Who is my mother and my brethren? And looking round on them which sat round about him, he saith, Behold, my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

4 AND again he began to teach by the sea side. And there is gathered unto him a very great multitude, so that he entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and all the multitude were by the sea on the land. And he taught them many things in parables, and said unto them in his teaching, Hearken: Behold, the sower went forth to sow: and it came to pass, as he sowed, some seed fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured it. And other fell on the rocky ground, where it had not much earth; and straightway it sprang up, because it had no deepness of earth: and when the sun was risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And other fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. And others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing; and brought forth, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold. And he said, Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parables. And he said unto them, Unto you is given the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all things are done in parables: that seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest haply they should turn again, and it should be forgiven them. And he saith unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how shall ye know all the parables? The sower soweth the word. And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; and when they have heard, straightway cometh Satan, and taketh away the word which hath been sown in them. And these in like manner are they that are sown upon the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, straightway receive it with joy; and they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway they stumble. And others are they that are sown among the thorns; these are they that have heard the word, and the cares of the world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. And those are they that were sown upon the good ground; such as hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold.

And he said unto them, Is the lamp brought to be put under the bushel, or under the bed, and not to be put on the stand? For there is nothing hid, save that it should be manifested; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light. If any man hath ears to hear, let him hear. And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete it shall be measured unto you: and more shall be given unto you. For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath.

And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed upon the earth; and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he knoweth not how. The earth beareth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, then the full corn in the ear. But when the fruit is ripe, straightway he putteth forth the sickle, because the harvest is come.

And he said, How shall we liken the 30

kingdom of God? or in what parable shall we set it forth? ¹It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown upon the earth, though it be less than all the seeds that are upon the earth, yet when it is sown, groweth up, and becometh greater than all the herbs, and putteth out great branches; so that the birds of the heaven can lodge under the shadow thereof.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it: and without a parable spake he not unto them: but privately to his own disciples he expounded all things.

35 And on that day, when even was come, he saith unto them, I et us go over unto the other side. And leaving the multitude, they take him with them, even as he was, in the boat. And other boats were with him. And there ariseth a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, insomuch that the boat was now filling. And he himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion: and they awake him, and say unto him, ²Master, carest thou not that we perish? 39 And he awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. And he said unto them, Why are ye fearful? have ye not yet faith? And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

5 AND they came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes. And when he was come out of the boat, straightway there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, who had his dwelling in the tombs: and no man could any more bind him, no, not with a chain; because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been rent asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: and no man had strength to tame him. 5 And always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. And when he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and worshipped him; and crying out with a loud voice, he saith, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I adjure thee by God, torment me not. For he said unto him, 8 Come forth, thou unclean spirit, out of the man. And he asked him, What is thy name? And he saith unto him, My name is Legion; for we are many. And 10 he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country. Now there was there on the mountain ¹¹side a great herd of swine feeding. And 12 they besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them. And he gave them leave. And the unclean spirits came out, and entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into the sea, in number about two thousand; and they were choked in the sea. And they that fed them fled, and 14 told it in the city, and in the country. And they came to see what it was that had come to pass. And they came to 15 Jesus, and behold ³him that was possessed with devils sitting, clothed and in his right mind, even him that had the legion: and they were afraid. And they 16 that saw it declared unto them how it befell ³him that was possessed with devils, and concerning the swine. And 17 they began to beseech him to depart from their borders. And as he was 18 entering into the boat, he that had been possessed with ⁴devils besought him that he might be with him. And he 19 suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go to thy house unto thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and how he had mercy on thee. And he went his way, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

And when Jesus had crossed over ²¹again in the boat unto the other side, a great multitude was gathered unto him: and he was by the sea. And there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and seeing him, he falleth at his feet, and beseecheth him much, 23

saying, My little daughter is at the point of death: I pray thee, that thou come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be 24 'made whole, and live. And he went with him; and a great multitude followed him, and they thronged him.

25 And a woman, which had an issue of 26 blood twelve years, and had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, 27 having heard the things concerning Jesus, came in the crowd behind, and 28 touched his garment. For she said, If I touch but his garments, I shall be 'made 29 whole. And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her 30 'plague. And straightway Jesus, perceiving in himself that the power proceeding from him had gone forth, turned him about in the crowd, and said, Who 31 touched my garments? And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest 32 thou, Who touched me? And he looked round about to see her that had done 33 this thing. But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, 34 and told him all the truth. And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath 'made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy 'plague.

35 While he yet spake, they come from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest
36 thou the 'Master any further? But Jesus, 'not heeding the word spoken, saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Fear not,
37 only believe. And he suffered no man to follow with him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.
38 And they come to the house of the ruler of the synagogue; and he beholdeth a tumult, and many weeping and wailing 39 greatly. And when he was entered in, he saith unto them, Why make ye a tumult, and weep? the child is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to 40 scorn. But he, having put them all forth, taketh the father of the child and her mother and them that were with him, and goeth in where the child was. And 41 taking the child by the hand, he saith unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, Arise. And straightway the damsel rose 42 up, and walked; for she was twelve years old. And they were amazed straightway with a great amazement. And he charged 43 them much that no man should know this: and he commanded that something should be given her to eat.

6 AND he went out from thence; and he cometh into his own country; and his disciples follow him. And when the 2 sabbath was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and 'many hearing him were astonished, saying, Whence hath this man these things? and, What is the wisdom that is given unto this man, and what mean such 'mighty works wrought by his hands? Is not this the carpenter, 3 the son of Mary, and brother of James, and Joses, and Judas, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were 'offended in him. And Jesus 4 said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house. And he could there do no 'mighty work, 5 save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them. And he mar- 6 velled because of their unbelief.

And he went round about the villages teaching.

And he called unto him the twelve, 7 and began to send them forth by two and two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits; and he charged 8 them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no bread, no wallet, no 'money in their 'purse; but to go shod with sandals: and, said he, 9 put not on two coats. And he said unto 10 them, Wheresoever ye enter into a house, there abide till ye depart thence. And 11

12 And they went out, and preached that
13 men should repent. And they cast out many ¹devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 And king Herod heard thereof; for his name had become known: and ²he said, John ³the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore do these powers work in

15 him. But others said, It is Elijah. And others said, It is a prophet, even as one 16 of the prophets. But Herod, when he heard thereof, said, John, whom I be-

17 headed, he is risen. For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife: for 18 he had married her. For John said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have

19 thy brother's wife. And Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill
20 him; and she could not; for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous man and a holy, and kept him safe. And when he heard him, he ⁴was

21 much perplexed; and he heard him gladly. And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday made a supper to his lords, and the ⁵high cap-

22 tains, and the chief men of Galilee; and when ⁶the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, ⁷she pleased Herod and them that sat at meat with him; and the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give

23 it thee. And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went out, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, 25 The head of John ⁸the Baptist. And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou forthwith give me in a charger the head

26 of John the Baptist. And the king was exceeding sorry; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them that sat at meat, he would not reject her. And straightway ⁹27 the king sent forth a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring his head: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, and brought his head in a charger, and ¹⁰28 gave it to the damsel; and the damsel gave it to her mother. And when his disciples heard thereof, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

And the apostles gather themselves ¹¹30 together unto Jesus; and they told him all things, whatsoever they had done, and whatsoever they had taught. And ¹²31 he saith unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while. For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat. And they went away in the boat to ¹³32 a desert place apart. And the people saw ¹⁴33 them going, and many knew them, and they ran there together ¹⁵on foot from all the cities, and outwent them. And he came forth and saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things. And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, The place is desert, and the day is now far spent: send them away, that ¹⁶36 they may go into the country and villages round about, and buy themselves somewhat to eat. But he answered and ¹⁷37 said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred ¹⁸pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat? And he saith unto 38 them, How many loaves have ye? go and sec. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes. And he com-

39 manded them that all should ¹⁹sit down by companies upon the green grass. And

40 they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties. And he took the five loaves ²⁰41 and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake the loaves; and he gave to the disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he

43 were filled. And they took up broken pieces, twelve basketfuls, and also of the 44 fishes. And they that ate the loaves were five thousand men.

45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side to Bethsaida, while he himself sendeth the mul-46 titude away. And after he had taken leave of them, he departed into the 47 mountain to pray. And when even was come, the boat was in the midst of the 48 sea, and he alone on the land. And seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary unto them, about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking on the sea; and he 49 would have passed by them: but they,
when they saw him walking on the sea,
supposed that it was an apparition, and 50 cried out: for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he straightway spake with them, and saith unto them, Be of 51 good cheer: it is I; be not afraid. And he went up unto them into the boat;
and the wind ceased: and they were sore 52 amazed in themselves; for they understood not concerning the loaves, but their heart was hardened.

53 And when they had ¹crossed over,
they came to the land unto Gennesaret, 54 and moored to the shore. And when they were come out of the boat, straight-55 way the people knew him, and ran round about that whole region, and began to carry about on their beds those that were 56 sick, where they heard he was. And wheresoever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched ²him were made whole.

7 AND there are gathered together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which had come from 2 Jerusalem, and had seen that some of his disciples ate their bread with ³defiled, that is, unwashen, hands. For the Phari- 3 sees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands ⁴diligently, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders: and when they 4

come from the marketplace, except they ⁵wash themselves, they eat not: and many other things there be, which they have received to hold, ⁶washings of cups, and pots, and brasen vessels⁷. And the 5 Pharisees and the scribes ask him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with ³defiled hands? And he said 6 unto them, Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written,

lips,

But their heart is far from me.

But in vain do they worship me, 7

Ye leave the commandment of God, and 8
hold fast the tradition of men. And he 9 said unto them, Full well do ye reject
the commandment of God, that ye may keep your tradition. For Moses said, 10 Honour thy father and thy mother; and,
He that speaketh evil of father or mother, let him ⁸die the death: but ye say, 11
If a man shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest
have been profited by me is Corban,
that is to say, Given to God; ye no longer 12 suffer him to do aught for his father or his mother; making void the word of 13 God by your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things ye
do. And he called to him the multitude 14
again, and said unto them, Hear me all of you, and understand: there is no 15
thing from without the man, that going into him can defile him: but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man.⁹ And when he was 17 entered into the house from the multitude, his disciples asked of him the parable. And he saith unto them, Are ye so 18

 24 And from thence he arose, and went away into the borders of Tyre ²and Sidon.
 And he entered into a house, and would have no man know it: and he could not 25 be hid. But straightway a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit,
 having heard of him, came and fell down
 26 at his feet. Now the woman was a ³Greek, a Syrophenician by race. And she besought him that he would cast 27 forth the ⁴devil out of her daughter. And he said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's ⁵bread and cast it to the dogs.
 28 But she answered and saith unto him,
 Yea, Lord: even the dogs under the 29 table eat of the children's crumbs. And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the ⁶devil is gone out of thy daugh-30 ter. And she went away unto her house, and found the child laid upon the bed,
 and the ⁷devil gone out.
 31 And again he went out from the borders of Tyre, and came through Sidon unto the sea of Galilee, through the 32 midst of the borders of Decapolis. And they bring unto him one that was deaf,
 and had an impediment in his speech;
 and they beseech him to lay his hand 33 upon him. And he took him aside from the multitude privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and 34 touched his tongue; and looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, 35 Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. And his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

 And he charged them that they should ³⁶
 tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal
 they published it. And they were be-37 yond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh
 even the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

8 IN those days, when there was again
 a great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, I have ² compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days,
 and have nothing to eat: and if I send ³ them away fasting to their home, they will faint in the way; and some of them are come from far. And his disciples ⁴ answered him, Whence shall one be able to fill these men with ⁵bread here in a desert place? And he asked them, How ⁵ many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. And he commandeth the multi- ⁶
 tude to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he brake, and gave to his disciples, to set before them; and they set them before the multitude. And they ⁷ had a few small fishes: and having blessed them, he commanded to set these also before them. And they did ⁸ eat, and were filled: and they took up,
 of broken pieces that remained over,
 seven baskets. And they were about ⁹
 four thousand: and he sent them away.
 And straightway he entered into the boat ¹⁰
 with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

And the Pharisees came forth, and ¹¹
 began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

 16 And they reasoned one with another,
 17 ¹saying, ²We have no bread. And Jesus perceiving it saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? do ye not yet perceive, neither understand?
 18 have ye your heart hardened? Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember? When I brake the five loaves among the five thousand, how many ³baskets full of broken pieces took ye up? They say unto 20 him, Twelve. And when the seven among the four thousand, how many ³basketfuls of broken pieces took ye up?

 22 And they come unto Bethsaida. And they bring to him a blind man, and beseech him to touch him. And he took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village; and when he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands upon him, he asked him, Seest
 24 thou aught? And he looked up, and said, I see men; for I behold them as trees, walking. Then again he laid his hands upon his eyes; and he looked stedfastly, and was restored, and saw all 26 things clearly. And he sent him away to his home, saying, Do not even enter into the village.
 27 And Jesus went forth, and his disciples, into the villages of Cæsarea Philippi: and in the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Who do men say that 28 I am? And they told him, saying, John the Baptist: and others, Elijah; but 29 others, One of the prophets. And he asked them, But who say ye that I am? Peter answereth and saith unto him, 30 Thou art the Christ. And he charged them that they should tell no man of 31 him. And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. And he spake the saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him. But he turning about, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, and saith, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men. And he called unto him the multitude with his disciples, and said unto them, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever would save his ⁴life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his ⁴life for my sake and the gospel's shall save it. For what doth it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his ⁴life? For what should a man give in exchange for his ⁴life? For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of man also shall be ashamed of him, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with 9 the holy angels. And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There be some here of them that stand by, which shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God come with power.

And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them: and his garments became glistering, exceeding white; so as no fuller on earth can whiten them. And there appeared unto them Elijah with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus. And Peter answereth and saith to Jesus, Rabbi, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three ⁵tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. For he wist not what to answer; but for they became sore afraid. And there came a cloud overshadowing them: and there came a voice out of the cloud, This is my beloved Son: hear ye him. And suddenly looking round about, they saw no one any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 And as they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, save when the Son of man should have risen again from the dead. And they kept the saying, questioning among themselves what the rising again from the dead should mean. And they asked him, saying, ¹The scribes say that Elijah must first come. And he said unto them, Elijah indeed cometh first, and restoreth all things: and how is it written of the Son of man, that he should suffer many things and be set at nought?  hands to go into ⁴hell, into the unquench-45 able fire.⁵ And if thy foot cause thee to stumble, cut it off: it is good for thee to enter into life halt, rather than having 47 thy two feet to be cast into ⁴hell. And if thine eye cause thee to stumble, cast
 it out: it is good for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into 48 ⁴hell; where their worm dieth not, and 49 the fire is not quenched. For every one

 but if the salt have lost its saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace one with another.

10 AND he arose from thence, and cometh into the borders of Judæa
 and beyond Jordan: and multitudes come together unto him again; and, as 2 he was wont, he taught them again. And there came unto him Pharisees, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away 3 his wife? tempting him. And he answered and said unto them, What did 4 Moses command you? And they said,
 Moses suffered to write a bill of divorce-
 5 ment, and to put her away. But Jesus said unto them, For your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment.
 6 But from the beginning of the creation,
 7 Male and female made he them. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, ⁷and shall cleave to his wife;
 8 and the twain shall become one flesh: so that they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined 9 together, let not man put asunder. And 10

 in the house the disciples asked him again of this matter. And he saith unto 11 them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth
 adultery against her: and if she herself 12
 shall put away her husband, and marry
 another, she committeth adultery.

And they brought unto him little chil- 13
 dren, that he should touch them: and the disciples rebuked them. But when 14
 Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them
 not: for of such is the kingdom of God.
 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall 15
 not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein. And he took them in his arms, 16 and blessed them, laying his hands upon
 them.

And as he was going forth ⁸into the 17
 way, there ran one to him, and kneeled
 to him, and asked him, Good ⁹Master,
 what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? And Jesus said unto him, Why call- 18 est thou me good? none is good save one, even God. Thou knowest the com- 19
 mandments, Do not kill, Do not commit adultery. Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honour thy father and mother. And he said unto 20 him, ⁹Master, all these things have I observed from my youth. And Jesus 21
 looking upon him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. But 22 his countenance fell at the saying, and he went away sorrowful: for he was one that had great possessions.

And Jesus looked round about, and 23
 saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! And the disciples were 24

amazed at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it ¹for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter 26 into the kingdom of God. And they were astonished exceedingly, saying ²unto him, Then who can be saved? Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for all things are possible with God. Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee. Jesus said, 29 Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or lands, for my sake, and for the gospel's 30 sake, but he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the 31 ³world to come eternal life. But many that are first shall be last; and the last first. 32 And they were in the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going before them: and they were amazed; ⁴and they that followed were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were to happen 33 unto him, saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him unto the 34 Gentiles: and they shall mock him, and shall spit upon him, and shall scourge him, and shall kill him; and after three days he shall rise again. 35 And there come near unto him James and John, the sons of Zebedee, saying unto him, ⁵Master, we would that thou shouldst do for us whatsoever we shall 36 ask of thee. And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you? 37 And they said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, in thy glory. 38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink the cup that I drink? or to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? And they said unto him, We are able. 39 And Jesus said unto them, The cup that I drink ye shall drink; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized: but to sit on my right 40 hand or on my left hand is not mine to give: but it is for them for whom it hath been prepared. And when the ten heard 41 it, they began to be moved with indignation concerning James and John. And 42 Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles lord it over them; and their great ones exercise authority over them. But it is not so 43 among you: but whosoever would become great among you, shall be your ⁶minister: and whosoever would be first 44 among you, shall be ⁷servant of all. For 45 verily the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

And they come to Jericho: and as he 46 went out from Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timæus, Bartimæus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the way side. And when he heard 47 that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me. And many 48 rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stood still, and said, Call 49 ye him. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good cheer: rise, he calleth thee. And he, casting away 50 his garment, sprang up, and came to Jesus. And Jesus answered him, and 51 said, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And the blind man said unto him, Rabboni, that I may receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Go thy 52 way; thy faith hath ⁸made thee whole. And straightway he received his sight, and followed him in the way.

11 AND when they draw nigh unto Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he
 2 sendeth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go your way into the village that is over against you: and straightway as ye enter into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat; loose
 3 him, and bring him. And if any one say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye, The Lord hath need of him; and straightway
 4 he ¹will send him ²back hither. And they went away, and found a colt tied at the door without in the open street;
 5 and they loose him. And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What 6 do ye, loosing the colt? And they said unto them even as Jesus had said: and 7 they let them go. And they bring the colt unto Jesus, and cast on him their 8 garments; and he sat upon him. And many spread their garments upon the way; and others ³branches, which they 9 had cut from the fields. And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh
 10 in the name of the Lord: Blessed is the kingdom that cometh, the kingdom of our father David: Hosanna in the highest.
 11 And he entered into Jerusalem, into the temple; and when he had looked round about upon all things, it being now eventide, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.
 12 And on the morrow, when they were come out from Bethany, he hungered.
 13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season of figs. And he answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And his disciples heard it.
 15 And they come to Jerusalem: and he entered into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and them that bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold the doves; and he would not suffer that any man should carry a vessel through the temple. And he taught, and said unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations? but ye have made it a den of robbers. And the chief priests and the scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, for all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

And ⁴every evening ⁵he went forth out of the city.

And as they passed by in the morning, 20 they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots. And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Rabbi, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away. And Jesus answering 22 saith unto them, Have faith in God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall 23 say unto this mountain, Be thou taken up and cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that what he saith cometh to pass; he shall have it. Therefore I say unto you, All 24 things whatsoever ye pray and ask for, believe that ye have received them, and ye shall have them. And whosoever ye 25 stand praying, forgive, if ye have aught against any one; that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.⁶

And they come again to Jerusalem: 27 and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders; and they said 28 unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? or who gave thee this authority to do these things? And Jesus 29 said unto them, I will ask of you one ⁷question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, was it 30 from heaven, or from men? answer me. And they reasoned with themselves, say- 31 ing, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

33 John to be a prophet. And they answered Jesus and say, We know not. And Jesus saith unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

12 AND he began to speak unto them in parables. A man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a pit for the winepress, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country. And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a ³servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruits of the vineyard. And they took him, and beat him, and sent him away empty. And again he sent unto them another ³servant; and him they wounded in the head, and handled shamefully. And he sent another; and him they killed: and many others; beating some, and killing some. He had yet one, a beloved son: he sent him last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son. But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. And they took him, and killed him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. Have ye not read even this scripture;

The stone which the builders rejected,
The same was made the head of the corner:

11 This was from the Lord,
And it is marvellous in our eyes?
12 And they sought to lay hold on him; and they feared the multitude; for they perceived that he spake the parable against them: and they left him, and went away.
13 And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, that they might catch him in talk. And when they were come, they say unto him, ⁴Master, we know that thou art true, and carest not for any one: for thou regardest not the person of men, but of a truth teachest the way of God: Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not? Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a ⁵penny, that I may see it. And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cæsar's. And Jesus said unto them, Render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's. And they marvelled greatly at him.

And there come unto him Sadducees, 18 which say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, ⁶Master, 19 Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave a wife behind him, and leave no child, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. There were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed; and the second took her, and died, leaving no seed behind him; and the third likewise: and the seven left no seed. Last of all the woman also died. In the resurrection whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife. Jesus said unto them, Is it not for this cause that ye err, that ye know not the scriptures, nor the power of God? For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as angels in heaven. But as touching the dead, that they are raised; have ye not read in the book of Moses, in the place concerning the Bush, how God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living: ye do greatly err.

- 36 David himself said in the Holy Spirit, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies ³the footstool of thy feet.
- 37 David himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he his son? And ⁴the common people heard him gladly.

And as he sat on the mount of Olives ³over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, Tell us, when shall these things ⁴be? and what shall be the sign when these things are all about to be accomplished? And when ⁷ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be not troubled: these things must needs come to pass; but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, ⁸and kingdom against kingdom: there shall be earthquakes in divers places; there shall be famines: these things are the beginning of travail.

But take ye heed to yourselves: for ⁹they shall deliver you up to councils; and in synagogues shall ye be beaten; and before governors and kings shall ye stand for my sake, for a testimony unto them. And the gospel must first be ¹⁰preached unto all the nations. But woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! And pray ye that it be not in the winter. For those days shall be tribulation, such as there hath not been the like from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never shall be. And except the Lord had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he chose, he shortened the days. And then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ; or, Lo, there; believe ¹it not: for there shall arise false Christs and false prophets, and shall shew signs and wonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, the elect. But take ye heed: behold, I have told you all things beforehand.

But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall be falling from heaven, and the powers that are in the heavens shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in clouds with great power and glory. And then shall he send forth the angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, until all these things be accomplished. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. But of that day or that hour knoweth no one, not even the angels in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father. Take ye heed, watch ³and pray: for ye know not when the time is. It is as when a man, sojourning in another country, having left his house, and given authority to his ⁴servants, to each one his work, commanded also the porter to watch. Watch therefore: for ye know not when the lord of the house cometh, whether at even, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning; lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping. And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

But Jesus said, Let her ⁶alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me. For ye ⁷have the poor always with you, and whensoever ye will ye can do them good: but me ye have not always. And Jesus saith unto them, All ye 27 shall be ⁷offended: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered abroad. Howbeit, after 28 I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee. But Peter said unto him, Al- 29 though all shall be ⁷offended, yet will not I. And they come unto ⁸a place which 32 was named Gethsemane: and he saith unto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I pray. And he taketh with him Peter and 33 James and John, and began to be greatly amazed, and sore troubled. And he saith 34 unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death: abide ye here, and watch. And he went forward a little, and 35 fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him. And he said, Abba, Father, 36 all things are possible unto thee; remove this cup from me: howbeit not what I will, but what thou wilt. And he com- 37 eth, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldst thou not watch one hour? ⁹Watch 38 and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. And again he went away, 39 and prayed, saying the same words. And 40 again he came, and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy; and they wist not what to answer him. And he 41 cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough; the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. Now he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he; take him, and lead him away safely. And when he was come, straightway he came to him, and saith, Rabbi; and 'kissed him. And they laid hands on him, and took him. But a certain one of them that stood by drew his sword, and smote the ²servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a robber, with swords and staves to seize me? I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but this is done that the scriptures might be fulfilled. And they all left him, and fled. And a certain young man followed with him, having a linen cloth cast about him, over his naked body: and they lay hold on him; but he left the linen cloth, and fled naked. And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and there come together with him all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes. And Peter had followed him afar off, even within, into the court of the high priest; and he was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire. Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found it not. For many bare false witness against him, and their witness agreed not together. And there stood up certain, and bare false witness against him, saying, We heard him say, I will destroy this ³temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands. And not even so did their witness agree together. And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and saith unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming with the clouds of heaven. And the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What further need have we of witnesses? Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be ⁴worthy of death. And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophecy: and the officers received him with ⁵blows of their hands.

And as Peter was beneath in the court, 66 there cometh one of the maids of the high priest; and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and saith, Thou also wast with the Nazarene, even Jesus. But he denied, saying, ⁶I neither know, nor understand what thou sayest: and he went out into the ⁷porch; ⁸and the cock crew. And the maid saw him, and began again to say to them that stood by, This is one of them. But he again denied it. And after a little while again they that stood by said to Peter, Of a truth thou art one of them; for thou art a Galilæan. But he began to curse, and to swear, I know not this man of whom ye speak. And straightway the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word, how that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. ⁹And when he thought thereon, he wept.

15 AND straightway in the morning the chief priests with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him up to Pilate. And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering saith unto him, Thou sayest. And the chief priests accused him of ³many things. And Pilate again asked him, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they accuse

- 6 Now at ¹the feast he used to release unto them one prisoner, whom they

- 8 And the multitude went up and began to ask him to do as he was wont to do

- 13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.
- 14 And Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out
- 15 exceedingly, Crucify him. And Pilate, wishing to content the multitude, released unto them Barabbas, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

- 17 they call together the whole ³band. And they clothe him with purple, and plaiting a crown of thorns, they put it on

- 19 And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the purple, and put on him his garments. And they lead him out to crucify him.
- 20 And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the purple, and put on him his garments. And they lead him out to crucify him.
- 21 And they ⁴compel one passing by, Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, that he might bear his cross.
- 22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull. And they offered him ⁵wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not. And they crucify him, and ⁶part his garments among them, casting lots upon them, what each should take. And it was the third hour, and they ⁷crucified him. And the superscription ⁸of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS. And with him they ⁹crucify two robbers; one on his right hand, and one on his left.⁵ And they ¹⁰that passed by railled on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Hal thou that destroyest the ¹¹temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself, and come down ¹²from the cross. In like manner also the ¹³chief priests mocking him among themselves with the scribes said, He saved others; ¹⁴himself he cannot save. Let the ¹⁵Christ, the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reproached him.

And when the sixth hour was come, ¹⁶there was darkness over the whole ¹⁷land until the ninth hour. And at the ninth ¹⁸hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, ¹⁹why hast thou forsaken me? And Jesus ²³uttered a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. And the veil of the ²⁴temple was ²⁵rent in twain from the top to the bottom. - 42 And when even was now come, because it was the Preparation, that is, 43 the day before the sabbath, there came Joseph of Arimathæa, a councillor of honourable estate, who also himself was looking for the kingdom of God; and he boldly went in unto Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. And Pilate marvelled 44 if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether 45 he had been any while dead. And when he learned it of the centurion, he granted 46 the corpse to Joseph. And he bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of a rock; and he rolled a stone against the 47 door of the tomb. And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

- 16 AND when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint 2 him. And very early on the first day of the week, they come to the tomb when 3 the sun was risen. And they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us 4 away the stone from the door of the tomb? and looking up, they see that the stone is rolled back: for it was exceeding 5 great. And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, arrayed in a white robe; and they 6 were amazed. And he saith unto them, Be not amazed: ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, which hath been crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold, the place 7 where they laid him! But go, tell his disciples and Peter, He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as 8 he said unto you. And they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them: and they said nothing to any one; for they were afraid.

²Now when he was risen early on the 9 first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven ³devils. She went and 10 told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept. And they, when 11 they heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, disbelieved.

And after these things he was manifested in another form unto two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country. And they went away and told it 13 unto the rest: neither believed they them.

And afterward he was manifested unto 14 the eleven themselves as they sat at meat; and he upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said 15 unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation. He that believeth and is baptized shall be 16 saved; but he that disbelieveth shall be condemned. And these signs shall 17 follow them that believe: in my name shall they cast out ³devils; they shall speak with ⁴new tongues; they shall take 18 up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall in no wise hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

So then the Lord Jesus, after he had 19 spoken unto them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went forth, and 20 preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

1 FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to draw up a narrative concerning those matters which have been
2 'fulfilled among us, even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word, it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus; that thou mightest know the certainty concerning the ²things ³wherein thou wast instructed.

5 THERE was in the days of Herod, king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abijah; and he had a wife of the daughters of Aaron,
6 and her name was Elisabeth. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now ⁴well stricken in years.
8 Now it came to pass, while he executed the priest's office before God in 9 the order of his course, according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the ⁵temple of the Lord and burn incense. And the whole multitude of the people were praying without 11 at the hour of incense. And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of 12 incense. And Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him.
13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: because thy supplication is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name
14 John. And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

For he shall be great in the sight of the 15 Lord, and he shall drink no wine nor ⁶strong drink; and he shall be filled with the ⁷Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb. And many of the children of 16 Israel shall he turn unto the Lord their God. And he shall ⁸go before his face 17 in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to walk in the wisdom of the just; to make ready for the Lord a people prepared for him. And 18 Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife ⁹well stricken in years. And 19 the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and I was sent to speak unto thee, and to bring thee these good tidings. And behold, thou shalt be silent and not 20 able to speak, until the day that these things shall come to pass, because thou believedst not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season. And the people 21 were waiting for Zacharias, and they marvelled ¹⁰while he tarried in the ⁵temple. And when he came out, he could not 22 speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the ⁵temple: and he continued making signs unto them, and remained dumb. And it came 23 to pass, when the days of his ministration were fulfilled, he departed unto his house.

And after these days Elisabeth his 24 wife conceived; and she hid herself five months, saying, Thus hath the Lord 25 done unto me in the days wherein he looked upon me, to take away my reproach among men.

Now in the sixth month the angel 26 Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin 27

But she was greatly troubled at the saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this might be. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found ³favour with God. And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob ⁴for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. And Mary said unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow thee: wherefore also ⁵that which ⁶is to be born ⁷shall be called holy, the Son of God. And behold, Elisabeth thy kinswoman, she also hath conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her that ⁸was called barren. For no word from God shall be void of power. And Mary said, Behold, the ⁹handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

And Mary arose in these days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah; and entered into the house of Zacharias and saluted Elisabeth. And it came to pass, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost; and she lifted up her voice with a loud cry, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come unto me? For behold, when the voice of thy salutation came into mine ears, the babe leaped in

Now Elisabeth's time was fulfilled that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son. And her neighbours and her kinsfolk heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy towards her; and they rejoiced with her. And it came to pass on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him Zacharias, after the name of his father. And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John. And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. And they made signs to his father,

And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, blessing God. And all that heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, What then shall this child be? For the hand of the Lord was with him.

And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

2 NOW it came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be enrolled. This was the first enrolment made when Quirinius was governor of Syria. And all went to enrol themselves, every one to his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David; to enrol himself with Mary, who was betrothed to him, being great with child. And it came to pass, while they were there, the days were fulfilled that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock. And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people: for there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this is the sign unto you; Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth peace among men in whom he is well pleased.

shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this ¹thing that is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

- 16 And they came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the babe 17 lying in the manger. And when they saw it, they made known concerning the saying which was spoken to them about 18 this child. And all that heard it wondered at the things which were spoken
19 unto them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these ²sayings, pondering them
20 in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken unto them.

- 21 And when eight days were fulfilled for circumcising him, his name was called JESUS, which was so called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

- 22 And when the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be

25 Spirit was upon him. And it had been revealed unto him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death, before he had 26 seen the Lord's Christ. And he came in the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, that they might do concerning him after the 27 custom of the law, then he received him into his arms, and blessed God, and said,

And his father and his mother were mar- 33

them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the falling and rising up of many in Israel; and for a sign which is spoken against; yea and 35
a sword shall pierce through thine own soul; that thoughts out of many hearts may be revealed. And there was one 36 Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was ⁶of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, and 37
she had been a widow even for fourscore and four years), which departed not from the temple, worshipping with fastings and supplications night and day. And 38 coming up at that very hour she gave thanks unto God, and spake of him to all them that were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. And when they 39 had accomplished all things that were according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

And the child grew, and waxed strong, 40

And his parents went every year to 41
Jerusalem at the feast of the passover. And when he was twelve years old, they 42 went up after the custom of the feast; and when they had fulfilled the days, 43
as they were returning, the boy Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and his parents knew it not; but supposing him 44
to be in the company, they went a day's journey; and they sought for him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance: and 45 when they found him not, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking for him. And it 46 came to pass, after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the ⁸doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions: and all that heard 47 him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. And when they saw 48 him, they were astonished: and his mother said unto him, 'Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I sought thee sorrowing. And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be ²in my Father's house? And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them. And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth; and he was subject unto them: and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

And Jesus advanced in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and men.

3 NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judæa, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituræa and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, in the high-priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. And he came into all the region round about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance unto remission of sins; as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

Make ye ready the way of the Lord,
Make his paths straight.

Every valley shall be filled,
And every mountain and hill shall be brought low;

And the crooked shall become straight,
And the rough ways smooth;

And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

He said therefore to the multitudes that went out to be baptized of him, Ye offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. And even now is the axe also laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. And the multitudes asked him, saying, What then must we do? And he answered and said unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath food, let him do likewise. And there came also publicans to be baptized, and they said unto him, Master, what must we do? And he said unto them, Extort no more than that which is appointed you. And soldiers also asked him, saying, And we, what must we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither exact anything wrongfully; and be content with your wages.

And as the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John, whether haply he were the Christ; John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but there cometh he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire: whose fan is in his hand, thoroughly to cleanse his threshing-floor, and to gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire.

With many other exhortations therefore preached he good tidings unto the people; but Herod the tetrarch, being proved by him for Herodias his brother's wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done, added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

Now it came to pass, when all the people were baptized, that, Jesus also having been baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily form, as a dove, upon him, and a voice came out of heaven, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

And he did eat nothing in those days: and when they were completed, he hungered. And the devil said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, command this stone that it become bread. And Jesus answered unto him,

It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone. And he led him up, and shewed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. And the devil said 6 unto him, To thee will I give all this authority, and the glory of them: for it hath been delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it. If thou 7 therefore wilt worship before me, it shall all be thine. And Jesus answered and 8 said unto him, It is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. And he led him 9 to Jerusalem, and set him on the ⁸pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence: for it is written, 10

He shall give his angels charge concerning thee, to guard thee:

and, 11

On their hands they shall bear thee up,

Lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone.

And Jesus answering said unto him, It 12 is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

And when the devil had completed 13 every temptation, he departed from him for a season.

And Jesus returned in the power of 14 the Spirit into Galilee: and a fame went out concerning him through all the region round about. And he taught in their 15 synagogues, being glorified of all.

And he came to Nazareth, where he 16 had been brought up: and he entered, as his custom was, into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up to read. And there was delivered unto him 17 the book of the prophet Isaiah. And he opened the ¹¹book, and found the place where it was written,

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, 18

¹²Because he anointed me to preach

¹³good tidings to the poor:

He hath sent me to proclaim release to the captives,

And recovering of sight to the blind,

To set at liberty them that are bruised,
 19 To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the ¹book, and gave it back to the attendant, and sat down: and the eyes of all in the synagogue were 21 fastened on him. And he began to say unto them, To-day hath this scripture
 22 been fulfilled in your ears. And all bare him witness, and wondered at the words of grace which proceeded out of his mouth: and they said, Is not this Joseph's son? And he said unto them,
 23 Doubtless ye will say unto me this parable, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done at Capernaum, do
 24 also here in thine own country. And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet
 25 is acceptable in his own country. But of a truth I say unto you, There were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years
 26 and six months, when there came a great famine over all the land; and unto none
 27 of them was Elijah sent, but only to ²Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, unto 28 a woman that was a widow. And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them 29 was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian. And they were all filled with wrath in the 30 synagogue, as they heard these things; and they rose up, and cast him forth out of the city, and led him unto the brow
 31 of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might throw him down head-32 long. But he passing through the midst of them went his way.

31 And he came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. And he was teaching
 32 them on the sabbath day: and they were astonished at his teaching; for his word
 33 was with authority. And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean ³devil; and he cried 34 out with a loud voice, 'Ah! what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God. And Jesus rebuked him, saying, 35 Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the ³devil had thrown him down in the midst, he came out of him, having done him no hurt. And amazement came upon all, and they spake together, one with another, saying, What is ⁵this word? for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out. And there went forth a 37 rumour concerning him into every place of the region round about.

And he rose up from the synagogue, 38 and entered into the house of Simon. And Simon's wife's mother was holden with a great fever; and they besought him for her. And he stood over her, and 39 rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she rose up and ministered unto them.

And when the sun was setting, all they 40 that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. And ⁶devils also came out from 41 many, crying out, and saying, Thou art the Son of God. And rebuking them, he suffered them not to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.

And when it was day, he came out and 42 went into a desert place: and the multitudes sought after him, and came unto him, and would have stayed him, that he should not go from them. But he 43 said unto them, I must preach the ⁷good tidings of the kingdom of God to the other cities also: for therefore was I sent.

And he was preaching in the syna- 44 gogues of ⁸Galilee.

5 NOW it came to pass, while the multitude pressed upon him and heard the word of God, that he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret; and 2 he saw two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And he 3 entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the multitudes out of the boat.

 4 And when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Put out into the deep, and 5 let down your nets for a draught. And Simon answered and said, Master, we toiled all night, and took nothing: but
 at thy word I will let down the nets.
 6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes;
 7 and their nets were breaking; and they beckoned unto their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink.
 8 But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart
 from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.
 9 For he was amazed, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which 10 they had taken; and so were also James and John, sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth 11 thou shalt 'catch men. And when they had brought their boats to land, they left all, and followed him.
 12 And it came to pass, while he was in one of the cities; behold, a man full of leprosy: and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make 13 me clean. And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will;
 be thou made clean. And straightway 14 the leprosy departed from him. And he charged him to tell no man: but go thy way, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony un-15 to them. But so much the more went abroad the report concerning him: and great multitudes came together to hear, 16 and to be healed of their infirmities. But he withdrew himself in the deserts, and prayed.
 17 And it came to pass on one of those days, that he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every village of Galilee and Judæa and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was with him ²to heal. And behold, men 18

 bring on a bed a man that was palsied:
 and they sought to bring him in, and to lay him before him. And not finding by 19 what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his couch into the midst
 before Jesus. And seeing their faith, he 20 said, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.
 And the scribes and the Pharisees began 21
 to reason, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone? But Jesus perceiving 22 their reasonings, answered and said unto them, ³What reason ye in your hearts?
 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins are 23
 forgiven thee; or to say, Arise and walk?
 But that ye may know that the Son of 24
 man hath ⁴power on earth to forgive sins (he said unto him that was palsied), I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go unto thy house. And imme- 25 diately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his house, glorifying God. And amaze- 26
 ment took hold on all, and they glorified
 God; and they were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day.

And after these things he went forth, 27
 and beheld a publican, named Levi, sitting at the place of toll, and said unto him, Follow me. And he forsook all, 28 and rose up and followed him. And 29
 Levi made him a great feast in his house:
 and there was a great multitude of publi-cans and of others that were sitting at meat with them. And ⁵the Pharisees and 30 their scribes murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with the publicans and sinners? And 31 Jesus answering said unto them, They
 that are whole have no need of a physician; but they that are sick. I am not 32 come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. And they said unto him, 33
 The disciples of John fast often, and make supplications; likewise also the dis- ciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and

34 drink. And Jesus said unto them, Can ye make the sons of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? 35 But the days will come; and when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, then will they fast in those days. 36 And he spake also a parable unto them; No man rendeth a piece from a new garment and putteth it upon an old garment; else he will rend the new, and also the piece from the new will not agree with the old. 37 And no man putteth new wine into old ¹wine-skins; else the new wine will burst the skins, and itself will be spilled, 38 and the skins will perish. But new wine 39 must be put into fresh wine-skins. And no man having drunk old wine desireth new: for he saith, The old is ²good.

6 NOW it came to pass on a ³sabbath, that he was going through the cornfields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing 2 them in their hands. But certain of the Pharisees said, Why do ye that which it is not lawful to do on the sabbath day? 3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read even this, what David did, when he was an hungred, he, and they 4 that were with him; how he entered into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat save for the priests alone? And he said unto them, The Son of man is lord of the sabbath.

6 And it came to pass on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man there, 7 and his right hand was withered. And the scribes and the Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath; that they might find how to accuse 8 him. But he knew their thoughts; and he said to the man that had his hand withered, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. 9 And Jesus said unto them, I ask you, Is it lawful on the sabbath to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to destroy 10 it? And he looked round about on them all, and said unto him, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored. But they were filled with ¹¹'madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

And it came to pass in these days, that 12 he went out into the mountain to pray; and he continued all night in prayer to God. And when it was day, he called 13 his disciples: and he chose from them twelve, whom also he named apostles; Simon, whom he also named Peter, and 14 Andrew his brother, and James and John, and Philip and Bartholomew, and Mat- 15 thew and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon which was called the Zealot, and Judas the son of James, 16 and Judas Iscariot, which was the traitor; and he came down with them, and stood 17 on a level place, and a great multitude of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judæa and Jerusa- 18 lem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases; and they that 18 were troubled with unclean spirits were healed. And all the multitude sought to 19 touch him: for power came forth from him, and healed them all.

And he lifted up his eyes on his dis- 20 ciples, and said, Blessed are ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed 21 are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. Blessed are ye, when 22 men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. Rejoice 23 in that day, and leap for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the same manner did their fathers unto the prophets. But woe unto you that are 24 rich! for ye have received your consolation. Woe unto you, ye that are full now! 25 for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you, ye that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep. Woe unto you, when all men shall 26 speak well of you! for in the same manner did their fathers to the false prophets.

 and of him that taketh away thy goods 31 ask them not again. And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also 32 to them likewise. And if ye love them that love you, what thank have ye? for even sinners love those that love them.
 33 And if ye do good to them that do good to you, what thank have ye? for even 34 sinners do the same. And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? even sinners lend to sin-35 ners, to receive again as much. But love your enemies, and do them good, and lend, ¹never despairing; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be sons of the measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again.

 39 And he spake also a parable unto them,
 Can the blind guide the blind? shall they 40 not both fall into a pit? The disciple is not above his ²master: but every one when he is perfected shall be as his 41 ²master. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine 42 own eye? Or how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me cast out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and

then shalt thou see clearly to cast out
 the mote that is in thy brother's eye.
 For there is no good tree that bringeth 43
 forth corrupt fruit; nor again a corrupt tree that bringeth forth good fruit. For each tree is known by its own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. The 45 good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good;
 and the evil man out of the evil treasure
 bringeth forth that which is evil: for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and 46
 do not the things which I say? Every 47
 one that cometh unto me, and heareth
 my words, and doeth them, I will shew
 you to whom he is like: he is like a man 48
 building a house, who digged and went deep, and laid a foundation upon the rock: and when a flood arose, the stream brake against that house, and could not shake it: ³because it had been well builded. But he that heareth, and doth 49 not, is like a man that built a house upon the earth without a foundation; against which the stream brake, and straightway it fell in; and the ruin of that house was great.

 in the ears of the people, he entered

9 doeth it. And when Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned and said unto the multitude that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.
10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the ³servant whole.
11 And it came to pass ⁴soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Nain; and his disciples went with him, and a great 12 multitude. Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, there was carried out one that was dead, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with 13 her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto 14 her, Weep not. And he came nigh and touched the bier: and the bearers stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto 15 thee, Arise. And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he gave 16 him to his mother. And fear took hold on all: and they glorified God, saying, A great prophet is arisen among us: and,
17 God hath visited his people. And this report went forth concerning him in the whole of Judæa, and all the region round about.
18 And the disciples of John told him of 19 all these things. And John calling unto him ⁵two of his disciples sent them to the Lord, saying, Art thou he that cometh, or look we for another? And when 20 the men were come unto him, they said, John the Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that cometh, or look 21 we for another? In that hour he cured many of diseases and ⁶plagues and evil spirits; and on many that were blind
22 he bestowed sight. And he answered and said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have ⁷good tidings preached to them. And blessed is he, whosoever shall find ⁸none occasion of stumbling in me.

And when the messengers of John ⁹4 were departed, he began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken with the wind? But what ¹⁰25 went ye out to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. But what went ye ¹¹26 out to see? a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. This is he of whom it is written, ¹²27

Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,

Who shall prepare thy way before thee. I say unto you, Among them that are ¹³28 born of women there is none greater than John: yet he that is ¹⁴8 but little in the kingdom of God is greater than he. And ¹⁵29 all the people when they heard, and the publicans, justified God, ¹⁶9 being baptized with the baptism of John. But the Phari- ¹⁷30 sees and the lawyers rejected for themselves the counsel of God, ¹⁸10 being not baptized of him. Whereunto then shall ¹⁹31 I liken the men of this generation, and to what are they like? They are like unto ²⁰32 children that sit in the marketplace, and call one to another; which say, We piped unto you, and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not weep. For John ²¹33 the Baptist is come eating no bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a ²²11 devil. 38 alabaster cruse of ointment, and standing behind at his feet, weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head, and ²kissed his feet, and anointed them 39 with the ointment. Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were ³a prophet, would have perceived who and what manner of woman this is which toucheth him, that she is 40 a sinner. And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, ⁴Master, say 41 on. A certain lender had two debtors: the one owed five hundred ⁵pence, and 42 the other fifty. When they had not wherewith to pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him
43 most? Simon answered and said, He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly 44 judged. And turning to the woman, he said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath wetted my feet with her tears, and wiped 45 them with her hair. Thou gavest me no kiss: but she, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to ⁶kiss my feet. My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but she hath anointed my feet with ointment.
47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little. And he said
49 unto her, Thy sins are forgiven. And they that sat at meat with him began to say ⁷within themselves, Who is this that even forgiveth sins? And he said unto the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

8 AND it came to pass soon afterwards, that he went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the ⁸good tidings of the kingdom of God, and with him the twelve, and ⁹certain women which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary that was called Magdalene, from whom seven ¹⁰devils had gone out, and Joanna ¹¹the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto ¹²them of their substance.

And when a great multitude came together, and they of every city resorted unto him, he spake by a parable: The sower went forth to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden under foot, and the birds of the heaven devoured it. And ¹³other fell on the rock; and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. And other fell amidst the ¹⁴thorns; and the thorns grew with it, and choked it. And other fell into the good ¹⁵ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit a hundredfold. As he said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

And his disciples asked him what this ¹⁶parable might be. And he said, Unto ¹⁷you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to the rest in parables; that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. Now the parable is this: The seed is the ¹⁸word of God. And those by the way ¹⁹side are they that have heard; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. And those on the rock ²⁰are they which, when they have heard, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. And ²¹that which fell among the thorns, these are they that have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. the word, hold it fast, and bring forth fruit with patience.

- 16 And no man, when he hath lighted a lamp, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but putteth it on a stand, that they which enter in may see

- 22 Now it came to pass on one of those days, that he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples; and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side
23 of the lake: and they launched forth. But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filling with water, and 24 were in jeopardy. And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. And he awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

- 28 And when he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I beseech thee, torment me not. For he commanded the unclean spirit to 29 come out from the man. For ⁴oftentimes it had seized him: and he was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters; and breaking the bands asunder, he was driven of the ⁵devil into the deserts. And Jesus asked him, What is thy name? 30 And he said, Legion; for many ³devils were entered into him. And they in- 31 treated him that he would not command them to depart into the abyss. Now 32 there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they in- treated him that he would give them leave to enter into them. And he gave them leave. And the ³devils came out 33 from the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into the lake, and were choked. And when they that fed them saw what 34 had come to pass, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country. And they 35 went out to see what had come to pass; and they came to Jesus, and found the man, from whom the ³devils were gone out, sitting, clothed and in his right mind, at the feet of Jesus: and they were afraid. And they that saw it told them how 36 he that was possessed with ³devils was ⁶made whole. And all the people of the 37 country of the Gerasenes round about asked him to depart from them; for they were holden with great fear: and he entered into a boat, and returned. But the 38 man from whom the ³devils were gone out prayed him that he might be with him: but he sent him away, saying, Re- 39 turn to thy house, and declare how great things God hath done for thee. And he went his way, publishing throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done for him.

And as Jesus returned, the multitude 40 welcomed him; for they were all waiting for him. And behold, there came a man 41 named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him to come into his

43 And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which ¹had spent all her living upon physicians, and could not be healed of any, came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately the issue of her blood 44 stanch'd. And Jesus said, Who is it that touch'd me? And when all denied, Peter said, ²and they that were with him, Master, the multitudes press thee and 45 crush thee. But Jesus said, Some one did touch me: for I perceived that power 46 had gone forth from me. And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people for what cause she touch'd him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath ³made thee whole; go in peace.

49 While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying, Thy daughter is dead; trouble
50 not the ⁴Master. But Jesus hearing it, answered him, Fear not: only believe, 51 and she shall be ⁵made whole. And when he came to the house, he suffered not any man to enter in with him, save Peter, and John, and James, and the father of the maiden and her mother. And all were weeping, and bewailing her: but he said, Weep not; for she is not dead, but 52 sleepeth. And they laugh'd him to 53 scorn, knowing that she was dead. But he, taking her by the hand, call'd, say-54 ing, Maiden, arise. And her spirit re-55 turned, and she rose up immediately: and he commanded that something be 56 given her to eat. And her parents were amazed: but he charg'd them to tell no man what had been done.

9 AND he call'd the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all ⁶devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And he sent them forth to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal ⁷the sick. And he said unto them, Take nothing for ⁸your journey, neither staff, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats. And into whatsoever house ye ⁹4 enter, there abide, and thence depart. And as many as receive you not, when ⁵ye depart from that city, shake off the dust from your feet for a testimony against them. And they departed, and ⁶went throughout the villages, preaching the gospel, and healing everywhere.

Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all ⁷that was done: and he was much perplexed, because that it was said by some, that John was risen from the dead; and ⁸by some, that Elijah had appeared; and by others, that one of the old prophets was risen again. And Herod said, John ⁹I beheaded: but who is this, about whom I hear such things? And he sought to see him.

And the apostles, when they were re- ¹⁰turned, declared unto him what things they had done. And he took them, and withdrew apart to a city called Bethsaida. But the multitudes perceiving it followed ¹¹him: and he welcomed them, and spake to them of the kingdom of God, and them that had need of healing he healed. And ¹²the day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place. But he said unto ¹³them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more than five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy food for all this people. For they ¹⁴were about five thousand men. And he said unto his disciples, Make them ⁸sit down in companies, about fifty each. And they did so, and made them all ⁸sit ¹⁵down. And he took the five loaves and ¹⁶the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake; and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude. And they did eat, and were all filled: ¹⁷ and there was taken up that which remained over to them of broken pieces, twelve baskets.

- 18 And it came to pass, as he was praying alone, the disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Who do the 19 multitudes say that I am? And they answering said, John the Baptist; but others say, Elijah; and others, that one 20 of the old prophets is risen again. And he said unto them, But who say ye that I am? And Peter answering said, The 21 Christ of God. But he charged them, and commanded them to tell this to no
22 man; saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.
23 And he said unto all, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.
24 For whosoever would save his ¹life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his ¹life
25 for my sake, the same shall save it. For what is a man profited, if he gain the whole world, and lose or forfeit his own
26 self? For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in his own glory, and the glory of the 27 Father, and of the holy angels. But I tell you of a truth, There be some of them that stand here, which shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.
28 And it came to pass about eight days after these sayings, he took with him Peter and John and James, and went up into the mountain to pray. And as he was praying, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment became white and dazzling. And behold, there talked with him two men, which 31 were Moses and Elijah; who appeared in glory, and spake of his ²decease which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.
32 Now Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: but ³when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. And ³³it came to pass, as they were parting from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three ⁴tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: not knowing what he said. And while ³⁴he said these things, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. And ³⁵a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is ⁵my Son, my chosen: hear ye him. And when the voice ⁶came, Jesus was ³⁶found alone. And they held their peace, and told no man in those days any of the things which they had seen.

And it came to pass, on the next day, ³⁷when they were come down from the mountain, a great multitude met him. And behold, a man from the multitude ³⁸cried, saying, ⁷Master, I beseech thee to look upon my son; for he is mine only child: and behold, a spirit taketh him, ³⁹and he suddenly crieth out; and it ⁸tear-eth him that he foameth, and it hardly departeth from him, bruising him sorely. And I besought thy disciples to cast it ⁴⁰out; and they could not. And Jesus ⁴¹answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? bring hither thy son. And as he was yet a coming, ⁴²the ⁹devil ¹⁰dashed him down, and ¹¹tore him grievously. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. And they ⁴³were all astonished at the majesty of God.

But while all were marvelling at all the things which he did, he said unto his disciples, Let these words sink into your ⁴⁴ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered up into the hands of men. But they ⁴⁵understood not this saying, and it was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it: and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

And there arose a reasoning among ⁴⁶them, which of them should be ¹²greatest. But when Jesus saw the reasoning of their ⁴⁷

49 And John answered and said, Master,
we saw one casting out ²devils in thy name; and we forbade him, because he 50 followeth not with us. But Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against you is for you.

51 And it came to pass, when the days ³were well-nigh come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to 52 go to Jerusalem, and sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make 53 ready for him. And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he 54 were going to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we bid fire to come down from heaven, and consume
55 them? But he turned, and rebuked
56 them⁴. And they went to another village.

57 And as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, I will follow thee 58 whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus said unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have ⁵nest; but the Son of man hath not where to lay 59 his head. And he said unto another,
Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer 60 me first to go and bury my father. But he said unto him, Leave the dead to bury their own dead; but go thou and publish 61 abroad the kingdom of God. And another also said, I will follow thee, Lord;
but first suffer me to bid farewell to them 62 that are at my house. But Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

10 NOW after these things the Lord appointed seventy ⁷others, and sent them two and two before his face

into every city and place, whither he himself was about to come. And he said unto ² them, The harvest is plenteous, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth labourers into his harvest. Go your ³

in the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, ⁴

ye shall ⁶enter, first say, Peace be to this your peace shall rest upon ⁷him: but if not, it shall turn to you again. And in ⁷ drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. And into what- ⁸

you, eat such things as are set before you: and heal the sick that are therein, ⁹

you not, go out into the streets thereof

kingdom of God is come nigh. I say ¹² unto you, It shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.
Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, ¹³ Bethsaida! for if the ¹⁰mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which were done in you, they would have repented
long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

for you. And thou, Capernaum, shalt ¹⁵
thou be exalted unto heaven? thou shalt

21 In that same hour he rejoiced ¹in the Holy Spirit, and said, I ²thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto babes: yea, Father; ³for so it was well-pleasing in thy sight. All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth who the Son is, save the Father; and who the Father is, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal him. And turning to the disciples, he said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: for I say unto you, that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not.

25 And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tempted him, saying, ⁴Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And he said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God ⁵with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour? Jesus made answer and said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho; and he fell among robbers, which both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance a certain priest was going down that way: and when he saw him, 32 he passed by on the other side. And in like manner a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, 33 as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion, and came to him, and 34 bound up his wounds, pouring on them oil and wine; and he set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow 35 he took out two ⁶pence, and gave them to the host, and said, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, I, when I come back again, will repay thee. Which of these three, thinkest thou, 36 proved neighbour unto him that fell among the robbers? And he said, He 37 that shewed mercy on him. And Jesus said unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

Now as they went on their way, he 38 entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house. And she had a sister 39 called Mary, which also sat at the Lord's feet, and heard his word. But Martha 40 was ⁷cumbered about much serving; and she came up to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister did leave me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me. But the Lord answered 41 and said unto her, ⁸Martha, Martha, thou art anxious and troubled about many things: ⁹but one thing is needful: for 42 Mary hath chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

11 AND it came to pass, as he was praying in a certain place, that when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, even as John also taught his disciples. And he 2 said unto them, When ye pray, say, ¹⁰Father, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. ¹¹Give us day by day 3 ¹²our daily bread. 5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say to him, Friend, 6 lend me three loaves; for a friend of mine is come to me from a journey, and I have 7 nothing to set before him; and he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise 8 and give thee? I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will arise and give him ¹as many as he needeth. And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and 10 it shall be opened unto you. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. And of which of you that is a father shall his son ask ²a loaf, and he give him a stone? or a fish, 12 and he for a fish give him a serpent? Or if he shall ask an egg, will he give him 13 a scorpion? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? 14 And he was casting out a ³devil which was dumb. And it came to pass, when the ³devil was gone out, the dumb man spake; and the multitudes marvelled. 15 But some of them said, ⁴By Beelzebub the prince of the ⁵devils casteth he out 16 ⁵devils. And others, tempting him, sought 17 of him a sign from heaven. But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; ⁶and a house 18 divided against a house falleth. And if Satan also is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out ⁵devils ⁴by Beelzebub. And if I ⁴by Beelzebub cast out 19 ⁵devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. 20 But if I by the finger of God cast out ⁵devils, then is the kingdom of God come upon you. When the strong man fully 21 armed guardeth his own court, his goods are in peace: but when a stronger than 22 he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him his whole armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. He that is not with me is 23 against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. The unclean spirit 24 when ⁷he is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest; and finding none, ⁷he saith, I will turn back unto my house whence I came out. And when ⁷he is come, ⁷he findeth it 25 swept and garnished. Then goeth ⁷he, 26 and taketh to him seven other spirits more evil than ⁸himself; and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first.

And it came to pass, as he said these 27 things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou didst suck. But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they 28 that hear the word of God, and keep it.

And when the multitudes were gathering together unto him, he began to say, This generation is an evil generation: it seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah. For even as Jonah became a sign unto 30 the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation. The queen 31 of the south shall rise up in the judgement with the men of this generation, and shall condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, ⁹a greater than Solomon is here. The men 32 of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, ⁹a greater than Jonah is here.

Now as he spake, a Pharisee asketh him to 'dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat. And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before 'dinner. And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter; but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. Ye foolish ones, did not he that made the outside make the inside also? Howbeit give for alms those things which ²are within; and behold, all things are clean unto you.

But woe unto you Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and every herb, and pass over judgement and the love of God: but these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Woe unto you Pharisees! for ye love the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces. Woe unto you! for ye are as the tombs which appear not, and the men that walk over them know it not.

And one of the lawyers answering saith unto him, 'Master, in saying this thou reproachest us also. And he said, Woe unto you lawyers also! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. Woe unto you! for ye build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. So ye are witnesses and consent unto the works of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye build their tombs. Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send unto them prophets and apostles; and some of them they shall kill and persecute; that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the 'sanctuary: yea, I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation. Woe unto you lawyers! for ye took away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

And when he was come out from thence, the scribes and the Pharisees began to 'press upon him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of 'many things; laying wait for him, to catch something out of his mouth.

12 IN the mean time, when ²the many thousands of the multitude were gathered together, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to ⁸say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. But there is nothing ²covered up, that shall not be revealed: and hid, that shall not be known. Wherefore whatsoever ye have said in the darkness shall be heard in the light; and what ye have spoken in the ear in the inner chambers shall be proclaimed upon the housetops. And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them which kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. But I will warn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath ⁹power to cast into ¹⁰hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit it shall not be forgiven. And when they bring you before the synagogues, and the rulers, and the authorities, be not anxious how or what ye shall answer, or what ye shall say: for the Holy Spirit shall teach you in that very hour what ye ought to say.

And one out of the multitude said unto him, ¹Master, bid my brother divide the inheritance with me. But he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you? And he said unto them, Take heed, and keep yourselves from all covetousness: ²for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: and he reasoned within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have not where to bestow my fruits?

And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my corn and my goods. And I will say to my ³soul, ³Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, be merry. But God said unto him, Thou foolish one, this night ⁴is thy ³soul required of thee; and the things which thou hast prepared, whose shall they be?

So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your ⁵life, what ye shall eat; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. For the ⁵life is more than the food, and the body than the raiment. Consider the ravens, that they sow not, neither reap; which have no store-chamber nor barn; and God feedeth them: of how much more value are ye than the birds! And which of you by being anxious can add a cubit unto his ⁶stature? If then ye are not able to do even that which is least,

why are ye anxious concerning the rest? Consider the lilies, how they grow: they ⁷toil not, neither do they spin; yet I say unto you, Even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But ⁸if God doth so clothe the grass in the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven; how much more shall he clothe you, O ye of little faith? And ⁹seek not ye what ye shall eat, and what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. For all these things do the nations ¹⁰of the world seek after: but your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. Howbeit seek ye ¹¹this kingdom, and these ¹²things shall be added unto you. Fear ¹³not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell that ye have, and give alms; make ¹⁴for yourselves purses which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief draweth near, neither moth destroyeth. For where your treasure ¹⁵is, there will your heart be also.

Let your loins be girded about, and ¹⁶your lamps burning; and be ye yourselves like unto men looking for their lord, when he shall return from the marriage feast; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may straightway open unto him. Blessed are those ¹⁷servants, ¹⁸whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them sit down to meat, and shall come and serve them. And if he shall come in the second ¹⁹watch, and if in the third, and find them so, blessed are those servants. ²⁰But know ²¹this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not have left his house to be ²²broken through. Be ye also ready: for in an hour that ye ²³think not the Son of man cometh.

And Peter said, Lord, speakest thou ²⁴this parable unto us, or even unto all? And the Lord said, Who then is ²⁵the ²⁶faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall set over his household, to give them

 43 Blessed is that ¹servant, whom his lord 44 when he cometh shall find so doing. Of a truth I say unto you, that he will set 45 him over all that he hath. But if that ¹servant shall say in his heart, My lord
 delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and the maidservants,
 and to eat and drink, and to be 46 drunken; the lord of that ¹servant shall come in a day when he expecteth not,
 and in an hour when he knoweth not,
 and shall ²cut him asunder, and appoint 47 his portion with the unfaithful. And that ¹servant, which knew his lord's will,
 and made not ready, nor did according to his will, shall be beaten with many 48 stripes; but he that knew not, and did things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. And to whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required: and to whom they commit much,
 of him will they ask the more.
 49 I came to cast fire upon the earth; and 50 what will I, if it is already kindled? But I have a baptism to be baptized with;
 and how am I straitened till it be accom-51 plished! Think ye that I am come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, Nay; 52 but rather division: for there shall be
 from henceforth five in one house divided,
 three against two, and two against three.
 53 They shall be divided, father against son,
 and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother in law against her daughter in law, and daughter in law against her mother in law.
 54 And he said to the multitudes also,
 When ye see a cloud rising in the west,
 straightway ye say, There cometh a 55 shower; and so it cometh to pass. And when ye see a south wind blowing, ye say, There will be a ³scorching heat; and 56 it cometh to pass. Ye hypocrites, ye know how to ⁴interpret the face of the earth and the heaven; but how is it that ye know not how to ⁴interpret this time?
 57 And why even of yourselves judge ye 58 not what is right? For as thou art going with thine adversary before the magistrate, on the way give diligence to be quit of him; lest haply he hale thee unto the judge, and the judge shall deliver thee to the ⁵officer, and the ⁵officer shall cast thee into prison. I say unto thee, 59

 Thou shalt by no means come out thence,
 till thou have paid the very last mite.

13 NOW there were some present at that very season which told him
 of the Galilæans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And he 2 answered and said unto them, Think ye that these Galilæans were sinners above all the Galilæans, because they have suffered these things? I tell you, Nay: 3 but, except ye repent, ye shall all in like manner perish. Or those eighteen, upon 4 whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them, think ye that they were ⁶offenders
 above all the men that dwell in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye 5 repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

And he spake this parable; A certain 6
 man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit thereon, and found none. And he said unto the 7 vinedresser, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why doth it also cumber the ground? And he answering 8 saith unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: and if it bear fruit thenceforth, 9
well; but if not, thou shalt cut it down.

And he was teaching in one of the 10
 synagogues on the sabbath day. And be- 11 hold, a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years; and she was bowed together, and could in no wise lift herself
 up. And when Jesus saw her, he called 12
 her, and said to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid 13 his hands upon her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.
 And the ruler of the synagogue, being 14
 moved with indignation because Jesus had healed on the sabbath, answered and said to the multitude, There are six days
 in which men ought to work: in them

1 Gr. bondservant.

2 Or, severely scourge him

6 Gr. debtors.

4 Gr. prove.

therefore come and be healed, and not 15 on the day of the sabbath. But the Lord answered him, and said, Ye hypocrites,
 doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the ¹stall, and 16 lead him away to watering? And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound, lo,
these eighteen years, to have been loosed
 from this bond on the day of the sab-17 bath? And as he said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame: and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.
 18 He said therefore, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and wherunto 19 shall I liken it? It is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his own garden; and it grew,
 and became a tree; and the birds of the heaven lodged in the branches thereof.
 20 And again he said, Wherunto shall I 21 liken the kingdom of God? It is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three ²measures of meal, till it was all leavened.
 22 And he went on his way through cities
 and villages, teaching, and journeying on 23 unto Jerusalem. And one said unto him, Lord, are they few that be saved? And 24 he said unto them, Strive to enter in by the narrow door: for many, I say unto you, shall seek to enter in, and shall not 25 be ³able. When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, open to us; and he shall answer and say to 26 you, I know you not whence ye are; then shall ye begin to say, We did eat and drink in thy presence, and thou didst 27 teach in our streets; and he shall say,
 I tell you, I know not whence ye are;
 depart from me, all ye workers of ini-28 quity. There shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, 29 and yourselves cast forth without. And they shall come from the east and west,

and from the north and south, and shall ⁴sit down in the kingdom of God. And 30 behold, there are last which shall be first,
 and there are first which shall be last.

In that very hour there came certain 31
 Pharisees, saying to him, Get thee out,
 and go hence: for Herod would fain kill thee. And he said unto them, Go and 32 say to that fox, Behold, I cast out ⁵devils
 and perform cures to-day and to-morrow, and the third day I am perfected.
 Howbeit I must go on my way to-day 33
 and to-morrow and the day following:
 for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, 34 which killeth the prophets, and stoneth
 them that are sent unto her! how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her own brood under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you 35 desolate: and I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 AND it came to pass, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching him.
 And behold, there was before him a cer- 2
 tain man which had the dropsy. And 3
 Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal
 on the sabbath, or not? But they held 4 their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go. And he said unto 5 them, Which of you shall have ⁶an ass or an ox fallen into a well, and will not straightway draw him up on a sabbath day? And they could not answer again 6 unto these things.

And he spake a parable unto those 7
 which were bidden, when he marked
 how they chose out the chief seats; saying unto them, When thou art bidden 8
 of any man to a marriage feast, ⁷sit not down in the chief seat; lest haply a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him, and he that bade thee and him shall 9
 come and say to thee, Give this man place; and then thou shalt begin with

1 Gr. manger. 2 See marginal note on Matt. 13. 33. 3 Or able, when once 4 Gr. recline.
 5 Gr. demons. 6 Many ancient authorities read a son. See ch. 13. 15. 7 Gr. recline not.

10 shame to take the lowest place. But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest place; that when he that hath bidden thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have glory in the presence of all that
 11 sit at meat with thee. For every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.
 12 And he said to him also that had bidden him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsmen, nor rich neighbours; lest haply they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee.
 13 But when thou makest a feast, bid the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:
 14 and thou shalt be blessed; because they have not wherewith to recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed in the resurrection of the just.
 15 And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread
 16 in the kingdom of God. But he said unto him, A certain man made a great supper;
 17 and he bade many: and he sent forth his ¹servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things
 18 are now ready. And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a field, and I must needs go out and see it: I pray
 19 thee have me excused. And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me
 20 excused. And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.
 21 And the ¹servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his ¹servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor 22 and maimed and blind and lame. And the ¹servant said, Lord, what thou didst command is done, and yet there is room.
 23 And the lord said unto the ¹servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that my house 24 may be filled. For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

Now there went with him great multitudes: and he turned, and said unto them, If any man cometh unto me, and hateth 25 not his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. Whosoever doth not bear 27 his own cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you, 28 desiring to build a tower, doth not first sit down and count the cost, whether he have wherewith to complete it? Lest 29 haply, when he hath laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all that behold begin to mock him, saying, This man 30 began to build, and was not able to finish. Or what king, as he goeth to encounter 31 another king in war, will not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is yet a great way 32 off, he sendeth an ambassage, and asketh conditions of peace. So therefore whosoever he be of you that renounceth not 33 all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. Salt therefore is good: but if even 34 the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned? It is fit neither for the land nor for the dunghill: men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

15 NOW all the publicans and sinners were drawing near unto him for to hear him. And both the Pharisees 2 and the scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

And he spake unto them this parable, 3 saying, What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath 5 found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he cometh home, 6 he calleth together his friends and his neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep

7 which was lost. I say unto you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine righteous persons, which need no repentance.

8 Or what woman having ten ¹pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently until she find it? And when she hath found it, she calleth together her friends and neighbours, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost. Even so, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 And he said, A certain man had two sons; and the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of ²thy substance that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country; and there he wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that country; and he began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain have been filled with ³the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. But when he came to himself he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish here with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: I am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father. But while he was yet afar off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and ⁴kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: I am no more worthy to be called thy son⁵. But the father said to his ⁶servants, Bring forth quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: and bring ⁷the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat, and make merry: for this my son was ⁸dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. Now his elder son was in the field: and ⁹as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing. And he ¹⁰called to him one of the servants, and inquired what these things might be. And he said unto him, Thy brother is ¹¹come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. But he was angry, and ¹²would not go in: and his father came out, and intreated him. But he answered ¹³and said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, and I never transgressed a commandment of thine: and ¹⁴yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: but ¹⁵now when this thy son came, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou ¹⁶killedst for him the fatted calf. And he ¹⁷said unto him, ¹⁸Son, thou art ever with me, and all that is mine is thine. But it ¹⁹was meet to make merry and be glad: ²⁰for this thy brother was dead, and is alive ²¹again; and was lost, and is found.

16 AND he said also unto the disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he was wasting his goods. And he called him, and ²said unto him, What is this that I hear of thee? render the account of thy stewardship; for thou canst be no longer steward. And the steward said within himself, ³What shall I do, seeing that my lord taketh away the stewardship from me? I have not strength to dig; to beg I am ashamed. I am resolved what to do, that, ⁴when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. And calling to him each one of his lord's ⁵debtors, he said to the first, How much

6 owest thou unto my lord? And he said, A hundred ¹measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy ²bond, and sit down
7 quickly and write fifty. Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, A hundred ³measures of wheat. He saith unto him, Take thy ⁴bond, and write fourscore. And his lord commended ⁵the unrighteous steward because he had done wisely: for the sons of this ⁶world are for their own generation wiser than the sons of the light.
9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends ⁷by means of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when it shall fail, they may receive you into the eternal tabernacles. He that is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much: and he that is unrighteous in a very little is unrighteous also in much. If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust
12 the true ⁸riches? And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is ⁹your own?
13 No ¹⁰servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.
14 And the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things; and 15 they scoffed at him. And he said unto them, Ye are they that justify yourselves in the sight of men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the 16 sight of God. The law and the prophets were until John: from that time the gospel of the kingdom of God is preached, and every man entereth violently into it.
17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tittle of the law to fall. Every one that putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and he that marrieth one that is put away from a husband committeth adultery.

Now there was a certain rich man, and ¹19 he was clothed in purple and fine linen, ²20 faring sumptuously every day: and a 20 certain beggar named Lazarus was laid at his gate, full of sores, and desiring to ³21 be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table; yea, even the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, ⁴22 that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels into Abraham's bosom: and the rich man also died, and was buried. And in Hades he ⁵23 lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father ⁶24 Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am in anguish in this flame. But Abraham said, ⁷25 Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things: but now here he is comforted, and thou art in anguish. And ⁸26 beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that they which would pass from hence to you may not be able, and that none may cross over from thence to us. And he said, I pray thee therefore, father, ⁹27 that thou wouldest send him to my father's house; for I have five brethren; ¹⁰28 that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. But Abraham saith, They have Moses ¹¹29 and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but ¹²30 if one go to them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If ¹³31 they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, if one rise from the dead.

17 AND he said unto his disciples, It is impossible but that occasions of stumbling should come: but woe unto him, through whom they come! It were ¹2 well for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, 6 Increase our faith. And the Lord said, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye would say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou rooted up, and be thou planted in the sea; and it would have 7 obeyed you. But who is there of you, having a ¹servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say unto him, when he is come in from the field, Come straight-way and sit down to meat; and will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink? 9 Doth he thank the ¹servant because he did 10 the things that were commanded? Even so ye also, when ye shall have done all the things that are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable ²servants; we have done that which it was our duty to do.

11 And it came to pass, ³as they were on the way to Jerusalem, that he was passing ⁴through the midst of Samaria and 12 Galilee. And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were 13 lepers, which stood afar off: and they lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, 14 Master, have mercy on us. And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go and shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, as they went, they were 15 cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, with a loud voice glorifying God; and he fell upon his face at his feet, giving him 17 thanks: and he was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering said, Were not the ten 18 cleansed? but where are the nine? ⁵Were there none found that returned to give 19 glory to God, save this ⁶stranger? And he said unto him, Arise, and go thy way: thy faith hath ⁷made thee whole.

And being asked by the Pharisees, 20 when the kingdom of God cometh, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: neither shall they say, Lo, here! or, 21 There! for lo, the kingdom of God is ⁸within you.

And he said unto the disciples, The 22 days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it. And they shall 23 say to you, Lo, there! Lo, here! go not away, nor follow after them: for as the 24 lightning, when it lighteneth out of the one part under the heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall the Son of man be ⁹in his day. But first must 25 he suffer many things and be rejected of this generation. And as it came to pass 26 in the days of Noah, even so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They 27 ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. Likewise 28 even as it came to pass in the days of Lot; they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; but in the day that Lot went out from 29 Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all: after the 30 same manner shall it be in the day that the Son of man is revealed. In that day, 31 he which shall be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away: and let him that is in the field likewise not return back. Remember Lot's wife. Whoso- 32 ever shall seek to gain his ¹⁰life shall lose 33 it: but whosoever shall lose his ¹⁰life shall ¹¹preserve it. I say unto you, In that 34 night there shall be two men on one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. There shall be two women grind- 35 ing together; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.¹² And they answer- 37

- 18 AND he spake a parable unto them to the end that they ought
 2 always to pray, and not to faint; saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared
 3 not God, and regarded not man: and there was a widow in that city; and she came oft unto him, saying, ²Avenge me
 4 of mine adversary. And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor 5 regard man; yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest she ³wear me out by her continual coming.
 6 And the Lord said, Hear what ⁴the un-
 7 righteous judge saith. And shall not God
 8 avenge his elect, which cry to him day and night, and he is longsuffering over 9 them? I say unto you, that he will 10 avenge them speedily. Howbeit when the Son of man cometh, shall he find ⁵faith on the earth?
 9 And he spake also this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and set ⁶all others
 10 at nought: Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and 11 the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or 12 even as this publican. I fast twice in the 13 week; I give tithes of all that I get. But the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote his breast, saying,
 14 God, ⁷be merciful to me ⁸a sinner. I say unto you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; but he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.
 15 And they brought unto him also their babes, that he should touch them: but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked
 16 them. But Jesus called them unto him, saying, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I ¹⁷say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein.

And a certain ruler asked him, saying, ¹⁸Good ⁹Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said unto him, ¹⁹Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, even God. Thou knowest the ²⁰commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and mother. And he said, All these things ²¹I have I observed from my youth up. And ²²when Jesus heard it, he said unto him, One thing thou lackest yet: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. But when he heard ²³these things, he became exceeding sorrowful; for he was very rich. And Jesus ²⁴seeing him said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! For it is easier for a camel to ²⁵enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And they that heard it said, Then ²⁶who can be saved? But he said, The ²⁷things which are impossible with men are possible with God. And Peter said, ²⁸Lo, we have left ¹⁰our own, and followed thee. And he said unto them, Verily I ²⁹say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or wife, or brethren, or parents, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, who shall not receive manifold more ³⁰in this time, and in the ¹¹world to come eternal life.

And he took unto him the twelve, and ³¹said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written ¹²by the prophets shall be accomplished unto the Son of man. 34 he shall rise again. And they understood none of these things; and this saying was hid from them, and they perceived not the things that were said.

35 And it came to pass, as he drew nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging: and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant. And they told him, that 37 Jesus of Nazareth passeth by. And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, 39 have mercy on me. And they that went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have 40 mercy on me. And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he 41 asked him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that 42 I may receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith 43 hath ¹made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

19 AND he entered and was passing through Jericho. And behold, a man called by name Zacchæus; and he was a chief publican, and he was rich. 3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the crowd, because he 4 was little of stature. And he ran on before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that 5 way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for 6 to-day I must abide at thy house. And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. And when they saw 7 it, they all murmured, saying, He is gone 8 in to lodge with a man that is a sinner. And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have wrongfully 9 fold. And Jesus said unto him, To-day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man came to seek and 10 to save that which was lost.

And as they heard these things, he 11 added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God was immediately to appear. He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. And he called ten 13 ²servants of his, and gave them ten ³pounds, and said unto them, Trade ye herewith till I come. But his citizens 14 hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not that this man reign over us. And it came to pass, when 15 he was come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these ²servants, unto whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by trading. And the first came before him, saying, 16 Lord, thy pound hath made ten pounds more. And he said unto him, Well done, 17 thou good ⁴servant: because thou wast found faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. And the second 18 came, saying, Thy pound, Lord, hath made five pounds. And he said unto 19 him also, Be thou also over five cities. And ⁵another came, saying, Lord, be- 20 hold, here is thy pound, which I kept laid up in a napkin: for I feared thee, because 21 thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow. He saith unto 22 him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked ⁶servant. Thou knewest that I am an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow; then wherefore gavest 23 thou not my money into the bank, and ⁶I at my coming should have required it with interest? And he said unto them 24 that stood by, Take away from him the pound, and give it unto him that hath the ten pounds. And they said unto him, 25

26 Lord, he hath ten pounds. I say unto you, that unto every one that hath shall be given; but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken 27 away from him. Howbeit these mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, he went on before, going up to Jerusalem.

29 And it came to pass, when he drew nigh unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount that is called the mount of 30 Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, Go your way into the village over against you; in the which as ye enter ye shall find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat: loose him, and bring him.

31 And if any one ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say, The Lord hath need of him. And they that were sent went away, and found even as he had said unto 32 them. And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why 33 loose ye the colt? And they said, The Lord hath need of him. And they brought him to Jesus: and they threw their garments upon the colt, and set Jesus there-34 on. And as he went, they spread their 35 garments in the way. And as he was now drawing nigh, even at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the 36 mighty works which they had seen; saying, Blessed is the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven,
37 and glory in the highest. And some of the Pharisees from the multitude said unto him, ²Master, rebuke thy disciples.
38 And he answered and said, I tell you that, if these shall hold their peace, the stones will cry out.

41 And when he drew nigh, he saw the 42 city and wept over it, saying, ³If thou hadst known in this day, even thou, the things which belong unto peace! but now 43 they are hid from thine eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, when thine enemies shall cast up a ⁴bank about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, and shall dash thee to the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

And he entered into the temple, and ⁵began to cast out them that sold, saying ⁶unto them, It is written, And my house shall be a house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of robbers.

And he was teaching daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes sought to destroy him: and they could not find what they might do; for the people all hung upon him, listening.

20 AND it came to pass, on one of the days, as he was teaching the people in the temple, and preaching the gospel, there came upon him the chief priests and the scribes with the elders; and they spake, saying unto him, Tell ²us: By what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority? And he answered and said ³unto them, I also will ask you a ⁵question; and tell me: The baptism of John, was ⁴it from heaven, or from men? And they ⁵reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why did ye not believe him? But if we shall ⁶say, From men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet. And they answered, that they ⁷knew not whence it was. And Jesus said ⁸unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

And he began to speak unto the people ⁹this parable: A man planted a vineyard, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country for a long time. And at the season he sent unto the hus- ¹⁰bandmen a ⁶servant, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty. And he sent yet another ¹¹⁶servant: and him also they beat, and handled him shamefully, and sent him away empty. And he sent yet a third: ¹²

and him also they wounded, and cast 13 him forth. And the lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will rever-14 ence him. But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned one with another,
 saying, This is the heir: let us kill him, 15 that the inheritance may be ours. And they cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the 16 lord of the vineyard do unto them? He will come and destroy these husband-men, and will give the vineyard unto others. And when they heard it, they 17 said, ¹God forbid. But he looked upon them, and said, What then is this that is written,

The stone which the builders rejected,
 The same was made the head of the corner?

18 Every one that falleth on that stone shall be broken to pieces; but on whomsoever
 it shall fall, it will scatter him as dust.
 19 And the scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on him in that very hour; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he spake this parable 20 against them. And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which feigned themselves to be righteous, that they might take hold of his speech, so as to deliver
 him up to the rule and to the authority 21 of the governor. And they asked him, saying, ²Master, we know that thou say-
 est and teachest rightly, and acceptest
 not the person of any, but of a truth 22 teachest the way of God: Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not?
 23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Shew me a ³penny.
 Whose image and superscription hath 25 it? And they said, Cæsar's. And he said unto them, Then render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God 26 the things that are God's. And they were not able to take hold of the saying before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.
 27 And there came to him certain of the Sadducees, they which say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, ²Master, Moses wrote unto us, ²⁸

 that if a man's brother die, having a wife,
 and he be childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. There were therefore seven ²⁹ brethren: and the first took a wife, and died childless; and the second; and the ³⁰
 third took her; and likewise the seven ³¹
 also left no children, and died. After-32 ward the woman also died. In the re-33 surrection therefore whose wife of them shall she be? for the seven had her to wife. And Jesus said unto them, The ³⁴ sons of this ⁴world marry, and are given in marriage: but they that are accounted ³⁵ worthy to attain to that ⁴world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage: for ³⁶ neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are sons
 of God, being sons of the resurrection.
 But that the dead are raised, even Moses ³⁷
 shewed in the place concerning the Bush,
 when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is not the God ³⁸
 of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him. And certain of the scribes ³⁹ answering said, ²Master, thou hast well said. For they durst not any more ask ⁴⁰ him any question.

And he said unto them, How say they ⁴¹
 that the Christ is David's son? For Da- ⁴²
 vid himself saith in the book of Psalms,

The Lord said unto my Lord,

Sit thou on my right hand,

Till I make thine enemies the foot- ⁴³
 stool of thy feet.

David therefore calleth him Lord, and ⁴⁴
 how is he his son?

And in the hearing of all the people ⁴⁵
 he said unto his disciples, Beware of the ⁴⁶
 scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love salutations in the market-
 places, and chief seats in the synagogues,
 and chief places at feasts; which devour ⁴⁷
 widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater condemnation.

21 AND he looked up, and saw the rich men that were casting their gifts into the treasury. And he saw a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites. And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than they all: for all these did of their superfluity cast in unto the gifts: but she of her want did cast in all the living that she had.

And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and offerings, he said, As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in which there shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. And they asked him, saying, Master, when therefore shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are about to come to pass? And he said, Take heed that ye be not led astray: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am he; and, The time is at hand: go ye not after them.

And when ye shall hear of wars and tumults, be not terrified: for these things must needs come to pass first; but the end is not immediately.

Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be great earthquakes, and in divers places famines and pestilences; and there shall be terrors and great signs from heaven. But before all these things, they shall lay their hands on you, and shall persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for my name's sake. It shall turn unto you for a testimony. Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate beforehand how to answer: for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to withstand or to gainsay. But ye shall be delivered up even by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolk, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. And not a hair of 18

your head shall perish. In your patience 19
ye shall win your souls.

But when ye see Jerusalem compassed 20
with armies, then know that her desolation is at hand. Then let them that are 21
in Judæa flee unto the mountains; and let them that are in the midst of her depart out; and let not them that are in the country enter therein. For these are days 22 of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. Woe unto them 23 that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! for there shall be great distress upon the land, and wrath unto this people. And they shall fall by 24
the edge of the sword, and shall be led captive into all the nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. And there shall be signs in sun 25
and moon and stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the billows; men 26
fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world: for the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. And then shall they see 27
the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. But when these 28
things begin to come to pass, look up,
and lift up your heads; because your redemption draweth nigh.

And he spake to them a parable: Be- 29
hold the fig tree, and all the trees: when 30
they now shoot forth, ye see it and know
of your own selves that the summer is now nigh. Even so ye also, when ye see 31
these things coming to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh. Verily 32
I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all things be accomplished.
Heaven and earth shall pass away: but 33
my words shall not pass away.

But take heed to yourselves, lest haply 34
your hearts be overcharged with surfeit-ing, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day come on you suddenly
as a snare: for so shall it come upon all 35

37 And every day he was teaching in the temple; and every night he went out, and lodged in the mount that is called 38 the mount of Olives. And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.

22 NOW the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called
2 the Passover. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might put him to death; for they feared the people.

3 And Satan entered into Judas who was called Iscariot, being of the number
4 of the twelve. And he went away, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might deliver him unto
5 them. And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money. And he consented, and sought opportunity to deliver him unto them ¹in the absence of the multitude.

7 And the day of unleavened bread came, on which the passover must be sacrificed. And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and make ready for us the 9 passover, that we may eat. And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we make ready? And he said unto them, 10 Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the 11 house whercinto he goeth. And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The 12 ²Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? And he will shew you a large upper room furnished:
13 there make ready. And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 And when the hour was come, he sat
15 down, and the apostles with him. And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer: for I say unto you, I will not eat it, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. And he received a cup, ¹⁷and when he had given thanks, he said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: for I say unto you, I will not 18 drink from henceforth of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. And he took ³bread, and when ¹⁹he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave to them, saying, This is my body ⁴which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. And the cup in like

20 manner after supper, saying, This cup is the new ⁵covenant in my blood, even that which is poured out for you. But ²¹behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table. For the Son
22 of man indeed goeth, as it hath been determined: but woe unto that man through whom he is betrayed! And they ²³began to question among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

And there arose also a contention ²⁴among them, which of them is accounted to be ⁶greatest. And he said unto them, ²⁵The kings of the Gentiles have lordship over them; and they that have authority over them are called Benefactors. But ²⁶ye shall not be so: but he that is the greater among you, let him become as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. For whether is greater, ²⁷he that ⁷sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that ⁸sitteth at meat? but I am in the midst of you as he that serveth. But ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations; and ²⁹⁸I appoint unto you a kingdom, even as my Father appointed unto me, that ye ³⁰may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom; and ye shall sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.  with thee I am ready to go both to prison 34 and to death. And he said, I tell thee,

 until thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, When I sent you forth without purse, and wallet, and shoes, lacked ye anything? And they 36 said, Nothing. And he said unto them,
 But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet: ¹and he
 that hath none, let him sell his cloke, 37 and buy a sword. For I say unto you,
 that this which is written must be fulfilled in me, And he was reckoned with transgressors: for that which concerneth 38 me hath ²fulfilment. And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 And he came out, and went, as his custom was, unto the mount of Olives;
 and the disciples also followed him.
 40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into 41 temptation. And he was parted from them about a stone's cast; and he kneeled 42 down and prayed, saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me:
 nevertheless not my will, but thine, be 43 done. ³And there appeared unto him an angel from heaven, strengthening him.
 44 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat became as it were great drops of blood falling down 45 upon the ground. And when he rose up from his prayer, he came unto the disciples, and found them sleeping for sor-46 row, and said unto them, Why sleep ye?
 rise and pray, that ye enter not into temptation.

47 While he yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them; and he drew near unto Jesus to kiss him. But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest 49 thou the Son of man with a kiss? And when they that were about him saw
 what would follow, they said, Lord, shall we smite with the sword? And a certain one of them smote the ⁴servant

 of the high priest, and struck off his right ear. But Jesus answered and said, ⁵ Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him. And Jesus said ⁶ unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and elders, which were come against him, Are ye come out, as against a robber, with swords and staves? When ⁷ 53 I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched not forth your hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

And they seized him, and led him ⁸
 54 away, and brought him into the high priest's house. But Peter followed afar off. And when they had kindled a fire ⁹ 55 in the midst of the court, and had sat down together, Peter sat in the midst of them. And a certain maid seeing him ¹⁰ 56 as he sat in the light of the fire, and looking stedfastly upon him, said, This man
 also was with him. But he denied, say-57 ing, Woman, I know him not. And after ¹¹
 58 a little while another saw him, and said, Thou also art one of them. But Peter said, Man, I am not. And after the space 59 of about one hour another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this man
 also was with him: for he is a Galilaean.
 But Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew. And the Lord ¹² 61 turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord,
 how that he said unto him, Before the cock crow this day, thou shalt deny me
 thrice. And he went out, and wept ¹³ 62 bitterly.

And the men that held ¹⁴Jesus mocked ¹⁵
 63 him, and beat him. And they blindfolded him, and asked him, saying, Prophesy: who is he that struck thee? And ¹⁶ 65 many other things spake they against him, reviling him.

And as soon as it was day, the assembly ¹⁷
 66 of the elders of the people was gathered together, both chief priests and scribes;
 and they led him away into their council,

 But he said unto them, If I tell you, ye 68 will not believe: and if I ask you, ye will 69 not answer. But from henceforth shall the Son of man be seated at the right 70 hand of the power of God. And they all said, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, 'Ye say that I am.
 71 And they said, What further need have we of witness? for we ourselves have heard from his own mouth.

23 AND the whole company of them
 rose up, and brought him before 2 Pilate. And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this man perverting
 our nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, and saying that he himself is 3 'Christ a king. And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews?
 And he answered him and said, Thou 4 sayest. And Pilate said unto the chief priests and the multitudes, I find no 5 fault in this man. But they were the more urgent, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Judæa, and beginning from Galilee even unto 6 this place. But when Pilate heard it, he asked whether the man were a Galilæan.
 7 And when he knew that he was of Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him unto Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem in these days.
 8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was of a long time desirous to see him, because he had heard concerning him; and he hoped to see 9 some 'miracle done by him. And he questioned him in many words; but he 10 answered him nothing. And the chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently 11 accusing him. And Herod with his soldiers set him at nought, and mocked
 him, and arraying him in gorgeous ap-12 parel sent him back to Pilate. And Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day: for before they were
 at enmity between themselves.
 13 And Pilate called together the chief 14 priests and the rulers and the people, and said unto them, Ye brought unto me this man, as one that perverteth the people:

 and behold, I, having examined him before you, found no fault in this man
 touching those things whereof ye accuse
 him: no, nor yet Herod: for he sent him 15
 back unto us; and behold, nothing worthy of death hath been done by him. I 16 will therefore chastise him, and release
 him.* But they cried out all together, 18
 saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas: one who for a certain 19 insurrection made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison. And Pilate 20 spake unto them again, desiring to release Jesus; but they shouted, saying, 21
 Crucify, crucify him. And he said unto 22 them the third time, Why, what evil hath this man done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise 23 him and release him. But they were instant with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. And their voices prevailed. And Pilate gave sentence that 24
 what they asked for should be done.
 And he released him that for insurrec- 25
 tion and murder had been cast into prison, whom they asked for; but Jesus
 he delivered up to their will.

And when they led him away, they 26
 laid hold upon one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to bear it after Jesus.

And there followed him a great multi- 27
 tude of the people, and of women who bewailed and lamented him. But Jesus 28 turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep
 for yourselves, and for your children.
 For behold, the days are coming, in which 29
 they shall say, Blessed are the barren,
 and the wombs that never bare, and the breasts that never gave suck. Then shall 30
 they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. For if 31
 they do these things in the green tree,
 what shall be done in the dry?

And there were also two others, male- 32
 factors, led with him to be put to death.

1 Or, Ye say it, because I am. 2 Or, an anointed king 3 Gr. sign. 4 Many ancient authorities insert ver. 17 Now he must needs release unto them at the feast one prisoner. Others add the same words after ver. 19.

33 And when they came unto the place which is called 'The skull, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand and the other on the 34 left. ²And Jesus said, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And parting his garments among them, 35 they cast lots. And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also scoffed at him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if this is the Christ of God,
36 his chosen. And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, offering him vine-
37 gar, and saying, If thou art the King of 38 the Jews, save thyself. And there was also a superscription over him, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, Art not thou the Christ? save thyself and us.
40 But the other answered, and rebuking him said, Dost thou not even fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?
41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but 42 this man hath done nothing amiss. And he said, Jesus, remember me when thou 43 comest ³in thy kingdom. And he said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

44 And it was now about the sixth hour, and a darkness came over the whole
45 'land until the ninth hour, ⁵the sun's light failing: and the veil of the ⁶temple was rent in the midst. ⁷And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said this, he gave up
47 the ghost. And when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, 48 Certainly this was a righteous man. And all the multitudes that came together to this sight, when they beheld the things that were done, returned smiting their 49 breasts. And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed with him from Galilee stood afar off, seeing these things.

And behold, a man named Joseph, 50 who was a councillor, a good man and a righteous (he had not consented to 51 their counsel and deed), a man of Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who was looking for the kingdom of God: this man went 52 to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. And he took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was hewn in stone, where never man had yet lain. And it was the day of the Pre- 54 paration, and the sabbath ⁸drew on. And the women, which had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and beheld the tomb, and how his body was laid. And they returned, and prepared spices 56 and ointments.

And on the sabbath they rested accord-
24 ing to the commandment. But on 1 the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came unto the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared. And they found the stone rolled away 2 from the tomb. And they entered in, 3 and found not the body ⁹of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, while they 4 were perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel: and as they were affrighted, and bowed 5 down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye ¹⁰the living among the dead? ¹¹He is not here, but is 6 risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, saying that 7 the Son of man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. And they remembered his words, and 8 returned ¹²from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. Now they were Mary Magdalene, 10 and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James: and the other women with them told these things unto the apostles. And these words appeared in their 11 sight as idle talk; and they disbelieved them. ¹³But Peter arose, and ran unto 12

the tomb; and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths by themselves; and he ¹departed to his home, wondering at that which was come to pass.

- 13 And behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was threescore furlongs 14 from Jerusalem. And they communed with each other of all these things which 15 had happened. And it came to pass, while they communed and questioned together, that Jesus himself drew near,
16 and went with them. But their eyes were holden that they should not know
17 him. And he said unto them, ²What communications are these that ye have one with another, as ye walk? And they 18 stood still, looking sad. And one of them, named Cleopas, answering said unto him, ³Dost thou alone sojourn in Jerusalem and not know the things which are come to pass there in these days?
19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people: and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and 21 crucified him. But we hoped that it was he which should redeem Israel. Yea and beside all this, it is now the third day
22 since these things came to pass. Moreover certain women of our company amazed us, having been early at the tomb;
23 and when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was
24 alive. And certain of them that were with us went to the tomb, and found it even so as the women had said: but him
25 they saw not. And he said unto them, O foolish men, and slow of heart to believe ⁴in all that the prophets have spoken! Behoved it not the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into his glory?
27 And beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they were going: and he made as though he would go further. And they constrained him, saying, Abide 29 with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is now far spent. And he went in to abide with them. And it came to pass, 30 when he had sat down with them to meat, he took the ⁵bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. And their 31 eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight. And 32 they said one to another, Was not our heart burning within us, while he spake to us in the way, while he opened to us the scriptures? And they rose up that 33 very hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, saying, 34 The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. And they rehearsed 35 the things that happened in the way, and how he was known of them in the breaking of the bread.

And as they spake these things, he 36 himself stood in the midst of them, ⁶and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. But 37 they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they beheld a spirit. And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore do reasonings arise in your heart? See my hands and my feet, 39 that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye behold me having. ⁷And when he 40 had said this, he shewed them his hands and his feet. And while they still dis- 41 believed for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here anything to eat? And they gave him a piece of a 42 broiled fish⁸. And he took it, and did 43 eat before them.

And he said unto them, These are my 44 words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, how that all things must needs be fulfilled, which are written in the law of Moses, and the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me.

45 Then opened he their mind, that they 46 might understand the scriptures; and he said unto them, Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer, and rise again 47 from the dead the third day; and that repentance ¹and remission of sins should be preached in his name unto all the 48 ²nations, beginning from Jerusalem. Ye

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. JOHN

1 IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the 2 Word was God. The same was in the 3 beginning with God. All things were made ⁵by him; and without him ⁶was
not anything made that hath been made.
4 In him was life; and the life was the 5 light of men. And the light shineth in the darkness; and the darkness ⁷apprehended it not. There came a man, sent 7 from God, whose name was John. The same came for witness, that he might bear witness of the light, that all might 8 believe through him. He was not the light, but came that he might bear witness 9 of the light. ⁸There was the true light,
even the light which lighteth ⁹every man, 10 coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made ⁵by him, 11 and the world knew him not. He came unto ¹⁰his own, and they that were his 12 own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he the right to become children of God, even to them 13 that believe on his name: which were ¹¹born, not of ¹²blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of 14 God. And the Word became flesh, and ¹³dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, glory as of ¹⁴the only begotten

from the Father), full of grace and truth.
John bareth witness of him, and crieth, 15
saying, ¹⁵This was he of whom I said,
He that cometh after me is become before me: for he was ¹⁶before me. For of 16 his fulness we all received, and grace for grace. For the law was given ⁵by Moses; 17
grace and truth came ⁵by Jesus Christ.
No man hath seen God at any time; 18
¹⁷the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared
him.

And this is the witness of John, when 19
the Jews sent unto him from Jerusalem priests and Levites to ask him, Who art thou? And he confessed, and denied not; 20
and he confessed, I am not the Christ.
And they asked him, What then? Art 21
thou Elijah? And he saith, I am not.
Art thou the prophet? And he answered,
No. They said therefore unto him, Who 22 art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? He said, I am the voice of one 23 crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said Isaiah the 24 prophet. ¹And they had been sent from 25 the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said unto him, Why then baptizest thou,

 if thou art not the Christ, neither Elijah, 26 neither the prophet? John answered them, saying, I baptize ²with water: in the midst of you standeth one whom ye 27 know not, even he that cometh after me,
 the latchet of whose shoe I am not 28 worthy to unloose. These things were done in ³Bethany beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 On the morrow he seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold, the Lamb of God, which ⁴taketh away the sin of 30 the world! This is he of whom I said,
 After me cometh a man which is become 31 before me: for he was ⁵before me. And I knew him not; but that he should be made manifest to Israel, for this cause 32 came I baptizing ²with water. And John bare witness, saying, I have beheld the Spirit descending as a dove out of hea-33 ven; and it abode upon him. And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize ²with water, he said unto me, Upon whomsoever thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and abiding upon him, the same is he that baptizeth ²with 34 the Holy Spirit. And I have seen, and have borne witness that this is the Son
 of God.

35 Again on the morrow John was stand-36 ing, and two of his disciples; and he looked upon Jesus as he walked, and 37 saith, Behold, the Lamb of God! And the two disciples heard him speak, and 38 they followed Jesus. And Jesus turned, and beheld them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? And they said unto him, Rabbi (which is to say,
 being interpreted, ⁶Master), where abid-39 est thou? He saith unto them, Come, and ye shall see. They came therefore and saw where he abode; and they abode with him that day: it was about 40 the tenth hour. One of the two that heard John speak, and followed him, was 41 Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He findeth first his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messiah (which is, being interpreted, ⁷Christ). He brought him unto Jesus. 42

 Jesus looked upon him, and said, Thou art Simon the son of ⁸John: thou shalt be called Cephas (which is by interpretation, ⁹Peter).

On the morrow he was minded to go 43
 forth into Galilee, and he findeth Philip:
 and Jesus saith unto him, Follow me.
 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, of the 44
 city of Andrew and Peter. Philip findeth 45 Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. And Na- 46
 thanael said unto him, Can any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see. Jesus saw 47 Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! Nathanael saith unto 48 him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. Nathanael an- 49 swered him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art King of Israel. Jesus 50 answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee underneath
 the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. And he 51 saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye shall see the heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

2 AND the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: and Jesus 2
 also was bidden, and his disciples, to the marriage. And when the wine failed, the 3 mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. And Jesus saith unto her, 4 Woman, what have I to do with thee?
 mine hour is not yet come. His mother 5 saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. Now there were 6

Jews' manner of purifying, containing 7 two or three firkins apiece. Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.
 8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the ¹ruler of the feast.
 9 And they bare it. And when the ruler of the feast tasted the water ²now become wine, and knew not whence it was (but the servants which had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast calleth
 10 the bridegroom, and saith unto him, Every man setteth on first the good wine; and when men have drunk freely, then that which is worse: thou hast kept
 11 the good wine until now. This beginning of his signs did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed on him.
 12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and there they abode not many days.
 13 And the passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
 14 And he found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: and he made a scourge of cords, and cast all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money,
 16 and overthrew their tables; and to them that sold the doves he said, Take these things hence; make not my Father's 17 house a house of merchandise. His disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house shall eat me up.
 18 The Jews therefore answered and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?
 19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this ³temple, and in three days I 20 will raise it up. The Jews therefore said, Forty and six years was this ³temple in building, and wilt thou raise it up in 21 three days? But he spake of the ³temple 22 of his body. When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he spake this; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

Now when he was in Jerusalem at the ²³ passover, during the feast, many believed on his name, beholding his signs which he did. But Jesus did not trust himself ²⁴ unto them, for that he knew all men, and ²⁵ because he needed not that any one should bear witness concerning ⁴man; for he himself knew what was in man.

3 NOW there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: the same came unto him by ² night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these signs that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus ³ answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born ⁵anew, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, ⁴ How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh ⁶ is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said ⁷ unto thee, Ye must be born ⁵anew. ⁶The ⁸ wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the voice thereof, but knowest not whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. Nicodemus answered and said ⁹ unto him, How can these things be? Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou the teacher of Israel, and understandest not these things? Verily, verily, ¹¹ I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and bear witness of that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. If ¹² I told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you heavenly things? And no man hath ascended into heaven, but he that descended out of heaven, even the Son of man, ⁷which is in heaven. And as Moses ¹⁴ lifted up the serpent in the wilderness,

even so must the Son of man be lifted 15 up: that whosoever ¹believeth may in him have eternal life.

16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, 17 but have eternal life. For God sent not the Son into the world to judge the world; but that the world should be 18 saved through him. He that believeth on him is not judged: he that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not believed on the name of the 19 only begotten Son of God. And this is the judgement, that the light is come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their 20 works were evil. For every one that ²doeth ill hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, lest his works should be 21 ³reproved. But he that doeth the truth cometh to the light, that his works may be made manifest, ⁴that they have been wrought in God.

22 After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judæa; and there he tarried with them, and bap-23 tized. And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there ⁵was much water there: and they came, and 24 were baptized. For John was not yet cast into prison. There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John's dis-25 ciples with a Jew about purifying. And they came unto John, and said to him,
Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond
Jordan, to whom thou hast borne witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and 26 all men come to him. John answered and said, A man can receive nothing,
except it have been given him from hea-27 ven. Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but, that 28 I am sent before him. He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled. He must increase, 30

but I must decrease.

He that cometh from above is above 31
all: he that is of the earth is of the earth,
and of the earth he speaketh: ⁶he that cometh from heaven is above all. What 32
he hath seen and heard, of that he beareth witness; and no man receiveth his wit- 33
ness hath set his seal to this, that God is true. For he whom God hath sent 34
speaketh the words of God: for he giveth
not the Spirit by measure. The Father 35
loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand. He that believeth on the 36 Son hath eternal life; but he that ⁷obeyeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

4 WHEN therefore the Lord knew how that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing
more disciples than John (although Jesus ² himself baptized not, but his disciples),
he left Judæa, and departed again into 3
Galilee. And he must needs pass through 4 Samaria. So he cometh to a city of Sa- 5
maria, called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son
Joseph: and Jacob's ⁸well was there. 6 Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat ⁹thus by the ⁸well. It was about the sixth hour. There cometh a 7 woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. For 8 his disciples were gone away into the city to buy food. The Samaritan woman 9 therefore saith unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me,
which am a Samaritan woman? (¹⁰For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)
Jesus answered and said unto her, If 10 thou knewest the gift of God, and who
it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink;
thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

 unto him, 'Sir, I perceive that thou art 20 a prophet. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to 21 worship. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jeru-22 salem, shall ye worship the Father. Ye worship that which ye know not: we worship that which we know: for salva-23 tion is from the Jews. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth: ²for such doth the 24 Father seek to be his worshippers. ³God
 is a Spirit: and they that worship him 25 must worship in spirit and truth. The woman saith unto him, I know that Messiah cometh (which is called Christ):
 when he is come, he will declare unto us 26 all things. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.
 27 And upon this came his disciples; and they marvelled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no man said, What 28 seekest thou? or, Why speakest thou with her? So the woman left her water-pot, and went away into the city, and saith to the men, Come, see a man, 29

 which told me all things that ever I did:
 can this be the Christ? They went out 30 of the city, and were coming to him. In the mean while the disciples prayed him, saying, Rabbi, eat. But he said unto 32
 them, I have meat to eat that ye know not. The disciples therefore said one 33
 to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat? Jesus saith unto them, My 34 meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to accomplish his work. Say 35 not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh the harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are ⁴white already unto harvest. He that reapeth receiveth 36 wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. For here- 37 in is the saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. I sent you to reap that 38 whereon ye have not laboured: others have laboured, and ye are entered into their labour.

And from that city many of the Sa- 39
 maritans believed on him because of the word of the woman, who testified, He told me all things that ever I did. So 40
 when the Samaritans came unto him,
 they besought him to abide with them:
 and he abode there two days. And many 41
 more believed because of his word; and 42
 they said to the woman, Now we believe,
 not because of thy speaking: for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Saviour of the world.

And after the two days he went forth 43
 from thence into Galilee. For Jesus him- 44 self testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country. So when 45
 he came into Galilee, the Galilæans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

He came therefore again unto Cana of 46
 Galilee, where he made the water wine.
 And there was a certain ⁵nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. When 47
 he heard that Jesus was come out of Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son; for he was at the point of death. Jesus therefore said unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will in no wise believe. The ¹nobleman saith unto him, ²Sir, come down ere my child die. Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. The man believed the word that Jesus spake unto him, and he went his way. And as he was now going down, his ³servants met him, saying, that his son lived. So he inquired of them the hour when he began to amend. They said therefore unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house. This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judæa into Galilee.

5 AFTER these things there was ⁴a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is in Jerusalem by the sheep gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew ⁵Bethesda, having five porches. In these lay a multitude of them that were sick, blind, halt, withered⁶. And a certain man was there, which had been thirty and eight years in his infirmity. 6 When Jesus saw him lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wouldest thou be made whole? The sick man answered him, ⁷Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. Jesus saith unto him, 8 Arise, take up thy bed, and walk. And straightway the man was made whole, and took up his bed and walked.

Now it was the sabbath on that day. 10 So the Jews said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath, and it is not lawful for thee to take up thy bed. But he answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk. They asked him, 12 Who is the man that said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk? But he that 13 was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in the place. Afterward 14 Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing befall thee. The man went away, and 15 told the Jews that it was Jesus which had made him whole. And for this cause 16 did the Jews persecute Jesus, because he did these things on the sabbath. But 17 Jesus answered them, My Father worketh even until now, and I work. For this 18 cause therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only brake the sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God.

Jesus therefore answered and said 19 unto them,

Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father doing: for what things soever he doeth, these the Son also doeth in like manner. For the Father 20 loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and greater works than these will he shew him, that ye may marvel. For as the Father raiseth 21 the dead and quickeneth them, even so the Son also quickeneth whom he will. For neither doth the Father judge any 22 man, but he hath given all judgement unto the Son; that all may honour the 23 Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which sent him. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that 24 heareth my word, and believeth him that sent me, hath eternal life, and cometh not into judgement, but hath passed out of death into life. Verily, 25 verily, I say unto you, The hour cometh, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they

26 that hear shall live. For as the Father hath life in himself, even so gave he to 27 the Son also to have life in himself: and he gave him authority to execute judgement,
because he is ¹the Son of man.
28 Marvel not at this: for the hour cometh,
in which all that are in the tombs shall 29 hear his voice, and shall come forth;
they that have done good, unto the resurrection
of life; and they that have ²done ill, unto the resurrection of judgement.
30 I can of myself do nothing: as I hear,
I judge: and my judgement is righteous;
because I seek not mine own will, but 31 the will of him that sent me. If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.
32 It is another that beareth witness of me;
and I know that the witness which he 33 witnesseth of me is true. Ye have sent unto John, and he hath borne witness 34 unto the truth. But the witness which I receive is not from man: howbeit I say 35 these things, that ye may be saved. He was the lamp that burneth and shineth:
and ye were willing to rejoice for a season 36 in his light. But the witness which I have is greater than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me
to accomplish, the very works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath 37 sent me. And the Father which sent me, he hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor 38 seen his form. And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he sent, 39 him ye believe not. ³Ye search the scriptures, because ye think that in them
ye have eternal life; and these are they 40 which bear witness of me; and ye will not come to me, that ye may have life.
41 I receive not glory from men. But I 42 know you, that ye have not the love of 43 God in yourselves. I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not:
if another shall come in his own name, 44 him ye will receive. How can ye believe,

you to the Father: there is one that accuseth
you, even Moses, on whom ye have set your hope. For if ye believed 46
Moses, ye would believe me; for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his 47 writings, how shall ye believe my words?
6 AFTER these things Jesus went away to the other side of the sea
of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.
And a great multitude followed him, 2
because they beheld the signs which he did on them that were sick. And Jesus 3 went up into the mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. Now the passover, 4
the feast of the Jews, was at hand. Jesus 5 therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude cometh unto him,
saith unto Philip, Whence are we to buy ⁵bread, that these may eat? And this he 6 said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do. Philip answered him, 7
Two hundred ⁶pennyworth of ⁵bread is not sufficient for them, that every one may take a little. One of his disciples, 8
Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, There is a lad here, which 9
hath five barley loaves, and two fishes:
but what are these among so many?
Jesus said, Make the people sit down. 10
Now there was much grass in the place.
So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. Jesus therefore took the 11 loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to them that were set down; likewise
also of the fishes as much as they would.
And when they were filled, 12
he saith unto his disciples, Gather up
the broken pieces which remain over,
that nothing be lost. So they gathered 13 them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves,
which remained over unto them that had eaten. When therefore the people saw 14
the ⁷sign which he did, they said, This is of a truth the prophet that cometh into the world.

force, to make him king, withdrew again into the mountain himself alone.

16 And when evening came, his disciples
17 went down unto the sea; and they entered into a boat, and were going over the sea unto Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. And the sea was rising by reason of 19 a great wind that blew. When therefore they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they behold Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the 20 boat: and they were afraid. But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid. They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat: and straightway the boat was at the land whither they were going.

22 On the morrow the multitude which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other ¹boat there, save one, and that Jesus entered not with his disciples into the boat, but that
23 his disciples went away alone (howbeit there came ²boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks): when the multitude therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they themselves got into the ²boats, and came
25 to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. And when they found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi,
26 when camest thou hither? Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw signs, but because ye ate of the 27 loaves, and were filled. Work not for the meat which perisheth, but for the meat which abideth unto eternal life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him the Father, even God, hath sealed. They said therefore unto him, What must we do, that we may work the 29 works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom ³he hath 30 sent. They said therefore unto him, What then doest thou for a sign, that we may see, and believe thee? what 31 workest thou? Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, He gave them bread out of heaven to eat. Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, 32 verily, I say unto you, It was not Moses that gave you the bread out of heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread out of heaven. For the bread of God is 33 that which cometh down out of heaven, and giveth life unto the world. They 34 said therefore unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread. Jesus said unto them, 35 I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall not hunger, and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. But I said 36 unto you, that ye have seen me, and yet believe not. All that which the Father 37 giveth me shall come unto me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I am come down from heaven, 38 not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And this is the will of 39 him that sent me, that of all that which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that 40 every one that beholdeth the Son, and believeth on him, should have eternal life; and ⁴¹I will raise him up at the last day.

The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, I am the bread which came down out of heaven. And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son 42 of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how doth he now say, I am come down out of heaven? Jesus answered and 43 said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves. No man can come to me, 44 except the Father which sent me draw him: and I will raise him up in the last day. It is written in the prophets, And 45 they shall all be taught of God. Every one that hath heard from the Father, and hath learned, cometh unto me. Not 46 that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is from God, he hath seen the Father. Verily, verily, I say unto you, 47 He that believeth hath eternal life. I am 48 the bread of life. Your fathers did eat 49 the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread which cometh 50 down out of heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. I am the living 51

bread which came down out of heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: yea and the bread which I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore strove one with another, saying, How can this man give 53 us his flesh to eat? Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, ye have not life in 54 yourselves. He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life; and 55 I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is ¹meat indeed, and my blood 56 is ²drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood abideth in me, 57 and I in him. As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he that eateth me, he also shall live be-
58 cause of me. This is the bread which came down out of heaven: not as the fathers did eat, and died: he that eateth
59 this bread shall live for ever. These things said he in ³the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they heard this, said, This is a hard say-
61 ing; who can hear it? But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples mur-
62 mured at this, said unto them, Doth this cause you to stumble? What then if ye should behold the Son of man ascending
63 where he was before? It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I have spoken unto you 64 are spirit, and are life. But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who it was that 65 should betray him. And he said, For this cause have I said unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it be given unto him of the Father.

66 Upon this many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.
67 Jesus said therefore unto the twelve,
68 Would ye also go away? Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou ⁴hast the words of eternal life.

And we have believed and know that 69 thou art the Holy One of God. Jesus 70 answered them, Did not I choose you the twelve, and one of you is a devil? Now he spake of Judas the son of Simon 71 Iscariot, for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

7 AND after these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judæa, because the Jews sought to kill him. Now the feast of the Jews, the 2 feast of tabernacles, was at hand. His 3 brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judæa, that thy disciples also may behold thy works which thou doest. For no man doeth 4 anything in secret, ⁵and himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou doest these things, manifest thyself to the world. For even his brethren did not believe on 5 him. Jesus therefore saith unto them, 6 My time is not yet come; but your time is always ready. The world cannot hate 7 you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that its works are evil. Go ye up 8 unto the feast: I go not up ⁷yet unto this feast; because my time is not yet fulfilled. And having said these things unto 9 them, he abode still in Galilee.

But when his brethren were gone up 10 unto the feast, then went he also up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. The 11 Jews therefore sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? And there was 12 much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him: some said, He is a good man; others said, Not so, but he leadeth the multitude astray. Howbeit no man 13 spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

But when it was now the midst of the 14 feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught. The Jews therefore marvelled, 15 saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? Jesus therefore 16 answered them, and said, My teaching is not mine, but his that sent me. If any 17 man willett to do his will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it be of God, or whether I speak from myself. He that 18

speaketh from himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh the glory of him that sent him, the same is true, and 19 no unrighteousness is in him. Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you doeth the law? Why seek ye to kill 20 me? The multitude answered, Thou hast 21 a devil: who seeketh to kill thee? Jesus answered and said unto them, I did one 22 work, and ye all marvel. For this cause hath Moses given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers);
 and on the sabbath ye circumcise a man.
 23 If a man receiveth circumcision on the sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken; are ye wroth with me, because I made a man every whit whole on the 24 sabbath? Judge not according to appearance, but judge righteous judgement.
 25 Some therefore of them of Jerusalem said, Is not this he whom they seek to 26 kill? And lo, he speaketh openly, and they say nothing unto him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is 27 the Christ? Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ com-28 eth, no one knoweth whence he is. Jesus therefore cried in the temple, teaching and saying, Ye both know me, and know whence I am; and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom 29 ye know not. I know him; because I am 30 from him, and he sent me. They sought therefore to take him: and no man laid his hand on him, because his hour was 31 not yet come. But of the multitude many believed on him; and they said,
 When the Christ shall come, will he do more signs than those which this man 32 hath done? The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him; and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to take him.
 33 Jesus therefore said, Yet a little while am
 I with you, and I go unto him that sent 34 me. Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, ye cannot come.
 35 The Jews therefore said among themselves, Whither will this man go that we shall not find him? will he go unto the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? What is this word that he 36 said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find

 me: and where I am, ye cannot come?

Now on the last day, the great day of 37
 the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying,
 If any man thirst, let him come unto me,
 and drink. He that believeth on me, as 38
 the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this 39 spake he of the Spirit, which they that believed on him were to receive: for the Spirit was not yet given; because Jesus was not yet glorified. Some of the multi- 40
 tude therefore, when they heard these words, said, This is of a truth the prophet. Others said, This is the Christ. 41
 But some said, What, doth the Christ come out of Galilee? Hath not the scrip- 42
 ture said that the Christ cometh of the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was? So there arose a 43 division in the multitude because of him.
 And some of them would have taken him; 44
 but no man laid hands on him.

The officers therefore came to the 45
 chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why did ye not bring him?
 The officers answered, Never man so 46
 spake. The Pharisees therefore answered 47 them, Are ye also led astray? Hath any 48 of the rulers believed on him, or of the Pharisees? But this multitude which 49 knoweth not the law are accursed. Nico- 50 demus saith unto them (he that came to him before, being one of them), Doth 51
 our law judge a man, except it first hear from himself and know what he doeth?
 They answered and said unto him, Art 52
 thou also of Galilee? Search, and see that out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

 scribes and the Pharisees bring a woman taken in adultery; and having set her in 4 the midst, they say unto him, 'Master,
 this woman hath been taken in adultery,
 5 in the very act. Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such: what then 6 sayest thou of her? And this they said, ²tempting him, that they might have whereof to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the 7 ground. But when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.
 8 And again he stooped down, and with 9 his finger wrote on the ground. And they, when they heard it, went out one by one, beginning from the eldest, even

 and the woman, where she was, in the 10 midst. And Jesus lifted up himself, and said unto her, Woman, where are they?
 11 did no man condemn thee? And she said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn thee: go thy way;
 from henceforth sin no more.]

12 Again therefore Jesus spake unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the 13 light of life. The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest witness of 14 thyself; thy witness is not true. Jesus answered and said unto them, Even if I bear witness of myself, my witness is true; for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye know not whence I 15 come, or whither I go. Ye judge after 16 the flesh; I judge no man. Yea and if I judge, my judgement is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father that 17 sent me. Yea and in your law it is written, that the witness of two men is 18 true. I am he that beareth witness of myself, and the Father that sent me

beareth witness of me. They said therefore unto him, Where is thy Father?
 Jesus answered, Ye know neither me,
 nor my Father: if ye knew me, ye would know my Father also. These words 20 spake he in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man took him; because his hour was not yet come.

He said therefore again unto them, I 21
 go away, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sin: whither I go, ye cannot come. The Jews therefore said, Will he 22 kill himself, that he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come? And he said unto them, 23
 Ye are from beneath; I am from above:
 ye are of this world; I am not of this world. I said therefore unto you, that ye 24 shall die in your sins: for except ye believe that ³I am he, ye shall die in your sins. They said therefore unto him, 25
 Who art thou? Jesus said unto them,
 'Even that which I have also spoken unto you from the beginning. I have 26
 many things to speak and to judge concerning you: howbeit he that sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these speak I ⁵unto the world. They 27 perceived not that he spake to them of the Father. Jesus therefore said, When 28 ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that ⁶I am he, and that I do nothing of myself, but as the Father taught me, I speak these things. And he 29 that sent me is with me; he hath not left me alone; for I do always the things that are pleasing to him. As he spake these 30 things, many believed on him.

Jesus therefore said to those Jews 31
 which had believed him, If ye abide in my word, then are ye truly my disciples;
 and ye shall know the truth, and the 32
 truth shall make you free. They an- 33
 swered unto him, We be Abraham's seed, and have never yet been in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? Jesus answered 34
 them, Verily, verily, I say unto you,

36 son abideth for ever. If therefore the 37 Son shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. I know that ye are Abraham's 38 seed; yet ye seek to kill me, because my word ¹hath not free course in you. I speak the things which I have seen with 39 ²my Father: and ye also do the things which ye heard from your father. They answered and said unto him, Our father is Abraham. Jesus saith unto them, If 40 ye ³were Abraham's children, ⁴ye would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you
 the truth, which I heard from God: this 41 did not Abraham. Ye do the works of your father. They said unto him, We were not born of fornication; we have 42 one Father, even God. Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I came forth and am come from God; for neither have I come 43 of myself, but he sent me. Why do ye not ⁵understand my speech? Even be-44 cause ye cannot hear my word. Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father it is your will to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and ⁶'stood not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. ⁷When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a 45 liar, and the father thereof. But because 46 I say the truth, ye believe me not. Which of you convicteth me of sin? If I say 47 truth, why do ye not believe me? He that is of God heareth the words of God:
 for this cause ye hear them not, because 48 ye are not of God. The Jews answered and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a ⁸'devil?
 49 Jesus answered, I have not a ⁸'devil; but I honour my Father, and ye dishonour 50 me. But I seek not mine own glory:
 there is one that seeketh and judgeth.
 51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man
 keep my word, he shall never see death.
 52 The Jews said unto him, Now we know that thou hast a ⁸'devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my word, he shall never taste of death. Art thou greater than our fa- 53 ther Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself? Jesus answered, If I glorify my- 54

 self, my glory is nothing: it is my Father that glorifieth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God; and ye have not known 55 him: but I know him; and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be like unto you, a liar: but I know him, and keep his word. Your father Abraham rejoiced 56 ⁹'to see my day; and he saw it, and was glad. The Jews therefore said unto him, 57
 Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? Jesus said unto 58
 them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham ¹⁰'was, I am. They took up stones therefore to cast at him: but Jesus ¹¹'hid himself, and went out of the temple¹².

9 AND as he passed by, he saw a man
 blind from his birth. And his dis- 2 ciples asked him, saying, Rabbi, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he should be born blind? Jesus answered, 3
 Neither did this man sin, nor his parents:
 but that the works of God should be made manifest in him. We must work 4
 the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. When I am in the world, I 5 am the light of the world. When he had 6 thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, ¹³and anointed
 his eyes with the clay, and said unto him, 7 Go, wash in the pool of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent). He went away therefore, and washed, and came seeing. The neighbours therefore, and 8 they which saw him aforetime, that he was a beggar, said, Is not this he that sat and begged? Others said, It is he: 9 others said, No, but he is like him. He said, I am he. They said therefore unto 10
 him, How then were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, The man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to Siloam, and wash: so I went away and washed, and I received sight. And they said unto him, Where is he? He saith, I know not. 13 They bring to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. Now it was the sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. And he said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see. Some therefore of the Pharisees said, This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. But others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such signs? And there was a division among them. They say therefore unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, in that he opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a prophet. The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight, and asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see? His parents answered and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: but how he now seeth, we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not: ask him; he is of age; he shall speak for himself. These things said his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man should confess him to be Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. 23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him. So they called a second time the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give glory to God: we know that this man is a sinner. He therefore answered, Whether he be a sinner, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. They said therefore unto him, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? He answered them, I told you even now, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? would ye also become his disciples? And they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are disciples of Moses. We know that God hath spoken unto Moses: but as for this man, we know not whence he is. The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is the marvel, that ye know not whence he is, and yet he opened mine eyes. We know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and do his will, him he heareth. Since the world began it was never heard that any one opened the eyes of a man born blind. If this man were not from God, he could do nothing. They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and finding him, he said, Dost thou believe on 'the Son of God? He answered and said, And who is he, Lord, that I may believe on him? Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and he it is that speaketh with thee. And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him. And Jesus said, For judgement came I into this world, that they which see not may see; and that they which see may become blind. Those of the Pharisees which were with him heard these things, and said unto him, Are we also blind? Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye would have no sin: but now ye say, We see: your sin remaineth.

Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

- 7 Jesus therefore said unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the 8 door of the sheep. All that came before me are thieves and robbers: but the 9 sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and go out, and
10 shall find pasture. The thief cometh not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy: I came that they may have life, and may 11 have it abundantly. I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd layeth down his life for the sheep. He that is a hireling, and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholdeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and the wolf snatcheth them, and 12 scattereth them: he fleeth because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep.
13 I am the good shepherd; and I know mine own, and mine own know me, even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must 14 bring, and they shall hear my voice; and they shall become one flock, one shepherd. Therefore doth the Father love me, because I lay down my 15 life, that I may take it again. No one taketh it away from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have 16 power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment received I from my Father.

- 19 There arose a division again among the Jews because of these words. And many of them said, He hath a 20 devil, and is mad; why hear ye him? Others said, These are not the sayings of one possessed with a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?
21 And it was the feast of the dedication at Jerusalem: it was winter; and Jesus was walking in the temple in Solomon's
22 porch. The Jews therefore came round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou hold us in suspense? If thou art the Christ, tell us plainly. Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believe not: the works that I do in my Father's name, these bear witness of me. But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep. My sheep hear my voice, and 25 I know them, and they follow me: and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand. My 26 Father, which hath given them unto me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. I

27 and the Father are one. The Jews took up stones again to stone him. Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from the Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? The Jews answered him, For a good
28 work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God. Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? If he called 29 them gods, unto whom the word of God came (and the scripture cannot be broken), say ye of him, whom the Father
30 sanctified and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God? If I do not the works of my 31 Father, believe me not. But if I do them, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and understand that the Father is in me, and I in the Father. They sought again to take 32 him: and he went forth out of their hand.

And he went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John was at the first baptizing; and there he abode. And many came unto him; and they 33 said, John indeed did no sign: but all things whatsoever John spake of this man were true. And many believed on 34 him there.

was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was 3 sick. The sisters therefore sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom
4 thou lovest is sick. But when Jesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified thereby.
5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. When therefore he heard that he was sick, he abode at that time two days in the place where he was.
7 Then after this he saith to the disciples,
8 Let us go into Judæa again. The disciples say unto him, Rabbi, the Jews were but now seeking to stone thee; and 9 goest thou thither again? Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this 10 world. But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because the light is not in 11 him. These things spake he: and after this he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus is fallen asleep; but I go, that I 12 may awake him out of sleep. The disciples therefore said unto him, Lord, if 13 he is fallen asleep, he will ¹recover. Now Jesus had spoken of his death: but they thought that he spake of taking rest in 14 sleep. Then Jesus therefore said unto 15 them plainly, Lazarus is dead. And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe;
16 nevertheless let us go unto him. Thomas therefore, who is called ²Didymus, said unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.
17 So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days already. Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off;
18 and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother. Martha therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary still sat in 21 the house. Martha therefore said unto

Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. And even now I 22 know that, whatsoever thou shalt ask of God, God will give thee. Jesus saith 23 unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. Martha saith unto him, I know that he 24 shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said unto her, I am the 25 resurrection, and the life: he that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall 26 he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth on me shall never die. Believest thou this? She saith unto him, Yea, 27 Lord: I have believed that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, even he that cometh into the world. And when she 28 had said this, she went away, and called Mary ³her sister secretly, saying, The 29 ⁴Master is here, and calleth thee. And she, when she heard it, arose quickly, and went unto him. (Now Jesus was not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha met him.)
31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and were comforting her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing that she was going unto the tomb to ⁵weep there. Mary therefore, when 32 she came where Jesus was, and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. When Jesus there-33 fore saw her ⁶weeping, and the Jews also ⁷weeping which came with her, he ⁸groaned in the spirit, and ⁹was troubled, and said, Where have ye laid him? They 34 say unto him, Lord, come and see. Jesus wept. The Jews therefore said, Behold
35 how he loved him! But some of them
36 said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of him that was blind, have caused that this man also should not die? Jesus therefore again ¹⁰groaning in 38 himself cometh to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay ¹¹against it. Jesus 39 saith, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stink-

- 40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou believedst, thou 41 shouldest see the glory of God? So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I 42 thank thee that thou heardest me. And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the multitude which standeth around I said it, that they may believe
43 that thou didst send me. And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud
44 voice, Lazarus, come forth. He that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with ¹grave-clothes; and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.
45 Many therefore of the Jews, which came to Mary and beheld ²that which 46 he did, believed on him. But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done.
47 The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many 48 signs. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans will come and take away both our place and 49 our nation. But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all, 50 nor do ye take account that it is expedient for you that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish
51 not. Now this he said not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the 52 nation; and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God that are scattered abroad. So from that day forth 53 they took counsel that they might put him to death.
54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but departed thence into the country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim; and there he 55 tarried with the disciples. Now the passover of the Jews was at hand: and many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the passover, to purify themselves. They sought therefore for Jesus, ⁵⁶ and spake one with another, as they stood in the temple, What think ye? That he will not come to the feast? Now ⁵⁷ the chief priests and the Pharisees had given commandment, that, if any man knew where he was, he should shew it, that they might take him.

12 JESUS therefore six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus raised from the dead. So they made him a ² supper there: and Martha served; but Lazarus was one of them that sat at meat with him. Mary therefore took a pound ³ of ointment of ⁴spikenard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment. But ⁴ Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples, which should betray him, saith, Why was not ⁵ this ointment sold for three hundred ⁶pence, and given to the poor? Now this ⁶ he said, not because he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and having the ⁷bag ⁸took away what was put therein. Jesus therefore said, ⁷Suffer ⁹her to keep it against the day of my burying. For the poor ye have always with ⁸you; but me ye have not always.

The common people therefore of the ⁹ Jews learned that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. But the chief ¹⁰ priests took counsel that they might put Lazarus also to death; because that by ¹¹ reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

On the morrow ¹²a great multitude that ¹² had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, took ¹³ the branches of the palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried out, Hosanna: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord, even the King of 14 Israel. And Jesus, having found a young 15 ass, sat thereon; as it is written, Fear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King 16 cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified,

 then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had 17 done these things unto him. The multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, bare witness.
 18 For this cause also the multitude went and met him, for that they heard that he 19 had done this sign. The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, ¹Behold how ye prevail nothing: lo, the world is gone
 after him.
 20 Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship at the 21 feast: these therefore came to Philip,
 which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, Sir, we would see Je-22 sus. Philip cometh and telleth Andrew:
 Andrew cometh, and Philip, and they 23 tell Jesus. And Jesus answereth them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son 24 of man should be glorified. Verily, verily,
 I say unto you, Except a grain of wheat fall into the earth and die, it abideth by itself alone; but if it die, it beareth much 25 fruit. He that loveth his ²life loseth it;
 and he that hateth his ²life in this world 26 shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant
 be: if any man serve me, him will the 27 Father honour. Now is my soul troubled;
 and what shall I say? Father, save me from this ³hour. But for this cause came 28 I unto this hour. Father, glorify thy name. There came therefore a voice out of heaven, saying, I have both glorified 29 it, and will glorify it again. The multitude therefore, that stood by, and heard
 it, said that it had thundered: others said, 30 An angel hath spoken to him. Jesus answered and said, This voice hath not come for my sake, but for your sakes.
 31 Now is ⁴the judgement of this world:

now shall the prince of this world be cast
 out. And I, if I be lifted up ⁵from the 32
 earth, will draw all men unto myself.
 But this he said, signifying by what man- 33
 ner of death he should die. The multi- 34
 tude therefore answered him, We have heard out of the law that the Christ
 abideth for ever: and how sayest thou,
 The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man? Jesus therefore said 35 unto them, Yet a little while is the light ⁶among you. Walk while ye have the light, that darkness overtake you not: and he that walketh in the darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. While ye have the 36 light, believe on the light, that ye may become sons of light.

These things spake Jesus, and he departed and ⁷hid himself from them. But 37 though he had done so many signs before them, yet they believed not on him:
 that the word of Isaiah the prophet might 38
 be fulfilled, which he spake,

Lord, who hath believed our report?

And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

For this cause they could not believe, 39
 for that Isaiah said again,

He hath blinded their eyes, and he 40
 hardened their heart;

Lest they should see with their eyes,
 and perceive with their heart,

And should turn,

And I should heal them.

These things said Isaiah, because he saw 41
 his glory; and he spake of him. Never- 42
 theless even of the rulers many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess ⁸it, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: for they loved 43
 the glory of men more than the glory
 of God.

And Jesus cried and said, He that 44
 believeth on me, believeth not on me,
 but on him that sent me. And he that 45 beholdeth me beholdeth him that sent me. I am come a light into the world, 46 that whosoever believeth on me may not abide in the darkness. And if any man 47 hear my sayings, and keep them not, I myself; but the Father which sent me,

 he hath given me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.
 50 And I know that his commandment is life eternal: the things therefore which I speak, even as the Father hath said unto me, so I speak.

13 NOW before the feast of the passover, Jesus knowing that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he 2 loved them ¹unto the end. And during supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son,
 3 to betray him, Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands,
 and that he came forth from God, and 4 goeth unto God, riseth from supper, and layeth aside his garments; and he took 5 a towel, and girded himself. Then he poureth water into the bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was 6 girded. So he cometh to Simon Peter.
 He saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash 7 my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now;
 8 but thou shalt understand hereafter. Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with 9 me. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and 10 my head. Jesus saith to him, He that is bathed needeth not ²save to wash his feet,
 but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, 11 but not all. For he knew him that should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.
 12 So when he had washed their feet,
 and taken his garments, and ³sat down again, he said unto them, Know ye what

I have done to you? Ye call me, 'Master, 13
 and, Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.
 If I then, the Lord and the 'Master, have 14
 washed your feet, ye also ought to wash
 one another's feet. For I have given you 15 an example, that ye also should do as I have done to you. Verily, verily, I say 16 unto you, A ⁴servant is not greater than his lord; neither ⁵one that is sent greater than he that sent him. If ye know these 17 things, blessed are ye if ye do them.
 I speak not of you all: I know whom I 18 ⁶have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth ⁷my bread lifted up his heel against me. From 19 henceforth I tell you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that ⁸I am he. Verily, verily, 20
 I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

When Jesus had thus said, he was 21 troubled in the spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. The dis- 22
 ciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake. There was at the 23
 table reclining in Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. Simon 24 Peter therefore beckoneth to him, and saith unto him, Tell us who it is of whom he speaketh. He leaning back, as he was, 25
 on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord,
 who is it? Jesus therefore answereth, 26
 He it is, for whom I shall dip the sop, and give it him. So when he had dipped
 the sop, he taketh and giveth it to Judas,
 the son of Simon Iscariot. And after the 27 sop, then entered Satan into him. Jesus therefore saith unto him, That thou doest, do quickly. Now no man at the 28
 table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. For some thought, because 29 Judas had the ⁹bag, that Jesus said unto him, Buy what things we have need of
 for the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor. He then having 30 received the sop went out straightway:
 and it was night.

31 When therefore he was gone out, Jesus saith, Now ¹is the Son of man glorified, and God ²is glorified in him; and God shall glorify him in himself, and straightway shall he glorify him. Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say unto you. A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; ³even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow afterwards. 37 Peter saith unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee even now? I will lay down 38 my life for thee. Jesus answereth, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

14 LET not your heart be troubled: ¹ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many ²mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place 3 for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I come again, and will receive you unto myself; that where I am, ⁴there ye may be also. ⁵And whither I go, ye know the way. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; 6 how know we the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no one cometh unto the Father, 7 but ⁶by me. If ye had known me, ye would have known my Father also: from henceforth ye know him, and have seen 8 him. Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and dost thou not know me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; how sayest thou, Shew us the Father? And whatsoever ye shall ask in ¹³my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ¹⁴ask ⁷me anything in my name, that will I do. If ye love me, ye will keep my ¹⁵commandments. And I will ⁸pray the ¹⁶Father, and he shall give you another ⁹Comforter, that he may be with you for ever, even the Spirit of truth: whom the ¹⁷world cannot receive; for it beholdeth him not, neither knoweth him: ye know him; for he abideth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you ¹⁸desolate: ¹⁹I come unto you. Yet a little while, and the world beholdeth me no more; but ye behold me: because I live, ²⁰ye shall live also. In that day ye shall know that I am ²¹in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. He that hath my commandments, and ²²keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself unto him. Judas (not ²³22 Iscariot) saith unto him, Lord, what is come to pass that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? Jesus answered and said unto him, If ²⁴23 a man love me, he will keep my word: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. 27 you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be 28 troubled, neither let it be fearful. Ye heard how I said to you, I go away, and I come unto you. If ye loved me, ye would have rejoiced, because I go unto the Father: for the Father is greater than 29 I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to 30 pass, ye may believe. I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world cometh: and he hath nothing
 31 in me; but that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

15 I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh it away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may bear
 3 more fruit. Already ye are clean because of the word which I have spoken unto
 4 you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; so neither can ye,
 5 except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing.
 6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, 7 and they are burned. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatsoever ye will, and it shall be done unto
 8 you. Herein ¹is my Father glorified, ²that ye bear much fruit; and so shall ye be my disciples. Even as the Father hath loved me, I also have loved you: abide 9 ye in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's command-
 10 ments, and abide in his love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy 12 may be fulfilled. This is my commandment, that ye love one another, even as

I have loved you. Greater love hath no 13 man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, 14 if ye do the things which I command you. No longer do I call you ³servants; 15 for the ⁴servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I heard from my Father I have made known unto you. Ye did 16 not choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should abide: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. These 17 things I command you, that ye may love one another. If the world hateth you, 18 ⁵ye know that it hath hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, 19 the world would love its own: but because ye are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that 20 I said unto you, A ⁶servant is not greater than his lord. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they kept my word, they will keep yours also. But 21 all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me. If I had not come and 22 spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no excuse for their sin. He that hateth me hateth my Father 23 also. If I had not done among them the 24 works which none other did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. But 25 this cometh to pass, that the word may be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause. But when the 26 ⁶Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which ⁷proceedeth from the Father, he shall bear witness of me: ⁸and 27 ye also bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

16 THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be made to stumble. They shall put you out of 2 the synagogues: yea, the hour cometh,

 4 have not known the Father, nor me. But these things have I spoken unto you, that when their hour is come, ye may remember them, how that I told you. And these things I said not unto you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I go unto him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? But because I have spoken these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your
 7 heart. Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the ¹Comforter will not come unto you; but if I go, I will
 8 send him unto you. And he, when he is come, will convict the world in respect of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgement: of sin, because they believe not
 9 on me; of righteousness, because I go to the Father, and ye behold me no more;
 11 of judgement, because the prince of this world hath been judged. I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot 13 bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he shall guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak from himself; but what things soever he shall hear, these shall he speak: and he shall declare unto you the things
 14 that are to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall take of mine, and shall declare it unto you. All things whatsoever the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he taketh of mine, and shall declare it unto you. A little while, and ye behold me no more; and again a little 17 while, and ye shall see me. Some of his disciples therefore said one to another, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye behold me not; and again a little while, and ye shall see me: and,
 18 Because I go to the Father? They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? We know not what he saith.
 19 Jesus perceived that they were desirous to ask him, and he said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, A little while, and ye behold me not, and again a little while, and ye shall see me? Verily, verily, I say 20 unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman when she is 21 in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but when she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for the joy that a man is born into the world. And ye therefore now 22 have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one taketh away from you. And 23 in that day ye shall ²ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If ye shall ask anything of the Father, he will give it you in my name. Hitherto have ye 24 asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be fulfilled.

These things have I spoken unto you 25 in ³proverbs: the hour cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in ³proverbs, but shall tell you plainly of the Father. In that day ye shall ask in my 26 name: and I say not unto you, that I will ⁴pray the Father for you; for the Father 27 himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came forth from the Father. I came out from the 28 Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go unto the Father. His disciples say, Lo, now 29 speakest thou plainly, and speakest no ⁵proverb. Now know we that thou know- 30 est all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God. Jesus 31 answered them, Do ye now believe? Be- 32 hold, the hour cometh, yea, is come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. These things have I spoken 33 unto you, that in me ye may have peace. In the world ye have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

17 THESE things spake Jesus; and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that the Son may glorify thee:
 2 even as thou gavest him authority over all flesh, that whatsoever thou hast given him, to them he should give eternal life.
 3 And this is life eternal, that they should know thee the only true God, and him whom thou didst send, even Jesus Christ.
 4 I glorified thee on the earth, having accomplished the work which thou hast given me to do. And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before
 6 the world was. I manifested thy name unto the men whom thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them to me; and they have kept
 7 thy word. Now they know that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are from thee: for the words which thou gavest me I have given unto them; and they received them, and knew of a truth that I came forth from thee, and they believed 9 that thou didst send me. I 'pray for them: I 'pray not for the world, but for those whom thou hast given me; for they 10 are thine: and all things that are mine are thine, and thine are mine: and I am glorified in them. And I am no more in the world, and these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep them in thy name which thou hast given me, that they may be one, even as we 12 are. While I was with them, I kept them in thy name which thou hast given me: and I guarded them, and not one of them perished, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I come to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my 14 joy fulfilled in themselves. I have given them thy word; and the world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. I 'pray not that thou shouldest take them ²from the world, but that thou shouldest keep 16 them ²from ³the evil one. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 'Sanctify them in the truth: thy 17 word is truth. As thou didst send me 18 into the world, even so sent I them into the world. And for their sakes I 'sanctify 19 myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth. Neither for these 20 only do I 'pray, but for them also that believe on me through their word; that 21 they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us: that the world may believe that thou didst send me. And the glory 22 which thou hast given me I have given unto them; that they may be one, even as we are one; I in them, and thou in 23 me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that thou didst send me, and lovedst them, even as thou lovedst me. Father, ⁵that which thou 24 hast given me, I will that, where I am, they also may be with me; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. O righteous 25 Father, the world knew thee not, but I knew thee; and these knew that thou didst send me; and I made known unto 26 them thy name, and will make it known; that the love wherewith thou lovedst me may be in them, and I in them.

18 WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the ⁶brook ⁷Kidron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, himself and his disciples. Now Judas 2 also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples. Judas then, having received 3 the ⁸band of soldiers, and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. Jesus therefore, knowing all 4 the things that were coming upon him, went forth, and saith unto them, Whom seek ye? They answered him, Jesus of 5 Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, was standing with them. When there- 6 fore he said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Again therefore he asked them, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered, I told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, Of those whom thou hast given me I lost not one. Simon Peter therefore having a sword drew it, and struck the high priest's ¹servant, and cut off his right ear. Now the ¹servant's name was Malchus. Jesus therefore said unto Peter, Put up the sword into the sheath: the cup which the Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 So the ²band and the ³chief captain, and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him, and led him to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was high priest that year.

14 Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Now that disciple was known unto the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest; but Peter was standing at the door without. So the other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, went out and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 The maid therefore that kept the door saith unto Peter, Art thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. Now the ⁴servants and the officers were standing there, having made ⁵a fire of coals; for it was cold; and they were warming themselves: and Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

19 The high priest therefore asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his teaching. Jesus answered him, I have spoken openly to the world; I ever taught in ⁶synagogues, and in the temple, where all the Jews come together; and in secret spake I nothing. Why askest thou me? ask them that have heard me, what I spake unto them: behold, these know the things which I said. And when he had said this, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus ⁷with his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? Jesus answered ²³him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? Annas therefore sent him bound ²⁴unto Caiaphas the high priest.

Now Simon Peter was standing and ²⁵warming himself. They said therefore unto him, Art thou also one of his disciples? He denied, and said, I am not. One of the ⁴servants of the high priest, ²⁶being a kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him? Peter therefore denied ²⁷again: and straightway the cock crew.

They lead Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the ⁸palace: and it was early; and they themselves entered not into the ⁸palace, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the passover. Pilate therefore went out unto them, and saith, What accusation bring ye against this man? They answered and said unto him, If ³⁰this man were not an evil-doer, we should not have delivered him up unto thee. Pilate therefore said unto them, Take ³¹him yourselves, and judge him according to your law. The Jews said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: that the word of Jesus might ³²be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should die.

Pilate therefore entered again into the ³³⁸palace, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews? Jesus answered, Sayest thou this of thyself, or did others tell it thee concerning me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? ³⁵Thine own nation and the chief priests delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is ³⁶not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my ⁹servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto ³⁷him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, ¹⁰Thou sayest that I am a king.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth?

And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find no crime in him. But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? They cried out therefore again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

19 THEN Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and arrayed him in a purple garment; and they came unto him, and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they struck him with their hands. And Pilate went out again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him out to you, that ye may know that I find no crime in him. Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold, the man! When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take him yourselves, and crucify him: for I find no crime in him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. When Pilate therefore heard this saying, he was the more afraid; and he entered into the palace again, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore saith unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to release thee, and have power to crucify thee? Jesus answered him, Thou wouldest have no power against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath greater sin. Upon this Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou release

this man, thou art not Cæsar's friend: every one that maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæsar. When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment-seat at a place called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. Now it was the Preparation of the passover: it was about the sixth hour. And he saith unto the Jews, Behold, your King! They therefore cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar. Then therefore he delivered him unto them to be crucified.

They took Jesus therefore: and he went out, bearing the cross for himself, unto the place called The place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew Golgotha: where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And there was written, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title therefore read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and in Latin, and in Greek. The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but, that he said, I am King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore one to another, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith,

They parted my garments among them,

And upon my vesture did they cast lots.

These things therefore the soldiers did. But there were standing by the cross of

And from that hour the disciple took her unto his own home.

28 After this Jesus, knowing that all things are now finished, that the scripture might be accomplished, saith, I thirst. There was set there a vessel full of vinegar: so they put a sponge full of the vinegar upon hyssop, and brought it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a high day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him: but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: howbeit one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straightway there came out blood and water. And he that hath seen hath borne witness, and his witness is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye also may believe. For these things came to pass, that the scripture might be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 And after these things Joseph of Arimathæa, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took away his body. And there came also Nicodemus, he who at the first came to him by night, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pound weight. So they took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. Now in the place 41 where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb wherein was never man yet laid. There 42 then because of the Jews' Preparation (for the tomb was nigh at hand) they laid Jesus.

20 NOW on the first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb, and seeth the stone taken away from the tomb. She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they have laid him. Peter therefore 3 fore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb. And 4 they ran both together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb; and stooping and looking in, 5 he seeth the linen cloths lying; yet entered he not in. Simon Peter therefore 6 also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb; and he beholdeth the linen cloths lying, and the napkin, that 7 was upon his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. Then entered in therefore the 8 other disciple also, which came first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed. For 9 as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. So 10 the disciples went away again unto their own home.

But Mary was standing without at 11 the tomb weeping: so, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb; and 12 she beholdeth two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. And 13 they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. When she had thus said, she turned her- 14 self back, and beholdeth Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus 15

- 17 say, Master. Jesus saith to her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended unto the Father: but go unto my brethren, and say to them, I ascend unto my Father and your Father, and my God and your
- 18 God. Mary Magdalene cometh and telleth the disciples, I have seen the Lord; and how that he had said these things unto her.
- 19 When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and saith unto
- 20 them, Peace be unto you. And when he had said this, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw the Lord.
- 21 Jesus therefore said to them again, Peace be unto you: as the Father hath sent me,
- 22 even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost:
- 23 whose soever sins ye forgive, they are forgiven unto them; whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.
- 24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.
- 26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be
- 27 unto you. Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and see my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and put it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. Jesus saith unto him, Because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed 29 are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

Many other signs therefore did Jesus 30 in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book: but these 31 are written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye may have life in his name.

21 AFTER these things Jesus manifested himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and he manifested himself on this wise. There 2 were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. Simon Peter 3 saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also come with thee. They went forth, and entered into the boat; and that night they took nothing. But when day was now breaking, Jesus 4 stood on the beach: howbeit the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus there- 5 fore saith unto them, Children, have ye aught to eat? They answered him, No. And he said unto them, Cast the net on 6 the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. That disciple therefore 7 whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his coat about him (for he was naked), and cast himself into the sea. But the other dis- 8 ciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits off), dragging the net full of fishes. So when they got out 9 upon the land, they see a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread. Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish 10 which ye have now taken. Simon Peter 11 therefore went up, and drew the net to

And none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. Jesus cometh, and taketh the ¹bread, and giveth them, and the fish likewise. This is now the third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.
- 15 So when they had broken their fast, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of ²John, ³lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I ⁴love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. He saith to him again a second time, Simon, son of ²John, ³lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I ⁴love thee. He saith unto him, Tend my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of ²John, ⁴lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, ⁴Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou ⁵knowest that I ⁴love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldst: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldst not. Now this he spake, ¹⁹signifying by what manner of death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me. Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned back on his breast at the supper, and said, Lord, who is he that betrayeth thee? Peter therefore seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, ⁶and what shall this man do? Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me. This saying therefore went forth among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, that he should not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

This is the disciple which beareth ²⁴witness of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his witness is true.

And there are also many other things ²⁵which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself would not contain the books that should be written.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

- 1 THE ⁷former treatise I made, O Theophilus, concerning all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, until the day in which he was received up, after that he had given commandment through the ⁸Holy Ghost unto the apostles whom he had chosen: to whom he also ⁹shewed himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing unto them by the space of forty days, and speaking the things concerning the kingdom of God: and, ⁴being assembled together with them, he charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, said he, ye heard from me: for John indeed baptized with water; ⁵but ye shall be baptized ¹¹with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

They therefore, when they were come ⁶together, asked him, saying, Lord, dost

 7 Israel? And he said unto them, It is not for you to know times or seasons, which the Father hath ¹set within his own 8 authority. But ye shall receive power,
 when the Holy Ghost is come upon you:
 and ye shall be my witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa and Samaria,
 and unto the uttermost part of the earth.
 9 And when he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.
 10 And while they were looking stedfastly
 into heaven as he went, behold, two men 11 stood by them in white apparel; which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye looking into heaven? this Jesus, which was received up from you into heaven,
 shall so come in like manner as ye beheld
 him going into heaven.
 12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is nigh unto Jerusalem, a sabbath day's jour-13 ney off. And when they were come in,
 they went up into the upper chamber,
 where they were abiding; both Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew,
 James the son of Alphæus, and Simon
 the Zealot, and Judas the 2son of James.
 14 These all with one accord continued
 stedfastly in prayer, ³with the women,
 and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.
 15 And in these days Peter stood up in the midst of the brethren, and said (and there was a multitude of ⁴persons ga- thered together, about a hundred and 16 twenty), Brethren, it was needful that the scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost spake before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who 17 was guide to them that took Jesus. For he was numbered among us, and received 18 his ⁵portion in this ministry. (Now this man obtained a field with the reward of his iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his 19 bowels gushed out. And it became known to all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch that in their language that field was called Akeldama, that is, The field of blood.)

 For it is written in the book of Psalms, 20

Let his habitation be made desolate,
 And let no man dwell therein:
 and,

His ⁶office let another take.
 Of the men therefore which have com- 21
 panied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and went out ⁷among us, beginning from the baptism of John, 22
 unto the day that he was received up from us, of these must one become a witness with us of his resurrection. And 23
 they put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. And they prayed, and said, 24
 Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew of these two the one whom thou hast chosen, to take the place 25
 in this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place. And they gave lots ⁸for 26
 them; and the lot fell upon Matthias;
 and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

2 AND when the day of Pentecost ⁹was
 now come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly there came 2 from heaven a sound as of the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And 3
 there appeared unto them tongues ¹⁰part-
 ing asunder, like as of fire; and it sat
 upon each one of them. And they were 4 all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit
 gave them utterance.

Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem 5
 Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven. And when this sound 6
 was heard, the multitude came together,
 and were confounded, because that every man heard them speaking in his own language. And they were all amazed and 7 marvelled, saying, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilæans? And how 8
 hear we, every man in our own language,

Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, in Judæa and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia, in Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt and the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and sojourners from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretans and Arabians, we do hear them speaking in our tongues the mighty works of God. And they were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying one to another, 13 What meaneth this? But others mocking said, They are filled with new wine. 14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and spake forth unto them, saying, Ye men of Judæa, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and give ear unto my words. 15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose; seeing it is but the third hour of the day; but this is that which hath been spoken ¹by the prophet Joel; 17 And it shall be in the last days, saith God,
I will pour forth of my Spirit upon all flesh:
And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
And your young men shall see visions,
And your old men shall dream dreams: 18 Yea and on my ²servants and on my ³handmaidens in those days
Will I pour forth of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. 19 And I will shew wonders in the heaven above,
And signs on the earth beneath;
Blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke: 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness,
And the moon into blood,
Before the day of the Lord come,
That great and notable day: 21 And it shall be, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved. 22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God unto you by ⁴mighty works and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, even as ye yourselves know; him, being delivered up by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye by the hand of ⁵lawless men did crucify and slay: whom God raised up, 24 having loosed the pangs of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. For David saith concerning him,

I beheld the Lord always before my face;

For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;

Moreover my flesh also shall ⁶dwell in hope:

Because thou wilt not leave my soul 27 in Hades,

Neither wilt thou give thy Holy One to see corruption.

Thou madest known unto me the 28 ways of life;

Thou shalt make me full of gladness ⁷with thy countenance.

Brethren, I may say unto you freely of 29 the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us unto this day. Being therefore a prophet, 30 and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins ⁸he would set one upon his throne; he foreseeing this spake of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he left in Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption. This Jesus did God raise up, 32 ⁹whereof we all are witnesses. Being 33 therefore ¹⁰by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath poured forth this, which ye see and hear. For David ascended not into the heavens: 34 but he saith himself,

The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

Let ¹¹all the house of Israel therefore 36 know assuredly, that God hath made

- 37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, what shall we do? And Peter said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For to you is the promise, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call unto him. And with many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked generation. They then ¹that received his word were baptized: and there were added unto them in that day about 42 three thousand souls. And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' teaching and ²fellowship, in the breaking of bread and the prayers.

- 43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done ³by the apostles⁴. And all that believed were together, and had all things common; and they sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as any man had need. And day by day, continuing stedfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they did take their food with gladness 47 and singleness of heart, praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added ⁵to them day by day those that were being saved.

- 3 NOW Peter and John were going up into the temple at the hour of prayer, 2 being the ninth hour. And a certain man that was lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into 3 the temple; who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked to 4 receive an alms. And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look on 5 us. And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something from them. But Peter said, Silver and gold have I 6 none; but what I have, that give I thee. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk. And he took him by the right 7 hand, and raised him up: and immediately his feet and his ankle-bones received strength. And leaping up, he 8 stood, and began to walk; and he entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. And all the 9 people saw him walking and praising God: and they took knowledge of him, 10 that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

And as he held Peter and John, all the 11 people ran together unto them in the ⁶porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. And when Peter saw it, he 12 answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this ⁷man? or why fasten ye your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him to walk? The God of Abra- 13 ham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his ⁸Servant Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied before the face of Pilate, when he had determined to release him. But ye 14 denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted unto you, and killed the ⁹Prince of life; whom 15 God raised from the dead; ¹⁰whereof we are witnesses. And ¹¹by faith in his name 16 hath his name made this man strong, whom ye behold and know: yea, the faith which is through him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. And now, brethren, I wot that 17 in ignorance ye did it, as did also our rulers. But the things which God fore- 18 shewed by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled. Repent ye therefore, and turn 19 again, that your sins may be blotted out, that so there may come seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord;

 22 world began. Moses indeed said, A prophet shall the Lord God raise up unto you from among your brethren, 'like unto me; to him shall ye hearken in all things whatsoever he shall speak unto 23 you. And it shall be, that every soul, which shall not hearken to that prophet, shall be utterly destroyed from among 24 the people. Yea and all the prophets from Samuel and them that followed after, as many as have spoken, they also 25 told of these days. Ye are the sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God ²made with your fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.
 26 Unto you first God, having raised up his Servant, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your iniquities.

4 AND as they spake unto the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came upon
 2 them, being sore troubled because they taught the people, and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead.
 3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in ward unto the morrow: for it
 4 was now eventide. But many of them that heard the word believed; and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem;
 6 and Annas the high priest was there, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the 7 high priest. And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired, By what power, or in what name, have ye done 8 this? Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the 9 people, and elders, if we this day are examined concerning a good deed done to an impotent man, 'by what means this man is ⁵made whole; be it known unto 10 you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even in 'him doth this man stand here before you whole. He is the stone which was set at nought 11 of you the builders, which was made the head of the corner. And in none other 12 is there salvation: for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, wherein we must be saved.

Now when they beheld the boldness 13 of Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. And seeing the man which 14 was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. But when 15 they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, saying, What shall we do to 16 these men? for that indeed a notable ⁷miracle hath been wrought through them, is manifest to all that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. But 17 that it spread no further among the people, let us threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name. And 18 they called them, and charged them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. But Peter and John answered and 19 said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you rather than unto God, judge ye: for we 20 cannot but speak the things which we saw and heard. And they, when they 21 had further threatened them, let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people; for all men glorified God for that which was done. For the man was more than forty 22 years old, on whom this ⁷miracle of healing was wrought.

And being let go, they came to their 23 own company, and reported all that the lifted up their voice to God with one

the Holy Ghost, by the mouth of our father David thy servant, didst say,

Why did the Gentiles rage,

And the peoples 'imagine vain things?

And the rulers were gathered together,

Servant Jesus, whom thou didst anoint,
both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, were 28 gathered together, to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel foreordained to 29 come to pass. And now, Lord, look upon their threatenings: and grant unto thy 'servants to speak thy word with all 30 boldness, while thou stretchest forth thy hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of 31 thy holy Servant Jesus. And when they had prayed, the place was shaken wherein they were gathered together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and soul: and not one of them said that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; 33 but they had all things common. And with great power gave the apostles their witness of 'he resurrection of the Lord
Jesus¹: and great grace was upon them
34 all. For neither was there among them any that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them,
and brought the prices of the things that 35 were sold, and laid them at the apostles'
feet: and distribution was made unto each, according as any one had need.

36 And Joseph, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, Son of ⁸exhortation), a Levite,

a man of Cyprus by race, having a field, 37
sold it, and brought the money, and laid
it at the apostles' feet.

5 BUT a certain man named Ananias,
with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, and kept back part of the price, 2
his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles'
feet. But Peter said, Ananias, why hath 3 Satan filled thy heart to 'lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? Whiles it remained, did it 4 not remain thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thy power? How is it that thou hast conceived this thing in thy heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. And Ananias hearing 5 these words fell down and gave up the ghost: and great fear came upon all that heard it. And the ¹⁰young men arose and 6

what was done, came in. And Peter an- 8 swered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much. And she said, Yea, for so much. But Peter said unto 9 her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord?
behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and they shall carry thee out. And she fell 10 down immediately at his feet, and gave up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. And 11
great fear came upon the whole church,
and upon all that heard these things.

And by the hands of the apostles were 12

the people; and they were all with one

howbeit the people magnified them;

there were the more added to them, believing on the Lord

out the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that, as Peter came by, at the least his shadow might 16 overshadow some one of them. And there also came together the multitude from the cities round about Jerusalem, bringing sick folk, and them that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 But the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were 18 filled with jealousy, and laid hands on the apostles, and put them in public 19 ward. But an angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought 20 them out, and said, Go ye, and stand and speak in the temple to the people all 21 the words of this Life. And when they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison-house to have 22 them brought. But the officers that came found them not in the prison; and they
 23 returned, and told, saying, The prison-house we found shut in all safety, and the keepers standing at the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man
 24 within. Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were much perplexed concerning them whereunto this would grow.

25 And there came one and told them, Behold, the men whom ye put in the prison are in the temple standing and teaching 26 the people. Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them, but without violence; for they feared the people,
 27 lest they should be stoned. And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest
 28 asked them, saying, We straitly charged you not to teach in this name: and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's 29 blood upon us. But Peter and the apostles answered and said, We must obey

God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew, hanging him on a tree. Him did God 31 exalt ¹with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and remission of sins. And we 32 are witnesses² of these ³things; ⁴and so is the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

But they, when they heard this, were 33 cut to the heart, and were minded to slay them. But there stood up one in the 34 council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in honour of all the people, and commanded to put the men forth a little while. And he said
 35 unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves as touching these men, what ye are about to do. For before 36 these days rose up Theudas, giving himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nought. After this
 37 man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the enrolment, and drew away some of the people after him: he also perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. And now I say unto 38 you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will be overthrown: but if it is of God, ye will not be able to 39 overthrow them; lest haply ye be found even to be fighting against God. And to 40 him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles unto them, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. They 41 therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonour for the Name. And every day, in the temple 42 and at home, they ceased not to teach and to preach Jesus as the Christ.

widows were neglected in the daily minis-2 tration. And the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said,
 It is not ¹fit that we should forsake the 3 word of God, and ²serve tables. ³Look ye out therefore, brethren, from among you seven men of good report, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may 4 appoint over this business. But we will continue stedfastly in prayer, and in the 5 ministry of the word. And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Pro-chor, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of 6 Antioch: whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied
 in Jerusalem exceedingly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of grace and power, wrought great wonders and signs among 9 the people. But there arose certain of them that were of the synagogue called the synagogue of the Libertines, and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians,
 and of them of Cilicia and Asia, disput-10 ing with Stephen. And they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the 11 Spirit by which he spake. Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words 12 against Moses, and against God. And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him,
 and seized him, and brought him into 13 the council, and set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak words against this holy place, and the law: for we have heard him say, that 14 this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs 15 which Moses delivered unto us. And all that sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

7 AND the high priest said, Are these things so? And he said,

2 Brethren and fathers, hearken. The God of glory appeared unto our father
 Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia,
 before he dwelt in Haran, and said unto 3
 him, Get thee out of thy land, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee. Then came he out of the 4 land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Haran: and from thence, when his father was dead, God removed him into this land,
 whereto ye now dwell: and he gave him 5
 none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: and he promised that he would give it to him in possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. And God spake on this wise, 6 that his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil, four hundred years. And the nation to which 7
 they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place. And 8
 he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob the twelve patriarchs. And the patriarchs, moved 9 with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt: and God was with him, and delivered him out of all his afflictions,
 and gave him favour and wisdom before Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. Now there came a famine over all 11
 Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction:
 and our fathers found no sustenance.
 But when Jacob heard that there was 12
 corn in Egypt, he sent forth our fathers
 the first time. And at the second time 13
 Joseph was made known to his brethren;
 and Joseph's race became manifest unto Pharaoh. And Joseph sent, and called 14 to him Jacob his father, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls. And Jacob went down into Egypt; and he died, himself, and our fathers; and they 16 were carried over unto Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver of the sons of ¹Hamor 17 in Shechem. But as the time of the promise drew nigh, which God vouchsafed unto Abraham, the people grew 18 and multiplied in Egypt, till there arose another king over Egypt, which knew 19 not Joseph. The same dealt subtilly with our race, and evil entreated our fathers, that ²they should cast out their babes

 20 to the end they might not ³live. At which season Moses was born, and was ⁴exceeding fair; and he was nourished three 21 months in his father's house: and when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own 22 son. And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians; and he 23 was mighty in his words and works. But when he was well-nigh forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren
 24 the children of Israel. And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, 25 smiting the Egyptian: and he supposed that his brethren understood how that God by his hand was giving them ⁵deliverance; but they understood not. And the day following he appeared unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?
 27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee
 28 a ruler and a judge over us? Wouldest thou kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian yesterday? And Moses fled at this saying, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, where he begat two sons.
 30 And when forty years were fulfilled, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a 31 bush. And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold, there came a voice of the 32 Lord, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob. And Moses trembled, and durst 33 not behold. And the Lord said unto him, Loose the shoes from thy feet: for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. I have surely seen the affliction ³⁴ of my people which is in Egypt, and have heard their groaning, and I am come down to deliver them: and now come, I will send thee into Egypt. This Moses ³⁵ whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? him hath God sent to be both a ruler and a ⁶deliverer with the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush. This man ³⁶ led them forth, having wrought wonders and signs in Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years. This ³⁷ is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall God raise up unto you from among your brethren, ⁷like unto me. This is he that was in the ³⁸ ⁸church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sinai, and with our fathers: who received living oracles to give unto us: to whom our ³⁹ fathers would not be obedient, but thrust him from them, and turned back in their hearts unto Egypt, saying unto Aaron, ⁴⁰ Make us gods which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, which led us forth out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. And they made ⁴¹ a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands. But God turned, ⁴² and gave them up to serve the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets,

Did ye offer unto me slain beasts and sacrifices

Forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?

And ye took up the tabernacle of ⁴³ Moloch,

And the star of the god Rephan,

The figures which ye made to worship them:

And I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

Our fathers had the tabernacle of the ⁴⁴ testimony in the wilderness, even as he appointed who spake unto Moses, that he should make it according to the figure

45 that he had seen. Which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with ¹Joshua when they entered on the possession of the nations, which God thrust out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of 46 David; who found favour in the sight of God, and asked to find a habitation
47 for the God of Jacob. But Solomon built 48 him a house. Howbeit the Most High dwelleth not in houses made with hands; as saith the prophet,

49 The heaven is my throne,
And the earth the footstool of my feet:

What manner of house will ye build me? saith the Lord:

Or what is the place of my rest?

50 Did not my hand make all these things?

51 Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. Which of the prophets did not your fathers persecute? and they killed them which shewed before of the coming of the Righteous One; of whom ye have now become betrayers 53 and murderers; ye who received the law ²as it was ordained by angels, and kept it not.

54 Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they 55 gnashed on him with their teeth. But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the 56 right hand of God, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.
57 But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed upon him
58 with one accord; and they cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their garments at the 59 feet of a young man named Saul. And they stoned Stephen, calling upon the Lord, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my 60 spirit. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said

8 this, he fell asleep. And Saul was ¹consenting unto his death.

And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church which was in Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and Samaria, except the apostles. And devout men buried Stephen, and ²made great lamentation over him. But ³Saul laid waste the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

They therefore that were scattered ⁴abroad went about preaching the word. And Philip went down to the city of ⁵Samaria, and proclaimed unto them the Christ. And the multitudes gave heed ⁶with one accord unto the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard, and saw the signs which he did. ⁷For ⁸from many of those which had unclean spirits, they came out, crying with a loud voice: and many that were palsied, and that were lame, were healed. And there ⁸was much joy in that city.

But there was a certain man, Simon ⁹by name, which beforetime in the city used sorcery, and amazed the ¹⁰people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one: to whom they all gave ¹⁰heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is that power of God which is called Great. And they gave ¹¹heed to him, because that of long time he had amazed them with his sorceries. But when they believed Philip preaching ¹²good tidings concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. And Simon also himself believed: and ¹³being baptized, he continued with Philip; and beholding signs and great ¹⁴miracles wrought, he was amazed.

Now when the apostles which were ¹⁴at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John: who, when they ¹⁵were come down, prayed for them, that 16 they might receive the Holy Ghost: for as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they had been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost. Now when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay my hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost. But Peter said unto him, Thy silver perish with thee, because thou hast thought to obtain the gift of God with money. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right before God. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven thee. For I see that thou art in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity. And Simon answered and said, Pray ye for me to the Lord, that none of the things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.

26 But an angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza: the same is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem for to worship; and he was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah. And the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. And Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, Understandest thou what thou readeest? And he said, How can I, except some one shall guide me? And he besought Philip to come up and sit with him. Now the place of the scripture which he was reading was this,

He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;
And as a lamb before his shearer is dumb,

So he openeth not his mouth:

In his humiliation his judgement was taken away:

His generation who shall declare?

For his life is taken from the earth.

And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other? And Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this scripture, preached unto him Jesus. And as they went the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing. But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached the gospel to all the cities, till he came to Cæsarea.

9 BUT Saul, yet breathing threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, and asked of him letters to Damascus unto the synagogues, that if he found any that were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. And as he journeyed, it came to pass that he drew nigh unto Damascus: and suddenly there shone round about him a light out of heaven: and he fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: but rise, and enter into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. 10 Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and the Lord said unto him in a vision, Ananias. And 11 he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus: for be-12 hold, he prayeth; and he hath seen a man named Ananias coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might re-13 ceive his sight. But Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this man, how much evil he did to thy saints 14 at Jerusalem: and here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that 15 call upon thy name. But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a ²chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles and kings, and the children 16 of Israel: for I will shew him how many things he must suffer for my name's 17 sake. And Ananias departed, and entered into the house; and laying his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way which thou camest, hath sent me, 18 that thou mayest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost. And straightway there fell from his eyes as it were scales, and he received his sight; 19 and he arose and was baptized; and he took food and was strengthened.

And he was certain days with the dis-20 ciples which were at Damascus. And straightway in the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus, that he is the Son of God.
 21 And all that heard him were amazed,
 and said, Is not this he that in Jerusalem made havock of them which called on this name? and he had come hither for this intent, that he might bring them 22 bound before the chief priests. But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

And when many days were fulfilled, 23
 the Jews took counsel together to kill him: but their plot became known to 24 Saul. And they watched the gates also day and night that they might kill him:
 but his disciples took him by night, and 25
 let him down through the wall, lowering
 him in a basket.

And when he was come to Jerusalem, 26
 he assayed to join himself to the disciples: and they were all afraid of him,
 not believing that he was a disciple. But 27 Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus. And he was with them 28 going in and going out at Jerusalem,
 preaching boldly in the name of the Lord: 29
 and he spake and disputed against the ³Grecian Jews; but they went about to kill him. And when the brethren knew 30
 it, they brought him down to Cæsarea,
 and sent him forth to Tarsus.

So the church throughout all Judæa 31
 and Galilee and Samaria had peace, being ⁴edified; and, walking ⁵in the fear of the Lord and ⁵in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, was multiplied.

And it came to pass, as Peter went 32
 throughout all parts, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda. And 33
 there he found a certain man named Æneas, which had kept his bed eight years; for he was palsied. And Peter 34 said unto him, Æneas, Jesus Christ heal-eth thee: arise, and make thy bed. And straightway he arose. And all that dwelt 35 at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

Now there was at Joppa a certain dis- 36
 ciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called ⁶Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. And it came to pass in those 37 days, that she fell sick, and died: and when they had washed her, they laid her 38 in an upper chamber. And as Lydda was nigh unto Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men unto him, intreating him, Delay not to come 39 on unto us. And Peter arose and went with them. And when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber:

 and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with 40 them. But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body, he said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes; and when she saw 41 Peter, she sat up. And he gave her his hand, and raised her up; and calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive.
 42 And it became known throughout all
 Joppa: and many believed on the Lord.
 43 And it came to pass, that he abode many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

10 NOW there was a certain man in Cæsarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of the band called the Italian
 2 'band, a devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, who gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God
 3 alway. He saw in a vision openly, as it were about the ninth hour of the day,
 an angel of God coming in unto him, 4 and saying to him, Cornelius. And he, fastening his eyes upon him, and being affrighted, said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine
 alms are gone up for a memorial before 5 God. And now send men to Joppa, and fetch one Simon, who is surnamed Pe-6 ter: he lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, 7 whose house is by the sea side. And when the angel that spake unto him was departed, he called two of his household-servants, and a devout soldier of them
 8 that waited on him continually; and having rehearsed all things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 Now on the morrow, as they were on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop 10 to pray, about the sixth hour: and he became hungry, and desired to eat: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance; and he beholdeth the heaven 11

 opened, and a certain vessel descending,
 as it were a great sheet, let down by four corners upon the earth: wherein were all 12
 manner of fourfooted beasts and creeping things of the earth and fowls of the heaven. And there came a voice to him, 13
 Rise, Peter; kill and eat. But Peter said, 14
 Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common and unclean.
 And a voice came unto him again the 15
 second time, What God hath cleansed, make not thou common. And this was 16
 done thrice: and straightway the vessel
 was received up into heaven.

Now while Peter was much perplexed 17
 in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men that were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the gate, and called and asked whether 18 Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodging there. And while Peter thought 19
 on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. But arise, 20
 and get thee down, and go with them,
 nothing doubting: for I have sent them.
 And Peter went down to the men, and 21
 said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek:
 what is the cause wherefore ye are come?
 And they said, Cornelius a centurion, a 22
 righteous man and one that feareth God,
 and well reported of by all the nation of the Jews, was warned of God by a holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words from thee. So he called 23
 them in and lodged them.

And on the morrow he arose and went forth with them, and certain of the brethren from Joppa accompanied him. 24
 And on the morrow ²they entered into Cæsarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his kinsmen
 and his near friends. And when it came 25
 to pass that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him. But Peter raised him up, 26 saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.
 And as he talked with him, he went in, 27
 and findeth many come together: and 28

he said unto them, Ye yourselves know 1 how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to join himself or come unto one of another nation; and yet unto me hath God shewed that I should not 29 call any man common or unclean: wherefore also I came without gainsaying, when I was sent for. I ask therefore with what 30 intent ye sent for me. And Cornelius said, Four days ago, until this hour, I was keeping the ninth hour of prayer in my house; and behold, a man stood be-31 fore me in bright apparel, and saith, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine
 alms are had in remembrance in the sight 32 of God. Send therefore to Joppa, and call unto thee Simon, who is surnamed
 Peter; he lodgeth in the house of Simon 33 a tanner, by the sea side. Forthwith therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast
 well done that thou art come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God, to hear all things that have 34 been commanded thee of the Lord. And Peter opened his mouth, and said,

Of a truth I perceive that God is no
 35 respecter of persons: but in every nation
 he that feareth him, and worketh right-36 ceousness, is acceptable to him. ²The word which he sent unto the children of Israel, preaching ³good tidings of peace
 37 by Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all)— that saying ye yourselves know, which was published throughout all Judæa,
 beginning from Galilee, after the bap-38 tism which John preached; even Jesus of Nazareth, how that God anointed him
 with the Holy Ghost and with power:
 who went about doing good, and healing
 all that were oppressed of the devil; for 39 God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom also they slew, hanging 40 him on a tree. Him God raised up the third day, and gave him to be made 41 manifest, not to all the people, but unto witnesses that were chosen before of God,
even to us, who did eat and drink with 42 him after he rose from the dead. And he charged us to preach unto the people, and to testify that this is he which is ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. To him bear all the prophets 43 witness, that through his name every one that believeth on him shall receive remission of sins.

While Peter yet spake these words, the 44
 Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. And they of the circumcision 45 which believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. For they heard them 46 speak with tongues, and magnify God.
 Then answered Peter, Can any man for- 47
 bid the water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? And he com- 48
 manded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

11 NOW the apostles and the brethren that were in Judæa heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. And when Peter was come up 2
 to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him, saying, 3
 Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them. But Peter began, 4 and expounded the matter unto them in order, saying, I was in the city of Joppa 5
 praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even unto me:
 upon the which when I had fastened 6
 mine eyes, I considered, and saw the fourfooted beasts of the earth and wild beasts and creeping things and fowls of the heaven. And I heard also a voice 7 saying unto me, Rise, Peter; kill and eat.
 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing 8
 common or unclean hath ever entered into my mouth. But a voice answered 9
 the second time out of heaven, What God hath cleansed, make not thou common. And this was done thrice: and all 10 were drawn up again into heaven. And 11 behold, forthwith three men stood before the house in which we were, having 12 been sent from Cæsarea unto me. And the Spirit bade me go with them, making no distinction. And these six brethren also accompanied me; and we entered 13 into the man's house: and he told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying, Send to Joppa, and fetch Simon, whose surname is 14 Peter; who shall speak unto thee words, whereby thou shalt be saved, thou and 15 all thy house. And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, even as on 16 us at the beginning. And I remembered the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized ¹with the Holy Ghost.

 17 If then God gave unto them the like gift as he did also unto us, when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I,
 18 that I could withstand God? And when they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then to the Gentiles also hath God granted repentance unto life.
 19 They therefore that were scattered abroad upon the tribulation that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phœnicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking 20 the word to none save only to Jews. But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the ²Greeks also,
 21 preaching the Lord Jesus. And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number that believed turned unto the 22 Lord. And the report concerning them came to the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth
 23 Barnabas as far as Antioch: who, when he was come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad; and he exhorted them all, ³that with purpose of heart they 24 would cleave unto the Lord: for he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added
 25 unto the Lord. And he went forth to 26 Tarsus to seek for Saul: and when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that even for a whole year they were gathered together ⁴with the church, and taught much people; and that the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

Now in these days there came down 27 prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there stood up one of them named 28 Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be a great famine over all ⁵the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius. And the disciples, 29 every man according to his ability, determined to send ⁶relief unto the brethren that dwelt in Judæa: which also they did, 30 sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

12 NOW about that time Herod the king put forth his hands to afflict certain of the church. And he killed 2 James the brother of John with the sword. And when he saw that it pleased the Jews, 3 he proceeded to seize Peter also. And those were the days of unleavened bread. And 4 when he had taken him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to guard him; intending after the Passover to bring him forth to the people. Peter therefore was kept in 5 the prison: but prayer was made earnestly of the church unto God for him. And when Herod was about to bring him 6 forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and guards before the door kept the prison. And behold, an angel of the 7 Lord stood by him, and a light shined in the cell: and he smote Peter on the side, and awoke him, saying, Rise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. And the angel said unto him, 8 Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And he did so. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. And he went out, and followed; and 9 he wist not that it was true which was done ⁷by the angel, but thought he saw a vision. And when they were past the 10 first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth into the city; which opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and straightway 11 the angel departed from him. And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a truth, that the Lord hath sent forth his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

 12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together and were 13 praying. And when he knocked at the door of the gate, a maid came to answer, named Rhoda. And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for joy, but ran in, and told that Peter stood 14 before the gate. And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she confidently affirmed that it was even so. And they 15 said, It is his angel. But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened,
 16 they saw him, and were amazed. But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him forth out of the prison. And he said, Tell these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went to another 17 place. Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter. And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be ¹put to death. And he went down from Judæa to Cæsarea, and tarried there.
 20 Now he was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: and they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, they asked for peace, because their country was fed from the king's country. And upon a set day Herod arrayed himself in royal apparel, and sat on the ²throne, and made an 21 oration unto them. And the people shouted, saying, The voice of a god, and not of a man. And immediately an angel ³23 of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

But the word of God grew and multi- ⁴24 plied.

And Barnabas and Saul returned ⁵from 25 Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministration, taking with them John whose surname was Mark.

13 NOW there were at Antioch, in the church that was there, prophets and teachers, Barnabas, and Symeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen the foster-brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. And as ²2 they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. Then, when they ³3 had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

So they, being sent forth by the Holy ⁴4 Ghost, went down to Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus. And when ⁵5 they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John as their attendant. And when they had gone ⁶6 through the whole island unto Paphos, they found a certain ⁷7 ⁸sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus; which was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. The same called unto him Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. But Elymas the ⁹9 ¹⁰sorcerer (for so ¹¹8 is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith. But Saul, who is also ¹¹9 ¹²called Paul, filled with the Holy Ghost, fastened his eyes on him, and said, O full ¹³10 of all guile and all villany, thou son of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? And now, be- ¹⁴11 hold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun ¹⁵for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him

 13 Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departed from them
 14 and returned to Jerusalem. But they, passing through from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia; and they went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and 15 sat down. And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation
 16 for the people, say on. And Paul stood up, and beckoning with the hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, 17 hearken. The God of this people Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they sojourned in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm led he them 18 forth out of it. And for about the time of forty years ¹suffered he their manners in 19 the wilderness. And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred and 20 fifty years: and after these things he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet.
 21 And afterward they asked for a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin,
 22 for the space of forty years. And when he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king; to whom also he bare witness, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my heart,
 23 who shall do all my ²will. Of this man's seed hath God according to promise brought unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus;
 24 when John had first preached ³before his coming the baptism of repentance to all 25 the people of Israel. And as John was fulfilling his course, he said, What suppose ye that I am? I am not he. But behold, there cometh one after me, the shoes of whose feet I am not worthy to 26 unloose. Brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you that fear God, to us is the word of this salvation sent forth. For they that dwell in 27 Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him. And 28 though they found no cause of death in him, yet asked they of Pilate that he should be slain. And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb. But God raised him 29 from the dead: and he was seen for many 31 days of them that came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses unto the people. And we bring 32 you good tidings of the promise made unto the fathers, how that God hath fulfilled the same unto our children, in that he raised up Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. And as 34 concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he hath spoken on this wise, I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David. Because he saith also in another psalm, Thou wilt not give thy Holy One to see corruption. For David, after 36 he had ⁴in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: but he whom God raised up saw 37 no corruption. Be it known unto you 38 therefore, brethren, that through this man is proclaimed unto you remission of sins: and by him every one that be- 39 lieveth is justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Beware therefore, lest 40 that come upon you, which is spoken in the prophets;

Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and 41 ⁵perish;

For I work a work in your days,
 A work which ye shall in no wise believe, if one declare it unto you.

And as they went out, they besought 42

that these words might be spoken to them the next sabbath. Now when the synagogues broke up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.

And the next sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of ¹God. But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and ²blasphemed. And Paul and Barnabas spake out boldly, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first be spoken to you. Seeing ye thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying,

I have set thee for a light of the Gentiles,

That thou shouldest be for salvation unto the uttermost part of the earth.

And as the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of ¹God: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. And the word of the Lord was spread abroad throughout all the region. But the Jews urged on the devout women of honourable estate, and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and cast them out of their borders. But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium. And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Ghost.

14 AND it came to pass in Iconium, that they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed. But the Jews that were disobedient stirred up the souls of the Gentiles, and made them evil affected against the brethren. Long time therefore they tarried there speaking boldly in the Lord, which bare witness unto the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. But the multitude of the city was divided; and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. And when there was made an onset both of the Gentiles and of the Jews with their rulers, to entreat them shamefully, and to stone them, they became aware of it, and fled unto the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra and Derbe, and the region round about: and there they preached the gospel.

And at Lystra there sat a certain man, ⁸impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. The same heard Paul speaking: who, ⁹fastening his eyes upon him, and seeing that he had faith to be ³made whole, said ¹⁰with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped up and walked. And ¹¹when the multitudes saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men. And they called Barnabas, ⁴Jupiter; and ¹²Paul, ⁵Mercury, because he was the chief speaker. And the priest of ⁴Jupiter whose ¹³temple was before the city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the multitudes. But when the apostles, Barnabas and ¹⁴Paul, heard of it, they rent their garments, and sprang forth among the multitude, crying out and saying, ¹⁵Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like ⁶passions with you, and bring you good tidings, that ye should turn from these vain things unto the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in them is: who in the ¹⁶generations gone by suffered all the nations to walk in their own ways. And ¹⁷yet he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave you from heaven rains and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness. And with these sayings scarce restrained ¹⁸they the multitudes from doing sacrifice unto them.

But there came Jews thither from Antioch and Iconium: and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing 20 that he was dead. But as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and entered into the city: and on the morrow he went forth with Barnabas to 21 Derbe. And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, 22 and to Iconium, and to Antioch, confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many tribulations we must 23 enter into the kingdom of God. And when they had appointed for them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the 24 Lord, on whom they had believed. And they passed through Pisidia, and came to 25 Pamphylia. And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to 26 Attalia; and thence they sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been committed to the grace of God for the work 27 which they had fulfilled. And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all things that God had done with them, and how that he had opened a door of faith unto the 28 Gentiles. And they tarried no little time with the disciples.

15 AND certain men came down
 from Judæa and taught the brethren, saying, Except ye be circumcised
 after the custom of Moses, ye cannot be 2 saved. And when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and questioning with them, the brethren appointed that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this ques-3 tion. They therefore, being brought on their way by the church, passed through both Phœnicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.
 4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church and the apostles and the elders, and they rehearsed all things that God had done 5 with them. But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees who believed,

saying, It is needful to circumcise them,
 and to charge them to keep the law of Moses.

And the apostles and the elders were 6 gathered together to consider of this matter. And when there had been much 7 questioning, Peter rose up, and said unto
 them,

Brethren, ye know how that ¹a good while ago God made choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.
 And God, which knoweth the heart, 8 bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us; and he 9
 made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. Now 10
 therefore why tempt ye God, that ye should put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? But we believe 11 that we shall be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in like manner as they.

And all the multitude kept silence; 12
 and they hearkened unto Barnabas and Paul rehearsing what signs and wonders
 God had wrought among the Gentiles
 by them. And after they had held their 13
 peace, James answered, saying,

Brethren, hearken unto me: Symeon 14
 hath rehearsed how first God did visit
 the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name. And to this agree the 15 words of the prophets; as it is written,

After these things I will return, 16

And I will build again the tabernacle
 of David, which is fallen;

And I will build again the ruins thereof,

And I will set it up:

That the residue of men may seek 17
 after the Lord,

And all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called,

Saith the Lord, ²who maketh these 18
 things known from the beginning of the world.

Wherefore my judgement is, that we 19
 trouble not them which from among the Gentiles turn to God; but that we ³write 20 unto them, that they abstain from the pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from what is strangled, and from 21 blood. For Moses from generations of old hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath.

 22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, chief men among the 23 brethren: and they wrote thus by them, The apostles and the elder brethren unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, greet-
 24 ing: Forasmuch as we have heard that certain 'which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls; to whom we gave no com-
 25 mandment; it seemed good unto us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them unto you with 26 our beloved Barnabas and Paul, men that have hazarded their lives for the name 27 of our Lord Jesus Christ. We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who them-
 28 selves also shall tell you the same things by word of mouth. For it seemed good 29 to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these neces-
 30 sary things; that ye abstain from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, it shall be well with you. Fare ye well.
 31 So they, when they were dismissed, came down to Antioch; and having gathered the multitude together, they 32 delivered the epistle. And when they had read it, they rejoiced for the con-
 33 solation. And Judas and Silas, being themselves also prophets, exhorted the brethren with many words, and con-34 firmed them. And after they had spent some time there, they were dismissed in peace from the brethren unto those that 35 had sent them forth.⁴ But Paul and Barnabas tarried in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

And after some days Paul said unto 36 Barnabas, Let us return now and visit the brethren in every city wherein we proclaimed the word of the Lord, and see how they fare. And Barnabas was 37 minded to take with them John also, who was called Mark. But Paul thought not 38 good to take with them him who withdrew from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. And 39 there arose a sharp contention, so that they parted asunder one from the other, and Barnabas took Mark with him, and sailed away unto Cyprus; but Paul chose 40 Silas, and went forth, being commended by the brethren to the grace of the Lord. And he went through Syria and Cilicia, 41 confirming the churches.

16 AND he came also to Derbe and to Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess which believed; but his father was a Greek. The same was well 2 reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium. Him would Paul 3 have to go forth with him; and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those parts: for they all knew that his father was a Greek. And as they 4 went on their way through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, which had been ordained of the apostles and elders that were at Jerusalem. So the churches were strengthened in 5 the faith, and increased in number daily.

And they went through the region of 6 Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden of the Holy Ghost to speak the word in Asia; and when they were come 7 over against Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia; and the Spirit of Jesus suffered them not; and passing by Mysia, 8 they came down to Troas. And a vision 9 appeared to Paul in the night; There was a man of Macedonia standing, beseeching him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. And when 10

he had seen the vision, straightway we sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

- 11 Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; and from thence to Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, the first of the district, a Roman colony: and we were in this city
- 13 tarrying certain days. And on the sabbath day we went forth without the gate by a river side, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which were
- 14 come together. And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one that worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, to give heed unto the things
- 15 which were spoken by Paul. And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.
- 16 And it came to pass, as we were going to the place of prayer, that a certain maid having ¹a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by
- 17 soothsaying. The same following after Paul and us cried out, saying, These men are ²servants of the Most High God, which proclaim unto you ³the way of
- 18 salvation. And this she did for many days. But Paul, being sore troubled, turned and said to the spirit, I charge thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out that very hour.
- 19 But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was ⁴gone, they laid hold on Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace before the
- 20 rulers, and when they had brought them unto the ⁵magistrates, they said, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble
- 21 our city, and set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to receive, or to observe, being Romans. And the multitude rose up together against them: and the ⁵magistrates rent their garments off them, and commanded to beat them with rods. And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely: who, having received such a charge, cast them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks. But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns unto God, and the prisoners were listening to them; and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison-house were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened; and every one's bands were loosed. And the jailor being roused out of sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword, and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. And he called for lights, and sprang in, and, trembling for fear, fell down before Paul and Silas, and brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved, thou and thy house. And they spake the word of ⁶the Lord unto him, with all that were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, immediately. And he brought them up into his house, and set ⁷meat before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his house, ⁸having believed in God.

But when it was day, the ⁵magistrates sent the ⁹serjeants, saying, Let those men go. And the jailor reported the words to Paul, saying, The ⁵magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore come forth, and go in peace. But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us publicly, uncondemned, men that are Romans, and have cast us into prison; and do they now cast us out privily? nay reported these words unto the ²magis-

 39 that they were Romans; and they came and besought them; and when they had brought them out, they asked them to 40 go away from the city. And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they ³comforted them, and departed.

17 NOW when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollo-2 nia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: and Paul,
 as his custom was, went in unto them,
 and for three ⁴sabbath days reasoned
 3 with them from the scriptures, opening and alleging, that it behoved the Christ
 to suffer, and to rise again from the dead;
 and that this Jesus, whom, said he, I pro-4 claim unto you, is the Christ. And some of them were persuaded, and consorted
 with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the 5 chief women not a few. But the Jews, being moved with jealousy, took unto them certain vile fellows of the rabble,
 and gathering a crowd, set the city on an uproar; and assailing the house of Jason, they sought to bring them forth
 6 to the people. And when they found them not, they dragged Jason and certain brethren before the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned ⁵the world upside down are come hither also;
 7 whom Jason hath received: and these all act contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus.
 8 And they troubled the multitude and the rulers of the city, when they heard these 9 things. And when they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.
 10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Be-rœa: who when they were come thither
 went into the synagogue of the Jews.
 11 Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received

 the word with all readiness of mind,
 examining the scriptures daily, whether these things were so. Many of them 12 therefore believed; also of the Greek
 women of honourable estate, and of men,
 not a few. But when the Jews of Thessa- 13
 lonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed of Paul at Berœa
 also, they came thither likewise, stirring up and troubling the multitudes. And 14
 then immediately the brethren sent forth
 Paul to go as far as to the sea: and Silas and Timothy abode there still. But they 15 that conducted Paul brought him as far as Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timothy that they should come to him with all speed, they departed.

Now while Paul waited for them at 16
 Athens, his spirit was provoked within him, as he beheld the city full of idols.
 So he reasoned in the synagogue with 17
 the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with them that met with him. And certain also of 18
 the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, What would this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange ⁶gods: because he preached Jesus and the resurrection. And they took hold of 19
 him, and brought him ⁷unto ⁸the Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by thee?
 For thou bringest certain strange things 20
 to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. (Now all the 21
 Athenians and the strangers sojourning
 there ⁹spent their time in nothing else,
 but either to tell or to hear some new thing.) And Paul stood in the midst of 22
 the Areopagus, and said,

Ye men of Athens, in all things I perceive that ye are somewhat ¹⁰superstition-
 ous. For as I passed along, and observed 23
 the objects of your worship, I found also in ignorance, this set I forth unto you.

- 24 The God that made the world and all things therein, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in ¹temples made with hands; neither is he served by men's hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; and he made of one every nation of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation; that they should seek God, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he is not far from each one of us: for in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain even of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.
- 29 Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that ²the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and device of man. The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked; but now he ³commandeth men that they should all everywhere repent: inasmuch as he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge ⁴the world in righteousness ⁵by ⁶the man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

- 32 Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, We will hear thee concerning this yet again. Thus Paul went out from among them. But certain men clave unto him, and believed: among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

- 18 AFTER these things he departed from Athens, and came to Corinth. And he found a certain Jew named Aquila, a man of Pontus by race, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome: and he came unto them; and because he was of the same trade, he abode with them, and they wrought; for by their trade they were tentmakers. And he reasoned in ⁴the synagogue every sabbath, and ⁷persuaded Jews and Greeks.

But when Silas and Timothy came ⁵down from Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the word, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ. And ⁶when they opposed themselves, and ⁸blasphemed, he shook out his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. And he departed thence, and went into the house of a certain man named Titus Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue. And Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, ⁸believed in the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. And the ⁹Lord said unto Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace: for I am with thee, and ¹⁰no man shall set on thee to harm thee: for I have much people in this city. And ¹¹he dwelt there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

But when Gallio was proconsul of ¹²Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul, and brought him before the judgement-seat, saying, This man ¹³persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law. But when Paul was ¹⁴about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked villany, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: but if they are questions about ¹⁵words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves; I am not minded to be a judge of these matters. And he ¹⁶drew them from the judgement-seat. And they all laid hold on Sosthenes, the ¹⁷ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgement-seat. And Gallio cared for none of these things.

And Paul, having tarried after this yet ¹⁸many days, took his leave of the brethren ren, and sailed thence for Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

19 And they came to Ephesus, and he left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the 20 Jews. And when they asked him to abide a longer time, he consented not;

21 but taking his leave of them, and saying, I will return again unto you, if God will, he set sail from Ephesus. And when he had landed at Cæsarea, he went up and saluted the church, and went down to 23 Antioch. And having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of Galatia and Phrygia in order, stablishing all the disciples.

24 Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, ¹a learned man, came to Ephesus; and he was mighty in

25 the scriptures. This man had been ²instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spake and taught carefully the things concerning Jesus, knowing only the baptism of John:

26 and he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of

27 God more carefully. And when he was minded to pass over into Achaia, the brethren encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him: and when he was come, he ³helped them much

28 which had believed through grace: for he powerfully confuted the Jews, ⁴and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

19 AND it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper country came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples: and he said unto them, Did ye receive the Holy Ghost when ye believed? And they said unto him, Nay, we did not so much as hear whether ⁵the Holy Ghost was given. And he said, Into what then were ye baptized? And they

4 said, Into John's baptism. And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Jesus. And ⁵when they heard this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. And ⁶when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. And they were in all about twelve men. ⁷

And he entered into the synagogue, ⁸and spake boldly for the space of three months, reasoning and persuading ^{as to} the things concerning the kingdom of God. But when some were hardened ⁹and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. And this continued for the space ¹⁰of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks. And God wrought ¹¹special ⁶miracles by the hands of Paul: insomuch that unto the sick were carried ¹²away from his body handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out. But ¹³certain also of the strolling Jews, exorcists, took upon them to name over them which had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, I adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. And there ¹⁴were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, a chief priest, which did this. And the ¹⁵evil spirit answered and said unto them, Jesus I ⁷know, and Paul I know; but who are ye? And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and mastered both of them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. And this became known ¹⁷to all, both Jews and Greeks, that dwelt at Ephesus; and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. Many also of them that had ¹⁸believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds. And not a few of them ¹⁹that practised ⁸curious arts brought their books together, and burned them in the sight of all: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand 20 pieces of silver. So mightily grew the word of the Lord and prevailed.

21 Now after these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have 22 been there, I must also see Rome. And having sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while.

23 And about that time there arose no
24 small stir concerning the Way. For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines of 25 'Diana, brought no little business unto the craftsmen; whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this 26 business we have our wealth. And ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much
27 people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands: and not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute; but also that the temple of the great goddess 'Diana be made of no account, and that she should even be deposed from her magnificence, whom all Asia and ²the world worship-
28 peth. And when they heard this, they were filled with wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is 'Diana of the Ephesians.
29 And the city was filled with the confusion: and they rushed with one accord into the theatre, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's 30 companions in travel. And when Paul was minded to enter in unto the people, 31 the disciples suffered him not. And certain also of the ³chief officers of Asia, being his friends, sent unto him, and besought him not to adventure himself into 32 the theatre. Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was in confusion; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together. ⁴And they brought Alexander 33 out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made a defence unto the people. But when 34 they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is 'Diana of the Ephesians. And when the townclerk had 35 quieted the multitude, he saith, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there who knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great 'Diana, and of the image which fell down from 'Jupiter? Seeing then that these things cannot be gainsaid, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. For ye have brought 37 hither these men, which are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our goddess. If therefore Demetrius, and 38 the craftsmen that are with him, have a matter against any man, ⁶the courts are open, and there are proconsuls: let them accuse one another. But if ye seek 39 anything about other matters, it shall be settled in the regular assembly. For 40 indeed we are in danger to be ⁷accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause for it: and as touching it we shall not be able to give account of this concourse. And when he had thus 41 spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

20 AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul having sent for the disciples and exhorted them, took leave of them, and departed for to go into Macedonia. And when he had gone through those
2 parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece. And when
3 he had spent three months there, and a plot was laid against him by the Jews, as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia. And there accompanied him ⁸as far Derbe, and Timothy; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus. But these ¹had gone before, and were waiting for us at 6 Troas. And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we tarried seven days.

7 And upon the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul discoursed with them, intending to depart on the morrow; and prolonged his speech until midnight. 8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where we were gathered together. And there sat in the window a certain young man named Eutychus, borne down with deep sleep; and as Paul discoursed yet longer, being borne down by his sleep he fell down from the third 10 story, and was taken up dead. And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Make ye no ado; for his 11 life is in him. And when he was gone up, and had broken the bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even till break of day, so he departed. 12 And they brought the lad alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 But we, going before to the ship, set sail for Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, intending 14 himself to go ²by land. And when he met us at Assos, we took him in, and came 15 to Mitylene. And sailing from thence, we came the following day over against Chios; and the next day we touched at Samos; and ³the day after we came to 16 Milerus. For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to him the ⁴elders of the 18 church. And when they were come to him, he said unto them,

Ye yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, after what manner I was with you all the time,

serving the Lord with all lowliness of 19 mind, and with tears, and with trials which befell me by the plots of the Jews: how that I shrank not from declaring 20 unto you anything that was profitable, and teaching you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to Jews 21 and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus ⁵Christ. And now, behold, I go bound in the 22 spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: save 23 that the Holy Ghost testifieth unto me in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But I hold not my life 24 of any account, as dear unto myself, ⁶so that I may accomplish my course, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. And now, behold, I know 25 that ye all, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom, shall see my face no more. Wherefore I testify unto you 26 this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. For I shrank not from declaring unto you the whole counsel of 27 God. Take heed unto yourselves, and 28 to all the flock, in the which the Holy Ghost hath made you ⁷bishops, to feed the church of ⁸God, which he ⁹purchased with his own blood. I know that after 29 my departing grievous wolves shall enter in among you, not sparing the flock; and 30 from among your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. Where- 31 fore watch ye, remembering that by the space of three years I ceased not to admonish every one night and day with tears. And now I commend you to ¹⁰God, 32 and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you the inheritance among all them that are sanctified. weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

- 36 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.
 37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's
 38 neck, and kissed him, sorrowing most of all for the word which he had spoken, that they should behold his face no more. And they brought him on his way unto the ship.

- 21 AND when it came to pass that we were parted from them, and had set sail, we came with a straight course unto Cos, and the next day unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:
 2 and having found a ship crossing over unto Phœnicia, we went aboard, and set
 3 sail. And when we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed unto Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her
 4 burden. And having found the disciples, we tarried there seven days: and these said to Paul through the Spirit, that he
 5 should not set foot in Jerusalem. And when it came to pass that we had accomplished the days, we departed and went on our journey; and they all, with wives and children, brought us on our way, till we were out of the city: and kneeling 6 down on the beach, we prayed, and bade each other farewell; and we went on board the ship, but they returned home again.

- 7 And when we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais; and we saluted the brethren, and abode with 8 them one day. And on the morrow we departed, and came unto Cæsarea: and entering into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven,
 9 we abode with him. Now this man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy. And as we tarried there many
 10 days, there came down from Judæa a 11 certain prophet, named Agabus. And coming to us, and taking Paul's girdle, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. And 12 when we heard these things, both we and they of that place besought him not to go up to Jerusalem. Then Paul answered, What do ye, weeping and breaking my heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. And 14 when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

And after these days we took up our baggage, and went up to Jerusalem. And there went with us also certain of 16 the disciples from Cæsarea, bringing with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we should lodge.

And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present. And when he had saluted them, 19 he rehearsed one by one the things which God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. And they, when they 20 heard it, glorified God; and they said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of them which have believed; and they are all zealous for the law: and they 21 have been informed concerning thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs. What is it therefore? they will certainly 22 hear that thou art come. Do therefore 23 this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them; these 24 take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges for them, that they may shave their heads: and all shall know that there is no truth in the things whereof they have been informed concerning thee; but that thou thyself also walkest 25 orderly, keeping the law. should keep themselves from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them went into the temple, declaring the fulfilment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude, and laid hands on him,

28 crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place: and moreover he brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath

29 defiled this holy place. For they had before seen with him in the city Trophimus the Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they laid hold on Paul, and dragged him out of the temple: and straightway the doors were

31 shut. And as they were seeking to kill him, tidings came up to the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was

32 in confusion. And forthwith he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down upon them: and they, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, left

33 off beating Paul. Then the chief captain came near, and laid hold on him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and inquired who he was, and

34 what he had done. And some shouted one thing, some another, among the crowd: and when he could not know the certainty for the uproar, he commanded

35 him to be brought into the castle. And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the

36 violence of the crowd; for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, Away with him.

37 And as Paul was about to be brought into the castle, he saith unto the chief captain, May I say something unto thee? And he said, Dost thou know Greek?

Art thou not then the Egyptian, which before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins? But Paul said, I am a Jew, of Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee, give me leave to speak unto the people. And when he had given him leave, Paul, standing on the stairs, beckoned with the hand unto the people; and when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew language, saying,

22 BRETHREN and fathers, hear ye the defence which I now make unto you.

And when they heard that he spake unto them in the Hebrew language, they were the more quiet: and he saith,

I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city, at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as ye all are this day: and I persecuted this Way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and journeyed to Damascus, to bring them also which were there unto Jerusalem in bonds, for to be punished. And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and drew nigh unto Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. And they that were with me beheld indeed the light, but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me. And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. And when

I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were 12 with me, I came into Damascus. And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well reported of by all the Jews 13 that dwelt there, came unto me, and standing by me said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And in that very 14 hour I looked up on him. And he said, The God of our fathers hath appointed thee to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from 15 his mouth. For thou shalt be a witness for him unto all men of what thou hast 16 seen and heard. And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash
 17 away thy sins, calling on his name. And it came to pass, that, when I had returned to Jerusalem, and while I prayed
 18 in the temple, I fell into a trance, and saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: because they will not receive of thee
 19 testimony concerning me. And I said, Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue
 20 them that believed on thee: and when the blood of Stephen thy witness was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting, and keeping the garments of 21 them that slew him. And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee forth far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word; and they lifted up their voice, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.
 23 And as they cried out, and threw off their 24 garments, and cast dust into the air, the chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, bidding that he should be examined by scourging, that he might know for what cause they so
 25 shouted against him. And when they had tied him up with the thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that 26 is a Roman, and uncondemned? And when the centurion heard it, he went to the chief captain, and told him, saying, What art thou about to do? for this man is a Roman. And the chief captain came, 27 and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? And he said, Yea. And the 28 chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this citizenship. And Paul said, But I am a Roman born. They 29 then which were about to examine him straightway departed from him: and the chief captain also was afraid, when he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

But on the morrow, desiring to know 30 the certainty, wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

23 AND Paul, looking stedfastly on the council, said, Brethren, I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day. And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth. Then said 3 Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: and sittest thou to judge me according to the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law? And they that stood by said, 4 Revilest thou God's high priest? And 5 Paul said, I wist not, brethren, that he was high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of a ruler of thy people. But when Paul perceived that 6 the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Brethren, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees: touching the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. And when he had so said, there 7 arose a dissension between the Pharisees and Sadducees: and the assembly was divided. For the Sadducees say that 8 there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both. And there arose a great clamour: 9 and some of the scribes of the Pharisees' part stood up, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: and what if a spirit hath spoken to him, or an angel? And when there arose a great dissension, 10 the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer: for as thou hast testified concerning me at Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which

14 made this conspiracy. And they came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we

15 have killed Paul. Now therefore do ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you, as though ye would judge of his case

16 more exactly: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to slay him. But Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait,

17 and he came and entered into the castle, and told Paul. And Paul called unto him one of the centurions, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain:

18 for he hath something to tell him. So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and saith, Paul the prisoner

19 called me unto him, and asked me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say to thee. And the 20 chief captain took him by the hand, and going aside asked him privately, What is that thou hast to tell me? And he said,

21 The Jews have agreed to ask thee to bring down Paul to-morrow unto the council, as though thou wouldest inquire some-

22 what more exactly concerning him. Do not thou therefore yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves under a curse, neither to eat nor to drink till they have slain him: and now are they ready, looking for the promise from thee. So the chief captain let the young man go, charging him, Tell no man that thou hast signified these things to me. And he called unto him two of the 23 centurions, and said, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go as far as Cæsarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night: and he bade them provide 24 beasts, that they might set Paul thereon, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor. And he wrote a letter after this 25 form:

Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix, greeting. This man 27 was seized by the Jews, and was about to be slain of them, when I came upon them with the soldiers, and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. And desiring to know the cause where- 28 fore they accused him, I brought him down unto their council: whom I found 29 to be accused about questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. And when 30 it was shewn to me that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to thee forthwith, charging his accusers also to speak against him before thee.³

So the soldiers, as it was commanded 31 them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris. But on the morrow 32 they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle: and they, 33 when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the letter to the governor, presented Paul also before him. And when he had 34 read it, he asked of what province he was; and when he understood that he was of Cilicia, I will hear thy cause, said 35 he, when thine accusers also are come: and he commanded him to be kept in Herod's palace.

24 AND after five days the high priest Ananias came down with certain elders, and with an orator, one Tertullus; and they informed the governor against Paul. And when he was 2 called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying,

3 are corrected for this nation, we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. But, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I intreat thee to hear us of thy clemency a few words. For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes; who moreover assayed to profane the temple: on whom also we laid hold:² from whom thou wilt be able, by examining him thyself, to take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him. And the Jews also joined in the charge, affirming that these things were so.

10 And when the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, Paul answered,

Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do cheerfully make my defence: 11 seeing that thou canst take knowledge, that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem: and neither in the temple did they find me disputing with any man or stirring up a crowd, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city. Neither can they prove to thee the things whereof they now accuse me. 14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the Way which they call ^aa sect, so serve I the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets: 15 having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there shall be a resurrection both of the just and unjust. Herein do I also exercise myself to have a conscience void of offence toward God and men always. Now after ^bmany years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings: ^camidst which they found me purified in the temple, with no crowd, nor yet with tumult: but 19 there were certain Jews from Asia—who ought to have been here before thee, and to make accusation, if they had aught against me. Or else let these men themselves say what wrong-doing they found, when I stood before the council, except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question before you this day.

But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will determine your matter. And he gave order to the centurion that he should be kept in charge, and should have indulgence; and not to forbid any of his friends to minister unto him.

But after certain days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, which was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus. And as he reasoned of righteousness, and temperance, and the judgement to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, Go thy way for this time; and when I have a convenient season, I will call thee unto me. He hoped withal that money would be given him of Paul: wherefore also he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him. But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and desiring to gain favour with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

25 FESTUS therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Cæsarea. And the chief priests and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul; and they besought him, asking favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem; laying wait to kill him on the way. Howbeit Festus answered, that Paul was kept in charge at Cæsarea, and that he himself was about to depart thither shortly. Let them therefore, saith he, which are of power among you, go down with me, and if there is anything amiss in the man, let them accuse him.

- 6 And when he had tarried among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and on the morrow he sat on the judgement-seat, and commanded Paul to be brought. And when he was come, the Jews which had come down from Jerusalem stood round about him, bringing against him many and grievous charges, which they could not prove; while Paul said in his defence, Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Cæsar, have I sinned at all. But Festus, desiring to gain favour with the Jews, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? But Paul said, I am standing before Cæsar's judgement-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou also very well knowest. If then I am a wrong-doer, and have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if none of those things is true, whereof these accuse me, no man can ¹give me up unto them. I appeal unto Cæsar. Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Thou hast appealed unto Cæsar: unto Cæsar shalt thou go.
- 13 Now when certain days were passed, Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived at Cæsarea, ²and saluted Festus. And as they tarried there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix: about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, asking for sentence against him. To whom I answered, that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up any man, before that the accused have the accusers face to face, and have had opportunity to make his defence concerning the matter laid against him.
- 17 When therefore they were come together here, I made no delay, but on the next day sat down on the judgement-seat, and commanded the man to be brought.
- 18 Concerning whom, when the accusers

stood up, they brought no charge of such evil things as I supposed; but had certain questions against him of their own ³religion, and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. And I, being perplexed how to inquire ⁴concerning these things, asked whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters. But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of ⁵the emperor, I commanded him to be kept till I should send him to Cæsar. And Agrippa said unto Festus, I also ⁶could wish to hear the man myself. To-morrow, saith he, thou shalt hear him.

So on the morrow, when Agrippa ²³came, and Bernice, with great pomp, and they were entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and the principal men of the city, at the command of Festus Paul was brought in. And Festus saith, King Agrippa, and all ²⁴men which are here present with us, ye behold this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews made suit to me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. But I ²⁵found that he had committed nothing worthy of death: and as he himself appealed to ⁴the emperor I determined to send him. Of whom I have no certain ²⁶thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I may have somewhat to write. For it seemeth to ²⁷me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not withal to signify the charges against him.

26 AND Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth his hand, and made his defence:

I think myself happy, king Agrippa, ²that I am to make my defence before thee this day touching all the things whereof I am accused by the Jews: ³especially because thou art expert in all ³customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to 4 hear me patiently. My manner of life then from my youth up, which was from the beginning among mine own nation,

 and at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;
 5 having knowledge of me from the first,
 if they be willing to testify, how that after the straitest sect of our religion
 6 I lived a Pharisee. And now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise 7 made of God unto our fathers; unto which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain. And concerning this hope I 8 am accused by the Jews, O king! Why is it judged incredible with you, if God 9 doth raise the dead? I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus 10 of Nazareth. And this I also did in Jerusalem: and I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death, I gave my 11 vote against them. And punishing them oftentimes in all the synagogues, I strove to make them blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted
 them even unto foreign cities.
 12 Whereupon as I journeyed to Damascus
 with the authority and commission
 13 of the chief priests, at midday, O king,
 I saw on the way a light from heaven,
 above the brightness of the sun, shining
 round about me and them that journeyed 14 with me. And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying unto me in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul,
 why persecutest thou me? it is hard for 15 thee to kick against ²the goad. And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.
 16 But arise, and stand upon thy feet: for
 to this end have I appeared unto thee,
 to appoint thee a minister and a witness
 both of the things ³wherein thou hast seen me, and of the things wherein I will 17 appear unto thee; delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto 18 whom I send thee, to open their eyes,

that they may turn from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among them that are sanctified by faith in me. Wherefore, 19
 O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: but declared 20
 both to them of Damascus first, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country
 of Judæa, and also to the Gentiles,
 that they should repent and turn to God,
 doing works worthy of repentance. For 21
 this cause the Jews seized me in the temple, and assayed to kill me. Having 22 therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand unto this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses did say should come; ⁴how that the Christ ⁵must 23
 suffer, and ⁶how that he first by the resurrection
 of the dead should proclaim light both to the people and to the Gentiles.

And as he thus made his defence, 24
 Festus saith with a loud voice, Paul,
 thou art mad; thy much learning doth turn thee to madness. But Paul saith, 25
 I am not mad, most excellent Festus;
 but speak forth words of truth and soberness.
 For the king knoweth of these 26
 things, unto whom also I speak freely:
 for I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him; for this hath not been done in a corner. King Agrippa, 27 believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest. And Agrippa said unto 28
 Paul, With but little persuasion thou wouldest fain make me a Christian. And 29 Paul said, I would to God, that whether with little or with much, not thou only,
 but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except these bonds.

And the king rose up, and the governor, 30
 and Bernice, and they that sat with them: and when they had withdrawn, 31
 they spake one to another, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. And Agrippa said unto Festus, 32
 This man might have been set at liberty,
 if he had not appealed unto Cæsar.

27 AND when it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band. And embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail unto the places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea, Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. And the next day we touched at Sidon: and Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him leave to go unto his friends and refresh himself. And putting to sea from thence, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. And when we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy; and he put us therein. And when we had sailed slowly many days, and were come with difficulty over against Cnidus, the wind not further suffering us, we sailed under the lee of Crete, over against Salmone; and with difficulty coasting along it we came unto a certain place called Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea. And when much time was spent, and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast was now already gone by, Paul admonished them, and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the lading and the ship, but also of our lives. But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship, than to those things which were spoken by Paul. And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to put to sea from thence, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there; which is a haven of Crete, looking north-east and south-east. And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close in shore. But after no long time there beat down from it a tempestuous wind, which is called Euraquilo: and when the ship was caught, and could not face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven. And running under the lee of a small island called Cauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat: and when they had hoisted it up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should be cast upon the Syrtis, they lowered the gear, and so were driven. And as we laboured exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw the freight overboard; and the third day they cast out with their own hands the tackling of the ship. And when neither sun nor stars shone upon us for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was now taken away. And when they had been long without food, then Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss. And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. For there stood by me this night an angel of the God whose I am, whom also I serve, saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must stand before Cæsar: and lo, God hath granted thee all them that sail with thee. Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even so as it hath been spoken unto me. Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven to and fro in the sea of Adria, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some country; and they sounded, and found twenty fathoms: and after a little space, they sounded again, and found fifteen fathoms. And fearing lest haply we should be cast ashore on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for the day. And as the sailors were seeking to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would lay out anchors from the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, 32 ye cannot be saved. Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let 33 her fall off. And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take some food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. Wherefore

 34 I beseech you to take some food: for this is for your safety: for there shall not a hair perish from the head of any 35 of you. And when he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all: and he brake it, 36 and began to eat. Then were they all of good cheer, and themselves also took 37 food. And we were in all in the ship ¹two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.
 38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the 39 wheat into the sea. And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they perceived a certain bay with a beach, and they took counsel whether they could 40 ²drive the ship upon it. And casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosing the bands of the rudders; and hoisting up the foresail to 41 the wind, they made for the beach. But lighting upon a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the foreship struck and remained unmoveable, but the stern began to break up
 42 by the violence of the waves. And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and 43 escape. But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stayed them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves overboard, and get first to the land: and the rest, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. And so it came to pass, that they all escaped safe to the land.

28 AND when we were escaped, then we knew that the island was called ³Melita. And the barbarians shewed us 2 no common kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. But when Paul had gathered a bundle 3 of sticks, and laid them on the fire, a viper came out ⁴by reason of the heat, and fastened on his hand. And when 4 the barbarians saw the beast hanging from his hand, they said one to another, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped from the sea, yet Justice hath not suffered to live. How- 5 beit he shook off the beast into the fire, and took no harm. But they expected 6 that he would have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but when they were long in expectation, and beheld nothing amiss come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

Now in the neighbourhood of that 7 place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius; who received us, and entertained us three days courteously. And it was so, that 8 the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery: unto whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laying his hands on him healed him. And when this was 9 done, the rest also which had diseases in the island came, and were cured: who 10 also honoured us with many honours; and when we sailed, they put on board such things as we needed.

And after three months we set sail in 11 a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the island, whose sign was ⁵The Twin Brothers. And touching at Syracuse, 12 we tarried there three days. And from 13 thence we ⁶made a circuit, and arrived at Rhegium: and after one day a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Putcoli: where we found 14 brethren, and were intreated to tarry with them seven days: and so we came to Rome. And from thence the brethren, 15 when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius, and The Three Taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we entered into Rome, 'Paul was suffered to abide by himself with the soldier that guarded him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days he called together ²those that were the chief of the Jews: and when they were come together, he said unto them, I, brethren, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, yet was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans:

18 who, when they had examined me, desired to set me at liberty, because there

19 was no cause of death in me. But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cæsar; not that

20 I had aught to accuse my nation of. For this cause therefore did I ³intreat you to see and to speak with me: for because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain. And they said unto him, We

21 neither received letters from Judæa concerning thee, nor did any of the brethren come hither and report or speak any harm of thee. But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, they came to him into his lodging in great number; to whom he expounded

thematter, testifying the kingdom of God, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning till evening. And some believed the things which 24 were spoken, and some disbelieved. And 25 when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost ⁴by Isaiah the prophet unto your fathers, saying, 26

Go thou unto this people, and say,
By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in
no wise understand;

And seeing ye shall see, and shall in
no wise perceive:

For this people's heart is waxed gross, 27
And their ears are dull of hearing,
And their eyes they have closed;
Lest haply they should perceive with
their eyes,

And hear with their ears,
And understand with their heart,
And should turn again,
And I should heal them.

Be it known therefore unto you, that this 28
salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles: they will also hear.⁵

And he abode two whole years in his 30

went in unto him, preaching the king- 31

concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness, none forbidding him.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS

1 PAUL, a ¹servant of Jesus Christ,
 2 called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God, which he promised afore ²by his prophets in the holy scrip-3 tures, concerning his Son, who was born of the seed of David according to the 4 flesh, who was ³declared to be the Son of God ⁴with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection of the dead; even Jesus Christ our Lord, 5 through whom we received grace and apostleship, unto obedience ⁵of faith
 among all the nations, for his name's
 6 sake: among whom are ye also, called 7 to be Jesus Christ's: to all that are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints:
 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
 8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, ⁶that your faith
 is proclaimed throughout the whole 9 world. For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention
 10 of you, always in my prayers making request, if by any means now at length I may be prospered ⁷by the will of God to 11 come unto you. For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;
 12 that is, that I with you may be comforted in you, each of us by the other's 13 faith, both yours and mine. And I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you (and was hindered hitherto), that I might have some fruit in you also, even as in 14 the rest of the Gentiles. I am debtor both to Greeks and to Barbarians, both 15 to the wise and to the foolish. So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach
 the gospel to you also that are in Rome.
 16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first,

 and also to the Greek. For therein is ¹⁷ revealed a righteousness of God ⁸by faith unto faith: as it is written, But the righteous shall live ⁸by faith.

For ⁹the wrath of God is revealed from ¹⁸
 heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who ¹⁰hold down
 the truth in unrighteousness; because ¹⁹ that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God manifested
 it unto them. For the invisible things ²⁰
 of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity; ¹¹that they may be without excuse: because that, ²¹ knowing God, they glorified him not as God, neither gave thanks; but became vain in their reasonings, and their senseless heart was darkened. Professing ²² themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the in- ²³ corruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds,
 and fourfooted beasts, and creeping
 things.

Wherefore God gave them up in the ²⁴
 lusts of their hearts unto uncleanness,
 that their bodies should be dishonoured
 among themselves: for that they ex- ²⁵ changed the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed ¹²for ever. Amen.

For this cause God gave them up unto ²⁶
¹³vile passions: for their women changed
 the natural use into that which is against nature: and likewise also the men, leav- ²⁷
 ing the natural use of the woman, burned
 in their lust one toward another, men with men working unseemliness, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was due.

- 28 And even as they ¹refused to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up unto a reprobate mind, to do those things 29 which are not fitting; being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malignity; whisperers, backbiters, ²hateful to God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of 30 evil things, disobedient to parents, without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, unmerciful:
31 who, knowing the ordinance of God, that they which practise such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also consent with them that practise them.

- 2 WHEREFORE thou art without excuse, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest ³another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest dost practise the same things.
2 ⁴And we know that the judgement of God is according to truth against them that practise such things. And reckonest thou
3 this, O man, who judgest them that practise such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgement of God?
4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering, not knowing that the goodness of God
5 leadeth thee to repentance? but after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up for thyself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgement of God; who will render to every
6 man according to his works: to them that by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honour and incorruption, eternal
7 life: but unto them that are factious, and obey not the truth, but obey unrighteousness, shall be wrath and indignation,
8 tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that worketh evil, of the Jew first,
9 and also of the Greek; but glory and honour and peace to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek: for there is no respect of 11 persons with God. For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned under law shall be judged by law; for 12 not the hearers of a law are ⁵just before God, but the doers of a law shall be ⁶justified: for when Gentiles which have 14

no law do by nature the things of the law, these, having no law, are a law unto themselves; in that they shew the work 15 of the law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness therewith, and their ⁷thoughts one with another accusing or else excusing them; in the 16 day when God ⁸shall judge the secrets of men, according to my gospel, by Jesus Christ.

God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you, even as it is written. For 25
circumcision indeed profiteth, if thou be a doer of the law: but if thou be a transgressor of the law, thy circumcision is become uncircumcision. If therefore the 26

3 WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what is the profit of circumcision? Much every way: first of all, that they were intrusted with the oracles of God. For what if some were without faith? shall their want of faith make of none effect the faithfulness of God? 4 God forbid: yea, let God be found true, but every man a liar; as it is written,

That thou mightest be justified in thy words,

And mightest prevail when thou comest into judgement.

5 But if our unrighteousness commendeth the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who visiteth with wrath? (I speak after the manner of men.) God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world? 6 But if the truth of God through my lie abounded unto his glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? and why not (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), Let us do evil, that good may come? whose condemnation is just.

9 What then? 3are we in worse case than they? No, in no wise: for we before laid to the charge both of Jews and 10 Greeks, that they are all under sin; as it is written,

There is none righteous, no, not one; 11 There is none that understandeth, There is none that seeketh after God; 12 They have all turned aside, they are together become unprofitable; There is none that doeth good, no, not so much as one: 13 Their throat is an open sepulchre; With their tongues they have used deceit:

The poison of asps is under their lips:

Whose mouth is full of cursing and 14 bitterness:

Their feet are swift to shed blood; 15 Destruction and misery are in their 16 ways;

And the way of peace have they not 17 known:

There is no fear of God before their 18 eyes.

Now we know that what things soever 19 the law saith, it speaketh to them that are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may be brought under the judgement of God: because 4by 5the works of the law shall 20 no flesh be 6justified in his sight: for 7through the law cometh the knowledge of sin. But now apart from the law a 21 righteousness of God hath been manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of 22 God through faith 8in Jesus Christ unto all 9them that believe; for there is no distinction; for all have sinned, and fall 23 short of the glory of God; being justified 24 freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God 25 10set forth 11to be a propitiation, through 12faith, by his blood, to shew his righteousness, because of the passing over of the sins done aforetime, in the forbearance of God; for the shewing, I say, of 26 his righteousness at this present season: that he might himself be just, and the justifier of him that 13hath faith 8in Jesus. Where then is the glorying? It is excluded. By what manner of law? of works? Nay: but by a law of faith. 14We 28 reckon therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from 5the works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? 29 is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yea, of Gentiles also: if so be that God is 30 one, and he shall justify the circumcision 4by faith, and the uncircumcision 15through faith. Do we then make 16the 31

law of none effect ¹through faith? God forbid: nay, we establish ²the law.

4 WHAT then shall we say ³that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham was justified ⁴by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not toward God. For what saith the scripture? And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh, the reward is not reckoned as of grace, but as of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness. Even as David also pronounceth blessing upon the man, unto whom God reckoneth righteousness apart from works, saying,

Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven,
And whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not reckon sin.
9 Is this blessing then pronounced upon the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say, To Abraham his faith was reckoned for righteousness.
10 How then was it reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision: and he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might be reckoned unto them;
12 and the father of circumcision to them who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had in uncircumcision. For not ⁵through the law was the promise to Abraham or to his seed, that he should be heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect: for the law worketh wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there transgression. For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace; to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all (as it is written, A father of many nations have I made thee) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth the things that are not, as though they were. Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, So shall thy seed be. And without being weakened in faith he considered his own body ⁶now as good as dead (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb: yea, looking unto the promise of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but waxed strong through faith, giving glory to God, and being fully assured that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. Wherefore also it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned unto him; but for our sake also, unto whom it shall be reckoned, who believe on him that raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

5 BEING therefore justified ⁴by faith, ⁷let us have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; through whom ²also we have had our access ⁸by faith into this grace wherein we stand; and ⁹let us ¹⁰rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but ¹¹let us also ³¹⁰rejoice in our tribulations: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; and patience, probation; and probation, hope: and hope putteth not to shame; because the love of God hath been shed abroad in our hearts through the ¹²Holy Ghost

6 which was given unto us. For while we were yet weak, in due season Christ died 7 for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: for peradventure for ¹the good man some one would even 8 dare to die. But God commendeth his own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. 9 Much more then, being now justified ²by his blood, shall we be saved from 10 the wrath of God through him. For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, shall 11 we be saved ²by his life; and not only so, ³but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

12 Therefore, as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin; and so death passed unto all men, 13 for that all sinned:—for until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed 14 when there is no law. Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is 15 a figure of him that was to come. But not as the trespass, so also is the free gift. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound unto the 16 many. And not as through one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgement came of one unto condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses unto 17 justification. For if, by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; much more shall they that receive the abundance of grace and ⁵of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, even Jesus Christ. So then as through one trespass the judgement came unto all men to condemnation; even so through one act of righteousness the free gift came 18 unto all men to justification of life. For 19 as through the one man's disobedience

the many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one shall the many be made righteous. And ⁶the law came in beside, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace did abound more exceedingly: that, as sin reigned in death, even so ²¹might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 WHAT shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. We who died to 2 sin, how shall we any longer live therein? Or are ye ignorant that all we who were 3 baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried there- 4 fore with him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. For if we have become ⁷united 5 with him by the likeness of his death, we shall be also by the likeness of his resurrection; knowing this, that our old 6 man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away, that so we should no longer be in bondage to sin; for he that hath died is justified 7 from sin. But if we died with Christ, 8 we believe that we shall also live with him; knowing that Christ being raised 9 from the dead dieth no more; death no more hath dominion over him. For ¹⁰the 10 death that he died, he died unto sin ¹¹once: but ¹²the life that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Even so reckon ye also 11 yourselves to be dead unto sin, but alive unto God in Christ Jesus.

Let not sin therefore reign in your 12 mortal body, that ye should obey the lusts thereof: neither present your mem- 13 bers unto sin as ¹⁴instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves unto God, as alive from the dead, and your members as ¹⁵instruments of righteousness unto God. For sin shall not have 14 dominion over you: for ye are not under law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? God
 16 forbid. Know ye not, that to whom ye present yourselves as ¹servants unto obedience, his ¹servants ye are whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or 17 of obedience unto righteousness? But thanks be to God, ²that, whereas ye were ¹servants of sin, ye became obedient from the heart to that ³form of teaching where-18 unto ye were delivered; and being made free from sin, ye became ¹servants of 19 righteousness. I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now present your members as servants to righteous-20 ness unto sanctification. For when ye were ¹servants of sin, ye were free in 21 regard of righteousness. What fruit then had ye at that time in the things where-
 22 of ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end eternal life.
 23 For the wages of sin is death; but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 OR are ye ignorant, brethren (for I speak to men that know ⁴the law), how that the law hath dominion over
 2 a man for so long time as he liveth? For the woman that hath a husband is bound by law to the husband while he liveth; but if the husband die, she is discharged
 3 from the law of the husband. So then if, while the husband liveth, she be joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if the husband die, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined to another man. Wherefore, my brethren, ye
 4 also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ; that ye should be joined to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring 5 forth fruit unto God. For when we were in the flesh, the ⁵sinful passions, which were through the law, wrought in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that wherein we were holden; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

What shall we say then? Is the law ⁷sin? God forbid. Howbeit, I had not known sin, except through ⁴the law: for I had not known ⁶coveting, except the law had said, Thou shalt not ⁶covet: but sin, ⁸finding occasion, wrought in me through the commandment all manner of ⁶coveting: for apart from ⁴the law sin is dead. And I was alive apart from ⁴the law once: ⁹but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died; and the commandment, which was unto life, this I found to be unto death: for sin, finding occa-
 11 sion, through the commandment beguiled me, and through it slew me. So that the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good. Did ¹³then that which is good become death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might be shewn to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good;—that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful. For we ¹⁴know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. For that which ¹⁵I ⁷do I know not: for not what I would, that do I practise; but what I hate, that I do. But if what I would not, that I do, ¹⁶I consent unto the law that it is good. So now it is no more I that ⁷do it, but ¹⁷sin which dwelleth in me. For I know ¹⁸that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, but to ⁷do that which is good is not. For the good which I would I do not: ¹⁹but the evil which I would not, that I practise. But if what I would not, that ²⁰I do, it is no more I that ⁷do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. I find then ²¹the law, that, to me who would do good, evil is present. For I delight ²²in the law of God after the inward man: but I see a ²³different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity ¹under the law of sin which is in my members. O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me out of ²the body of this death? ³I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then I myself with the mind serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

8 THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made me free from the law of sin and of death. For what the law could not do, ⁴in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of ⁵sinful flesh ⁶and as an offering for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: that the ⁷ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit. For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the spirit the things of the spirit. For the mind of the flesh is death; but the mind of the spirit is life and peace: because the mind of the flesh is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can it be: and they that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. But if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the spirit is life because of righteousness. But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, he that raised up Christ Jesus from the dead shall quicken also your mortal bodies ⁸through his Spirit that dwelleth in you. So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh: for if ye live after the flesh, ye must die; but if by the spirit ye ⁹mortify the ¹⁰deeds of the body, ye shall live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. For ye received not the spirit of bondage again unto fear; but ye received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit himself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified with him.

For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed to us-ward. For the earnest expectation of the creation waiteth for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but by reason of him who subjected it, ¹¹in hope that the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain ¹²together until now. And not only so, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for our adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. For by hope were we saved: but hope that is seen is not hope: ¹³for who ¹⁴hopeth for that which he seeth? But if we hope for that which we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

And in like manner the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity: for we know not how to pray as we ought; but the Spirit himself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered; and he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, ¹⁵because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. And we know that to them that love God ¹⁶all things work together for good, even to them that are called according to his purpose.

for a seed. For this is a word of promise, 9
According to this season will I come, and Sarah shall have a son. And not only so; 10
but Rebecca also having conceived by one, even by our father Isaac—for the 11
children being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth, it was said unto her, The 12
elder shall serve the younger. Even as 13
it is written, Jacob I loved, but Esau
I hated.

What shall we say then? Is there 14 unrighteousness with God? God forbid. For he saith to Moses, I will have 15 mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. So then it is not of him 16
that willeth, nor of him that runneth,
but of God that hath mercy. For the 17 scripture saith unto Pharaoh, For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might shew in thee my power, and that my name might be published abroad in all the earth. So then he hath mercy 18 on whom he will, and whom he will he hardeneth.

Thou wilt say then unto me, Why 19
doth he still find fault? For who withstandeth his will? Nay but, O man, who 20 art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed
it, Why didst thou make me thus? Or 21

 23 of wrath fitted unto destruction: ¹and that he might make known the riches of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which 24 he afore prepared unto glory, even us, whom he also called, not from the Jews
 25 only, but also from the Gentiles? As he saith also in Hosea,

I will call that my people, which was not my people;

And her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And it shall be, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people,

There shall they be called sons of the living God.

27 And Isaiah crieth concerning Israel, If the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, it is the remnant 28 that shall be saved: for the Lord will execute his word upon the earth, finishing it and cutting it short. And, as Isaiah hath said before,

Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed,

We had become as Sodom, and had been made like unto Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even 31 the righteousness which is of faith: but Israel, following after a law of righteousness, did not arrive at that law. Wherefore?
 32 ²Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by works. They stumbled 33 at the stone of stumbling; even as it is written,

Behold, I lay in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence:

And he that believeth on ³him shall not be put to shame.

10 BRETHREN, my heart's ⁴desire and my supplication to God is for 2 them, that they may be saved. For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. For being ignorant of God's ³righteousness, and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. For ⁴Christ is the end of the law unto righteousness to every one that believeth. For Moses writeth that the man that ⁵doeth the righteousness which is of the law shall live thereby. But the righteousness which is of faith saith thus, Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down:) or, ⁷Who shall descend into the abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.) But what saith it? The word is nigh ⁸thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach: ⁹because if thou shalt ⁶confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thy heart that God raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved: for ¹⁰with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the ¹¹scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be put to shame. For there ¹²is no distinction between Jew and Greek: for the same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich unto all that call upon him: for, ¹³Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall ¹⁴they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they ¹⁵be sent? even as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that bring ⁷glad tidings of good things!

But they did not all hearken to the ¹⁶glad tidings. For Isaiah saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? So belief ¹⁷cometh of hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ. But I say, Did they not ¹⁸hear? Yea, verily,

Their sound went out into all the earth,

And their words unto the ends of ⁹the world.

19 But I say, Did Israel not know? First Moses saith,

I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation,

With a nation void of understanding will I anger you.

20 And Isaiah is very bold, and saith,

I was found of them that sought me not;

I became manifest unto them that asked not of me.

21 But as to Israel he saith, All the day long did I spread out my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

11 I SAY then, Did God cast off his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. God did not cast off his people which he foreknew. Or wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elijah? how he pleadeth with God against Israel, Lord, they have killed thy prophets, they have digged down thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seek my life. But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have left for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal. Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. But if it is by grace, it is no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. What then? That which Israel seeketh for, that he obtained not; but the election obtained it, and the rest were hardened: according as it is written, God gave them

a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, unto this very day. And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, And a stumblingblock, and a recompense unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see,

And bow thou down their back alway.

11 I say then, Did they stumble that they might fall? God forbid: but by their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles,

12 for to provoke them to jealousy. Now

if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

But I speak to you that are Gentiles. 13 Inasmuch then as I am an apostle of Gentiles, I glorify my ministry: if by any 14 means I may provoke to jealousy them that are my flesh, and may save some of them. For if the casting away of them 15 is the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead? And if the firstfruit is holy, so is 16 the lump: and if the root is holy, so are the branches. But if some of the branches 17 were broken off, and thou, being a wild olive, wast grafted in among them, and didst become partaker with them of the root of the fatness of the olive tree; glory 18 not over the branches: but if thou gloriest, it is not thou that bearest the root, but the root thee. Thou wilt say then, 19

Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. Well; by their unbelief 20 they were broken off, and thou standest by thy faith. Be not highminded, but fear: for if God spared not the natural 21 branches, neither will he spare thee. Behold then the goodness and severity of God: toward them that fell, severity; but toward thee, God's goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off. And they also, if 23 they continue not in their unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. For if thou wast cut out 24 of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and wast grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which are the natural branches,

be grafted into their own olive tree?

For I would not, brethren, have you 25 ignorant of this mystery, lest ye be wise

in your own conceits, that a hardening in part hath befallen Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in; and so all Israel shall be saved: even as it is written,

There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer;

He shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

1 Or, in

27 And this is ¹my covenant unto them,
When I shall take away their sins.

28 As touching the gospel, they are enemies
for your sake: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' 29 sake. For the gifts and the calling of 30 God are ²without repentance. For as ye in time past were disobedient to God,
but now have obtained mercy by their 31 disobedience, even so have these also now been disobedient, that by the mercy
shewn to you they also may now obtain 32 mercy. For God hath shut up all unto disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth ³of the riches ⁴both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgements, and 34 his ways past tracing out! For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who 35 hath been his counsellor? or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recom-36 pensed unto him again? For of him, and through him, and unto him, are all things. To him be the glory ⁵for ever.
Amen.

12 I BESEECH you therefore, brethren,
by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice,
holy, ⁶acceptable to God, which is your 2 ⁷reasonable ⁸service. And be not fashioned according to this ⁹world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is ¹⁰the good and ⁶acceptable and perfect will
of God.

3 For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but so to think as to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to each man a measure of 4 faith. For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members 5 have not the same office: so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and 6 severally members one of another. And having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of ¹¹our faith; or ministry, 7

let us give ourselves to our ministry; or he that teacheth, to his teaching; or he 8
that exhorteth, to his exhorting: he that giveth, let him do it with ¹²liberality; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love 9 be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. In love of the brethren be tenderly affec-tioned one to another; in honour preferring one another; in diligence not 11
slothful; fervent in spirit; serving ¹³the
Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tri- 12
bulation; continuing stedfastly in prayer;
communicating to the necessities of the 13
saints; ¹⁴given to hospitality. Bless them 14 that persecute you; bless, and curse not.
Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep 15
with them that weep. Be of the same 16 mind one toward another. Set not your mind on high things, but ¹⁵condescend to ¹⁶things that are lowly. Be not wise in your own conceits. Render to no man 17 evil for evil. Take thought for things honourable in the sight of all men. If it 18 be possible, as much as in you lieth, be at peace with all men. Avenge not your- 19 selves, beloved, but give place unto ¹⁷wrath: for it is written, Vengeance belongeth unto me; I will recompense, saith the Lord. But if thine enemy hun- 20 ger, feed him; if he thirst, give him to drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head. Be not over- 21 come of evil, but overcome evil with
good.

 4 have praise from the same: for ¹he is a minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for ²he beareth not the sword in vain: for ³he is a minister of God, an avenger
 5 for wrath to him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also for 6 conscience sake. For for this cause ye pay tribute also; for they are ministers of God's service, attending continually
 7 upon this very thing. Render to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.
 8 Owe no man anything, save to love one another: for he that loveth ²his neighbour hath fulfilled ³the law. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not covet, and if there be any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, namely, Thou shalt love
 10 thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: love therefore is the fulfilment of ³the law.
 11 And this, knowing the season, that now it is high time for you to awake out of sleep: for now is ⁴salvation nearer to us than when we first believed. The night is far spent, and the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in revelling and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and jealousy. But put 14 ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

- 14 BUT him that is weak in faith receive ye, yet not ³to doubtful
 2 disputations. One man hath faith to eat all things: but he that is weak eateth 3 herbs. Let not him that eateth set at nought him that eateth not; and let not him that eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him. Who 4 art thou that judgest the ⁶servant of another? to his own lord he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be made to stand; for the Lord hath power to make him stand. One man esteemeth one day

 5 above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let each man be fully assured in his own mind. He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord: and he that eateth, eateth unto the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, unto the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. For 7 none of us liveth to himself, and none dieth to himself. For whether we live, 8 we live unto the Lord; or whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died, and lived
 9 again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. But thou, why dost thou judge thy brother? or thou again, why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgement-seat of God. For it is 11 written,

As I live, saith the Lord, to me every knee shall bow,
 And every tongue shall ⁷confess to God.

So then each one of us shall give account
 12 of himself to God.

Let us not therefore judge one another
 13 any more: but judge ye this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling. I know, and am persuaded in the Lord
 14 Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself: save that to him who accounteth anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. For if because of meat thy brother is 15 grieved, thou walkest no longer in love. Destroy not with thy meat him for whom Christ died. Let not then your good be ness and peace and joy in the Holy 18 Ghost. For he that herein serveth Christ is well-pleasing to God, and approved 19 of men. So then ¹let us follow after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may edify one another.

 20 Overthrow not for meat's sake the work of God. All things indeed are clean;
 howbeit it is evil for that man who eateth 21 with offence. It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything 22 whereby thy brother stumbleth². The faith which thou hast, have thou to thyself before God. Happy is he that judgeth not himself in that which he 23 ³approveth. But he that doubteth is condemned if he eat, because he cateth
 not of faith; and whatsoever is not of faith is sin.⁴

15 NOW we that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, 2 and not to please ourselves. Let each one of us please his neighbour for that 3 which is good, unto edifying. For Christ also pleased not himself; but, as it is written, 'The reproaches of them that 4 reproached thee fell upon me. For whatsoever things were written afore-time were written for our learning, that through patience and through comfort
 of the scriptures we might have hope.
 5 Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you to be of the same mind
 one with another according to Christ 6 Jesus: that with one accord ye may with one mouth glorify the God and Father 7 of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, even as Christ
 also received ⁵you, to the glory of God.
 8 For I say that Christ hath been made a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm the 9 promises given unto the fathers, and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written,

Therefore will I ⁶give praise unto thee among the Gentiles,
 And sing unto thy name.

And again he saith, 10
 Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.
 And again, 11
 Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles;
 And let all the peoples praise him.
 And again, Isaiah saith, 12
 There shall be the root of Jesse,
 And he that ariseth to rule over the Gentiles;
 On him shall the Gentiles hope.
 Now the God of hope fill you with all 13
 joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Ghost.

And I myself also am persuaded of 14
 you, my brethren, that ye yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. But I write the more boldly unto 15
 you in some measure, as putting you again in remembrance, because of the grace that was given me of God, that I 16 should be a minister of Christ Jesus unto the Gentiles, ⁷ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost. I have therefore 17
 my glorying in Christ Jesus in things pertaining to God. For I will not dare 18 to speak of any ⁸things save those which Christ wrought through me, for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, in the power of signs and wonders, 19
 in the power of ⁹the Holy Ghost; so that from Jerusalem, and round about even unto Illyricum, I have ¹⁰fully preached the gospel of Christ; yea, ¹¹making it my 20 aim so to preach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, that I might not build upon another man's foundation; but, as it is written, 21

They shall see, to whom no tidings of him came,
 And they who have not heard shall understand.

 26 saints. For it hath been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor
 among the saints that are at Jerusalem.
 27 Yea, it hath been their good pleasure;
 and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to

 plished this, and have sealed to them

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

- 1 PAUL, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes ²our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, even them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, their Lord and ours: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- 4 I thank ⁸my God always concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; that in everything ye were enriched in him, in all ⁹utterance and all knowledge; even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: so that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye be unreprouvable in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, through whom ye were called into the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
- 10 Now I beseech you, brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgement. For it hath been signified unto me concerning you, my brethren, by them which are of the household of Chloë, that there are contentions among you. Now this I ¹²mean, that each one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ. ¹⁰Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized into the name of Paul? ¹¹I thank God that I baptized none of you, ¹⁴save Crispus and Gaius; lest any man ¹⁵should say that ye were baptized into my name. And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. For Christ ¹⁷sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not in wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made void.

For the word of the cross is to them ¹⁸that are perishing foolishness; but unto us which are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written,

I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
And the prudence of the prudent will I reject.

Where is the wise? where is the scribe? ²⁰where is the disputer of this ²²world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For seeing that in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom knew not God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the ²¹preaching to save them that believe.

- 22 Seeing that Jews ask for signs, and 23 Greeks seek after wisdom: but we preach
¹Christ crucified, unto Jews a stumbling-block, and unto Gentiles foolishness;
 24 but unto ²them that are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of 25 God, and the wisdom of God. Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.
 26 For ³behold your calling, brethren,
 how that not many wise after the flesh,
 not many mighty, not many noble, ⁴are 27 called: but God chose the foolish things of the world, that he might put to shame them that are wise; and God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong; 28 and the base things of the world, and the things that are despised, did God choose,
 yea ⁵and the things that are not, that he might bring to nought the things that 29 are: that no flesh should glory before 30 God. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who was made unto us wisdom from God, ⁶and righteousness and sanctifica-31 tion, and redemption: that, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

- 2 AND I, brethren, when I came unto you, came not with excellency of ⁷speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to 2 you the ⁸mystery of God. For I determined not to know anything among you,
 save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.
 3 And I was with you in weakness, and in 4 fear, and in much trembling. And my ⁷speech and my ⁹preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of 5 power: that your faith should not ¹⁰stand
 in the wisdom of men, but in the power
 of God.
 6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among the ¹¹perfect: yet a wisdom not of this ¹²world, nor of the rulers of this ¹²world, which 7 are coming to nought: but we speak

God's wisdom in a mystery, even the wisdom that hath been hidden, which God foreordained before the worlds unto our glory: which none of the rulers of 8
 this world knoweth: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory: but as it is written, 9

Things which eye saw not, and ear heard not,

And which entered not into the heart
 of man,

Whatsoever things God prepared for them that love him.

¹³But unto us God revealed ¹⁴them 10
 through the Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.
 For who among men knoweth the things 11
 of a man, save the spirit of the man, which is in him? even so the things of God
 none knoweth, save the Spirit of God.
 But we received, not the spirit of the 12
 world, but the spirit which is of God;
 that we might know the things that are freely given to us by God. Which things 13 also we speak, not in words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Spirit
 teacheth; ¹⁵ ¹⁶comparing spiritual things with spiritual. Now the natural man re- 14
 ceiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him;
 and he cannot know them, because they are spiritually ¹⁷judged. But he that is 15 spiritual ¹⁸judgeth all things, and he himself is ¹⁷judged of no man. For who hath 16 known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

3 AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, as unto babes in Christ. I 2 fed you with milk, not with meat; for ye were not yet able to bear it: nay, not even now are ye able; for ye are yet 3
 carnal: for whereas there is among you jealousy and strife, are ye not carnal, and walk after the manner of men? For when 4

5 am of Apollos; are ye not men? What then is Apollos? and what is Paul? Ministers through whom ye believed; 6 and each as the Lord gave to him. I planted, Apollos watered; but God gave 7 the increase. So then neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. 8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: but each shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. 9 For we are God's fellow-workers; ye are God's 'husbandry, God's building. 10 According to the grace of God which was given unto me, as a wise master-builder I laid a foundation; and another buildeth thereon. But let each man take 11 heed how he buildeth thereon. For other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12 But if any man buildeth on the foundation gold, silver, costly stones, wood, 13 hay, stubble; each man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it is revealed in fire; ²and the fire itself shall prove each man's work of 14 what sort it is. If any man's work shall abide which he built thereon, he shall 15 receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as through fire. 16 Know ye not that ye are a ³temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man destroyeth the ³temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the ³temple of God is holy, ⁴which temple ye are. 18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man thinketh that he is wise among you in this ⁵world, let him become a fool, 19 that he may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He that taketh 20 the wise in their craftiness: and again, The Lord knoweth the reasonings of the 21 wise, that they are vain. Wherefore let no one glory in men. For all things are 22 yours; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; and ye are Christ's; and ²³Christ is God's.

4 LET a man so account of us, as of ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Here, moreover, ²it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. But with me it is a very ³small thing that I should be ⁶judged of you, or of man's ⁷judgement: yea, I ⁸judge not mine own self. For I know ⁴nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that ⁹judgeth me is the Lord. Wherefore judge ⁵nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall each man have his praise from God.

Now these things, brethren, I have ⁶in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes; that in us ye might learn not to go beyond the things which are written; that no one of you be puffed up for the one against the other. For who maketh thee to differ? ⁷and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? but if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it? Already are ye filled, ⁸already ye are become rich, ye have reigned without us: yea and I would that ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. For, I think, God hath ⁹set forth us the apostles last of all, as men doomed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, ¹⁰and to angels, and to men. We are fools for ¹⁰Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye have glory, but we have dishonour. Even ¹¹unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place; and we toil, working with our ¹²own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; being defamed, ¹³

- 14 I write not these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved 15 children. For though ye should have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus 16 I begat you through the gospel. I beseech you therefore, be ye imitators of 17 me. For this cause have I sent unto you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who shall put you in remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in 18 every church. Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.
19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will; and I will know, not the word of them which are puffed up, but the 20 power. For the kingdom of God is not
21 in word, but in power. What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of meekness?

5 IT is actually reported that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not even among the Gentiles, that one of you hath his father's wife. And ²ye are puffed up, and ³did not rather mourn, that he that had done this deed might be taken away
3 from among you. For I verily, being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him that hath so wrought this thing, in the name of our Lord Jesus, ye
4 being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, to deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord
6 ⁴Jesus. Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, even as ye are unleavened. For our passover also hath been sacrificed, even Christ:
8 wherefore let us ⁵keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

I wrote unto you in my epistle to have 9 no company with fornicators; ⁶not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world: but ⁷now I write 11 unto you not to keep company, if any man that is named a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no, not to eat. For what 12 have I to do with judging them that are without? Do not ye judge them that are within, whereas them that are without 13 God judgeth? Put away the wicked man from among yourselves.

6 DARE any of you, having a matter against ⁸his neighbour, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? Or know ye not that the saints 2 shall judge the world? and if the world is judged by you, are ye unworthy ⁹to judge the smallest matters? Know ye 3 not that we shall judge angels? how much more, things that pertain to this life? If then ye have ¹⁰to judge things 4 pertaining to this life, ¹¹do ye set them to judge who are of no account in the church? I say this to move you to shame. 5 Is it so, that there cannot be found among you one wise man, who shall be able to decide between his brethren, but brother 6 goeth to law with brother, and that before unbelievers? Nay, already it is 7 altogether ¹²a defect in you, that ye have lawsuits one with another. Why not rather take wrong? why not rather be defrauded? Nay, but ye yourselves do 8 wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren. Or know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with men, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor 10 drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. - 12 All things are lawful for me; but not all things are expedient. All things are lawful for me; but I will not be brought under the power of any. Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall bring to nought both it and them. But the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body: 14 and God both raised the Lord, and will 15 raise up us through his power. Know ye not that your bodies are members of Christ? shall I then take away the members of Christ, and make them members 16 of a harlot? God forbid. Or know ye not that he that is joined to a harlot is one body? for, The twain, saith he, shall 17 become one flesh. But he that is joined 18 unto the Lord is one spirit. Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his 19 own body. Or know ye not that your body is a ²temple of the ³Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have from 20 God? and ye are not your own; for ye were bought with a price: glorify God therefore in your body.

7 NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote: It is good for a man not to 2 touch a woman. But, because of fornications, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. Let the husband render unto the wife her due: and likewise also the wife 4 unto the husband. The wife hath not power over her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power over his own body, but 5 the wife. Defraud ye not one the other, except it be by consent for a season, that ye may give yourselves unto prayer, and may be together again, that Satan tempt you not because of your incontinency. 6 But this I say by way of permission, not 7 of commandment. ⁴Yet I would that all men were even as I myself. Howbeit each man hath his own gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that.

But I say to the unmarried and to 8 widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I. But if they have not continency, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. But unto the 10 married I give charge, yea not I, but the Lord, That the wife depart not from her husband (but and if she depart, let her 11 remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband); and that the husband leave not his wife. But to the rest say I, 12 not the Lord: If any brother hath an unbelieving wife, and she is content to dwell with him, let him not leave her. And the woman which hath an unbelieving husband, and he is content to dwell with her, let her not leave her husband. For the unbelieving husband is 14 sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the brother: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. Yet if the unbelieving depart- 15 eth, let him depart: the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called ⁵us in peace. For 16 how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy wife? Only, as the Lord hath 17 distributed to each man, as God hath called each, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all the churches. Was any 18 man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Hath any been called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised. Circumcision is 19 nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but the keeping of the commandments of God. Let each man abide in that calling wherein he was called. Wast thou 21 called being a bondservant? care not for it: ⁶but if thou canst become free, use it rather. For he that was called in the 22 Lord, being a bondservant, is the Lord's freedman: likewise he that was called, being free, is Christ's bondservant. Ye 23

man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: but I give my judgement, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I think therefore that this is good by reason of the present distress, namely,
that it is good for a man ¹to be as he is.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a 28 wife? seek not a wife. But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Yet such shall have tribulation in the flesh:

29 and I would spare you. But this I say, brethren, the time ²is shortened, that henceforth both those that have wives

30 may be as though they had none; and those that weep, as though they wept
not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those that buy,

31 as though they possessed not; and those that use the world, as not ³abusing it:
for the fashion of this world passeth

32 away. But I would have you to be free from cares. He that is unmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, how 33 he may please the Lord: but he that is married is careful for the things of the world, how he may please his ⁴wife.

34 And there is a difference also between the wife and the virgin. She that is unmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married is careful for the things of the world, how

35 she may please her husband. And this I say for your own profit; not that I may cast a ⁵snare upon you, but for that which is seemly, and that ye may attend

36 upon the Lord without distraction. But if any man thinketh that he behaveth himself unseemly toward his ⁶virgin daughter, if she be past the flower of her age, and if need so requireth, let him

do what he will; he sinneth not; let them marry. But he that standeth sted-fast in his heart, having no necessity,
but hath power as touching his own will,
and hath determined this in his own heart, to keep his own ⁶virgin daughter, shall do well. So then both he that 38 giveth his own ⁶virgin daughter in marriage doeth well; and he that giveth her not in marriage shall do better. A wife 39 is bound for so long time as her husband liveth; but if the husband be ⁷dead, she is free to be married to whom she will;
only in the Lord. But she is happier if 40 she abide as she is, after my judgement:
and I think that I also have the Spirit
of God.

8 NOW concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but love ⁸edifieth. If any man thinketh that 2 he knoweth anything, he knoweth not yet as he ought to know; but if any man
3 loveth God, the same is known of him.
Concerning therefore the eating of things
4 sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol
is anything in the world, and that there is no God but one. For though there be 5 that are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth; as there are gods many, and lords many; yet to us there is one God, 6 the Father, of whom are all things, and we unto him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we through him. Howbeit in all men 7 there is not that knowledge: but some,
being used until now to the idol, eat as
of a thing sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. But 8 meat will not commend us to God:
neither, if we eat not, ⁹are we the worse;
nor, if we eat, ¹⁰are we the better. But 9 take heed lest by any means this ¹¹liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to the weak. For if a man see thee which hast 10 knowledge sitting at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, ¹²be emboldened to eat things

11 sacrificed to idols? For ¹through thy knowledge he that is weak perisheth, the 12 brother for whose sake Christ died. And thus, sinning against the brethren, and wounding their conscience when it is 13 weak, ye sin against Christ. Wherefore, if meat maketh my brother to stumble, I will eat no flesh for evermore, that I make not my brother to stumble.

9 AM I not free? am I not an apostle? have I not seen Jesus our Lord? are
2 not ye my work in the Lord? If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are
3 ye in the Lord. My defence to them that
4 examine me is this. Have we no right to eat and to drink? Have we no right to lead about a wife that is a ²believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? Or I only and Barnabas, have we not a right to forbear working? What soldier ever serveth at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth
8 not of the milk of the flock? Do I speak these things after the manner of men?
9 or saith not the law also the same? For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. Is it for the oxen that 10 God careth, or ³saith he it altogether for our sake? Yea, for our sake it was written: because he that ploweth ought to plow in hope, and he that thresheth, to 11 thresh in hope of partaking. If we sowed unto you spiritual things, is it a great matter if we shall reap your carnal
12 things? If others partake of this right over you, do not we yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right; but we bear all things, that we may cause no
13 hindrance to the gospel of Christ. Know ye not that they which minister about sacred things eat of the things of the temple, and they which wait upon the altar have their portion with the altar?
14 Even so did the Lord ordain that they which proclaim the gospel should live of 15 the gospel. But I have used none of these things: and I write not these things that it may be so done in my case: for it were good for me rather to die, than that any man should make my glorying void. For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of; for necessity is laid upon me; for woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel. For if I do this 17 of mine own will, I have a reward: but if not of mine own will, I have a stewardship intrusted to me. What then is my 18 reward? That, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel without charge, so as not to use to the full my right in the gospel. For though I was free from 19 all men, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more. And 20 to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, not being myself under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; to them

21 that are without law, as without law, not being without law to God, but under law to Christ, that I might gain them that are without law. To the weak I 22 became weak, that I might gain the weak: I am become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some. And 23 I do all things for the gospel's sake, that I may be a joint partaker thereof. Know
24 ye not that they which run in a ⁴race run all, but one receiveth the prize? Even so run, that ye may attain. And every man
25 that striveth in the games is temperate in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. I therefore so run, as not un-
26 certainly; so ⁵fight I, as not beating the air: but I ⁶buffet my body, and bring it
27 into bondage: lest by any means, after that I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

10 FOR I would not, brethren, have you ignorant, how that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; and were all
2 baptized ⁷unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; and did all eat the same
3 spiritual meat; and did all drink the 4

same spiritual drink: for they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them: and the rock was Christ. Howbeit with most of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now ¹these things were our examples, to the intent we should not just after evil things, as they also lusted. Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. Neither let us tempt the ²Lord, as some of them tempted, and perished by the serpents. Neither murmur ye, as some of them murmured, and perished by the destroyer. Now these things happened unto them ³by way of example; and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages are come. Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. There hath no temptation taken you but such as man can bear: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation make also the way of escape, that ye may be able to endure it. Wherefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a ⁴communion of the blood of Christ? The ⁵bread which we break, is it not a ⁶communion of the body of Christ? ⁶seeing that we, who are many, are one ⁷bread, one body: for we all partake ⁷of the one ⁸bread. Behold Israel after the flesh: have not they which eat the sacrifices communion with the altar? What say I then? that a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to ⁸devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have communion with ⁸devils. Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of ⁸devils: ye cannot partake of the table of the Lord, and of the table of ⁸devils. Or ²²do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

All things are lawful; but all things ²³are not expedient. All things are lawful; but all things ²⁴edify not. Let no man ²⁴seek his own, but each his neighbour's good. Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, eat, asking no question for conscience sake; for the earth is the Lord's, ²⁶and the fulness thereof. If one of them ²⁷that believe not biddeth you to a feast, and ye are disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake. But if any man say ²⁸unto you, This hath been offered in sacrifice, eat not, for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: conscience, ²⁹I say, not thine own, but the other's; for why is my liberty judged by another conscience? ³⁰If I by grace partake, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks? Whether therefore ye eat, ³¹or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. Give no occasion of stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the church of God: even as I also ³³please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of the 11 many, that they may be saved. Be ¹ye imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.

Now I praise you that ye remember ²me in all things, and hold fast the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. But I would have you know, that the ³head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God. Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head. But ⁵every woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonoureth her head: for it is one and the same thing as if she were shaven. For if a woman is ⁶not veiled, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame to a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be veiled. For a man ⁷

indeed ought not to have his head veiled, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of the man. For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man: for neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man: for this cause ought the woman to ¹have a sign of authority on her head, because of the angels. Howbeit neither is the woman without the man, nor the man without the woman, in the Lord. For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman; but all things are of God. Judge ye ²in yourselves: is it seemly that a woman pray unto God unveiled? Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a dishonour to him? But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. But if any man seemeth to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

But in giving you this charge, I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better but for the worse. For first of all, when ye come together ³in the church, I hear that ⁴divisions exist among you; and I partly believe it. For there must be also ⁵heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you. When therefore ye assemble yourselves together, it is not possible to eat the Lord's supper: for in your eating each one taketh before other his own supper; and one is hungry, and another is drunken. What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the ⁶church of God, and put them to shame that ⁷have not? What shall I say to you? ⁸shall I praise you in this? I praise you not. For I received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, how that the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was betrayed took bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, This is my body, which ⁹is for you: this do in remembrance of me. In like manner also the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new ¹⁰covenant in my blood: this do, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death till he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. But let a man prove himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. For he that eateth and drinketh, eateth and drinketh judgement unto himself, if he ¹¹discern not the body. For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep. But if we ¹²discerned ourselves, we should not be judged. But ¹³when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world. Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, wait one for another. If any man is hungry, let him eat at home; that your coming together be not unto judgement. And the rest will I set in order whensoever I come.

12 NOW concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant. Ye know that when ye were ²Gentiles ye were led away unto those dumb idols, howsoever ye might be led. Wherefore I give you to understand, ³that no man speaking in the Spirit of God saith, Jesus is anathema; and no man can say, Jesus is Lord, but in the Holy Spirit.

Now there are diversities of gifts, but ⁴the same Spirit. And there are diversities of ministrations, and the same Lord. And there are diversities of workings, ⁶but the same God, who worketh all things in all. But to each one is given ⁷the manifestation of the Spirit to profit withal. For to one is given through the ⁸Spirit the word of wisdom; and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit: to another faith, ⁹in the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, in the one Spirit; and to ¹⁰10 another workings of ¹miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discernings of spirits: to another divers kinds of tongues; and to another the interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh the one and the same Spirit, dividing to each one severally even as he will.

- 12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also 13 is Christ. For in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were 14 all made to drink of one Spirit. For the 15 body is not one member, but many. If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; it is not 16 therefore not of the body. And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; it is not therefore 17 not of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the 18 smelling? But now hath God set the members each one of them in the body, 19 even as it pleased him. And if they were all one member, where were the body?
20 But now they are many members, but 21 one body. And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of thee: or again the head to the feet, I have no need of 22 you. Nay, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be more 23 feeble are necessary: and those parts of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we ²bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness;
24 whereas our comely parts have no need: but God tempered the body together, giving more abundant honour to that
25 part which lacked; that there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one 26 for another. And whether one member suffereth, all the members suffer with it; or one member is ³honoured, all the 27 members rejoice with it. Now ye are the body of Christ, and ⁴severally members thereof. And God hath set some ⁵28 in the church, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, then ⁶miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, ⁷governments, divers kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? are all prophets? are ⁸29 all teachers? are all workers of ⁹miracles? have all gifts of healings? do all speak ¹⁰30 with tongues? do all interpret? But ¹¹31 desire earnestly the greater gifts. And a still more excellent way shew I unto you.

13 IF I speak with the tongues of ¹²men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal. And if I have the gift ¹³2 of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. And if I bestow all ¹⁴3 my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body ¹⁵4 to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing. Love ¹⁶5 suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, ¹⁷6 seeketh not its own, is not provoked, taketh not account of evil; rejoiceth not ¹⁸7 in unrighteousness, but rejoiceth with the truth; ¹⁹8 beareth all things, believeth ²⁰9 all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Love never faileth: but ²¹8 whether there be prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away. For we ²²9 know in part, and we prophesy in part: but when that which is perfect is come, ²³10 that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spake as a child, ²⁴11 I felt as a child, I thought as a child: now that I am become a man, I have put away childish things. For now we see ²⁵12 in a mirror, ²⁶8 darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I ²⁷9 know even as also I have been ²⁸10 known. But now abideth faith, hope, love, these ²⁹13 three; ³⁰11 and the ³¹12 greatest of these is love.

14 FOLLOW after love; yet desire earnestly spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy. For he that speaketh in a tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God; for no man ¹understandeth; but in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men edification, and comfort, and consolation. He that speaketh in a tongue ²edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth ²edifieth the church. Now I would have you all speak with tongues, but rather that ye should prophesy: and greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying. But now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching? Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they give not a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? For if the trumpet give an uncertain voice, who shall prepare himself for war? So also ye, unless ye utter by the tongue speech easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye will be speaking into the air. There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and ³no kind is without signification. If then I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh will be a barbarian ⁴unto me. So also ye, since ye are zealous of ⁵spiritual gifts, seek that ye may abound unto the edifying of the church. Wherefore let him that speaketh in a tongue pray that he may interpret. For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. Else if thou bless with the spirit, how shall he that filleth the place of ⁶the unlearned say the Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest? For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not ⁷edified. I thank God, I speak with tongues more ⁸than you all: howbeit in the church I ⁹had rather speak five words with my understanding, than I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

Brethren, be not children in mind: ¹⁰howbeit in malice be ye babes, but in mind be ¹¹men. In the law it is written, ¹²By men of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers will I speak unto this people; and not even thus will they hear me, saith the Lord. Wherefore tongues ¹³are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to the unbelieving: but prophesying ¹⁴is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to them that believe. If therefore the whole church be assembled together, and all speak with tongues, and there come in men unlearned or unbelieving, will they not say that ye are mad? But ¹⁵if all prophesy, and there come in one unbelieving or unlearned, he is ¹⁶reproved by all, he is judged by all; the ¹⁷secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is ¹⁸among you indeed.

What is it then, brethren? When ye ¹⁹come together, each one hath a psalm, hath a teaching, hath a revelation, hath a tongue, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying. If any ²⁰man speaketh in a tongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, and that in turn; and let one interpret: but if there ²¹be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. And let the prophets ²²speak by two or three, and let the others ²³discern. But if a revelation be made to ²⁴another sitting by, let the first keep silence. For ye all can prophesy one by ²⁵one, that all may learn, and all may be ²⁶comforted; and the spirits of the ²⁷32 prophets are subject to the prophets; 33 for God is not a God of confusion, but

of peace; as in all the churches of the saints.

34 Let the women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but let them be in sub-35 jection, as also saith the law. And if they would learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home: for it is shameful for a woman to speak in the church.
36 What? was it from you that the word of God went forth? or came it unto you alone?

37 If any man thinketh himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him take knowledge of the things which I write unto you, that they are the commandment of 38 the Lord. ¹But if any man is ignorant,
let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, my brethren, desire earnestly to prophesy, and forbid not to 40 speak with tongues. But let all things be done decently and in order.

15 NOW I make known unto you, brethren, the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye re-2 ceived, wherein also ye stand, by which also ye are ²saved; I make known, I say, ³in what words I preached it unto you,
if ye hold it fast, except ye believed ⁴in 3 vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which also I received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the 4 scriptures; and that he was buried; and that he hath been raised on the third 5 day according to the scriptures; and that he appeared to Cephas; then to the 6 twelve; then he appeared to above five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain until now, but some 7 are fallen asleep; then he appeared to 8 James; then to all the apostles; and last
of all, as unto one born out of due time, 9 he appeared to me also. For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the 10 grace of God I am what I am; and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not found ⁵vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

Whether then it be I or they, so we 11
preach, and so ye believed.

Now if Christ is preached that he hath 12
been raised from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there is no resurrec- 13
tion of the dead, neither hath Christ
been raised: and if Christ hath not been 14
raised, then is our preaching ⁵vain, ⁶your faith also is ⁵vain. Yea, and we are 15 found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed of God that he raised up ⁷Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead are not raised. For if the 16 dead are not raised, neither hath Christ
been raised: and if Christ hath not been 17
raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. Then they also which are 18 fallen asleep in Christ have perished.
⁸If in this life only we have hoped in 19
Christ, we are of all men most pitiable.

But now hath Christ been raised from 20
the dead, the firstfruits of them that are asleep. For since by man came death, by 21 man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in 22 ⁷Christ shall all be made alive. But each 23
in his own order: Christ the firstfruits;
then they that are Christ's, at his ⁹com-
ing. Then cometh the end, when he 24
shall deliver up the kingdom to ¹⁰God, even the Father; when he shall have abolished all rule and all authority and power. For he must reign, till he hath 25 put all his enemies under his feet. The 26 last enemy that shall be abolished is death. For, He put all things in subjec- 27
tion under his feet. ¹¹But when he saith,
All things are put in subjection, it is evident that he is excepted who did subject all things unto him. And when all 28

things have been subjected unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subjected to him that did subject all things unto him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them? why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour? I protest by ¹that glorying in you, brethren, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner of men I fought with beasts at Ephesus, ²what doth it profit me? If the dead are not raised, let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die. 33 Be not deceived: Evil company doth corrupt good manners. ³Awake up righteously, and sin not; for some have no knowledge of God: I speak this to move you to shame.

35 But some one will say, How are the dead raised? and with what manner of body do they come? Thou foolish one, that which thou thyself sowest is not quickened, except it die: and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but a bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other kind; 38 but God giveth it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own. All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, and another of fishes. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: 43 it is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: it is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. So also it is written, The first man Adam became a living soul. The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. Howbeit that is not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; then that which is spiritual. The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is of heaven. As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, ⁴we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. But when ⁵this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up ⁶in victory. O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting? The sting of death is sin; and the power of sin is the law: but thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not ⁷vain in the Lord.

16 NOW concerning the collection for the saints, as I gave order to the churches of Galatia, so also do ye. Upon the first day of the week let each one of you lay by him in store, as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come. And when I arrive, ³whomsoever ye shall approve by letters, them will I send to carry your bounty unto Jerusalem: and if it be

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

- 1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus
 through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in the whole of Achaia:
 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies
 4 and God of all comfort; who comforteth us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort them that are in any affliction, through the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.
 5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound unto us, even so our comfort also a-boundeth through Christ. But whether 6

 we be afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; or whether we be comforted,
 it is for your comfort, which worketh in
 the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: and our hope 7
 for you is stedfast; knowing that, as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so also are ye of the comfort. For we would not 8 have you ignorant, brethren, concerning our affliction which befell us in Asia,
 that we were weighed down exceedingly,
 beyond our power, insomuch that we despaired even of life: ⁵yea, we ourselves 9

1 Or, God's will that he should come now
 4 Gr. the brother.

2 Gr. presence.
 5 Or, but we ourselves

3 That is, Our Lord cometh.

have had the ¹answer of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the 10 dead: who delivered us out of so great a death, and will deliver: on whom we have ²set our hope that he will also still
 11 deliver us; ye also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift bestowed upon us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf.

12 For our glorying is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or even acknowledge, and I hope 14 ye will acknowledge unto the end: as also ye did acknowledge us in part, that we are your glorying, even as ye also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come before unto you, that ye might 16 have a second ³benefit; and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come unto you, and of you to be set forward on my journey unto 17 Judæa. When I therefore was thus minded, did I shew fickleness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the yea yea and the nay nay?
 18 But as God is faithful, our word toward 19 you is not yea and nay. For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you ⁴by us, even ⁴by me and Silvanus and Timothy, was not yea and 20 nay, but in him is yea. For how many soever be the promises of God, in him is the yea: wherefore also through him is the Amen, unto the glory of God 21 through us. Now he that stablisheth us with you ⁵in Christ, and anointed us, is 22 God; ⁶who also sealed us, and gave us the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 But I call God for a witness upon my soul, that to spare you I forbore to come unto Corinth. Not that we have lordship over your faith, but are helpers of 2 your joy: for by ⁷faith ye stand. ⁸But I determined this for myself, that I would not come again to you with sorrow. For if I make you sorry, who then

 2 is he that maketh me glad, but he that is made sorry by me? And I wrote this
 3 very thing, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. For out
 4 of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be made sorry, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

But if any hath caused sorrow, he hath
 5 caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I press not too heavily) to you all. Sufficient to such a one is this punishment which was inflicted by ⁹the many; so that contrariwise ye should ¹⁰rather
 7 forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his overmuch sorrow. Where-
 8 fore I beseech you to confirm your love toward him. For to this end also did I
 9 write, that I might know the proof of you, ¹¹whether ye are obedient in all things. But to whom ye forgive any-
 10 thing, I forgive also: for what I also have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, for your sakes have I forgiven it in the ¹²person of Christ; that no advantage may be 11 gained over us by Satan: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

Now when I came to Troas for the 12 gospel of Christ, and when a door was opened unto me in the Lord, I had no
 13 relief for my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went forth into Macedonia. But thanks be unto God, which always 14 leadeth us in triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest through us the savour of his knowledge in every place. For we 15 are a sweet savour of Christ unto God, in them that are being saved, and in 16 them that are perishing; to the one a savour from death unto death; to the other a savour from life unto life. And 17 who is sufficient for these things? For we are not as the many, ¹corrupting the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

3 ARE we beginning again to commend ourselves? or need we, as do some, epistles of commendation to you or from you? Ye are our epistle, written in our hearts, known and read of all men;
 3 being made manifest that ye are an epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in tables that are hearts of flesh.
 4 And such confidence have we through
 5 Christ to God-ward: not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; who also made us sufficient as ministers of a new ²covenant; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth
 7 life. But if the ministration of death, ³written, and engraven on stones, came ⁴with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look stedfastly upon the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which 8 glory ⁵was passing away: how shall not rather the ministration of the spirit be 9 with glory? ⁶For if the ministration of condemnation is glory, much rather doth the ministration of righteousness exceed 10 in glory. For verily that which hath been made glorious hath not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of 11 the glory that surpasseth. For if that which ⁷passeth away was ⁸with glory, much more that which remaineth is in glory.

12 Having therefore such a hope, we use
 13 great boldness of speech, and are not as

Moses, who put a veil upon his face, that the children of Israel should not look stedfastly ⁹on the end of that which ⁵was passing away: but their ¹⁰minds were ¹⁴hardened: for until this very day at the reading of the old ²covenant the same veil ¹¹remaineth unlifted; which veil is done away in Christ. But unto this day, ¹⁵whenever Moses is read, a veil lieth upon their heart. But whenever ¹²it ¹⁶shall turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away. Now the Lord is the Spirit: and ¹⁷where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. But we all, with unveiled face ¹⁸¹³reflecting as a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from ¹⁴the Lord the Spirit.

4 THEREFORE seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we faint not: but we have renounced the ²hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. But and if our gospel is veiled, it is ³veiled in them that are perishing: in ⁴whom the god of this ¹⁵world hath blinded the ¹⁰minds of the unbelieving, ¹⁶that the ¹⁷light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not dawn upon them. For we preach not our-
 5 selves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your ¹⁸servants ¹⁹for Jesus' sake. Seeing it is God, that said, Light ⁶shall shine out of darkness, who shined in our hearts, to give the ¹⁷light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

But we have this treasure in earthen ⁷vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves; we are pressed on every side, ⁸yet not straitened; perplexed, yet not unto despair; pursued, yet not ²⁰for-
 9 saken; smitten down, yet not destroyed;

10 always bearing about in the body the
 1 dying of Jesus, that the life also of Jesus 11 may be manifested in our body. For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal 12 flesh. So then death worketh in us, but 13 life in you. But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, I believed, and therefore did I speak; we also believe, and therefore 14 also we speak; knowing that he which raised up ²the Lord Jesus shall raise up
 us also with Jesus, and shall present us 15 with you. For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through ³the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound unto the glory
 of God.
 16 Wherefore we faint not; but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day.
 17 For our light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; 18 while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

5 FOR we know that if the earthly house of our ⁴tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in 2 the heavens. For verily in this we groan, longing to be clothed upon with our 3 habitation which is from heaven: if so be that being clothed we shall not be 4 found naked. For indeed we that are in this ⁴tabernacle do groan, ⁵being burdened; not for that we would be un-clothed, but that we would be clothed upon, that what is mortal may be swal-5 lowed up of life. Now he that wrought us for this very thing is God, who gave 6 unto us the earnest of the Spirit. Being therefore always of good courage, and knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord

(for we walk by faith, not by ⁶sight); 7
 we are of good courage, I say, and are 8 willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord.
 Wherefore also we ⁷make it our aim, 9
 whether at home or absent, to be well-pleasing unto him. For we must all be 10 made manifest before the judgement-seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things done ⁸in the body, according to what he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

Knowing therefore the fear of the 11
 Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest unto God; and I hope that we are made manifest also in your consciences. We are not again com- 12 mending ourselves unto you, but speak
 as giving you occasion of glorying on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith
 to answer them that glory in appearance, and not in heart. For whether we ⁹are 13 beside ourselves, it is unto God; or whether we are of sober mind, it is unto
 you. For the love of Christ constraineth 14 us; because we thus judge, that one died
 for all, therefore all died; and he died 15
 for all, that they which live should no longer live unto themselves, but unto him who for their sakes died and rose again. Wherefore we henceforth know 16 no man after the flesh: even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet
 now we know him so no more. Where- 17 fore if any man is in Christ, ¹⁰*he is* a new creature: the old things are passed away;
 behold, they are become new. But all 18 things are of God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and gave unto us the ministry of reconciliation; to wit, 19
 that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself, not reckoning unto them their trespasses, and having 11 committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

We are ambassadors therefore on be- 20 half of Christ, as though God were in-treating by us: we beseech you on behalf of Christ, be ye reconciled to God. Him 21

At an acceptable time I hearkened unto thee,

And in a day of salvation did I succour thee:

behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation): giving 3 no occasion of stumbling in anything,
4 that our ministration be not blamed; but in everything commending ourselves, as ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,
5 in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings; in pureness, in knowledge, in longsuffering, in kindness, in the ¹Holy Ghost, in love
7 unfeigned, in the word of truth, in the power of God; ²by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the 8 left, by glory and dishonour, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and 9 yet true; as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live;
10 as chastened, and not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 Our mouth is open unto you, O Corinthians, our heart is enlarged. Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in 13 your own affections. Now for a recompense in like kind (I speak as unto my children), be ye also enlarged.

14 Be not unequally yoked with unbelievers: for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? or what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with ³Belial? or what portion hath a believer with 16 an unbeliever? And what agreement hath a ⁴temple of God with idols? for we are a ⁵temple of the living God; even as God said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore

Come ye out from among them, and be ye separate,
saith the Lord,

And touch no unclean thing;
And I will receive you,
And will be to you a Father,
And ye shall be to me sons and daughters,

7 saith the Lord Almighty. Having ¹therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

⁵Open your hearts to us: we wronged ²no man, we corrupted no man, we took advantage of no man. I say it not to ³condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die together and live together. Great is my boldness ⁴of speech toward you, great is my glorying on your behalf: I am filled with comfort, I overflow with joy in all our affliction.

For even when we were come into ⁵Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side; without ⁶were fightings, within ⁷were fears. Nevertheless he that comforteth the lowly, even God, comforted us by the ⁶coming of Titus; and not by his ⁶coming only, ⁷but also by the comfort wherewith he was comforted in you, while he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced yet more. For ⁸though I made you sorry with my epistle, I do not regret it, though I did regret; ⁷for I see that that epistle made you sorry, though but for a season. Now I ⁹rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye were made sorry unto repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly sort, that ye might suffer loss by us in nothing. For godly sorrow worketh ¹⁰repentance ⁸unto salvation, a ⁹repentance which bringeth no regret: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. For behold, this selfsame thing, that ye ¹¹

were made sorry after a godly sort, what earnest care it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what longing, yea, what zeal, yea, what avenging! In everything ye approved yourselves
 12 to be pure in the matter. So although I wrote unto you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be made manifest unto you in the sight of God.
 13 Therefore we have been comforted: and in our comfort we joyed the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit hath been refreshed by you all.
 14 For if in anything I have gloried to him on your behalf, I was not put to shame; but as we spake all things to you in truth, so our glorying also, which I made before 15 Titus, was found to be truth. And his inward affection is more abundantly toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and 16 trembling ye received him. I rejoice that in everything I am of good courage concerning you.

8 MOREOVER, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God which hath been given in the churches of Macedonia; how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches
 3 of their ¹liberality. For according to their power, I bear witness, yea and beyond their power, they gave of their own
 4 accord, beseeching us with much intreaty in regard of this grace and the fellowship in the ministering to the
 5 saints: and this, not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own selves to the
 6 Lord, and to us by the will of God. Inasmuch that we exhorted Titus, that as he had made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this grace
 7 also. But as ye abound in everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in ²your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace
 8 also. I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. For ye know the grace of our Lord 9 Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich. And herein I give my judgement: 10 for this is expedient for you, who were the first to make a beginning a year ago, not only to do, but also to will. But now 11 complete the doing also; that as there was the readiness to will, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according as a man hath, not according as he hath not. For I say not 13 this, that others may be cased, and ye distressed: but by equality; your abundance being a supply at this present time for their want, that their abundance also may become a supply for your want; that there may be equality: as it is written, 15 He that gathered much had nothing over; and he that gathered little had no lack.

But thanks be to God, which putteth 16 the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. For indeed he accepted 17 our exhortation; but being himself very earnest, he went forth unto you of his own accord. And we have sent together 18 with him the brother whose praise in the gospel is spread through all the churches; and not only so, but who was also appointed by the churches to travel with us in the matter of this grace, which is ministered by us to the glory of the Lord, and to shew our readiness: avoiding this, that any man should blame us in the matter of this bounty which is ministered by us: for we take thought 21 for things honourable, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. And we have sent with them 22 our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he hath in you. Whether any inquire about Titus, he is 23 my partner and my fellow-worker to youward; or our brethren, they are the ³messengers of the churches, they are the 24 glory of Christ. ¹Shew ye therefore unto them in the face of the churches the proof of your love, and of our glorying on your behalf.

9 FOR as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to

2 write to you: for I know your readiness, of which I glory on your behalf to them of Macedonia, that Achaia hath been prepared for a year past; and ²your zeal hath stirred up ³very many of them.

3 But I have sent the brethren, that our glorying on your behalf may not be made void in this respect; that, even as

4 I said, ye may be prepared: lest by any means, if there come with me any of Macedonia, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be put to

5 shame in this confidence. I thought it necessary therefore to intreat the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your aforepromised ⁴bounty, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not of ⁵extortion.

6 But this I say, He that soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he that soweth ⁶bountifully shall reap also

7 ⁶bountifully. Let each man do according as he hath purposed in his heart; not ⁷grudgingly, or of necessity: for God

8 loveth a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound unto you; that ye, having always all sufficiency in everything, may abound unto every good

9 work: as it is written,

He hath scattered abroad, he hath given to the poor;

His righteousness abideth for ever.

10 And he that supplieth seed to the sower and bread for food, shall supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness:

11 ye being enriched in everything unto all ⁸liberality, which worketh through us

12 thanksgiving to God. For the ministration of this service not only filleth up the measure of the wants of the saints, but aboundeth also through many thanksgivings unto God; seeing that through 13 the proving of you by this ministration they glorify God for the obedience of your confession unto the gospel of Christ, and for the ⁸liberality of your contribution unto them and unto all; while they themselves also, with sup- 14 plication on your behalf, long after you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you. Thanks be to God for his un- 15 speakable gift.

10 NOW I Paul myself intreat you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am of good courage toward you: yea, I be- 2 sech you, that I may not when present shew courage with the confidence where- with I count to be bold against some, which count of us as if we walked accord- 3 ing to the flesh. For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh (for the weapons of our warfare 4 are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the casting down of strong holds); casting down ⁹imaginations, and every 5 high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ; and being in readiness to 6 avenge all disobedience, when your obedience shall be fulfilled. ¹⁰Ye look at 7 the things that are before your face. If any man trusteth in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ's, so also are we. For though I should glory 8 somewhat abundantly concerning our authority (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down), I shall not be put to shame: that 9 I may not seem as if I would terrify you by my letters. For, His letters, they say, 10 are weighty and strong; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech of no account. Let such a one reckon this, 11 that, what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. For we are 12

But we will not glory beyond our measure, but according to the measure of the ²province which God apportioned to us as a measure, to reach even unto you.
- 14 For we stretch not ourselves overmuch, as though we reached not unto you: for we ³came even as far as unto you in the gospel of Christ: not glorying beyond our measure, that is, in other men's labours; but having hope that, as your faith groweth, we shall be magnified in you according to our ²province unto
- 16 further abundance, so as to preach the gospel even unto the parts beyond you, and not to glory in another's ²province in regard of things ready to our hand.
- 17 But he that glorieth, let him glory in the
- 18 Lord. For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

- 11 WOULD that ye could bear with me in a little foolishness: ⁴nay indeed bear with me. For I am jealous over you with ⁵a godly jealousy: for I espoused you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to
- 3 Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve in his craftiness, your ⁶minds should be corrupted from the simplicity and the purity that
- 4 is toward Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if ye receive a different spirit, which ye did not receive, or a different gospel, which ye did not accept,
- 5 ye do well to bear with him. For I reckon that I am not a whit behind ⁷the very chiefest apostles. But though I be rude in speech, yet am I not in knowledge; nay, in everything we have made it manifest among all men to you-ward.
- 7 Or did I commit a sin in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I preached to you the gospel of God for nought? I robbed other churches, taking ⁸wages of them that I might minister unto you; and when I was present with you ⁹and was in want, I was not a burden on any man; for the brethren, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my want; and in everything I kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. As ¹⁰the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this glorying in the regions of Achaia. Wherefore? because I love you ¹¹not? God knoweth. But what I do, that ¹²I will do, that I may cut off ⁸occasion from them which desire an occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we. For such men are ¹³false apostles, deceitful workers, fashioning themselves into apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for even Satan fashion- ¹⁴eth himself into an angel of light. It is ¹⁵no great thing therefore if his ministers also fashion themselves as ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

I say again, Let no man think me ¹⁶foolish; but if ye do, yet as foolish receive me, that I also may glory a little. That ¹⁷which I speak, I speak not after the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of glorying. Seeing that many ¹⁸glory after the flesh, I will glory also. For ye bear with the foolish gladly, being wise yourselves. For ye bear with a ²⁰man, if he bringeth you into bondage, if he devoureth you, if he taketh you captive, if he exalteth himself, if he smiteth you on the face. I speak by way ²¹of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet whereinsoever any is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are ²²they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. Are they ²³ministers of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I more; in labours more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths oft.

 those things that are without, there is that which presseth upon me daily, 29 anxiety for all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is made 30 to stumble, and I burn not? If I must words, which it is not lawful for a man

 5 to utter. On behalf of such a one will I of me above that which he seeth me to 7 be, or heareth from me. And by reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations—wherefore, that I should not be exalted overmuch, there was given to me a ⁵thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, that I should not be exalted overmuch. Concerning this ⁸ thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. And he hath ⁹ said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may ⁶rest upon me.

 Wherefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, ¹⁰
 in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions,
 in distresses, for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

I am become foolish: ye compelled ¹¹
 me; for I ought to have been commended
 of you: for in nothing was I behind ⁷the very chiefest apostles, though I am nothing. Truly the signs of an apostle ¹² were wrought among you in all patience,
 by signs and wonders and ⁸mighty
 works. For what is there wherein ye ¹³ were made inferior to the rest of the churches, except it be that I myself was not a burden to you? forgive me this wrong.

Behold, this is the third time I am ¹⁴ ready to come to you; and I will not be a burden to you: for I seek not yours,
 but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. And I will most gladly ¹⁵ spend and be ⁹spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? But be it so, I did not myself ¹⁶ burden you; but, being crafty, I caught you with guile. Did I take advantage of ¹⁷ you by any one of them whom I have sent unto you? I exhorted Titus, and I ¹⁸ sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? walked we not by the same Spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

¹⁰Ye think all this time that we are ¹⁹

 sight of God speak we in Christ. But all

- 20 For I fear, lest by any means, when I come, I should find you not such as I would, and should myself be found of you such as ye would not; lest by any means there should be strife, jealousy, wraths, factions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, ¹tumults; lest, when I come again, my God should humble me before you, and I should mourn for many of them that have sinned heretofore, and repented not of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they committed.

- 13 THIS is the third time I am coming to you. At the mouth of two witnesses or three shall every word
2 be established. I have said ²beforehand, and I do say ²beforehand, ³as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, to them that have sinned heretofore, and to all the rest, that, if I
3 come again, I will not spare; seeing that ye seek a proof of Christ that speaketh in me; who to you-ward is not weak,
4 but is powerful in you: for he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth through the power of God. For we also are weak ⁴in him, but we shall live with him through the power of God toward you. Try your own selves, whether ye ⁵be in the faith; prove your own selves. Or know ye not as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you? unless indeed ye be reprobate. But I hope that ⁶ye shall know that we are not reprobate. Now we pray to God that ye do no evil; ⁷not that we may appear approved, but that ye may do that which is honourable, ⁸though we be as reprobate. For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. For we rejoice, when we are weak, ⁹and ye are strong: this we also pray for, even your perfecting. For this cause I ¹⁰write these things while absent, that I may not when present deal sharply, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for casting down.

Finally, brethren, ¹¹farewell. Be perfected; be comforted; be of the same mind; live in peace: and the God of love and peace shall be with you. Salute ¹²one another with a holy kiss.

All the saints salute you.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS

1 PAUL, an apostle (not from men, neither through ¹man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who 2 raised him from the dead), and all the brethren which are with me, unto the
3 churches of Galatia: Grace to you and peace ²from God the Father, and our 4 Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil ³world, according to 5 the will of our God and Father: to whom be the glory ⁴for ever and ever. Amen.
6 I marvel that ye are so quickly removing from him that called you in the grace
7 of Christ unto a different gospel; which is not another gospel: only there are some that trouble you, and would pervert the 8 gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach ⁵unto you any gospel ⁶other than that which we preached unto you, let him be anathema.
9 As we have said before, so say I now again. If any man preacheth unto you any gospel other than that which ye received, let him be anathema. For am I now persuading men, or God? or am I seeking to please men? if I were still pleasing men, I should not be a ⁷servant of Christ.
11 For I make known to you, brethren, as touching the gospel which was preached
12 by me, that it is not after man. For neither did I receive it from ¹man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through 13 revelation of Jesus Christ. For ye have heard of my manner of life in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, 14 and made havock of it: and I advanced in the Jews' religion beyond many of mine own age ⁸among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the 15 traditions of my fathers. But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me, even from my mother's womb, and called me through his grace, to reveal his Son in me, that I might 16 preach him among the Gentiles; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: neither went I up to Jerusalem

17 to them which were apostles before me: but I went away into Arabia; and again I returned unto Damascus.

Then after three years I went up to 18 Jerusalem to ⁹visit Cephas, and tarried with him fifteen days. But other of the 19 apostles saw I none, ¹⁰save James the Lord's brother. Now touching the things 20 which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not. Then I came into the 21 regions of Syria and Cilicia. And I was 22 still unknown by face unto the churches of Judæa which were in Christ: but they 23 only heard say, He that once persecuted us now preacheth the faith of which he once made havock; and they glorified 24 God in me.

2 THEN ¹¹after the space of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. And I went up by revelation; and 2 I laid before them the gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately before them who ¹²were of repute, lest by any means I should be running, or had run, in vain. But not even Titus who 3 was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: ¹³and that because of the false brethren privily brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: to whom we gave place in the way of 5 subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with

6 you. But from those who ¹were reputed to be somewhat (²whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth not man's person)—they, I say, who were of repute imparted nothing to me: 7 but contrariwise, when they saw that I had been intrusted with the gospel of the uncircumcision, even as Peter with the 8 gospel of the circumcision (for he that wrought for Peter unto the apostleship of the circumcision wrought for me also 9 unto the Gentiles); and when they perceived the grace that was given unto me, James and Cephas and John, they who ¹were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the circumcision; 10 only they would that we should remember the poor; which very thing I was also zealous to do.

11 But when Cephas came to Antioch, I resisted him to the face, because he stood 12 condemned. For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing them 13 that were of the circumcision. And the rest of the Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that even Barnabas was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Cephas before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest as do the Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, how compellest thou the Gentiles to live as 15 do the Jews? We being Jews by nature, 16 and not sinners of the Gentiles, yet knowing that a man is not justified by ³the works of the law, ⁴save through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: because by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. But if, 17 while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a minister of sin? God forbid.

For if I build up again those things 18 which I destroyed, I prove myself a transgressor. For I through ⁵the law 19 died unto ⁵the law, that I might live unto God. I have been crucified with 20 Christ; ⁶yet I live; and yet no longer I, but Christ liveth in me: and that life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me. I do not make void the 21 grace of God: for if righteousness is through ⁵the law, then Christ died for nought.

3 O FOOLISH Galatians, who did bewitch you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly set forth crucified? This only would I learn from you, 2 Received ye the Spirit by ³the works of the law, or by the ⁷hearing of faith? Are 3 ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, ⁸are ye now perfected in the flesh? Did 4 ye suffer so many things in vain? if it be indeed in vain. He therefore that sup- 5 plieth to you the Spirit, and worketh ⁹miracles ¹⁰among you, doeth he it by ³the works of the law, or by the ⁷hearing of faith? Even as Abraham believed God, 6 and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. ¹¹Know therefore that they 7 which be of faith, the same are sons of Abraham. And the scripture, foreseeing 8 that God ¹²would justify the ¹³Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all the nations be blessed. So then they 9 which be of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. For as many as are 10 of ³the works of the law are under a curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one which continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them. Now that no man is justi- 11 fied ¹⁴by the law in the sight of God, is evident: for, The righteous shall live by faith; and the law is not of faith; but, 12 He that doeth them shall live in them. Christ redeemed us from the curse of 13 the law, having become a curse for us:

for it is written, Cursed is every one 14 that hangeth on a tree: that upon the Gentiles might come the blessing of Abraham in Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit
through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men: Though it be but a man's 'covenant, yet when it hath been confirmed,
no one maketh it void, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham were the promises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not,
And to seeds, as of many; but as of one,

17 And to thy seed, which is Christ. Now this I say; A 'covenant confirmed beforehand by God, the law, which came four hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as to make the promise

18 of none effect. For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise: but God hath granted it to Abraham by 19 promise. What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was ordained through angels by the hand of a media-20 tor. Now a mediator is not a mediator of 21 one; but God is one. Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law.

22 Howbeit the scripture hath shut up all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before ²faith came, we were kept in ward under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be re-24 vealed. So that the law hath been our tutor to bring us unto Christ, that we

25 might be justified by faith. But now that faith is come, we are no longer un-26 der a tutor. For ye are all sons of God,

27 through faith, in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ

28 did put on Christ. There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female: for ye all are one man in Christ

Jesus. And if ye are Christ's, then are 29 ye Abraham's seed, heirs according to promise.

4 BUT I say that so long as the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a bondservant, though he is lord of all;
but is under guardians and stewards 2
until the term appointed of the father.
So we also, when we were children, were 3
held in bondage under the ³rudiments
of the world: but when the fulness of 4
the time came, God sent forth his Son,
born of a woman, born under the law,
that he might redeem them which were 5
under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are 6 sons, God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba, Father. So that thou art no longer a 7
bondservant, but a son; and if a son,
then an heir through God.

Howbeit at that time, not knowing 8
God, ye were in bondage to them which by nature are no gods: but now that ye 9 have come to know God, or rather to be known of God, how turn ye back again
to the weak and beggarly ³rudiments, whereunto ye desire to be in bondage
over again? Ye observe days, and months, 10 and seasons, and years. I am afraid of 11
you, lest by any means I have bestowed
labour upon you in vain.

I beseech you, brethren, be as I am, 12
for I am as ye are. Ye did me no wrong:
but ye know that because of an infirmity 13
of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you the ⁴first time: and that which was 14
a temptation to you in my flesh ye despised not, nor ⁵rejected; but ye received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. Where then is that gratulation ⁶of 15 yourselves? for I bear you witness, that,
if possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. So 16
then am I become your enemy, because I ⁷tell you the truth? They zealously 17 seek you in no good way; nay, they desire to shut you out, that ye may seek them. But it is good to be zealously 18 sought in a good matter at all times, and 19 My little children, of whom I am again

 in travail until Christ be formed in you, 20 yea, I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I am perplexed about you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the 22 law, do ye not hear the law? For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, one
 by the handmaid, and one by the free-23 woman. Howbeit the son by the hand-maid is born after the flesh; but the son
 by the freewoman is born through pro-24 mise. Which things contain an allegory:
 for these women are two covenants; one from mount Sinai, bearing children unto 25 bondage, which is Hagar. ¹Now this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to the Jerusalem that now is:
 for she is in bondage with her children.
 26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free,
 27 which is our mother. For it is written,

Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not;
 Break forth and cry, thou that travail-est not:

For more are the children of the desolate than of her which hath the husband.

28 Now ²we, brethren, as Isaac was, are 29 children of promise. But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him
 that was born after the Spirit, even so it 30 is now. Howbeit what saith the scripture? Cast out the handmaid and her son: for the son of the handmaid shall not inherit with the son of the free-31 woman. Wherefore, brethren, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the free-5 woman. ³With freedom did Christ set us free: stand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in a yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that, if ye receive circumcision, Christ will pro-3 fit you nothing. Yea, I testify again to every man that receiveth circumcision,
 that he is a debtor to do the whole law.
 4 Ye are ⁴severed from Christ, ye who would be justified by the law; ye are fallen away from grace. For we through 5

 the Spirit by faith wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus 6 neither circumcision availeth anything,
 nor uncircumcision; but faith ⁵working through love. Ye were running well; 7 who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth? This persuasion came 8 not of him that calleth you. A little 9 leaven leaveneth the whole lump. I 10 have confidence to you-ward in the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgement, whosoever he be.
 But I, brethren, if I still preach circum- 11
 cision, why am I still persecuted? then hath the stumblingblock of the cross
 been done away. I would that they 12 which unsettle you would even ⁶cut themselves off.

For ye, brethren, were called for free- 13
 dom; only use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, but through love be servants one to another. For the 14 whole law is fulfilled in one word, even
 in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour
 as thyself. But if ye bite and devour one 15 another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

But I say, Walk by the Spirit, and ye 16
 shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For 17
 the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; that ye may not do the things that ye would.
 But if ye are led by the Spirit, ye are not 18
 under the law. Now the works of the 19 flesh are manifest, which are these, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idol- 20 atry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousies,
 wraths, factions, divisions, ⁷heresies, en- 21
 vyings, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I ⁸forewarn you, even as I did ⁹forewarn you, that they which practise such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the 22 Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering,
 kindness, goodness, faithfulness, meek- 23
 ness, ⁹temperance: against such there is

25 If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit
26 let us also walk. Let us not be vain-glorious, provoking one another, envying one another.

6 BRETHREN, even if a man be overtaken in any trespass, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of meekness; looking to thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. For if a man thinketh himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. But let each man prove his own work, and then shall he have his glorying in regard of himself alone, and not of ¹his neighbour. For each man shall bear his own ²burden.

6 But let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in 7 all good things. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man
8 soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth unto his own flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth unto the Spirit shall of the Spirit
9 reap eternal life. And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. So then, as we have opportunity, let us work that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are of the household of the faith.

See with how large letters I ³have written unto you with mine own hand. As many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only that they may not be persecuted ⁴for the cross of Christ. For not even they who ⁵receive circumcision do themselves keep ⁶the law; but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. But far be it from me to glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through ⁷which the world hath been crucified unto me, and I unto the world. For neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new ⁸creature. And as many as shall walk by this rule, peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear branded on my body the marks of Jesus.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brethren. Amen.

5 having foreordained us unto adoption as sons through Jesus Christ unto himself, according to the good pleasure of his
6 will, to the praise of the glory of his grace, ³which he freely bestowed on us
7 in the Beloved: in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to 8 the riches of his grace, ⁴which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and
9 prudence, having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in him
10 unto a dispensation of the fulness of the ⁵times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things ⁶in the heavens, and the 11 things upon the earth; in him, I say, in whom also we were made a heritage, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who worketh all
12 things after the counsel of his will; to the end that we should be unto the praise of his glory, we who ⁷had before hoped 13 in Christ: in whom ye also, having heard the word of the truth, the gospel of your salvation,—in whom, having also believed, ye were sealed with the 14 Holy Spirit of promise, which is an earnest of our inheritance, unto the redemption of God's own possession, unto the praise of his glory.

For this cause I also, having heard of 15 the faith in the Lord Jesus which is ⁸among you, and ⁹which ye shew toward all the saints, cease not to give thanks 16 for you, making mention of you in my prayers; that the God of our Lord Jesus 17 Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him; having the 18 eyes of your heart enlightened, that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, and what the 19 exceeding greatness of his power to usward who believe, according to that working of the strength of his might which he wrought in Christ, when he 20 raised him from the dead, and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule, and 21 authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this ¹⁰world, but also in that which is to come: and he put all things in sub- 22 jection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fulness of him 23 that filleth all in all.

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God afore prepared that we should walk in them.
11 Wherefore remember, that aforetime ye, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called Circumcision, in the flesh, made
12 by hands; that ye were at that time separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the 13 world. But now in Christ Jesus ye that once were far off are made nigh in the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who made both one, and brake down the 14 middle wall of partition, having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; that he might create in himself of the twain one new man, so making peace;

18 nigh: for through him we both have our access in one Spirit unto the Father. So then ye are no more strangers and sojourners, but ye are fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God,
20 being built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief corner stone; in whom ³each several building, fitly framed together, groweth into a holy ⁴temple in the Lord; in whom ye also are builded ²²together ⁵for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

3 FOR this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus in behalf of you Gentiles,—if so be that ye have heard ²of the ⁶dispensation of that grace of God which was given me to you-ward; how ³that by revelation was made known unto me the mystery, as I wrote afore in few words, whereby, when ye read, ye can ⁴perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ; which in other generations was not made known unto the sons of men, as it hath now been revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit; to wit, that the Gentiles are ⁶fellow-heirs, and fellow-members of the body, and fellow-partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel, whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me according to the working of his power. Unto me, who am less ⁸than the least of all saints, was this grace given, to preach unto the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; and ⁹to ⁷make all men see what is the ⁶dispensation of the mystery which from all ages hath been hid in God who created all things; to the intent that now unto ¹⁰the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places might be made known through the church the manifold wisdom of God, according to the ⁸eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord: in whom we have boldness ¹²and access in confidence through ⁹our faith in him. Wherefore I ask that ¹⁰ye ¹³faint not at my tribulations for you, which ¹¹are your glory.

For this cause I bow my knees unto ¹⁴the Father, from whom every ¹²family in ¹⁵heaven and on earth is named, that he ¹⁶would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man; that Christ may dwell in ¹⁷

your hearts through faith; to the end that ye, being rooted and grounded in 18 love, may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and 19 length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled unto all the fulness of God.

20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that
21 worketh in us, unto him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus unto ¹all generations for ever and ever. Amen.

4 I THEREFORE, the prisoner in the Lord, beseech you to walk worthily of the calling wherewith ye were called, with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in
3 love; giving diligence to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as also ye were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism,
6 one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all. But unto each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of 8 Christ. Wherefore he saith,

When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive,

And gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now this, He ascended, what is it but that he also descended ²into the lower 10 parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.)
11 And he gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists;
12 and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministering, unto the building up of 13 the body of Christ: till we all attain unto the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a full-grown man, unto the measure of the 14 stature of the fulness of Christ: that we may be no longer children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error; but ³speaking truth in love, may grow up in all things into him, which is the head, even Christ; from whom all the body fitly 16 framed and knit together ⁴throughout that which every joint supplieth, according to the working in due measure of each several part, maketh the increase of the body unto the building up of itself in love.

This I say therefore, and testify in ¹⁷ the Lord, that ye no longer walk as the Gentiles also walk, in the vanity of their mind, being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their heart; who being past feeling gave themselves ¹⁹ up to lasciviousness, ⁵to work all uncleanness with ⁶greediness. But ye did ²⁰ not so learn Christ; if so be that ye heard ²¹ him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus: that ye put away, as ²² concerning your former manner of life, the old man, which waxeth corrupt after the lusts of deceit; and that ye be ²³ renewed in the spirit of your mind, and ²⁴ put on the new man, ⁷which after God hath been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

Wherefore, putting away falsehood, ²⁵ speak ye truth each one with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your ²⁶ wrath: neither give place to the devil. Let him ²⁷ that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing that is good, that he may have whereof to give to him that hath need. Let no corrupt speech proceed out of ²⁹ your mouth, but such as is good for ⁸edifying as the need may be, that it may give grace to them that hear. And grieve ³⁰ not the Holy Spirit of God, in whom ye were sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, ³¹

and clamour, and railing, be put away 32 from you, with all malice: and be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave ¹you.

5 BE ye therefore imitators of God, as beloved children; and walk in love,
even as Christ also loved you, and gave himself up for ²us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for an odour of a sweet 3 smell. But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as becometh saints;
4 nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, or jesting, which are not befitting: but 5 rather giving of thanks. For this ye know of a surety, that no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, which is an idolater, hath any inheritance in 6 the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no man deceive you with empty words: for because of these things cometh the wrath
of God upon the sons of disobedience.
7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them;
8 for ye were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord: walk as children of 9 light (for the fruit of the light is in all goodness and righteousness and truth), 10 proving what is well-pleasing unto the 11 Lord; and have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather 12 even ³reprove them; for the things which are done by them in secret it is a shame 13 even to speak of. But all things when they are ⁴reproved are made manifest by the light: for everything that is made 14 manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise
upon thee.

15 Look therefore carefully how ye walk,
16 not as unwise, but as wise; ⁵redeeming
the time, because the days are evil.
17 Wherefore be ye not foolish, but under-18 stand what the will of the Lord is. And be not drunken with wine, wherein is 19 riot, but be filled ⁶with the Spirit; speaking ⁷one to another in psalms and hymns
and spiritual songs, singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord;

giving thanks always for all things in ⁸20
the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to ⁸God, even the Father; subjecting your- ²¹ selves one to another in the fear of Christ.

Wives, be in subjection unto your own ²²
husbands, as unto the Lord. For the ²³ husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the church,
being himself the saviour of the body.
But as the church is subject to Christ, ²⁴
⁹so let the wives also be to their husbands in everything. Husbands, love ²⁵ your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself up for it; that ²⁶
he might sanctify it, having cleansed it
by the ¹⁰washing of water with the word,
that he might present the church to ²⁷
himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Even so ought husbands also ²⁸ to love their own wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his own wife loveth himself: for no man ever hated ²⁹
his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as Christ also the church; because we are members of his ³⁰ body. For this cause shall a man leave ³¹
his father and mother, and shall cleave
to his wife; and the twain shall become one flesh. This mystery is great: but I ³² speak in regard of Christ and of the church. Nevertheless do ye also sever- ³³ ally love each one his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she fear
her husband.

6 CHILDREN, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour ² thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise), that it ³
may be well with thee, and thou ¹¹mayest live long on the ¹²earth. And, ye fathers, ⁴ provoke not your children to wrath: but nurture them in the chastening and admonition of the Lord.

 9 whether he be bond or free. And, ye ³masters, do the same things unto them,
 and forbear threatening: knowing that both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no respect of persons
 with him.

10 ⁴Finally, ⁵be strong in the Lord, and 11 in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the 12 devil. For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the 13 heavenly places. Wherefore take up the whole armour of God, that ye may be

 and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having shod your ¹⁵

 feet with the preparation of the gospel

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS

1 PAUL and Timothy, ¹servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with
2 the ²bishops and deacons: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 I thank my God upon all my remem-
4 brance of you, always in every suppli-
5 cation of mine on behalf of you all making my supplication with joy, for 6 your fellowship in furtherance of the gospel from the first day until now; being
7 confident of this very thing, that he which began a good work in you will perfect it
8 until the day of Jesus Christ: even as it is right for me to be thus minded on be-
9 half of you all, because ³I have you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in my bonds
10 and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers with me
11 of grace. For God is my witness, how I long after you all in the tender mercies 12 of Christ Jesus. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and 13 more in knowledge and all discernment;
14 so that ye may ⁴approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and 15 void of offence unto the day of Christ;
16 being filled with the ⁵fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ,
17 unto the glory and praise of God.
18 Now I would have you know, brethren, that the things which happened unto 19 me have fallen out rather unto the pro-
20 gress of the gospel; so that my bonds
21 became manifest in Christ ⁶throughout the whole prætorian guard, and to all the 22 rest; and that most of the brethren in the Lord, ⁷being confident through my 23 bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word of God without fear.

Some indeed preach Christ even of envy 15
 and strife; and some also of good will:
 the one do it of love, knowing that I am 16
 set for the defence of the gospel: but the 17
 other proclaim Christ of faction, not sincerely, thinking to raise up affliction
 for me in my bonds. What then? only 18
 that in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and therein I rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.
 For I know that this shall turn to my 19
 salvation, through your supplication and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,
 according to my earnest expectation and 20
 hope, that in nothing shall I be put to shame, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death. For to me to live is Christ, and 21
 to die is gain. ⁸But if to live in the flesh, 22
 —if this is the fruit of my work, then ⁹what I shall choose ¹⁰I wot not. But I 23 am in a strait betwixt the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ; for it is very far better: yet to abide in the 24
 flesh is more needful for your sake. And 25
 having this confidence, I know that I shall abide, yea, and abide with you all,
 for your progress and joy ¹¹in the faith;
 that your glorying may abound in Christ 26
 Jesus in me through my presence with you again. Only ¹²let your manner of 27
 life be worthy of the gospel of Christ:
 that, whether I come and see you or be absent, I may hear of your state, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one soul
 striving ¹³for the faith of the gospel; and 28
 in nothing affrighted by the adversaries:
 which is for them an evident token of perdition, but of your salvation, and that from God; because to you it hath been 29

granted in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer in his behalf: having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 IF there is therefore any comfort in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender mercies and compassions, fulfil ye my joy, that ye be of the same mind, having the same love, being of one accord, ¹of one mind; doing nothing through faction or through vainglory, but in lowliness of mind each counting other better than himself; not looking each of you to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others. Have this mind in you, ⁶which was also in Christ Jesus: who, ²being in the form of God, counted it not ³a prize to be on an equality with God, but emptied himself, taking the form of a ⁴servant, ⁵being made in the likeness of men; and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, becoming obedient even unto death, yea, the death of the cross. Wherefore also God highly exalted him, and gave unto him the name which is above every name; that in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven and things on earth and things under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 So then, my beloved, even as ye have always obeyed, not ⁷as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God which worketh in you both to will and to work, for his good pleasure. Do all things without murmurings and disputings; that ye may be blameless and harmless, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom ye are seen as ⁸lights in the world, holding forth the word of life; that I may have whereof to glory in the day of Christ, that I did not run in vain neither labour in vain. Yea, and if I am ¹⁷⁹offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all: and in the same manner do ye also ¹⁸joy, and rejoice with me.

But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send ¹⁹Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state. For I have no man like-minded, who will care ²⁰truly for your state. For they all seek their own, not ²¹the things of Jesus Christ. But ye know ²²the proof of him, that, as a child serveth a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the gospel. Him therefore I hope ²³to send forthwith, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me: but I trust in ²⁴the Lord that I myself also shall come shortly. But I counted it necessary to ²⁵send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow-worker and fellow-soldier, and your ²⁶messenger and minister to my need; since he longed ²⁷after you all, and ²⁸was sore troubled, because ye had heard that he was sick: for indeed he was sick ²⁹nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. I have sent him therefore ³⁰more diligently, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. Receive him ³¹therefore in the Lord with all joy; and hold such in honour: because for ³²the work of ³³Christ he came nigh unto death, hazarding his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

3 FINALLY, my brethren, ¹⁴rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not irksome, but for you it is safe. Beware of the dogs, ²beware of the evil workers, beware of the concision: for we are the circum- ³cision, who worship by the Spirit of God, and glory in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh: though I my- ⁴ self might have confidence even in the flesh: if any other man ¹thinketh to have 5 confidence in the flesh, I yet more: circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as touching the 6 law, a Pharisee; as touching zeal, persecuting the church; as touching the righteousness which is in the law, found

 7 blameless. Howbeit what things were ²gain to me, these have I counted loss
 8 for Christ. Yea verily, and I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I suffered the loss of all things,
 9 and do count them but ³dung, that I may gain Christ, and be found in him, ⁴not having a righteousness of mine own,
 10 even that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is of God ⁵by faith:
 11 that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed unto 12 his death; if by any means I may attain unto the resurrection from the dead.
 13 Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect: but I press on, if so be that I may ⁶apprehend that for which also I was apprehended by Christ
 14 Jesus. Brethren, I count not myself ⁷yet to have apprehended: but one thing I do, forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the 15 things which are before, I press on toward the goal unto the prize of the ⁸high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in anything ye are otherwise minded, even this shall God reveal 16 unto you: only, whereunto we have already attained, by that same rule let us walk.
 17 Brethren, be ye imitators together of me, and mark them which so walk even 18 as ye have us for an ensample. For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose ⁹end is perdition, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things. For our ¹⁰citizenship is in heaven; from whence also we wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall fashion anew the body of our ¹¹humiliation, that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working whereby he is able even to subject all things unto himself.

4 WHEREFORE, my brethren beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my beloved.

I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yea, I beseech thee also, true ³yokefellow, help these women, for they laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

¹⁰Rejoice in the Lord alway: again I ⁴will say, ¹⁰Rejoice. Let your ¹¹forbearance be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. In nothing be anxious; but ⁶in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace ⁷of God, which passeth all understanding, shall guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things ⁸are true, whatsoever things are ¹²honourable, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are ¹³of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, ¹⁴think on these things. The things which ye both ⁹learned and received and heard and saw in me, these things do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS

1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy ²our brother, ³to the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colossæ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.
 3 We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always
 4 for you, having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye
 5 have toward all the saints, because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, whereof ye heard before in the

 8 who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

For this cause we also, since the day 9 we heard it, do not cease to pray and make request for you, that ye may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, to walk worthily of the Lord ⁵unto all dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created through him, 17 and unto him; and he is before all things, 18 and in him all things ¹consist. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; ²that in all things he might have 19 the preeminence. ³For it was the good pleasure of the Father that in him should 20 all the fulness dwell; and through him to reconcile all things ⁴unto ⁵himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross; through him, I say, whether things upon the earth, or things in the 21 heavens. And you, being in time past alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil works, yet now ⁶hath he reconciled in the body or his flesh through death, to present you holy and without blemish and unproveable before him: 22 if so be that ye continue in the faith, grounded and stedfast, and not moved away from the hope of the gospel which ye heard, which was preached in all creation under heaven; whereof I Paul was made a minister.

24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the 25 church; whereof I was made a minister, according to the ⁷dispensation of God which was given me to you-ward, to fulfil the word of God, even the mystery which hath been hid ⁸from all ages and generations: but now hath it been manifested to his saints, to whom God was pleased to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in 28 you, the hope of glory: whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ; 29 whereunto I labour also, striving according to his working, which worketh in me ⁹mightily.

2 FOR I would have you know how greatly I strive for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; that their 2 hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the ¹⁰full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God, ¹¹*even* Christ, in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden. This I say, that no one may delude you 4 with persuasiveness of speech. For 5 though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

As therefore ye received Christ Jesus 6 the Lord, so walk in him, rooted and 7 builded up in him, and stablished ¹²in your faith, even as ye were taught, abounding ¹³in thanksgiving.

¹⁴Take heed lest there shall be any one 8 that maketh spoil of you through his philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the ¹⁵rudiments of the world, and not after Christ: for in 9 him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily, and in him ye are made full, 10 who is the head of all principality and power: in whom ye were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ; having been buried with him in baptism, 12 wherein ye were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. And 13 you, being dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, you, I say, did he quicken together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses; having blotted out ¹⁶the bond 14 written in ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us: and he hath taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; ¹⁷having put off from himself the principalities and the powers, he

- 16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a feast day or a new moon or a sabbath day: 17 which are a shadow of the things to 18 come; but the body is Christ's. Let no man rob you of your prize ¹by a voluntary humility and worshipping of the angels, ²dwelling in the things which he hath ³seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly 19 mind, and not holding fast the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and bands, increaseth with the increase of God.

- 20 If ye died with Christ from the ⁴rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, do ye subject yourselves 21 to ordinances, Handle not, nor taste, nor 22 touch (all which things are to perish with the using), after the precepts and doctrines 23 trines of men? Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in will-worship, and humility, and severity to the body; but are not of any ⁵value against the indulgence of the flesh.

3 IF then ye were raised together with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated on the right hand 2 of God. Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are 3 upon the earth. For ye died, and your 4 life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is ⁶our life, shall be manifested, then shall ye also with him be manifested in glory.

- 5 ⁷Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and 6 covetousness, the which is idolatry; for which things' sake cometh the wrath of 7 God ⁸upon the sons of disobedience; ⁹in the which ye also walked aforetime, 8 when ye lived in these things. But now put ye also away all these; anger, wrath, malice, railing, shameful speaking out of your mouth: lie not one to another; 9 seeing that ye have put off the old man with his doings, and have put on the 10 new man, which is being renewed unto knowledge after the image of him that created him: where there cannot be 11 Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, bondman, freeman: but Christ is all, and in all.

Put on therefore, as God's elect, holy 12 and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving each other, if any man have a complaint against any; even as ¹⁰the Lord forgave you, so also do ye: and above 14 all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the 15 peace of Christ ¹¹rule in your hearts, to the which also ye were called in one body; and be ye thankful. Let 16 the word of ¹²Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing ¹³one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts unto God. And whatsoever 17 ye do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them. Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing in the Lord. Fathers, provoke 21 not your children, that they be not discouraged. ¹⁴Servants, obey in all things 22 them that are your ¹⁵masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing the Lord: whatsoever ye do, work 23 ¹⁶heartily, as unto the Lord, and not unto men; knowing that from the Lord ye 24 shall receive the recompense of the inheritance: ye serve the Lord Christ. THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

1 PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; 3 remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labour of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before 4 our God and Father; knowing, brethren 5 beloved of God, your election, ¹how that our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the ²Holy Ghost, and in much ³assurance; even as ye know what manner of men we shewed 6 ourselves toward you for your sake. And ye became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the ²Holy Ghost; 7 so that ye became an ensample to all that 8 believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you hath sounded forth the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we need 9 not to speak anything. For they themselves report concerning us what manner of entering in we had unto you; and how ye turned unto God from idols, 10 to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivereth us from the wrath to come.

2 FOR yourselves, brethren, know our entering in unto you, that it hath not 2 been found vain: but having suffered before, and been shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we waxed bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel 3 of God in much conflict. For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile: but even as we have 4 been approved of God to be intrusted with the gospel, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God which proveth our hearts. For neither at any time were 5 we found using words of flattery, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness, God is witness; nor seeking glory of men, 6 neither from you, nor from others, when we might have ⁴been burdensome, as apostles of Christ. But we were ⁵gentle 7 in the midst of you, as when a nurse cherisheth her own children: even so, 8 being affectionately desirous of you, we were well pleased to impart unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were become very dear to us. For ye remember, brethren, 9 our labour and travail: working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. Ye are witnesses, and God also, 10 how holily and righteously and unblameably we behaved ourselves toward you that believe: as ye know how we dealt 11 with each one of you, as a father with his own children, exhorting you, and encouraging you, and testifying, to the end 12 that ye should walk worthily of God, who ⁶calleth you into his own kingdom and glory.

And for this cause we also thank God 13 without ceasing, that, when ye received from us ⁷the word of the message, even the word of God, ye accepted it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also worketh in you that believe. For ye, brethren, 14 came imitators of the churches of God which are in Judæa in Christ Jesus: for ye also suffered the same things of your own countrymen, even as they did of the 15 Jews; who both killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drave out us, and please not God, and are contrary to all

 16 men; forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved; to fill up their sins alway: but the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being bereaved of you for ¹a short season, in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more exceedingly to see your face with great desire:
 18 because we would fain have come unto you, I Paul once and again; and Satan
 19 hindered us. For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of glorying? Are not even ye, before our Lord Jesus at his ²coming?
 20 For ye are our glory and our joy.

3 WHEREFORE when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good
 2 to be left behind at Athens alone; and sent Timothy, our brother and ³God's minister in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning
 3 your faith; that no man be moved by these afflictions; for yourselves know
 4 that hereunto we are appointed. For verily, when we were with you, we told you ⁴beforehand that we are to suffer affliction; even as it came to pass, and
 5 ye know. For this cause I also, when I could no longer forbear, sent that I might know your faith, lest by any means the tempter had tempted you,
 6 and our labour should be in vain. But when Timothy came even now unto us from you, and brought us glad tidings of your faith and love, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, longing
 7 to see us, even as we also to see you; for this cause, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction
 8 through your faith: for now we live, if 9 ye stand fast in the Lord. For what thanksgiving can we render again unto God for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our

God; night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way unto you: and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you; to the end he may 13 stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before our God and Father, at the ²coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.⁵

4 FINALLY then, brethren, we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that, as ye received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, even as ye do walk,—that ye abound more and more. For ye know what ⁶charge ²we gave you through the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, even your ³sanctification, that ye abstain from fornication; that each one of you know how
 4 to possess himself of his own vessel in sanctification and honour, not in the ⁵passion of lust, even as the Gentiles which know not God; that no man ⁶transgress, and wrong his brother in the matter: because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we ⁸forewarned you and testified. For God ⁷called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification. Therefore he that rejecteth, rejecteth not man, but God, who giveth his Holy Spirit unto you.

But concerning love of the brethren ye have no need that one write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another; for indeed ye do it
 10 toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren, that ye abound more and more; and that ye ⁹study to be quiet, and to do ¹¹your own business, and to work with your hands, even as we charged you; that ye may walk honestly toward them 12 that are without, and may have need of nothing.

- 13 But we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning them that fall asleep; that ye sorrow not, even as the rest, which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also that are fallen asleep
- 14 'in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we that are alive, that are left unto the ²coming of the Lord, shall in no wise precede them that are fallen asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven, with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ
- 15 shall rise first: then we that are alive, that are left, shall together with them be caught up in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore ³comfort one another with these words.

- 5 BUT concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need
- 2 that aught be written unto you. For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the
- 3 night. When they are saying, Peace and safety, then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall in no wise escape.
- 4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you ⁴as a thief: for ye are all sons of light, and sons of the day: we are not of the night,
- 6 nor of darkness; so then let us not sleep, as do the rest, but let us watch and be
- 7 sober. For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are
- 8 drunken in the night. But let us, since we are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. For 9 God appointed us not unto wrath, but unto the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, that, whether we ⁵wake or sleep, we should live together with him. Where- 11 fore ⁶exhort one another, and build each other up, even as also ye do.

But we beseech you, brethren, to 12 know them that labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; and to esteem them exceeding 13 highly in love for their work's sake. Be at peace among yourselves. And we 14 exhort you, brethren, admonish the disorderly, encourage the fainthearted, support the weak, be longsuffering toward all. See that none render unto any one 15 evil for evil; but always follow after that which is good, one toward another, and toward all. Rejoice alway; pray without 16 ceasing; in everything give thanks: for 18 this is the will of God in Christ Jesus to you-ward. Quench not the Spirit; de- 19 spise not prophesyings; ⁷prove all things; 21 hold fast that which is good; abstain 22 from every ⁸form of evil.

And the God of peace himself sanctify 23 you wholly; and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame at the ²coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is he that calleth 24 you, who will also do it.

Brethren, pray for us⁹. 25 Salute all the brethren with a holy 26 kiss. I adjure you by the Lord that this 27 epistle be read unto all the ¹⁰brethren.

1 PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord
2 Jesus Christ; Grace to you and peace
from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to give thanks to God
alway for you, brethren, even as it is meet, for that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the love of each one of you 4 all toward one another aboundeth; so that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and in the 5 afflictions which ye endure; which is a manifest token of the righteous judgement of God; to the end that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, 6 for which ye also suffer: if so be that it is a righteous thing with God to recompense affliction to them that afflict you, 7 and to you that are afflicted rest with us,
at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from 8 heaven with the angels of his power in flaming fire, rendering vengeance to them that know not God, and to them that obey not the gospel of our Lord 9 Jesus: who shall suffer punishment,
even eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his 10 might, when he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be marvelled at in all them that believed (because our testimony unto you was believed) 11 in that day. To which end we also pray always for you, that our God may count
you worthy of your calling, and fulfil every 'desire of goodness and every 12 work of faith, with power; that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 NOW we beseech you, brethren,
²touching the ³coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our gathering together unto him; to the end that ye be not 2
quickly shaken from your mind, nor yet
be troubled, either by spirit, or by word,
or by epistle as from us, as that the day of the Lord is now present; let no man 3
beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the falling away come first,
and the man of ⁴sin be revealed, the son of perdition, he that opposeth and ex- 4
alteth himself against all that is called God or ⁵that is worshipped; so that he sitteth in the ⁶temple of God, setting himself forth as God. Remember ye 5
not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? And now ye know 6
that which restraineth, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season.
For the mystery of lawlessness doth 7
already work: ⁷only there is one that restraineth now, until he be taken out of 8
the way. And then shall be revealed the lawless one, whom the Lord ⁸Jesus shall ⁹slay with the breath of his mouth, and bring to nought by the manifestation of his ³coming; even he, whose ³coming is 9
according to the working of Satan with all ¹⁰power and signs and lying wonders,
and with all deceit of unrighteousness for them that are perishing; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause 11
God sendeth them a working of error,
that they should believe a lie: that they 12
all might be judged who believed not
the truth, but had pleasure in unright-

So then, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye were taught, whether by word, or by epistle of ours.
- 16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father which loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and stablish them in every good work and word.

- 3 FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, even as also it is with you; and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for all have not ³faith. But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and guard you from ⁴the evil one. And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command. And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.
- 6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which ⁵they received of us. For yourselves know how ye ought to imitate us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; neither did we eat bread for nought at any man's hand, but in labour and travail, working night and day, that we might not burden any of you: not because we have not the right, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you, that ye should imitate us. For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, If any will not work, neither let him eat. For we hear of some ¹¹that walk among you disorderly, that work not at all, but are busybodies. Now ¹²them that are such we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. But ye, brethren, be not weary ¹³in well-doing. And if any man obeyeth ¹⁴not our word by this epistle, note that man, that ye have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed. And yet count him not as an enemy, but ¹⁵admonish him as a brother.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God our Saviour, and Christ Jesus our hope; unto Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 As I exhorted thee to tarry at Ephesus, when I was going into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge certain men not

4 to teach a different doctrine, neither to give heed to fables and endless genealogies, the which minister questionings, rather than a ¹dispensation of God which is in faith; so do I now. But the end of the charge is love out of a pure heart and a good conscience and faith unfeigned:

6 from which things some having ²swerved have turned aside unto vain talking;

7 desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor whereof they confidently affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good, if

9 a man use it lawfully, as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and unruly, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for ³murderers of fathers and ⁴murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 for fornicators, for abusers of themselves with men, for men-stealers, for liars, for false swearers, and if there be any other thing contrary to the ⁴sound ⁵doctrine;

11 according to the gospel of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 I thank him that ⁶enabled me, even Christ Jesus our Lord, for that he counted me faithful, appointing me to 13 his service; though I was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: howbeit I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief; and the ¹⁴grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. Faithful is the saying, and worthy ¹⁵of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief: howbeit for this cause I ¹⁶obtained mercy, that in me as chief might Jesus Christ shew forth all his longsuffering, for an ensample of them which should hereafter believe on him unto eternal life. Now unto the King ¹⁷⁷eternal, incorruptible, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory ⁸for ever and ever. Amen.

This charge I commit unto thee, my ¹⁸child Timothy, according to the prophecies which ⁹went before on thee, that by them thou mayest war the good warfare; holding faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust from them made shipwreck concerning the faith: of whom is Hymenæus and Alexander; whom I delivered unto Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

2 I EXHORT therefore, first of all, ¹⁰that supplications, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; for kings and all that are in high ²place; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and gravity. This is good and acceptable in the sight ³of God our Saviour; who willeth that ⁴all men should be saved, and come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is ⁵one God, one mediator also between God and men, himself man, Christ Jesus, who gave himself a ransom for all; the ⁶testimony to be borne in its own times; whereunto I was appointed a ¹¹preacher ⁷and an apostle (I speak the truth, I lie not), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

8 I desire therefore that the men pray in every place, lifting up holy hands, 9 without wrath and ¹disputing. In like manner, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with braided hair, and 10 gold or pearls or costly raiment; but (which becometh women professing 11 godliness) through good works. Let a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. But I permit not a woman to teach, nor to have dominion over a man, but 12 to be in quietness. For Adam was first 13 formed, then Eve; and Adam was not beguiled, but the woman being beguiled 14 hath fallen into transgression: but she shall be saved through ²the childbearing, if they continue in faith and love and sanctification with sobriety.

3 ³FAITHFUL is the saying, If a man seeketh the office of a ⁴bishop, 2 he desireth a good work. The ⁴bishop therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, sober-minded, orderly, given to hospitality, 3 apt to teach; ⁵no brawler, no striker; but gentle, not contentious, no lover of 4 money; one that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) 6 not a novice, lest being puffed up he fall into the ⁶condemnation of the devil. 7 Moreover he must have good testimony from them that are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil. 8 Deacons in like manner must be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much 9 wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. And let these also first be proved; then let them serve as deacons, 10 if they be blameless. Women in like manner must be grave, not slanderers, 11 temperate, faithful in all things. Let deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. For they that have served well as 13 deacons gain to themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly; but if I 15 tarry long, that thou mayest know ⁷how men ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ⁸ground of the truth. And without controversy great 16 is the mystery of godliness; ⁹He who was manifested in the flesh, justified in the spirit, seen of angels, preached among the nations, believed on in the world, received up in glory.

4 BUT the Spirit saith expressly, that in later times some shall fall away from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of ¹⁰devils, through 2 the hypocrisy of men that speak lies, ¹¹branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God created to be received with thanksgiving by them that believe and know the truth. For every creature of God is 4 good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it be received with thanksgiving: for it is 5 sanctified through the word of God and prayer.

If thou put the brethren in mind of 6 these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which thou hast followed until now: but refuse profane and old wives' 7 fables. And exercise thyself unto godliness: for bodily exercise is profitable 8 ¹²for a little; but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life which now is, and of that which is to come. Faithful is the saying, and worthy 9 of all acceptance. For to this end we 10 labour and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the

Saviour of all men, specially of them
 11 that believe. These things command and 12 teach. Let no man despise thy youth;
 but be thou an ensample to them that believe, in word, in manner of life, in 13 love, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give heed to reading, to exhortation, to 14 teaching. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy,
 with the laying on of the hands of the 15 presbytery. Be diligent in these things;
 give thyself wholly to them; that thy 16 progress may be manifest unto all. Take heed to thyself, and to thy teaching.
 Continue in these things; for in doing this thou shalt save both thyself and them that hear thee.

5 REBUKE not an elder, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as 2 brethren: the elder women as mothers;
 the younger as sisters, in all purity.
 3 Honour widows that are widows indeed. But if any widow hath children or grandchildren, let them learn first to shew piety towards their own family,
 and to requite their parents: for this is 5 acceptable in the sight of God. Now
 she that is a widow indeed, and desolate,
 hath her hope set on God, and contin-
 ueth in supplications and prayers
 6 night and day. But she that giveth herself to pleasure is dead while she liveth.
 7 These things also command, that they 8 may be without reproach. But if any provideth not for his own, and specially his own household, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever.
 9 Let none be enrolled as a widow under threescore years old, having been the 10 wife of one man, well reported of for good works; if she hath brought up children, if she hath used hospitality to strangers, if she hath washed the saints'
 feet, if she hath relieved the afflicted, if she hath diligently followed every good 11 work. But younger widows refuse: for when they have waxed wanton against 12 Christ, they desire to marry; having condemnation, because they have re-13 jected their first faith. And withal they learn also to be idle, going about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. I de- 14

 sire therefore that the younger widows
 marry, bear children, rule the household, give none occasion to the adversary
 for reviling: for already some are turned 15
 aside after Satan. If any woman that 16
 believeth hath widows, let her relieve them, and let not the church be burdened; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

Let the elders that rule well be 17
 counted worthy of double honour, especially those who labour in the word and in teaching. For the scripture saith, 18 Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his hire. Against 19 an elder receive not an accusation, except
 at the mouth of two or three witnesses.
 Them that sin reprove in the sight of 20
 all, that the rest also may be in fear. I 21 charge thee in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without ²pre-judice, doing nothing by partiality. Lay 22 hands hastily on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself
 pure. Be no longer a drinker of water, 23
 but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. Some 24
 men's sins are evident, going before unto judgement; and some men also they follow after. In like manner also 25 ³there are good works that are evident;
 and such as are otherwise cannot be hid.

6 LET as many as are ⁴servants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and the doctrine be not blasphemed.
 And they that have believing masters, 2
 let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but let them serve them
 the rather, because they that ⁵partake of the benefit are believing and beloved.
 These things teach and exhort.

trine, and consenteth not to ¹sound words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is 4 according to godliness; he is puffed up, knowing nothing, but ²doting about questionings and disputes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings,
 5 evil surmisings, wranglings of men corrupted in mind and bereft of the truth, supposing that godliness is a way of gain.
 6 But godliness with contentment is great
 7 gain: for we brought nothing into the world, for neither can we carry anything
 8 out; but having food and covering ³we
 9 shall be therewith content. But they that desire to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and hurtful lusts, such as drown men in 10 destruction and perdition. For the love of money is a root of all ⁴kinds of evil: which some reaching after have been led astray from the faith, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.
 11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.
 12 Fight the good fight of the faith, lay hold on the life eternal, whereunto thou wast called, and didst confess the good confession in the sight of many 13 witnesses. I charge thee in the sight of God, who ⁵quickeneth all things, and of Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed the good confession; that thou ⁶keep the commandment, without spot, without reproach, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: which in ⁷its ⁸own times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of ⁹kings, and Lord of ¹⁰lords; who only ¹¹hath immortality, dwelling in light unapproachable; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power eternal. Amen.

Charge them that are rich in this present ¹²world, that they be not high-minded, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; that ¹³they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, ¹⁴willing to communicate; laying up in ¹⁵store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on the life which is life indeed.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus
¹by the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in Christ
 2 Jesus, to Timothy, my beloved child:
 Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
 3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers in a pure conscience, how unceasing is my remembrance of thee in 4 my supplications, night and day longing to see thee, remembering thy tears, that 5 I may be filled with ⁷joy; having been reminded of the unfeigned faith that is in thee; which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; 6 and, I am persuaded, in thee also. For the which cause I put thee in remembrance that thou ³stir up the gift of God,
 which is in thee through the laying on 7 of my hands. For God gave us not a spirit of fearfulness; but of power and 8 love and ⁴discipline. Be not ashamed therefore of the testimony of our Lord,
 nor of me his prisoner: but suffer hardship with the gospel according to the 9 power of God; who saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us 10 in Christ Jesus before times eternal, but hath now been manifested by the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life
 and incorruption to light through the 11 gospel, whereunto I was appointed a ⁵preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher.
 12 For the which cause I suffer also these things: yet I am not ashamed; for I know him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard
⁶that which I have committed unto him
 13 against that day. Hold the pattern of ⁷sound words which thou hast heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. ⁸That good thing 14

 which was committed unto thee guard through the ⁹Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

This thou knowest, that all that are in 15
 Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. The Lord 16
 grant mercy unto the house of Onesiph-orus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain; but, when 17
 he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and found me (the Lord grant 18 unto him to find mercy of the Lord in that day); and in how many things he ministered at Ephesus, thou knowest
 very well.

2 THOU therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. And the things which thou 2 hast heard from me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others
 also. ¹⁰Suffer hardship with me, as a 3
 good soldier of Christ Jesus. No soldier 4 on service entangleth himself in the affairs of this life; that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. And if 5 also a man contend in the games, he is not crowned, except he have contended lawfully. The husbandman that labour- 6 eth must be the first to partake of the fruits. Consider what I say; for the Lord 7 shall give thee understanding in all things. Remember Jesus Christ, risen 8
 from the dead, of the seed of David,
 according to my gospel: wherein I suffer 9
 hardship unto bonds, as a malefactor;
 but the word of God is not bound.
 Therefore I endure all things for the 10
 elect's sake, that they also may obtain

 12 also live with him: if we endure, we shall also reign with him: if we shall 13 deny him, he also will deny us: if we are faithless, he abideth faithful; for he cannot deny himself.
 14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them in the sight of ²the
 Lord, that they strive not about words,
 to no profit, to the subverting of them 15 that hear. Give diligence to present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, ³handling 16 aright the word of truth. But shun profane babblings: for they will proceed 17 further in ungodliness, and their word will ⁴eat as doth a gangrene: of whom is 18 Hymenæus and Philetus; men who concerning the truth have ⁵erred, saying that ⁶the resurrection is past already, 19 and overthrow the faith of some. Howbeit the firm foundation of God standeth, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his: and, Let every one that nameth the name of the Lord de-20 part from unrighteousness. Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some unto honour, and 21 some unto dishonour. If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, meet for the master's use, prepared unto every 22 good work. But flee youthful lusts, and follow after righteousness, faith, love,
 peace, with them that call on the Lord 23 out of a pure heart. But foolish and ignorant questionings refuse, knowing 24 that they gender strifes. And the Lord's ⁷servant must not strive, but be gentle towards all, apt to teach, forbearing, 25 in meekness ⁸correcting them that oppose themselves; if peradventure God may give them repentance unto the 26 knowledge of the truth, and they may

⁹recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, having been ¹⁰taken captive ¹¹by the Lord's servant unto the will of God.

3 BUT know this, that in the last days grievous times shall come. For men ²shall be lovers of self, lovers of money,
 boastful, haughty, railers, disobedient
 to parents, unthankful, unholy, without ³
 natural affection, implacable, slanderers,
 without self-control, fierce, no lovers of good, traitors, headstrong, puffed up, ⁴ lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; holding a form of godliness, but ⁵ having denied the power thereof: from these also turn away. For of these are ⁶ they that creep into houses, and take captive silly women laden with sins, led away by divers lusts, ever learning, and ⁷ never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. And like as Jannes and Jam- ⁸ bres withstood Moses, so do these also withstand the truth; men corrupted in mind, reprobate concerning the faith.
 But they shall proceed no further: for ⁹
 their folly shall be evident unto all men,
 as theirs also came to be. But thou didst ¹⁰
 follow my teaching, conduct, purpose,
 faith, longsuffering, love, patience, per- ¹¹
 secutions, sufferings; what things befell
 me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra;
 what persecutions I endured: and out of them all the Lord delivered me. Yea, ¹²
 and all that would live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil ¹³ men and impostors shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.
 But abide thou in the things which thou ¹⁴
 hast learned and hast been assured of,
 knowing of ¹⁵whom thou hast learned
 them; and that from a babe thou hast known the sacred writings which are able to make thee wise unto salvation
 through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

For the time will come when they will not endure the ³sound ⁴doctrine; but, having itching ears, will heap to themselves teachers ⁴after their own lusts; and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside ⁵unto fables. But be thou sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfil thy ministry. For I am already being ⁵offered, and the time ⁷of my departure is come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, ⁸I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give to me at that day: and not only to me, but also to all them that have loved his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto ¹⁰me: for Demas forsook me, having loved this present ⁶world, and went to Thessalonica; Crescens to ⁷Galatia, Titus to

Alexander the coppersmith ¹⁴did me much evil: the Lord will render to him according to his works: of whom ¹⁵be thou ware also; for he greatly withstood our words. At my first defence ¹⁶no one took my part, but all forsook me: may it not be laid to their account. But ¹⁷the Lord stood by me, and ⁸strengthened me; that through me the ¹⁰message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. The Lord ¹⁸will deliver me from every evil work, and will save me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be the glory ¹¹for ever and ever. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS

1 PAUL, a ¹servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the knowledge of the truth which is according to
² godliness, in hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised before
³ times eternal; but in ²his own seasons manifested his word in the ³message, wherewith I was intrusted according to the commandment of God our ⁴ Saviour; to Titus, my true child after a common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Saviour.
⁵ For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that were wanting, and appoint elders
⁶ in every city, as I gave thee charge; if any man is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children that believe, who are not accused of riot or unruly.
⁷ For the ⁴bishop must be blameless, as God's steward; not selfwilled, not soon angry, ⁵no brawler, no striker, not greedy
⁸ of filthy lucre; but given to hospitality, a lover of good, soberminded, just, holy,
⁹ temperate; holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in the ⁶sound ⁷doctrine, and to convict the gainsayers.
¹⁰ For there are many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of ¹¹ the circumcision, whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought ¹² not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, Cretans are alway liars, evil beasts, ¹³ idle ⁸gluttons. This testimony is true. For which cause reprove them sharply, that they may be ⁹sound in the faith, not giving heed to Jewish fables, and ¹⁴ commandments of men who turn away from the truth. To the pure all things ¹⁵ are pure: but to them that are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. They profess that ¹⁶ they know God; but by their works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

2 BUT speak thou the things which befit the ⁶sound ⁷doctrine: that aged ² men be temperate, grave, soberminded, ⁹sound in faith, in love, in patience: that ³ aged women likewise be reverent in demeanour, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; that they may train the young ⁴ women to love their husbands, to love their children, to be soberminded, chaste, ⁵ workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed: the ⁶ younger men likewise exhort to be soberminded: in all things shewing thyself ⁷ an ensample of good works; in thy doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sound speech, that cannot be con- ⁸ demned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of us. Exhort ¹⁰servants to ⁹ be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing to them in all things; not gainsaying; not purloining, ¹⁰ but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.  15 These things speak and exhort and reprove with all ³authority. Let no man despise thee.

3 PUT them in mind to be in subjection to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready unto every good
 2 work, to speak evil of no man, not to be contentious, to be gentle, shewing all
 3 meekness toward all men. For we also were aforetime foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful,
 4 hating one another. But when the kindness of God our Saviour, and his
 5 love toward man, appeared, not by works done in righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy he saved us, through the ⁴washing of regeneration ⁵and renewing of the ⁶Holy
 6 Ghost, which he poured out upon us richly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that, being justified by his grace, ⁷we might be made ⁷heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Faithful is the ⁸saying, and concerning these things I will that thou affirm confidently, to the end that they which have believed God may be careful to ⁸maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men: but shun foolish questionings, ⁹and genealogies, and strifes, and fightings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. 2 our beloved and fellow-worker, and to Apphia ²our sister, and to Archippus

our fellow-soldier, and to the church in 3 thy house: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
4 I thank my God always, making men-
5 tion of thee in my prayers, hearing of ³thy love, and of the faith which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward 6 all the saints; that the fellowship of thy faith may become effectual, in the knowledge of every good thing which is in 7 ⁴you, unto Christ. For I had much joy and comfort in thy love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed
through thee, brother.
8 Wherefore, though I have all boldness in Christ to enjoin thee that which 9 is befitting, yet for love's sake I rather beseech, being such a one as Paul ⁵the
aged, and now a prisoner also of Christ
10 Jesus: I beseech thee for my child, whom
I have begotten in my bonds, ⁶Ones-11 imus, who was aforetime unprofitable to thee, but now is profitable to thee and to 12 me: whom I have sent back to thee in his own person, that is, my very heart:
13 whom I would fain have kept with me,
that in thy behalf he might minister

unto me in the bonds of the gospel: but 14
without thy mind I would do nothing;
that thy goodness should not be as of necessity, but of free will. For perhaps 15
he was therefore parted from thee for a season, that thou shouldst have him
for ever; no longer as a ⁷servant, but 16
more than a ⁷servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much rather to thee, both in the flesh and in the Lord. If then thou countest 17 me a partner, receive him as myself.
But if he hath wronged thee at all, or 18
oweth thee aught, put that to mine account; I Paul write it with mine own 19 hand, I will repay it: that I say not unto thee how that thou owest to me even thine own self besides. Yea, 20 brother, let me have ⁸joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my heart in Christ.
Having confidence in thine obedience I 21
write unto thee, knowing that thou wilt do even beyond what I say. But withal 22 prepare me also a lodging: for I hope that through your prayers I shall be granted unto you.

Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in 23
Christ Jesus, saluteth thee; and so do 24 Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, Luke, my fellow-workers.

The grace of ⁹our Lord Jesus Christ 25
be with your spirit. ¹⁰Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE HEBREWS

1 GOD, having of old time spoken unto the fathers in the prophets by divers portions and in divers manners, 2 hath at the end of these days spoken unto us in ¹his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he 3 made the ²worlds; who being the effulgence of his glory, and ³the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had made purification of sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty 4 on high; having become by so much better than the angels, as he hath inherited a more excellent name than they. 5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time,

Thou art my Son,
This day have I begotten thee?
and again,

I will be to him a Father,
And he shall be to me a Son?

6 ⁴And when he again ⁵bringeth in the firstborn into ⁶the world he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith,
Who maketh his angels ⁷winds,
And his ministers a flame of fire:

8 but of the Son he saith,
Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever;
And the sceptre of uprightness is the sceptre of ⁸thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity;
Therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee
With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And,
Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth,

And the heavens are the works of thy hands:
They shall perish; but thou continuest:
And they all shall wax old as doth a garment;
And as a mantle shalt thou roll them 12 up,
As a garment, and they shall be changed:
But thou art the same,
And thy years shall not fail.
But of which of the angels hath he 13 said at any time,
Sit thou on my right hand,
Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet?

Are they not all ministering spirits, sent 14 forth to do service for the sake of them that shall inherit salvation?

2 THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things that were heard, lest haply we drift away from them. For if the word spoken 2 through angels proved stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward; how shall we escape, if we neglect so 3 great salvation? which having at the first been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed unto us by them that heard; God also bearing witness with them, 4 both by signs and wonders, and by manifold powers, and by ⁹gifts of the ¹⁰Holy Ghost, according to his own will.

For not unto angels did he subject 5 ⁶the world to come, whereof we speak. But one hath somewhere testified, saying,

What is man, that thou art mindful of him?

Thou crownedst him with glory and honour,

²And didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou didst put all things in subjection under his feet.

For in that he subjected all things unto him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we see not yet all things

9 subjected to him. But we behold him who hath been made ¹a little lower than the angels, even Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honour, that by the grace of God he

10 should taste death for every man. For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, ³in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the ⁴author of their salvation perfect

11 through sufferings. For both he that sanctifieth and they that are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is

12 not ashamed to call them brethren, saying,

I will declare thy name unto my brethren,

In the midst of the ⁵congregation will I sing thy praise.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold, I and the children

14 which God hath given me. Since then the children are sharers in ⁶flesh and blood, he also himself in like manner partook of the same; that through death he ⁷might bring to nought him that ⁸had

the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 and ⁷might deliver all them who through fear of death were all their lifetime sub-

16 ject to bondage. For verily not of angels doth he take hold, but he taketh hold of 17 the seed of Abraham. Wherefore it behoved him in all things to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. ⁹For ¹⁰in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

3 WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, even Jesus; who was faithful to ²him that ¹¹appointed him, as also was Moses in all ¹²his house. For he hath ³been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by so much as he that ¹³built the house hath more honour than the house. For every house is ¹³built by some ⁴one; but he that ¹³built all things is God. And Moses indeed was faithful in all ⁵¹²his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken; but Christ as a son, over ⁶¹²his house; whose house are we, if we hold fast our boldness and the glorying of our hope firm unto the end. Wherefore, even as the Holy Ghost ⁷saith,

To-day if ye shall hear his voice,
Harden not your hearts, as in the ⁸provocation,

Like as in the day of the temptation in the wilderness,

¹⁴Wherewith your fathers tempted me ⁹by proving me,

And saw my works forty years.

Wherefore I was displeased with this ¹⁰generation,

And said, They do alway err in their heart:

But they did not know my ways;

As I swear in my wrath,

¹¹They shall not enter into my rest.

Take heed, brethren, lest haply there ¹²shall be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God: but exhort one another day by ¹³day, so long as it is called To-day; lest any one of you be hardened by the de-ceitfulness of sin: for we are become ¹⁴partakers ¹⁶of Christ, if we hold fast the 15 the end: while it is said,

To-day if ye shall hear his voice,

Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For who, when they heard, did provoke?
nay, did not all they that came out of 17 Egypt by Moses? And with whom was he displeased forty years? was it not with them that sinned, whose ¹carcases 18 fell in the wilderness? And to whom swore he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that were 19 disobedient? And we see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

4 LET us fear therefore, lest haply, a promise being left of entering into his rest, any one of you should seem to 2 have come short of it. For indeed we have had ²good tidings preached unto us, even as also they: but the word of hearing did not profit them, because ³they were not united by faith with them
3 that heard. ⁴For we which have believed do enter into that rest; even as he hath said,

As I swear in my wrath,

⁵They shall not enter into my rest:
although the works were finished from 4 the foundation of the world. For he hath said somewhere of the seventh day
on this wise, And God rested on the 5 seventh day from all his works; and in this place again,

⁵They shall not enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some should enter thereinto, and they to whom ⁶the good tidings were before preached failed to enter in because of 7 disobedience, he again defineth a certain day, ⁷saying in David, after so long a time, To-day, as it hath been before
said,

To-day if ye shall hear his voice,

Harden not your hearts.

8 For if ⁸Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of an-9 other day. There remaineth therefore a sabbath rest for the people of God.

For he that is entered into his rest hath 10 himself also rested from his works, as God did from his. Let us therefore give 11 diligence to enter into that rest, that no man fall ⁹after the same example of disobedience. For the word of God is liv- 12
ing, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and quick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature that 13 is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

Having then a great high priest, who 14
hath passed through the heavens, Jesus
the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we have not a high priest 15 that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore draw 16 near with boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need.

5 FOR every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins: who can bear gently with the 2
ignorant and erring, for that he himself
also is compassed with infirmity; and 3
by reason thereof is bound, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. And no man taketh the honour 4 unto himself, but when he is called of God, even as was Aaron. So Christ 5 also glorified not himself to be made a high priest, but he that spake unto
him,

Thou art my Son,

This day have I begotten thee:

as he saith also in another place, 6

Thou art a priest for ever

After the order of Melchizedek.

8 fear, though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became unto all them that obey him
10 the ²author of eternal salvation; named of God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.

11 Of ³whom we have many things to say, and hard of interpretation, seeing 12 ye are become dull of hearing. For when by reason of the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need again ⁴that some one teach you the rudiments of the ⁵first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and 13 not of solid food. For every one that partaketh of milk is without experience of the word of righteousness; for he is a babe. But solid food is for ⁶fullgrown
14 men, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

6 WHEREFORE let us ⁷cease to speak of the first principles of Christ, and press on unto ⁸perfection; not laying again a foundation of repentance from
2 dead works, and of faith toward God, ⁹of the teaching of ¹⁰baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the 3 dead, and of eternal judgement. And this will we do, if God permit. For 4 as touching those who were once enlightened ¹¹and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the 5 Holy Ghost, and ¹²tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the age to come, and then fell away, it is impossible
6 to renew them again unto repentance; ¹³seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an
7 open shame. For the land which hath drunk the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receiveth blessing from God: but if it beareth 8 thorns and thistles, it is rejected and nigh unto a curse; whose end is to be burned.

But, beloved, we are persuaded better 9 things of you, and things that ¹⁴accompany salvation, though we thus speak: for God is not unrighteous to forget your 10 work and the love which ye shewed toward his name, in that ye ministered unto the saints, and still do minister. And 11 we desire that each one of you may shew the same diligence unto the ¹⁵fulness of hope even to the end: that ye be not 12 sluggish, but imitators of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

For when God made promise to Abra- 13 ham, since he could swear by none greater, he swore by himself, saying, 14 Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. And 15 thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. For men swear by 16 the greater: and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation. Wherein God, being minded to shew 17 more abundantly unto the heirs of the promise the immutability of his counsel, ¹⁶interposed with an oath: that by two 18 immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope set before us; which we have as an anchor 19 of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is within the veil; whither as a forerunner 20 Jesus entered for us, having become a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

7 FOR this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him, to whom 2

also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto the Son of God), abideth a priest continually.

- 4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom Abraham, the patriarch, gave 5 a tenth out of the chief spoils. And they indeed of the sons of Levi that receive the priest's office have commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though these have come out of the loins of Abraham: but he whose genealogy is not counted from them hath taken tithes of Abraham, and hath blessed him that hath
7 the promises. But without any dispute
8 the less is blessed of the better. And here men that die receive tithes; but there one, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth. And, so to say, through Abraham even Levi, who receiveth tithes, hath 10 paid tithes; for he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek met him.

- 11 Now if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it hath the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be reckoned after the order
12 of Aaron? For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also ¹of the law. For he of whom these things are said ²belongeth to another tribe, from which no man hath 14 given attendance at the altar. For it is evident that our Lord hath sprung out of Judah; as to which tribe Moses spake
15 nothing concerning priests. And what we say is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there 16 ariseth another priest, who hath been made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an ³endless life: for it is witnessed ¹⁷of him,

Thou art a priest for ever

After the order of Melchizedek.

For there is a disannulling of a foregoing 18 commandment because of its weakness and unprofitableness (for the law made 19 nothing perfect), and a bringing in thereupon of a better hope, through which we draw nigh unto God. And inasmuch 20 as it is not without the taking of an oath (for they indeed have been made priests 21 without an oath; but he with an oath ⁴by him that saith ⁵of him,

The Lord sware and will not repent himself,

Thou art a priest for ever);

by so much also hath Jesus become the 22 surety of a better ⁶covenant. And they 23 indeed have been made priests many in number, because that by death they are hindered from continuing: but he, 24 because he abideth for ever, ⁷hath his priesthood ⁸unchangeable. Wherefore 25 also he is able to save ⁹to the uttermost them that draw near unto God through him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

For such a high priest became us, 26 holy, guileless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; who needeth not daily, like those 27 high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people: for this he did once for all, when he offered up himself. For the 28 law appointeth men high priests, having infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was after the law, appointeth a Son, perfected for evermore.

8 ¹⁰NOW ¹¹in the things which we are saying the chief point is this: We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, a minister of 2 ¹²the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man. For every high priest is appointed to offer 3 both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is necessary that this high priest also have 4 somewhat to offer. Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all,

 seeing there are those who offer the gifts
 5 according to the law; who serve that which is a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses is warned of God when he is about to 'make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern that was shewed thee in the 6 mount. But now hath he obtained a ministry the more excellent, by how much also he is the mediator of a better
 2 covenant, which hath been enacted up-
 7 on better promises. For if that first cov- enant had been faultless, then would no place have been sought for a se-8 cond. For finding fault with them, he saith,

Behold, the days come, saith the
 Lord,

That I will 'make a new 2 covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;

9 Not according to the 2 covenant that
 I made with their fathers

In the day that I took them by the hand to lead them forth out of the land of Egypt;

For they continued not in my 2 covenant,

And I regarded them not, saith the
 Lord.

10 For this is the 2 covenant that 'I will make with the house of Israel
 After those days, saith the Lord;
 I will put my laws into their mind,
 And on their heart also will I write
 them:

And I will be to them a God,

And they shall be to me a people:

11 And they shall not teach every man
 his fellow-citizen,

And every man his brother, saying,
 Know the Lord:

For all shall know me,

From the least to the greatest of
 them.

For I will be merciful to their ini- 12
 quities,

And their sins will I remember no
 more.

In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath 13 made the first old. But that which is becoming old and waxeth aged is nigh unto vanishing away.

9 NOW even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service, and its sanctuary, a sanctuary of this world. For 2
 there was a tabernacle prepared, the first,
 wherein ⁵were the candlestick, and the table, and ⁶the shewbread; which is called the Holy place. And after the second 3 veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holy of holies; having a golden ⁷censer, 4
 and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein ⁸was a golden pot holding the manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant; and above it cherubim of 5
 glory overshadowing ⁹the mercy-seat;
 of which things we cannot now speak
 severally. Now these things having been 6
 thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services; but into the second 7
 the high priest alone, once in the year,
 not without blood, which he offereth for himself, and for the ¹⁰errors of the people: the Holy Ghost this signifying, that 8
 the way into the holy place hath not yet been made manifest, while as the first tabernacle is yet standing; which 9
 is a parable for the time now present;
 according to which are offered both gifts and sacrifices that cannot, as touching the conscience, make the wor-shipper perfect, being only (with meats 10 and drinks and divers washings) carnal ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation.

But Christ having come a high priest 11
 of ¹¹the good things to come, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, nor yet through the blood 12
 of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling them that have been defiled, sanctify unto the cleanness of the flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish unto God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? And for this cause he is the mediator of a new ²covenant, that a death having taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first ²covenant, they that have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. For where a ²testament is, there must of necessity ³be the death of him that made it. For a ²testament is of force ⁴where there hath been death: ⁵for doth it ever avail while he that made it liveth? Wherefore even the first covenant hath not been dedicated without blood. For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses unto all the people according to the law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself, and all the people, saying, This is the blood of the ²covenant which God commanded to you-ward. Moreover the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry he sprinkled in like manner with the blood. And according to the law, I may almost say, all things are cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission.

It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. For Christ entered not into a holy place made with hands, like in pattern to the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear before the face of God for us: nor yet that he should offer himself often; as the high priest entereth into the holy place year by year with blood not his own; else must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once at the ⁶end of the ages hath he been manifested to put away sin ⁷by the sacrifice of himself. And inasmuch as it is ⁸appointed unto men once to die, and after this cometh judgement; so Christ also, having been once offered to bear the sins of many, shall appear a second time, apart from sin, to them that wait for him, unto salvation.

10 FOR the law having a shadow of the good things to come, not the very image of the things, ⁹they can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect them that draw nigh. Else would they not have ceased to be offered, because the worshippers, having been once cleansed, would have had no more conscience of sins? But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance made of sins year by year. For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins. Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith,

Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not,

But a body didst thou prepare for me;

In whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hadst no pleasure:

Then said I, Lo, I am come (In the roll of the book it is written of me)

To do thy will, O God.

Saying above, Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein (the which are offered according to the law), then hath he said, Lo, I am come to do thy will. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. ¹⁰By which will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every ¹¹priest indeed standeth day by day ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, the which can never take

 13 on the right hand of God; from henceforth expecting till his enemies be made 14 the footstool of his feet. For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them
 15 that are sanctified. And the Holy Ghost also beareth witness to us: for after he hath said,

16 This is the ²covenant that ³I will make with them

After those days, saith the Lord;

I will put my laws on their heart,

And upon their mind also will I write them;

then saith he,

17 And their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus, by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through 20 the veil, that is to say, his flesh; and having a great priest over the house of

22 God; let us draw near with a true heart in ⁴fulness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil ⁵conscience, and

23 our body washed with pure water: let us hold fast the confession of our hope that it waver not; for he is faithful that

24 promised: and let us consider one another to provoke unto love and good

25 works; not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day drawing nigh.

26 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more a sacrifice for

27 sins, but a certain fearful expectation of judgement, and a ⁶fierceness of fire which

28 shall devour the adversaries. A man that hath set at nought Moses' law dieth without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses: of how much sorer punishment, think ye, shall he be judged worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, ⁷an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? For we know him that said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands ⁸of the living God.

But call to remembrance the former ⁹days, in which, after ye were enlightened, ye endured a great conflict of sufferings; partly, being made a gazingstock both ¹⁰by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, becoming partakers with them that were so used. For ye both had compassion ¹¹on them that were in bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your possessions, knowing ¹²that ¹³ye yourselves have a better possession and an abiding one. Cast ¹⁴not away therefore your boldness, which hath great recompense of reward. For ¹⁵ye have need of patience, that, having done the will of God, ye may receive the promise.

For yet a very little while, ¹⁶

He that cometh shall come, and shall not tarry.

But ¹⁷my righteous one shall live by ¹⁸faith:

And if he shrink back, my soul hath no pleasure in him.

But we are not ¹⁹of them that shrink back ²⁰unto perdition; but of them that have faith unto the ²¹saving of the soul.

11 NOW faith is ²²the assurance of things hoped for, the ²³proving of things not seen. For therein the elders ²⁴had witness borne to them. By faith we ²⁵understand that the ²⁶worlds have been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen hath not been made out of things which do appear. By faith Abel offered ²⁷unto God a more excellent sacrifice than

Cain, through which he had witness borne to him that he was righteous, ¹God bearing witness ²in respect of his gifts: and through it he being dead yet speak-
 5 eth. By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and he was not found, because God translated him: for before his translation he hath had witness borne to him that he had been well-
 6 pleasing unto God: and without faith it is impossible to be well-pleasing unto him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a re-
 7 warder of them that seek after him. By faith Noah, being warned of God concerning things not seen as yet, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according 8 to faith. By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out unto a place which he was to receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing
 9 whither he went. By faith he became a sojourner in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, ³dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him
 10 of the same promise: for he looked for the city which hath the foundations,
 11 whose ⁴builder and maker is God. By faith even Sarah herself received power to conceive seed when she was past age, since she counted him faithful who had 12 promised: wherefore also there sprang of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand, which is by the sea shore, innumerable.
 13 These all died ⁵in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.
 14 For they that say such things make it manifest that they are seeking after a 15 country of their own. And if indeed they had been mindful of that country from which they went out, they would have had opportunity to return. But 16 now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

By faith Abraham, being tried, ⁶offered 17 up Isaac: yea, he that had gladly received the promises was offering up his only begotten son; even he ⁷to whom it was 18 said, In Isaac shall thy seed be called: accounting that God is able to raise up, 19 even from the dead; from whence he did also in a parable receive him back. By 20 faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. By faith Ja- 21 cob, when he was a dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff. By faith 22 Joseph, when his end was nigh, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones. By faith Moses, when 23 he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a goodly child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. By faith 24 Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to be evil entreated 25 with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; accounting the reproach of ⁸Christ greater riches 26 than the treasures of Egypt: for he looked unto the recompense of reward. By faith 27 he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. By faith he ⁹kept 28 the passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. By faith they 29 passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were swallowed up. By faith the walls 30 of Jericho fell down, after they had been compassed about for seven days. By 31 faith Rahab the harlot perished not with them that were disobedient, having received the spies with peace. And what 32 shall I more say? for the time will fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah; of David and Samuel and the prophets: who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, waxed mighty in war, turned to flight armies of aliens. Women received their dead by a resurrection: and others were ¹tortured, not accepting ²their deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection: and others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, they were tempted, they were slain with the sword: they went about in sheepskins, in goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, evil entreated (of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts and mountains and caves, and the holes of the earth. And these all, having had witness borne to them through their faith, received not the promise, God having ³provided some better thing concerning us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

12 THEREFORE let us also, seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside ⁴every weight, and the sin which ⁵doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the ⁶author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising shame, and hath sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider him that hath endured such gainsaying of sinners against ⁷themselves, that ye wax not weary, fainting in your souls. Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin: and ye have forgotten the exhortation, which reasoneth with you as with sons,

My son, regard not lightly the chastening of the Lord,

Nor faint when thou art reproved of him;
For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth,
And scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

⁸It is for chastening that ye endure; God ⁹dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father chasteneth not? But if ye are without chastening, ⁸whereof all have been made partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of ⁹spirits, and live? For they verily for a few days chastened us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we may be partakers of his holiness. All chastening ¹¹seemeth for the present to be not joyous, but grievous: yet afterward it yieldeth peaceable fruit unto them that have been exercised thereby, even the fruit of righteousness. Wherefore ¹²lift up the hands that hang down, and the palsied knees; and make straight paths ¹³for your feet, that that which is lame be not ¹⁴turned out of the way, but rather be healed.

Follow after peace with all men, and ¹⁴the sanctification without which no man shall see the Lord: looking carefully ¹⁵lest there be any man that ¹⁶falleth short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby the many be defiled; ¹⁷lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one mess of meat sold his own birthright. For ye know that even when ¹⁸he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected (for he found no place of repentance), though he sought it diligently with tears.

 28 may remain. Wherefore, receiving a

13 LET love of the brethren continue. Forget not to shew love unto strangers: for thereby some have 3 entertained angels unawares. Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them;
 and they that are evil entreated, as being yourselves
 also in the body.
 4 Let marriage be had in honour among all,
 and let the bed be undefiled: for fornicators
 and adulterers God will judge.
 5 ⁷Be ye free from the love of money; content with such things as ye have: for himself hath said, I will in no wise fail thee, neither will I in any wise forsake thee. So that with good courage 6

 we say,

The Lord is my helper; I will not fear:

What shall man do unto me?

Remember them that had the rule over 7
 you, which spake unto you the word of God; and considering the issue of their ⁸life, imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is 8
 the same yesterday and to-day, yea and ⁹for ever. Be not carried away by divers 9 and strange teachings: for it is good that the heart be established by grace; not by meats, wherein they that ¹⁰occupied themselves were not profited. We have 10 an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle. For the 11 bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the holy place ¹²by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned without the camp. Wherefore Jesus also, 12 that he might sanctify the people through his own blood, suffered without the gate.
 Let us therefore go forth unto him with- 13
 out the camp, bearing his reproach. For 14
 we have not here an abiding city, but we seek after the city which is to come.
 Through him ¹⁵then let us offer up a 15
 sacrifice of praise to God continually,
 that is, the fruit of lips which make confession to his name. But to do good and 16 to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Obey 17 them that have the rule over you, and submit to them: for they watch in behalf of your souls, as they that shall give account; that they may do this with joy,
 and not with ¹⁸grief: for this were unprofitable for you.

Pray for us: for we are persuaded that 18
 we have a good conscience, desiring to live honestly in all things. And I exhort 19
 you the more exceedingly to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES

- 1 JAMES, a ⁵servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are of the Dispersion, ⁶greeting.
- 2 Count it all joy, my brethren, when ³ye fall into manifold ⁷temptations; knowing that the proof of your faith worketh ⁴patience. And let patience have its perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, lacking in nothing.
- 5 But if any of you lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all liberally and upbraideth not; and it shall be ⁶given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing doubting: for he that doubteth is like the surge of the sea driven by the ⁷wind and tossed. For let not that man think ⁸that he shall receive anything of the Lord; a doubleminded man, unstable in all his ways.
- 9 But let the brother of low degree glory ¹⁰in his high estate: and the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower ¹¹of the grass he shall pass away. For the sun ariseth with the scorching wind, and withereth the grass; and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his goings.

Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he hath been approved, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to them that love him. Let no man say when he is tempted, I ¹³am tempted ⁹of God: for God ¹⁰cannot be tempted with ¹¹evil, and he himself tempteth no man: but each man is ¹⁴tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. Then the ¹⁵lust, when it hath conceived, beareth sin: and the sin, when it is fullgrown, bringeth forth death. Be not deceived, ¹⁶my beloved brethren. Every good ¹⁷gift and every perfect boon is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, neither shadow that is cast by turning. Of his own will he brought ¹⁸us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

¹⁴Ye know this, my beloved brethren. ¹⁹But let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath: for the wrath ²⁰of man worketh not the righteousness of God. Wherefore putting away all filthiness and overflowing of ²¹wickedness, receive with meekness the ¹⁶implanted word, which is able to save your souls.

 22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deluding your own selves.
 23 For if any one is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding ¹his natural face in a mirror:
 24 for he beholdeth himself, and goeth away, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But he that looketh into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and so continueth, being not a hearer that forgetteth, but a doer that worketh, this 26 man shall be blessed in his doing. If any man ²thinketh himself to be religious, while he bridleth not his tongue but deceiveth his heart, this man's religion is 27 vain. Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

2 MY brethren, ³hold not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. For if there come into your ⁴synagogue a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, and there come in also a poor man in vile
 3 clothing; and ye have regard to him that weareth the fine clothing, and say, Sit thou here in a good place; and ye say to the poor man, Stand thou there, or sit
 4 under my footstool; ⁵are ye not divided ⁶in your own mind, and become judges with evil thoughts? Hearken, my be-
 5 loved brethren; did not God choose them that are poor as to the world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which 6 he promised to them that love him? But ye have dishonoured the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you, and themselves drag you before the judgement-seats?
 7 Do not they blaspheme the honourable
 8 name ⁷by the which ye are called? Howbeit if ye fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy sors. For whosoever shall keep the whole 10 law, and yet stumble in one point, he is become guilty of all. For he that said, 11 Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou dost not commit adultery, but killest, thou art become a transgressor of the law. So speak ye, and 12 so do, as men that are to be judged by a law of liberty. For judgement is with- 13 out mercy to him that hath shewed no mercy: mercy glorieth against judge-ment.

What doth it profit, my brethren, if 14 a man say he hath faith, but have not works? can that faith save him? If a 15 brother or sister be naked, and in lack of daily food, and one of you say unto 16 them, Go in peace, be ye warmed and filled; and yet ye give them not the things needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so faith, if it have not works, is 17 dead in itself. ⁸Yea, a man will say, Thou 18 hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith apart from thy works, and I by my works will shew thee my faith. Thou 19 believest that ⁹God is one; thou doest well: the ¹⁰devils also believe, and shudder. But wilt thou know, O vain man, 20 that faith apart from works is barren? Was not Abraham our father justified 21 by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son upon the altar? ¹¹Thou seest that faith 22 wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect; and the scrip- 23 ture was fulfilled which saith, And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness; and he was called the friend of God. Ye see that by 24 works a man is justified, and not only by faith. And in like manner was not 25 also Rahab the harlot justified by works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? For as the 26 body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.

stumble. If any stumbleth not in word, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle
 3 the whole body also. Now if we put the horses' bridles into their mouths, that they may obey us, we turn about their
 4 whole body also. Behold, the ships also, though they are so great, and are driven by rough winds, are yet turned about by a very small rudder, whither the impulse of the steersman willeth. So the tongue also is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, ¹how much wood is kindled by how small a fire!
 6 And the tongue is ²a fire: ³the world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the wheel of ⁴nature, and is set on fire by hell. For every ⁵kind of beasts and birds, of creeping things and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath
 8 been tamed ⁶by ⁷mankind: but the tongue can no man tame; it is a restless evil, it
 9 is full of deadly poison. Therewith bless we the Lord and Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the likeness of God: out of the same mouth cometh forth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to 11 be. Doth the fountain send forth from the same opening sweet water and bitter? can a fig tree, my brethren, yield 12 olives, or a vine figs? neither can salt water yield sweet.
 13 Who is wise and understanding among you? let him shew by his good life his works in meekness of wisdom. But if ye have bitter jealousy and faction in your heart, glory not and lie not against the 15 truth. This wisdom is not a wisdom that cometh down from above, but is earthly, ⁸sensual, ⁹devilish. For where jealousy and faction are, there is confusion and 17 every vile deed. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without ¹⁰variance, without 18 out hypocrisy. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace ¹¹for them that make peace.

4 WHENCE come wars and whence come fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your pleasures that war in your members? Ye lust, and have ²not: ye kill, and ¹²covet, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war; ye have not, because ye ask not. Ye ask, and receive ³not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may spend it in your pleasures. Ye adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore would be a friend of the world maketh himself an enemy of God. Or think ye that the scripture ¹³speaketh ⁵in vain? ¹⁴Doth the spirit which ¹⁵he made to dwell in us long unto envying? But he giveth ¹⁶more grace. Wherefore the ⁶scripture saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble. Be subject therefore unto God; but resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw ⁸nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye doubleminded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let ⁹your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble your- ¹⁰selves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall exalt you.

Speak not one against another, brethren. He that speaketh against a brother, or judgeth his brother, speaketh against the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judgest the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. One only is the ¹²lawgiver and judge, even he who is able to save and to destroy: but who art thou that judgest thy neighbour?

Go to now, ye that say, To-day or to-morrow we will go into this city, and spend a year there, and trade, and get gain: whereas ye know not what shall be ¹⁴on the morrow. What is your life? For ye are a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. ¹⁷For that ¹⁵

 have condemned, ye have killed the righteous one; he doth not resist you.
 7 Be patient therefore, brethren, until the ²coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it,
 until ³it receive the early and latter rain.
 8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts:
 for the ²coming of the Lord is at hand.
 9 Murmur not, brethren, one against another, that ye be not judged: behold, the 10 judge standeth before the doors. Take, brethren, for an example of suffering
 and of patience, the prophets who spake

in the name of the Lord. Behold, we 11
 call them blessed which endured: ye have heard of the ⁴patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord, how that the Lord is full of pity, and merciful.

But above all things, my brethren, 12
 swear not, neither by the heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath: but ⁵let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay;
 that ye fall not under judgement.

Is any among you suffering? let him 13
 pray. Is any cheerful? let him sing praise.
 Is any among you sick? let him call for 14
 the elders of the church; and let them
 pray over him, ⁶anointing him with oil
 in the name of the Lord: and the prayer 15
 of faith shall save him that is sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, it shall be forgiven
 him. Confess therefore your sins one to 16
 another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The supplication of a righteous man availeth much in its working. Elijah was a man of like ⁷pas- 17
 sions with us, and he prayed ⁸ fervently that it might not rain; and it rained not on the earth for three years and six months. And he prayed again; and the 18
 heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

My brethren, if any among you do err 19
 from the truth, and one convert him;
⁹let him know, that he which converteth 20
 a sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall cover
 a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER

1 PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect who are sojourners of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, unto an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who by the power of God are guarded through faith unto a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, ye have been put to grief in manifold temptations, that the proof of your faith, being more precious than gold that perisheth though it is proved by fire, might be found unto praise and glory and honour at the revelation of Jesus Christ: whom not having seen ye love; on whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and full of glory: receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. Concerning which salvation the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: searching what time or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did point unto, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glories that should follow them.

12 To whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto you, did they minister these things, which now have been announced unto you through them that preached the gospel unto you ⁴by the ⁵Holy Ghost sent forth from heaven; which things angels desire to look into.

Wherefore girding up the loins of your mind, be sober and set your hope perfectly on the grace that ⁶is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; as children of obedience, not fashioning yourselves according to your former lusts in the time of your ignorance: but ⁷like as he which called you is holy, be ye yourselves also holy in all manner of living; because it is written, Ye shall be holy; for I am holy. And if ye call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to each man's work, pass the time of your sojourning in fear: knowing that ye were redeemed, 18 not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from your vain manner of life handed down from your fathers; but with precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot, even the blood of Christ: who was foreknown in 20 deed before the foundation of the world, but was manifested at the end of the times for your sake, who through him 21 are believers in God, which raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God. Seeing ye have purified your souls 22 in your obedience to the truth unto unfeigned love of the brethren, love one another ⁸from the heart fervently: having been begotten again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of ⁹God, which liveth and abideth. And all the glory thereof as the flower of grass.

The grass withereth, and the flower falleth:

25 But the ¹word of the Lord abideth for ever.

And this is the ¹word of good tidings which was preached unto you.

2 PUTTING away therefore all ²wickedness, and all guile, and hypocrisies, ²and envies, and all evil speakings, as newborn babes, long for the ³spiritual milk which is without guile, that ye may grow ³thereby unto salvation; if ye have tasted ⁴that the Lord is gracious: unto whom coming, a living stone, rejected indeed of men, but with God ⁴elect, ⁴precious, ⁵ye also, as living stones, are built up ⁵a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable ⁶to God through Jesus Christ. Because it is contained in ⁶scripture,

Behold, I lay in Zion a chief corner stone, elect, ⁴precious:

And he that believeth on ⁷him shall not be put to shame.

⁷ ⁸For you therefore which believe is the ⁹preciousness: but for such as disbelieve,

The stone which the builders rejected, The same was made the head of the corner;

⁸ and,

A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence;

¹⁰for they ¹¹stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were ⁹appointed. But ye are an elect race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that ye may shew forth the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: which in time past were no people, but now are the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

¹¹ Beloved, I beseech you as sojourners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly

¹² lusts, which war against the soul; having your behaviour seemly among the Gentiles; that, wherein they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

Be subject to every ¹²ordinance of man ¹³for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme; or unto governors, as ¹⁴sent ¹³by him for vengeance on evil-doers and for praise to them that do well. For so is the will of God, that by well-doing ye should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not ¹⁴using your freedom for a cloke of ²wickedness, but as bondservants of God. Honour all ¹⁷men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

¹⁵Servants, be in subjection to your ¹⁸masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is ¹⁶acceptable, if for conscience ¹⁹toward God a man endureth griefs, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, ²⁰if, when ye sin, and are buffeted for it, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye shall take it patiently, this is ¹⁶acceptable with God. For hereunto were ye called: because ²¹Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that ye should follow his steps: who did no sin, neither was guile ²²found in his mouth: who, when he was ²³reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, threatened not; but committed ¹⁸himself to him that judgeth righteously: who his own self ¹⁹bare our sins in his ²⁴body upon the tree, that we, having died unto sins, might live unto righteousness; by whose ²⁰stripes ye were healed. For ²⁵ye were going astray like sheep; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and ²¹Bishop of your souls.

3 IN like manner, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, even if any obey not the word, they may without the word be gained by the ²²behaviour of their wives; beholding ²your chaste ²²behaviour coupled with

 5 the sight of God of great price. For after this manner aforetime the holy women also, who hoped in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own
 6 ¹husbands: as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose children ye now are, if ye do well, and are not ²put in fear by any terror.
- 7 Ye husbands, in like manner, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giving honour ³unto the woman, as unto the weaker vessel, as being also joint-heirs of the grace of life; to the end that your prayers be not hindered.
- 8 Finally, be ye all likeminded, ⁴compassionate, loving as brethren, tender-9 hearted, humbleminded: not rendering evil for evil, or reviling for reviling; but contrariwise blessing; for hereunto were ye called, that ye should inherit a blessing. For,
- 10 He that would love life,
 And see good days,
 Let him refrain his tongue from evil,
 And his lips that they speak no guile:
- 11 And let him turn away from evil, and do good;
 Let him seek peace, and pursue it.
- 12 For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous,
 And his ears unto their supplication:
 But the face of the Lord is upon them that do evil.
- 13 And who is he that will harm you, if 14 ye be zealous of that which is good? But and if ye should suffer for righteousness' sake, blessed are ye: and fear not their 15 fear, neither be troubled; but sanctify in your hearts Christ as Lord: being ready always to give answer to every man that asketh you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, yet with meekness and fear: having a good conscience; that, 16 wherein ye are spoken against, they may be put to shame who revile your good manner of life in Christ. For it is better, 17 if the will of God should so will, that ye suffer for well-doing than for evil-doing. Because Christ also ⁵suffered for sins 18 once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God; being put to death in the flesh, but quickened in the spirit; in which also he went and 19 preached unto the spirits in prison, which 20 aforetime were disobedient, when the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, ⁶wherein few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water: which also ⁷after 21 a true likeness doth now save you, even baptism, not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the ⁸interrogation of a good conscience toward God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ; who is 22 on the right hand of God, having gone into heaven; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

4 FORASMUCH then as Christ suffered in the flesh, arm ye yourselves also with the same ⁹mind; for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased ¹⁰from sin; that ¹¹ye no longer should live 2 the rest of your time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. For the time past may suffice to have 3 wrought the desire of the Gentiles, and to have walked in lasciviousness, lusts, winebibbings, revellings, carousings, and abominable idolatries: wherein they think 4 it strange that ye run not with them into the same ¹²excess of riot, speaking evil of you: who shall give account to him 5 that is ready to judge the quick and the dead. For unto this end ¹³was the gospel 6 preached even to the dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

But the end of all things is at hand: be 7 ye therefore of sound mind, and be sober

 11 of God; if any man speaketh, speaking as it were oracles of God; if any man ministereth, ministering as of the strength which God supplieth: that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, whose is the glory and the dominion ²for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial among you, which cometh upon you to prove you, as though a strange thing happened unto you: but inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of his glory also ye may rejoice with exceeding joy. If ye are reproached ³for the name of Christ, blessed are ye; because the Spirit of glory and the Spirit
 15 of God resteth upon you. For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil-doer, or as a meddler in other men's matters: but if a man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but 17 let him glorify God in this name. For the time is come for judgement to begin at the house of God: and if it begin first at us, what shall be the end of them that 18 obey not the gospel of God? And if the righteous is scarcely saved, where shall 19 the ungodly and sinner appear? Wherefore let them also that suffer according to the will of God commit their souls in well-doing unto a faithful Creator.

5 THE elders therefore among you I exhort, who am a fellow-elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, who am also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: Tend the flock of God which ²is among you, ⁴exercising the oversight, not of constraint, but willingly, ⁵according unto God; nor yet for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; neither as lording it ³over the charge allotted to you, but making yourselves ensamples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd shall be ⁴manifested, ye shall receive the crown of glory that fadeth not away. ⁶Likewise, ⁵ye younger, be subject unto the elder. Yea, all of you gird yourselves with humility, to serve one another: for God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; casting ⁷all your anxiety upon him, because he careth for you. Be sober, be watchful: ⁸your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom withstand stedfast ⁹in ⁷your faith, knowing that the same sufferings are ⁸accomplished in your ⁹brethren who are in the world. And ¹⁰the God of all grace, who called you unto his eternal glory in Christ, after that ye have suffered a little while, shall himself ¹⁰perfect, stablish, strengthen ¹¹you. To him be the dominion ²for ever and ¹¹ever. Amen.

By Silvanus, ¹²our faithful brother, as ¹²I account him, I have written unto you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God: stand ye fast therein. ¹³She that is in Babylon, elect ¹³together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Mark my son. THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER

1 ¹SIMON Peter, a ²servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained ³a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of ⁴our God and ² Saviour Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of ³ God and of Jesus our Lord; seeing that his divine power hath granted unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that called us ⁵by his own glory and virtue; whereby he hath granted unto us his precious and exceeding great promises; that through these ye may become partakers of ⁶the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. Yea, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply virtue; and in your virtue knowledge; and in your knowledge ⁷temperance; and in your ⁷temperance patience; and in your patience godliness; and in your godliness love of the brethren; and in your love of the brethren love. For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful unto the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For he that lacketh these things is blind, ⁸seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing
¹⁰ from his old sins. Wherefore, brethren, give the more diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never stumble:
¹¹ for thus shall be richly supplied unto you the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.
¹² Wherefore I shall be ready always to put you in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and are established in the truth which is with you. And I think it right, as long as I am in ¹³ this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; knowing that the ¹⁴ putting off of my tabernacle cometh swiftly, even as our Lord Jesus Christ signified unto me. Yea, I will give diligence that at every time ye may be able after my ⁹decease to call these things to remembrance. For we did not follow ¹⁶ cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and ¹⁰coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he ¹¹received from God the Father honour and glory, when there ¹²came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: and this voice we ourselves heard ¹³come ¹⁸ out of heaven, when we were with him in the holy mount. And we have the word ¹⁹ of prophecy made more sure; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a lamp shining in a ¹⁴dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts: knowing this first, that no prophecy of scripture is of ¹⁵private interpretation. For no prophecy ever ¹⁶came ²¹ by the will of man: but men spake from God, being moved by the ¹⁷Holy Ghost.

2 BUT there arose false prophets also among the people, as among you also there shall be false teachers, who shall privily bring in ¹⁸destructive heresies, denying even the Master that bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their lascivious doings; by reason of whom the

 4 not. For if God spared not angels when they sinned, but ¹cast them down to ²hell, and committed them to ³pits of darkness, to be reserved unto judge-5 ment; and spared not the ancient world,
 but preserved Noah with seven others, ⁴a preacher of righteousness, when he brought a flood upon the world of the 6 ungodly; and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, having made them an example unto those that should 7 live ungodly; and delivered righteous
 Lot, sore distressed by the lascivious life
 8 of the wicked (for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, ⁵vexed his righteous soul from 9 day to day with their lawless deeds): the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment unto the 10 day of judgement; but chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise dominion. Daring, selfwilled, they tremble not to rail at 11 ⁶dignities: whereas angels, though greater in might and power, bring not a railing
 judgement against them before the Lord.
 12 But these, as creatures without reason,
 born ⁷mere animals ⁸to be taken and destroyed, railing in matters whereof they are ignorant, shall in their ⁹destroying 13 surely be destroyed, suffering wrong as the hire of wrong-doing; men that count
 it pleasure to revel in the day-time, spots
 and blemishes, revelling in their ¹⁰love-14 feasts while they feast with you; having eyes full of ¹¹adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; enticing unstedfast souls;
 having a heart exercised in covetousness;
 15 children of cursing; forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Balaam the son of ¹²Beor, who loved the hire of wrong-doing; but he ¹⁶

 was rebuked for his own transgression:
 a dumb ass spake with man's voice and stayed the madness of the prophet. These ¹⁷ are springs without water, and mists driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness hath been reserved.
 For, uttering great swelling words of ¹⁸
 vanity, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by lasciviousness, those who are just escaping from them that live in error; promising them liberty, while they ¹⁹ themselves are bondservants of corruption; for of ¹³whom a man is overcome,
 of the same is he also brought into bondage. For if, after they have escaped the ²⁰ defilements of the world through the knowledge of ¹⁴the Lord and Saviour
 Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein and overcome, the last state is become worse with them than the first.
 For it were better for them not to have ²¹
 known the way of righteousness, than,
 after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered unto them. It has happened unto them ac- ²²
 cording to the true proverb, The dog turning to his own vomit again, and the sow that had washed to wallowing in the mire.

3 THIS is now, beloved, the second epistle that I write unto you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind
 by putting you in remembrance; that ye ² should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandment of the Lord and Saviour through your apostles: knowing ³
 this first, that ¹⁵in the last days mockers shall come with mockery, walking after their own lusts, and saying, Where is ⁴
 the promise of his ¹⁶coming? for, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. For this ⁵ they wilfully forget, that there were

of judgement and destruction of un-

8 But forget not this one thing, beloved,
that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one 9 day. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness;
but is longsuffering to you-ward, not wishing that any should perish, but that 10 all should come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the ²elements
shall be dissolved with fervent heat,
and the earth and the works that are 11 therein shall be ³burned up. Seeing that these things are thus all to be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy living and godli-

ing the ⁵coming of the day of God, by reason of which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the ²elements shall melt with fervent heat? But, accord- 13

ing to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth
righteousness.

Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye 14
look for these things, give diligence that ye may be found in peace, without spot and blameless in his sight. And account 15 that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote unto you; as also in all 16
his epistles, speaking in them of these things; wherein are some things hard to be understood, which the ignorant and unstedfast wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

things beforehand, beware lest, being

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN

1 THAT which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we beheld, and our hands handled, concerning the ¹Word of life (and the life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and declare unto you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us); that which we have seen and heard declare we unto you also, that ye also may have fellowship with us: yea, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ: and these things we write, that ²our joy may be fulfilled. And this is the message which we have heard from him, and announce unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in the darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2 MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye may not sin. And if any man sin, we have an ³Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: and he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. And hereby know we that we know him, if we keep his commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him: but whoso keepeth his word, in him verily hath the love of God been perfected. Hereby know we that we are in him: he that saith he abideth in him ought himself also to walk even as he walked.

Beloved, no new commandment write I unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which ye heard. Again, a new commandment write I unto you, which thing is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light already shineth. He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in the darkness even until now. He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him. But he that hateth his brother is in the darkness, and walketh in the darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because the darkness hath blinded his eyes.

I write unto you, my little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. I write unto you, fathers, because ye know him which is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the evil one. ⁴I have written unto you, little children, because ye know the Father. ⁴I have written unto you, fathers, because ye know him which is from the beginning. ⁴I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the evil one. Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the vainglory of life, is not of the Father,

18 Little children, it is the last hour: and as ye heard that antichrist cometh, even now have there arisen many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last hour.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest ¹how that they all are not of us. And ye have an anointing from the

22 Who is the liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, even he that denieth the Father

23 and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: he that confesseth the Son hath the Father

25 the Son, and in the Father. And this is the promise which he promised ⁴us, even the

26 life eternal. These things have I written unto you concerning them that would

27 lead you astray. And as for you, the anointing which ye received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any one teach you; but as his anointing teacheth you concerning all things, ⁵and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught

28 you, ⁶ye abide in him. And now, my little children, abide in him; that, if he shall be manifested, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed ⁷before

29 him at his ⁸coming. If ye know that he is righteous, ⁹ye know that every one also that doeth righteousness is begotten of him.

3 BEHOLD what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God:

and such we are. For this cause the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we children ²of God, and it is not yet made manifest what we shall be. We know that, if ¹⁰he shall be manifested, we shall be like him; for we shall see him even as he is. And ³every one that hath this hope set on him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. Every one that doeth sin doeth also law- ⁴lessness; and sin is lawlessness. And ⁵we know that he was manifested to ¹¹take away sins; and in him is no sin. Whoso- ⁶ever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither ¹²knoweth him. My little children, let no ⁷man lead you astray: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous: he that doeth sin is of the devil; ⁸for the devil sinneth from the beginning. To this end was the Son of God manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. Whosoever is begotten of ⁹God doeth no sin, because his seed abideth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is begotten of God. In this ¹⁰the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. For this is the message which ye heard ¹¹from the beginning, that we should love one another: not as Cain was of ¹²the evil one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

Marvel not, brethren, if the world ¹³hateth you. We know that we have passed ¹⁴out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother ¹⁵is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. Hereby know we love, because he laid ¹⁶down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But ¹⁷whoso hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and shut-

teth up his compassion from him, how 18 doth the love of God abide in him? My little children, let us not love in word, neither with the tongue; but in deed and 19 truth. Hereby shall we know that we are of the truth, and shall ¹assure our heart 20 before him, whereinsoever our heart condemn us; because God is greater than 21 our heart, and knoweth all things. Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, we 22 have boldness toward God; and whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do the 23 things that are pleasing in his sight. And this is his commandment, that we should ²believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he 24 gave us commandment. And he that keepeth his commandments abideth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

4 BELOVED, believe not every spirit,
 but prove the spirits, whether they are of God: because many false prophets 2 are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesseth that Jesus Christ is 3 come in the flesh is of God: and every spirit which ³confesseth not Jesus is not of God: and this is the spirit of the antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it cometh; and now it is in the world
 4 already. Ye are of God, my little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you than he that 5 is in the world. They are of the world:
 therefore speak they as of the world,
 6 and the world heareth them. We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us;
 he who is not of God heareth us not. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth
 is begotten of God, and knoweth God.
 8 He that loveth not knoweth not God;
 9 for God is love. Herein was the love of God manifested ⁴in us, that God hath sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein 10 is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if 11

 God so loved us, we also ought to love
 one another. No man hath beheld God 12
 at any time: if we love one another, God
 abideth in us, and his love is perfected in us: hereby know we that we abide in 13
 him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. And we have beheld 14
 and bear witness that the Father hath sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. Whosoever shall confess that Je- 15 sus is the Son of God, God abideth in him, and he in God. And we know and 16 have believed the love which God hath ⁴in us. God is love; and he that abideth in love abideth in God, and God abideth in him. Herein is love made perfect with 17
 us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgement; because as he is, even so are we in this world. There is no fear 18
 in love: but perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath punishment; and he
 that feareth is not made perfect in love. We love, because he first loved us. 19
 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his 20
 brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth
 not his brother whom he hath seen, ⁵can-
 not love God whom he hath not seen.
 And this commandment have we from 21 him, that he who loveth God love his brother also.

5 WHOSOEVER believeth that Jesus is the Christ is begotten of God: and whosoever loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him. Here- 2 by we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and do his commandments. For this is the love of 3
 God, that we keep his commandments:
 and his commandments are not grievous.
 For whatsoever is begotten of God over- 4
 cometh the world: and this is the victory that hath overcome the world, even our faith. And who is he that overcometh 5
 the world, but he that believeth that hath not seen?

- 6 Jesus is the Son of God? This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not ¹with the water only, but ¹with the water and ¹with the blood.
- 7 And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, 8 because the Spirit is the truth. For there are three who bear witness, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and the 9 three agree in one. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for the witness of God is this, that he hath borne witness concerning 10 his Son. He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in him: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he hath not believed in the witness that God hath borne concerning his 11 Son. And the witness is this, that God gave unto us eternal life, and this life is 12 in his Son. He that hath the Son hath the life; he that hath not the Son of God hath not the life.
- 13 These things have I written unto you, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, even unto you that believe on the 14 name of the Son of God. And this is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he heareth us: and if we know that 15 he heareth us whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him. If any man see 16 his brother sinning a sin not unto death, ²he shall ask, and God will give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is ³a sin unto death: not concerning this do I say that he should make request. All unrighteousness is sin: and there is 17 ³a sin not unto death.

We know that whosoever is begotten 18 of God sinneth not; but he that was begotten of God keepeth ⁴him, and the evil one toucheth him not. We know that we 19 are of God, and the whole world lieth in the evil one. And we know that the Son 20 of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. My 21 little children, guard yourselves from idols.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF

JOHN

1 THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all they that know the
2 truth; for the truth's sake which abideth in us, and it shall be with us for ever:
3 Grace, mercy, peace shall be with us, from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.
4 I rejoice greatly that I have found certain of thy children walking in truth, even as we received commandment from 5 the Father. And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote to thee a new commandment, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one an-
6 other. And this is love, that we should walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, even as ye heard from the beginning, that ye should walk
7 in it. For many deceivers are gone forth into the world, even they that confess not that Jesus Christ cometh in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist. Look to yourselves, that ye ¹lose not the 8 things which ²we have wrought, but that ye receive a full reward. Whosoever ³goeth onward and abideth not in the teaching of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the teaching, the same hath both the Father and the Son. If any ¹⁰one cometh unto you, and bringeth not this teaching, receive him not into your house, and give him no greeting: for he ¹¹that giveth him greeting partaketh in his evil works.

Having many things to write unto you, ¹²I would not write them with paper and ink: but I hope to come unto you, and to speak face to face, that your joy may be fulfilled. The children of thine elect ¹³sister salute thee.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF

JOHN

1 THE elder unto Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth.
2 Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health, even
3 as thy soul prospereth. For I ⁴rejoiced greatly, when brethren came and bare witness unto thy truth, even as thou
4 walkest in truth. Greater ⁵joy have I none than ⁶this, to hear of my children walking in the truth.
5 Beloved, thou doest a faithful work in whatsoever thou doest toward them that are brethren and strangers withal; who ⁶bare witness to thy love before the church: whom thou wilt do well to set forward on their journey worthily of God: be-7 cause that for the sake of the Name they went forth, taking nothing of the Gen- tiles. We therefore ought to welcome ⁸such, that we may be fellow-workers with the truth.

 12 that doeth evil hath not seen God. Demetrius hath the witness of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, we also bear witness; and thou knowest that our witness is true.

I had many things to write unto thee, 13 but I am unwilling to write them to thee with ink and pen: but I hope shortly to 14 see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be unto thee. The friends salute thee. Salute the friends by name.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE

- 1 JUDAS, a ¹servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, ²to them that are called, beloved in God the Father, and kept for
 2 Jesus Christ: Mercy unto you and peace and love be multiplied.
 3 Beloved, while I was giving all diligence to write unto you of our common salvation, I was constrained to write unto you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in privily, even they who were of old set forth unto this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying ³our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.
 5 Now I desire to put you in remembrance, though ye know all things once for all, how that ⁴the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, ⁵afterward destroyed them that believed not.
 6 And angels which kept not their own principality, but left their proper habitation, he hath kept in everlasting bonds under darkness unto the judgement of the great day. Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them, having in like manner with these given themselves over to fornication, and gone after strange flesh, are set forth ⁶as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire. Yet in like manner these ⁸also in their dreamings defile the flesh, and set at nought dominion, and rail at ⁷dignities. But Michael the archangel, ⁹when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing judgement, but said, The Lord rebuke thee. But these rail at whatsoever things they ¹⁰know not: and what they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason, in these things are they ⁸destroyed. Woe ¹¹unto them! for they went in the way of Cain, and ⁹ran riotously in the error of Balaam for hire, and perished in the gainsaying of Korah. These are they ¹²who are ¹⁰hidden rocks in your love-feasts when they feast with you, shepherds that without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; wild waves of ¹³the sea, foaming out their own ¹¹shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness hath been reserved for ever.  16 spoken against him. These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaketh great swelling words), shewing respect of persons for the sake of advantage.

- 17 But ye, beloved, remember ye the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;
 18 how that they said to you, In the last time there shall be mockers, walking after

 17 in his strength. And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as one dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying, Fear
 18 not; I am the first and the last, and the Living one; and I ³was dead, and behold, I am alive ⁴for evermore, and I have the 19 keys of death and of Hades. Write therefore the things which thou sawest, and the things which are, and the things 20 which shall come to pass hereafter; the mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest ⁵in my right hand, and the seven golden ¹candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven ¹candlesticks are seven churches.

2 TO the angel of the church in Ephesus write;

These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, he that walketh in the midst of the seven golden
 2 ¹candlesticks: I know thy works, and thy toil and patience, and that thou canst not bear evil men, and didst try them which call themselves apostles, and they are not, and didst find them false; and 3 thou hast patience and didst bear for my name's sake, and hast not grown weary. But I have this against thee, that thou 4 didst leave thy first love. Remember 5 therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I come to thee, and will move thy ⁶candlestick out of its place, except thou repent. But this thou hast, that thou hatest the 6 works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. He that hath an ear, let him hear 7 what the Spirit saith to the churches. To him that overcometh, to him will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the ⁷Paradise of God.

And to the angel of the church in 8 Smyrna write;

These things saith the first and the last, which ³was dead, and lived again: I know thy tribulation, and thy poverty 9 (but thou art rich), and the ⁸blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and they are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. Fear not the things which thou 10 art about to suffer: behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; ⁹and ye shall have ¹⁰tribulation ten days. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life. He that hath an ear, let 11 him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write;

These things saith he that hath the sharp two-edged sword: I know where 13 thou dwellest, even where Satan's throne is: and thou holdest fast my name, and didst not deny my faith, even in the days ¹¹of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwelleth. But I have a few things against 14 thee, because thou hast there some that hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed

 16 Repent therefore; or else I come to thee quickly, and I will make war against 17 them with the sword of my mouth. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. To him that overcometh, to him will I give of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and upon the stone a new name written, which no one knoweth but he that receiveth it.

18 And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write;

These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like unto burnished brass:
 19 I know thy works, and thy love and faith and ministry and patience, and that thy 20 last works are more than the first. But I have this against thee, that thou sufferest ¹the woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess; and she teacheth and seduceth my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed 21 to idols. And I gave her time that she should repent; and she willeth not to 22 repent of her fornication. Behold, I do cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of ²her works.
 23 And I will kill her children with ³death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto each one of you according to your works. But to you I say, to the rest that are in Thyatira, as many as have not this teaching, which know not the deep things of Satan, as they say; I cast upon you none other burden.
 25 Howbeit that which ye have, hold fast
 26 till I come. And he that overcometh, and he that keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give authority over the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of ⁴iron, as the vessels of the potter are broken to shivers; as I also have received of my Father: and I will give him the morning star. He that hath an ear, 29 let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

3 AND to the angel of the church in Sardis write;

These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars: I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and thou art dead. Be 2 thou watchful, and stablish the things that remain, which were ready to die: for I have ⁵found no works of thine fulfilled before my God. Remember therefore 3 how thou hast received and didst hear; and keep it, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. But thou hast 4 a few names in Sardis which did not defile their garments: and they shall walk with me in white; for they are worthy. He that overcometh shall thus be arrayed 5 in white garments; and I will in no wise blot his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. He that hath an 6 ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

And to the angel of the church in 7 Philadelphia write;

These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and none shall shut, and that shutteth, and none openeth: I know 8 thy works (behold, I have ⁶set before thee a door opened, which none can shut), that thou hast a little power, and didst keep my word, and didst not deny my name. Behold, I give of the synagogue 9 of Satan, of them which say they are Jews, and they are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee. 14 And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write;

These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning 15 of the creation of God: I know thy works,
 that thou art neither cold nor hot: I 16 would thou wert cold or hot. So because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth.
 17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing;
 and knowest not that thou art the wretched one and miserable and poor and blind 18 and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me
 gold refined by fire, that thou mayest become rich; and white garments, that thou mayest clothe thyself, and that the shame of thy nakedness be not made manifest; and eyesalve to anoint thine 19 eyes, that thou mayest see. As many as I love, I reprove and chasten: be zealous 20 therefore, and repent. Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and 21 he with me. He that overcometh, I will give to him to sit down with me in my throne, as I also overcame, and sat down 22 with my Father in his throne. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit
 saith to the churches.

4 AFTER these things I saw, and behold, a door opened in heaven, and the first voice which I heard, a voice as of a trumpet speaking with me, one saying, Come up hither, and I will shew thee the things which must ²come to 2 pass hereafter. Straightway I was in the Spirit: and behold, there was a throne

set in heaven, and one sitting upon the throne; and he that sat was to look upon 3
 like a jasper stone and a sardius: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, like an emerald to look upon.
 And round about the throne were four 4
 and twenty thrones: and upon the thrones
I saw four and twenty elders sitting, arrayed in white garments; and on their heads crowns of gold. And out of the 5 throne proceed lightnings and voices and thunders. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God; and before 6
 the throne, as it were a glassy sea like unto crystal; and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. And the first creature was like 7
 a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face as of a man, and the fourth creature was like a flying eagle. And the four living 8 creatures, having each one of them six wings, are full of eyes round about and within: and they have no rest day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God, the Almighty, which was
 and which is and ³which is to come.
 And when the living creatures shall give 9
 glory and honour and thanks to him that sitteth on the throne, to him that liveth ⁴for ever and ever, the four and 10
 twenty elders shall fall down before him that sitteth on the throne, and shall worship him that liveth ⁴for ever and ever, and shall cast their crowns
 before the throne, saying, Worthy art 11
 thou, our Lord and our God, to receive
 the glory and the honour and the power:
 for thou didst create all things, and because of thy will they were, and were created.

5 AND I saw ⁵in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the back, close sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel 2 proclaiming with a great voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose
 the seals thereof? And no one in the 3 heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to 4 look thereon. And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open

 5 the book, or to look thereon: and one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion that is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, hath overcome, to open the book and the seven
 6 seals thereof. And I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the ¹seven Spirits of 7 God, sent forth into all the earth. And he came, and he ²taketh it out of the right
 8 hand of him that sat on the throne. And when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having each one a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of 9 the saints. And they sing a new song, saying, Worthy art thou to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and didst purchase unto God with thy blood men of every tribe, and 10 tongue, and people, and nation, and madest them to be unto our God a kingdom and priests; and they reign upon
 11 the earth. And I saw, and I heard a voice of many angels round about the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; saying with a great voice, Worthy is the Lamb that hath been slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and might, and honour, and glory, and blessing. And every 12 created thing which is in the heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and on the sea, and all things that are in them, heard I saying, Unto him that sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb, be the blessing, and the honour, and the glory, and the dominion, ³for ever and 13 ever. And the four living creatures said,

Amen. And the elders fell down and worshipped.

6 AND I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, Come⁴. And I ²saw, and behold, a white horse, and he that sat thereon had a bow; and there was given unto him a crown: and he came forth conquering, and to conquer.

And when he opened the second seal, ³I heard the second living creature saying, Come⁴. And another horse came ⁴forth, a red horse: and to him that sat thereon it was given to take ⁵peace from the earth, and that they should slay one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

And when he opened the third seal, ⁵I heard the third living creature saying, Come⁴. And I saw, and behold, a black horse; and he that sat thereon had a balance in his hand. And I heard as it ⁶were a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, A ⁶measure of wheat for a ⁷penny, and three measures of barley for a ⁷penny; and the oil and the wine hurt thou not.

And when he opened the fourth seal, ⁷I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, Come⁴. And I saw, and ⁸behold, a pale horse: and he that sat upon him, his name was Death; and Hades followed with him. And there was given unto them authority over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with famine, and with ⁸death, and by the wild beasts of the earth.

And when he opened the fifth seal, ⁹I saw underneath the altar the souls of them that had been slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: and they cried with a great ¹⁰voice, saying, How long, O Master, the holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? And there was given them ¹¹to each one a white robe; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little time, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, which should be killed even as they were, should ¹be fulfilled.

- 12 And I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the whole moon became as blood; and the stars of the heaven fell unto the earth, as a fig tree casteth her unripe figs, when she is shaken of a great wind. And the heaven was removed as a scroll when it is rolled up; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. And the kings of the earth, and the princes, and the ²chief captains, and the rich, and the strong, and every bondman and freeman, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains; and they say to the mountains and to the rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: for the great day of their wrath is come; and who is able to stand?

7 AFTER this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that no wind should blow on the earth, or on the sea, or upon any tree. And I saw another angel ascend from the sunrising, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a great voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we shall have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads. And I heard the number of them which were sealed, a hundred and forty and four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel.

- 5 Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand:
Of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand:
Of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand:
6 Of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

After these things I saw, and behold, 9 a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation, and of all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, arrayed in white robes, and palms in their hands; and they cry with a great 10 voice, saying, Salvation unto our God which sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb. And all the angels were standing 11 round about the throne, and about the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, saying, Amen: 12 ³Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God ⁴for ever and ever. Amen. And one of the elders 13 answered, saying unto me, These which are arrayed in the white robes, who are they, and whence came they? And I ⁵say 14 unto him, My lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which come out of the great tribulation, and they washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. There- 15 fore are they before the throne of God; and they serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall spread his tabernacle over them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst 16 any more; neither shall the sun strike upon them, nor any heat: for the Lamb 17 which is in the midst of the throne shall

8 AND when he opened the seventh seal, there followed a silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels which stand before God; and there were given unto them seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood ¹over the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should ²add it unto the prayers of all the saints upon the golden

4 altar which was before the throne. And the smoke of the incense, ³with the prayers of the saints, went up before God 5 out of the angel's hand. And the angel ⁴taketh the censer; and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and cast it ⁵upon the earth: and there followed thunders, and voices, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 And the first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast ⁵upon the earth: and the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the third part of the trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third

9 part of the sea became blood; and there died the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, even they that had life; and the third part of the ships was destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell from heaven a great star, burning as a torch, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of the waters; and the name of the star is called Wormwood; and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

And the fourth angel sounded, and 12 the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; that the third part of them should be darkened, and the day should not shine for the third part of it, and the night in like manner.

And I saw, and I heard ⁶an eagle, 13 flying in mid heaven, saying with a great voice, Woe, woe, woe, for them that dwell on the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, who are yet to sound.

9 AND the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from heaven fallen unto the earth: and there was given to him the key of the pit of the abyss. And he 2 opened the pit of the abyss; and there went up a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. And out of the 3 smoke came forth locusts upon the earth; and power was given them, as the scorpions of the earth have power. And it 4 was said unto them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only such men as have not the seal of God on their foreheads. And it was given them 5 that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when it striketh a man. And 6 in those days men shall seek death, and shall in no wise find it; and they shall desire to die, and death fleeth from them. And the ⁷shapes of the locusts were like 7 unto horses prepared for war; and upon their heads as it were crowns like unto gold, and their faces were as men's faces. And they had hair as the hair of women, 8 and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. And they had breastplates, as it were 9 breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots, of many horses rushing to war. And 10 they have tails like unto scorpions, and stings; and in their tails is their power to hurt men five months. They have 11

12 The first Woe is past: behold, there come yet two Woos hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard ²a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before God, one saying to the sixth angel, which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound at the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, that they should

16 kill the third part of men. And the number of the armies of the horsemen was twice ten thousand times ten thousand: I heard the number of them. And

17 thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates as of fire and of hyacinth and of brimstone: and the heads of the horses are as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths proceedeth fire and smoke and

18 brimstone. By these three plagues was the third part of men killed, by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone, which

19 proceeded out of their mouths. For the power of the horses is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails are like unto serpents, and have heads; and with

20 them they do hurt. And the rest of mankind, which were not killed with these plagues, repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship ³devils, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor 21 hear, nor walk: and they repented not of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

10 AND I saw another strong angel coming down out of heaven, arrayed with a cloud; and the rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire; and he had in his hand a little book open:

and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left upon the earth; and he cried ³with a great voice, as a lion roareth: and when he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices. And when the seven

4 thunders uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying, Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not. And the angel which I saw stand-

5 ing upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his right hand to heaven, and ⁶swore by him that liveth ⁴for ever and ever, who created the heaven and the things that are therein, and the earth and the things that are therein, ⁵and the sea and the things that are therein, that there shall be ⁶time no longer: but in the ⁷days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then is finished the mystery of God, according to the good tidings which he declared to his servants the prophets. And the voice ⁸which I heard from heaven, I heard it again speaking with me, and saying, Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel that standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. And I went unto ⁹the angel, saying unto him that he should give me the little book. And he saith unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but in thy mouth it shall be sweet as honey. And ¹⁰I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and when I had eaten it, my belly was made bitter. And ¹¹they say unto me, Thou must prophesy again ⁷over many peoples and nations and tongues and kings.

11 AND there was given me a reed like unto a rod: ⁸and one said, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. And the court which is without ²the temple ⁹leave without, and measure it not; for it hath been given unto the nations: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

- 3 And I will give unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth. These are the two olive trees and the two ¹candlesticks, standing before the Lord of the earth. And if any man desireth to hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man shall desire to hurt them, in this manner must he be killed. These have the power to shut the heaven, that it rain not during the days of their prophecy: and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to smite the earth with every plague, as often as they shall desire. And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that cometh up out of the abyss shall make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them.
- 8 And their ²dead bodies lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. And from among the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations do men look upon their ²dead bodies three days and a half, and suffer not their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. And they that dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and make merry; and they shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwell on the earth. And after the three days and a half the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which beheld them. And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they went up into heaven in the cloud; and their enemies beheld them. And in that hour there was a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell; and there were killed in the earthquake ³seven thousand persons: and the rest were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.
- 14 The second Woe is past: behold, the third Woe cometh quickly.
- 15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there followed great voices in heaven, and they said, The kingdom of the world is become the kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ: and he shall reign ⁴for ever and ever. And the four and twenty ¹⁶elders, which sit before God on their thrones, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, saying, We give thee ¹⁷thanks, O Lord God, the Almighty, which art and which wast; because thou hast taken thy great power, and didst reign. And the nations were wroth, and ¹⁸thy wrath came, and the time of the dead to be judged, and the time to give their reward to thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to them that fear thy name, the small and the great; and to destroy them that destroy the earth.

And there was opened the temple of ¹⁹God that is in heaven; and there was seen in his temple the ark of his ³covenant; and there followed lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, and great hail.

12 AND a great sign was seen in heaven; a woman arrayed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars; and she was with child: and she ²crieth out, travailling in birth, and in pain to be delivered. And there was seen ³another sign in heaven; and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his heads seven diadems. And his tail draweth the third ⁴part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was about to be delivered, that when she was delivered, he might devour her child. And ⁵she was delivered of a son, a man child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and unto his throne. And the ⁶woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that there they may nourish her a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

the dragon; and the dragon warred and 8 his angels; and they prevailed not, nei-9 ther was their place found any more in 10 heaven. And the great dragon was cast down, the old serpent, he that is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole ¹world; he was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down 11 with him. And I heard a great voice in heaven, saying, ²Now is come the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ:
 for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accuseth them before our

 him because of the blood of the Lamb,
 and because of the word of their testimony; and they loved not their life even vens, and ye that ³dwell in them. Woe for the earth and for the sea: because the devil is gone down unto you, having great wrath, knowing that he hath but a short time.

 14 And when the dragon saw that he was cast down to the earth, he persecuted
 the woman which brought forth the man child. And there were given to the woman the two wings of the great eagle,
 that she might fly into the wilderness
 unto her place, where she is nourished
 for a time, and times, and half a time, 15 from the face of the serpent. And the serpent cast out of his mouth after the woman water as a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the 16 stream. And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth,
 and swallowed up the river which the 17 dragon cast out of his mouth. And the dragon waxed wroth with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and hold the testi-18 mony of Jesus: and he stood upon the sand of the sea.

I saw one of his heads as though it had stroke was healed: and the whole earth

 wondered after the beast; and they wor-

 authority unto the beast; and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? and who is able to war
 with him? and there was given to him ⁵
 a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and there was given to him authority ⁶to continue forty and two months. And he opened his mouth for ⁷
 blasphemies against God, to blaspheme
 his name, and his tabernacle, even them that ⁸dwell in the heaven. ⁹And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and there

- 14 the earth in the sight of men. And he deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by reason of the signs which it was given him to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, who hath the stroke of the sword, and 15 lived. And it was given unto him to give breath to it, even to the image of the beast, ¹that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as should not worship the image of the 16 beast should be killed. And he causeth all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bond, that there be given them a mark on their
 17 right hand, or upon their forehead; and that no man should be able to buy or to sell, save he that hath the mark, even the name of the beast or the number of his 18 name. Here is wisdom. He that hath understanding, let him count the number of the beast; for it is the number of a man: and his number is ²Six hundred and sixty and six.

- 14 AND I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on the mount Zion, and with him a hundred and forty and four thousand, having his name, and the name of his Father, written on their
 2 foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and the voice which I heard was as the voice of
 3 harpers harping with their harps: and they sing as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders: and no man could learn the song save the hundred and forty and four thousand, even they that had been purchased out of the earth.
 4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were purchased from among men, to be the firstfruits
 5 unto God and unto the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no lie: they are without blemish.

And I saw another angel flying in mid heaven, having an eternal gospel to proclaim unto them that ³dwell on the earth, and unto every nation and tribe and tongue and people; and he saith with a ⁷great voice, Fear God, and give him glory; for the hour of his judgement is come: and worship him that made the heaven and the earth and sea and fountains of waters.

And another, a second angel, followed, ⁸saying, Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, which hath made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

And another angel, a third, followed ⁹them, saying with a great voice, If any man worshippeth the beast and his image, and receiveth a mark on his forehead, or upon his hand, he also shall ¹⁰drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is ⁴prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: and the smoke of their ¹¹torment goeth up ⁵for ever and ever; and they have no rest day and night, they that worship the beast and his image, and whoso receiveth the mark of his name. Here is the patience of the ¹²saints, they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

And I heard a voice from heaven saying, ¹³Write, Blessed are the dead which die ⁶in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; for their works follow with them.

And I saw, and behold, a white cloud; ¹⁴and on the cloud I saw one sitting like unto ⁷a son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. And another angel came ¹⁵unto him, crying with a great voice to him that sat on the cloud, Send forth thy sickle, and reap: for the hour to reap is come; for the harvest of the earth is ⁸over-ripe. the cloud cast his sickle upon the earth; and the earth was reaped.

- 17 And another angel came out from the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. And another angel came out from the altar, he that hath power over fire; and he called with a great voice to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Send forth thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. And the angel cast his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and cast it into the winepress, the great winepress, of the wrath of God. And the winepress was trodden without the city, and there came out blood from the winepress, even unto the bridles of the horses, as far as a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

15 AND I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having seven plagues, which are the last, for in them is finished the wrath of God.

- 2 And I saw as it were a glassy sea mingled with fire; and them that come victorious from the beast, and from his image, and from the number of his name, standing by the glassy sea, having harps of God. And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, O Lord God, the Almighty; righteous and true are thy ways, thou King of the ages. Who shall not fear, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy; for all the nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy righteous acts have been made manifest.

- 5 And after these things I saw, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: and there came out from the temple the seven angels that had the seven plagues, arrayed with precious stone, pure and bright, and girt about their breasts with golden girdles.
- 7 And one of the four living creatures gave unto the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever. And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and none was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels should be finished.

16 AND I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, Go ye, and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God into the earth.

And the first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth; and it became a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and which worshipped his image.

And the second poured out his bowl into the sea; and it became blood as of a dead man; and every living soul died, even the things that were in the sea.

And the third poured out his bowl into the rivers and the fountains of the waters; and it became blood. And I heard the angel of the waters saying, Righteous art thou, which art and which wast, thou Holy One, because thou didst thus judge: for they poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and blood hast thou given them to drink: they are worthy. And I heard the altar saying, Yea, O Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgements.

And the fourth poured out his bowl upon the sun; and it was given unto it to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with great heat: and they blasphemed the name of the God which hath the power over these plagues; and they repented not to give him glory.

And the fifth poured out his bowl upon the throne of the beast; and his kingdom was darkened; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores; and they repented not of their works.

And the sixth poured out his bowl upon the great river, the river Euphrates;

 13 kings that come from the sunrising. And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, as it were
 14 frogs: for they are spirits of ¹devils, working signs; which go forth ²unto the kings of the whole ³world, to gather them together unto the war of the great day
 15 of God, the Almighty. (Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk 16 naked, and they see his shame.) And they gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew Har-Magedon.
 17 And the seventh poured out his bowl upon the air; and there came forth a great voice out of the temple, from the 18 throne, saying, It is done: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunders; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since ⁴there were men upon the earth, so great an earthquake,
 19 so mighty. And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.
 20 And great hail, every stone about the weight of a talent, cometh down out of heaven upon men: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof is exceeding great.

17 AND there came one of the seven angels that had the seven bowls, and spake with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the judgement of the great harlot that sitteth upon many waters; with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and they that dwell in the earth were made drunken
 2 with the wine of her fornication. And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness: and I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet-coloured beast, ⁵full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and ⁶decked with gold and precious stone and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations, ⁷even the unclean things of her fornication, and upon her forehead a name written, ⁸MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman ⁶drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the ⁹martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I wondered with a great wonder. And the angel said ⁷unto me, Wherefore didst thou wonder? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and the ten horns. The beast that thou sawest was, and is ⁸not; and is about to come up out of the abyss, ¹⁰and to go into perdition. And they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, they whose name hath not been written ¹¹in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast, how that he was, and is not, and ¹²shall come. Here is the ¹³mind which hath ⁹wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth: and ¹⁴they are seven kings; the five are fallen, the one is, the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a little while. And the beast ¹¹that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goeth into perdition. And the ten horns that ¹²thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour. These have one mind, and ¹³they give their power and authority unto the beast. These shall war against the ¹⁴Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings; and they also shall overcome that are with him, called and chosen and faithful. And the woman whom thou sawest is the great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

18 AFTER these things I saw another angel coming down out of heaven, having great authority; and the earth was lightened with his glory. And he cried with a mighty voice, saying, Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and is become a habitation of devils, and a hold of every unclean spirit, and a hold of every unclean and hateful bird. For by the wine of the wrath of her fornication all the nations are fallen; and the kings of the earth committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth waxed rich by the power of her wantonness. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come forth, my people, out of her, that ye have no fellowship with her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues: for her sins have reached even unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. Render unto her even as she rendered, and double unto her the double according to her works: in the cup which she mingled, mingle unto her double. How much soever she glorified herself, and waxed wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall in no wise see mourning. Therefore in one day shall her plagues come, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire; for strong is the Lord

God which judged her. And the kings of the earth, who committed fornication and lived wantonly with her, shall weep and wail over her, when they look upon the smoke of her burning, standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no man buyeth their merchandise any more; merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stone, and pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet; and all thyne wood, and every vessel of ivory, and every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble; and cinnamon, and spice, and incense, and ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep; and merchandise of horses and chariots and slaves; and souls of men. And the fruits which thy soul lusted after are gone from thee, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous are perished from thee, and men shall find them no more at all. The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning; saying, Woe, woe, the great city, she that was arrayed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stone and pearl! for in one hour so great riches is made desolate. And every shipmaster, and every one that saileth any whither, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood afar off, and cried out as they looked upon the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like the great city? And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, Woe, woe, the great city, wherein were made rich all that had their ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate. - 21 And ¹a strong angel took up a stone as it were a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with a mighty fall shall Babylon, the great city, be cast down, and shall be found no more at all.
- 22 And the voice of harpers and minstrels and flute-players and trumpeters shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, ²of whatsoever craft, shall be found any more at all in thee; and the voice of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee; and the light of a lamp shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the princes of the earth; for with thy sorcery were all the nations deceived. And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all that have been slain upon the earth.

- 19 AFTER these things I heard as it were a great voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, Hallelujah; Salvation, and glory, and power, belong to our God: for true and righteous are his judgements; for he hath judged the great harlot, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and he hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.
- 3 And a second time they ³say, Hallelujah. And her smoke goeth up ⁴for ever and

- 5 throne, saying, Amen; Hallelujah. And a voice came forth from the throne, saying, Give praise to our God, all ye his servants, ye that fear him, the small and
- 6 the great. And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunders, saying, Hallelujah: for the Lord our God, the Almighty,
- 7 reigneth. Let us rejoice and be exceeding glad, and let us give the glory unto him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And it was given unto her that 8 she should array herself in fine linen, bright and pure: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. And he saith 9 unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are bidden to the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are true words of God. And I fell down 10 before his feet to worship him. And he saith unto me, See thou do it not: I am a fellow-servant with thee and with thy brethren that hold the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

And I saw the heaven opened; and 11 behold, a white horse, and he that sat thereon, ⁵called Faithful and True; and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. And his eyes are a flame of fire, and 12 upon his head are many diadems; and he hath a name written, which no one knoweth but he himself. And out of his 15 mouth proceedeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the ⁷winepress of the fierceness of the wrath of Almighty God. And I saw ¹an angel standing in the 17 sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in mid heaven, Come and be gathered together unto the great supper of God; that ye may eat the 18 flesh of kings, and the flesh of ⁸captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of them that sit thereon, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, and small and great.

 2 And he laid hold on the dragon, the old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, they went up over the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down ⁴out of heaven, and devoured them. And the devil that deceived

But for the fearful, and unbelieving, and abominable, and murderers, and fornicators, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, their part shall be in the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the second death.

9 And there came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, who were laden with the seven last plagues; and he spake with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the wife of the Lamb. And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and shewed me the holy city Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, having the glory of God: her light was like unto a stone most precious, as it were a jasper stone, clear as crystal: having a wall great and high; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: on the east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. And he that spake with me had for a measure a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. And the city lieth foursquare, and the length thereof is as great as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length and the breadth and the height thereof are equal. And he measured the wall thereof, a hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of an angel. And the building of the wall thereof was jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto pure glass. The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; each one of the several gates was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God the Almighty, and the Lamb, are the temple thereof. And the city hath no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine upon it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the lamp thereof is the Lamb. And the nations shall walk amidst the light thereof: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory into it. And the gates thereof shall in no wise be shut by day (for there shall be no night there): and they shall bring the glory and the honour of the nations into it: and there shall in no wise enter into it anything unclean, or he that maketh an abomination and a lie: but only they which are written in the Lamb's book of life. And he shewed me a river of water of life, bright as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb, in the midst of the street thereof. And on this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve manner of fruits, yielding its fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. And there shall be no curse any more: and the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be therein: and his servants shall do him service; and they shall see his face; and his name shall be on their foreheads. And there shall be no light of lamp, neither light of sun; for the Lord God shall give them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

- 6 And he said unto me, These words are faithful and true: and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly come to pass. And behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he that keepeth the words of the prophecy of this book.
- 8 And I John am he that heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.
- 9 And he saith unto me, See thou do it not: I am a fellow-servant with thee and with thy brethren the prophets, and with them which keep the words of this book: worship God.
- 10 And he saith unto me, Seal not up the words of the prophecy of this book; for the time is at hand. He that is unrighteous, let him do unrighteousness ¹still: and he that is filthy, let him be made filthy ¹still: and he that is righteous, let him do righteousness ¹still: and he that is holy, let him be made holy ¹still. Behold, I come quickly; and my ²reward is with me, to render to each man according as his work is. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end. Blessed are they that wash their robes, that they may have ³the right to come to the tree of life, and may enter in by the ⁴gates into the city. Without are the dogs, ¹⁵and the sorcerers, and the fornicators, and the murderers, and the idolaters, and every one that loveth and ⁵maketh a lie.

I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify ¹⁶unto you these things ⁶for the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright, the morning star.

⁷And the Spirit and the bride say, ¹⁷Come. And he that heareth, let him say, Come. And he that is athirst, let him come: he that will, let him take the water of life freely.

I testify unto every man that heareth ¹⁸the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add ⁸unto them, God shall add ⁸unto him the plagues which are written in this book: and if any man ¹⁹shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part from the tree of life, and out of the holy city, ⁹which are written in this book.

He which testifieth these things saith, ²⁰Yea: I come quickly. Amen: come, Lord Jesus.

The grace of the Lord Jesus ¹⁰be ¹¹with ²¹the saints. Amen.
